An Ex-Marine and A Barber Defending Your Freedom

By Harry Browne
Editor, Freedom Magazine

In Los Angeles, an ex-marine is attempting to defend his home with a shotgun — as a sheriff tries to enforce a court order that condemns the home to make way for a museum.

In the Midwest, a barber has been pressured out of business by a hundred demonstrators who prevented customers from entering his shop — this because the mob disapproved of the barber's selectivity in choosing his customers.

These conflicts can be multiplied many times over — but they suffice to represent a pattern that must be recognized and understood.

Does it matter to you whether or not a marine loses his home in Los Angeles to the time-honored principle of "eminent domain"?

Yes it does! For if that man's home is not protected against the arbitrary whims of the government, how can you consider yours to be secure?

If a barber does not have the right to regulate his own business — which he built through his own effort — then just what do you have to work for? What is the purpose of working toward any goal in life, if that goal can be snatched away by a majority of the community or the government or anyone else?

And if there is no security in what we acquire through honest work, how can we expect anyone else to exert the effort to produce the products and services that we desire?

Basic Need
The right of a man to control his own property — for better or for worse — as he sees fit — is the basis of freedom. Without that right, there is no freedom. For why do we seek freedom if it is not to acquire and maintain the property that rewards us for our daily efforts?

There can be no freedom for anyone until the property of all is respected. That respect is the basis upon which a truly free and prosperous society can be built.

The new museum in Los Angeles will be a better monument if the property upon which it sits has been honestly acquired without coercion. And the customers of the midwestern barber will derive much greater satisfaction if they earn the barber's respect — just as he must earn the respect of all those to whom he wishes to sell his services.

True Security
Imagine the kind of society that will be developed when man's property rights are honored 100 percent! Each of us will have greater ambition to produce more things for others — because the property we receive in exchange will be securely our own, not subject to the whims of anyone.

Each of us will quickly realize the need to please our fellow man in order to promote honest exchanges of property and labor. Brown-beating and force will give way to voluntary agreements and this need to please others.

Yes, your rights are at stake — your entire future is on the block — at that home in Los Angeles, in the barber shop in the Midwest — everywhere that property rights are threatened. It's time we begin a full scale offensive to increase property rights and eliminate entirely the collectivist notion that what we own belongs to others.

Such an offensive will change the world — toward freedom, toward true peace, and toward a standard of prosperity undreamed of even in America.

HEART ATTACK

Local MYF To Host Bangs Tuesday Night

Admission prices to both games are adults 50 cents and students 25 cents. The local MYF will use their part of the proceeds to go toward the purchase of a new piano for the new educational building.

The concession stand will be open for your enjoyment.

Fire Does Little Damage

Thursday, Mar. 26

The Santa Anna Volunteer Fire Department was called to the Memorial Building in Ranger Park Thursday afternoon of last week to extinguish a fire on the roof of the building. It had caught from trash being burned and the wind blew some of the fire upon the roof.

Quick action on the part of the fire department saved the building. Very little damage resulted from the fire. However, it would have taken only a very few minutes for the blaze to get a good start on the shingle roof.

Adventists To Observe Lords' Supper Saturday

The most sacred and beautiful service of the Seventh-day Adventist Church is the Ordinance of Humility and communion service which will be held Saturday at the church on Avenue B.

Fred Murray, local elder of the church, explained the ordinance of humility as thus: "In the thirteenth chapter of the Gospel, according to St. John, we have a direct command from Jesus in verses 14 and 15 to wash one another's feet. We endeavor to obey this command by preceding the Lords' Supper with foot washing and searching of our own hearts. Men and women are separated for this part of the service but receive open communion together."

Easter Seal Donations Urged

"It's never too late to help a crippled child!" said Dr. J. D. Tyson, Denton, president, Texas Society for Crippled Children and Adults, the Easter Seal Society, in a final appeal to his fellow Texans to help bring the 1964 Easter Seal Appeal to a successful conclusion.

Some folks think because they didn't mail their Easter Seal contribution as soon as they got their Easter Seal that it's too late — Some others think it's too late if they don't mail their donation before Easter — and still others think they must have the envelope that comes with their Easter Seal.

It's never too late to help a crippled child! Easter Seal services and treatment are a year-round thing. It's the regularity of treatment at the Easter Seal centers that helps little and big bodies grow stronger and sturdier, day after day, year after year.

And, it's YOUR gift that helps the Easter Seal program in your community and throughout Texas provide service and treatment on a regular year-round basis, helping thousands of crippled Texans.

Won't you put your gift in any envelope and address it to your local Easter Seal Society or the Texas Society for Crippled Children and Adults, 4429 North Central Expressway, Dallas 5, Texas.

Remember, it's never too late to help a crippled child and the first step is YOURS.

