THE AMERICAN WAY

Un Nosy-Nellies

By Rosalie M. Gordon
Editor, America's Future

Despite the predominance in the United Nations of the Afro-Asian bloc composed of many new "nations" which do not know the meaning of either freedom or government, there are still many Americans who regard the UN as a harmless debating society. They overlook the threat to American institutions and constitutional guarantees in proposals put forth by this "harmless" international outfit. For example, the UN has cooked up another one of its Declarations. These Declarations are adopted by the UN, then turned into what are called Conventions in which the Declaration is implemented and then, in the form of a treaty, UN propagandists go to work to get member nations to accept and abide by the Convention. One of the latest of these Declarations is called the United Nations Declaration on Eliminating Racial Discrimination — and of course if you are against it, you can be branded immediately as a "racist" by UN propagandists. But this UN Declaration is a serious threat to the liberties of all Americans, regardless of their color. It has 11 wordy articles, so we can point to only a few of its dangers:

Destructive to America

One of its provisions — inserted, incidentally, by Belorussia, a Soviet province with a vote in the UN — not merely would interfere in our internal affairs but would practically destroy the First Amendment to our Constitution guaranteeing freedom of speech.

Another provision could have the effect of wiping out our state and national election laws.

Another could interfere with state and local law enforcement.

Another could do away with our immigration laws.

These are only a few of the possible effects of this Declaration — all in the name of banning "racial discrimination."

It will not do to say that the Senate would never accept such a treaty. After all, it accepted the partial test-ban treaty in spite of misgivings of many senators who allowed propaganda and political pressures to overcome their convictions.

Door Opener

It will also not do to say that America would never brook interference in her internal affairs by the UN. Several months ago Atlanta, Ga., found itself submitting to a visit from a group of UN delegates — members of the UN's Subcommittee on the Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities. The UN group was in Atlanta at the invitation of its U.S. representative, a New York lawyer, with the purpose of observing an American city "beset with racial woes." Thus the group constituted a kind of foot-in-the-door for UN interference in our internal affairs.

In any case, later Fulton Lewis, Jr., looked more closely at these UN nosy-nellies and discovered that one was the delegate from Communist Poland. Another was the delegate from India, where butchering of Moslems by Hindus is not uncommon. Still another was the delegate from Egypt where U.S. movies with Jewish actors cannot be shown. And of course there was the delegate from that great exponent of human rights, Soviet Russia. Quite a gang to be sticking its noses into the manner in which the American city handles its racial problems! But we can expect a great deal more of this from our involvement in the United Nations.

OUR NEW POSITION

By John C. Gregg

As most of our local readers know by now, I was appointed as Acting Postmaster of Santa Anna Friday afternoon and assumed the new duties Saturday morning. It is a very challenging position. The job entails much more than the average patron of the post office can imagine. It will take us some time to get accustomed to the routine. About all we can say about it at the moment is that we will do our best to do the job, according to the rules and regulations of the Postal Department.

At this time we do not know exactly how we will manage the operation of The Santa Anna News — but we know The News will continue to be published each week, just as it has for almost eighty years. The News staff will continue to make every effort to bring you all the area news possible to bring you.

Although it will be necessary for me to be at the Post Office most of the time, I will be at The News office a short time each day and will supervise the activities there. However, for the time being — until I learn considerably more of the post office routine — my time at The News office will be very short.

For the present time my wife, Mrs. Billie Gregg, will assume the duties of Acting Editor. She will also continue in her capacity as Advertising Representative. Mrs. Ruth (Radle) Poldrack of Brownwood, who worked with us for a number of years, also joined our staff this week and will assist in the mechanical department, as well as help in the front office.

It will likely be sometime before everything is settled to a routine, but in the meantime we will certainly appreciate all your help. One of the best ways you can help is by getting us your news items as early as possible — even during the weekend for parties, meetings, visitors, etc., that make news items for the next issue of The News.

We would like to say that we appreciate the many personal congratulations we have received during the few days since we accepted the position as Acting Postmaster. It is deeply gratifying to know that friends express their appreciation in the many ways we have received them.

Screwworms Threaten Most Of Texas

Mission — The screwworm fly has begun its annual march northward, and with conditions favorable for its development and migration existing throughout most of the state, farmers and ranchers need to again become "screwworm conscious."

Mild temperatures, moisture and an abundance of animal wounds prevalent over much of Texas could bring about widespread infestation, screwworm eradication program officials state. They are particularly concerned about those areas where sheep and goat shearing, calving, farrowing and spring animal husbandary activities are in full swing. Failure of livestockmen to treat shear cuts, scratches and surgical wounds could result in a sharp upswing in screwworm cases.

Only seven screwworm cases had been reported during the first three months of 1964 — all of them in Texas during March — but that total has already been doubled during the first week in April and more cases are being reported every day. Indications are the screwworm fly is following the same pattern of migration as last year, when a significant increase in cases was experienced in April and May.

Although most of the cases have been reported in South Texas, one was detected as far north as McCulloch County, while the area west of San Antonio has experienced several cases.

