Residents Urged To Help Keep City Clean

Mayor Ford Barnes is urging home owners and residents of Santa Anna to help city officials in a campaign to keep our city clean and beautiful.

The mayor states that city crews have been busy the past few weeks removing grass along curbs and gutters of city streets in an effort to keep it from growing into streets, thereby eliminating an unsightly scene and damage to paving.

He urges residents to give more consideration to their lawns and make an effort to contain this situation. He also stated that city crews will attempt to kill grass that is now growing in the gutters and streets, thus preventing further spreading.

Mayor Barnes is very conscious of unsightly conditions on downtown streets and urges citizens to deposit useless paper bags, cups, candy wrappers, newspapers and other rubbish in the containers which have been placed at several locations in the downtown area for that purpose.

Let's all make an effort to keep our little city clean and beautiful; after all, strangers passing through often comment on the appearance of a town. "Cleanliness is next to Godliness."

Homecoming Plans Are Shaping Up

Plans are shaping up for Santa Anna Homecoming activities Saturday, Oct. 8, according to reports this week.

Although a complete schedule of activities has not been released, it was stated that registration would begin around 9 a. m. in the High School building with lunch to be served in the Elementary School lunchroom.

A business session will be held in the afternoon, with the affair to be climaxed with a gridiron tussle with the Blanket Tigers that night.

More information and a complete schedule will be published next week.

Chromancy is another word for palmistry.

COMMUNITY BETTERMENT PROJECT

Pictured above is the crew of the Santa Anna Cooperative Gin, along with the cemetery caretaker and another who does cemetery work. This crew was busy last Thursday getting the Santa Anna Cemetery back in the beautiful condition it usually stays in.

The gin crew was still awaiting the first bale of 1966 cotton and while they were waiting, Manager Pierre Rowe just took the crew to do a good job that was badly needed following the month of rains that fell in this area. The crew and directors of the gin are to be complimented very highly for their attitude toward the betterment of this community.

Sonic Boom Makes Fixtures 'Walk'

A sonic boom, causing damage to plate glass windows, was registered here about 9:30 a. m. Tuesday.

The boom, one of the heaviest recorded here in quite some time, broke a large plate glass window in the Lions Club building and damaged glass mouldings at Bobby's Beauty Salon.

Furniture and fixtures in local concerns virtually 'walked around' from the vibration.

Cong. Burleson Introduces Anti-Riot Bill

U. S. Representative Omar Burleson, D-Texas, has introduced a bill which would make it a Federal offense to travel in or use a facility of interstate commerce with the intent of inciting a riot or other form of violent civil disobedience.

Burleson said the need for enactment of legislation in this area has been made necessary because there will be no Civil Rights Bill this session of which this proposal was a part.

"The demise of the 1966 Civil Rights Bill will take with it the anti-riot amendment, which prompts the need for immediate separate legislation. That need is obvious to all who have observed the violence that has taken place, and continues to take place, in various and widely separated areas," Burleson said.

While Burleson opposed and voted against the 1966 Civil Rights Bill, he supported and voted for the anti-riot amendment that was written into it.

The bill would go beyond the on-the-scene instigator, and cope with riot leaders who operate through the use of interstate facilities, such as the telephone, but who do not actually take part in riots themselves.

"The Congress should not adjourn before enacting a strong anti-riot law with severe penalties to deal with trouble makers who travel over the country and exercise wide influence and direction in creating disturbances, taking lives and destroying property, and then seek to justify their actions under the halo of 'civil rights,'" Burleson said.

Auxiliary Slates Sidewalk Sale

The Ladies Auxiliary of Santa Anna Fire Department will conduct a sidewalk sale Saturday, Oct. 1, starting at 9 a. m. The sale stand will be set up in front of Hartman Plumbing and Electric, with clothing and other useful items on display.

WALL GETS TIRED, TUMBLES DOWN

About a 30-foot long by 14-foot high rock wall, representing the east end of the Piggy Wiggly feed store building, came crashing to the ground about mid-afternoon Saturday, causing some confusion with no injuries reported.

