ED HUNTER

Local Man Commended For 'Good Neighbor' Deed

Ed Hunter has received commendation by Lubbock EMS for coming to the aid of an EMS crew which became medically stranded in Plains July 25.

The Lubbock ambulance developed trouble after transporting a patient to Tatum, N.M. Five miles west of the Texas-New Mexico line, two fan belts were lost. New ones could not be installed because of the lack of a metric wrench set.

Despite overheating and charging problems, the crew was able to bring the ambulance into town at 20 miles per hour, only to discover there was no mechanic in town at that hour.

Acquainted with Hunter, a pharmacist at Lubbock General Hospital, one of the paramedics called the Hunter home asking advice. He then escorted the ambulance to his home and helped replace the belts with his own tools.

Hunter's help resulted in a cost savings to Lubbock EMS and also enabled the ambulance and crew to return to Lubbock as quickly as possible.

His letter of commendation, placed in his personal file at Lubbock General, cites his actions. From Mark Brock, Director, Lubbock EMS, the letter states, "Mr. Hunter obviously went above and beyond the call of duty, and I respectfully request that you place a copy of this letter and the attached incident report in his personal file. He appears to be an excellent example of the care and professionalism exhibited by the employees of this institution, and I am most appreciative of his actions."

Hunter and his wife, Helen, have lived in Plains 31 years. They are parents of a son, Ed Lee Hunter, of Lubbock. He is also employed in the pharmaceutical field. Mrs. Hunter taught school in Plains and Denver City until her retirement.

The Hunters are affectionately known as Uncle Ed and Aunt Helen by neighborhood children.

From The Superintendent's Desk

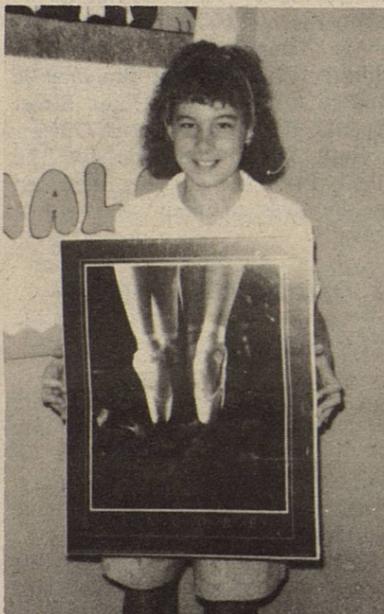

DEAN ANDREWS

We received word this week that transfer students from Brownfield, Plains, Denver City, Seminole and Seagraves have been accepted by the Texas Education Agency and will be able to attend the school of their choice. This is good news for our transfer students since they may now continue attendance at Plains Schools.

Our school year actually began this week with forty-seven high school students reporting for football, twenty-four students working out for volleyball and about sixty-five students due to report for band. Our first volleyball game was Tuesday, August 18, 1987, at 6:00 p.m. - Plains vs. Coronado, here at Plains. The first football scrimmage was played here August 21, 1987 at 7:30 p.m. against Tatum.

I marvel at the way in which our people work and prepare for the coming school year. Much hard work is going on with our young people every day as they prepare for competition.

HEATHER McDONNELL, at right, and COREY WAUSON, left, were the winners of the drawing held by Yoakum County Library Summer Reading Program. Heather, the daughter of Jackie and Gail McDonnell, is in the fourth grade. Corey, a fifth grade student, is the son of Jeannette and Gene Wauson.

Cowgirls Open Season With Victories In Lubbock

Plains Cowgirls 1987 volleyball season officially got underway last week with the Cowgirls posting victories over Lubbock Coronado and Lubbock Monterey.

The Cowgirls hosted Coronado in the season opener downing the Mustangs 15-13, 15-6. Lynda Jimenez and Bertha Gonzales had 12 and 11 service points in the match.

Playing on the home court didn't prove to be an advantage for Monterey as the Cowgirls came out on top 15-11, 15-0. Melissa Welch had 14 points in the match.

Junior Varsity evened their record at 1-1 with a win over Monterey. Rachel Medina served eight points for the Cowgirls.

They went the full three games in their season opener against Coronado losing 7-15, 15-7, 6-15. Martha Rivera led in the offensive effort with nine service points.

The Cowgirls began preparing for their season Aug. 10 when 27 athletes reported for two-a-day workouts.

Coaches got a preview of their teams in action prior to their first contest when the Cowgirl squad traveled to Midland for scrimmages with Midland Lee, Buena Vista and Wink.

The Cowgirls were to end their first week of competition by participating in the Monahans Invitational Tournament Friday and Saturday.

All three teams will be in Andrews tonight.

The ninth grade contest will begin at 5 p.m. followed by junior varsity and varsity action.
