ELEGY FOR A PAIR OF HOUNDS: As most readers of this column know, we have been searching for a couple of our beagles, who went astray while we were running them on the Bill Cupps place, south of Santa Anna. We have discovered what became of those hounds. Seems a neighbor of Mr. Cupps shot the two of them. They were trailing a rabbit through a field (beagles are intelligent, but they can't read 'no trespassing' or 'posted' signs—even if such signs had been up) and this fellow shot and killed both of them, according to our witness. These two beagles represented several hundred dollars worth of investment, plus a lot more time and concern. Pancho was a big, overgrown puppy. At his first dog show, he jumped in the judge's lap—and won first place. Squaw, the other murdered beagle, was a hound that would rather run a trail than eat—she never realized there were any other type of animal in the world beside rabbits, which was the only thing she cared about. We sure had a lot of fun with these two dogs, and we feel that they are a considerable ways above someone who would be so low as to kill such a harmless pair of animals—as then lie about doing it, was the case in this instance. We think there must be a special little corner of Hell reserved for the man who is low enough to kill someone else's pet, when that pet is doing the killer no harm.

It is considered an insult to compare a man with a dog. We think it is an insult to compare a man like this with a dog—an insult to the dog.

One of our favorite sources of stories (we won't mention his name, but he has a good assortment of farm equipment for sale) says that when an elderly local lady became quite ill, her worried family decided to call in the minister. Rev. Bobby Weathers was called. After visiting with the lady in question, he was talking with the family. "I appreciate your calling me," Bobby said. "Particularly since I know you are all staunch members of the Baptist church."

"Well, you see, Preacher," one of the daughters explained, "we were afraid Momma had something catching, and we didn't want to take a chance on giving it to Brother Jones."

Of course, this will come as a great surprise to our local readers, but we have to inform you that the Santa Anna National Bank was robbed over the weekend. As in many situations of this type, the most interesting part of the whole matter was the reactions of some people. Such as the waitress at a local cafe, who wouldn't cash a check on the local bank until she got an okay from her boss. She wasn't about to take a check drawn on a bank that didn't have any money in it.

Bank vice president Oscar Cheaney opened the Bank Sunday to get some money for Bill French. He surveyed the scene, turned to French, and said, "Looks like we don't have any money!"

Cheaney seemed most perturbed, on Sunday, because the dastardly bandits made off with the half dollars the bank was holding.

Deputy Sheriff Nick Buse had the regular crew of the Mountaineer Recreation Center all excited Tuesday night, when he announced that local law officers had decided they knew who had pulled off the heist. "Who, who?" demanded the crowd, sounding like a bunch of owls. Replied Nick, in the tones of Sherlock Holmes revealing the answer to the latest mystery, "That the robbery was pulled off by a bunch of thieves!"

A local lad took his pet rabbit to the veterinarian, to find out why it was ailing.

"What have you been feeding the rabbit?" asked Dr. Martin, after a thorough examination.

"We raise goats on our place," replied the boy, "and I've been feeding the rabbit on goat's milk."

"There's the trouble," explained Dr. Martin. "Goat's milk is okay for young goats, but it contains too much butterfat for rabbits. Remember, never use that greasy kid stuff on your hare!"

Motion For Rehearing Of Bond Suit Appeal Filed In Eastland Monday

Attorneys for the appellants in the contest suit challenging the election in which the voters of Santa Anna approved the issuance of bonds for necessary water and sewer system additions and improvements, have filed a motion for a rehearing in the appeal of the original decision.

The suit was appealed to the 11th Court of Civil Appeals, in Eastland, after Judge Joe Dibrrell, in 35th District Court, in Coleman, ruled that the election was valid. The appeals court upheld the district court ruling in all points. The motion for rehearing is the next step in the chain of appeal action open in civil actions under Texas law.

The motion for rehearing tries to point out portions of the appeals court ruling that are contrary to law or to precedents. If the appeals court feels that these points are valid, they will grant a rehearing. If not, and this is true in a vast majority of cases, according to 11th Court of Civil Appeals Clerk Homer Smith, they will summarily reject the motion for rehearing.

If the motion for rehearing is rejected, the appellants can then carry their appeal to the Texas Supreme Court.

