Two cars were wrecked and one person was injured in a freak accident which happened approximately 6 miles west of Plains at 7:00 o'clock Sunday morning.

The wreck occurred when a Tex as Tech University panel truck carrying a crew of six college personnel passed a new Oldsmobile sedan towing a 1960 Oldsmobile hardtop with all three cars trave lling West on Highway 82. The panel truck blew a right rear tire immediately after passing the cars and in coming to a stop in the road, compelled the two cars to pass it to avoid a rear end collision. As the cars whipped to the left to pass the panel truck, the car being towed was caused to whip throwing the tow car out of control and both cars went into a spin.

Both cars were turned over headed back in the direction from which they had come,

More than 250,000 persons are living in better homes because of the program.

"We are attempting to keep housing credit flowing into our small towns despite the tight money situation and the national general housing construction slump, " FHA County Suppervisor Cole said. Mr. Cole noted that local banks and lending institutions participate in providing loan funds which are insured by his agency. He added that nationally more than 98 percent's of individual family rural housing loan funds were provided by private investors.

"Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun... and that this should accompany him in his labor all the days of his life which God hath given him under the sun."

Thursday night, June 16th, was a very happy event for Mr. & Mrs. Joe L. Webb of Denver City. July 16th was their 25th Wedding Anniversary and their son, Jack, gave them a surprise party at the Denver City Community Building. Mr. Webb had to be let in on part of the surprise, but not all. He and Jackie told Mrs. Webb that they were taking her out for supper. Afterwards, CLASSIFIED AD RATES: Five cents per word each insertion and Jackie brought them to the Community Building where all the guests had assembled and were waiting to sing "Happy Anniversary" as they walked into the room. There is no way the sur - ' prise and happiness can be described, and therefore, I am placing a picture with this article that was taken as they entered.

I have never seen a person who radiated the eternal qualities joy and happiness that exuberated from Mrs. Webb. It seemed to exude from her and to envelope the entire roomful of people, Everyone there could not keep from being happy as her presence

The editor and I were almost entirely strangers, knowing only The Honorable State College Coordinating Board set forth in three or four of the guests, but we have never been more royalentertained and made to feel at home as we did by the Welbs and their friends and neighbors. This will be one party that will always be remembered. We left with the feeling as though we had always known all that were there.

In visiting with Mr. O. A. Pippin of Tokio the other day at the Cowboy Grill, he was telling us about the marriage of his son Mike and Mike's step-son. He said after greeting Mike and as they were sitting talking, that Mike's step-son, age 4, came into the room from outside where he had been playing. He looked Mr. Pippin over real well and said: "Well, I guess you are my Texas grandfather."

This was rather amusing to us as we have two families in California, and we are spoken of as our "Texas grandparents."

Maintainer Destroyed by fire.

Gaping hole cut in pipe line.

Co. Employee Seriously Rurned

Jimmy Mull, a maintainer operator for Yoakum County, Precinct No. 1, was badly burned Thursday when the blade of the maintainer he was operating cut through a gas pipeline and set fire to the leaking gas.

The accident occurred at approximately 2:30 p. m. miles East on the old county road and I mile North from Denver City, where a 12" natural gas line running East and West crosses the county road.

A bevy of 4 maintainers were traveling North on the West side of the road cleaning the borrow ditch, each one running at a different depth. Two of the maintainers had passed over the line. The 3rd one moving at a greater depth and driven by Mulls, a new employee and unacquainted with the line's presents, cut a large hole in it. As the gas escaped, it was ignited and flames engulfed the machine. According to witnesses, flames went fifty feet into the air. It was stated that Mull left the machine on the left side running into the field then around to the front where he was met by Woody Swisher, driver of the first maintainer, who put out the fire of the man's burning clothes. He was then placed in a county pickup and started to the hospital. The pickup developed a vapor lock within a short distance and Mull was transferred to another pickup and taken to the hospital at Denver City by E. W. Sellers. The man was given emergency treatment by Dr. Greenfield at the hospital. He was then flown by the Harris Flying Service of Brownfield to a hospital in Galveston, Texas for further treatment.

Before the fire department from Denver City could extinguish the fire the maint ainer had been burned beyond repair.

Mr. Vance Brown, Commissioner of Precinct No. 1, who followed the fire department equipment to the fire, estimated the loss of equipment at approximately $30,000.00.

Mr. Brown stated that he had requested the Columbia Walter & Mayble Driver: Carbon Company, owners of

There were no vicible markers designating the presents of the pipe line to be seen in the area, Mr. Brown stated that although the line had been hit by maintainers on several occasions, that this was the first time a fire had resulted since he had been commissioner.

