Cowboys Overcome Virus Threat Take Eagles 22-8.....

By Calvin Smith

The High-riding Cowboys rode in to Cowboy Stadium last week with a handful of hopes and a pocketful of virus. Five starters were pretty seriously affected by the bug that plagued the majority of the first half. The Cowboy defense continued to the tune of "Monster Mash", as it snuffed out several threats by the O'Donnell eleven and gave up only 8 points to a very impressive band of Birds.

O'Donnell made the first drive of any significance. This drive was uprooted by an interception on the Cowboy 38. Moose Moore deflected the pass causing it to hang in the air until Super Knat managed to dive under it for the catch. Plains was unable to get the ball moving, but the defense held the slack. On a fourth and situation, Moore once again gave that second effort and it paid off. Another partial block put the ball on the Eagles 37 yard line. Plains moved to the 17 of O'Donnell but couldn't come up with the decisive play.

The first play of the second quarter saw Guerry Randall spill the quarterback for a 15 yard loss to their own 2 yard line. The Eagles wisely kicked out of the hole, but a poor punt left the ball on the Eagle 23. The rest of the second quarter was played on the Eagles end of the field, with the Cowboys threatening on each series. The Cowboys finally started a deathblow drive with 2:10 left in the half. Gary Livesay capped the 48 yard drive with :05 showing on the clock. Super Knat Winn booted the extra points, leaving the score 7-0.

The Eagles ran out of time in the first half, but undoubtedly didn't forget what they came for the second half. They marched 79 yards in 10 plays, to pay dirt, never looking back. Odell Hunter carried for a touchdown and the extra point attempt, which put O'Donnell in front, 8-7. The Cowboys came back with that old determination that saw them march 68 yards in 15 plays, with Gary Livesay capping the drive. Livesay also carried the extra points, making the score 15-8.

O'Donnell refused to give up, as they countered with five straight first downs. The Cowboy defense allowed them to reach the 18 of Plains, but that was all she wrote. Mike McRae delivered a pounding blow to O'Donnell's Odell Hunter that would have caused a pro to fumble. With 8:00 left in the game, quarterback Joey Lowe, hit tight end Jerry Parrish for a 34 yard pass play touchdown. Super Knat added his point making the score, 22-8. O'Donnell only hopes were sunk by an interception on the Cowboy 20 yard line, by Gary Livesay. The Cowboys ran out the remaining :30.

This virus or bug or whatever, is just another milestone that the Cowboys have managed to overcome. They've fought some tough teams and had their share of the bad breaks. The race is still wide open and its time for a few Cowboy breaks. Let's all go to Wink tomorrow night and see how the Cowboys handled Wildcats. GO COWBOYS!

New Tax Form For You

When the mailman brings your income tax Form 1040 early next January, it won't really help any to holler "Why does Internal Revenue keep changing the thing?" The answer on why is actually a simple one. You, the taxpayer want Congress to change the law to make it more equitable and possibly to ease your personal tax burden just a little. The good tax folks have to change the form so it will comply with the law. They also try to change the form to cut down taxpayer misunderstanding of instructions on some particular item on the tax form. It is pretty obvious that Internal Revenue can't make a simple Form 1040 because the tax law is just too complex. Instead of hollering you might as well start to dig into those fine new tax instructions. Reading the instructions always makes the Form 1040 look a whole lot simpler.

Hampshire Swine Registry

Purebred Hampshire Breeder, Bobby Chambliss, Plains, Texas is participating in the Official Hampshire Sire Performance Testing Program.

This practical, on the farm, testing program singles out superior sires so they can be best used to guide future progress in the pork industry.

The pigs sire by "Wintex Rebar" were recently weighed on test by Leo L. White, County Agricultural Agent, who will supervise the test in cooperation with Hampshire Swine Registry. Hog producers of the area should be interested and want to watch progress of the test group.

The comprehensive test gauges feed efficiency, rate of gain and carcass excellence of 15 pigs on test sired by one boar. Essentially, farm conditions are maintained with feed dealer, Supreme Feed Mill, Inc., supplying measured amounts of complete commercial feed.

After twelve or more pigs are slaughtered and measured from the group, "Wintex Rebar" may, upon successful completion of this strict test, be qualified as a Superior Meat Sire, or better yet, as a Superior Certified Meat Sire.

A Superior Meat Sire must have the pigs weighing 220 lbs. at 175 days of age or less; they must gain 100 lbs on 300 lbs. of feed or less, and the pigs slaughtered must average 29.75 inches long or more, 1.4 in. backfat or less, and 4.75 sq. in. loin area or more on a 220 pound basis.

