AUTO INSURANCE RATES

Governor Preston Smith said Thursday he will launch a "full-scale" investigation into the spiraling private passenger automobile insurance rates in Texas.

"The announcement Tuesday that the Insurance Commission Staff has recommended an 11.4 per cent increase in private auto rates borders on catastrophe and has become intolerable for many of our citizens," the Governor said.

One of the first steps the governor plans is to call a meeting in Austin "as soon as possible" of a representative group of presidents of insurance firms in the state.

He also said he is exploring the possibility of naming a small select panel of lay citizens outside the insurance industry to make a thorough study and recommendations.

"There also is pending in both the House and Senate appointment of interim study committees of legislators to look into auto insurance rates," the governor added.

He said he is hopeful combined efforts on all fronts can "come up with some solid recommendations and steps which the Legislature can take at its next regular session."

"We must face the fact," Smith said, "that Texas is one of the few states in the nation which still maintains a controlled rate system on auto insurance. The vast majority of states are under a competitive system or utilize some form of the merit system which Texas once had, the governor said.

Governor Smith pointed out Texas' controlled-rate system originally was set up to make sure insurance companies received

DEPT. OF PUBLIC SAFETY

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated three accidents on rural highways in Yoakum County during the month of June, according to Sergeant Hal Pirtle, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in one person injured and an estimated property damage of $1,275.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first six months of 1969 shows a total of 14 accidents resulting in two persons killed, eight persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $15,585.00.

During the first six months of 1969 in Texas there were 1,470 traffic deaths, or two less as compared to the 1,472 traffic deaths for the same period of 1968. However, if past trends continue the last six months will probably far exceed the first six months; as a matter of fact, the last six months of 1968 there were 2,009 traffic deaths.

The Sergeant stated, "With an all time record of 49 traffic deaths over the 4th of July weekend, we are not only well ahead in comparison to the beginning of the second six months in 1968, but well on our way to establishing a record year in 1969."

RAY TRENT ANNOUNCES FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Ray Trent, Denver City businessman, has formally announced his bid for election to the 73rd Legislative District post vacated July 1 by State Rep. Randy Pendleton.

Trent, insurance man and laundry owner in Plains and Denver City -- former employee of Phillips, Shell and Skelly Oil Companies in the Permian Basin -- is campaigning for election to the Texas House of Representatives in the July 22 special election in Yoakum, Gaines, Andrews, Martin, Lynn and Dawson Counties. The election was called by Gov. Preston Smith following the resignation of Pendleton who was named to Smith's Washington, D. C., staff.

A conservative, Trent has been a resident of Yoakum County for the past 25 years. He was born and reared in central Texas, the son of a farmer.

The candidate is married and the father of four children. He is a member of the Methodist Church and is a member of the Denver City Chamber of Commerce.

For a period in 1968, he was publisher of the Plains Record, a newspaper, in Plains.

Trent said that he entered the legislative campaign so that the 73rd District may have a conservative voice in the state capital. In a statement, Trent outlined beliefs for which he would fight in the House of Representatives.

Trent said, "You have read the views of my fellow candidates. Here's my platform:"

1. FOR a sensible, long range program to obtain an adequate water supply for West Texas. But am against pumping it out of the Mississippi River at a cost of Nine Billion Dollars. Let's vote against this proposal August 5th. Don't worry they will bring it up again later.

2. FOR retaining the 27 1/2% oil depletion allowance. The oil industry benefits everyone in Texas, directly or indirectly. It cost money for drilling and exploration.

3. FOR aid to the aged and the crippled, but am against voting to raise the welfare ceiling 20 million dollars to help someone in Dallas or Houston that doesn't want to work. We don't have the $20,000,000.

4. AGAINST state income tax. If we must raise more taxes the fairest way would be the sales tax.

5. FOR the right to own property without fear of it being destroyed by rioting, looting or any other type of vandalism. We can achieve this through full co-operation with and support for a 11 our law enforcement agencies.

