John P. Robertson Completes Basic Training

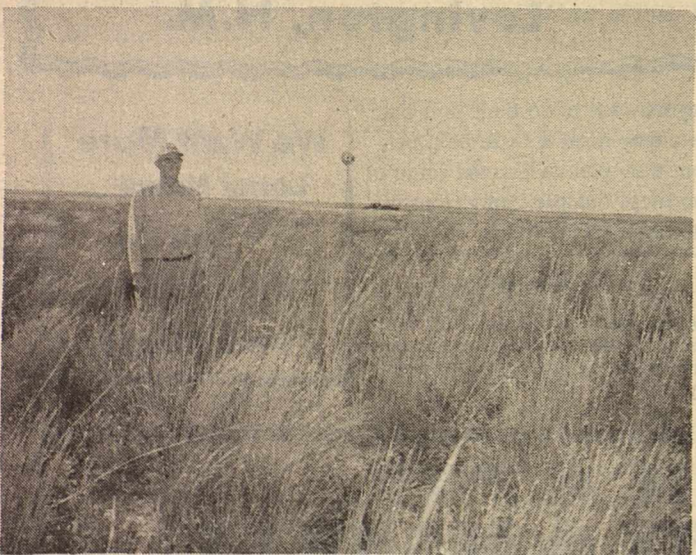

John P. Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie R. Robertson of Plains, has completed eight weeks of basic training at Fort Ord, California. Graduation exercises were held on the 7th of August. On graduation, John was promoted to the rank of E/2. He will be stationed at Fort Ord, for an additional eight weeks for advanced training as an administrative clerk. After completion of the advanced training John will receive a furlough prior to his permanent assignment.

Annual Sew It With Cotton Contest Set

The annual Sew It With Cotton Contest will be held this year August 29th at 8:00 p.m. in the school cafeteria. This event is sponsored by the Yoakum County Cotton Club. Everyone is urged to enter this contest. Membership is not a requirement. Entry blanks may be obtained at Moore's or from Mrs. Don Williams, president.

Also, of interest during the contest, there will be a showing of a 100 per cent cotton wardrobe on lend from McCalls.

SWCD News

New Soil and Water Conservation District Plans and New Great Plains Conservation Program contracts are keeping SCS personnel busy. Vernon Townes, T. A. Hicks, Vance Brown, and James B. King have new or revised conservation plans and have submitted these plans to the SCS area office for Great Plains Contracts approval. Tommy Elmore and T. A. Elmore have new Soil Conservation plans on Brownfield and Bailey land they operate. Revised conservation plans on H. M. Edwards and a new plant on the K. D. Moore and Ben Taylor places have also been completed and are being typed. Jerrell T. Cate is installing 1200 feet of underground pipe on his farm prior to planting eighty acres more in alfalfa. When this last eighty acres is installed, he will have 631 acres in alfalfa.

Grass planting looks real good but it needs a rain. Switch grass has been planted on the farms of Kenneth Blount, Ed S. Turner, Elvis Jones, Jack Spears, Rufus Brian, Raymond Bokout, Vernon Townes, E. W. Sellers, Jr., Lee Kidd, Virgil Kelley, J. A. Pebsworth, and A. B. Williams. Weeping lovegrass has been planted on the farms of Jack Crothers, Mobil Oil Co., Robert B. White, Charles Williams, W. M. Taylor, and Dickie Green. A total of 1198 acres have been planted so far this year.

52,299 See Football Debut at Riverfront

Bengals Bash Redskins, 27-12 Lookout, pro football world, the Bengals have fans this year-defensive fans.

That was the only way you could interpret their 27-12 victory over the Washington Redskins Saturday night as a record Cincinnati sports crowd of 52,299 squeezed into Riverfront Stadium to open the National Football League pre-season campaign.

Veteran quarterback Sonny Jurgensen and his rugged campaigners from the old, pre-melting N.F.L. were supposed to win this one rather handily from Coach Paul Brown's young expansion team, but the Bengals had different ideas--particularly the defensive unit.