A Superior Certified Meat Sire (SCMS) must meet SMS efficiency and gain standards, and in addition, two pigs from five different litters on test must meet certification standards.

The performance information obtained will help Bobby Chambliss in his selection and breeding program for improvement and will also be available to his customers interested in buying good breeding stock. Visitors are welcome, but be sure to ask for permission to visit the test area before entering.

Watch for news on this Sire Performance Test group.

Minimum Tillage

BY WILSON DUKE
SOIL CONSERVATIONIST

To some people it may mean reducing the number of tillage operations performed before planting the succeeding crop. To others it may mean just one operation performed before planting the following crop.

Generally the proper management of crop residue lies in with the practice of minimum tillage. So another definition of minimum tillage could be stated, "To limit the number of tillage operations to those that are essential in leaving the maximum amount of residue on the surface of the soil."

There are many reasons why minimum tillage is being practiced. Here are a few: Lowers production cost, saves time, helps continue control water erosion, reduces wind erosion, conserves soil moisture, improves soil structure, offers new crop rotations, increases land use, increased yields and therefore higher profits.

There are undoubtedly many other good reasons for practicing minimum tillage, but any rate the term is catching on and is being used by more and more farmers each year.

More and more the term "Minimum Tillage" is being heard and discussed. Farm magazines, even equipment companies are all telling the story of "Minimum Tillage". To some, they may ask, "Just what is 'minimum tillage'?"

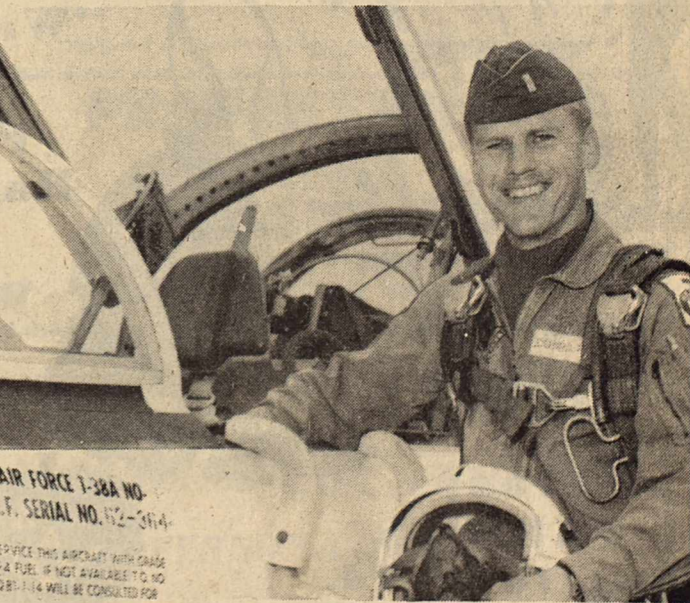

To some people it may mean reducing the number of tillage operations performed before planting the succeeding crop.

Housing Project Questioned

Many times in the recent past, the question of the need for a housing project for the City of Plains has been discussed. It is a known fact that people wishing to move to Plains have been unable to find suitable housing either for purchase or for rent. Due to the varied demands and tastes of different individuals, this alone does not constitute a need for a housing project nor does it signify the type of housing needed. However, under the Federal Department of Housing and Urban Development, there are provisions whereby this organization will build low-rent housing for people that are unable to purchase or build their own homes or pay a normal rate of rent. This may range from the indigent and poor through the illiterate and unskilled to any victim of misfortune. Every community has a portion of this type of population. This is where HUD enters the picture. First the community must express their opinion of a need then HUD runs a survey to determine the extent of that need. If HUD finds justifiable needs, a housing project sufficient to fit the need will be supplied.

The first step of procedure was to furnish evidence of the legality of the organization of the Municipality. The second step was to declare and show evidence of intent of the City to enter into a Corporation agreement with the Housing Authority. Public notice of this intent is required.

The City of Plains has proceeded thus far with the housing project to this point including the serving of public notice of its intent. This notice having been advertised in the Plains Review on both September 10th and 17th, 1970. A petition with the signatures of 17 Plains citizens has been presented to the City of Plains petitioning the City Council to refrain from any contract with the Housing Authority for any housing project. A public hearing as provided in the procedure by HUD will be held at the Yoakum County Courtroom November 10th. All interested persons will then be afforded the opportunity to become informed with the project and register any disagreements or objections.