County agricultural agents are encouraging livestock producers to keep a close watch over their animals so that wounds and infestations can be promptly treated. Sample larvae should be collected from infested wounds and turned in to the county agent's office or sent directly to Box 969, Mission, Texas, for identification.

Additional sterile screwworm flies, reared and sexually sterilized at the Mission plant, are released near the scene of all infestations as soon as possible after a case has been reported to eradicate headquarters.

Eastern Star Meeting

The Santa Anna Chapter No. 247 Order of Eastern Star will meet at 7:30 p. m. Monday, April 20 in the Masonic Hall.

Election of officers for 1964-65 will be held during the business meeting. All members are requested to be present.

Host and Hostesses for the meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Tindol Jr. and Mrs. Carmen Donham.

Track Meet Here Friday

Coach R. C. Smith said early this week there would be a track meet here Friday afternoon for all the local group who has qualified to go to the Regional Meeting, to be held in Denton April 24 and 25.

The meet will include participants from District 9-A and 10-A and other surrounding towns.

Field events will get underway at 3:00 p. m. Running events will start at 4:00 p. m.

Teams entered early this week were: Albany, Clyde, Baird, Goldthwaite, Ranger, Coleman, Early, Winters, Cisco, Dublin and Comanche.

No charge of admission will be made.

5-Day Plan To Stop Smoking Completed

The 5-Day Plan to Stop Smoking ended Friday night with the film that has startled America, Europe and Australia and has shocked thousands into quitting the smoking habit.

No one fainted, although one had to leave the room as "One in 20,000" was shown.

Dr. C. M. Henner, one of the associates conducting the clinic stated, "The Plan was a success and well received. Everyone who came with the desire to quit, did just that! Most of them were over the crisis in three days and by the fifth day the others had broken the habit. One of these had used tobacco for 45 years. We are especially excited over the fact that not one of our hospital staff now uses tobacco, thanks to the 5-Day Plan.

Each night for five nights the "Class" was shown informative films with actual documented facts of the results of using tobacco. Drs. Henner and McMullen, together with the hospital chaplain, Ray Osborne, gave practical instructions on healthful living and showed X-rays of the results of unhealthful practices. Between the "water cure" and cold mitten friction baths, the pupils "were graduated" with a new outlook on how to live.

Plans are to conduct another clinic in the near future and if those who are interested in attending will call the Santa Anna Clinic, it will expedite these plans.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilburn, Nancy and Warren of Big Lake visited Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Hernando over the weekend.

Santa Anna Wins 9-A Track Event

The Santa Anna Track and Field team took a big 122 points at the annual Interscholastic League Track Meet in Bangs Friday afternoon and night of last week and walked off with the district title for the second year in a row. The Bangs team, which was expected to give the Mountaineers the most trouble came in with 102 points.

Freddie Cullins, one of the most versatile athletes produced in Santa Anna during recent years, personally accounted for 35 of the points. He was easily the most outstanding performer on the field. He swept both hurdles, took the broad jump and ran a leg of Santa Anna's winning sprint relay.

The Mountaineers captured blue ribbons in seven of the 14 events on the program. In addition to Cullins' outstanding feats, other first places were put on the record books by Charles Allen, winning the mile run in 4:47.5; Byron Rowe upset the Early sprinter Ray Reynolds, to win the 100-yard dash in 10.1; and Terry McIver tossed the discus 147.2-ft. for first place. Others in the sprint relay were Jimmy Taylor, Bill Horne and Byron Rowe.

Points for other teams were: Copperas Cove, 78 points; Marble Falls, 69; Goldthwaite, 52; Early, 53; and Burnet, 12.

Roofs and Porches Restored at Fort Davis

Superintendent Michael J. Becker announced today the completion of the restoration of roofs and porches along Officers Row at Fort Davis National Historic Site, Texas. Visitors from far and near, firsttimers and oldtimers, are impressed by this first phase of the National Park Service's MISSION 66 program to preserve and to partially restore the old frontier Army post.

Facing the parade grounds, the thirteen restored quarters lie at the foot of the impressive, rugged ridges of the Davis Mountains. The 78 restored porch pillars and 13 roofs contrast distinctly with the dark browns of Sleeping Lion Ridge.

Supervisory Architect Thomas N. Crellin noted that one of the most complicated roofs to restore is on the commanding officer's house. This handsome stone building has several wings that presented some complicated angles for the designers and carpenters. Now completed, the roof-line is exactly the same as it was when such post commanders as Merritt, Shaftor, Grierson, and Bliss lived here in the 1870's and '80's.

One of the quarters was changed from 1 1/2 stories to a single story. But this change had historical reasons behind it. The building was originally a single story house, and not until it caught on fire and was rebuilt by the Army in 1884 did it acquire its second floor. Now this adobe house looks once again like it did in its earlier days.

The contractor on this first project was the Robert L. Guyler Company, Lampasas, Texas. The bid, the lowest of 9 submitted, was for $53,831.