At least five days must pass between the filing of the motion and the ruling thereon, which means that a ruling could be handed down on next Friday, February 11. Court Clerk Smith said he expected the ruling on the motion either this coming Friday, February 11, or the following Friday, February 18. (All decisions and rulings by the appeals court are announced only on Fridays.)

He said, however, that if a great deal of legal research is required to decide the fate of the rehearing motion, it could take several weeks for a ruling to be handed down.

If the motion is overruled, the appellants then have 30 days in which to file an appeal with the Texas Supreme Court.

Appellants in the action are the five Santa Anna citizens who originally filed the suit: Dan Blake, Lela Campbell, Maggie Culyer, Homer Goodgion, and Leland Thompson.

Defendants in the original action, and appellees in the resultant appeals, are W. Ford Barnes, Calvin Campbell, A. O. Ehrbridge, Lewis Miles Guthrie, Jr., and Ben Yarborough, representing the City of Santa Anna.

Savings Bonds To Be Prizes In Paper's 'Better Santa Anna' Letter Contest

What is the most important problem facing Santa Anna today? What does Santa Anna need more than anything else right now? What will Santa Anna face in the future, and how can it best prepare?

The answers of readers of The Santa Anna News to these questions, or their opinions about these questions and others of importance to Santa Anna, will win for one of them a $25 United States Savings Bond, in the newspapers new "Better Santa Anna" letter contest.

In the new program being sponsored by the paper, readers are urged to write letters to the paper on any subject they feel is of importance to Santa Anna and its people. Each week, a group of judges will select the three best letters, which will be published in that week's issue of The News. These three letters will then become eligible for the monthly judging, and the letter selected by the judges as the best for the month will win for its writer the US Savings Bond.

Letters may be on any topic of interest or importance to the city of Santa Anna, the surrounding area, and the people who live here. Letters may be submitted both by local residents and by readers who do not live in the Santa Anna area. Employees of the newspaper and their immediate families may not enter. Letters may not be more than 150 words in length. In announcing the new letter competition, Santa Anna News Editor/Publisher Bob Parker said: "In providing this newspaper town meeting, we hope to encourage local residents to speak out on matters that effect them. The ideas and opinions expressed in these letters will help us all in working toward a better future for Santa Anna and its people. And it will give our readers a chance to sound off on any gripes they may have about things hereabouts. We are not looking for fancy writing but rather sincere ideas about the area in which we live." Name of each month's winner will be published in the first issue of the paper for the following month.

Letters should be addressed to: Better Santa Anna Contest, Post Office Box 697, Santa Anna, Texas 76783.

Here is an opportunity for Santa Annans to make their voice heard, and to have a chance at winning the $25 Savings Bond at the same time.

Midnight Sunday will be the deadline for each week's contest. Any letters received after that deadline will be entered in the following week's competition.

Peace Corps Test Set In Brownwood

Santa Anna area residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps placement test, at 9:00 a.m., on Saturday, February 12, at the Main Post Office, in Brownwood.

The Peace Corps uses the placement test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude, and the ability to learn another language, not education or achievement.

If test score indicated a limited language learning ability, for example, the Peace Corps tries to place the applicant in an English-speaking country.

The placement test requires no preparation, and is not competitive—an applicant can neither pass nor fail.

The application form, not the placement test, is the most important factor in the selection of Volunteers. Persons interested in serving in the Peace Corps must fill out an application, if they have not already done so, and present it to the tester before taking the test. Application forms may be obtained from local Post Offices, or from the Peace Corps, Washington, DC 20525.

The placement test takes about one and one half hours. An optional achievement test for applicants who know French or Spanish requires another hour.

"Strictly professional." This was the analysis by Coleman County Sheriff John Smith of the Saturday night burglary of the Santa Anna National Bank, an evening's work that netted the robbers $8,425 "and a few cents," according to Executive Vice President Oscar Cheaney, Sr., who discovered the breakin about noon on Sunday, February 6.

The bank bandits climbed on the roof of the Ladies Shop, just east of the Bank, and forced a window into a little used store-room on the second floor of the bank building.

Apparently well equipped, the bandits used quilts to muffle the sound of their work, as they first tried to enter the vault containing the funds set aside for Monday's banking, by coming down through the ceiling. They then discovered that two locked doors leading to the stairs into the bank itself could be easily forced, which they proceeded to do. The discovery that a large records vault, next to the vault containing the money was not locked allowed the robbers to cut through the approximately eight inches of plaster covered brick, into the money vault, where they proceeded to make their unauthorized withdrawal.

