4-H Members Attend Electric Camp

By Leo L. White

Three boys and two girls from Yoakum County were among the 117 4-H members and 25 adults who spent most of last week at the Scott Abel 4-H Camp in the Sacramento Mountains south of Cloudcroft, New Mexico. Fourteen counties from Extension District II sent delegates to the Electric Camp to be the guests of Southwestern Public Service Company. Those attending from Yoakum County were: Travis Loe, Dale Cleveland, Tommy Guy Box, Debbie Addison, and Gail Rucker. Adults attending were Mrs. Studie Thompson, County Home Demonstration Agent and Leo White, County Agricultural Agent. The campers received instruction on electrical power plants, lighting, safety, and artificial resuscitation. They also engaged in competitive games of volleyball, table tennis, shuffle board, and washer pitching. Each evening there would be a theme party and recreational games.

One of the highlights of the week was the climbing of Scott Able Peak. This year the hikers went up the mountain on Wednesday afternoon, and got caught in a shower that lasted long enough to get everyone wet. The rain was welcome because the afternoons were rather hot. The camp is located in a secluded valley with an elevation of 8,500 feet on the floor of the canyon, and Scott Able Peak is 1,000 feet above the camp site. Travel to and from the camp was made by bus. The four T. N. M. & O. buses hauled the group to Weed, New Mexico, and school buses were used to make the final 22 miles to camp. This is the eleventh year that Southwestern Public Service Company has sponsored an Electric camp for delegates from Extension District II. This is one of the ways the electric company has of saying Thank You for using electricity.

Irrigation Gathering Systems

By Gilbert Pierce & Denis Medlin

Farmers who have installed Gathering Systems have increased the amount of water available in their sprinkler irrigation systems. Where did all this water come from? This is the question of most all farmers who have installed a regulating reservoir on their farm as a part of a re-organization of their irrigation system. Actually the water was always there, the increase is due to increased efficiency in pumping, and the ability of the pump to get rid of more water when not pumping under pressure. As the pump efficiency is increased or improved the cost of producing an acre foot of water is reduced, thus reducing the total cost of production to the farmer. There is nothing that sells a product as quick as economics and farmers are no different than any other group, they too like to make a profit, in fact they must if they are to stay in business, then the idea of the gathering system is tailor made for it will produce more water and do it cheaper.

If saving money and pumping more water doesn't make sense to you, perhaps not having to shut off wells while moving sprinkler line will. Maybe you are interested in having enough water on hand to fill all the main and sprinkler lines and build up pressure for operating with out pumping off and pumping air from your wells. When small wells are pumped hard they some times begin producing sand, cave-in and the well if often damaged beyond repair.

If you have swimming size children the regulating reservoir is a good swimming hole and being only 4.5 feet deep is fairly safe for all but the smallest swimmer.

Whatever your needs are, if you are interested in revising your irrigation system, installing a gathering system and making your small irrigation wells profitable, come by the Soil Conservation Service office in Plains or call and we will give you the technical assistance needed as service of your local Soil and Water Conservation District.

Petition Being Circulated for Annexing Yoakum Co. to South Plains Jr. College

A petition is being circulated to annex Yoakum County to the South Plains Junior College at Levelland. The petition addressed to the Yoakum County School Board of Trustees reads as follows:

"WE, the undersigned legally qualified voters residing in Yoakum County, Texas, said county consisting of school districts or parts of school districts respectfully pray that this Honorable Board of Education order an election to be held in Yoakum County, Texas, to determine the following: 'Shall the territory comprised of Yoakum County, Texas, be annexed to the South Plains Junior College District for junior college purposes only?'"

The present plans are to build a two-story administration and library building; a gymnasium, which will include music lab and student activities' quarters; a vocational-technical building, one building for science labs, classrooms and lecture halls, and a building for instruction in business-related courses. The entire buildings would have approximately 125,000 to 135,000 square feet on a minimum of 35 acres of land. Needed for the school is a minimum of 100 acres, but a section of land is preferred, said Dr. Marvin Baker, President of South Plains Junior College.

