THE AMERICAN WAY

GEORGE C. WALLACE:
A SYMBOL

By William D. Graff
Publisher, The American Standard

What can be learned from the surprisingly strong showings made by Alabama Governor George Wallace in the Wisconsin, Indianan and Maryland primaries?

Was this some sort of unpredictable phenomenon that went against the grain of the expected? Or, rather, could it have been a manifestation of the true American spirit — latent for many years but now asserting itself?

In spite of the brushing aside of the Wallace victories as nothing more than Republican cross-overs, we are inclined to believe that they have reflected a particularly size-able disaffection with the philosophy of centralized planning, Big Government and the minority rule of force.

In both Wisconsin and Indiana, the Republicans who "crossed over" certainly constituted a relative few, as compared with the number of Democrats who voted against the "establishment."

Vote for What?

Were these people voting for George Wallace the man, who is avowedly for states' rights? Or were they voting for what the man represented — individual freedom of choice?

What prompted George Wallace to make his forays into supposedly hostile "northern territory?" Some say he only wanted to hurt the resident's standing in predominantly liberal states. We are hazarding a guess on this; but think that he sought to prove that belief in states' rights and self-determination does not reside exclusively in Southern minds and hearts.

If we could penetrate the sharp mind of the Alabama governor, we'd probably discover that he sought only to prove that Americans are Americans no matter where you find them — and that a substantially large number of them are getting sick to death of being told how to think and how they must act. They are tired of having their property, enterprises and earnings controlled by a power-hungry central government.

Results

After his impressive showing in Indiana, George Wallace made a statement to the effect that the "liberals" back teeth had been jarred loose.

And, indeed, some dental repairs may be needed by the "establishment" particularly as Mississippi added to the tooth-jarring process by approving the Liberty Amendment — a major victory in spite of pressures from the federal bureaucracy. This combination one-two punch set a lot of pompous, collectivist heads reeling.

The way it looks from here, Governor George C. Wallace of Alabama is a far better judge of homo sapiens Americanus than those "in the know" had given him credit for. And he proved beyond any doubt that when Americans are given a real "choice," their voices come through loud and clear.

Recreation Women To Meet Friday

All women of Santa Anna who are interested in the Summer Recreation Program are urged to attend a meeting, to be held at the home of Mrs. Coyita Bowker at 3:00 p. m. Friday, June 5th.

The Recreation Program furnishes various forms of entertainment during the summer months for youngsters of the town, including the swimming instructions program, wading pool and various other activities.

The program is sponsored mostly by the Community Chest Drive and the ladies of the town oversee the activities. More ladies are wanted to participate in the program. Everyone who is interested in any way is urged to be present for the meeting.

2,500,000 employers made social security reports in 1940; 5,310,000 were so reporting in 1962.

Man Found Dead East Of Town Monday Afternoon

Wayne Stidham of San Angelo, was found dead in his 1950 Dodge pickup about 1:30 p. m. Monday afternoon just east of Santa Anna. About 54 years of age, he had apparently died of a heart attack while driving toward Brownwood.

Mrs. Charles Benghe had been to town and when returning home noticed their cattle all walking away from the highway. Thinking this strange, she looked further and saw a red pickup truck in the pasture, that had left the highway, went across their field and into the pasture. She notified local law enforcement officers and Sheriff John Smith, who investigated the death.

Mr. Stidham was pronounced dead at the scene by Justice of the Peace Gus Winston of Coleman, after an examination by Dr. W. L. Jennings, county health officer. The local Justice of the Peace, W. Earl Irick Sr., is ill in a Brownwood hospital. Stidham's remains were brought to Hosh Funeral Home and later transferred to Johnson Funeral Home in San Angelo.

First Methodist To Begin Sunday Evening Emphasis

The local First Methodist Church will begin a Sunday evening emphasis Sunday, June 7, that will last for six weeks. The emphasis will be on Attendance and will be divided into these phases.