The breakin was investigated by county law officers, including Sheriff Smith, and Deputies Weldon Brown and Nick Buse.

Texas Rangers present at the preliminary investigation included R. R. Rohatsch, of San Angelo, and Sid Merchant, of Abilene.

Since robbing a bank is a Federal crime, the Federal Bureau of Investigation sent two Special Agents, Dick Burnet and Officers chosen by the local math group include Ronnie McCarrell, president; Dickie Horner, vice president; and Lois Simmons, secretary and reporter.

The Club will meet on the fourth Monday night of each month.

More County Race Hats Sail Into Ring, As Primary Filing Deadline Passes

Two more entries in county-wide primary races livened the last week of filing for spots on the Democratic Party primary, as the deadline fell on midnight, Monday, February 7.

Bob Browning, former Coleman service station operator, announced during the past week as a candidate for the county treasurer post now held by Monte Gideon, who has announced for reelection. Another contest developed in the race for the office of county school superintendent, as T. Knox Campbell, longtime Coleman County resident, filed to oppose D. H. Williams, Coleman contractor. Both candidates have had extensive teaching and administrative experience.

Lineup for county races includes the following offices and candidates:

United States Congressman: Omar Bursleson, Anson, incumbent; Eldon Mahon, Abilene.
State Senator: David Ratliff, Stamford, incumbent.
State Representative: Ben Barnes, DeLeon, incumbent.
County Judge: Frank Lewis, incumbent; Erman L. Miller.
District Clerk: G. A. (Tode) Hensley, incumbent.
County Treasurer: Monte Gideon, incumbent; Bob Browning.
County Clerk: Lee F. Graig, incumbent; Barney Ransberger.

Second Sunday Singing Scheduled

The regular Second Sunday Singing will be held on Sunday, February 13, at the Assembly of God Church, in Santa Anna. "Everyone is invited to come and enjoy the good singing," said a spokesman.

Larry Lynch, from San Angelo.

Principal clues developed by law enforcement officers include a couple of fingerprints, tire tracks found in the alley behind the Bank, and a saw left by the burglars. The saw, a new one, bore the label of a chain of stores, none of which are located in either Coleman or Brownwood, leading officers to believe that the crime was not the work of a local gang. Texas Rangers were interested in comparing the Santa Anna robbery with others pulled in the Pecos-Fort Stockton-Monahans area.

The burglars were unable, or unwilling, to open the safe in the vault that contained the Bank's cash reserves. This safe is opened by a time lock.

Mary Haynes Wins Homemaking Prize

Mary Jean Haynes, a senior at Santa Anna High School, has been chosen as the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow for the 1965-1966 school year.

To receive the honor, Miss Haynes scored highest among local homemaking students in a written examination covering knowledge and attitude. The test was taken on Tuesday, December 7.

The local recognition makes the Santa Anna winner eligible for judging on a state basis. The examination papers of all local winners are being judged in statewide competition to select the State Homemaker of Tomorrow, who will receive a $1,500 scholarship, and who will be eligible for a trip to Washington, DC, and further judging in the competition to select the top future homemaker for the entire nation, who will be awarded a scholarship in the amount of $5,000, with the runnersup receiving educational grants of $4,000, $3,000, and $2,000. The runnerup in each state contest $500.

Begun in 1954, the program has seen participation by almost five million girls. The scholarships awards this year brings the total of such grants to more than $1,250,000. Over 570,000 girls throughout the country are enrolled in the program this year.

County Commissioner, Precinct Number 2: Thomas Wristen, Jr., incumbent; Glen F. Pope, Byron (Lefty) Gilbreath.

Ever thought about that word—its deep, stirring meaning? We start out as part of a family. And even though we know we are "little" it doesn't matter. We are part of the family—that's important. And what we will become—the family is looking out for that!

Then one day we are grownups. And again we are part of a family. But now we are "big." Oh so big! For what the rest of the family will become—that depends on us!

How important a part did the Church play in your transition from being little to being big? Well, in this free land, the chances are good that you grew up spiritually as well as physically.