Plans have been discussed by the South Plains College board of regents and the Yoakum County College Steering Committee, and has been endorsed by both groups.

The proposed cost of the Junior College would start at $2,000,000 just for the buildings. The location of the college and purchase of land would be the decision of the Board of Regents and the Yoakum County Advisory Committee.

The first thing will be the voting of Yoakum County citizens to join the South Plains Junior College District. If the voters authorize the annexation to the SPC District, a second election will be called for the issuance of $2,000,000 for the campus buildings and the assumption of $2,800,000 current indebtedness of the South Plains College District. A tax rate of 38¢ on the $100 assessed valuation at this time for the $2,000,000, and the current rate on the South Plains College at 59¢. This of course will only be a starter that will be needed for a Junior College, plus the expense of teachers, utilities and upkeep of the buildings, which will itself run into a few million dollars.

This will be a much better plan than the former, as the College will be affiliated from the very first.

Gliders Visit Plains

The glider pilots' contest for the 1-26 North American championship which was held in Hobbs, New Mexico, the week of July 7th through the 13th, has furnished some interesting and exciting entertainment for the folks living in a 90-mile radius from Hobbs. Approximately 30 sail plane pilots a day were towed aloft to compete in this championship contest. Also, many of the sail plane pilots who were working as ground crewmen, were able to get in some flying time on a pleasure basis. Such was the case of a flying team from the USAF Academy, Colorado. The team consisted of four men. When interviewed at the Plains airport, Smoky Doll had piloted the glider from Hobbs to Plains and landed there. Tony Camm, a crew member, brought the station wagon with a trailer to carry the glider back to Hobbs. Tony was accompanied by Dick Carr and Gary Hooker.

It would be difficult to keep. The crew returned to Hobbs Saturday evening and no report of the flight has been attained.

Many sail planes have been observed in the air and many pilots were unable to return to their home base in Hobbs. Using adjacent airports, fields, and pastures, for landing fields, the pilots afforded many new acquaintances and friends as they related their experiences in this unique and exciting sport.

Little Leaguers

The Plains Little League Ball Club closed out their 1970 season last Friday night. The final game was played by the Indians and the Yankees. These two teams have been at the top of the league since the early part of the season. While neither the Cubs nor the Giants have furnished a serious threat to these two teams, they have had a hard fought competition of their own, having been tied in several games. In fact, last Tuesday's game which should have been the deciding game for the season wound up in a tie and the Friday night game was required to determine the league's championship.

Last Friday's game settled the championship on the Indians who won over the Yankees with a score of 13 to 10.

An "All Star" team has been picked to compete in the district tournament which will be held at Levelland, Texas, starting July 21st. The All Stars were picked from all four teams in the Plains league.

In accordance with the Little League rules, James Sherrin, who has so ably managed the Indians through this season, will be the manager of the All Stars throughout the district tournament, and Dick Payne whose Yankees have been a constant threat and challenger for first place will accompany James as coach.

In speaking of the "70" season, Mr. Sherrin stated that this had been a very enjoyable and successful season. He also expressed his gratitude for the cooperation of all officials, umpires, and coaches, as well as, the wonderful support of the public.

Mr. Sherrin and his All Stars are going to the tournament with confidence and determination that may well bring home the trophy.

Higher Education

It matters little how high we raise the level of our education, there will be but few leaders. Only a few develop the reason to thoroughly utilize education, the others are followers. As we view the vast extremes of opinions, it appears that our educational system is not only failing to produce the proper ratio of leaders, it is failing to produce knowledgeable followers.

At the rate that the present college facilities are being devastated by fires and vandalism by the very product of these educational institutions it appears as pure folly to expand such a system.
Neither expanding the established facilities nor building new ones can correct the existing conditions. The clamoring of the poor for vast expenditures at the expense of the rich does nothing more than agitate aggravate the situation. This only furthers the psychology that an individual is on poverty until he obtains more than he can utilize, or that his worth is valued by the amount that he can owe.

