Can You Spare A Dime For A Canal Owner?

By Harry Browne
Editor, Freedom Magazine

Say buddy, can you spare a dime?
I want you to know I'm not really poor — just down on my luck lately. You see, they're bustin' up my canal — and my own boys won't stop 'em. Maybe you've heard about the Panama Canal — it's been in the news lately.

I guess I'd better introduce myself before I tell you my tale of woe. My name's Uncle Sam and I...

What's that you say? It's a silly name? I guess that's true. There's a time when I'd have popped anybody who said that — but those days have long since passed. The boys in Washington who handle my affairs have torn me down so I seem to have lost the courage to stand up for what's mine.

Remember Me?
Take this canal thing, for instance. You know, it was me who helped the poor people of Panama get rid of the Colombians who owned them and made it tough for them.

But you wanna know something? It sure don't pay sometimes to be decent. They were so grateful then they'd have been tickled to give me a canal. But did I take advantage of them? Nostree! I built and paid for the canal myself.

Then I signed a lease with Panama and paid 'em rent every year since then. I stuck to the bargain — even when I'd have liked not to. But despite my kindness, the Panamanians started this flag-raising fuss three years ago.

And the boys I got handling my affairs in Washington don't seem to understand anything about business, human nature, or property. When the riots started, all they wanna do is "negotiate" and "conciliate" (I think that means "give in").

Things Changed
They sit there in Washington, watching the Communist outlaws stealing everybody's property, including ours, and all they wanna do is "negotiate" and "conciliate." They absolutely refuse to put their foot down.

Like six years ago — they saw that guy Nasser steal the Suez Canal from the people that owned it. And the Washington boys actually took credit for stopping the owners from getting their property back. Well, that should have been the signal for me to find new managers — before my canal gets it too. But I'm a softie so I waited. So they stole my tin mines in Bolivia, took my sugar holdings in Cuba — and now they're gonna get my canal, you just watch.

Even the President of Panama and my Secretary of State admit the Communist are behind the latest canal fuss; but all they're gonna do about it is "negotiate" and "conciliate" (that means "give in").

Sure Cure
What's that you ask? What should they do? I'll tell you — they should tell 'em in no uncertain terms that the canal's our property and we won't tolerate any further backtalk.

Then they should tell those Communists everywhere to stay out of our business; and they should break off relations with every Communist country. Without our help, the Reds can't last six months — no Communist country could — and then they can't cause us any more trouble anywhere.

That's what they ought to do. But I seem to be havin' a tough time even reaching my own boys in Washington. So I guess we're gonna lose that canal.

Well, that's my story. Now about that dime...

Correction

Through one of those oversights that seem to have to happen, last week we inadvertently put the name of J. H. McDorman, candidate for Sheriff of Coleman County, under the heading of Tax-Assessor-Collector in the Political Announcement column, which appears on page four each week. A front page article announced that McDorman was a candidate for the office of Sheriff.

Representative Ben Barnes of De Leon

Representative Ben Barnes Seeks Re-election To State Legislature

State Representative Ben Barnes of DeLeon announced today for re-election to the Texas Legislature, where he represents the counties of Brown, Coleman, Comanche and Runnels.

Although serving only his second term in the Legislature, Rep. Barnes is already established as one of the top leaders of Texas state government.

For example, the Houston Chronicle recently described him as the "floor whip for both Governor Connally and House Speaker Tunnell." The Amarillo Daily News referred to him as the "unofficial link between the House and Governor Connally." The Fort Worth Star-Telegram tabbed him "one of the workhorses of the Texas House." And the San Angelo Standard-Times said "those close to the political situation declare Ben Barnes is destined for a high place in Texas affairs."

His popularity, both outside and inside his home district, was very evident in December, when a "Ben Barnes Appreciation Dinner" was held at Brownwood. It was first planned for a hotel room, then moved to Brownwood's new coliseum as the reservation list lengthened. Even in the coliseum, however, many people had to be turned away as the dinner crowd overflowed.

Among those who came to Brownwood to help honor Rep. Barnes were House Speaker Byron Tunnell, who said "Ben is my right hand in the Legislature," and Lieutenant Governor Preston Smith, who said "Ben has shown outstanding leadership and devotion to duty."

Governor Connally, who was still recovering from an assassin's bullet, talked to the appreciation group via bedside telephone, saying that Rep. Barnes is a "young statesman destined to a distinguished career in his district, his state, and his nation."

Also speaking to the group by telephone was State Attorney General Waggoner Carr, who was in Washington. He called Rep. Barnes "completely dedicated to the high principles of government."

Many people in Austin think it incredible that Rep. Barnes has managed to reach such an influential position in only three years at the State Capitol. One possible explanation is that Rep. Barnes follows the late-to-bed and early-to-rise philosophy. No doubt his tremendous energy springs from his relative youth (26) and an energetic wife the former Marth Morgan of DeLeon.

As chairman of the House Rules Committee — certainly one of the top committees in Legislature — Rep. Barnes undertook a personnel job that is matched only in the larger companies. Among other things, it calls for supervising the hiring and work of more than 500 employees who work at the State Capitol during sessions of the Legislature.