It remained for two rookie defensive backs to provide the major difference as Lamar Parrish of Lincoln University and Sandy Durko of Southern California, a pair of sizzling 185 pounders, capitalized on two Washington errors and their own alertness for long touchdown runs.

Parrish picked up a fumble late in the third quarter with Washington on the march and skipped and danced 55 yards down the sidelines to a touchdown, the evenings real game breaking play that put Cincinnati in front, 20-13.

And there were less than five minutes to play when the nimble Durks picked off Frank Ryan's pass and raced unmolested 68 yards to a touchdown to put it completely out of Washington's reach.

But the entire defensive unit really stood out, and Brown used just about everyone except Mike Reid, Cincinnati's No. 1 draft choice who sat on the sidelines with an injured knee.

Chip Bennett, Abilene Christian College All-American linebacker and third round draft choice of the Cincinnati Bengals started the game as a member of the kick-off and punt return team, and played the 3rd quarter as a defensive outside linebacker. He was very elated with the prospects of pro-football after the game was over and everything went real well in his first pro-football game.

Plains School To Open

The 1970-1971 School Year will officially open for students at 9:00 a.m. on Thursday, August 20th. Buses will run their usual schedule on this date and lunch will be served in the school cafeteria. School will be dismissed at 2:30 p.m. on the first day.

Mothers of five and six year olds are requested to accompany their children to school on the opening day. Birth certificates are required for Kindergarten and First Grade students. Installation of air conditioning in each classroom and department has been completed. It is believed that these will add much toward comfort during hot weather seasons.

Mrs. Maxine Smith of Andrews, Texas has been employed as School Librarian. Mrs. Smith is well qualified and highly recommended as a school librarian. She has served as Librarian in schools of Roswell, New Mexico; Wolfforth, Texas; and Lorenzo, Texas.

The prospects for a highly successful school year are excellent.

Son Of Former Resident Dies

Six year old son of Robert Hooper of Dodge City, Kansas died Thursday July 30th from a gunshot wound.

The young boy was playing with a gun he had found in a closet of their home when the gun went off.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reeves, parents of Robert Hooper lived here in the '50's and Robert attended school here.

Panhandle South Plains Fair Broom Sale

LUBBOCK--E. Ralph Bonewitz, associate professor Kansas State University, will judge entries in the dairy cattle division of the 53rd annual Panhandle South Plains Fair here Sept. 28-Oct. 3. Premiums of $4,158, including $910 earmarked for the junior show, are being offered.

Bonewitz, an agricultural specialist, will be doing double duty here this year. He also has been named to judge the State Milking Shorthorn competition.

The registered Jersey judging will be the official State Jersey breed association show, with winners being selected to represent Texas at the 1970 All-America Jersey Show in Columbus, Ohio. Entries will be competing in 29 classes in this open show.

In addition, there will be competition among Holstein, Brown Swiss and Red and White entries, the latter one of the most popular new cattle breeds.

Total premiums of $10,367 are being offered in open livestock shows. The fair is offering a record $40,000 to exhibitors in all competitive events.

Bonewitz is an approved judge of all dairy breeds and will be making his third appearance here. He received his BS degree in Agriculture from KSU in 1941 and an MS degree in Dairy Science from the college in 1956. He is a member of national committees on feeding and management, herd health and dairy records; received the Dairyman Award in 1965 from the Interbreed Dairy Council; has served as superintendent of the Kansas State Fair dairy division since 1949. The native Kansan has been associated with KSU since 1949.

An all-star variety show has been slated for Fair Park Coliseum with Ray Stevens, Vocalist Gloria Loring and the "Tennessee Birdwalk" duo--Jack Blanchard and Misty Morgan--opening the card Sept. 28-29.

Charley Pride, top draw here in 1969, takes the spotlight Wednesday and Thursday along with country and western singer Johnny Duncan, plus ventriloquist Alex Houston and Elmer.