But, even if you didn't—it's not too late! Not only can you see your children off to a free and fine education, but you can come with them to church . . . where the "little" and the "big" learn of GOD . . . where the truth of Christ's teaching guides the destiny of THE FAMILY.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Career Day Set At Santa Anna High School Wednesday

The first career day combining students from four Coleman County high schools—Santa Anna, Mozelle, Novice, and Talpa—will take place at Santa Anna High School, on Wednesday, February 16.

Approximately 250 students are expected to hear discussions of 27 career fields by 30 consultants (the difference in the number of consultants and careers arises from the fact that all four branches of the armed forces will be represented at the session on the military services.)

The program will get off to a start with a general assembly in the auditorium, with Dr. A. J. Quinn, of the department of religious education of Howard Payne College, Brownwood, as assembly speaker.

Following is a listing of the various career fields to be discussed. Below the time for each session are the groups meeting at that time. Each listing includes the career field, the room in which each will meet in the Santa Anna High School building, the number of student/signed up for the discussion, the names of the consultants for that career field, the teacher who will act as resource person, and the students who will serve as chairman and secretary for the session.

The following career fields will be discussed from 10:20 a.m. to 11:20 a.m.:

Agriculture: Room 206. 47 students. Consultant: Stanley Blackwell. Resource: A. D. Pettit. Chairman: Edward Anderson. Secretary: Eddie Jones.

ABOVE: The money vault, minus the money. Notice bricks on the floor of the vault. Wall through which thieves tunneled is to the left. Safe to the left of the photo contained the cash reserves, was protected by a time lock, and was not disturbed.

RIGHT: This is the second floor window through which the robbers entered the Bank. The overturned bucket was used as a step for the convenience of the crooks.

THE BIG INCH

The ruled box above is a one-inch ad. It measures one column wide by one inch deep. It costs advertisers 45 cents.

It looks kind of lonesome by itself. But look at it this way:

What you get when you buy a one inch ad in The Santa Anna News is not just a single space in the paper, but one inch multiplied by more than 1,000 copies each week. And by more than 4,000 readers each week.

So you are really buying 1,000 inches, which (at 120 column inches per page) would be some eight and one-third pages of printed newsprint.

That is a mighty big chunk of space to cost 45 cents. Just imagine trying to reach all those Santa Anna News readers by postcard. It would amount to more than $160 just for the postage. But The News does it for just 45 cents.

So you can see that a little one inch ad is a big inch when it is advertising space in The Santa Anna News. And two inches will tell your story twice as well as one, and four will get your message across four times as well, and so on. It is the most effective and economical way possible to let people in this area know that you have wares and services they could use.

Call FI8-3545 and let our advertising representative show you how our big inches of advertising space can be a big salesman for you.

The Tired American

I am a tired American.
I'm tired of being called the ugly American.
I'm tired of having the world panhandlers use my country as a whipping boy 365 days a year.
I am a tired American—wary of having American embassies and information centers stoned, burned, and sacked by mobs operating under orders from dictators who preach peace and breed conflict.
I am a tired American—wary of being lectured by General DeGaulle (who never won a battle) who poses as a second Jehovah in righteousness and wisdom.
I am a tired American—wary of Nasser and all the other bloodsucking leeches who bleed Uncle Sam white and who kick him on the shins and yank his beard if the flow falters.
I am a tired American—wary of the beatniks who say they should have the right to determine what laws of the land they are willing to obey.
I am a tired American—fed up with the mobs of scabby faced, long haired youths and short haired girls who claim they represent the "new wave" of American and who sneer at the old-fashioned virtues of honesty, integrity, and morality on which American grew to greatness.
I am a tired American—wary unto death of having my tax dollars go to dictators who play both sides against the middle with threats of what will happen if we cut off the golden stream of dollars.
I am a tired American—who is tired of supporting families who haven't known any other source of income other than government relief checks for three generations.
I am a tired American—who is getting madder by the minute at the filth peddlars who have launched Americans in an obscenity race—who try to foist on us the belief that filth is an integral part of culture—in the arts, the movies, literature, the stage.
I am a tired American—wary of the bearded bums who tramp the picket lines and the sit ins—who prefer Chinese Communism to capitalism—who see no evil in Castro, but sneer at President Johnson as a threat to peace.
I am a tired American—who has lost all patience with that civil rights group which is showing propaganda movies on college campuses from coast to coast. Movies denouncing the United States. Movies made in Communist China.
I am a tired American—who is angered by the selfrighteous breastbeater critics of America, at home and abroad, who set impossible yardsticks for the United States but never apply the same standards to the French, the British, the Russians, the Chinese.
I am a tired American—sickened by the slack jawed bigots who wrap themselves in bedsheets in the dead of night and roam the countryside looking for innocent victims.
I am a tired American who dislikes clergymen who have made a career out of integration causes, yet send their own children to private schools.
I am a tired American who resents those who try to peddle the belief in the schools and colleges that capitalism is a dirty word and that free enterprise and private initiative are only synonyms for greed.
They say they hate capitalism, but they are always right at the head of the line demanding their share of the American way of life.
I am a tired American—real tired of those who are trying to sell me the belief that America is not the greatest nation in the world—a generous hearted nation—a nation dedicated to the policy of trying to help the "have nots" achieve some of the good things that our system of free enterprise has brought about.
I am an American who gets a lump in his throat when he hears the Star Spangled Banner and who holds back tears when he hears those chilly high notes of the brass trumpets when Old Glory reaches the top of the flagpole.
I am a tired American who thanks a merciful Lord that he was so lucky to be born an American citizen—a nation under God, with truly mercy and justice for all.

