"IT IS NOT HARD TO BE A COWGIRL"

By Wilma Luna Powell

It is not hard to be a Cowgirl you see,
Especially if you have Ranchers on both sides of the Family Tree,
Its not hard to be a Cowgirl,
if you were your Daddy's helper,
We rode the range togethen, day after day,
and most always late for Supper.
My Daddy helped teach me all the tricks,
We roped, we branded, and a lot of other chones,
AND I broke young horses to ride, that made me tough as a brick.

It is not hard to be a Cowgirl you see,
I met a Cowboy who fell in love with me,
We rode our horses over the Ranches, far and near, early and late,
Most of the time that was our date.
We got married one April Day, and from then on, We started the work and the play.

It is not hard to be a Cowgirl you see,
When your Cowboy Lover is your best friend to be.
We planned our Dreams from the very start,
but had to work from daylight to dark.
To add to our Dreams we had two Baby Boys,
Not every Cowgirl could have two Little Cowboys,
They followed in the footsteps of their Dad,
Cowboys they were, and could never do anything bad.
The days came and went and lots of years went by,
Some were wet, some were dry.

Its not hard to be a Cowgirl,
Even tho we all went in a big whirl,
We kept riding the range, cooking, cleaning the house,
attending Rodeos, Stockshows and winning a lot, and I am sure I forgotten the big pot.
All the days were not Rosey,
We had heavy debts and some sickness too,
But someone always sent us Love and a posey.

It is not hard to be a Cowgirl you see,
Living in the Land of Plenty, and this wonderful world of free,
We made our Dreams come true,
After working Morning, Noon and half the night,
We had good Ranches with lots of fat cattle, good Saddlehorses,
And with Gods help, We won the fight.