6. FOR a complete overhaul of the State Board of Insurance. The insurance companies are making more money than ever before and car insurance rates should be lowered, not raised.

7. AGAINST busing our children from one place to another just to create a higher percentage of integration. Seems like the parents and children should have a little say so about this, regardless of their color.

8. AGAINST school consolidation. If they can send the Seagraves kids to Seminole, then in the next few years they could be hauling every kid in the 73rd District to Lubbock or Odessa.

9. AGAINST sex education in our public schools. This would only result in weakening our morals.

10. FOR higher price support for the farmers. The prices get for their products are only a small percentage of the retail price of these products.

11. FOR aid to small business and for encouraging more men and women to enter business.

12. AGAINST government waste which brings on higher taxes and more taxes which brings on government waste.

13. FOR the right to bear arms.

14. FOR putting God above all and thereby keeping America the greatest nation on earth.

15. AGAINST voting myself a raise in pay if I am elected.

I am not able to saturate all the newspapers in this district with advertising, therefore I ask you to study the platform and if you believe conservative, vote conservative.

I want to congratulate each of my fellow candidates for entering the race. It is fortunate that the ones from Lamesa were not certified. It seems that I am about the only one running that is not connected in some way with Dawson County, but you can change that by voting conservative on July 22 and giving me a chance to represent all of the 73rd District.

I believe America must turn to God and return to the principals upon which this nation was founded.

FARM NEWS

The greater use of cotton in linen supply services will be stimulated through an advertising campaign to be launched this fall by the Cotton Producers Institute.

According to CPI trustees from the High Plains area, the linen supply industry is currently using approximately 400,000 bales of cotton annually. Services include such items as rental sheets and pillowcases, towels, tablecloths, napkins and uniforms.

In the towel field, cotton's position is being challenged by paper. In sheets and pillowcases -- as well as tablecloths and napkins -- hospitals, hotels, restaurants, and other institutional users are turning to durable press blends. Blended uniforms are making inroads too.

CPI will feature full-page ads in national publications stressing the freshness, softness, absorbency, and hygienic qualities of cotton. The economy, efficiency, and convenience of linen supply services will also be emphasized.

The advertising messages will be directed to executives in the motel-hotel field, hospital and nursing home administrators, college and university officials, food and lodging managers, beauty and barber shop operators, and business management executives. CPI is coordinating its selling efforts with those of the Linen Supply Association of America, headquartered in Miami Beach.

The linen supply campaign is part of the $10-million CPI re-

NEW DIRECTOR

Frederick S. Neumann, long time Texas businessman, assumed the post of director of the 86-county Lubbock region of the Small Business Administration (SBA) on Tuesday, July 8, 1969.

His oath of office was administered by William R. (Bill) Keener, Washington, D. C., special assistant to the administrator, SBA, in ceremonies at the Lubbock SBA office, 1616 19th Street.

Neumann succeeds Jack Teddlie, director for 10 years, who has retired from the position but who will remain in the office in another capacity.

Neumann will supervise SBA activities in the wide West Texas area through a personnel force of about 30 staff members.

A native of Dallas, Neumann, 56, comes to Lubbock from Beaumont where he was president of Neu-Way Rug Cleaners, Inc., a firm operating on the Gulf Coast.

He was a deck officer in World War II, and later was general manager of a towboat firm in Orange. He is a Rotarian.

Vote July 22nd.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ

If you have found yourself wishing that somebody had hanged Alexander Graham Bell with a potato vine when he was a mere boy, consider the Internal Revenue folks. During the recent income tax filing season they had about 300,000 taxpayer calls. More than 125,000 additional taxpayers dropped by for a visit with the good tax folks. Since the Dallas District receives about 1,600,000 tax returns, it would appear that about one taxpayer in four decided to have a few words with Internal Revenue before he voluntarily complied.