Yoakum County has very good school facilities. No one would object to the expansion of these facilities if expansion is necessary.
But! to assume $2,800,000 of some one else's indebtedness to further indebt the county's tax payers by $2,000,000 more is a pill that the property owners of Yoakum County will find rather hard to take.

After much investigation and deliberation the State College Coordinating Board found it non-feasible to establish a Junior College in Yoakum County. There is little doubt that the property owners will conclude otherwise.

A sound policy for individual or institution is--utilize what you have before acquiring more and then avoid indebtedness if possible.
There are still a lot of sound minded people in Yoakum County.

"A merry heart doeth good like a medicine, but a broken spirit drieth the bones."
Proverbs 6:22

Let's make happiness the rule for each day as we enter into our daily life. If we give joy to another out of our own joy to give, we will still have our own joy plus the joy released in the other and returned to us. Giving of our joy does not decrease but increases the supply. Happiness is a spiritual contagion; one needs only to expose oneself to it in order to catch it.

Every person needs to be reminded from time to time of his obligations to his fellowman, for as we do unto others, we are doing unto God. Always our horizons should be expanding, forever filling our lives with new hope, new vigor, and new assurances. Life is not static. It is forever dynamic, forever creating - not something done and finished, but something alive, awake, and aware.

Let all that we do, be done with happiness. Joy in our work, joy in our homes, joy with neighbors. Replace fear, anger and resentments - the parents of all vices - with a smile, love and a kind word for all whom we meet. Turn from criticizing our friends and hating our enemies. The Christ Spirit cannot dwell in the heart of man where there is any kind of evil, and resentment, criticism and fear carried within our hearts, are three of the worst destroyers of all.

Let's return good for evil in our thinking and practice love for "God is Love."

Speaking of happiness, the editor and I had a very pleasant experience Saturday late afternoon. A glider from the Hobbs soaring competitions landed on the airport base North of Plains, and we drove to the airport. While there, we were introduced to the parents of Mr. Gale Craft. We have never met a couple more pleasant and congenial than they. It only took a few moments for Mrs. Craft and me to be carrying on a conversation as though we had known each other for years. She and Mr. Craft are keeping two young girls for a few weeks this summer from the Baptist Home in Portales. We were introduced to the girls and they seemed to be two very sweet young ladies.

Mr. Gale Craft also took the editor for a ride over the City of Plains. The editor said our small town was beautiful from the air. I was invited along for the ride too, but I preferred staying on the ground.

A very interesting article came into the Review a few weeks ago on the population of Yoakum County beginning in 1890. It ran as follows: 1890 - 4 population; 1900 - 26; 1910 - 603; 1920 - 504; 1930 - 1,263; 1940 - 5,354; 1950 - 4,339; 1960 - 8,032; the population for 1970 has not officially been announced but according to what has been heard, Yoakum County has lost some.

The tax valuation for Yoakum County for 1971 is $114,000,000

So many people are yelling "stop the war in Viet Nam" and the screams seem to be aimed exclusively at the United States.
Why don't they aim some of their yells at the other side, too, and curve a few toward Russia and China? Let's be fair about it.
It takes two to start a war and two to stop it. This the protestors don't seem to realize. It's Uncle Sam do this and uncle Sam do that.