The rear portion of the building was being used by Piggy Wiggly for storage of feeds, grain, salt and other livestock supplies.

No apparent reason for the mishap was available, although it appeared that the rock and mortar wall, which had been standing for many years, just got tired and came tumbling down.

English Teacher Workshop Slated At Howard Payne

Teachers from Santa Anna are expected to attend the workshop of District XI, Texas Joint English Committee, Saturday, October 1, at Howard Payne College, Brownwood.

Topic for the day's program will be "Dimensions," as related to courses, problems, aids and teachers standards. Attending will be elementary school, junior and senior high school and college teachers of English.

Miss Dora Mae Kelly of San Angelo College is the general chairman, with Mrs. Jane Hine-man of Central High School, San Angelo, as program chairman. Mrs. Elva Love Dobson is head of the host group, the Howard Payne College English faculty.

Local English teachers include: Mrs. Kathleen G. Lacy and Mrs. Gertrude Martin.

Mounties Lose Close 9-6 Decision To Dragons; Play Gorman Saturday

A hard-fought gridiron battle, featuring the Santa Anna Mountaineers and the Bangs Dragons, the State's top-rated Class B power, was witnessed by a near-capacity crowd in Mountaineer Stadium last Friday night.

The old nemesis, "Mr. Penalty," was again riding with the Mounties and cost the locals a touchdown and eventual defeat, by a score of 9-6.

The Mounties tacked the first score on the board when halfback Butch Makuta took the pigskin on the Dragons' 36 yard stripe, broke through the left side of his line into the Dragon secondary, picked up a key block and raced across the double stripe untouched for 6 points. Try for extra point failed.

The play came on first down after a quick kick by Dragons late in the first period.

Neither team threatened again until late in the second stanza when the Dragons drove to the Mounties' 2-yard line but were set back 15 for a rule infraction. Faced with a 4th and goal situation from the 6, Dragon Quarterback Travis Hallford booted the pigskin through the up-rights for 3 points and their only score of the half.

Following the Dragon field goal the Mounties came back strong when Fullback Eddie Jones broke loose on a 37-yard gainer into Dragon territory. A 15-yard holding penalty against the Dragons helped the Mountie cause to the 25, but an alert Dragon defender, Charley Sneed, stopped the drive by intercepting an attempted Mountie quarterback Roy Joe Harvey pass on the 15 yard line, running it back to the 42.

The public is cordially invited to attend the reception at the City Park and to meet Mrs. Tower. Claude Weingand will head the welcoming committee, and Mrs. Glenn Thomas is in charge of decorations. Mrs. C. M. Huckabee is chairman of the refreshments committee, and others assisting will be Mrs. Andy Broyles, Mrs. Floyd Thompson, Mrs. Herman Crillington, Mrs. W. B. ### Call Reveals Bank 'In Good Condition'

The Santa Anna National Bank is in good condition, according to a statement of condition at the close of business on September 20.

According to the statement, carried elsewhere in The News, deposits remained about the same as the June 30 call, while loans and discounts reflected a slight increase.

Deposits stand at $2,076,613.52 compared to $2,076,710.32 on June 30. Loans and discounts at the latest call stood at $917,348.05 compared to $910,129.95 on June 30.

4 Choice Words Symbolize 4-H Club Activities

The nation's 4-H youth will be in the headlines the last week of September as they launch National 4-H Club Week. "Four" — spoken or written — will be repeated many times because it symbolizes the club's emblem; its head, heart, hands and health credo; and designates that 4-H is for boys and girls.

There also are four choice words which bear repeating: Encourage, Recognize, Influence, Report. For it seems that the entire 4-H program is built around these four words.

