Livestock Show Pictures Viewed On March 29th

by Leo White

The membership meeting of the Yoakum County Livestock and Agriculture Improvement Association will be held Monday night, March 29, in the District Courtroom at 8:00 p.m.

Every paid-up member of the association is urged to be present and participate in the meeting. Gene H. Bennett, president of the board of directors, will preside.

One of the main attractions at this meeting will be for the general public to have an opportunity to see the slide films taken during the 1971 livestock show and sale. Mr. Forrest Savage, the official photographer, took over 280 pictures and the report is that they turned out much better than the pictures made in the past.

Another attraction at this March 29 meeting will be the distribution of the premium money made possible by the Plains State Bank.

Every boy and girl who exhibited an animal in the show will receive a check that night and they should make every effort to be present and receive their check from a representative of the bank.

This is the proper time for members of the association to make any suggestions for improving the show and sale. Any rule changes that need to be made should be brought up at this meeting. The directors are always looking for ways to make improvements.

There will likely be some changes in the members of the board of directors. An election is held each year to fill the vacancies created by the expiration of a two-year term of office. Each year there is an opening for five or six places on the eleven member board of directors. The people elected to fill the vacancies will be elected for a two-year term.

People who have not paid their annual $5.00 membership fee will have an opportunity to do so at the secretary's desk prior to the beginning of the meeting.

Whether you are a member of the association or not, you are welcome to come to the meeting. You may even want to volunteer to make a contribution. At this annual membership meeting, someone always volunteers to donate an animal to the exhibitor who has one of four champions. They also volunteer to give awards for showmanship in each of the various divisions.

The situation in Yoakum County is a little different than any other county we know of. Almost every county has a county livestock show. Some counties have a sale in connection with their show as we do. But Yoakum County is the only county where the expense money for operating the show and sale is derived from the sale of memberships to a sponsoring organization.

Since the organization started in 1952, they have successfully sponsored nineteen different shows with a sale in connection with each one of them. They have sponsored two invitational livestock judging contests, one in 1969 and one in 1970.

The county show and sale has grown and prospered under the direction of the Yoakum County Livestock and Agriculture Improvement Association. Every detail may not have been worked out to perfection, but it is pretty hard to argue with success.

It is amazing at the number of the young exhibitors who are paid-up members of the Association. It is also rather frequent that one of them will volunteer to make a donation of an animal or a trophy. They also take an active part in the election of directors and they do a good job. They will cast their vote for the people they know to be responsible citizens who are interested in the welfare of the community.

Business Expansion

Buddy's Auto Parts announced the opening of their new shop Monday. The new shop is a fine new structure just completed south of and adjacent to the present store building, and will help house Buddy's ever expanding Auto Parts Business. Last year the business was expanded to include motor machine equipment which enables the shop to do all types of motor machine repair. This year motor vehicle inspection was added. The new building permits inside inspection and repair of both trucks and cars. Two mechanics, Mickie and Ronnie Cowart are employed as servicemen in the new business.

The history of Buddy's Auto Parts is a portrayal of a man of confidence and faith in his community.

On November 28, 1958, Mr. Hanna purchased the Walter Auto Parts, then located in the Cheek Building, a small rock building across the street south of the court house. A short time later, Mr. and Mrs. Hanna moved from Morton, Texas to Plains. The business was operated at that location until 1960, when a new building was erected at the present location and the business greatly enlarged.

In 1961, The Hannas built the fine home at 802 East Second Street, where they now reside. In 1965, Buddy again decided to expand and doubled the size of the building to the present structure and again increasing his stock of goods.

While many have become discouraged and moved from Plains, Buddy's faith in this community has prevailed. The results are a fine growing business for Buddy and a splendid business for the Plains community, where all types of motor repair and machining are available.

The clever scene above was painted by the very talented Mrs. Mary Jane Norman. The kindergarten children will surely delight in their new, happy surroundings.

Pancake Supper A Huge Success

The Science and Math Club of Plains High School, sponsored a pancake supper on the evening of Tuesday, January 16th, which proved to be tremendously successful for the club. Approximately 250 people were served at the supper. The tremendous support of the community was very, very gratifying to the club members. The supper was an effort by them to raise money for a trip to the Houston area during Easter vacation. On their trip they will tour the NASA Manned Spacecraft Center, as well as visiting Rice University, various museums of science, and the Texas state capitol building at Austin.