The first phase of the attendance emphasis will be a contest between the Methodist Youth Fellowship, the Nitia Daniell Circle and the Women's Society of Christian Service, to see which group can secure the largest number for evening attendance at the worship service.

The MYF will be the Red Team; the Nitia Daniell Circle will be the White Team and the WSCS will be the Blue Team. Ribbons bearing the teams colors will mark their assigned pews. The losing team will honor the winning teams with an ice cream supper.

The second phase of the program will be a contest between the men of the church. This part of the emphasis will begin June 28.

The resident membership will be divided alphabetically and sections of the church will be assigned to the two groups. A Section Captain will be named, and under each Section Captain will be Pew Captains. It will be their responsibility to see that every pew is filled.

The contest will end on July 12. The losers among the men will prepare breakfast for the winner on the Saturday following the close of the emphasis.

Goal of 100 Reached At Local Adventist Church

An estimated 5,000 people, members of the Seventh-day Adventist Churches throughout Texas, will witness the baptism of the 100th member of the Santa Anna Seventh-day Adventist Church. The baptism will be Saturday at Keene, Texas, where their annual camp meeting is in progress. The new member is Alvin Patterson of Santa Anna.

A goal of 100 members was set just three weeks ago by the local church, to be reached by camp meeting time. Prayers of thanksgiving have been made since the goal has been realized.

Elder Ray Osborne, pastor of the local church, has also been pastor of the Brownwood and Menard churches and Chaplain of the Santa Anna and Menard Hospitals. After the camp meeting, he will concentrate on his duties at the Santa Anna Hospital and church, as another Chaplain has been appointed to the Menard Hospital and church.

35,393,000 persons were credited with wage earnings under social security in 1940; 1962 showed 74,600,00.

MRS. FRANK DEAVER

Daughter Of Dan Tindols Is Music Composer

Mrs. J. Frank Deaver of Victoria, Texas, the former Mary Jo Tindol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Tindol of Santa Anna, has been composing music for the past eight years. Two programs last week featured words and music of Mrs. Deaver.

One program in Victoria, presented by the first grade students of the Victorit Northside Baptist Church day school was an operetta for children, "When Porcupines Grow Feathers." Mrs. Deaver not only wrote the 28-page operetta, but also directed it. Her diversification goes even further because she also designed and made many of the costumes required by the young performers.

The operetta was presented at the day school's graduation program. It consists of three short acts telling the feilicious story of a little boy who does not want to attend school. Mrs. Deaver started composing the operetta in November with the title song. Although first grade students presented it, it is adaptable to the age bracket of fourth or fifth graders.

Last year she wrote "Canticles of Praise," a cantate for children, especially for a similar program at Victoria. Based on the Psalms, the cantate was scheduled to be presented in the Herlandale Baptist Church in San Antonio.

Mrs. Deaver said she was inspired to write songs by Wilbur Collins, band director and composer at Victoria College, while she was a student there. Her first composition was "You," which she wrote while riding a school bus to her home in Bloomington. She said Mr. Collins told her she could write songs if she would just try. She tried and she did write music — stacks of it during the years since. She has written everything from simple songs for children to serious religious music. She serves as organist and music teacher where her husband, an instructor of journalism at Victoria College, is music director.

She received her B. S. degree in art from Sam Houston State Teachers College in 1959. Her knowledge came in handy in making the costumes for the operetta. Her teaching, composing and children, Lydia, 4, and Paul, 21 months, leave her without time to paint, but she uses her artistic talents when possible in her musical endeavors. She also has her master's degree from Sam Houston State Teachers College, receiving it with a major in music.

Mrs. Deaver is considering publishing a group of six popular songs, including "You," under the title of "Bundle of Joy." She had an offer to publish individual songs from "Canticles of Praise," but refused the offer to keep the cantata together.

Her thesis for her master's degree was chiefly composed of children's songs. It was based on methods of teaching, and has been added to several times since she received the degree. Her specialty is music education, and she is currently in the process of writing a teaching guide illustrating her many methods. She has taught kindergarten children to recognize degrees of the scale and rhythm by sight.