Some 49% of the tax returns come from the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

UPCOMING ELECTION

There is much speculation regarding the popularity of the upcoming election, July 22nd for the office of State Representatives from the 73rd district among the voters. If the voter turns out in proportion to the candidates for the office, it will be quite an election.

There are some might fine platforms and promises being offered by these 9 candidates. If the State Legislature turns out to be as conservative and reasonable as 9 candidates promise to be, the next session will be far more effective than Texas has seen in many years. Only one commitment is lacking in all platforms. The promise to continue to represent this district for the full tenure of the elected term of office. Of the last three representatives this district has had, two have suddenly forgotten their responsibility to the voters who elected them when a fat job in Washington was offered.

Some ambitious young legislator could do his state a great service by inducing the law makers in Austin to make it mandatory for any elected office holder to serve out his term of office before being eligible for any other government position what so ever. Everyone should realize their responsibility in this election. Though there is but one office to be filled it is an office that is very important to every voter in the district. If there is a proper interest shown and there is a large voter turnout there is no doubt that a good representative will be selected from this fine list of candidates.

WHO KNOWS

Texas folks sure are anxious to spend the tax payer's money these days. With all the amendments coming up for vote on August 5th there is no amendment to cut taxes or attempt to curb spending. Yet on the street the constant clamor for, "Stop Inflation", is heard. It appears that the only definition for inflation is increase in the price of groceries. Yet it is difficult to eliminate the tremendous increase of appropriations and the amendments for the spending 'billions' of dollars' from this classifications.

In viewing the vast amount of advertizing and publicity that passes over an editor's desk one wonders if the State Legislature has not turned into a promotional institution rather than a governing body entrusted with the welfare of the citizenry. There surely doesn't appear to be any consideration for the welfare of the Tax payer. One trouble is that few of the big promotional schemes originate in the minds of the heavy tax paying class.

At any rate if any of the amendments are accepted by the voters August 5th it is sure that a goodly portion of the amounts asked for will have been spent trying to convince the voters that it was a good idea, and by the time the money is made available inflation will have claimed another large share. Of course there must be cause for the next demand for increase appropriations.

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS

Are TV-Men Cry-Babies?

It is no news that there have been disturbances, or perhaps more properly, riots, wherein mobs have thrown sticks and stones, and other missiles which has forced law officers to use tear gas and other weapons.

But a strange paradox in this situation is that whenever a newsman gets involved in the frenzy, to his discomfort or injury, the cry of foul play against law enforcement officers starts up. Usually, in fact in most cases, it is a newsman for a TV outlet that raises the greatest fuss.

This is a strange commentary. Almost since the day newspapers started to publish, reporters have understood and accepted that there would be times that their occupation would run into some hazards.

If they did not want to run the risk, then they wangled some assignment such as handling the obituary column, the church page, or some other protected niche.

However, whenever there is a major disaster such as a riot, war, fires, floods, the real newsmen have taken their chances, carrying on their duty to observe and report objectively.

The list is long including the legendary Richard Harding Davis.

vis, Jack London, Frank Ward O'Malley, not to mention the long list of war correspondents who have been injured or killed, with perhaps Richard Trekasakis and Ernie Pyle the best known of this group.

Obviously, when on one hand there is a howling mob, burning, looting, and destroying, the law must make a show of force to quell the mob. And in a situation such as this, it is asking too much of law enforcement people to question each person in the mob confronting them what their motives are, or their reasons for being present. If gas is needed, which after all, is much more humane than bullets, newsmen are bound to get a whiff or so.

Yet, the way some TV newsmen (sic) carry on, the impression is given that the authorities were engaged in a personal vendetta with them.

This same situation also applies to the curious who rush in where there is a promise of trouble. If they get pushed around, then the complaint is set up that there is an infringement of their rights.

Both the curious and the would-be newsmen would do well to remember the saying of former President Harry Truman, "If you can't stand the heat, stay out of the kitchen."