Those dining at the cafeteria enjoyed the superlative entertainment provided by Mr. Royce Aikin, who sang. The club members were also indebted to various mothers who cooked the pancakes, sausage and bacon.

The members of the Science and Math Club wish to thank the community for the tremendous response in buying tickets for the supper. The support of the community is a very important factor in making the trip a reality for the club and in introducing the members to new areas of scientific interest which will correlate with the aims of the club.

A special thanks goes to the Jimmy Dean Meat Packing Company of Plainview for providing the sausage.

First Aid Course Scheduled

The Plains Independent Fire Department is sponsoring a school in first aid. Classes will commence Monday, March 22, at 7:30 p. m. and will be held in the clubroom at the old courthouse.

Mr. Y. L. Wright of Denver City will teach the first aid course. Mr. Wright, who is now retired, was formerly with the El Paso Natural Gas Company. He was instructor of such classes previously conducted in Plains.

The classes are open to anyone interested in a course of this kind. A course in first aid is one of the requirements for ambulance drivers which are badly needed in Plains.

The only cost to the individual will be the cost of books. The Fire department is paying all other expenses.

Mr. H. G. McDonnell, a veteran Plains fireman, reports that interest in the course is good and that 22 people have expressed a desire to participate at this time.

Easter Cantata

A taxpayer is a person who has the government on his payroll.

In the early history of the making of our nation, the placing together of all food and money was tried by some of the people, it did not work then because of too many citizens who would not work for their share, and it will not work at this time.

The rules had to be revised then and it is time the rules are revised now. We must never allow our aged, blind, crippled and helpless citizens to suffer, nor our poor dependent children. But the shiftless freeloaders of either sex and every race must learn that they must work if they want to eat.

So many greedy and indolent people have climbed aboard the "gravy train" that the ever-mounting taxes that provide the fuel to keep it running have reached a dead end. It is slowly coming to a stop, not because the American people have become less generous and humane, but just because so many deadbeats have decided that they had rather play around than work. The working citizens are tired of paying for someone's laziness.

The solution does not lie in getting Washington to pay the welfare bill. That only takes us one step closer to socialism and communism. The handing out of money and food to the indolent and able-bodied citizens who can work, must be stopped, and a complete revision of the rules must follow by the government, and make this type of person know that he cannot live off the money of the working man and woman.

Can you imagine anyone being silly enough to get out on the roads and highways with such a sand storm blowing as it was this last Sunday! Well, the editor and I happen to be two of those silly people. We decided to spend the day in Lubbock with sister Dixie and brother-in-law, Dick Hillbish. Most of the time, the sand was so thick and the wind blowing so hard that you could hardly see more than ten to fifteen feet in front of you. Everyone was driving with the car lights on just as though it was night time. We were over three hours getting to their home on Buffalo Lake. However, by the time we started home, the wind had abated and we had a wonderful trip. The visit? It was one of the most enjoyable we have had in a long time.

Tuesday, March 16th was Kason Huddleston's first birthday. Kason is the young son of Linda and Cordell Huddleston of Canyon, and it would have been pleasant to have been able to share his first birthday cake. Martha Palmer, in reporting this news, said that Jack accused her of being just like an old grandmother when around Kason. She continually is talking and playing with him. Nevertheless, Martha is certainly excused Kason is the only small child in the Fitzgerald family now, and it is only natural that the baby gets the most attention.

Mr. & Mrs. Gene Payne visited in Plains Monday from their ranch near Santa Rosa, New Mexico. It seemed very natural for Gene to walk into the County Judge's office as he was our county commissioner of Precinct # 3 for a few years. It brought back many pleasant memories of days of yore. Later, he and Mrs. Payne came in together and Mrs. Payne looked well and hearty. It seems that New Mexico is agreeing with both of them.

Mrs. Payne said the Sunday before they came to Plains that they had gone home for lunch from church with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Bedford. Pete lives 30 miles from Santa Rosa in one direction and Gene and Mrs. Payne live 20 miles from Santa Rosa in the opposite direction, making the distance apart from each other to be 50 miles.

Another family who left Plains only a few years ago and went near Santa Rosa to ranch is Bill and Wilma Powell, and it is always such a pleasure to have them visiting their old home town again.