Easter visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mills were M/Sgt. and Mrs. W. C. Spencer and boys, Tom and Bill, of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Harlod White and girls, Nancy and Jane, of Tatum, N. M. and his mother, Mrs. Ralph white of Odessa.

5-Day Plan To Stop Smoking To Begin Monday

One of the most startling films of rearity ever to be produced for the public, is to be shown on the opening night of the 5-day Plan to Stop Smoking.

This 5-day clinic is being sponsored by the Santa Anna Clinic and Hospital, as a community aid to better health and is absolutely free — there is nothing to buy and there are no gimmicks or pills!

From 7:30 to 9:00 each evening, Monday through Friday of next week, interesting and educational films and talks will be given by Drs. R. W. McMullen and C. M. Henner at the National guard Armory.

Anyone who has a sincere desire to stop smoking will be free of the habit a week from today if they will attend every meeting and follow all instructions given. It has proved successful to thousands all over the United States and has been televised in many cities because of public demand.

This week Pastor Ray Osborne, chaplain of the Santa Anna Hospital is in Louisiana attending a 5-day clinic which is being held by one of the originators of the Plan, and he will bring to the Santa Anna Clinic the very latest advances of the Plan.

Jim Langdon Seeks Elective Term On Railroad Commission

Austin — Texas crude oil currently is selling for more dollars than any year since the Suez crisis in 1957, Railroad Commissioner Jim Langdon reports.

Langdon said this should be welcome news to the people of Texas because the Texas oil and gas dollar pays for 42 percent of the state's cost of public education, and almost 60 percent of the state's cost of teacher retirement, old-age assistance, blind assistance and aid to dependent children.

He stated that oil production is up three percent over the previous year, and "an even more encouraging" jump is expected for 1964.

Langdon said the fact that the Texas petroleum industry was in such a healthy state after more than half a century of intensive development could be laid to two factors: (1) There was a lot of oil to begin with; and (2) it has not been wasted preciously.

Critics of the way the Railroad Commission has regulated the oil and gas industries disregarded the Commissioners' duty to guard the public interest. When they talked about allowables and production, they ignored the fact that natural gas has in recent years become an important energy source replacing to some extent oil; and that Texas was more dominant in gas production than in crude oil production.

Langdon is the newest member of the Railroad Commission, having been appointed last spring. Now he is seeking the voters' approval to serve the remaining four years of a six-year term. He resigned as chief justice of the El Paso Court of Civil Appeals to accept the Railroad Commission post.

Before moving to El Paso, Langdon was district judge for five West Texas counties. While on the bench and as a practicing attorney in a large oil producing area, he gained vast knowledge of the oil and gas industries, as well as transportation matters, which the Commission regulates.

Easter Sunday visitors in the W. E. Vanderford home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Watson and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Watson and Mrs. Harold Riley and boys, all of Irving. Mrs. R. F. Watson, who had been visiting her parents the past week, returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith and daughter, Fran, of San Angelo and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Smith and sons, Jeffery and Gregory of Tyler, were weekend visitors with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson of Midland were here over the weekend to be with her grandmother, Mrs. W. E. Vanderford, a patient in the Santa Anna Hospital.

Mountaineers Have Good Track Team

The Santa Anna High School has a good track and field team this year. During recent weeks they have been making good showings at practice meets throughout the Central Texas area.

Last week was one of the most outstanding meets the boys have attended. Held in San Angelo, the meet was attended by most of the schools in the Central Texas area. There were three divisions, with all the schools in Class B, A and AA being grouped in Division 2. Santa Anna took a total of 20 1/2 points and won third place in the division, which was an outstanding feat for the boys.

Freddie Cullins took second place in both the low and high hurdles and third place in the broad jump. Charles Allen took first place in the mile run and set a new record of 4 minutes and 43 seconds, even. In the 100-yard dash Byron Rowe took second place and Bill Horne took fourth. Terry McIVER took fourth place in the discus throw. Donald Makuta tied for second place in the pole vault.

This weekend the boys will go to Hamilton for the last practice meet before the district meet, which will be held in Bangs Friday afternoon and night, April 10. The preliminaries will be run in the afternoon and the finals that night.

Coach R. C. Smith said Bangs and Marble Falls both had good track teams this year, as well as Santa Anna.

Peace Corps Placement Tests

Saturday, April 11 is the date of the next national-wide Peace Corps Placement Test, the Peace Corps has announced. It will be administered by the U. S. Civil Service Commission in Abilene, Brownwood and San Angelo at 8:30 am local time.

It is not too late for people to apply for the Peace Corps and still get into one of the summer training programs, officials report. This summer the Peace Corps hopes to train as many as 6,000 men and women at approximately 55 colleges and universities throughout the country. The intensive three-month training is required before trainees are finally chosen as Volunteers for overseas assignments.