The majority of the people feel that our president is doing all he can to help end the war in Viet Nam, but the U.S. didn't get into it overnight and likewise it will take time to get out of this situation that no one really likes!

within the next week or two, you might drop

A POEM

Take a man, make him a soldier. Put his kind alone 12,000 miles from home.
Empty his heart of all but the blood, and make him live in sweat and mud.
This is the life we soldiers must live, and our souls to the devil must give,
And you peace boys back home don't have a care, You don't know what it's like over here.
You have a ball without really trying, while over here men are dying.
You bum your draft cards and march at dawn, You put your signs on the White House lawn.
You want to ban the deadly bomb, you say there's no war in Vietnam.
Use your drugs and have your fun, and refuse to lift a gun,
You say there's nothing in it for you, and we're suppose to die for you.
I'll hate you until the day I die, when I hear again my buddy's cry.
I see his arm in a bloody shred, and I hear the medic say
"This One's Dead."
It's quiet a price he had to pay, not to live another day.
He had the guts to fight and die, he paid the price but what did he buy.
He bought your life by loosing his, But what do you care what a soldier gives?

AIDING THE AFFLICTED

Many people displaced by the Middle East conflict are left without permanent homes and a stable means to earn their livelihoods. Last year, on the East Bank of the Jordan River, 11,000 displaced persons received daily the basic necessities of life - food, clothing and medicines - from Catholic Relief Services.

Ruidoso Downs

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N. M. ---
The second running of the "Rio Grande Stakes" for three-year-old thoroughbreds, which were either bred or foaled in New Mexico, ended in a very exciting stretch duel over the rain soaked racing strip at Ruidoso Downs, Sunday, July 12. The decision of the final winner was in doubt until the "official" sign was flashed off the totalizer board. The winner was I Said He Was, owned by Hub Baggett, Jr., of Levelland Texas, and trained by Buck Keefer, Jr. The winning jockey was Jerry Burgess, third leading rider at the current Ruidoso Downs' meet. Finishing a fast-closing second was Joe Scott's Cooking Right proved very consistent in her stakes engagements, in fact that she finished second in last year's "Rio Grande Futurity". Peaceful Alibhai, representing Lorann Mattox, and trained by Charles Mattox, finished third, with Louis Meaux up.

It was Peaceful Alibhai who caused the delay in the outcome of the race, by claiming a foul against the rider of I Said He Was, for alleged interference on the last turn. After viewing the rerun of the race on closed-circuit television, the Stewards ruled that the objection would not be allowed. I Said He Was picked up a very rewarding check of $3,482.50 for his effort, while second prize of $1,460.50 went to Cooking Right's owner, Mr. Scott, of Dallas, Texas, $762.00 was awarded to Peaceful Alibhai, off of his gallant third-place effort. Running time for the six and one-half furlongs was a creditable 1:22.4 over the muddy strip.

Next week's action will be highlighted by the renewal of the "Peter Hurd Handicap" at

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Q--I understand another draft lottery drawing was held July 1. One was held last December. Why are we having another one?
A--The one for the past December was for men born from 1944 through 1950. The one on July 1 was for men born in 1951.
Q--Will there be a new lottery each year?
A--Yes. In 1971 a lottery will be held for men born in 1952.
Q--Will all men be drafted by lottery?
A--No. Men who volunteer for the draft are ordered in the sequence in which they volunteer--and ahead of the men who are ordered of the random sequence (lottery) numbers. There are others who could be drafted in the future other than by the lottery or random sequence numbers.
Q--Who?
A--One group is the men in I-A, examined and acceptable, who have reached age 26 and who have a liability for service until age 35.
Q--How would this group be ordered?
A--In the order of their dates of birth, youngest first; but these men would not be ordered until all men 19 through 25 were drafted, either by random sequence number, or in order of their dates of birth, oldest first. Those who could be ordered by dates of birth, oldest first, would be 19-year-olds without a lottery number because no drawing had been held for them.

Tax Man Sam Sez

Unfortunately thousands of Texas taxpayers gave qualified for a major tax deduction for 1970. These taxpayers are the victims of the extensive tornadoes and storms (primarily in the High Plains). They have suffered extensive property losses many of which were not covered by insurance.

They can claim a casualty loss on their 1970 income tax return. The Internal Revenue Service has worked with community groups to schedule tax clinics in Lubbock and a number of other High Plains communities where large numbers of taxpayers are entitled to tax benefits.