Saint Patrick's day was March 17th, but not very many people around Plains were seen wearing the green. Those that were Irish and did not have green on, were supposed to be pinched. Haven't heard of anyone being treated by the doctor as yet, so it appears that the Irish either left town yesterday, or were wearing of the green.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

We look at our neighbor's good points through a peep hole, but when we get to his faults, we open wide the door. It seems that the more we magnify his misdeeds, the less guilty we feel about our own shortcomings.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor: Would you please help me say a big "thank you" to a bunch of very nice people in the Tokio Community.

On February 21, 1971, we took a slight detour into a field which had recently been deep broke when we lost control of our car and plowed through a snow filled ditch as we were returning from a short holiday in Ruidoso, New Mexico. This is a bad feeling for most anyone but for two women traveling alone, it was much worse than that. Many people stopped to help us, but it was the local people who really did something about it. We were not alone for a minute until we were free again. It took a great deal of work and effort to get us out and back into the road again. Driving conditions were bad and the icy wind was blowing a gale but after much work and two and half hours we were back on the icy road only to find we had mechanical problems and could only shift to reverse and low. We know now the mechanical problem was the cause of us losing control of the car and not the fault of the driver or the ice on the pavement. But we were out and low was best for us with the ice on the highway. We took another two and half hours to arrive safely home in Slaton.

What do you do or say to these considerate people who helped us seemingly without a thought of their discomfort? I have no words to express my appreciation of them. So, publicly here in your newspaper where I hope they will read this, I'll simply say, "Thank all of you so very much. I will always think of all of you with a soft spot in my heart because of your kindness and consideration for us when we were in trouble. Its good to know there are so many people like you in this world still. The community where you live is fortunate to have people who are so considerate of their fellowman. God bless all of you. Most Sincerely, Mrs. Cleo Reasoner, P. O. Box 332 Slaton, Texas 79364

Around Town

By Billie Blumdel

Several months ago we published a very amusing error in the Want Ad section of the Plains Review. It read... LOST... a 650 inch steer!... naturally, we received many "comments".... For instance, Pete Smith said, "Well, at least I'd know him anywhere!!!!!! Well, I had dismissed this from my mind until recently, Thomas Bearden said, "Hey Billie, I sold that 650 inch steer!!!!!! I should have ask what the market price was for such an UNUSUAL ANIMAL!!!!!!????????"

While working on our income tax report and desperately looking for possible deductions... Randy Gass passed on this interesting information. He said that if you were a member of the "theatre guild", you can deduct the membership dues!!!!!!

With so many trying to "kick" the tobacco habit.... Dero Anderson is trying desperately to overcome his serious--- problem of OVEREATING!!!! Why he's in such bad shape, he actually gets the shakes when he's down to his last package of "peanuts"!!!!!! And we all know this habit has been very bad for him,..... look how "fat" he is!!!!!!

Viva Hale has a perfectly delightful sense of humor!! For instance.... Friday, Jo Ann Barron said, "Just think Viva, after 10 years, this will be my last day to work for you!" Viva quickly replied, "That's just like you, flipping from one job to another!"

Mary Jane Norman had a most unusual and interesting week, painting Easter scenes for the elementary classrooms. At lunchtime she joined her daughter, Marla, and a few other first graders in the cafeteria. She was very busy "visiting" with the children, when suddenly Robbie Guetersloh, first grader, said SHHHHH!!!!!! She looked around and saw Mr. Harvey, principal, standing at the door..... and then Robbie said, "I guess you know that you nearly had to stand up against the wall for talking!!" Mary Jane was very much relieved when Mr. Harvey explained that they were a little "easier" on first-offenders!!!

The members of the Baptist Church decided to paint the Sunday School Classrooms recently..... and later that night, Billy and Charlotte Kennedy came into the Cowboy Grill all "splattered with paint" and then Loreta and Dan Houck came in with the same "unusual white coating". Ray Strickland also displayed all the signs of an "amateur painter". (I wondered if they actually got any paint on the walls???) They even complimented Gilbert Pierce on his "art work"..... not necessarily that he was the "best"... but certainly the "speediest"!!!!!!

Blue Sage 4-H Club

Combread, Irish Stew and cup cakes and punch were served by Joyce Bearden, Sheila Stephens, Pat Curtis, Velma Dearing and Phyllis Addison.

Thirty two members of the Blue Sage 4-H Club enjoyed a "St. Patrick's Day" party March 11, 1971, in the clubroom.

The meeting was called to order by Donna Cheatham. Pledge to the flags were given by Melvin Dearing and Robbie Blount. After the business meeting, games of Four Square Ball, Dublin Jail and Irish Potato Race were played.