DEATHS

Everett Hickman Buried Friday

Funeral services for Everett M. Hickman, 70, were held in the Stevens Memorial Chapel at 3:30 p. m. Friday, January 24. Mr. Hickman died in the Santa Anna Hospital about 3:45 a. m. Thursday, after a lengthy illness.

Rev. Raymond Jones, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was officiating minister. Burial was in the Santa Anna Cemetery.

Mr. Hickman was born in Falls County, Texas, July 22, 1893, and moved to Coleman County 67 years ago. He and Miss Allie Green were married in Coleman May 27, 1912. He was a retired farmer and rancher and a member of the Baptist Church. He was a longtime member of the Woodmen of the World.

Survivors include his wife of Santa Anna; and two sisters, Mrs. Roy Freeman of Coleman and Mrs. Emzy Pieratt of Lubbock.

Time Is Short To Qualify To Vote This Year

Time is running out! That is for those who intend to vote in the elections that will be held this year, and have not paid their poll tax as yet. In order to qualify to vote in all the elections this year, you must get your poll tax paid not later than January 31, which is Friday.

With the adoption by South Dakota last week, of the amendment to the National Constitution to do away with the poll tax as a requirement for voting, a person will not have to pay the tax for the right to vote for United States offices, which are the President, Vice President, U. S. Senator and U. S. Congressman. However, you will have to have a paid poll tax in order to vote in the City or School elections which will be held in April and for everyone on the first and second primary ballots with the exception of the U. S. Senator and Congressman. In order to vote for these two places, if you do not have a paid poll tax, you must get one that will be stamped "NOT PAID."

When the Liberal attorney from Houston, Don Yarborough, announced he would seek the office of Governor of Texas, he likely opened the door to a hot political campaign during the spring and early summer months. Everyone will want to vote in the governor's race — and in order to do so you must have a paid poll tax receipt.

It appears a hot race is developing in the race for County Sheriff, and certainly everyone will want to participate in the voting in that race. But you must have a paid poll tax receipt in order to do so.

As we said at the beginning, Time is running out! Get your poll tax paid before the deadline — Friday, January 31.

Band Boosters To Meet February 6th

The Santa Anna Band Boosters Club will meet Thursday, February 6, at 7:30 p. m. in the Band Hall. All band parents are urged to attend. Some very important business is to be discussed.

BADLY DAMAGED

The Talley Sinclair Service Station suffered considerable damage about 5:15 p. m. Friday of last week, when Mrs. Ross Kelley was attempting to enter the station. She apparently missed the driveway and hit the large post in front of the building. The gasoline pump just behind the post was knocked loose of its foundation. The air and water outlets were also severed. The car did not appear to have suffered a great amount of damage and Mrs. Kelley did not appear to be seriously injured, but was considerably shaken up.

Linda Pittard Honored at Fort Worth Stock Show

Linda Pittard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Pittard, was one of 40 FHA and 4-H Club girls and FFA and 4-H Club boys honored by The Sears-Roebuck Foundation at the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show Friday night of last week. She was accompanied by her sponsor, Mrs. Winnie McQueen and Mrs. Nallan, Rising Star sponsor and Sharon Donham, also of Rising Star, who was honored along with Miss Pittard.

Miss Pittard is vice president of Area IV of the Texas FHA organization. Miss Donham is 2nd vice president.

The occasion was the fourth annual Rural Youth Achievement banquet, sponsored by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation and the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show. James T. Griffin, president of the Sears-Roebuck Foundation was the principal speaker. The banquet was held in the Texas Hotel.

Griffin praised the 40 youths as "being special people God maybe gave a little more talent." He added, "It's a badge to wear with pride and with a responsibility that will enable you to be our leaders of tomorrow."

The 40 youths, representing about 200,000 Future Farmers, Future Homemakers and 4-H Club members in Texas, were presented special guest badges and tickets to Saturday's rodeo.

There were 49 steers in the class. Another one of his steers took 12th place. The third place steer was bred by James Allen of Santa Anna.

State Capital NEWS

Austin, Tex. — Capitol talk is centering around Texas' new double-standard for voter qualification.

There's a lot of speculation and some concern in political circles.

Ratification by South Dakota will place into effect a Federal constitutional amendment abolishing the poll tax as a requirement for voting in future federal elections:

1. Texans who want to vote for state and local, as well as federal officials, still must have poll tax receipts or appropriate exemptions.

2. Those who are content to vote for president, vice president, U. S. senator and Congressman only, won't have to pay. But still they must get a free poll tax receipt from their tax collector.

The new "registration" requirement for federal elections takes effect after the U. S. General Services Administrator certifies that the amendment is officially part of the federal constitution.

Thirty days will be allowed voters, after the amendment goes into effect to obtain the special receipts stamped "poll tax not paid." These "tickets" admit one to vote in federal elections. After this year, they must be obtained during the regular poll tax period of October 1-January 31.

