Yoakum County Art Association lists several upcoming programs

Yoakum County Art Association met Jan. 5 in the Yoakum County Clubroom in Plains. Paul Milosevich of Lubbock was the demonstrator. He did a portrait in oils of his young son. He also shared some of his other work.

Marguerite Barron displayed her artwork at Plains State Bank during the month of January, as she was Artist of the Month. Next month, Loretta Houch will have her works on display.

Bonnie Earnest and Mary Lou Parks served refreshments to eleven members attending.

Next meeting is planned for Feb. 2 at 7 p.m. in the clubroom, which is the west door of the old Courthouse building in Plains. Visitors are welcomed as guests or to join the organization.

Plains Chamber to meet Feb. 2

Plains Chamber of Commerce will meet Tuesday, Feb. 2 at 7 a.m. at Johnnie's Restaurant for the regular monthly meeting.

All interested persons are invited to attend.

The Club offers different demonstrations in areas other than painting and drawing. In February, Bonnie Earnest, local photographer at "images by bonnie" will be giving a program. In March, there will be leather crafts and engraving by Jay Hudson; and in April, oil painting and glazing methods with flowers by Kay Milam. Blue Jean Fashions will be introduced by Charlene Hanks in May; and Water Color demonstrations given in June by Marvin Stevenson.

"So, come on out and watch - just see what's going on!" says Betty Estep, a member of the association. President of the club is Susie Powell. For more information, call Betty Estep, 456-4424. "Also, our Spring Fling is coming up on March 27," she adds.

Texas Alltel recognizes employee's perfect attendance

Twenty-two Texas ALLTEL employees throughout the state have received letters of commendation from company Vice President Terry Beeler for achieving perfect attendance in 1992. Along with the recognition, each employee was given a day off with pay in 1993.

An employee in the local area who received recognition included Installation and Repair Technician Travis Jones who is based in Plains.

In the letter expressing his thanks for their effort and dedication, Beeler said, "Such diligence to one's job is a valuable asset to the company and should be a source of pride to you."

Texas ALLTEL with over 60,000 access lines throughout the state provides local telephone service to exchanges in Plains and Higginbotham.