IRS expects these meetings to help many taxpayers get an immediate tax benefit by simply completing a new Form W-4 and a W-4 Schedule A to reduce the tax withheld from their pay. Most of us would agree that if your home and belongings have blown away that a tax benefit today is worth a lot more than one next April. The Tax Reform Act of 1969 seems to be giving these taxpayers some real help.

Oct. 2-3---Rounding out the weeklong run will be the Porter Wagoner show with Dolly Parton, Speck Rhodes and the Wagonmasters. Also on the same bill will be JoAnn Castle, who is going solo after being a regular on the Lawrence Welk show for more than a decade.

Fair officials regard the "family fun for everyone" program as the best lineup ever carded for the exposition.

Ticket prices remain unchanged at $2, $3 and $4, but show times have been revised this year. Show times are 5:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. daily. All seats are reserved. Signing of the stars followed several weeks of negotiations, during which numerous headlines were considered for the fair run. It marks the second straight year for the fair to bring to Lubbock several stars, rather than an contract one for the weeklong engagement. Last year's trial run proved highly successful and pride proved to the box office hit and is being returned by popular demand. Stevens, a proven star, will be the summer replacement for the Andy Williams television show. Miss Loring has appeared in some of the world's top night clubs and has been featured on numerous television variety shows. She was an instant hit with Hope here earlier this year. The Porter Wagoner show has been around a long time, but it still is popular throughout the country, especially with Dolly Parton, Speck Rhodes and the Wagonmasters on the same bill. Married seven years, Blanchard and Misty Morgan made the big time with their cross-over hit, "Tennessee Bird Walk". He whiles away his time as a newspaper columnist in central Florida.

CHDA ★ Says...

Morning, noon, or night peaches are just right--for any meal or snack, that is. For breakfast, serve fresh sliced peaches atop your favorite, crisp cereal. Or serve fresh peaches in a dish by themselves, sweetened with a little sugar. They are mighty delicious! Try your hand at making peach jam--it's fantastic on regular toast, French toast and English muffins.

For a light-hearted warm-weather luncheon, team up fresh peach slices with salad and sandwich plates. They're perfect mates for turkey, chicken, tuna, and egg salad creations.

For dinner you can simply bake old-fashioned goodness into pies and shortcakes. July is an excellent time to serve peaches to your family.

Sunday Supper Salad is chock-full of goodness and is designed to satisfy everyone from Dad to little sister. Arrange an attractive platter of salad greens and fresh peach slices, cooked turkey and ham strips, Cheddar cheese cubes and avocado slices. Place a small bowl of a sour cream-mayonnaise dressing in the center of the platter, and you have a hearty salad combination that will really hit the spot.

Peaches DeLight is a delectable salad that is delightful to serve. Add a bit of chopped green pepper for accent, shape into small balls and roll in chopped nuts, serve atop fresh peach halves nestled on a bed of crisp salad greens. Be sure to have plenty of hot biscuits and honey on hand to highlight this peach-turkey salad.

Fodder for Females

Remodeling your kitchen? You can make better use of your kitchen and dining room areas by combining the two.

Since family life often revolves around the kitchen, plan the two together to provide comfortable living, suggests Mrs. Mary Jo Carlton, county home agent with New Mexico State University.

Before you start to remodel, remember this basic guide. Mrs. Carlton says: allow plenty of counter space next to major appliances.

One of the most common mistakes in kitchen arrangements is putting a built-in range oven and a cooktop side by side, the home agent points out. Leave at least twelve inches of countertop between the two areas.

The oven and refrigerator belong at opposite ends of the room. The refrigerator is the center of the mixing and preparation area. Place 36 to 54 inches of workspace on the latch side of the refrigerator. The door opens away from adjoining cabinets. Left-hinged refrigerators are available from almost every manufacturer.