PLAINS NURSING HOME NEWS

Mr. Jesse Lee, who has been living in the Plains Nursing Home for over six years, fell in his room last Saturday, March 13th, and broke his hip. He was first carried to Brownfield, and later to a hospital in Lubbock, but regardless of the care he had, he passed away and was buried Tuesday, March 16th at 2:00 o'clock MST, in Lovington, New Mexico.

Mr. A. G. Brantley, Sherm Tingle, Gilbert Pierce were pallbearers, and perhaps more that has not been reported.

Mrs. J. H. Daniels, in her sweet and kind way, is always trying to do pleasant things for other people. Tuesday, she prepared lunch for Mr. W. E. Smith of the Plains Nursing Home just in order that he would still have the feeling that he was not entirely left alone without someone to do a special kind deed for him.

Mrs. Lizzie McDonnell spent the weekend with her daughter and family, Neoma Whitehurst in Hobbs, New Mexico.

Parents Know the Drug Threat The Child You Save May Be Your Own

By Vernon Townes County Attorney

Today's Subject: More Bad News for "Speed" Users (Methamphetamines).

Last week we talked briefly about injected Methamphetamines commonly called in the jargon of the street, "Speed". You'll recall that the effects of using this drug, in this manner, were very disturbing to say the least. Now, more bad news about "Speed" has come to light. On Thursday, November 5th, 1970, it was reported by a USC Medical Center team at Los Angeles that as many as 20% of the youths who "shoot speed", (take it by injection), may develop a blood vessel disease that has been fatal in about 30% of cases detected to date.

It seems to be indicated the disease kills by blocking blood vessels in vital organs such as kidneys and the heart. This will be the first deadly disease of the system that doctors have found associated with drugs which are abused.

"Speed" is, as we have said, a form of amphetamine -- the "pep pill" drug. Users inject it to get a quicker, higher response. According to one doctor, working with the study, persons who take amphetamines orally to control their appetite may possibly be in danger of acquiring the lethal blood vessel disease. There were eight doctors on the medical team which made the discovery, at USC, from the departments of medicine, radiology and pathology. Dr. B. Philip Citron, who headed the team, has a report appearing in the November 5th issue of the New England Journal of Medicine. In it he tells of extensive studies done on 14 patients; four of them died and one is now near death. Eight of the 14 were males and six were females.

Most of those who died succumbed to heart failure or kidney failure, due to the blockage by scar tissue of blood vessels, within those organs. Autopsies showed vessels in the pancreas, stomach and small intestines also were severely affected. It is hoped that the discovery will hasten the removal from the market of amphetamines which reportedly have "very little therapeutic value". LSD is also suspected as cause of the same blood vessel disease.

One interesting case, a woman patient involved in the study had been taking 30 pills a day, originally prescribed to control her diet. The dosage for that purpose is two pills a day. It seems this is a startling example of how diet pills, used under a doctor's prescription in the beginning, can get completely out of hand quite easily. In my first article I mentioned that the purpose of these "letters" was not to pin the blame for the drug problem on anyone. However, one can hardly consider all available information on the subject without coming to the conclusion that adults have been misusing drugs for many years now and have by so doing certainly contributed to the spread and increase of the practice.

Have you checked your medicine chest lately to see what dangerous drugs it may contain? Do you know exactly what drugs you keep in the house and whether they are potentially dangerous in the hands of children or young people? How would you feel if one of your children became involved with the misuse of drugs and you found it all started with something he found in your medicine chest?

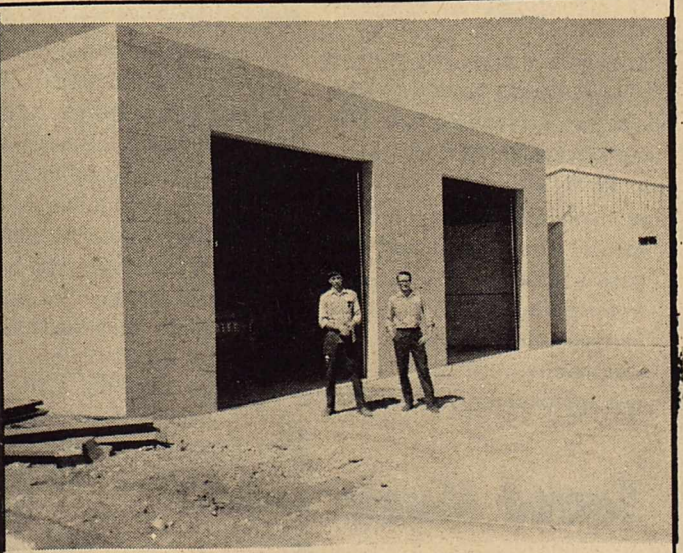

We are discussing facts, friends, and considering all possibilities. That is why some unpleasant subjects are likely to come up during our consideration of the national drug problem.