Closing out the weeklong run will be the Porter Wagoner Show and Jo Ann Castle formerly of the Lawrence Welk Show, on Friday and Saturday. Appearing with the Porter Wagoner Show will be Dolly Parton, Spence Rhodes and the Wagonmasters.

Performances are slated at 5:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. daily. Tickets are priced at $2, $3, and $4 and all seats are reserved. Requests for advance tickets may be secured through the Fair Association office, P. O. Box 208, Lubbock.

The Plains Lions Club will hold their annual broom sale September 3rd, starting at 8:00 p.m. Neil Taylor will be in charge of the sale.

The 1969 sale proceeds amounted to $800,00 making it the most successful sale for the Lions Club.

The brooms are acquired from the Lighthouse for the Blind, an institution that assists the blind in participating in useful activities.

The receipts from the sale are used by the Lions Club, a non-profit organization, to help finance the many civic activities they continually sponsor in the community.

The club will greatly appreciate everyone's help in making this sale a successful one.

Local Man Injured

Leon Cheatham, who resides in Plains fell from a ladder at his home at about 8:00 A.M., Wednesday, rendering him unconscious. He was taken to the Yoakum County Hospital by the Plains Fire Dept. Ambulance.

A report from the Hospital at press time stated that Mr. Cheatham had regained consciousness, and no broken bones were revealed. At last report his condition was apparently favorable.

Attention !! Yoakum County Co-op Gin's Annual Meeting

Ray Sech, Band Director, calls first rehearsal for Plains High School Band to be held Thursday morning, August 13th, 1970 at 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 a.m. Second rehearsal will be Friday, August 14th same time. Uniforms and instruments will be issued at the first rehearsal.

YCCAC

To Meet

All members of the Yoakum County Community Action Committee are notified that there will be a meeting of the Yoakum County Community Action Committee Thursday, August 13th at 8:30 p.m. This meeting will be held in the new Community Action Center in Plains. (First Christian Church).

This planning session is a very important function in Community Action work. All members are asked to attend if at all possible.

Also, urging that all interested people be on hand for the meeting. Warren said "Directors to PCG are the men who determine the organization's policy on legislation, research, promotion, finances and other matters which play a big part in determining the future of Yoakum County's economy."

High Plains Research Foundation

Activities are beginning to jell for the 14th Annual Field Day and Farm Equipment Show to be conducted at the High Plains Research Foundation, September 10-12, 1970.

As usual area residents are cooperating in efforts to present one of the best research farm showings ever.

Presenting exhibits of agricultural information and ideas will include members of Women's Cotton Promotion Clubs with a display of some of the latest styles in cotton clothing. Other exhibits will include sewing and cooking hints from the Hale County Home Demonstration Council and special displays sponsored by the Hale County Noxious Weed Control District, Hale County Farmers Home Administration Service and the Hale County Soil and Water Conservation District.

Water, Inc. also has been invited to exhibit its program on supplemental water plans. The Field Day activities will feature guided tours through research plots and a guest speaker on opening day.

Highlighting the event will be a three-day farm equipment show featuring the latest farming equipment by some of the top agricultural equipment manufacturers in the nation.

According to Dr. Tom Longnecker, director, the Field Day is shaping up as a top attraction. "We feel confident that our cooperation with the Plainview Chamber of Commerce on this Farm Equipment Show will promote one of this year's leading attractions," he said.

Observers of Field Day activities annually come from all over the area. Longnecker pointed out that many of those attending are "flying farmers." "As in the past, the Hale County Farm Bureau has volunteered its services to make sure that farmers and other persons flying in to attend Field Day activities have transportation to the Research farm at Halfway," he added.

Spreading asphalt in Stanford Park. A leak in the city water main required a major repair at Bayer Lumber Co. Pavement was cut and new line was laid across the street.