Superintendent Becker said that work is underway in the historical research and drawing of plans and specifications for the next step in restoring the fort, the complete exterior restoration of an enlisted men's barracks on the opposite side of the parade grounds. The interior of this barracks will be designed to house the visitor center for the park. Later a second barracks will be completely restored inside and out and will be furnished as it was in 1880.

Radioactive Fallout

Its Dangers & Effects

By T. G. Hollmig & Bobye Riney Specialists, Rural Civil Defense Agricultural Extension Service

College Station — Your family can survive fallout from a nuclear attack if your plans are carefully worked out. A written plan can often mean the difference between an emergency and a catastrophe.

In early America, every family had a survival plan. When a fire, flood or Indian attack threatened, each person had a job. Natural disasters still occur and the possibility of a nuclear war or a nuclear accident poses additional threats. A good farmer, homemaker or businessman will set goals and plan ahead to meet problems and make the best of each opportunity. Fire, accident and other insurance is bought in the hope that it will not be needed. Survival insurance in case of disaster is no different.

The Agricultural Extension Service has designed a form, FSP, MP-666 to help families complete their emergency plans. It includes daytime locations of family members, how the community will be warned, assignment of duties to family members, shelter plans, how the family will take shelter when separated, listing of shelter supplies and equipment and training courses which are available.

A good family plan is based on the local community plan, monitoring and warning systems and school plans.

The Farm Survival Plan which includes sheltering of dairy and breeding cattle, protection for surplus feed, water and emergency power supply is available for rural people.

Both forms are available from your county agricultural agent or home demonstration agent.

Social Security Benefits Up Over 1962 In This County

About one out of every 6 residents of Coleman County is now receiving a monthly social security check according to figures released by R. R. Tuley, Jr., Abilene, social security district manager.

Tuley's report listed the number of Coleman County beneficiaries as 2,052 at the end of 1963, an increase of 163 over the corresponding figure at the beginning of 1963. The dollar benefit amounts total more than $1,318,872 yearly.

Retired workers are the largest single group of social security beneficiaries in the County. There are 1157 in this group and their old-age insurance benefits total $72,284 monthly. The following shows the number and amount of the other monthly benefits paid in Coleman County as of December 31, 1963, listing first the Beneficiary group, the number of Beneficiaries and the total payment:

Retired Worker, 1,157 — $72,284; Wife or Husband, 407 — $12,377; Widow or Widower, 184 — $10,543; Mothers and Children, 199 — $8,643; and Disabled Workers and Dependents, 100 — $5,768.

In releasing the figures, Tuley pointed out that the social security benefits are important to the community as well as to the people who receive them. "It is a fact," he said, "that almost every dollar of social security benefits coming into the County is spent each month in local businesses for food, clothing, shelter, and other essentials. In this way, the benefits have a stabilizing effect on the local economy."

Tuley forecast that the number of social security beneficiaries will continue to increase in the future, but at a much slower rate than in the past 10 years. He said that, nationally, the social security benefit rolls increased from about 5 million people in 1954 to more than 19 million at the end of 1963. This rapid growth in the beneficiary population resulted from major amendments to the Social Security Act from 1950 through 1961. He cited several amendments which extended social security coverage to self-employed business and professional men, farmers and agricultural workers, and other groups. As a result, several million people whose work was brought under social security are now receiving benefits. Others qualified through amendments which reduced the amount of work needed to get benefits. One change — lowering the age at which older people can get benefits from 65 to 62 — accounts for 1.8 million out of the 19 million people now entitled to benefits. The amendments also introduced a new protection under social security — disability benefits — and 1.5 million disabled workers and their dependents now receive benefits under the disability provisions of the law.

JIM LANGDON—A WINNER!

Railroad Commissioner Jim Langdon is a 49-year-old native Texan with a winning record in public office. When John Connally appointed him to the Railroad Commission, the Governor said:

"I have for several weeks been attempting to find a man I consider to have outstanding ability, integrity and honor... I am happy we have found that man — Judge Jim C. Langdon."

Jim Langdon has fully lived up to Governor Connally's expectations. He has conducted his office in the spirit of Governor Jim Hogg, who had the Commission set up in 1891 to look after the public interest in railroad and freight rates. It now regulates also truck and bus rates and the production of oil and gas. Judge Langdon will continue to keep transportation rates in line and see to it that our oil reserves are protected against waste and greed. This will help keep down Texas gasoline prices, already among the lowest in the nation.

Jim Langdon was elected District Judge twice and re-elected Chief Justice of the El Paso Court of Civil Appeals.

ON THE OTHER HAND—

Jim Langdon's Opponent Is a 10-Time Loser!

Need More Time?

The housewife of the Young Married Set is involved with so many activities, she needs all the time she can lay her hands on. A Gold Medallion Home is the answer! It provides so many time-saving conveniences, it's just like adding more days to the ordinary 7-day week. For instance, the electric clothes dryer alone saves 3 hours weekly and even the electric dishwasher saves 7 hours a week...why, that's 10 hours already! Not to mention that the electric range is so automatic, it's like having a hired cook to do all the watching. And the electric water heater provides hot water instantly upon demand. Heating and cooling systems are automatic too... the thermostat is set at the start of the season and forgotten until the season changes.