EL PASO NAT. GAS

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 14 -- Twenty-four different parties -- including western states, public utility commissions, gas distribution and pipeline companies, and the U.S. Justice Department -- have filed documents with the Supreme Court asking it to reconsider its recent decision in the El Paso Natural Gas Company divestiture case. In a June 16 ruling, the Supreme Court in four to two decision voided a lower courts plan under which El Paso Natural Gas would divest its Pacific Northwest properties to Colorado Interstate Corporation. El Paso Natural Gas, one of the twenty-four parties, in its petition for a rehearing pointed out that "neither El Paso nor any other party in fact briefed or argued the merits of the questions the court decided" on June 16 -- and that as a consequence the decision was reached without the court having heard arguments or read briefs on the questions it decided.

The company's petition asserted that the "case is far too important, not just to the immediate parties, but to the consumers in a large area of our country, to be decided in such a short time, after an inadequate presentation, and on the basis of a misunderstanding of some of the most basic and relevant facts upon which the decision must hinge."

Other parties asking the court to reconsider the case include the Solicitor General of the United States, the states of California, Arizona, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Nevada and Utah the major gas distribution companies operating in California, and major gas distribution companies operating in the Pacific Northwest and the Southwest. El Paso pointed out that the most recent high court decision would result in higher costs to the new company in the range of $5 million annually, "most of which will presumably be covered by immediate rate increases to the gas consumers in the Northwest" and that these higher costs would put the new company at a "serious disadvantage" in attempting to provide additional competition in the California gas market.

The Solicitor General told the Supreme Court in his argument prior to its June 16 ruling that the provisions of the divestiture decree, which was overturned by the court, would have created "a strong new competitive force" in the California natural gas market.

El Paso was ordered by the court in 1964 to divest itself of the former Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corporation properties, de-

Beaned by Baggage

Wheeling around a corner, the bus driver cut so sharply that a suitcase fell out of the overhead rack. It landed squarely on the head of an unsuspecting woman passenger, inflicting painful injuries.

In due course, she sued the bus company for damages. At the trial, the company protested that it should not be held responsible for such an unlikely accident.

But the court felt otherwise and ordered the company to pay the woman's claim. The judge said it was part of a driver's job to handle his bus with full regard for the dangers of falling luggage.

As it does on all common carriers, the law imposes substantial responsibility on a bus company for the safety of the travelling public. This responsibility extends not only to the way the driver handles the bus but also to the way luggage is placed—either on the rack overhead or in the seats and aisles.

Consider this case: A passenger set his suitcase on the floor, where it protruded more than two feet into the aisle. Another passenger, coming through, stumbled over the suitcase and suffered a broken leg.

Here, too, a damage suit against the bus company was successful. The victim won his case on the ground that the suitcase had been in that obstructive position long enough for the bus driver—if he had been reasonably alert—to have noticed it and taken action.

Nevertheless, while the law demands due care of the driver, it does not expect the impossible. In another case, the driver did check the position of all luggage—above and below—before starting out. Furthermore, he drove his bus with proper care.

Yet, unbeknownst to him, a satchel on the overhead rack contained a kitten. During the ride the kitten moved, shifting the center of gravity and bringing the satchel crashing down upon a passenger's shoulder.

Under these circumstances, a court could find no basis for holding the bus company liable. The judge said he saw no way by which the driver, no matter how conscientious, could have foreseen and forestalled an accident like this.

things, that auto deaths and injuries have soared.

"This contributes to higher insurance rates. Sometimes auto owners themselves are to blame for increased premiums. Where false claims are originated or tolerated it certainly is detrimental to our citizenry as a whole."

"While state officials must play the leading role, there also is a definite responsibility on the part of each citizen to make sure he does what he can to keep rates down," the governor continued.

The governor stressed he fully understands this is a complex situation, adding "but surely there must be some answers which we as elected officials don't have and should have."