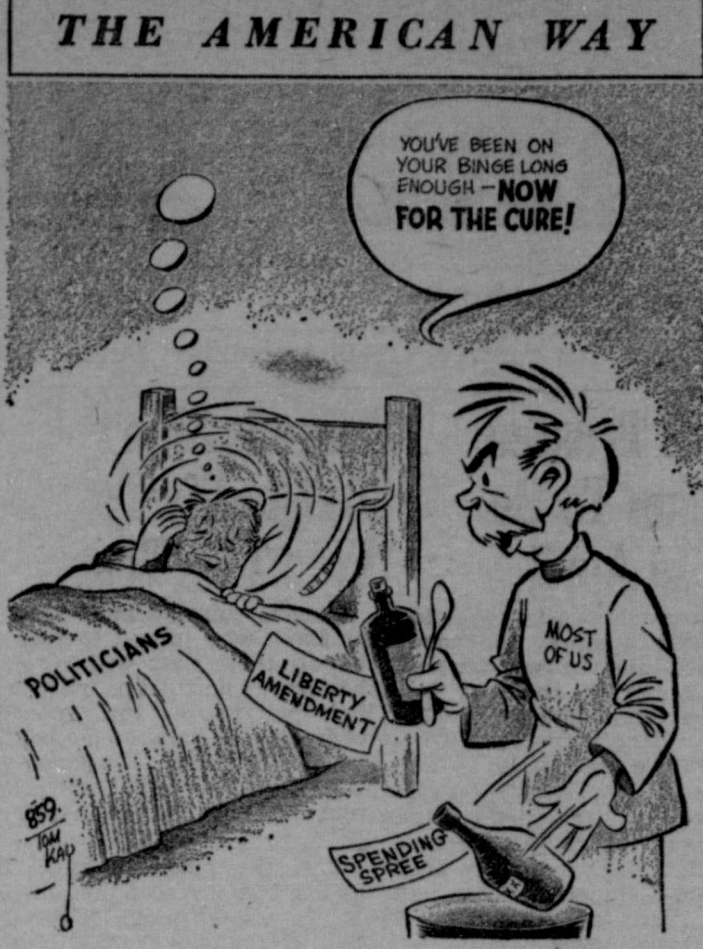

For tax collectors and election officials these additional headaches will be presented:

Separate poll lists must be compiled for those who have paid the poll tax and those who have not; non-paying voters must get a ballot containing only the offices and propositions which they are eligible to vote on; all propositions except federal offices must be "locked out" on voting machines; and election returns must show separately those voting on free receipts.

Legal experts think the state law passed in anticipation of the federal amendment's ratification takes care of most emergencies and will prevent chaos, if not confusion. Detailed instructions soon will be sent to county tax collectors by Secretary of State Crawford Martin.

Gov. John Connally, meanwhile, warned Texans that failure to pay the poll tax commits them to "only half a vote in the 1964 elections." Connally joined groups on all sides of the political fences in the final week's campaign to pump up lagging payments.

CONGRESSIONAL RACES UNDISTURBED
Governor Connally antici-

Proven Time-Tested Tonic

pates no disruption in congressional district races this year, since the U. S. Supreme Court recessed until February 17 without taking action on pending redistricting cases.

Filing deadline for Texas primaries is February 3. Connally and other state officials do not think the high court will interfere with election machinery already in progress.

Last October a Houston federal court held Texas congressional district boundaries unconstitutional since they are not based on equal population.

Republicans brought the suit seeking to recarve the districts in the interest of metropolitan areas. The Houston decision, which has since been stayed pending the state's appeal, ordered all 23 congressmen to run statewide unless the districts are equalized on the basis of population.

APPOINTMENT ANNOUNCED
Former Secretary of State Tom Reavley of Austin was named by Governor Connally as judge of the newly-created 167th district court of Travis County which goes into operation on June 1.

Among other recent appointments by the governor are:
Dr. John J. McKetta Jr., dean of the University of Texas College of Engineering, to serve on the Southern Interstate Nuclear Board.

Judge Victor H. Lindsey, 72nd District Court, Lubbock, as presiding judge for the Ninth Administrative District, to succeed the late Judge Luther Gribble of Childress.

C. E. Knolle, Jim Wells County dairyman, as chairman of the Texas Animal Health Commission, succeeding Clayton Puckett of Fort Stockton who remains on the commission.

John M. Stemmons of Dallas, re-appointed as a director of the Dallas County Flood Control District.

INVESTIGATION CONTINUING
A half dozen state investigators are looking into activities of Corpus Christi promoter Paul Amos Sandblom, who is charged with dealing in unregistered securities.

Additional charges may be filed against the South Texas financier, according to State Securities Commission William King. He has four agents combing the tangled financial affairs of Sandblom, 39. And the state auditor has assigned two more investigators.

A court-appointed receiver of the bankrupt promoter's estate estimates he took in over $25,000,000 but now has assets of only $27,000.

TEXAS COURTS
Court of Criminal Appeals has ordered new trials for two men who had served a total of 43 years in Texas prisons.

Decision was in line with a recent Supreme Court ruling that all indigent persons accused of crimes are entitled to court-appointed counsel. Texas law has required designation of such counsel only in capital cases. Several similar appeals already are before the court here.