This is just a smattering of the many ways the total electric Gold Medallion Home saves time for the Young Married Set. Oh yes, with a flameless total electric Gold Medallion Home, there's one less bill to pay each month.

Tricks That Call Fish

IN THE DEEP SOUTH fishermen have a trick for attracting pan fish which they call "Patting the Lettuce." It goes like this.

First, anchor your boat in the center of a large patch of lily pads. Next, pick up an oar or paddle and whale the bejabbers out of all the lily pads within reach. Wait a few moments, then lower your bait — a worm, grub or what have you — through an opening among the pads. If all goes well, business should be brisk.

The reason is simple. By walloping the pads you dislodge a variety of insect life from the underside of the leaves, thereby causing a sudden shower of slowly sinking manna which promptly attracts hungry fish from all directions. The trick can be pulled wherever there are pad patches but, where none exist, variations of the same stunt can be used to create the same results.

One such substitute move is to take along a box of rice and scatter small handfuls around the boat from time to time. Any passing school of perch, bluegills or other pan fish will from aside to inspect this easily spotted shower of interesting particles, and then you're in business. Scatter more rice between bites to keep the school excited and on location.

Another come-on consists of moistening uncooked oatmeal, molding it into balls and dropping these over the side. The oatmeal will attract any minnows in the vicinity and the concentration of bait fish will soon call larger fish — pan fish, and game fish as well.

This leads to another caper: Take along a screen mesh minnow trap and, when in position, transfer the bulk of your minnows to the trap, leaving only enough in the minnow bucket for immediate needs. Lower the trap to the bottom and dangle a minnow baited hook nearby. The trap full of flashing minnows will pull hungry fish and they won't waste time grabbing your bait.

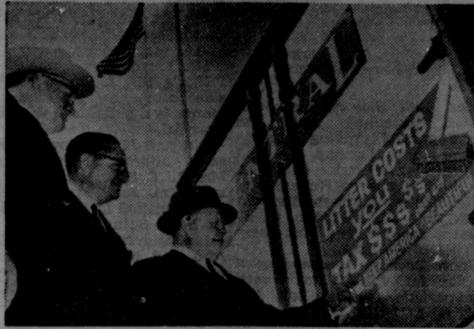

Finally, here's a stunt so simple that it's usually overlooked: Simply hold your line in hand and lower it straight down from the gunwale. On hot, bright days fish often move directly under a boat for shade. They may refuse to move out into the sunlight for your bait but they'll usually gobble it if you drop it in front of their noses. Any fishing questions? Send them to me, in care of this newspaper.

Turkey Trap Is Changed

Austin — Calvin Van Hoozer, Parks and Wildlife Department technician, reports live trapping of wild turkeys is almost completed in Sutton County.

Van Hoozer found the turkeys rather cautious and slow to lure under the drop-net type trap ordinarily used to catch these birds. To counter this change in character a cannon trap had to be substituted. The new trap shoots a net over the wild birds as they feed at baited locations.

The trapped turkeys will be used to supplement brood stock for a restocking program scheduled for completion by the end of March.

"Litter costs you tax $$$." Signs on the tailgates of 900 semi-trailer trucks will be a strong reminder to millions of Texas residents and visitors that litter is expensive, as well as unsightly. ## Accent on Health

J. E. PEAVY, M.D.,
Commissioner of Health

Austin — Through April 4, an aggregate of 27,384 cases of measles (rubeola) had been reported from all parts of Texas. Compare that figure to the 7,541 cases reported for the same period in 1963, and it is clear that the State, in general, is indeed experiencing an epidemic.

Measles epidemics can be predicted with a fair degree of certainty. In metropolitan areas, a mild form of the disease can be anticipated to reach epidemic proportions every other year. In rural areas, outbreaks are usually somewhat more severe.

Outbreaks occur in keeping with population growths — that is, the birth of new babies who are unimmunized, and who are thus susceptible when the community is "seeded" with the virus.

Measles comes in two different varieties. Rubella — often called 3-day measles — or German measles — is of shorter duration than rubeola. Normally, rubella is considered more serious in nature, with one exception. When rubella occurs during the first four months of pregnancy, it is thought to trigger malformation of the unborn child.

In any case, measles may not be lightly dismissed as a harmless childhood disease. Measles (rubeola) claims 34 lives per year, half of which are under two years of age.

Quarantining a measles patient — of either variety — doesn't help the situation. A person is most contagious before the tell-tale red spots appear when symptoms simply resemble a cold.

Recently, a vaccine for rubeola was put on the market. The American Academy of Pediatrics recommends that any child over nine months of age, who has no history of the disease, be given the vaccine.

Children with special problems, such as cystic fibrosis, asthma or heart disease, are particularly advised to take advantage of this protective measure. If any symptoms are suspected a physician should be contacted immediately.

Bind 'Hoppers to Hook

Live bait like grasshoppers and worms will stay alive longer on the hook if you fasten them with small rubber bands rather than hooking them the conventional way.