Let's not forget to vote November 3rd. Number 7 of the Amendments is a very dangerous Amendment should it be passed. It means that all of our governments of county, cities and school districts be placed under the rule of "one man" and that one man would have all the say of how things should be run, and he would do the appointing of the men whom he wished to help him. That is not democracy! It is dictatorship.

Also in the opinion of this writer, Amendment No. 3 is also a dangerous amendment. It would give the control to our state government for evaluating the taxes on our farm and pasture lands that we citizens pay, and take it out from underneath our local government of Commissioners and tax assessor.

Before any of our vote "yes" to any Amendment, it should be studied diligently to understand the action or effect that it will have on our democratic form of government. Be sure that we are not giving power to our Federal or State Governments that should be left in the hands of local governments.

Mr. J. Phil Campbell, Under Secretary of Agriculture said: "Government must be brought back as close to the people as possible. With leadership from the Federal Government, local government must take on as much responsibility as they can handle. If we have learned anything in the first two centuries of our existence as a nation, it is that everything cannot be successfully run from Washington, D. C. - not if we are to continue as a free society."

Psychiatrist to his office nurse: "Just say 'We're very busy'. Don't say 'It's a madhouse.'"

Friendly Chats With Faye McConnell

The Future is that time when you'll wish you'd done what you aren't doing now

Monday night, the editor asked me if I had written my Chats. I replied that at this time I had not been able to think of a thing to write about. Later, while washing supper dishes, I heard the fire whistle, and even though I knew that it was only practice night, my thoughts went back to the many wonderful things our fire department men have done for this small City and the surrounding country. Regardless of the weather, rain, snow, sleet or sunshine, these men are called upon to put out fires. Many times during a cold blizzard winter night, I have heard the fire whistle blow, and I would give thanks that I did not have to crawl out of my warm bed to go out into the freezing weather. But what about our firemen? Did the cold deter them? No, they went regardless of the weather or the danger of the job.

A few men of our city still bear scars that they received while doing the duties as firemen. Do these men regret having done their share for our city? I feel sure that if they were asked the question, all would reply "no" and that they would be willing to risk their lives if the same situation were to arise again, or why else would we still have volunteer firemen!

Years ago, one of my mother's rent houses was burned to the ground which was started during the night by a lighted cigarette falling down the side of a couch. These firemen worked vigorously throughout the night to be sure all fire was extinguished. Then when morning came, without any sleep, they still had their jobs to go to, but not one word of grumbling did you hear. They had done their duty as a free American to help a neighbor in time of need.

How many of our citizens of Plains have ever sat down long enough to give thought to the work these men are doing freely and gladly? Most would probably say "but that is their job." No, it isn't. This work is done voluntarily without a thought of pay, and in the opinion of this writer, there are not enough words of "thanks and praise" that can be given to these men to justify the hard and hazardous work that they contribute to our small city.

Did Verda Lee Robertson disappoint me Tuesday morning as I was busy bringing up our criminal docket today. She came into my office and asked "How would you like to have a big piece of homemade chess pie?" My mouth and stomach began getting ready immediately for the delicacy, and I replied very quickly, "Yes, I am hungry." She answered "so would I." She had been thinking about Thanksgiving and Christmas soon to be here and she had not given too much thought until that morning of the cakes and pies that must be baked for these occasions.

After we had talked for a few minutes of the duties of our offices and homes, she was kind enough as she went out my office door to say "If I find out where we can have a good piece of chess pie, I'll let you know." Now what do you think of a very good friend who would disappoint your stomach in such a manner?

Mrs. MacMcRae reported on face lifting as done with surgery. Doctors report that it may be done more than once, although few have it done more than three times. The patients must be screened to assure that she is prepared physically and emotionally. "The successful result really comes from within the patient."

Mrs. Billy Winn gave a report on Chemi-Surgery. The acid type surgery is effective for certain conditions but is not recommended for all who desire a face lift.

Mrs. Jim Barron then gave a demonstration of make-up technique with Mrs. LeRoy Howell as her model. Beginning with the basic skin care cleanser, refresher, moisturizer, to the final touches. She used a dark make-up shade for a younger look at night with highlights to give emphasis to certain areas. In demonstrating complete eye make-up, she emphasized that the eyebrow should enhance or frame the eye. Eye shadow should cover the ball of the lid and not too large an area. She used rouge to give a lift but sparingly so no one will notice it. Her finger tips were used to apply and smooth much of the makeup. Sudie Thompson CHDA★ Says...