Mrs. Deaver is a granddaughter of Mrs. Ed McCorkle of Coleman and a niece of Miss Mary McCorkle and Mrs. Melvin Lamb of Santa Anna.

And Now... Watch Out For Airplanes

An airplane and car collided Tuesday morning 3.3 miles south of Valera on FM506. Property damage was estimated at $1,500. Jim Petzold of the Texas Highway Patrol, investigating officer, reported the accident.

Petzold said Clyde Duncan of Valera was driving down the road and spotted the plane on the highway, apparently ready to take off. Duncan stopped his car and James W. Brown of Coleman, turned the plane around on the highway and started to take off, not seeing the Duncan car immediately in front of him. The plane's wing hit the car, pulling the propeller into contact with the car. Duncan suffered a cut across the forehead, but was not considered seriously injured.

Petzold reported the Highway Patrol investigated nine accidents in May, as follows:

May 4: Two-car accident in Santa Anna on US 84-67. No injuries reported, but property damage was $750.00.

May 4: One-car accident at US 84 and FM 568, 1.3 miles southeast of Coleman. One person injured. Property damage $300.00.

May 11: Two-car accident 5.7 miles west of Santa Anna on US 67. Two persons injured. Property damage set at $1,200.00.

May 13: Two-car accident 16 miles south of Santa Anna at Rockwood. One person killed and one injured. Property damage set at $1,550.00.

May 20: One-car accident 2.3 miles north of Coleman on US 83. One person injured. Property loss estimated at $750.00.

May 27: One-car accident 2 miles north of Burkett on Texas 296. One person injured. Property loss set at $600.00.

May 27: Two-car accident 6.4 miles east of Santa Anna on US 67. Property damage estimated at $225.00. No injuries.

May 29: Car-animal accident 1.4 miles east of Glen Cove on FM 53. No injuries. Property damage set at $150.00.

May 30: One-car accident 1.6 miles north of Santa Anna on US 84. One person injured. Property loss estimated at $400.00.

It took over 20 men to name the Nederland High School's Miss Photoflash of 1964, rather than the one or two usually asked for by the staff of the school's newspaper, The Bulldog Beat, sponsor of the annual event.

The Houston Colts baseball team made the decision this year after the newspaper staff learned that TV funnyman Dick Van Dyke, who had promised to name the lucky girl, was called unexpectedly to Europe.

The Colts in a body said they were delighted to help the students in their selection of the most photogenic girl in the high school.

Barbara Bishop, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Ray Bishop, won out over a field of ten girls. The baseball team narrowed the field down to four, and then to one.

Bob Aspronome, third baseman and actual spokesman for the team, said it was a hard decision to make, adding that the entire ten were "most beautiful." The judging was done solely by photographs submitted by the newspaper staff and taken by a Port Arthur photographer.

Barbara was born in Santa Anna, Texas, October 18, 1948. They have lived in the Nederland vicinity for the past 10 or 12 years. She is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bishop of Bangs, formerly of Santa Anna.

Pete Simmons Sings At New York World Fair

Waco — Pete Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Simmons of Santa Anna, sang last week with the Baylor University Freshman A Cappella Choir at the World's Fair in New York.

The 50-voice freshman choir under the direction of Dr. Fuell Porter of the Baylor School of Music sang at the National Southern Baptist Convention in Atlantic City, N. J. on May 21 and 22.

Buryl Red made arrangements for the choir to sing at the World's Fair. Red, a 1957 Baylor graduate, is music consultant for the Walton Music Co. of New York and Hollywood, Calif. He is also minister of music at Manhattan Baptist Church.

The trip began May 18 from Waco and ended May 31 on the Baylor campus. Concerts were held at Baptist Churches enroute to New York and on the return trip.

Some highlights in New York City were a tour of Radio City, Rockefeller Center and the baseball game between the New York Yankees and the Los Angeles Angels.

Following the New York performance, the choir toured the capitol and the White House in Washington, D. C. as guests of W. R. Foage, Texas representative.