The most needed skills are in the field of agriculture, health, engineering, construction and education — particularly math and science teaching. Hundreds of additional skills have been requested, such as architecture, geology, economics and social work.

The required non-competitive Placement Tests — which include a general aptitude test and a modern language aptitude test — takes about one and a half hours to complete. Applicants with a knowledge of Spanish or French should take the additional one-hour language achievement test. However, knowledge of a foreign language is not a requirement for taking the Placement Test.

The test scores are used, along with the Questionnaire and the character references to determine overall qualifications for Peace Corps service and to help determine the most appropriate overseas assignment.

If applicants have not already turned in a Peace Corps Questionnaire, they should bring it, completed, with them when they take the Placement Test. All applicants must be American citizens at least 18 years old. Married couples may apply if they have no dependents under 18. A college degree is not required.

Mrs. R. B. Archer spent the Easter holidays in San Angelo with her daughter, Mrs. Peyton Dick and family and with another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Williams of Abilene, who spent the day in San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Speck spent the Easter weekend in Dallas with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Speck and Melanie Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Pritchard and children visited in the J. W. Ray home and with other relatives last week. They returned to their home Sunday.

Annual Trickham Cemetery Meeting To Be Held Sunday

Mrs. Bill Vaughn, secretary and treasurer of the Trickham Cemetery association, announced the annual meeting will be held Sunday, April 5. Everyone is invited to attend and those who have loved ones in the cemetery are especially urged to attend.

The Trickham Cemetery is the oldest cemetery in Coleman County. It was established in about 1859 and has been in continuous use since. The Cemetery Association sees that the cemetery is cared for. It is kept in a very neat and orderly condition at all times. Voluntary contributions from the membership keeps the association operating.

The annual meeting will get underway at 10:00 a. m. with everyone visiting the cemetery for an hour. At 11:00 a. m. the Rev. Pat McClatchey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie McClatchey, will deliver the annual Memorial Sermon, in the Union Church.

Following the sermon, a short business meeting will be held. Mrs. Vaughn will read the financial report and other business will be attended to. Other officers are: President, O. R. Boenicke; Vice President, Bernice McIver; and directors, Lige Lancaster and Albert Cole.

A basket lunch will be served at the Community Center at the noon hour. Singing and visiting will take up the afternoon hours.

School District Election To Be Held Saturday

The annual election of School Trustees will be held in the Santa Anna Independent School District Saturday, April 4. Polls will be located in the Lions Club room and will be open from 8:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m.

Names are listed on the official ballot as follows: Robert T. Smith, Jessie Williams, Barbara Bruce Kingsbery and Roy B. England. The two receiving the largest number of votes will be elected for a three-year term.

Mrs. Kingsbery is seeking re-election to a second term on the board. All the other candidates are seeking their first election term.

Mrs. Kingsbery is the wife of Tom Kingsbery, stock farmer and rancher, who lives south of town about 6 miles. Robert T. Smith is an employee of the Santa Anna Silica Sand Co. Jessie Williams is a farmer in the Shields area. Roy B. England manages the Gill Ranch at Whon.

Other members of the board are: Grady McIVER, Clifford B. Lowe, Catherine Markland, William Brown and James Eubank. Leroy V. Stockard will be the Election Judge. State Capitol NEWS

Austin — Top finance officials of the state now feel reasonably sure the next fiscal year for Texas governmental operations will dawn with an unfamiliar general revenue surplus on hand.

Texas' hard-pressed general fund has been in almost constant deficit for more than six years. As of March 25 it still was $36,800,000 in the red.

However, budget-makers are impressed with optimistic U. S. Treasury reports that the income tax cut is going to boom state and local revenues by putting more money in circulation. (Theory: more money spent, more sales taxes collected.)

"There will be a surplus. The question is how much," commented one veteran finance observer.

Ideas on "how much" stretch all the way from a relatively modest $35,000,000 — estimated by the comptroller's office — to upwards of $90,000,000.

While the feeling is general that the Legislature will begin its budget writing next year with prospects of money on hand, the surplus likely will not be big enough to avert a new tax bill.

Public school teachers are campaigning for a $405 annual pay raise which would cost the state $68,000,000 for the next biennium. Texas Commission on Higher Education has endorsed a program which totals $86,000,000 additional spending for the college and university system for 1965-67.

Other state agencies are continuing to grow and few have been known to ask less money.

The surplus should provide a protective cushion. However, governmental finance experts felt that taxpayers won't get by the 1965 legislative session unscathed.

LOAN REGULATIONS PROPOSED
The terms "easy payments," "no red tape," and "repayment in easy installments" are considered misleading advertising by money lenders under regulations proposed by Francis A. Miskell, regulatory loan commissioner.