Your Social Security

"If you have reached 65 years of age, and are not receiving Social Security or railroad retirement benefits, and have not signed up for Medicare, now is the time for action," R. R. Tuley, Jr., Social Security district manager in Abilene, stated recently. He explained that almost every older person in the nation is eligible for health insurance under the new law, passed by Congress last year. "The major part of hospital charges and doctor bills will be paid for those people who are 65 or older who sign up for the health protection," Tuley said. "We are especially trying to reach two groups of people right now. One group includes those over 65 who have not applied for Social Security retirement benefits because their earnings are too high to permit cash payments. These people will have Medicare protection by applying for it. "The second group we need to get in touch with may have had little or no work under Social Security," he explained. "If they are 65 or more, they can get the health protection by enrolling for it." Tuley said that health insurance benefits begin next July. "I cannot overemphasize the importance of prompt action by all those who are eligible," he said.

Further information may be obtained in person, by mail, or by telephone from the Social Security office, in Abilene, located in room number 2321 of the Federal Building. Santa Anna area residents can make plans to meet the Social Security representative at the Coleman office of the Department of Public Welfare, beginning at 10:00 a.m., every Tuesday, and four Wednesdays during February and March, on February 9 and 23, and on March 9 and 23. The Department of Public Welfare office is located at 215 East Pecan Street, in Coleman. Telephone number is 625-5569.

State Capitol NEWS

Floterial districts! You will hear these two words used often between now and the November election. And probably a long time thereafter.

What are floterial districts? They are voting areas created by combining counties, or parts thereof, to comply with the United States Supreme Court edict that all states must have election districts of equal population.

In Texas, this has resulted in rural counties sharing representatives with metropolitan counties, or vice versa.

A three judge Federal court, at Houston, has just upheld the 1965 Reapportionment Act of the Texas House of Representatives, with the exception of the 11 floterial districts provided for in that plan.

These floterial districts are areas around Abilene, Angleton, Austin, Brownsville, Corpus Christi, Lubbock, Odessa, Sherman and Dennison, Temple, Tyler, and Waco.

The court gave the Legislature until August 1, 1967, to correct the floterial situation.

So, this November, Texas voters will select representatives on the basis of the original reapportionment plan.

The four largest counties in the state—Bexar (San Antonio), Dallas, Harris (Houston), and Tarrant (Fort Worth)—will gain a total of 16 seats in the state House of Representatives, for a representation of 51. Under the newly approved redistricting plan, 12 out of Texas' 254 counties will have a majority of votes in the state House.

MORE TOURIST FUNDS ASKED

Governor John Connally will ask the 1967 Legislature for a bigger budget for tourist advertising.

"Considering the magnitude of the market," Connally said, "We still are going after an elephant with a peashooter."

Connally cited a 14 percent increase in tourists last year—totaling 14,200,000. He reported that advertising by the state produced more than 57,000 direct replies.

Although visitors spend more than $680,000,000 a year in Texas, the Governor feels the surface has barely been scratched. Tourists in Florida spend three times that much.