State Supreme Court heard arguments as to whether the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission can prevent use of nets and seines in Galveston, Trinity, East and West Bays, in view of a 1957 law apparently permitting use of trammel nets there.

Lower courts have held for fishermen opposing a 1949 commission order against netting.

Supreme Court also agreed to permit a coastal hospital district to request clarification of a state constitutional amendment authorizing such districts to be created by statute. Sweeney Hospital District wants to determine if citizens voting on district bonds have to render personal property for taxation.

Three contempt of legislature cases growing out of investigation of Southwest Conference basketball point-fixing allegations and another arising from slant hole oil probes were postponed by an Austin district court until March.

Texas Civil Judicial Council reported that about two-thirds of the nearly 200 State district judges in Texas receive salary supplements from County governments in addition to their $12,000 annual pay from the state.

Supplements range from $600 a year in some rural areas to $8,000 in Harris County, where district judges make $20,000 a year.

WATER HEARINGS PUT OFF
Hearings on four Brazos River watershed reservoir proposals have been delayed by Texas Water Commission until March 23 to await additional engineering studies.

Projects are: Proctor Reservoir on the Leon River near Comanche; Belton Reservoir on the Leon River in Bell County; Stillhouse Hollow Reservoir on the Lampasas River in Bell County; and Somerville Reservoir on Yegua Creek in Washington County.

Commission agreed to permit diversion of 600 acre feet of water a year for the city of Hamilton from the Proctor Reservoir.

CANDIDATES FILING
With the filing deadline closing in, most statewide incumbents (and some of their opponents) have announced their election plans.

Among those whose hats are in the ring are: Governor Connally (and his GOP opponent C. G. Weakley Jr. of Dallas); Lt. Gov. Preston Smith (opposed by Albert Fuentes Jr. of San Antonio and Republican Horace Houston of Dallas); Agriculture Commissioner John C. White (opposed by Millard Shivers of Waco); State Treasurer Jesse James; Comptroller Robert Calvert; Railroad Commissioner Jim C. Langdon; Supreme Court Associate Justice Ruel C. Walker; Supreme Court Associate Justice Robert W. Hamilton; and Court of Criminal Appeals

Presiding Judge K. K. Woodley. Also: Democrat John Van Cronkhite and Republicans George Bush, Dr. Milton Davis and Dr. Robert Morris, all of whom want to dethrone U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough who preferred to file late for re-election.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr is another who chose to put off announcing his re-election plans until near deadline.

SHORT SNORTS
Benton Musslewhite of Lufkin announced his candidacy for congress, opposing Congressman John Dowdy of Athens in the Democratic primary.

Thomas Rote of San Antonio will run for the Republican congressional nomination against John O'Connell, both to take on Congressman Henry B. Gonzales in November.

State Reps. Malcolm McGregor of El Paso and George Cook of Odessa will contest for the Democratic nomination against GOP Congressman Ed Foreman, Odessa.

A new Laredo school, United High School, is being praised by civil defense officials. It is one of the first underground schools in the nation constructed solely with local funds — and was constructed at lower cost than standard structures.

Governor Connally may visit Washington after making speech to North American paper industry representatives in New York on February 25.

State Board of Education set a February 8 hearing on the American Civil Liberties Union's appeal from a Houston School board loyalty oath requirement for users of School buildings after Education Commissioner Dr. J. W. Edgar held the board had authority to exact the oath.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr reports his office handled a record number of cases in 1963 — disposed of 3,389 law suits (won 2,638) and filed 3,288 more.

World Is Being Changed by Man

For a dynamic society such as ours to survive it must be able to maintain its labor force, says Reagan Brown, sociologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

To accomplish this it must replace persons who die or become unable to work, and teach young people to fill a useful place in society, he says.

The United States is doing well in the replacement of personnel, with a rate of 1.8 percent a year, according to Brown. This rate is high for an industrial nation but a significant factor in this picture is the age distribution of these replacements.

The sociologist points out that over half of the increase in the nation's population between 1960 and 1970 will occur among people under 18 years of age or over 65. The number of people between the ages of 35 and 44 will decline slightly as will their proportion to the whole, says Brown. This means there will be more dependents to care for and fewer people of the productive ages to care for them.

In the task of teaching young people to be useful citizens, our nation is not faring so well, explains Brown. Today it is difficult to earn a good living with only an elementary education. Many young boys and girls with limited training, especially those of lower I. Q.'s, may never learn to do useful work, he says.

Not only is the young person of low ability being neglected, but the exceptionally gifted youth is not getting proper training either, says Brown. Just as the slow student needs special attention, so does the gifted student.

To be able to produce a new "crop" of useful, well educated people to meet the labor demands of our society we must place greater emphasis on both groups, he says.

The Upper Room

Read I Corinthians 3:10-17
Grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. (II Peter 3:18.)

The writer of II Peter exhorted those to whom he was writing to "grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." He knew it was gloriously possible for men and women like ourselves, imperfect though we are, to become Christlike in aim, desire, and purpose.