Miskell served notice of his first four "rules of practice and procedure" for lenders and scheduled a public hearing on them for May 8.

Regulations cover books, files and records; advertising; insurance and collection practices. Under other proposed advertising rules, almost any "comparative" term such as "new reduced rates" or "new type of service" must stand a rigid test of accuracy. Miskell also proposes to ban business solicitation by such devices as "credit cards" and "letters of credit," claiming the borrowers have an established credit standing.

Strong-arm collection practices would be strictly prohibited. In fact, under the rules, lenders could not solicit payment from anyone other than the borrower, members of his immediate family or signers of the note. Employers could be called on to help collect by their own consent.

Miskell gave the loan firms until May 1 to submit their written views on the rules.

The regulatory loan agency, set up by the Legislature last year to regulate loans up to $1,500, just now is moving into full scale operation.

Profits of major baking companies declined to 1.1% of sales in 1962, compared to net profits of 4.1% of sales in 1947-49, while the difference between retail prices and the farm value of ingredients increased, according to a study recently released by the Economic Research Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The report noted that "labor costs have been a major factor influencing increases in the baker-wholesaler's spread. This cost increased 6¢ per pound loaf in 1961 from 2.2¢ in 1945 and accounted for about 52% of the total increase in the baker-wholesaler spread."

The spread between farm prices for ingredients and the price paid by consumers, retail, was 18.5¢ in 1963 compared with 10.2¢ for the 1947-49 average.

Tables in the Marketing and Transportation Situation report showed that while wholesale prices of bread advanced 32% between 1951 and 1962, actual earnings of production workers, including overtime, gained 70% in the same period. Other labor costs in the form of fringe benefits and social security taxes showed even greater proportionate increases, the report added.

"Taxes took less than half the net income of these (six major) baking companies until 1951, when taxes amounted to more than half," the report stated.

"Since then, taxes consistently have taken the larger share."

University of Texas Professor Dr. Hubert Winston Smith, wants the accused slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald moved to the Austin State Hospital for more lab tests.

Smith has indicated he will rely on the university's law science institute to determine whether Ruby suffers from any form of brain damage.

Smith is both attorney and doctor. He holds degrees from Harvard law and medical schools.

FIRST TEXAS TRAVEL ADS BOOKED
Texas begins its first official advertising of its vacation attractions in national publications on April 5.

Initial ad shows a pretty girl on a Texas beach and boasts of Texas fishing, scenery, golfing and horseback riding. It will appear in the spring vacation and travel section of the New York Times. Same ad will run in the Chicago Tribune's travel section on April 12.

Texas Tourist Development Agency plans a number of advertisements in out-of-state newspapers and magazines this spring and summer.

Funds for the travel and tourist promotion, first ever appropriated to the state, were provided by the 58th Legislature.

WATER HEARINGS
Texas Water Commission postponed until May 25 hearings on five reservoir projects in the Brazos River watershed.

Reservoirs are Proctor in Comanche County; Stillhouse Hollow in Bell County; Somerville in Washington County; Decordova Bend in Hood County; and Belton in Bell County.

POPULATION TREND
Calculation on population growth made by University of Texas researchers indicate a fizzle in the population explosion.

They estimate that Texas experienced a yearly gain in population of 1.8 percent between April 1, 1960, and April 1, 1963, which would amount to quite a slow-down from the 2.2 percent annual gain during the 10 years from 1950 to 1960.

Even more significant, the researchers noted, was an evident brake in the population increases in Texas' 21 major cities. Where they gained 3.5 percent a year from 1950 to 1960, they gained only 2.2 percent a year in the three years prior to April 1, 1963.

RETAIL SALES
February, usually a bright spot after drab January receipts, showed a four percent drop in retail sales, reports University of Texas' Bureau of Business Research.

But the bureau had good news for merchants. It reported that retail sales in February topped those of February, 1963, by four percent. So the state's accelerated economy continues the upward climb of the past three years.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL
Although the State Board of Education has recommended that the Southwestern Vocational Educational School authorized last year by the U. S. Congress be located at the inactive Camp Gary Air Force Base in San Marcos, several other Texas cities are making a bid for the $4,200,000 program.

City of Marshall has developed a presentation for the U. S. Commissioner of Education and some Valley groups also are making a try. They all are hoping to nab the School for Texas, but are competing with neighboring states.

FASTER CARS FOR GAME WARDENS
State Parks and Wildlife Department is replacing some six-cylinder cars used by game wardens with modern motor mounts called "Police Specials."

Department's executive director, Weldon Watson, said the new V-8's are faster and "will help overcome a serious handicap to our warden force."

TRADEMARKS
Reregistration notices are being sent to some 20,000 trademark holders in Texas by Secretary of State Crawford C. Martin.