He called for further development of natural and manmade attractions, and predicted that HemisFair 1968, in San Antonio, will have a "strong impact" on progress of the tourist program.

EDUCATION COMMITTEE MEETS

The Governor's Committee on Public School Education held its first meeting here for a look at school needs, and to begin preparation of a master plan for future development.

The 15 member committee is charged with conducting a "perceptive inquiry" into all aspects of the school system. Its report is due to be made to the Governor and Legislature in August of 1968.

The first session here dealt largely with employing a staff for the big job ahead.

LEASE SALE PROFITABLE

The School Land Board's first oil and gas lease sale of 1966 brought the state $3,300,000, for 136,048 acres—an average of $61.25 per acre.

The high bid, for $620,000, was on a 1,440 acre Gulf tract in Calhoun County. Next highest was $270,090, on 1,500 acres in Calhoun and Matagorda Counties.

Some $91,500,000 was added to the school land fund last year, boosting the fund to a total of $669,184,011.

JOB CENTERS REVIEWED

Fears of expanded Federal control over the Gary Job Corps Center, near San Marcos, faded after a cards on the table session between Governor Connally, Gary officials, and directors of the War on Poverty project, from Washington.

Connally reported there will be no basic change in the Center's operation. Also, it was announced, the Texas Education administrator the Camp Gary Foundation, Incorporated, which Center, may direct a new women's job center, at McKinney.

BUSINESS RECORDS SEEN

February is the 60th month of business upswing in Texas. This is an alltime record for peacetime, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

A "high level" of business activity is predicted for 1966. However, curbing inflation "is going to be very difficult," reports the Bureau.

Additional military expenditures projected for the year will make the state's economy much like that of the Korean War.

Medicare is seen as signaling a big increase in demand for medical services, and as setting off a boom in hospital and nursing home construction.

VEHICLE LAWS BOOK

A new, 282 page book, detailing Texas Motor Vehicle Laws, is available for 50 cents by writing to the Texas Highway Department, Motor Vehicle Division, 40th Street and Jackson Avenue, Austin, Texas 78703.

Copies of this book are offered without charge, to Federal, state, county, and city governmental agencies, and to school districts.

TEXAS AGAINST THE UNITED STATES

The United States Army and the state of Texas met head on over plans of the Army Corps of Engineers to build channels and levees on a stream where the state plans to construct a reservoir.

The state opposed the Sulphur River project, estimated to cost $700,000, because the state master water plan calls for a reservoir covering the channel work and levees that the Corps of Engineers is planning to build.

BANK CLOSES

The Blanket State Bank, of Blanket, Texas, has been closed and placed in the hands of the State Banking Commissioner for liquidation, according to Commissioner J. M. Falkner.

However, its assets have been sold, and its deposit liabilities have been assumed by another bank, so every depositor will be paid in full, Falkner states.

SHORT SNORTS

Cigarette tax collections increased more than $2,000,000 during January, over the first month of 1965, to reach a total of $9,600,000.

A Texas Legislative Council committee, seeking ways to modernize county government, will hold hearings over the state.

Department of Public Safety reports it has more than one hundred job openings in uniformed services for men 21-35 years of age.

Conference on the Older American Act and Medicare as applied in Texas is slated here March 4.

Texas Industrial Commission conducted an economic development clinic at Lamesa.

Sixth annual meeting of Texas Civil Defense directors will be held here February 21-22, with General Earl G. Wheeler, chairman of US joint chiefs of staff, as principal speaker.

Read Matthew 13:53-58

The King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. (Matthew 25:40)

The people in Jesus' own hometown doubted Him, and the leaders of the times condemned Him and finally had Him crucified. In spite of all this, He said from the cross, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do."

How do we respond in our relationships with our fellowman? Do we, as Christians, follow in the footsteps of the Master; or do we find gossip, jealousy, and greed so strong that we cannot forgive and love the sinner? Without faith in the example of Jesus, we fall to overcome evil with good.

Those who obey God overcome hate and nourish love for the lowly, the unlovely, and the lost. The Lord says, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

PRAYER

Our Father, we ask Your forgiveness for the times we have failed to obey Your commandment to love our neighbors as ourselves. Increase our faith that we may serve You better. We ask it in Jesus' holy name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Through obedience to Christ, we find the way to right relationship with God and man.