"I intend to get those answers and make a full disclosure of the facts surrounding the entire auto insurance problem in Texas," the governor concluded.

4-H ADULTS

The Yoakum County 4-H Adult Leaders met Tuesday night in the District Court Room for a regular meeting with Mrs. Tom Box, chairman presiding. Claude Addison and Mrs. Velma Dearing were elected adult advisors for 4-H Council, Kenneth Blount and Mrs. Tom Box are advisors elected by the 4-H Council.

A nominating committee was appointed as election of officers will be September 9 at the regular meeting.

Team demonstrations were given by Debbie Addison, Steve Beck and Gary Spears, Jena Altman and Carolyn Richardson. Thirty-eight in attendance were served punch and cookies. All 4-H leaders are urged to attend these meetings.

ved a fair and equitable rate of return and citizens were not charged exorbitant rates.

"We are not going to 'pick on' the insurance companies," Smith said.

"We all realize the companies must make reasonable profits to stay in business, but," the governor continued, "it is up to the elected officials of our state to do everything in our power to see that Texans are not being overcharged and that profits are not excessive to companies writing insurance."

But, the governor stressed, "this will not be an attempt to drive insurance companies out of our state or to make it impossible to buy insurance."

The governor continued "there has been some talk that the federal government might move into certain segments of the insurance industry."

"This would be detrimental to our society. I have never been in favor, nor am I in favor now, of federal intervention into private or states' rights," Smith said.

"But," he warned, "unless state officials assume our responsibilities now we might not have a choice later on."

He cited a story in a recent issue of a national publication (U.S. News and World Report) predicting the United States is rapidly moving toward possible nationalization of portions of the insurance industry.

Smith continued, "An automobile is an absolute necessity in our current society, and I, for one, do not intend to sit idly by and see it priced into a position of being a luxury."

"I fully realize," the governor continued, "that repair costs, labor and parts, court costs, hospital and doctor fees, attorney fees and prolonged court trials on liability all have combined to force rates ever upward."

"I realize, as all concerned citizens are aware, that auto registrations have doubled in the last five years. It is because of this, and because of driver carelessness, among other

GOD HAS SPOKEN

J. LOYD RICE

1 Timothy 2: 15
"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

1. You study: no one else can learn for you.
2. Study word of God, that is the only way to know it.
3. Why? to meet God's approval, not the approval of men.
4. Do your work well that you may never be ashamed of it.
5. Rightly dividing, handling aright, cutting straight; present truth clearly without blunders exactly.
6. Accurate in delivering the message of truth.

This was Paul's advice to young Timothy.
All those who would know the Bible need to keep this verse well in mind.
All those who would enjoy God's blessings here, and eternal life beyond the grave need to have a working knowledge of the entire Bible. It is one harmonious whole made up of many parts. Christ and salvation through faith in Him is its great message. Through study one begins to see the beauty, the splendor and power of almighty God. It is thrilling to discover His eternal purpose revealed and taking shape in the greatest story ever told.

ABOVE ALL, IT IS ESSENTIAL TO KNOW GOD'S PLAN, THAT WE MAY FOLLOW IT.
STUDY IN ORDER TO KNOW HOW TO CHART YOUR COURSE TOWARD YOUR ETERNAL DESTINY. Pd. Ad.

JERRY MITCHELL FILES FOR REPRESENTATIVE-SPEAKS ON PUBLIC RESPONSIBILITY

I have been in the last ten years a college student, a high school history teacher, a Justice of the Peace, a U.S. Army Lieutenant, and an assistant to a State Senator.

I am concerned about America and Texas because political ambition and escapism too often win over political responsibility and public duty.

We have national leaders who openly support our enemies in the longest war in our history... and a defeated enemy refuses to seek peace because his hopes for victory are bolstered by the words of irresponsible Americans.