Martin said that, originally, trademark registrations were perpetual, but in 1961 the Legislature imposed a 10-year limitation. He urged anyone who acquired trademark rights before 1954 to get in touch with his office immediately. All such registrations expire May 3.

SHORT SNORTS
Sen. William T. Moore of Bryan was named to the Texas Legislative Council (research arm of the Legislature) to replace Sen. Frank Owen III of El Paso, who resigned.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr announced the filing of 10 additional civil penalty suits for alleged slant-hole oil well activities, making a total of 91.

to make history. Its effect on lice was particularly striking. It deloused heads in a few hours and they stayed deloused for several weeks.

Dr. J. S. Wiseman, a State Health Department entomologist, tells this story to illustrate the point:

During World War II, an American service officer visited a North African jail to delouse prisoners. The men assembled and the officer used a small hand sprayer to puff a small amount of DDT powder between the prisoners' skin and clothing.

As expected, there was a great deal of chafing and hilarity in the face of what seemed to be such a childish procedure — compared with showers, shaving of heads, "stoving" of garments, and application of lotions.

When he had finished, the American, who had carried out his task with great thoroughness, said to the men:

"Tomorrow morning I will come back to check on the action of the powder. If any of you can present me with a live louse I'll reward him with a pack of cigarettes."

Everyone was cheerful at the thought of the cigarettes and all were certain they could easily qualify for them. They spent the whole night eagerly hunting for lice.

Next morning, when the officer returned, the men assembled and brought out their catches. There were only 10 lice in all. Not a single man had been able to catch more than a single louse.

There was not question about the success of the experiment, and the men began listening to their visitor with more respect. He then made a further offer. "Tomorrow," he told them, "I will come back again and there will be $10 and a whole carton of cigarettes for every live louse."

All the prisoners crowded around that day's winners to learn of their technique. The night was again spent in a frantic louse hunt. A whole box of cigarettes! What luck!

But next morning, not a single prisoner could produce a live louse. The DDT had wiped them out.

CAUTION URGED FOR SMOKERS

Last year in this county 11,800 persons lost their lives in fires that for the sixth straight year resulted in property losses exceeding $1 billion. And nearly one-fourth of these fires were caused by matches and smoking.

To help reduce the nation's gigantic fire toll, the National Board of Fire Underwriters urges smokers to observe a few simple rules of caution.

Keep plenty of ashtrays in every room of the house. Never discard a match or cigarette without making sure that it has been extinguished. It is also a good idea to break matches in half. Keep matches away from children, and never smoke in bed.

SOME FISH WANDER FAR

Rockport — Some fish seem to develop wanderlust while others are content to stay close to home, according to marine biologists of the Parks and Wildlife Department.

Two black drum were recently recovered after being tagged in the Upper Laguna Madre. One of these fish, tagged and at liberty for two months, traveled about 3 miles. The other drum was caught in the Brownsville ship channel over 100 miles from the point where five months earlier it was introduced to the little monel tag attached to its jaw.

Large "sow" trout were caught and tagged in the Rockport Ski Basin in March 1963. Many of these were caught in February this year very near the same spot where they were tagged.

The trout had grown only about one inch in length but were about one pound heavier.

The value of jade found in the U. S. is about 15 times that of diamonds found here.

INFORMATION FOR VETERANS

Questions & Answers

Q. Are widows of veterans eligible for GI home loans?
A. Veteran's widows may be eligible for GI loans if they meet these requirements: - they must be unmarried widows of veterans of World War II or the Korean Conflict who died in service or after separation from service as the result of service-connected disabilities. Entitlement for World War II widows expires July 25, 1967, and for widows of Korean Conflict veterans January 31, 1975.

Q. Why is a so-called "C-number" necessary in connection with veterans benefits? Shouldn't veteran's name and proof of service be sufficient?
A. There are many veterans (sometimes hundreds) with the same name and middle initial. Periods of service are often duplicated. A C-number (claim number) positively identifies the record of the individual veteran.

Q. Can a War Orphan who has his entrance into VA educational training delayed or interrupted by military service have his completion date extended?
A. Yes. He has five years from the date of his first release or discharge from military service in which to complete his training.

Punch Card 1040A

It's easier for you and for Uncle Sam to use the 1040A punch-card Federal income tax return form. It's a simple, easy way to file your tax return.

Use 1040A if:
● your income was under $10,000 and
● consisted entirely of wages reported on Form W-2 and
● other wages, interest, or dividends altogether totaling not more than $200.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

A popular passtime among taxpayers is to look in the mailbox for the refund check. Between twenty to forty thousand taxpayers in Texas get a refund check daily. Since these checks amount to about $100.00 each, this means some two to four million dollars a day additional money for the Texas family budget.