CORDUROY
By Sudie Thompson, Home Demonstration Agent

Corduroy, a pile fabric, takes on new faces this fall. The ever-versatile corduroy fabric is now available not only in the traditional thin or wide-wale, but also the new cut and uncut, patterned or luxurious suede-like ribless designs.

For best results when sewing corduroy, follow these hints. Before buying yardage, check the pattern envelope -- under the heading "with nap". If "with nap" is not listed, add three-eighths to three-fourths yard to provide ample fabric for cutting pattern pieces in one direction.

Cutting in one direction is important because direction of the pile affects the color of the corduroy. For example brushing the fabric against the pile produces a rough texture and deeper color. Smoothing the fabric down produces a lighter shade. For perfect-cutting, lay the pattern pieces on the wrong side of the fabric. The top of each pattern piece should point in the same direction to prevent color distortion in the finished garment. If the pattern layout calls for a crosswise fold, cut on a single thickness with all pattern pieces pointing in the same direction. But if cutting on a lengthwise fold, cut on a double thickness.

Stitching corduroy on a sewing machine requires loose tension thread (8-10 stitches per inch), a fine needle size (11-14) and a round holding plate to prevent an imbedded stitch line which detracts from the pile surface. Also, since some corduroy is heavy, a lining fabric may be used as the facing to reduce bulk.

"Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

Good thoughts cultivate goodness. Evil thoughts cultivate evil. Thinking on meaningful things is simply recognizing the truth that we are to be transformed by the renewing of our minds.

Our own thoughts have more to do with molding our earthly journey that we can imagine. Positive thoughts bring forth the positive in us. If we feel that we are blessed, we are blessed. If we think we have abundance, we will have abundance. "According to your faith" Jesus said.

If our thoughts are mean, full of hate and greed, these also will be our share of this earth. The kind of thoughts we have will return to us, just as the kind of bread we cast on the waters will return to us.

Let's make a practice of living in joy and happiness, and a tiny time that a negative thought comes to us, let's push it from our mind with some scripture as: "the hope of the righteous shall be gladness... go thy way, eat thy bread with joy... in the presence is fullness of joy... whose trusteth in the Lord, happy is he... Good is good and happiness is the energy of good... the Lord will perfect that which concerneth me" and so many more.

"Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus." Philippians 2:5

Tax Man Sam Sez

TOPIC: INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING

It is a pretty good idea to sit down now, before the end of the year, and figure out whether your income tax withholdings is going to cover you on April 15. The good tax folks say that most taxpayers prefer for the government to owe them rather than take any chances or having to pay extra. Many families are faced with a real tragedy when they find that both Mom and Dad claimed the same dependent on their Form W-4. On the other hand, it is not too late to cut down the excess refund by reducing your withholding now. If you have had a major increase in your itemized deductions, if you have already had a hurricane or tornado loss, paid for a major medical expense, or paid an unusually large contribution to your church, you may want to reduce your withholding by seeing your payroll clerk and getting a Form W-4 Schedule A.

Annual State Spending

Byron Fullerton, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, says:

It took one hundred and eleven years for Texas to reach the billion dollar mark in annual state spending, but since Ben Barnes came to the legislature, just 10 years ago, that amount has tripled and will jump up still another half-billion in the next biennium according to Barnes' prediction.

Hard as it is to imagine just how much three and a half billion dollars a year really amounts to, it is even harder to figure out what we are getting for our money!

Certainly we are not getting solutions to our problems because they are growing larger all the time.

The method of spending our way out of those problems has not worked although it has been tested by Barnes to what I call the breaking point!

I believe the time is overdue for a return to the application of good hard thought about our problems and the use of our brains instead of money in finding solutions for them.

Why Preston Smith?

Preston Smith believes in working hard. For you. And that's why he's doing such a good job as Governor of Texas.

When Preston Smith entered public service, he didn't start by asking Texans to elect him Governor. That would have been foolish, because being Governor carries great responsibilities. And it demands the clear, steady judgement that comes only from experience.

Preston Smith had the good common sense to work his way up—gaining insight into how our state government functions.

He served six years each—as State Representative... as State Senator... and as Lieutenant Governor. Only then, when he felt fully qualified, did he seek the Office of Governor.

Now, after two years he has expanded the duties of the Governor's Office to better serve all the people of our State.

Yes, Preston Smith believes in hard work. For 20 years, he's been working for Texas—doing a good job. You can help keep him as Governor. Vote. Vote for Preston Smith on Tuesday, Nov. 3.

Preston Smith

is doing a good job. Let's keep him working for Texas.