The Freshman A Cappella Choir was organized in 1960 by Porter. Tours of the group are financed by choir performances throughout the year and the individual choir members.

86% of all wages and salaries paid in 1963 was covered by Social Security.

unsettled so far as the Democrats in the First Primary was the office of Congressman-at-Large. Joe Pool of Dallas and Robert W. Baker of Houston are both seeking the office. Their names are the only ones that will be on the ballot here.

The Democratic election will be held in the Lions Club room, same place as the First Primary was held. Polls will be open from 8:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m. Everyone is urged to go to the polls and cast your ballot for your choice.

The Republican primary will be held in the Library Building in Coleman. Only names on their ballot will be Jack Cox and George Bush, both seeking the nomination for the U. S. Senate, to oppose Ralph Yarborough in the General Election in November.

Please Be More Careful About Dialing Fire Dept.

Members of the Santa Anna Volunteer Fire Department request residents of this area to please be more careful about dialing the Fire Department Number by accident. This number F18-3333 — is to be dialed only in case of a fire.

Reports indicate that several times each week someone dials the fire department number by accident. This causes a number of persons to have to stop what they are doing and prepare to answer a fire alarm. There are 14 telephones that ring when the fire department number is dialed, so it is easy to see just how much trouble a wrong number can cause members of the department and their wives that answer the phone.

Members of the department want you to call the number in case you have a fire, and at that time let them know about it as soon as possible.

But please — you are requested to be more careful about dialing the wrong number.

Care Of Salad Vegetables Is Important

College Station — Whether to wash salad vegetables as soon as they are brought home from market or just before preparation time is a question many homemakers ask.

Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, Extension Service consumer marketing specialist, says she prefers to wash and trim salad vegetables as soon as they are brought home. "Drain well and store them covered until ready for use. This provides clean vegetables ready to use at a moment's notice," she explains.

The vegetables are not so wet that they make a "watered down" salad. Space is conserved when vegetables are trimmed before storing. Clean, slightly moist salad vegetables seem to "crisp" better than those left unwashed.

Mrs. Clyatt suggests that homemakers put color, flavor and texture into salads by using a variety of salad greens. Break, tear or cut greens into bite-size pieces. Add seasoning and dressing just before serving.

Salad greens now on the market include leaf lettuce, romaine, escarole and head lettuce. Add further variety with fresh young spinach, celery, cauliflower, or carrot rounds. Radishes and green onions are plentiful and low-priced.

Other vegetables worthy of consideration this week are sweet corn, beets, yellow onions, green beans and potatoes.

At the meat counter, best buys are in the choice grades of beef. Boneless roasts, round steak, short ribs, ground beef and liver are some of the featured meat items.

Turkey and chicken may help with your menu planning and are quite economical. Large size eggs also are good buys.

Deaths In All Wars Total More Than 1,189,000

Honors paid America's wartime dead on Memorial Day bring to mind that the War Between the States remains the most costly in American lives of all conflicts in which the nation has engaged, Veterans Administration records show.

Both sides were composed of Americans in that struggle, Glyndon Hague, manager of the VA Regional Office in Waco, points out.

Union deaths totaled 364,000. Confederate dead has been set at more than 200,000 by Dr. Joseph Jones, surgeon general, United Confederate Veterans.

This total, in excess of 564,000, is the largest American toll in a single war.

There were about 4,000 deaths in the American Revolution and 2,000 deaths in service in the War of 1812.

A thousand Americans died in the various Indian Wars between 1860 and 1898.

The Mexican War of 1846-48 recorded 13,000 deaths in service. Deaths in the Spanish-American War totaled 11,000.

World War I deaths in service were 131,000 and there were 409,000 deaths in service in World War II.

The Korean Conflict saw 54,000 deaths in service.

Total deaths in all America's wars were 1,189,000.

More than 368,000 widows and children of veterans who died from service-connected causes are receiving compensation payments from the Veterans Administration, according to Mr. Hague.