A very pleasant and entertaining evening was spent Tuesday evening, August 6th by the stockholders and friends of the Yoakum County Co-Op Gin at their annual meeting. It was held at the Plains High School cafeteria, where a sumptuous barbecue supper was served. The supper was catered by the State Line Home Demonstration Club, who served barbecued beef, boiled beans, potato salad, vegetable salad, and cherry cobbler pie. The barbecued beef was from the Underwood's Barbecue establishment of Lubbock.

Entertainment for the evening was furnished by the noted folk singer, Karen Lafferty, of Ruidoso, New Mexico, who played her guitar and sang during the supper hour, and also intermittently throughout the business meeting.

The entertainment arrangement was enthusiastically received by the entire assembly of 250 people. Miss Lafferty who is the reigning "Miss Grain Sorghum" of the nation for 1969-70, has been in concert with Bob Hope, and Pozo Seco Singers; toured with the USO in Greenland, Iceland and Newfoundland, and has received many honors and awards during her attendance of Eastern New Mexico University. Since her appearance here, she has reported that at the conclusion of her present contract as entertainer at the "Inn Credible" of Ruidoso, she has accepted an invitation to be a featured entertainer at DeMarco's Restaurant in Fort Worth during the September, October and November season.

Stockholders of the Yoakum County Co-Op Gin enjoyed a very satisfactory business session at their annual meeting held in conjunction with the barbecue supper last Thursday night. The annual report showed that the co-operative paid out $9.22 per bale dividends which amounted to a total of $58,480.43. $4.00 per bale was disbursed in cash and the balance of $5.22 was issued in stocks; the total cash dividends amounted to $25,348.00.

At the meeting, the membership voted to change from a seven man board to a man board, and also to pay the directors $14.00 per meeting. Lee Roy McCravey was elected as the new President of the board; Wendell Norman was elected Vice-President; Billy Winn as secretary; Joe Crump as treasurer, and Bob Jones as a director.

One of the highlights of the meeting was the "note burning" of the notes of the gin as the gin was free and clear of all indebtedness as of January 1st, 1970.

Safety Conference Set for San Angelo

AUSTIN--Some 200 employees of state, county, and city governments are expected to attend a two-day conference in San Angelo, August 20th and 21st, to discuss safety for public employees.

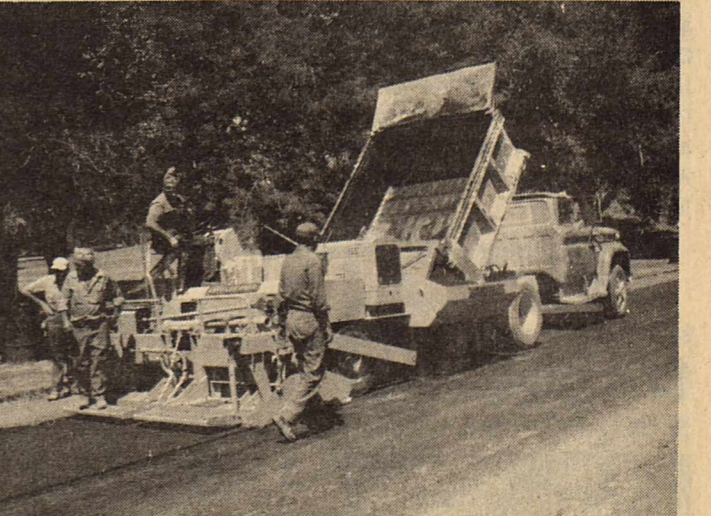

A discussion of the Texas Tort Claims Act as it applies to public safety by San Antonio City Attorney Clinton W. Breeding is also expected to be of major interest.

A total of 12 major topics will be covered in the two-day affair at the El Patio Motor Hotel in San Angelo. Persons interested in attending the conference should contact Douglas B. Clark, City of San Angelo, P. O. Box 1751, San Angelo, Texas, 76901, for advance registration information.

Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

Yoakum County cotton producer-directors on even years. Two years ago Yoakum County people elected H. W. Taunton as their producer representative on the PCG Board, Mr. Taunton subsequently moved to Alabama and will be replaced at the August 18 meeting, Warren said.

In addition to the election, the meeting will include a report from the PCG staff on the status of farm legislation this year in Washington. "There is nothing on cotton's horizon right now of greater importance than getting a cotton program passed," Warren stated, "and every cotton-minded person in Yoakum County should be vitally interested in what his cotton organization on the Plains is doing in that regard."

Park Improvements

Congratulations to Commissioner Bookout for the nice smooth ride around Stanford Park. After clearing the right-of-way with the county equipment, Raymond engaged the Thompson Construction Company of Denver City to run a one and one-half inch overlay of asphalt over the old pavement.

The filling of the cuts across the street pavements also adds to the pleasure of driving in Plains. The commissioners did a fine job and a great service to Plains when they repaved many of the streets last year.

Our three families, the Harvey Lusk's, the Hoss Newsom's, and Dosha and Robert Bryant and boys came home Sunday from a week's fishing trip on the Williams Lake, northwest of Pagosa Springs, Colorado.

Our county clerk, Ruby Heald is on the sick list this week. She was taken to the hospital Wednesday night, August 5th, and the doctors aren't sure just what her illness is.

Friendly Chats With Faye McConnell

"If we learn to laugh at our own predicaments, we will always have something to make us happy."

So many of us go through life using the wrong nouns, verbs, and adjectives such as gloom, gloomy, ill, sorrow, unhappiness, unfaithful, lack or poverty, and if we would only learn an antonym for each of these words, how much more our lives would mean to us.

Take the word "exuberance" and try to apply it to your life for one entire week. You will discover that you sparkle when you talk, your ideas are exuberant, your entire attitude has been lifted up.

Another word or words to use are "joy" and "fun." By letting these words be our words for the week, then sadness, unhappiness will fade away.

Take the word "delight." Think what fun you can have with delight. You are filled with delight. You are a delightful person.

"Charm" is another beautiful word to discover and live with. Cultivate charm in your speech, be charming to people whom you meet, let your best manner come forward each minute of each day.

"Decorum" is another lovely word. Decorum is a word described as suggesting conduct according to good taste. Also it means propriety and good taste in conduct and appearance.

Find yourself a new word. And whatever word you choose, let it be one you really want to live with. Be sure it is a quality that will bring greater happiness and a whole new field of experience within.

So bless you - you exuberant, fulfilled, delightful, charming, decorous people. Perhaps you would like to let us hear about your new word?

"We should take each word and weigh it. On the scales of right or wrong, And be sure before we say it, That it will help the world along."

PUBLIC NOTICE Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE ON THE BALLOT (SJR15)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Section 1-d, Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows: "Section 1-d. The Legislature shall have the power to provide by law for the establishment of a uniform method of assessment of ranch, farm and forest lands, which shall be based upon the capability of such lands to produce farm and forest crops rather than upon the value of such lands and the crop growing thereon."

PUBLIC NOTICE Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER SEVEN ON THE BALLOT (HJR 22)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Subsection (a), Section 64, Article III, of the Texas Constitution, be amended to read as follows: "Section 64. (a) The Legislature may by special statute provide for consolidation of governmental offices and functions of government of any one or more political subdivisions comprising or located within any county. Any such statute shall require an election to be held within the political subdivisions affected thereby with approval by a majority of the voters in each of these subdivisions, under such terms and conditions as the Legislature may require."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Austin, Texas----- Dear Publisher:

Hurricane Celia, which hit the Texas Gulf Coast with devilish fury on Monday night, did extensive damage in Corpus Christi and neighboring cities and towns in the coastal area.

There is now and will be for some time need for money ($6 MILLION estimated).

This is to urge you to publicize their plight and ask for donations to your local Red Cross, earmarking the funds for relief in the disaster area.