Ruth Ann Stearns, student at TCU in Fort Worth, spent the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stearns and her grandmother, Mrs. L. O. Garrett.

Juanell Mercer, student at Tarleton College, Stephenville, spent the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Gregg and John Wayford.

Duane Dick of A & M University and Mrs. Dolores Brown and son, Peyton David, of Somerville, Texas, visited briefly Wednesday of last week with their grandmother, Mrs. R. B. Archer, while on their way to spend the Easter holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Dick in San Angelo.

East Texas Negro College Now Associated With TCU

Fort Worth — A plan under which Jarvis Christian College, 51-year old Negro institution located at Hawkins in East Texas, would become a part of Texas Christian University was approved Tuesday.

Both schools are related to the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ).

The plan, many details of which remain to be worked out, was approved in principle at a called meeting of the TCU trustees on campus. It will be put into operation as quickly as possible.

Dr. M. E. Sadler, veteran TCU chancellor, called the action "a milestone in private higher education" and a pioneering effort to help struggling Negro colleges all over the South.

1. Frank Valdez, Mac Boyet and Edward Anderson; 2. Donnie Neff, Billy Don McCrary and Leland Williams; 3. Les Guthrie, Jo Ed wise and Ronald Bates; 4. Bill Horne, Freddie Cullins and Larry Avants.

Everyone reported a wonderful time, both at the rodeo and the wiener roast, which followed. The school would like to express its appreciation to the Neffs for their cooperation in holding the party. It was a wonderful gesture and will be remembered for a long time.

At the 30th annual stockholders' meeting of the agricultural financing institution, held earlier this month, S. P. Horne and G. W. Jenkins were re-elected to the board for three-year terms.

Also elected to serve on the 1965 nominating committee were F. H. Hobbs of Abilene, Loyd W. Gilmore of Merkel, C. L. Stevens of Millers View, W. R. Lovelless of Eden, B. B. Shoemaker of Blanket, J. The Coleman Production Credit Association, owned and operated in its entirety by more than 650 farmers and ranchers, provides agricultural credit in Taylor, Callahan, Rusk, Coleman, Brown and Comal counties.

Since its organization in 1934, the association has made loans totalling $114,000,000. Loan funds are obtained through the sale of bonds to the nation's investing public.

Visitors with Mrs. J. J. Gregg during the Easter holidays were her daughter, Mrs. Eris Jones of Bishop; a granddaughter, Mrs. Mildred Aycock and her two children of Alice; and a son, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gregg and Janet of Austin.

MRS. WELDON HAYNES

Miss Arlene Welch Becomes Bride of the Reverend Weldon Haynes March 26th

Miss Arlene Welch became the bride of Rev. Weldon Haynes at 7:30 P. M. Thursday, March 26, in the First Methodist Church in Santa Anna. The Rev. Bobby Weathers, pastor, read the double ring wedding vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Welch of Santa Anna. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Haynes of Santa Anna.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar which was flanked by candelabra of burning yellow tapers and set with an arrangement of yellow daffodil and white stock.

The bride's suit was of white silk, and was fashioned with cardigan neckline and three-quarter sleeves. Her shoes were of white iridescent patent and her gloves were of white kid. Her mantilla was of imported French lace. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls and a tiny gold cross.

She carried a bouquet of yellow roses atop a white Bible, a gift of her parents.

Miss Orabeth Henderson of Snyder was maid of honor. She wore a dress of yellow peau de soie fashioned with a scoop neckline and cap sleeves. The bell-shaped skirt was adorned with a self-fabric rose and leaves which extended the length of the skirt. Her veil was of matching yellow tulle; her shoes were yellow silk shantung and she wore one-button white gloves. She carried a bouquet of pale yellow dutch iris.

Robert Marcom of Merkel was best man. Ushers were Jesse Haynes of Coleman, Lyndon Haynes of Brownwood, both brothers of the bridegroom, and Rev. Ed Colver of Rockwood.

Special music was presented by Miss E. Lee Harper, organist and Miss Carole Campbell, soloist, who sang "Whiter Thou Goest," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother wore a beige dress and jacket of silk shantung. She wore matching beige shoes, long beige gloves, a hat of beige roses, and a pearl beaded bag. Her corsage was a bronze cymbidium orchid.

The groom's mother wore a dress of pale blue and white jersey. Her shoes were black patent, and she wore white hat and gloves. Her corsage was of white carnations.

A reception was given immediately following the ceremony in the Educational Annex. The table was set with a white lace cloth, centered with an arrangement of white stock and yellow dutch iris, and appointments of silver and crystal. Miss Kay Haynes, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the four tier wedding cake topped with a bride and groom. Mrs. Curt Willey of Abilene ladled punch. Miss Connie Welch of Coleman, cousin of the bride, presided at the register. Also in the house-party were Misses Mary Haynes, sister of the bridegroom, Susanna Hays and Kathy Jo Hays.