Today's MEDITATION
 from
 The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room
 © THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Read Galatians 6:1-10.
 But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. (II Corinthians 9:6.)

Reaping in ratio to that which is sown, as well as reaping in kind according to what is sown, is one of the certain laws of God for His world. Another way of expressing this is that we get out of anything what we put into it.

The above is true of business, pleasure, the church and of any other activity in which we may engage.

No doubt the reason that so many of us get so little strength and help from the church is that we put so little into it. Our time, our money and our enthusiasm for the church are often given in too limited amounts.

How can full and satisfying stewardship come to the Christian? It will come to him only when wholehearted, joyous and abundant sowing of all that he is and has is "plowed back" into the vineyard of God and thoroughly cultivated.

PRAYER:
 Our Father, grant that we may out of grateful hearts joyously, generously, and unreservedly put our lives and resources to work for good in Thy kingdom. We pray in the name of Jesus, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven... Amen."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
 We reap the abundant life by sowing what we are and have for God's glory and man's helpfulness.
 — T. L. Hunt, Merchant (Arkansas)

V. A. Does Not Endorse Any Fund Or Products

Telephone and door-to-door callers implying they represent the Veterans Administration who solicit funds or try to sell products are acting without permission or authority.

This statement was issued today by Glyndon Hague, Manager of the VA Regional Office at Waco following several inquiries from those who have been approached by such salesmen.

"The VA does not endorse any product, project or commercial endeavor for the profit of individuals, organizations or corporations," Mr. Hague said.

Mr. Hague added that the VA neither endorses nor condemns door-to-door solicitations in behalf of veterans. Those who suspect claims made in such endeavor should check with their Better Business Bureau or any similar community organizations.

Peace Corps Test To Be Given On June 13

The Peace Corps has announced that the next nationwide Peace Corps Placement Test is to be given on Saturday, June 13. It will be administered by the U. S. Civil Service Commission in San Angelo and Abilene at Federal Buildings.

Plans are being made to train some 1,200 men and women beginning this September and October. Applicants who desire to get into one of these fall training programs should take the June 13 test, the Peace Corps said.

Training takes place at various American colleges and universities, on contact with the Peace Corps, and is generally of about three months duration.

No one is invited to training, however, until he has first sent in a completed Questionnaire and taken the Placement test. Applicants may obtain Questionnaire forms at most post offices, from college Peace Corps liaison officers, or by writing directly to the Peace Corps, Washington, D. C., 20525. If the completed Questionnaires have not already been mailed to Washington, applicants must submit them to the examiner at the time of the test.

The non-competitive Placement Test, which includes a general aptitude test, takes about one and a half hours to complete. Knowledge of a foreign language is not required, but applicants with a knowledge of Spanish or French should take an additional one hour language achievement test.

There are no passing or failing marks on the test, and no scores are given the applicants. The results are used, along with the character references and Questionnaires, to determine an applicant's overall qualifications and most appropriate type of overseas assignment.

All applicants to the Peace Corps must be American citizens at least 18 years of age. Married couples may apply if they have no dependents under 18. A college degree is not required.

Those who cannot take the test June 13 should know that subsequent examinations are scheduled for August 8, and for the second Saturday of every month throughout next autumn.

Peace Corps Volunteers are working at hundreds of different kinds of jobs overseas, and applicants who have a desire to serve in the Peace Corps should not rule themselves out because they are not highly skilled specialists. "Let the Peace Corps determine whether you qualify," said Dr. Edwin Henry, Director of Selection.

Sam Bass, Billy Mills Have Almost Same Army Career

It is sheer coincidence when two small-town boys reminisce over 15 years of military service and boast nearly paralling careers.

Such is the case with TSgt. James B. (Sam) Bass, assistant custodian the NCO Open Mess at Lackland AFB, Texas and TSgt. Billy D. Mills, NCO Club assistant custodian at Lowry AFB, Colo.