The Apostle Paul did not become a perfect Christian the moment he heard Christ speak to him on the road to Damascus. No, that was only the beginning. He grew into the Christlike man he became. Day by day, he lived in close fellowship with his Lord, and the result was that he became more and more like Him.

"The measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ" is not achieved in a moment; it is a process of growth and development. If we live with Christ, we grow like Him. He gives us power to become what He wants us to be — people who are like Him in all our ways.

PRAYER:
Eternal God, so guide us in daily life that all we do may contribute to our growth in Christlikeness. Moment by moment may we become different men and women; different because we are becoming more like Thee; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
No one can stand still who lives in daily fellowship with the Son of God.

Training Opportunities In Civil Defense

A study of radioactive fallout and how to minimize or avoid its deadly effects can be reassuring to families, says Bobby J. Riney.

Miss Riney, rural civil defense specialist with the Agricultural Extension Service, stresses that there are many educational programs or training opportunities in civil defense available to family members.

"These programs are geared to a basic, thorough understanding of radioactivity and fallout," the specialist explains.

Most of the programs are free to the public and are offered throughout the state. The Texas Education Agency sponsors the Civil Defense Adult Education Course through the public schools, and State Department of Health sponsors the Medical Self-Help Course through local medical societies. The Agricultural Extension Service is involved in an educational effort at both the state and local level. Courses in shelter management, radiological defense and other defense areas are offered by the recently organized University Extension Civil Defense Program of the Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service.

Additional information about civil defense training opportunities may be obtained from county Extension Service agents or by writing directly to the Extension rural civil defense specialists at Texas A&M University.

INFORMATION FOR VETERANS Questions & Answers

Q. For years, the VA deducted my monthly insurance premium payments from my disability compensation payments. However, my compensation has been reduced and will not cover the insurance payments. Will the VA now take my compensation and let me mail them the balance due?

A. No, this cannot be done. Since your compensation will no longer cover your insurance premiums, you will have to pay the total insurance premium due.

Q. I am eligible for educational benefits under the so-called Korea GI Bill. How long have I to take advantage of this benefit?

A. Only a year left. The educational program under the Korean GI Bill comes to a close on January 31, 1965. Veterans with service-connected disabilities take their training under another program.

Q. Do eligible war orphans have a deadline by which they must have started on their educational program?

A. No. No deadline except their own age. You may begin school at any time as long as you are between 18 and 23 years of age. In certain circumstances, it is possible to begin before 18 and continue after 23. See any VA office for details.

Q. Are "peacetime" veterans entitled to hospital care?

A. Yes, but only if they were discharged for a line-of-duty disability or if they are receiving compensation for a service-connected disability.

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D.
Commissioner of Health

Austin — "An lone man's companion... a sad man's cordial... and a chilly man's fire... there's no herb like unto it under the canopy of heaven."

That's James Russell Lowell's personal reflections toward tobacco or cigarettes.

But medical science points out some disconcerting parallels of smoking to health.

With this in mind, the Division of Cancer and Heart of the Texas State Department of Health is determined that today's generation should have the facts when confronted with the decision of smoke or not to smoke.

A first and basic point is that smoking is a habit — similar to an addiction. "The habitual use of tobacco," according to the recent report to the Surgeon General by the Advisory Committee, is related primarily to psychological and social drives, reinforced and perpetuated by the pharmacological actions of nicotine on the central nervous system..."

Secondly, teenagers should be aware of the relationship between smoking and health.

Lung cancer, heart and circulatory diseases are linked to the smoking habit. And statistics show that these diseases increase in proportion to the number of cigarettes smoked per day.

Teenagers are challenged to add it all up. A smoke lasts about six minutes, but cuts ten minutes off your lifetime.

Teenagers are further advised that the habit decreases physical endurance and ability, slows thinking processes and discolors fingers and teeth.

Inevitably, the question arises... why do teenagers start smoking anyway?

Teenagers say, according to recent studies, they are lured by the persuasive voice of advertisers. They also start because the gang does it, in search of security and stability and in imitation of people they admire.

Parental example appears to be an important contributing example. When both parents smoke, a teenager stands a 40 percent chance of taking up the habit. But when neither parent smokes, the teenager stands only a 22 percent chance of starting.

Today's teenager will make his own decision to form or reject the habit. But he and his generation will have the facts, as well as the myth of the TV commercial, as a bulwark for an adult decision.

Record Number of Cases Handled By Atty. Gen. Office

Attorney General Waggoner Carr today released figures for the year of 1963 which reflected an all-time record in number of cases handled in a one year period.

The office disposed of 3,389 law suits for the period of January 1 through December 31, a 69% increase over the preceding year when 1,998 cases were closed. Of the record number of cases, Carr's office won 2,638, lost 122 and 629 were disposed of in some other manner.

The Attorney General also pointed out that a record number of cases, 3,288, were filed during the same period which named the State as a party. This figure represented a 41% increase over 1962 when 1,998 cases were filed.

S. A. Gin Asks Cooperation of Water Users

The Santa Anna Co-op Gin has for years maintained a water tap for use of friends and customers. Lots of folks haul their water from this tap that has been kept in operation night and day.