Double Your Warmth

If your sleeping bag isn't warm enough for extremely cold weather, just put on a suit of insulated underwear before climbing inside. The combination of the two will keep you warm as toast.

Noisy Turkeys Get Counted

Austin — Biologists and wardens are now engaged in a spring survey of wild turkeys in many parts of the State.

This is the season when the turkeys move from their wintering grounds to nesting areas. Old toms, attempting to accumulate their "harems" of nesting hens, gobble frequently in the early mornings and late afternoons.

Census takers, aware of the noisy spring habits of breeding males begin their 20 mile census runs at daylight. They stop for two minutes of careful listening at each one-mile interval and record all gobbles.

First hand information gained from the survey establishes areas of heavy usage by breeding turkey populations. Continued counts along the census lines may produce information on the number of turkeys in a general area; peak breeding periods; or conditions of the turkey range.

The spring count is a check on the population trend of wild turkeys. Conducted from year to year, it provides a good index to total turkey numbers and is a valuable aid to turkey management.

Yokut Indians of California leached the tannin from acorns to prepare a flour which was their principal food.

Many Convenience Foods Save Homemakers Money

College Station — Many convenience foods can actually save the homemaker money as well as time, Extension specialists say.

In a recent study, the U. S. Department of Agriculture compared cost of 158 items with the cost of equal amounts of home-made or fresh counterparts. Figuring price alone, 48 convenience items actually were less expensive.

And if reasonable value was placed on the homemakers' time, many other convenience foods would have a lower cost than fresh or homemade items, Extension Service specialists point out.

Other factors to consider are the savings in work and utensils needed, and less waste in preparation. Packages for convenience foods are designed to keep the contents fresh and convenient for storage. Modern processing methods make it possible to retain top nutritional values, and many processed foods also are fortified with necessary vitamins.

Some of the ingredients used in packaged foods are not even available on the market. Examples of these items are made-to-order cheeses used in many specialty packages, say Extension foods and nutrition specialists.

Best buys in convenience foods probably are frozen orange concentrate and instant coffee. Orange juice prepared at home from fresh oranges costs about twice as much as juice prepared from frozen concentrate, according to Gordon R. Powell, Extension fruit and vegetable marketing specialist.

Convenience foods that add to the cost of a meal are fresh, ready-to-serve rolls, frozen chicken and turkey dinners, frozen broccoli, and pre-cooked rice.

Shoppers buy convenience foods not only for what they cost, but also for what they do for them. The foods can be bought in combinations and amounts that actually decrease total food costs.

U. S. oil companies give away about 150,000,000 road maps each year at a cost of about $15,000,000.

Appreciation To Gen. MacArthur Adopted by HPC

Brownwood — A resolution of appreciation for the life and ideals of the late General of the Army Douglas MacArthur was adopted by the Board of Directors of the Douglas MacArthur Academy of Freedom Corporation at its meeting here Friday afternoon.

The Academy is being developed by Howard Payne College, with the first students enrolled in the program last fall. The Corporation, a non-profit organization, is a group of young Texas businessmen dedicated to providing the facilities for the Academy.

Specifically, the board resolved: "That we officially recognize and give thanks for the outstanding service rendered by General Douglas MacArthur to his country and for the honor bestowed on Howard Payne College by allowing it to establish the Academy of Freedom as the first educational institution to carry his name.

"That we pledge ourselves anew to the task of providing proper facilities for the Douglas MacArthur Academy of Freedom, which is to be developed into an historical shrine to the memory of this great general, as well as an outstanding honors program in the social sciences embodying the ideals to which he devoted his life."

It's the Law in TEXAS

ADVERTISEMENTS AND LABELS

Of late the law of warranties has placed heavy tort responsibilities on advertisers. Sometimes the buyer may treat what sellers say about their goods as promises to which the law will hold them.

In the old days a seller was responsible mainly to the buyer, but the product liability now goes beyond the first buyer. Warranties now sometimes protect the buyer's family, his friends, or innocent bystanders whom the product may hurt.

But the law is not all one way. Recently, in another state, a chemical firm sold an insecticide spray. Farmer Jones bought some, and sprayed his crops. Many plants wilted. Jones sued the firm for the loss of his plants.

The company replied that the label said "Seller makes no warranty of any kind, express or implied, concerning the use of this product. Buyer assumes all risk in use or handling..."

The chemical firm won this law suit: Parties to a sales agreement, as a rule, can agree to disclaim liabilities, as for example, when the seller tells the buyer before he buys that he makes no warranty, or makes only limited ones. Jones should read the label and know of the limitation, otherwise, without any express limitations the law "implies" a warranty that the product is fit for its intended use.

Like labels, advertisements may limit as well as increase a seller's responsibility. In a famous case a car maker claimed that all his cars' windows had safety glass that would not shatter when hit by small rocks. Smith bought a car, but when a pebble struck the glass, it shattered, hurting him badly. The court held that the seller had made warranties by advertising his car windows' special features to consumers. He had to pay.