Youngsters not affiliated with 4-H are encouraged to join. Current 4-H'ers are encouraged to continue membership, thereby to steadily expand their knowledge and skills. Recognition is given to the 2 1/2 million 4-H'ers for jobs well done, projects completed and junior leadership, to name a few. The influence of 4-H is acknowledged by parents, volunteer leaders, Cooperative Extension men and women working with youth, by business and government officials and educators. During National 4-H Club Week, members made a report of individual achievement, progress, successes (and some failures). Also a team of 11 4-H reporters to the nation are winding up cross country tours and personal appearances as living examples of 4-H in action.

The Herman Bennett Co. of Brownwood was awarded the construction contract on 18 low-rent housing units here, at a bid opening at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the office of the Housing Authority of the City of Santa Anna.

Six bids were submitted, with the Bennett Co. bid of $183,990 being the lowest. Other bidders were: Fairway Development Co., Brady, $187,845; Hamilton Construction Co., Killeen, $188,900; Barker Construction Co., Quannah, $189,300; The Welch Company, Fort Worth, $191,890; and B. F. W. Construction Co., Temple, $195,000.

Bids were very close with only about $11,000 separating the low and high bidder.

The new construction will include 12 units for elderly people and 6 regular units, which will bring the total housing units here to 34. Sixteen units were completed in December, 1964.

Work will possibly begin within the next two to three weeks, according to Housing Authority secretary and unit manager, Mrs. Henry Newman, following completion of a few reports and paper work.

First Of Four Prison Rodeos Begins Sunday

An air of excitement prevails throughout the sprawling Texas Department of Corrections as nearly 13,000 inmates eagerly await the presentation of the 35th Annual Texas Prison Rodeo to be held in Huntsville each Sunday in October.

The 1966 Prison Rodeo series will headline some of the nation's best entertainers as guest stars, along with tough convict rodeo riders, plus a host of inmate talent to help round out a fast-moving two-hour show. The rodeo, held in the 30,000-seat Prison Stadium, begins at 2 p. m. A pre-show inmate variety hour begins at 1 p. m. Gates open at noon.

Guest star for the opener on Sunday, Oct. 2, is Justin Wilson, the Cajun humorist from Louisiana, who will return for a repeat performance on Oct. 9. Numerous other celebrities and specialty acts will be presented during other performances.

Prison Rodeo fans who return year after year to see the "Wild-est Rodeo in Texas" agree with prison officials and inmates alike, that "there is nothing as thrilling and entertaining as the Texas Prison Rodeo."

First Bale Of Cotton Received Here Monday

The first bale of cotton of the 1966 harvest season in this area was ginned here Monday by the Santa Anna Co-Op Gin, manager Pierre Rowe announced.

The cotton was brought in by Melvin Lawrence, and was harvested on a piece some six miles south of Santa Anna.

The 1966 pound load netted a 510 pound bale and was purchased by the Co-Op at 35 cents per pound. The seed was also bought by the gin at $100 per ton. Total amount paid for the cotton and seed was $216.25.

Rowe stated that the cotton ginned out well, showing good quality and staple.

This was the second bale ginned in Coleman County this fall. The first was ginned in Coleman last week.

According to Rowe the first bale ginned here is always purchased by the Co-Op at a premium price, and the price paid this year is almost double the open market price, which ranges from 18 to 21 cents, depending on quality and staple.

Yearbook Workshop Scheduled At ASC

The journalism department of Angelo State College will hold its third annual Yearbook Workshop for West Texas high school and college students on Friday, Oct. 7.

Featured on this year's program will be two nationally known experts in school yearbook design and production, said Mrs. Maxine Wells, ASC journalism chairman. They are C. E. Savelge, contributing editor of Photolith magazine, and Dick Kennard, yearbook specialist and counselor from Indianapolis, Ind.

Others on the program will be Loren Reed, general manager of Newsfoto Publishing Company, San Angelo, and Dick Jacks, Newsfoto sales representative.

Invitations have been mailed to about 180 schools in West Texas and a large turnout is expected for the workshop, Mrs. Wells said. Attendance last year exceeded 200.