Some of our Large Universities provide a haven for draft resisters who stay on to do graduate work, then stay on as professors... not to teach, but to escape; then teach escapism and irresponsibility to students to justify their own actions... and the result is unrest and revolution on the campus.

Our State Senators and Representatives fall under the influence of the Insurance Lobby... and insurance rates continue to spiral in Texas while other states have lower rates... and a Texas boy can serve in Vietnam but cannot buy Auto insurance when he gets back to Texas because he is a "risk". The boy takes a very real "risk" to defend and insure the freedom in which the insurance companies prosper.

We elect Representatives that promise new and costly programs but refuse to pass the taxes to pay for them until after the next primary election... and Special Sessions are needed at the taxpayers expense to pass legislation that should have been passed during the regular session.

A great American has said that the quickest way for us all to lose our freedom is for good men to do nothing. I am running for the Legislature. I hope you will go to the polls and vote. I hope that vote will be for Mitchell... but you have my best wishes and sincere affection whether I should win or lose.

With Kindest Regards,
JERRY MITCHELL

Jerry Mitchell of Andrews filed on July Fourth for the State Representative seat vacated by Randy Pendleton.

Mitchell, 28, is a graduate of Howard Payne College with Post graduate work at Sul Ross College and Texas University. He has a BA degree with Majors in History, Government and Education. While in Texas University, he worked for State Senator Louis Crump during the 57th Legislature in 1961. In 1962, during his senior year in Howard Payne, he was elected Justice of the Peace in Coleman, Texas and served in that capacity for one year.

Mitchell worked as a roustabout in Andrews during the summer of 1965.

He taught World History in South Houston High School before enlisting in the Army June 10, 1966. After graduation from Infantry Officer Candidate School at Fort Benning, Georgia, in April of 1967, Mitchell spent five months at Fort Hood, Texas and went through Jungle Operations School in Panama before reporting to the 199th Light Infantry Brigade in Long Binh, Vietnam. He served as Civilian Labor Officer over some 700 Vietnamese civilians employed by the Lieutenant Mitchell was assigned as defense counsel for the court martial of soldiers apprehended AWOL. By late January, he had defended about 100 soldiers.

Released from active duty January 26, he taught American History at Pasadena High School for the remaining school term and returned to Andrews in June.

Mitchell is a member of the Masonic Lodge, Knights Templar, and the Baptist Church. He is a First Lieutenant in the U. S. Army Reserves.

CHDA Says...

No matter how you cook it, summer squash is delicious. Whether you prepare it in the French manner, by the Italian method, or just the plain old American way--it is a gourmet's delight.

July is the perfect time to try some new and exotic recipes using this versatile vegetable.

To add a Louisiana touch to your summer meals try serving:

CREOLE SQUASH
6 cups sliced unpeeled zucchini squash (about 2 1/2 pounds)
1/2 inch boiling water
2 tsp. salt
3 tbs. butter or margarine
3 tbs. flour
3 cups (3 large) diced tomatoes
1/2 cup diced green pepper
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/4 tsp. ground black pepper
1/2 tsp. sugar
1 tbs. butter or margarine, melted
1/4 cup shredded American cheese
1/2 cup soft fresh bread crumbs

Cook squash in boiling water and 1 teaspoon salt in a covered saucepan until partially tender, 8 to 10 minutes. Drain and place in a 2-quart casserole. Melt butter or margarine. Blend in flour. Add tomatoes, green pepper and onion.
Cook 5 minutes or until vegetables are tender. Add remaining seasonings and pour over squash. Mix remaining ingredients together and sprinkle over top. Bake in a preheated moderate oven, (350 degrees) Yield 8 to 10 servings.

ash because the skin is glossy instead of dull, and it is neither hard nor tough.

Avoid stale or overmature squash, which will have a dull appearance and a hard, tough surface. Such squash usually have enlarged seeds and dry, stringy flesh.