Island arrangements are desirable only in large kitchens where four feet can be left on each side of the workspace or appliance island. Peninsulas are used to bring work centers closer together in large room or divide on area from another.

If you are an average American woman you buy 20 pairs of stockings a year. With the current fashion emphasis on the total look and the "year of the leg," as some writers have called it, you may be spending more than the proportionate share of your clothing budget on hosiery, according to Mrs. Jo Carlton, county home agent with New Mexico State University.

For all types of hosiery, price is not necessarily an indication of quality, she says.

Miss Castle hopes to expand her act since she is a more diversified performer than the artist seen on television. She does comedy, sings, jokes, and plays the piano, and is aiming to be a well-rounded performer of the Carol Burnett and Carol Channing mold. She sells about 60,000 records a year, writes many of her own songs, and eventually will have her own recording company. She started her career as an accordionist.

Premiums have been boosted to an all-time high this year and numerous improvements will be completed on the grounds and to facilities prior to the opening to the 1970 fair, officials said. Advance orders for tickets to the coliseum shows will be accepted by the fair association. Mail order requests should be addressed to the Panhandle South Plains Fair, Box 208, Lubbock.

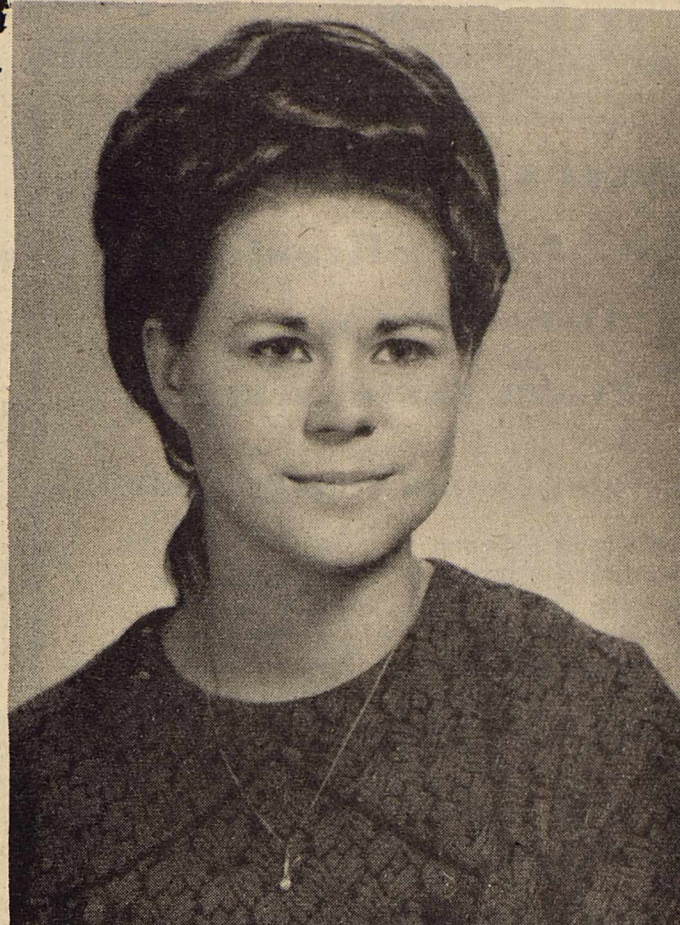

There is a wide range of prices in both varieties. Such factors as fashion, colors, sheerness or unusual size or length tend to affect price more than quality.

The market offers irregulars and seconds for lower prices, Mrs. Carlton points out. Irregulars are imperfect either in dimension, size, color, or knit which are usually slight and almost unnoticeable. Seconds have imperfections in construction or finish and do not wear well.

When buying hose, consider these tips, Mrs. Carlton says.

Buy several pair in one size and color at a time unless they are an unfamiliar brand--then try only one or two pairs. Daytime or walking sheers provide more serviceability than evening sheers. The currently fashionable opaque hose are thought to be the most serviceable of all.