Hailing from Santa Anna, Texas, 60 miles south of Abilene, Sam at 16 and Billy, 15, joined the active duty National Guard. Both served with an armed tank crew. After tiring of soldiering Sam decided to push something else besides tanks — food, Army Quartermaster style.

Nevertheless, in 1949 they independently elected to swap Army life for the Air Force's — Billy at first in November and Sam followed a month later.

However, their service numbers' last two digits only differed by 13. Sam continued pursuance of food service and Billy became an air policeman.

Eight years went by, Sam had orders for Japan and Billy was returning to the states to Randolph AFB, Texas, from Alaska. Sam was now in the club business, but Billy remained in the air police field until about 1958.

In early 1960 Billy was assigned as custodian of the NCO Rod and Gun Club (similar to a stateside NCO Club) at Bitburg, Germany. Sam took over the custodianship of the NCO Rod and Gun Club at Ramstein in December of that year. At that time, Sam's club was the largest and Billy's was second; only 100 miles separated the two Texans there. The twosome won each an Air Force Commendation Medal for their work.

Then the duo was reassigned in 1962 to Air Training Command bases. Billy went to Lowry to his present position and Sam came to Lackland for the third time. The first time was in 1949 for basic indoctrination and the second was in 1952.

Incidentally, during Sam's tour in 1956 at Goodfellow AFB, Texas, he worked for the present Lackland club secretary, CMSgt. Robert W. Gafford, who calls his home Coleman, Texas, eight miles from Santa Anna.

Since the last move Sam and Billy reunited at the recent AT-C-club managers workshop at Randolph.

Lykins Annual Reunion Held At Coleman Sunday

The fourth annual Lykins reunion was held Sunday, May 31, at the City Park in Coleman. The occasion was in honor of the 88th birthday of R. M. Lykins Sr., of Santa Anna.

Sixty-four relatives and friends registered during the day. Mr. Lykins was the eldest present and was met by the youngest member of the family, a great granddaughter, Pamela Lykins, 8-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lykins of Brownwood. The person traveling the farthest distance was James Rodden of Chicago, Illinois.

Along with a bountiful picnic dinner, a beautiful 3-tier birthday cake topped with one large candle took place of honor and was enjoyed by everyone.

Those registering were from Dallas, Fort Worth, Hurst, San Antonio, Lubbock, San Angelo, Pecos, Brownwood, Santa Anna, Valera, Bangs, Coleman, Hobbs, New Mexico and Chicago, Ill.

Officers elected to serve for the coming year were: Douglas Lykins, Hurst, president; M. R. Pollock, Santa Anna, vice president; and Mrs. Tommy Lykins Pollock, Santa Anna, secretary and treasurer.

Plans For Nat'l. Guard Training At Summer Camp

Austin (Spl.) — A one-day command post exercise will be a highlight of the 15-day summer training period for the 36th (Texas) Infantry Division, commanders were advised recently.

Each of the division's battalions and higher headquarters will participate in the exercise. It has been tabbed as Arrowhead II. The 24-hour tactical period will be conducted July 21-22.

The division holds its summer maneuvers at North Fort Hood, the sprawling Central Texas military reservation, from July 12-26.

The 45 commanders at Camp Mabry for their conference were advised that control of the exercise will be within the T-Patch outfit. It will be a limited free play exercise.

An area defense behind a covering force will be organized and after withdrawal of the force, the division will be subjected to a determined aggressor attack to which it must react.

Major General Selden Simpson, Amarillo commander of the National Guard outfit, said other training objectives for the division includes completion of the advanced individual training for those units converted from one branch of service to another because of reorganization to the ROAD concept.

Platoon and battery sized units continue to train at their current level. Infantry elements will insure that all rifle squads and platoons maneuvers the live fire rifle squad and platoon attack course.

Maintenance continues to be emphasized, it was explained.

Nineteen statewide cities were represented at the high-echelon meeting.

Prevent Forest Fires

Dry fall months can be even more dangerous than those of summer when it comes to forest fire danger. Nippy weather of fall causes more campfires to be built.