Pierre Rowe, manager of the gin, said the water tap has been left running lots of times. Sometimes it will run for hours before it is discovered, and sometimes it will run all night before it is discovered.

Mr. Rowe said that unless those who use this free service cut the water off when their water tanks are full, the practice will be discontinued.

This is a service that is available nowhere else in this area. Those who use the service are requested to take the few seconds necessary to see that the water is cut off before they leave it.

Rowe said this action was being taken for several reasons. First and foremost, it causes a big mess on the gin yard. During freezing weather, it makes the yard so slippery that no one can move around on the yard and during ginning season, the mess on the yard delays the ginning process. It also increases the water bill to a tremendous proportion.

The cooperation of all who use this service is requested.

County Reaches 77.7% of Savings Bond Goal for 1963

December E and H Savings Bonds sales in Coleman County totaled $17,935 according to Mr. Robert I. Bowen Jr., Chairman of the Coleman County Savings Bonds Committee. This figure represents 77.7% of the 1963 sales goal.

Savings Bonds sales in Texas for 1963 totaled $145,334,910 which represents 96.5 % of the state goal of $150,600,000. This is an increase of 1.5% over 1962 sales.

"I was happy to note the sales increase during 1963 over sales in 1962 and feel confident it was a direct result of the wonderful support given by bond volunteers, newspapers, radio & TV stations, organizations, and others. The Texas savings Bonds Committee salutes these groups for their patriotic support of the Bond program," Chairman Bowen said.

PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATION REPORTS ACTIVE YEAR IN 1963

COLEMAN - (Special) - The Coleman Production Credit Association, now observing its 30th anniversary as an agricultural financing institution, loaned a total of $6,974,787 in 1963 to its farmer and rancher stockholder-borrowers in a six-county area of West Central Texas.

In a year-end report of activities, General Manager J. C. Marshall forecast a problem year for agriculture in his area. "It is very dry, and prices remain very low," he said. "Our grain needs rain. It will be tough unless we get some rain and better prices."

The Coleman Production Credit Association is owned and operated in its entirety by 631 farmer and rancher stockholder-borrowers in Brown, Callahan, Coleman, Concho, Runnels and Taylor counties. Association assets total $3,775,630 and net worth is $797,802.

The association was chartered on January 2, 1934, and since that date has loaned more than $114,640,000 to farmers and ranchers in its territory.

"We have but one reason for our existence," Marshall explained, "and that is to provide a dependable and adequate source of agricultural credit at the lowest possible cost." The 36 associations serving all 254 Texas counties receive their loan funds through the monthly sale of debentures on the nation's commercial money market by the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, discount agency for the Texas associations.

Although original capital for the associations was supplied by the federal government, Marshall explained, by 1949 all 36 Texas associations had retired all federal funds and association capital became wholly owned by association stockholders. "At no time have federal funds been used for loan purposes," he emphasized. "We compete for loan funds at the lowest possible interest rates each month on the nation's commercial money market through the sale of our short-term debentures."

In their 30-year history the 36 Texas PCAs, all home-owned and operated, have provided more than $3 billion in credit to the state's farmers, ranchers and dairymen.

Serving on the Coleman Production Credit Association's board of directors, all active in farming and ranching, are President S. P. Horne of Coleman, Vice President Ernest T. Pitzer of Abilene, G. W. Jenkins of Melvin, Wade Carter of Ballinger and Amos Porter of Blanket. Offices are operated in Coleman, Brownwood, Ballinger and Abilene. Personnel includes General Manager Marshall, As-

Pool Gets Governor's Support On National Guadalupe Park

Washington, January 23. - Rep. Joe Pool, author of the bill to create the Guadalupe Mountains National Park, said today that Governor John Connally has given official backing to the proposal.

"Governor Connally has assured the Department of Interior that Texas concurs in plans for a national rather than a state park at Guadalupe," Pool said. "The Governor explained that Texas is not in a position to undertake the development of a park at Guadalupe but said he felt that the interests of the people of Texas as well as of the rest of the nation would be served by prompt action on the measure to create Guadalupe Mountains National Park."

"I welcome this cooperation from Governor Connally and have assured him that as Congressman at Large from Texas, I shall work to serve the interest of my state through prompt passage of this bill."

Visitors in the L. R. Bilbrey home during the weekend were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Joe Hodges and daughters, Tressia and Carolyn of Coleman; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw of San Saba; Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Hodges of Girard, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Bilbrey of Abilene.

Mr. S. H. W. Floyd and family of Seymour were here Sunday, for a medical check up of David Floyd, injured in an auto accident south of town recently. While here they visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gregg and John Wayford.

Mr. Della Alexander of Lometa and daughters, Mrs. Otha Stevens and Mrs. Bill Price, were visiting friends in Santa Anna Thursday of last week.

It is so far from El Paso to Austin, Tex., that an early-day senator, traveling with a wagon train for safety against the Indians, did not reach Austin until the legislature, had met, transacted all the business and adjourned.

FACTS About Voting This Year

Concerning the new development in the abolishment of the poll tax as a requirement for voting for federal posts in future elections, it is explained that towns under 10,000 population come under a separate ruling, and thus the following rules apply for voters in this county.