Mr. Brown, who drove to Galveston Thursday evening after the ambulance plane left Denver City with Mr. Mull stated that when he left Galveston, he was informed that

Q--I have a service-connected shoulder condition with a 10 percent rating that I feel should be rated higher, because the condition has worsened since VA examined me. How can I get my compensation increased? A -- Start by submitting a statement from your local physician noting his findings concerning your shoulder.Or you can obtain free, the necessary treatment for your shoulder condition at a VA medical clinic If the medical statement or VA examination warrants it, your claim will be reconsidered.

Q--I receive disability pensiions from VA, and if my income exceeds $1,000 per year, my pension payments will be reduced. If I sell my house at a profit, and use the money to buy another home, will my pension payments be reduced? A--No, for two reasons.

First, it is a one-time paycropland and devoted to an ap- ment. Therefore, it will have no effect upon an award because it may not be used as a basis of adjustment until the first of the year following that in which it was received.

Second, under such circumstances, profit from the sale of a house is not considered income, and is not usually considered | as creating too large an estate for pension purposes when used to purchase another dwelling.

Q--I have a service-connected disability which requires continous treatment. Since I plan to travel abroad this summer, what arrangements shall I make regarding medication and treatment?

A--Contact the VA clinic now treating you to obtain appropriate supplies of your prescribed medication to carry with you, and for suggestions for obtaining medical supplies and services abroad. In case of a medical emergency, contact the American Embassy or

How very frightening is the implication that Texas' Welfare Budget of over TWO BI -LLION DOLLARS is not really sufficient for the 1972-73 bien

There is clamor now to appropriate money "according to need" with no price tags atta-

This would, of course, require total and permanent removal of our constitutional limit on state funds for welfare use. While there is no way of predicting just where removal of the ceiling might lead us, a look at recent history in the matter gives us an indication.

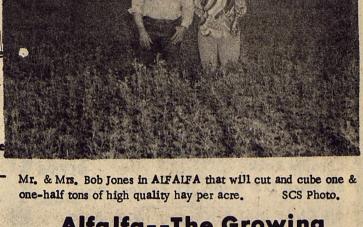

The indication is not encouraging. Only last year we voted to raise the ceiling by a full thirty three and one-third percent and already the budget requests have more then doub-

Ben Barnes told his Senate Interim Committee on Welfare Reform this week that its request for removal of the ceiling was "commendable" and he predicted that the Senate would vote to remove the ceiling. although he guessed the House still favors keeping a lid on welfare. I say "Hooray" for the House!

There has got to be a limit of some kind on welfare spending because there is a limit as to how generous our state and federal governments can be with our money -- yours and mine. Without an effective limit there can be no effective control on welfare spending.

Alfalfa--The Growing Cash Cropfor Yoakum Co.

C. Murrell Thompson District Conservationist.

R. M. Jones, Chairman of the Yoakum SWCD Board, is a great believer in growing a crop that not only makes money but is the best soil protector for cultivated land. Bob has been growing Alfalf a for several years and is continuing to increase his acerage. He plants New Mexgetting good production from it. Last year he produced 886 tons per acre and this year he is doing better, at least with the two cuttings and the third or present cuttings looks even better. Bob is having his hay cubed but has sold much of it bailed in the past, This year he is fertilizing a little bit different. Last year he used 4-10-10 liquid at the rate of 100 pounds per cuttin g putting it out as he watered. This year, he is using 100 lbs. per acre of 10-10-10 per acre per cutting. Bob thinks the extra Nitrogen is paying off in more hay yields per acre, good growth, and this cutting is well over 26 inches high with several areas of 28 inch high hay. The hay is fine stemmed. leafy and just plan good quality hay in any body's book.

Bob says you need a good well for each 40 to 60 acres field in a short time. To a cotton farmer, money coming in all through the crop year is surely a welcome sight. Then too when you rotate the hay land with cotton or sorghum you get the benefit of the added organic matter, stored nitrogen and other plant food placed in the soil by the hay while it was producing good ecomonical returns.

You may not be a wild life fan but you might be interested to know that Prairie Chickens surely like Alfalfa in the early spring. They have been seen quite often in the early morning and late in the evening on this field of Bobs, grazing the green food like geese or turkeys.

What ever your crop, look into the advantages of soil cover, cash income and Crop rotation as a new part of your Conservation Farming.