VISITING HERE

Mrs. Charles Ing and Mrs. Nona Woodruff of Corpus Christi are visiting their sister, Mrs. J. C. Mathews. Mrs. Ing has just returned from Costa Rica where she visited her daughter, Reta Jane, who is serving in the Peace Corps program. Mrs. Ing is in the process of moving from Corpus to Brownwood. Mrs. Woodruff will be here for an indefinite visit.

Mrs. T. A. Mills has returned home after visiting for a month in Tatum, New Mexico with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold White and daughters.

Demo Candidate Proposes National Youth Conference

A national Youth Conference, patterned after the Texas Conference that was initiated four years ago, has been proposed by Attorney General Waggoner Carr, Democratic nominee for the United States Senate.

Carr organized and developed the Texas Youth Conference, which now has 200,000 youth as members who are working on various projects throughout the State to combat juvenile delinquency and crime.

"This is the key to the nation's greatest internal threat," Carr said.

"As your new U. S. Senator, I will carry this program against crime to Washington by creating a National Youth Conference based on the program I started in Texas.

"There is no reason why we can't turn the tide on juvenile crime throughout the nation, thus assuring the future of America from the decaying influence of disrespect for laws and order."

Success of the Texas program, Carr pointed out, was reflected in the latest juvenile crime figures in Texas which showed a seven per cent decline.

The use of psychic energizers and tranquilizers in Veterans Administration hospitals has permitted the treatment of twice as many psychiatric patients with no increase in hospital beds.

MEDICARE

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. What does the hospital insurance under medicare pay for?

A. Costs of hospital care; posthospital extended care in a skilled nursing home; home health visits following hospitalization; and outpatient hospital diagnostic services.

Q. How many days of hospital care are covered and how much will I have to pay?

A. Up to 90 days of hospital care, in each spell of illness, with the payment of a deductible of $40 for a stay up to 60 days and $10 a day toward the cost of any days past 60 days that you remain in the hospital.

Q. What hospital services and care are covered?

A. Services and care ordinarily furnished for persons admitted as inpatients to general hospitals. Covered services include:

a. Semi-private room and board (2 to 4 beds). Payment is made for a private room only where there is medical justification, e.g. where the patient needed to be isolated. Otherwise the patient is responsible for the difference between the semi-private and private room rates.

b. Regular nursing services, but not private duty nursing.

c. Services of residents and interns, under professionally approved teaching programs.

d. Drugs and biologicals furnished in the hospital.

e. Blood transfusions, except for the first three pints (unless replaced by a donor).

f. Services of technicians and other non-physicians in the fields of radiology, pathology, anesthesiology, and physiatry - but not the services of physicians.

Q. Under what conditions are the hospital outpatient diagnostic services provided?

A. Suppose your doctor wanted you to have certain X-rays, laboratory, or other tests made to help him make his diagnosis. He could send you to the hospital to have these tests as an outpatient - not admitted to stay overnight. You would pay a deductible of $20 toward the cost of a series of tests made in a 20-day period and 20 percent of any cost above $20. (The $20 deductible you paid for these outpatient diagnostic services could count toward your $50 deductible under your medical insurance).

Q. How much of my medical bills will the supplementary medical insurance plan cover?

A. You pay the first $50 of your total bills for the year for doctor's visits, surgeons' fees, and other services covered in the supplemental plan. After that, the plan pays 80 percent and you pay the remaining 20 percent.

Q. What types of doctors' bills are covered?

A. Bills for home and office visits and visits paid to you in a hospital or other institution, also surgeons' and consultation fees are covered.

Q. My doctor says that I will have to pay his bill first, before I collect from medicare. Is this true?

A. Medicare provides two methods for the payment of doctor bills. It is up to the doctor and the patient to agree as to which method of payment will be used. Under one method, medicare will pay 80 percent of the reasonable charges - to the patient, if the patient has sent in the claim and the receipted itemized doctor bill - to the doctor, if the doctor has sent in the claim.