An effort is being made to obtain $1 MILLION of the $6 MILLION in Texas alone.

If you prefer, you may ask that money be sent direct to the AMERICAN RED CROSS, Box 78-AUSTIN. Your county will be given credit either way.

Small Business Administration and Farm Loan Administration both are helping with small loans to those able to borrow. However, financing, in the majority of the cases, must come from the AMERICAN PEOPLE.

Your help is urgently needed and will be greatly appreciated.

Fraternally, Ellie Hopkins, President Texas Press Association

Austin, Texas Dear Editor:

I have seen recently three estimates on our tax bill in the 62nd Session. The TMA is advocating no additional taxes. Another estimate has been placed at the five hundred million mark. Then came another opinion this week with a one billion dollar figure for additional taxes to operate our State.

With an economy minded Governor and a State Legislature in a mood to trim all fat in the 1970's, the answer shall lie somewhere between the first two estimates.

There are many avenues open to reduce government spending and to increase our efficiency. It would be helpful to all of us in the Legislature to receive written suggestions from tax-payers offering specific suggestions along this line. A few simple ideas could well save tax-payers millions of dollars. Some of the best sources of ideas are from interested and informed citizens. State Representative R. B. (Mac) McAlister Office 404-D Capitol Building Austin, Texas

The Dallas District office is proud of their record in tax education. The most effective tax education program IRS offers is their "Teaching Taxes" course for high school and college students. About 175,000 North Texas students were given some very simple instruction in how to prepare their own income tax returns by more than 2500 teachers in 953 schools. In addition to the simple income tax training course, the Dallas District developed a business tax return course and furnished 59 different colleges in the Northern half of Texas, to teach approximately 7500 accounting students some of the fundamentals of preparing a business tax return. The Dallas Chapter of the Texas CPA Society has worked with the Dallas District to train thousands of adults in how to prepare a better income tax return during the past six years. The tax lawyers and other groups cooperating with the Internal Revenue and the Dallas Public Library have added hundreds of other better trained taxpayers during the past two years. The Military bases, the Community Action groups, and the retired groups arrange for other tax training sessions and account for thousands of other taxpayers getting needed help each year. The Internal Revenue employees feel that the tax-

Bridal Courtesies

Jayne Carol (Turner) Field Wedding Vows Exchanged

Miss Jayne Carol Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turner, 918 West Lake Drive Hamlin, Texas, and Tyson Mike Field were united in marriage at 8:00 p.m. August 8th, 1970, in the First Baptist Church in Hamlin.

The Rev. Max Brown of Uvalde, Texas officiated the double ring ceremony. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ty Field of Bronco.

The church was decorated with mixed spring bouquets of dark and light shades of pink roses and spring flowers. Candle trees and palm trees complimented the scene.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of candlelight pure silk satin and imported re-embroidered alencon lace intricately jeweled with tiny seed pearls. The moulded empire bodice was fashioned with a wide squared neckline and long tightly fitted wrist length sleeves. The slim a-line skirt was enhanced by a semi-watteau train accented at the shoulders by a large shaped bow and falling in soft folds extending to a wide chapel length. Her veil was a mantilla of the imported alencon lace mounted over an open coil gently framed her face and fell in soft folds extending beyond the length of her train.

Miss Mary Margaret Turner of Dallas was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids for the bride were Misses Sara Ashworth of Mineola, Janie Dossey of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Dorothy Splith of Tulsa, Okla., and Margaret Ann Johnson of Hamlin. Mrs. Jimmy Hastings of Grand Prairie was bridesmatron.

They wore identical gowns of candy pink silk alaskine. The moulded sleeve-less empire bodice was fashioned with a high ring neckline and complimented by short wrist length kidskin gloves. A small shaped bow accented the back of the gown. The slim a-line skirt enhanced with full inverted pleats was floor length. They wore matching veils extending the length of the dress from a tiny puff in their hair. They carried a nose gay of mixed shades of pink roses, carnations, and gypsophenia with velvet ribbon streamers.