The bride is a 1963 honor graduate of Santa Anna High School. She attended McMurry College in Abilene, and is presently enrolled in Howard Payne College, Brownwood, majoring in Business Education and English.

The groom is a 1961 graduate of Santa Anna High School. He is a former student of McMurry College, and is presently enrolled in Howard Payne College, majoring in English.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will reside in May, Texas where the bridegroom is pastor of the First Methodist Church.

Tips From The TACKLE BOX

By B. F. Gladding
The Fly For All Fish

FLY FISHING has been going on for centuries but it took Yankee ingenuity to come up with the general purpose fly — the streamer. Since it imitates a bait fish, the streamer will account for virtually all species of fresh water game fish (many pan fish, too!) and streamer fishing for salt water species has become a well established sport.

Size is usually more important than choice of pattern. Northern pike will wallop almost any streamer, providing it's 6 inches long, or longer. Bass and walleyes go for somewhat smaller versions, although they too like a mouthful. Use the small-to-medium size for trout and landlocked salmon. Pan fish will provide plenty of fly fishing fun if you offer them tiny streamers which imitate the "pinheads" upon which they feed.

Conventional fly casting is perhaps the most widespread method of streamer fishing. Best bet is to cast across stream, then retrieve through the resulting downstream arc. Keep the fly darting by twitching the rod as you strip in line. This helps sell the idea that the streamer is indeed some sort of minnow and therefore a genuine food item.

But you don't have to be a fly caster to cash in on streamers. A trolled streamer is deadly on landlocked salmon and trout during May and early June and Walleyes will also sock a trolled streamer during this period. For top thrills, troll with a fly rod.

Later, when fish move into deep water, use a lead core line, such as the B. F. Gladding Mark

Five Special, and troll a streamer just above bottom. Probe all the deep holes and you'll take fish in even the hottest weather.

When the same heat slows down the action on trout streams, spin fish the deepest pools with a streamer. Pinch one or two buckshot to the line about 6 inches ahead of the fly and let the latter sink close to bottom before retrieving. Reel slowly and twitch the rod constantly. Your streamer will be down among lunker trout, so stand ready for a belt from a big 'un

Easy to use but wonderfully effective — that's the streamer!

HEALTH AND SAFETY TIPS FROM THE AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSN. Allergies

Are you allergic to something?

If so, you have a lot of company. About half of us are allergic to something.

Pollen in the air can start hay fever, certain foods may start hives. Possible allergens are countless — house dust, animal fur, feathers, cosmetics, bleaches, medicines, foods, pollen. Some people even are allergic to heat, cold or sunlight. And wasn't there a case some years ago of a wife who was allergic to her husband?

Most common result of allergy are four illnesses — hay fever, asthma, skin ailments and digestive disturbances. Hay fever is an inflammation of the eyes and nasal passages. Asthma is a disease of the bronchial tubes of the lungs. Food allergies, a sensitivity to one or more foods, can affect the skin, the digestive tract or the respiratory system. Skin allergies cause itching, sometimes rash.

Reaction to an allergen varies with individuals. One person may be only slightly upset by eating an egg. Another could become violently ill from the small trace of egg in salad dressing.

There still are many unknown factors about the reason why someone suddenly becomes allergic to something. Allergic diseases are not usually fatal, but they cause untold discomfort and suffering. Although worry and stress might be a contributing factor, allergy is not an imaginary illness. It is very real to the sufferer.

Sometimes the allergen is known and can be avoided. Sometimes many tests by a physician are required to arrive at the true cause. Medical care is necessary in all cases for relief of discomfort and for protection against future attacks.

If you suspect you are allergic to something, see your doctor. Self-diagnosis and treatment is not only futile, it might even be dangerous.

April Brings Shower Of Plentiful Foods

College Station — April brings a shower of foods, along with traditional rain showers, as seven foods are especially plentiful, reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Such items as beef, cottage cheese, eggs, rice, canned ripe olives, dried beans and canned corn are expected to be abundant, according to the Agricultural Marketing Service, the U. S. Department of Agriculture agency that compiles the monthly list of plentiful.

Egg prices paid to farmers dropped more than 10 percent between mid-January and late February. April supplies are expected to be above those of a year ago, with prices below last year's attractive retail level. As of January 1, canned corn stocks were at a record high, and heavy supplies also should be much in evidence during April.

Substantial January-to-March increases in the number of fed beef cattle have resulted in a much larger meat supply.

Creamed cottage cheese production is expected to exceed last year's 787 million pound record. Dry bean production netted a record 12 percent above average. A record rice crop and the possibility of a record canned ripe olive supply make these big items for April.

Most of these foods are produced extensively in Texas, says the Service.