The only difference in the two methods is that if the doctor sends in the claim, he must agree that his full charge to the patient will not be higher than what is determined to be the reasonable charge for the services. He will then collect from the patient the remaining 20 percent of the reasonable charge and any amount of the $50 deductible still owing him.

State Capitol NEWS

Austin—A complete revision of the Texas Constitution, proposed by Gov. John Connally and endorsed by the state Democratic convention, looks like the big state capitol news of the coming years.

Republicans likewise gave approval at their state convention to the idea of modernizing the 1876 constitution. But a long row lies ahead. Already many are expressing doubt as to the wisdom of a complete revision.

It would be a long process. First, the Legislature would ask the voters to approve the calling of a constitutional convention. Then, presumably, delegates to the convention would be elected. Their final product would go to the Legislature for submission to the voters for approval or rejection.

Governor Connally's suggested route would be to set up a cabinet system like the federal government. This would give the governor more responsibility for all phases of state government. He now appoints only one major state department head—the secretary of state.

WATER PLAN RESTUDIED
Texas Water Development Board pulled back its massive $3,700,000,000 proposed statewide water plan for re-evaluation in view of strong criticism during its series of 30 public hearings.

The Board announced 16 additional studies to determine reasonable "alternates" which may be put into the plan in case population grow and water needs are higher than those originally predicted.

Among subjects scheduled for new looks are:

- * Alternative sources of irrigation water for West Texas, including possible diversions from surplus East Texas basins;
- * Reduction of water quantities from San Antonio's surface water supply, originally tagged for delivery to lower Rio Grande Valley for new irrigation;
- * Importing water into or above Highland Lakes in the Colorado River basin;

New sources of industrial and municipal water for Abilene, San Angelo, Odessa, Lubbock and the Trans Pecos-El Paso areas.

Board also will cooperate with the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation in determining costs of delivering water to West Texas, utilizing a pump-back system up the Colorado River channel.

COMMITTEE SYSTEM EYED

A study panel has agreed to principle on far-reaching recommendations to modernize antiquated procedures by which committees of the House of Representatives process legislation.

House Rules Study Committee, headed by Rep. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi, concluded that the number of standing committees should be cut from 43 to 25; that membership should be based on a modified seniority system; and that committees should return detailed reports and analysis of bills with aid of professional staffs.

COLLEGE GRANTS PUSHED

Coordinating Board of the Texas College and University System recommended 48 projects totalling $23,000,000 for federal grants under Title I of the Higher Education Facilities Act of 1963.

Money has not yet been allocated by Congress, but the applications were recommended early to speed their processing through the U. S. Office of Education. Federal money will be matched with state and local funds for new buildings.

SHORT SNORTS

Thurman Dobbins of Austin and Mrs. Mary Margaret Perry of Houston were named to the State Commission for the Blind.

Guppy fish are born alive. Governor Connally has approved Neighborhood Youth Corps Projects in El Paso and Mount Vernon, for grants of $194,350 and $134,080, respectively.

Application blanks for the November 18-19 Selective Service Qualification Test for college students, to be used by local boards in considering deferments, now are available to students.

Sabine River Authority will receive $120,440 from the federal government under the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act, which they will match locally, to develop Wind Point Park at Lake Tawakoni.

Future Homemakers Sponsor Peace Corps Program

The Santa Anna FHA Chapter, Area IV, invited Miss Maryanna Hernandez to give a talk to the senior and junior high school students. Miss Hernandez is a member of the Peace Corps and has given active service for two years. She is a former resident of Brady, and a graduate of Brady high school. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Texas.

For her training in preparation for the Peace Corps she attended the University of Hawaii.

She was then stationed in the Philippines for two years where she taught Science, English and Mathematics. She returned to the United States in 1965 after two years of work. She is presently employed as a psychiatric case worker in a state hospital in Austin.