Only a French chef could dream up such a savory dish combining:

SQUASH AND TOMATOES
1 large onion chopped
2 green peppers, chopped
1 cup stewed tomatoes
3 tbs. vegetable oil
1/2 cup water
1 pinch sugar
Salt and pepper to taste
1 pound summer squash, coarsely chopped
Lightly brown chopped onion in vegetable oil. Add chopped green pepper, tomato paste, stewed tomatoes, water, sugar and seasonings. Simmer for five minutes. Add coarsely chopped squash and cook together slowly for 20 minutes. Garnish with-chopped parsley.

Here's a dish reminiscent of that trip to Italy--whether you took it or not.

ZUCCHINI WITH OREGANO
1/4 cup olive oil
1 small clove garlic, crushed
6 medium zucchini
Salt and pepper
1 tbs chopped parsley
1 tbs. oregano

Put olive oil in skillet with garlic and cook slowly about 5 minutes. Slice zucchini in thin slices. Remove garlic from skillet and add sliced zucchini. Cook over brisk heat about 15 minutes. Add salt and pepper, parsley, oregano, and cool 5 minutes more. Serve at once. Serves 4 to 6.

SOUTH PLAINS FAIR

LUBBOCK -- A soaring Sailor who has his ups and downs will thrill crowds at the 52nd annual Panhandle South Plains Fair here Sept. 22-27.

Danny Sailor, world champion tree climber, will present twice daily free performances of pole climbing throughout the weeklong engagement.

The former Canadian lumberjack scales a 100-foot pole in about 25 seconds and can make a round trip--up and down--in 35 seconds.

Sailor is faster than a falling hat coming down. Often he'll drop his hat and beat it to the ground. In addition, he does a headstand atop the pole and dances the Charleston on a 12-inch perch.

Sailor also will invite a group of youngsters 12 years and under to pluck $5 bills from a money pole. Youths who can climb the pole and remove the money from the top may keep the currency. Free ticket draws determine who may compete.

The free attraction joins a county and western variety spectacular as headline entertainment for the 52nd annual fair.

Appearing on stage in Fair Park Coliseum will be Marty Robbins (Sept. 22-23), Charley Pride (Sept. 24-25), and Buck Owens and his Buckaroos (Sept. 26-27).

Roy Clark, co-star with Owens on television's bright new summer show, "Hee Haw", will emcee and perform in all twice daily shows. Also appearing in each performance will be television's "Gentle Ben", his playmate, Peggy Ann Nielson, comedian Mike Caldwell and the Congregation.

Tickets are priced at $2, $3, and $4 for 7:30 p.m. performances. All patrons are admitted to 3 p.m. matinees for one-half price.

Tickets purchased prior to the fair opening will be accompanied by free gate admission passes.

Many new improvements to the grounds and facilities--including a new main entrance and rest areas--will be provided for this fall's exposition. Parking facilities will be enlarged.

NO TIME FOR AIR UNDERSTANDING NEW DELHI (AP) — India's chief of the air staff, Air Chief Marshal Arjan Singh, attributes large proportion of air accidents to the absence of "the old understanding between the pilots and the birds," namely, "to fly clear of one another."

This understanding was "unfortunately no longer possible in these days of supersonic flying," he told a gathering of air force commanders.

WHEELER IN RACE

Stanley W. Wheeler, 61, active businessman and civic leader in Stanton and Martin County for many years has announced his candidacy for State Representative, 73rd District, to succeed Randy Pendleton, resigned.

Stanley Wheeler has served in many places of public honor and trust and the ten years he guided the affairs at city hall for Stanton, as mayor, found him constantly preaching the gospel of community progress. His administrations resulted in modernizing a small West Texas city and Stan is the man who took the town out of the dust and mud with sponsorship of a paving program which has met with almost unanimous acclaim from Stanton taxpayers. His administration also led to the fulfillment of the town's dream for better electric power, water, and recreational services. He improved public relations and put Stanton on the map in the Permian Basin through his activity in his chamber of commerce, Rotary Club, and official work as mayor of Stanton. His wife, Donna Belle, is a prominent and tireless worker, in many phases of Martin County community life. She is a housewife, mother of three successful sons and grandmother. The Wheeler sons are Bill and Bob of Andrews, for ten years General Motors dealers in that city and Jim, associated with his dad in the Buick dealership in Stanton.