Foods listed as "plentiful" by AMS are expected to be more than adequate to meet normal trade needs.

Radioactive Fallout

Its Dangers & Effects
By T. G. Hollmig & Bobye Riney
Specialists, Rural Civil Defense
Agricultural Extension Service

College Station — Should there ever be a massive nuclear attack against our country, only a small proportion of our land would be seriously con-aminated after fresh fallout decayed.

For several years, Civil Defense officials have conducted annual test exercises from which extensive computations have been made. Data from Operation Alert 1961 were typical of that received from other tests.

Operation Alert 1961 considered effects of 260 weapons totaling 1,425 megatons, with assumed targets spread throughout the nation. Based on wind and weather conditions that actually prevailed at the time of the exercise, fallout estimates indicated that in such an attack about 4 1/2 percent of our total land area (5 percent of our cropland) would receive fallout which exceeded 300 roentgens per hour, one hour after the explosion (H/1). About 1/2 of 1 percent of our land would suffer from really heavy radiation (over 1,000 r/h at H/1). And about 75 percent of our total land area would receive no fallout or only light fallout (less than 100 r/h at H/1).

Long lived strontium 90, with a half-life of 29 years, is of primary importance in the area of crops and soils.

The amount of crop contamination with strontium 90 would depend on the available calcium in the soil. Strontium uptake could be reduced by growing crops with low strontium-calcium concentrations. Potatoes, corn, sugar and oil crops would be of suitable low calcium content to grow on heavily contaminated lands.

Crops producing high calcium food products should be grown on less contaminated land. Also, land could be diverted from food production and used to grow cotton, fiber, flax, castor beans, timber or other non-food products. Land formerly used for drying might be diverted to beef or other meat animal production because of the small amounts of strontium retained in the meat.

Decontamination of soils and crops is another method that may be employed to reduce the danger of radiation and will be discussed in another release.

Howard Payne To Honor Long-Time History Teacher

Brownwood — Miss Annie Shelton, graduate and long-time history teacher at Howard Payne College, will be honored at the college's commencement as a special feature of Howard Payne's seventy-fifth anniversary year, announced Dr. Guy

D. Newman, HPC president.

By unanimous vote of the faculty and board of trustees of the college, Miss Shelton will be awarded an honorary doctor of literature degree at the commencement service May 28, and will be honored the same day at a luncheon.

Dr. T. R. Havins, a Howard Payne graduate and long-time faculty member at Howard Payne, will be the commencement speaker. Dr. Havins, who retired in 1961 as chairman of the college's division of social sciences, is currently serving as visiting professor of history at the college.

All former students of Miss

Shelton are invited to attend the luncheon. "We expect to have a large number of Miss Annie's former students here for the luncheon," Dr. Newman said. "She has done a lot for Howard Payne, and we cordially invite her friends to join with us in honoring her at this time."

Candles for Heat

Take along with you to your next deer camp a couple of those thick, heavy-wax candles used by plumbers. Some cold night or early morning you'll find they can take the chill off a fairly large tent or trailer in a surprisingly short time.

Today's MEDITATION

The Upper Room

Read Matthew 28:10-20
 Because I live, ye shall live also. (John 14:19.)

In the midst of a storm, a little bird was clinging to the limb of a tree, seemingly calm and unafraid. As the wind tore at the limbs of the tree, the bird continued to look the storm in the face, as if to say, "Shake me off; I still have wings." Because of Christ's resurrection, each Christian can look the experience of death in the face and confidently say, "Shake me off; I still have wings. I'll live anyway."

Death can do the Christian no injury. Like birth, it is an incident in life. As birth opens up for a baby the opportunities of life in this world, so death opens up for a Christian a much larger and finer type of life than that which he experiences here in the flesh.

To be able to face the experience of death unafraid, with the assurance of life beyond that experience, is the high privilege of a Christian. It gives new meaning to mortal life.

PRAYER:

Our Father, while we have the privilege of living here, may we fill each day with things most worthwhile. Help us to make this world a better world because of our living in it. In the name of Christ, our living Redeemer and Master, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven... Amen."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Is the life I am living worthy of being perpetuated throughout eternity?

New Language Prof To Join H.P.C. This Summer

Brownwood - A new professor of languages will join the Howard Payne College faculty for the second term this summer, Dr. Forrest Agree, academic dean, announced today.

The new teacher is E. E. Phillips of San Marcos, who is a candidate for his Ph.D. at University of Texas in June. His major is Spanish and his minor is French, Dr. Agree said.

Phillips is an expert in language laboratories, and will install a new lab at Howard Payne next fall. He is now in charge of the laboratory at University of Texas.

An ordained Baptist minister, Phillips has been teaching at Southwest Texas State and finishing his work on his doctorate at the University.