Be with me next week. I think you'll find the subject of deep interest and if you are concerned about drugs I know your reading time will not be wasted.

Three Little Pigs Lubbock-- No matter how you slice it, the ham turns out the same whether the hog was fed corn, wheat or grain sorghum. That is the preliminary conclusion of a group of Texas Tech University researchers from the Animal Science and Food Nutrition Departments. Experiments on 120 pigs have been conducted on feeding value of various grains for swine and the study is nearing completion. Some phases, however, still are in progress, according to Dr. Leland Tribble, swine specialist and project leader for the research. Data on the performance of pigs fed corn, wheat or grain sorghum showed no "significant differences" in rate or efficiency of gains. "A study indicated that the grain sorghum was less digestible by swine than corn or wheat," Tribble said. The ration containing grain was found to contain 94.1 percent as much digestible energy per pound as those containing corn or wheat. Data showed no significant variations in length, backfat thickness, loin area or in the four lean cuts of carcasses from the three categories. "However, there was a trend for the pigs fed grain sorghum to be meatier and have less fat than those fed corn," Tribble said. "Carcasses of pigs fed corn had a significantly lower specific gravity than those fed wheat or grain sorghum." No differences were found in color, firmness or marbling of hams and loins from pigs fed corn, wheat or grain sorghum. The Sonora, an instrument used to measure depth of fat and muscle, was used to evaluate changes in depth of backfat and loin muscle. No significant differences were found in the increase in backfat or loin muscle depth during the experimental feeding period. No differences were found in shelf life of pork chops from pigs fed the different grains. Neither was there difference in the shrinkage of the hams during the curing and smoking processes. However, one taste panel found the flavor of cured ham slices from pigs fed wheat to be significantly more desirable than those from pigs fed corn. A loin roast from each of three animals from the different categories was given to the Food and Nutrition Department for evaluation of cooking characteristics, palatability and visual characteristics as affected by the different grains. Data from the first trial indicate no significant differences in the pork obtained from animals fed corn, wheat or grain sorghum. "From the data analyzed to date, we can conclude that there is little, if any difference in corn, wheat or grain sorghum when properly supplemented for growing-fattening swine as measured by performance of the pigs, carcass composition, processing characteristics and cooking and eating characteristics of the pork," Tribble said. He said the study is one of the most detailed ever undertaken on the value of various grains of swine.

Eddie Cogburns Have Hard Luck

On a camping trip last week to the Devil's River in Southwest Texas, Eddie and Beth Cogburn were unfortunate in being caught out on the road last Sunday during one of the worst sand storms this country has seen in a long time. The camper blew off the pickup and it was completely demolished by rolling down a steep hill. The camper was a new one and it was their first trip to use it. Eddie thought that he had it securely bolted to the pickup, but somehow, it came loose. Eddie and Beth feel very fortunate, for just as easily as not, the camper pickup and all could have been blown off the road down the steep hill. Mr. & Mrs. Eddie Cogburn visited with Kenneth and Susie Powell who live in Ozona while on the camping trip.

St. Romains Make Visit

Mr. & Mrs. Pete St. Romain spent last week in Alexandria, Louisiana visiting Pete's mother, sisters and brothers. On their route home, they stopped in Dallas, Texas at the Sheraton Hotel for a two days' Telephone Convention on Monday and Tuesday, arriving in Plains on Wednesday. Conventions are always very educational and lots of fun. Besides the many interesting things that one learns about his business, there is usually some entertainment planned to make it not all work but with some play. Usually, they end with a banquet on the last night.

DUST IN TIME

To keep down the clouds of dust that are stirred up in confined areas where dirty floors are being swept, moistening with water is often effective. You can use a garden sprayer or a vacuum cleaner spraying attachment.