Mayor Wheeler has the time, talent and financial strength to make the 73rd Legislative District a full time, loyal, hard working public servant. He has made a success of his personal business and enhanced the resources of his hometown to the extent that the slogan appearing over the masthead of his home newspaper, "Health, happiness and prosperity await the homeseeker, is a genuine dream of fulfillment.

Stanley Wheeler will represent residents of all six counties in the district with mutual affection and interest. Truly, Stan is the man. He will appreciate the vote and support of all qualified citizens on election day, July 22.

RUIDOSO DOWNS

Records at Ruidoso Downs continued to tumble over the past weekend when 13,200 racing fans visited the track and one individual walked off with the largest Big "Q" pay of the season, $18,507.

Wagering for the three-day slate of racing hit $681,865. Through the first 24 days of the season, racing enthusiasts have averaged putting $222,409 through the windows daily making a per day increase of $42,500 over the same period of time last year.

The hefty Big "Q" pay of the campaign came during Sunday's slate when the fortunate winner combined longshots Slipinout and Timber Bar in the eighth race, then backed it with a ticket on Pride of Nick and Little Leita in the ninth.

In Sunday's eleventh and featured race, Battle Bound, owned by T. D. Terrill of Fort Worth, Texas, with jockey Jack Wallace aboard, pulled a stunning upset by romping home the winner in the $5,000-added "Peter Hurd Handicap". The race was a five-and-a-half furlong outing for three-year olds and up.

Highlight of the upcoming weekend of racing at the pleasantly-cool mountain track will be "The Rio Grande Stakes" slated for Sunday. For registered New Mexico thoroughbred foals of 1966, the feature will be over six-and-a-half furlongs for an estimated purse of $25,000.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday will form the last three-day race card of the season, with four-day slates beginning July 24 and carrying through the closing Labor Day weekend.

A total of 184 entries remain eligible for the 1969 running of the All American Quarter Horse Futurity set for Labor Day at Ruidoso Downs, according to nominations secretary Liz Devine. Designed for outstanding two-year olds, the race is the richest in the world with an estimated purse of $600,000.

With ten prepaid, 170 made the seventh payment of $500 and owners of an additional four made penalty payments of $11,500 each to supplement their two-year olds.

The four supplemented horses are Lucky's Boy, owned by the A & O Enterprises of Gates, Oregon; Reller, from the Jacob Bunnm Jr., stables, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Miss Three Wars, owned by Pau; W. Travis, Rochester, Minnesota; and Cuter Yet, from the A. B. Green Estate, Purcell, Oklahoma.

The last remaining fee is $500 for the trials due on entry day, August 19. The trials will be run August 22, with the ten-fastest quarter horses going on to the All American, September 1. The next twenty fastest will run in two consolations set for August 30 and 31.

Last year Dr. D. G. Strole's Three Oh's sped the 400-yards in 20.1 to capture the All American and a $160,372 portion of the purse.

Heading this year's speak-packed field at this time are such brilliant freshmen as Easy Jet, winner of the Kansas Quarter Horse Futurity; Pokey Go, whose sire and dam Pokey Bar-Goetta were both All American winners; Canadian Sails, Savannah's Reward, Jet Seeker, Howdy Jones, Breadstick, Top Divi, Gains Baby, Ima Charger, Jet Injun, Cookie Gum Drop, Cute Kiss, Forthcoming, Rebel's Image, First Divi, The Sniper, Precious Jones, Go Moon, Go Mobile, Speckled Hen, Reller and Cuter Yet.