Help prevent a blaze from originating at your campsite by clearing a large circle around the spot where you intend to build your fire.

Also, keep the fire itself as small as possible.

Austin — Texas Restaurant Association, headquarters in Austin, is backing a proposal to legalize the sale of mixed drinks in Texas.

Executive Vice President W. Price Jr., of the 2,600-member organization, reports that a six-member committee of his group has drawn a bill for presentation.

TRA's bill would authorize local option elections on the sale, by food establishments, of distilled spirits in sealed containers of two ounces or less. Also it would extend the liquor curfew until 2 a. m.

Price said he has sounded out a number of legislators and found them enthusiastic. One of the most prominent members of the House of Representatives is expected to introduce the measure. Price, however, declined to name the sponsor.

Repeated efforts to legalize over-the-bar sales of mixed drinks in Texas have collapsed in recent sessions of the Legislature under the combined weight of opposition by united dry forces and church groups.

"This is not a wet-dry issue," said non-drinking, ex-restaurantier Price. "Texans can buy anything they want to drink right now. All we are trying to do is make it convenient for a man who wants to have a drink served in a dignified manner at a nice restaurant to be able to get one."

Price, who also is secretary of the Texas Tourist Council, said he believes sale of mixed drinks "will definitely stimulate the tourist program in our state." Furthermore, he estimated, the TRA bill would produce nearly $3,000,000 a year in new tax revenue.

"SKY'S THE LIMIT" Legislative Budget Board members heard a warning from their executive director, Vernon McGee, that "the sky seems to be the limit" on state agency spending requests for 1965-67.

As an example, McGee cited budget proposals of the State hospital system and institutions of higher education.

He also noted the legislative committee of the State Bar of Texas judicial section has proposed big pay boosts — of $12,000 a year — for judges. Under the Bar Committee's plan, base salaries of district judges would be doubled — from $12,000 to $24,000 a year. Court of Civil Appeals judges would be raised from $16,000 to $28,000 and the Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals from $20,000 to $32,000.

Some civil appeals judges had requested no raises at all until the committee report came out, McGee said. But amended budget requests now are being received and the $12,000 raises supported in budget hearings now underway.

RUMP DELEGATION THREATENED

Threat of a rump liberal delegation to the national democratic convention was posed by State AFL-CIO President H. S. (Hank) Brown.

Brown said a sure way to prevent that is for all legally-elected delegates to be seated at the democratic convention at Houston on June 16 and for the convention to embrace the national party platform and all party nominees.

Gov. John Connally said moderate-conservative delegates will comprise two-thirds of the duly elected representatives at the June meeting, and he does not want resolutions endorsing all planks of the national platform.

State Democratic Executive Committee Chairman Frank C. Erwin Jr. has named Austin attorney Will D. Davis as head of a SDEC panel to hear delegation contests from Bexar, Dallas, Harris, Hutchinson, Edwards, Randall and Sherman Counties. SDEC will make the final decision as to which delegations to seat. The eight counties involve 819 of the Houston convention's 2,834 votes.

The Houston convention will name delegates to the democratic national presidential nominating convention and select Texas national committee representatives. Texas Democrats are united in support of President Johnson this year. Key issue is whether the convention will support the national platform and agree to support all party nominees.

PRESIDENT HONORED

President Lyndon B. Johnson returned to Austin and Johnson City to address commencement ceremonies, talk politics and visit with friends.

In his fourth trip to his home state since becoming president, Johnson addressed graduates of Johnson High School in Johnson City, where he graduated 40 years earlier, and the University of Texas. Both the President and Mrs. Johnson received an honorary degree from UT.

The biggest gathering of state officials and lawmakers in the capital city since the last legislative session turned out to hear the President's university speech and visit with him at a reception afterward.

COURTS SPEAK

Sunday closing laws specifically authorize emergency purchases. Supreme Court held in a Nueces County case. Case involved weekend sales by Shoppers World on emergency certificates.

Decision did not pass on constitutionality of the 1961 closing statute, although one judge said in a concurring opinion the whole act should be declared invalid.