IF YOU HOLD A POLL TAX

If you hold a poll tax, you will be eligible to vote for all offices in elections this year, and no further action or registration is required.

IF YOU ARE EXEMPT FROM POLL TAX

If you are exempt from purchasing the poll tax, because of being over 60, you may vote for all offices in elections this year, and there is no requirement to secure an exemption form or to register. 21-year-olds are required, under all laws, to secure exemptions.

IF YOU ARE ELIGIBLE FOR POLL TAX

If you are eligible to purchase the poll tax, but do not do so, then you may vote for federal offices only by registering during a registration period which will soon be announced.

BUT...

Why not buy your poll tax and vote in state and local races as well as federal races.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, IS THE LAST DAY TO PURCHASE THE POLL TAX

Final Deadline For VA Income Report Is Friday, Jan. 31st

More than 60,500 disabled veterans and the dependents of some 43,000 deceased veterans throughout Texas are warned that the final deadline of January 31, 1964, for their annual income report is close at hand.

Glyndon M. Hague, manager of the VA regional office at Waco, says that cards upon which the income report must be made have been mailed to all pension recipients in the area. These cards should be filled out completely, with care to avoid folding or mutilation, and returned to the VA by January 31. Otherwise the VA by law will be required to cease payment of the pension of those who have failed to report their income.

Pension is paid on a basis of need, Mr. Hague said, and to exceed the established income ceiling results in removal from the rolls. The income report is VA's way of finding who is eligible under the income provision.

Record Number of Bonds Examined by Atty. Gen. Office

Attorney General Waggoner Carr announced today that the Bond Division of his office set an all-time record for bonds examined and approved during the year of 1963.

The record includes both dollar volume and number of bonds issued and exceeds the totals of any year since the Attorney General was first charged with this duty in 1905.

The figures released today show that 716 bonds were approved during the period of January 1st through December 31st totaling $542,969,000.00. The previous record high was 632 issues for a total of $446,432,939.00, the figure for 1962.

In releasing the figures, Carr said "These figures are outstanding, and can well serve as a barometer of the economic outlook for Texas in 1964. I think they show clearly that Texans have great faith in their state and are willing to manifest this faith with their investments."

February Plentifuls List Helps Solve Shopping Problems

A wide variety of foods in good supply at economical prices is available to help appease hearty winter appetites. Especially abundant are eight items that make up the February list of plentiful foods, reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Broiler-fryers and pecans are featured on the list, as compiled by the Agricultural Marketing Service in cooperation with producers and the food trade. Other February plentifuls are beef, pork, canned corn, potatoes, canned ripe olives and apples.

With an all-time record 290-million pound pecan crop still moving to market, pecans should be a good buy all month. Broiler-fryer prices are expected to drop even below last year's record February low, as marketings increase.

Fed cattle prices were running more than $6 per hundred below last year, the lowest since 1956, and not much improvement is expected until spring. Heavy pork supplies through February are expected to keep prices low. In December, hog prices were the lowest for that time of year since 1955.

Record-high stocks of canned corn — whole, creamed and on the cob — are the result of three consecutive years of heavy packs. Many stores are running canned corn specials. A heavy fall potato crop will continue to provide large supplies for home use. Apples are keeping well and remain plentiful. And the year's supply of canned ripe olives totals 3.5 million cases. The largest amount moved in any previous year was 2.4 million cases.

So check the plentifuls as you shop. The list is your guide for providing more food for your grocery dollar.

Lamb Weight At Birth Important

McGregor — Producers may receive a triple benefit from an increase in the birth weight of their lambs. Studies conducted by Dr. Maurice Shelton at Texas A&M University's Livestock and Forage Research Center here show the importance of lamb birth weights.

Dr. Shelton says that size of the lamb at birth is closely related to death losses. An increase of approximately four more lambs raised for each 100 lambs born can be expected for each pound of increase in average birth weight. He lists the optimum weight for lambs out of Merino and Rambouillet ewes as 8-9 and 9-10 pounds, respectively. Above these weights, some increase in death losses are encountered, he says.

Larger lambs grow off faster and weigh more at weaning time, he explains. They also have better wool production potential when they go into the breeding flock. This, he adds, is due to the fact that adverse prenatal environment somewhat restricts the initiation and development of wool producing follicles. Larger lambs at birth tend to make larger mature animals which may favorably affect both wool production and fertility, says the scientist. He estimates that an increase of approximately 6.8 pounds at weaning is associated with each one pound increase at birth.

Stilbestrol Gives Good Results When Used Several Times

Treating feeder cattle with stilbestrol from birth until they are slaughtered may be practical if the animals belong to the same owner during the entire period, says Uel D. Thompson, animal husbandman with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The beef cattle specialist says that increased gains have resulted from the use of hormones during the nursing, grazing, and feedlot stages. However, he points out that there are some disadvantage if the animals are not owned during the whole period by the same owner. Calves on test in Texas have shown higher weaning weights when implanted with stilbestrol but this extra weight might be undesirable from a price per pound standpoint if the animals were sold as stocker or feeder calves.