To open her program, Miss Hernandez presented a film on the "Mission of Discovery." This film pointed out the work of a few of the volunteers in other countries, performing their duties as members of the Peace Corps. Following the film Miss Hernandez commented on some of her own experiences and rewards gained from her participation in the program.

As a whole the program was one of high interest. It left one with many challenging thoughts — thoughts of those who need help and appreciate it — thoughts of the Peace Corps. Cleta Pollock, PRO Officer Santa Anna FHA Chapter

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE...

Omar Barleson, M. C.

Washington, D. C. — Discussions as to whether Sessions of Congress should be televised have been going on ever since the advent of television.

Rules in the House of Representatives prohibit "live" broadcasts of all Committee hearings, and neither the House nor the Senate televise Chamber proceedings. The Rules of the Senate, however, permit the televising of Committee hearings.

The broadcasting industry advocates "live" broadcasts of all committee hearings and would even like to set up their cameras in the House and Senate Chambers. Presently, they are permitted to do so during Joint Sessions when addressed by the President and foreign dignitaries.

Radio and television people contend that they do not have the freedom of covering the news of Congress and its Committees as do newspapers and magazines.

Four chances out of 10, the prescription you bring in today calls for a drug that didn't exist a mere five years ago. No matter what you were willing to pay then, you couldn't have bought that drug — and its power to restore health. Yet today, it's right on our shelves — ready for your doctor to prescribe — at less than the cost of a good dinner. That's why we say . . .

their argument. The competition between the two major news media, that is, broadcasting and newspapers, would tend to demand greater accuracy of reporting on the part of both. Too many reporters and newspapers and periodicals seem to think they must sensationalize everything for it to be a saleable commodity. Unfortunately, there is an element of truth in it. There is no news in "dog bites man." News is when man bites dog. News media, however, are charged with the responsibility of reporting facts and not slanting news for the sake of selling excitement. Seemingly, in many instances, implications and innuendoes are more news worthy than the real facts and circumstances.

The case against the broadcast of proceedings of Committees and Session of the two Bodies of Congress would seem to outweigh it being permitted.

First, there are the "hams," which any politician and, in fact, most any public figure, has to admit is practiced to some degree or other. No doubt "live" broadcasts would furnish a stage for theatrics in many circumstances.

The fact that Senate Committee hearings are permitted to be televised has left the impression with a great many people that here is where the most important things are being done. As a matter of fact, the Committees of the House of Representatives are much more thorough and knowledgeable about most legislation than the Senate ever becomes. Senators do, however, get the major part of the publicity. House Committees work for months on major legislation. When it reaches the Senate, by reason of smaller numbers, consideration of such legislation cannot be given as much time. In addition, in most instances, the groundwork is laid for the Senate after long and detailed hearings by the House of Representatives. But after televised hearings, many people seem to think that they are the principal architects of legislation. Therefore, the public relations image of the House is not projected.

It is not the role of the Congress of the United States to compete for public attention. The role of the Congress is made clear in the Constitution, and to meet that responsibility, it must do so with thorough deliberation. To operate in such a manner is hardly sensational and, therefore, it would leave up to the broadcasters as to which Sessions of a Committee they would televise. The same is true with the Sessions of both the House and the Senate. Many days of Sessions of each are filled with rather routine and non-exciting procedures. Other days may be filled with arduous debate and activities which would not portray the average operation of the Congress.

If individual members must vie with one another for public attention, it would inevitably distort the legislative function. Legislating nor legislators should not have to become a part of a show to perform the solemn obligation of the peoples' duly elected officials. The job is to make the best laws possible and not to become performers in what could evolve into a public circus.

The best public relations in which Congress can engage is to do its job well, without being under the pressure and clamor of publicity. No amount of publicity in the final analysis can substitute for good performance.

There is too much human nature in all of us not to be conscious of being in front of a camera. It would be bound to bring out the human inclination to pose and posture, to demagogue and to overstate issues. Charged purely as a performance, the result would probably be an interesting spectacle but the end product would probably not deserve a commercial.