In another case, Mrs. Brown was famous for her chicken salad. She bought canned chicken which was labeled and advertised as having "no bones." This time her chicken salad contained several broken bones which hurt her mouth. The court held that the canner had to pay Mrs. Brown for her injuries. She had a right to think there were no bones at all in the can.

Read I Corinthians 15:51-58 Stand firm! Let nothing move you as you busy yourselves in the Lord's work. Be sure that nothing you do for him is ever lost or ever wasted. (I Corinthians 15:58. PHELLIPS.)

On September 1, 1923, Tokyo and its surrounding communities were almost wiped out by earthquake and fire. In the space of only a few hours, the fruits of patient missionary work over a period of many decades appeared lost. In the midst of the ruins, missionary bishop John McKim sent this message by cable back to the United States: "All gone but faith in God."

Inspired by this message, Christians in Japan and in America joined hands to rebuild what had been destroyed. Out of the ashes arose schools and churches and hospitals better than those which had been lost.

The Christians in Corinth, a small and obscure minority in a pagan seaport, likewise faced many difficulties and discouragements. In his letter to them, Paul pointed out that no matter how dark the outlook, they could be sure nothing they did for Christ would be "ever lost or ever wasted."

PRAYER:

Self Culture Club Observes Federation Day Here Friday

The theme of friendship was used when the Self Culture Club observed Federation Day with a luncheon last Friday, in the new education building of the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. A. G. Lee of DeLeon, District President, was honor guest and spoke on the departments of the Federation of Women's Clubs, stressing the new committee on Friendship. Mrs. Lee was presented with a corsage and a copy of "West to Glory," a book by Mrs. Ford Barnes, a member of the club.

A color plan of orchid, purple and white was used in table setting and decorations. The U-shaped table had low arrangements of iris, lilac and fern, and iridescent orchid pebbles were on the white linen cloth. Flowers were arranged by Mrs. Vernon Herring, president of the Mountain City Garden Club, and the three-course meal was served by women of the church.

Mrs. Lee was introduced by Mrs. C. D. Bruce. Mrs. Tom Kingsbery, president of the club, presided at the luncheon.

Mrs. Lee told of her term as District President, and thanked the club again for their hospitality to the district when the District Workshop was held here last October.

Guests besides Mrs. Lee were Mrs. Ross Kelley, Mrs. L. E. Abernathy, Mrs. Ceell Curry, Mrs. W. V. Priddy, Mrs. Tom Mills and Mrs. Don Taylor of Albuquerque, New Mexico. Sixteen members also attended.

TSCRA President Says Top Priority To Beef Import

Washington, D. C. — Fred Wulff of Brady, Texas, president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, expressed gratification here today in learning that meat imports from Australia declined substantially during the first quarter of 1964.

Wulff said this decline will be most beneficial to the domestic livestock industry of the United States which has suffered serious economic difficulties in recent months.

However, he emphasized that it should be made abundantly clear that this reduction in meat imports from Australia is not based on any negotiation of the voluntary agreement recently announced.

The Brady cattleman said that there is nothing to prevent a reverse of the present trend at any time, and that American livestock producers still desperately need legislation to set reasonable limits on beef imports.

"It is our hope that Congress will give this matter top priority in order to prevent further serious economic damage to a large and important United States industry," Wulff stated.

Fooling the Rabbit

If you jump a cottontail rabbit and miss your shot, don't give up the chase. A little strategy will put him in your sights again. Watch the direction the rabbit takes. Then travel in a wide circle and approach the spot, where the bunny disappeared, from the opposite direction. There's a good chance then that you'll get another shot.

If you pursue the cottontail straight on, the wise old rabbit will stay hidden until you give up. But the new approach will send him scampering into the open.

Q and A YOUR SAVINGS BOND QUIZ

Q. Is it necessary to keep my Savings Bonds in a safety deposit box?

A. You certainly should keep Savings Bonds in a safe place, and a safety deposit box is ideal. If, despite your precautions, your bonds should be lost or destroyed, the Treasury will replace them. For this reason it is well to keep a list of your bonds, separate from the bonds themselves.

Q. Recently I found two partially filled albums of Savings Stamps my children bought when they were in school. Are these worth anything?

A. They certainly are; in fact, every cent paid for them. By adding the difference between their value and $18.75, you can get a $25 Series E Bond at your bank. Or, if you simply want cash, the stamps can be redeemed at the post office.

Q. I own a $1,000 Series E Savings Bond and need some of this money in cash. Is there any way this can be done?

A. Yes. Any Series E Bond of a denomination greater than $25 maturity value can be redeemed in part with the remainder being reissued bearing the original issue date. However, the amount reissued must be equal to an authorized denomination of bond or multiple thereof. For example, you could obtain a $500 bond, plus the current redemption value — in cash — of a $500 bond.

Peace Corps Opportunities For Home Economists

Many countries are requesting home economists for Peace Corps leadership programs in family living.

There are extensive opportunities for some economists with the corps, Pat Mathis, a member of the Washington, D. C., Peace Corps staff said this week at Texas A&M University.