Best man was Dan Field of Bronco, brother of the groom. Groomsman were Kit Keenan of Houston, David Deniger of Dallas, Jim Averitt of Dallas, Ernie Anderson of Houston, and John Ferguson of Hamlin. Guest were seated by Tommy Ellison of Texarkana, Craig Knight of Dallas, Joe Hyde of Austin, Allen Derby of Houston, and Mitch Wilson of Hamlin.

Sammy Ferguson and Tommy Oliver lighted candles. Mrs. Max Brown of Uvalde was soloist. She was accompanied on the organ by Robert Field, cousin of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Field were honored with a reception immediately following the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The serving table featured a silver candelabra decorated with smilex greenery and pink roses. A five tiered cake topped with fresh flowers accented the table. Silver and crystal accessories were used on the table.

After a wedding trip to Mexico City and Acapulco, the couple will be home at 6318 Fisher Road, Dallas.

The bride is a graduate of Hamlin High School attended Baylor University and the University of Hawaii and plans to attend SMU in the fall. She is a member of Kappa Theta social club and is past president of Alpha Lambda Delta scholastic society.

Field is a graduate of Plains High School and received a B. B. A. degree from the University of Texas at Austin and is attending SMU law school. He served as president and vice president of Sigma Phi Epsilon social fraternity and is a member of the American Finance Association and Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity.

Honey Production
Did you ever stop to think how much transportation is involved in the honey that goes so well with hot biscuits or hotcakes? Even for bees, the honey business is mainly transportation. If a single bee should fly an average of a mile to a source of honey--making sufficient trips to produce a pound of honey--it would have to fly the equivalent of three times around the world! Bees must have been flying more than ever last year. They produced a record crop, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Hot Honey Breads, Split English muffins or "leftovers" from last night's dinner rolls or muffins. Spread generously with a butter and honey mixture. Sprinkle with cinnamon. Place under low broiler heat until honey bubbles and roll is gently tinged with brown.

Honey Peanut Butter. Combining equal parts of honey and peanut butter, chunk style or plain. Place slices of your favorite bread under broiler until golden brown on one side, remove and spread generously with honey-peanut butter mixture. Return to broiler until peanut butter is nicely warmed. Serve immediately.

Note: It is natural for liquid honey to become coarsely granulated on standing. Use if as is for baking or a spread. Finely crystallized honey is now produced commercially using controlled temperature. Look for creamed honey in the honey display at your market.

For delicious sandwiches, use this Honey-Almond Cream Cheese Filling

1 pkg. (8 oz.) soft cream cheese 1/2 cup finely chopped dates
1/4 cup honey butter 2 tablespoons toasted, sliced almonds
1/4 teaspoon salt

Combine all ingredients, mixing until soft and spreadable. Delicious on rye crackers, toast wedges or sandwich bread.

For snacks or dessert, Crunchy Honey Dates are tasty.

1 pkg. (14 oz.) Date Bar Mix 1 egg
1/4 cup hot water 1 cup walnuts, coarsely chopped
1/4 cup creamed or granulated honey 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

Mix date filling, hot water and honey. Add crumbly mixture, egg, cinnamon and walnuts, blend well. Mixture will be soft and must be chilled 1 hour so cookies will keep their shape while baking. For large cookies, drop rounded tablespoons about 2 inches apart on lightly greased baking sheet. Bake 12 to 15 minutes at 375 degrees F. Remove carefully from baking sheet. Cookies become crisp on cooling.

Fruit Combo Float
1 can (8 oz.) apricot nectar 1/4 cup lemon juice
1/4 cup honey 1 pint orange sherbet
1 cup milk

Combine apricot nectar, milk, honey, lemon juice and half of orange sherbet. Blend, covered, at high speed for 1/2 minute, or until smooth. Pour into four chilled glasses and top with balance of orange sherbet.

NOTE: This can be made in an electric mixer.