THIS AND THAT

Mr. Ruth O'Neal spent several days in the Yoakum County Hospital last week. Not that Ruth was very ill, it was more for a general checkup. Ruth is 76 years of age, and this is the first time to be in the hospital for herself. All the other times, it was for her children or her husband. Isn't it marvelous that anyone can be as spry and happy as Ruth is at her age. The way she walks so briskly and her skin almost as fresh and smooth as her daughters, no one would think of her being 76 years of age.

Mr. Murphy Luna reported a wonderful weekend. Her sister, Mrs. Ara Earnest, visited her from Odessa, bringing four other women with her. They were Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Winn, Mrs. Halie and Mrs. Wright, all from Odessa. Mrs. Luna enjoys playing games of dominoes or cards, and she said that much of the time was spent in playing Samba and doing just as the notion struck them.

Mr. & Mrs. Ford Hawkins were surprised by a visit from their daughter Jackie and children, Chip and Chat Lynn last Tuesday. Regardless of the grandparents are, they always enjoy seeing their grandchildren walk in the door. Of course, the children can be also included, but it is the grandchildren that lights up the sparkle in the eyes of the grandparents.

Mr. & Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Sr., left a few days ago for a three weeks visit to Truth of Consequences for a good rest and those wonderful hot baths from the healing waters of the Hot Springs.

Mr. & Mrs. Earl Robertson and children visited his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Skeet Robertson over the weekend. More grandparents were made happy.

Sanford and Essie Webber returned last Saturday from a ten days stay in Truth of Consequences, New Mexico. Essie reports a wonderful rest and an enjoyable trip.

Mr. & Mrs. Foye Powell visited their son and family, Kenneth and Susie Powell in Ozona over the weekend.

While Joe St. Romains' parents were gone last week, and part of this week, he spent the time with his aunt, Mrs. Ircillia Hendard in order not to miss school. Joe had broken his glasses and this gave Ircillia and Mrs. Luna a good excuse to spend Monday in Lubbock. While waiting for the glasses to be repaired, they visited Ethel Cadenhead and her mother, Mrs. Cadenhead. Mrs. Luna said that this was the first time she had seen Mrs. Cadenhead in a number of years. Ethel has visited Plains a number of times, but Mrs. Cadenhead is bedfast and can't move herself without help.

The Cadenheads were very old timers of Yoakum County, but after Mr. Cadenhead's death, so many years ago that the date is forgotten, Mrs. Cadenhead and family moved from Plains to Lubbock where Mrs. Cadenhead worked for many years. Ethel married while living there, and therefore, her married name has also been forgotten. She will always be just Ethel Cadenhead to her many friends in Plains.

Mr. & Mrs. J. W. Moore of Moore-Oden, Inc., attended the funeral of Virgil Prather, the brother-in-law of Mr. A. G. Brantley of Plains.

Mrs. Foy Cogburn, when asked if she had any news for this week, reported the only thing she had been doing was trying to keep the sick folks around her home from becoming sicker, and also doing her best to keep up her own strength. Mrs. Cogburn really has her hands full. Her mother lives with her, which takes much of her time; then Foy overworked himself and she has had the added worry of making him behave, and I am sure, that that is one big chore. Foy has worked too hard all of his life to give up easily, and Mrs. Foy must scold him once in a while for wanting to overdo again. Mrs. Ita Young, Mrs. Cogburn's sister, has been ill also, and Mrs. Cogburn is trying to make her take care of herself. It is hard to tell who dislikes being told certain things to do - the young citizens or the older citizens!

Mr. & Mrs. Roy Edwards and children spent the weekend with Mrs. Edwards' sister, Wanda and family in Levelland.

Conservation Cropping System

BY WILSON DUKE

Due to the sandy soils in the Yoakum Soil and Water Conservation District they are low in fertility and organic matter. A good rotation of crops is not practiced, fertility, tilth, moisture holding capacity, and the loss from wind and water erosion is increasing.

By using crops such as alfalfa or small grain or grasses in rotation with other crops, plant nutrients and organic matter is added to the soil. This also helps in maintaining soil structure and in the controlling of disease. Crop rotation such as cotton following grain sorghum or small grain has increased the quality of the product and also improved the fiber.

These factors such as the increase in organic matter, tilth, fertility and water holding capacity, soil conditioning and soil structure are only a few of the reasons why it pays to work out a good sound crop rotation program on your farm each year.

Cotton following grasses in a 3-4 year rotation has done well and has also improved the soil structure and the condition of the soil. Also noted was a decrease in cotton disease such as root rot.