Supreme Court agreed to review cases where courts of civil appeals ruled paying traffic fines in corporation court does not constitute a conviction which can be counted toward drivers license suspension.

OIL IMPORTS CHANGES URGED

Gov. John Connally and state railroad commissioners have called on U. S. Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall to revise the oil imports program before the next quota period starting July 1.

They particularly recommended oil from the Texas region of surplus be moved to the West Coast where foreign oil continues to fill almost total market growth. Connally said deterioration in Texas crude prices and production dropoff threaten to erase the slight progress of 1963 and assure a third consecutive year of decline in the State's reserves and productive capacity." The domestic producing industry, he said, must continue to grow in proportion to total imports under a stabilized price structure.

COTTON EXPORT PUSHED

On request of West Texas growers, the governor called on President Johnson to encourage favorable consideration of an export sales program for extra long staple cotton. The plan now is under consideration by the Department of Agriculture.

Growers are faced with a surplus threatening price and acreage reductions. Supima Association advised Governor Connally there is a world demand for extra long staple cotton and this is an opportune time to dispose of stocks owned by Commodity Credit Corporation.

ANIMAL HEALTH COMMISSION DIRECTOR RESIGNS

Dr. R. G. Garrett, executive director of Texas Animal Health Commission has resigned effective October 1. He plans to devote all his time to his farm and ranch near Taylor.

Commission Chairman C. E. Knolle and other livestock industry representatives joined in commending Dr. Garrett for his work in the screwworm and brucellosis eradication programs, as well as day-to-day administrative direction of the agency.

WATER HEARING POSTPONED AGAIN

Texas Water Commission for the third time rescheduled hearings — to June 30 — on five Brazos River watershed reservoir projects.

Reservoirs are Proctor, Comanche County; Stillhouse Hollow, Bell County; Somerville, Washington County; Decordova Bend, Hood County; and Belton, Bell County.

Negotiations on sale of water to downstream interests are continuing.

"BACKTAGGING" PICKS UP

The system of certifying for brucellosis eradication by vaccinating cows and culls as they go through livestock markets, called "backtagging", is catching on fast, according to Federal and State animal health authorities.

U. S. Department of Agriculture says that reports on 2,104 head of backtagged cattle were received from more than 20 slaughter houses in April.

Follow-ups on the backtagged cattle, in addition to samples taken from 2,905 other cattle slaughtered last month, produced 205 reactors.

DROP-OUTS AND STAY-INS

Top brass of the Texas Education Agency heard the initial report on progress in the agency's "Stay in School Project," aimed at reversing the rising tide of public school drop-outs.

Agency consultants reported on what they have accomplished since March when the SIS pilot project started. Commissioner of Education J. W. Edgar termed it an impressive start.

The study and local efforts to implement it and deal with the drop-out problem, will continue and ultimately will become a state-wide effort.

Suicides Rank Tenth In Texas Deaths

The tenth leading cause of death in Texas last year was suicide.

This grim reminder comes from Patsy Reynolds, Extension family life education specialist at Texas A&M University.

"It's ironic in a time when we spend so much money and have made so much progress against dread diseases such as tuberculosis that suicides should out-rank deaths from many of these diseases," the specialist said.

Records of the Texas State Department of Health show that men took their lives three times as frequently as women. Ninety-six percent of the suicides were of the white race, and the period from 45 to 55 years of age produced the most deaths.

These facts support national research on the subject, Miss Reynolds explains. The typical suicide appears to be a white male between 45 and 55, and the time of suicide appears to be between seven and 11 o'clock on a bright sunny Monday morning. He probably has a family, but few close friends. He may belong to a club, but the chances are he doesn't attend regularly.

Most people are not prepared to counsel with a mentally disturbed person who may be contemplating suicide. "Yet we can take anyone seriously who mentions suicide, and try to see that they talk to a physician, social worker or minister. We can take time to talk to the person who doesn't seem to have a great many friends, and we can listen to their problems," the specialist said.