According to Texas research hormone implanting of animals that were implanted during the nursing, grazing and feeding periods gained 663 pounds during a 461-day period. Those receiving only two implants gained 657 pounds, those with only one implant gained 616 pounds, and animals with no implants gained 595 pounds during the period, says Thompson.

It, therefore, appears advantageous to implant steers during all three phases if the animals are under the same ownership, concludes Thompson.

Apples are a major fruit choice, with the better values by-the-bag, and bananas continue at reasonable price levels. Avocados and medium sized oranges are featured at some stores.

GOOD BUYS IN GROUND BEEF

Hamburger or ground beef is a favorite of many menu makers and is one of the thrifty meat buys that almost everyone likes, says Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Cost per pound of ground beef influences your purchase, but while you consider this cost, give thought to the cost-per-serving, too. And check the color of the ground meat. If too lean, ground beef is dry, tasteless and crumbly but has less calories per serving. If too fat, the ground beef will be greasy and there will be a lot of loss during cooking.

If you plan to use the ground meat the same day of purchase or the following day, wrap it loosely in waxed paper or moisture-proof paper. Use it within 2 to 3 days, Mrs. Clyatt suggests.

Other good meat buys this week are chuck roasts, a variety of popular steak cuts, and stew meat. Pork items include hams of all sizes, loin roasts, sausage and bacon.

Some good turkey values are still available and fryers are in ample supply.

Everybody who wants a Wildcat, please stand up.
Everybody who wants a Skylark, please stand up.
Everybody who wants a Riviera, please stand up.

Now that everybody's standing, let's all go to the Buick Sports Car Rally.

Really.

It would be a shame to waste this chance to drive one of Buick's lively sport models, wouldn't it? Especially considering your Buick dealer's so close, and the price is so nice. That's what the Sports Car Rally is all about. And they're all luxurious enough to make you wonder why anybody'd settle for a two-seater. A finely tuned production 340 hp Wildcat with a skilled driver scored the highest miles per gallon in the economy test of Class I—high performance V-8's—at the Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona Beach, Florida. (So who's surprised? Not Wildcat owners.)

Local Methodists Maintain Lead Over Bangs Church

The local First Methodist Church maintained its lead over the Bangs Methodist Church the past Sunday, by a 5-3 count. This gives the local church a 19-13 lead in the attendance contest, which is now at the half-way mark.

In the four Sunday services, Santa Anna had a total attendance of 401, while Bangs' total attendance was 394.

One point is awarded each church for the largest number in attendance at each Sunday service, and one point is awarded each church for the largest percentage of enrollment in attendance at each service.

Although the local church has the advantage at the present time, this could change rapidly if the church suffered an exceptionally low attendance.

NEW GOALS
 Every goal for the month of January was broken the past Sunday. The pastor announced new goals that are expected to be reached during the next two weeks. New goals are:

Church School --- 125
 Morning Worship --- 165
 M. Y. F. --- 30
 Evening Worship --- 115

METHODIST MEN — W. S. C. S.
 The Methodist Men and the Woman's Society of Christian Service will sponsor the evening worship attendance during the month of February. During the month of January, when all the goals were broken, the Methodist Youth Fellowship and the Nitia Daniell Circle sponsored the evening attendance.

Cemetery Ass'n. Meeting Held Tuesday Night

The annual meeting of the membership of the Santa Anna Cemetery Association was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Griffin Tuesday night. A financial report revealed the association to be in very good condition.

Directors elected for a two year term were: W. B. Griffin, Mrs. C. L. Eeds and Mrs. C. M. Moseley, all who have been serving on the board for the past several years.

Officers will be elected at the next regular meeting. During the business meeting records showed 29 families now have the perpetual care plan in operation for the care of their cemetery lots. The association invites everyone to check into the advantages of this plan for the care of cemetery lots.

manship also put Rep. Barnes in charge of operating procedure in the House of Representatives. Together with House Speaker Tunnell, he initiated many changes in House "decorum" and the rules under which the house operates.

In addition to the Rules Committee assignment, Rep. Barnes also served on four other top committees — Agriculture; Oil, Gas and Mining; Revenue and Taxation; and Banks and Banking (of which he was Vice-chairman).

Although Rep. Barnes was recognized as one of the floor leaders for both Governor Connally and Speaker Tunnell, he personally carries an abnormal load of legislation. He was extremely instrumental, however, in passing legislation which set up a special investigation of slant-hole drilling; establishing a committee to study education beyond the high school; removing of the Attorney General from several state boards which proved too time consuming.

Rep. Barnes was an honor student at DeLeon High School, and attended Tareton State College at Stephenville, TCU at Fort Worth, and the University of Texas at Austin. He was a business administration major at the University of Texas and also attended the University of Texas Law School.

He worked for the State Department of Health prior to his election to the Legislature in 1960. He and Martha are members of the Methodist Church, and have two children Greg, 5, and Amy, 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Herro of Brownwood were visitors in the homes of Mrs. Sue Walker and Mrs. Allee Walker and children, Saturday night.