Perhaps one of the greatest opportunities for women is with the community development project of the Peace Corps. There are now some 6,000 volunteers serving with the Peace Corps in 50 countries, and 40 percent of them are women, Miss Mathis said.

She said the National 4-H Club Foundation's staff assigned to 4-H Peace Corps work is actively recruiting personnel for its rural youth programs in Brazil. The Foundation points out that there is a continuing opportunity to assist rural youth development in many lands — when volunteers with the background for such work can be secured.

Inquiries for specific information should be directed to the Peace Corps office in Washington, D. C., if available publications and bulletins do not provide the necessary answers, Miss Mathis said.

Silent Whistle Useful

Carry one of those silent dog whistles the next time you go deer hunting. If you see a deer with head down and you can't determine its sex, blow a blast on the whistle. Up will come the head and you'll be sure whether your target is a doe or a buck.

HOSCH GROCERY

SKIRMISHES ON THE POVERTY front sparked the political scene in Washington last week. Beginning with 27 officials, consultants and advisers, in addition to clerical help, the Office of Economic Opportunity came to life, though yet unofficial. Headed by Sargent Shriver, this new venture in bureaucracy gained momentum. Forty telephones were installed, along with borrowed desks, typewriters, etc. All this happened even before the Congress formally creates the new office.

On Capitol Hill the House gave the green light to an expanded welfare phase of the anti-poverty drive by approving a $360 million food stamp bill. Although this is not a part of the $1-billion anti-poverty package which is being pushed by the President, it was sold in the House as a vital factor in the war against poverty.

The Food Stamp Bill will enable people in approved areas to buy food stamps and then trade them in at grocery stores at a value in excess of their cost, thus creating a direct federal subsidy on food bills for the recipients. The lucky recipients are supposed to be making a little less money than other people, and hence alleged to be proper subjects of this form of charity.

BEHIND THE SCENES, the substantial showing of Governor Wallace in the Wisconsin Presidential preference primary has created quite a stir in Washington. The Governor ran on one issue — the civil rights bill pending in the Senate. Polling over 260,000 votes, more than one-third of those cast in the Democratic primary and about one-fourth of the combined Republican-Democratic total, Wallace had done little campaigning in the Wolverine State before the voting took place.

Carpets for Traction

A valuable item for the auto camper to have on hand, whether he's on the coast or inland, is two strips of old carpet.

Austin — Only the upper 15 per cent of Texas high school graduates ought to be taken in the state's top universities, the Governor's Committee on Education Beyond the High School has been told.

A sub-committee also informed the panel that some type of higher education must be made available to all and that there is an urgent need for general upgrading of the college system. Enrollments must be built up, dropouts reduced and standards steadily improved, the study group heard at a meeting last week.

COURT SPEAKS

State Supreme Court upheld lower court decisions that approval of $65,000,000 Millican Dam on the Navasota River is final.

Grimes and Brazos County landowners challenged feasibility of the big federal project. Cities of Bryan, College Station and Navasota asked dismissal of the suit.

High Court also held an East Texas oilman, Austin Stewart, can keep on operating two slanted oil wells that bottom under his own property. Decision overturned a district court order which had knocked out a Railroad Commission order permitting Stewart to produce from the wells.

Supreme Court upheld the right of an irrigation district to levy flat-rate assessments against land — regardless of the exact benefit it will obtain from irrigation — when it affirmed a San Antonio appeals court decision on a Maverick County case.

A resident of that county sued the Maverick County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1 contending that a $5.25-per-acre assessment on irrigable lands and a $2 per acre assessment on lands which could be irrigated by gravity was illegal.

He said his land is rolling and did not benefit as much as level land owned by others in the district, but the trial court, appellate court and Supreme Court ruled in favor of the water district's right to flat-rate assessment.

JUVENILE PROGRAM IMPROVING

Texas Youth Council reports that there has been a sharp and welcome drop in the number of repeaters among juvenile offenders sent to Gatesville, Gainesville and Crockett correctional schools.

In the fall of 1961, the rate of returnees was 45 percent. Then the 1961 Legislature appropriated funds for expansion and improvement of school facilities and for five council parole officers. By August, 1963, the return rate was down to 29 percent and youth council spokesmen say they hope to hold this since the parole personnel was increased to 20 last month.

The Rev. Clint Kersey, council parole supervisor, said, "We believe that by an increased stay, we can keep them in school. Then when they are paroled, they are better able to adjust and hold a job, and that cuts the chance of return."

SCREWORM APPROPRIATION ASKED

Gov. Connally has requested a $5,500,000 congressional appropriation for continued protection against the screwworm menace.

A two-year program has eradicated the screwworm from Texas, Connally told congressional leaders, and feasibility of a barrier along the Mexican border to prevent re-infestation is proved.

While southwestern states, livestock producers and sportsmen have financed over half the $12,000,000 program to date, Connally said, it now is an international matter and should be financed by the U.S. without local matching requirements.

The state, producers and sportsmen would continue to provide inspection, survey and other services in the U.S.

OIL FIELD BRINE

The Texas Water Pollution Control Board scheduled a hearing for July 1 at 9 a. m. on its order prohibiting the surface disposal of oil field brine in Area II of the Ogallala formation — the Middle High Plains. All area II permit holders are to appear at the hearing and show cause why their permits should not be amended to conform to the no-pit order.

A May 27 hearing has been set for Ogallala area I — the Panhandle area — and a hearing on area IV will be held on August 5.

THE JUDICIARY

All gubernatorial candidates have been asked by the State Bar committee to pledge that, if elected, each will consult the bar committee on judicial appointments.

Vernon B. Hill of Mission wrote all candidates that his committee would propose no nominees, but would rate each considered for judicial appointments either exceptionally well qualified, qualified, or not qualified.

He said a similar procedure is followed by the President of the U.S. and the Attorney General and the American Bar in appointments to the federal judiciary.

State Bar also has named a committee to consult with newspapermen and law officers about the problem of publicity on lawsuits and trials.

Talbot Rain of Dallas is chairman, with former District Judge Joe Frazier Brown of San Antonio and Joe H. Reynolds of Houston members.

Apparently, the group will seek to work out some sort of joint code for policing publicity.

'AIRPORT' OFF-LIMITS

The airstrip at the LBJ Ranch, a single, 6,300-foot runway located 12 miles west of Johnson City, has been declared off-limits to all civil and military aircraft, "except those on official business with prior permission to use the airport."

An order published by the Texas Aeronautics Commission for the Federal Aeronautics Agency said aircraft also must avoid flying within one nautical mile of the presidential residence.

LEASE CALL

The State is offering 369,788 acres of public lands for lease to oil and gas producers. Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler has called for sealed bids on 608 tracts to be submitted by 10 a. m. on May 5.

Sadler predicted the leases will increase the Permanent School Fund by several million dollars.

SLANT-WELL SUITS

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr announced that nine new civil penalty suits have been filed against 14 alleged slant-well oil operators in East Texas, making the suit total 106.

First suit to be filed outside of East Texas, as well as the first against an out-of-state defend-ent, was filed in Jackson County against John Wrather of Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Carr also filed another "first" suit, claiming a Rusk County gas well was slanted.

APPOINTMENTS

Gov. Connally appointed Lewis R. Timberlake of Austin to the Texas State Historical Survey Committee. He succeeds the late Millard Cope, executive of the San Angelo Standard-Times. Timberlake is a past president of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce.

He named Charles H. King Jr. of Dallas Commissioner of Bureau of Labor Statistics. King resigned as president of the Dallas AFL-CIO Council to accept the appointment.

Connally picked Judge W. T. McDonald of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals to serve as chairman of the Texas Judiciary Advisory Committee to the U. S. Olympics.

OPINIONS

Attorney General Carr held in opinions:

Bee County Commissioners are not required to name a board of managers for a county hospital at Beeville which has been leased to Seventh Day Adventists;

A Bexar County man is entitled to credit on his prison sentence for six months held in county jail;

Term of Titus County Justice of Peace Precinct 1, Place 1, began Jan. 1, 1963 and extends through 1966, while the Titus County J.P., Precinct 1, Place 2 (Unexpired term) serves only through this year.

WATER COMMISSION

South Texas Electric Cooperative, Victoria, received Texas Water Commission approval of application to take 23,400 acre feet of water a year from Guadalupe River in Victoria County to cool steam-powered generators of its new electric plant.

Commission has published a bulletin, "Research on Evaporation Retardation in Small Reservoirs, 1958-63," for the benefit of farmers and ranchers concerned with losing water through evaporation. Bulletin is available free from the commission's office, Austin, Texas.

SHORT SNORTS

Gov. Connally issued an executive order in support of the Texas Education Agency's bid to get the Federal vocational education school contract for abandoned Gary Army Airfield at San Marcos.

Water Pollution Control Board approved three applications allowing City of Orange to continue sewage disposal in Sabine River on condition it improves its plant facilities promptly.

Texas May draft quota is only 258 men, compared to 449 for April. University of Texas Board of regents placed law school professor Hubert Winston Smith on leave of absence without pay during the time he is serving as Jack Ruby's attorney.

Texas Industrial Commission's program of coordinating existing development activities may provide "the future pattern in industrial development for other states to follow," according to a University of Texas Bureau of Business Research staffer.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

If Internal Revenue asks you to come in for a pre-refund audit, don't panic. The tax examiner is a person trained to get the facts and treat you fairly. Get your copy of your return, carefully go over your proof, go down to Internal Revenue and talk to the tax examiner and show him your proof. He will explain any errors that you have made and will give you any additional refund that is due you. However, he will set up any additional tax that you owe.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

 Here's a quick way to chum some catfish to your bait. Buy a can of cheap sardines or all-fish cat food and jab holes through the can with an ice pick or a knife blade. Then drop the can in the water, weighting it with a large sinker or stone. Fish are attracted by the aroma from the leakage from the can. If you put your baited hook nearby, you're in business.
