MATT MORGAN

Morgan chosen as member of Disney Young Musicians

Matt Morgan, son of Byron and Karol Morgan, was recently chosen as a member of the Disney Young Musicians Symphony Orchestra. He traveled to Houston last March to audition in the national search conducted by the California based Disney Young Musicians' Symphony.

A seventh grade student when school starts, young Morgan was also recently named a member of Lubbock Youth Symphony. For that honor, he auditioned in May. The group performed during the weekend Fourth of July on Broadway celebration in Lubbock.

Later this month, the Disney Young Musicians' Symphony Orchestra will gather for a 10-day music camp at Los Angeles' Mount Saint Mary's College, where they will rehearse for their concert as well as participate in workshops with some of the best-known musicians in the world.

The camp culminates with a concert at the Ambassador Auditorium in Pasadena which will be telecast on The Disney Channel Aug. 26.

SCS announces appointment plan

The local SCS (Soil and Conservation Service) office has announced that it will be going to an appointment system effective Aug. 1, 1993.

Mario Avila, District Conservationist, stated that, "the staff has been cut in half, however, the work has not diminished. In order to make more efficient use of our limited personnel resources and better serve our customers, I decided to recommend the appointment system to my Board of Directors."

Avila further stated that several months ago, he had approached the Directors and they had concurred with the idea. Avila also said that he didn't think that the producers would mind the change. "Especially, when they see that we can actually get them in and out of the office quicker," Avila noted. "By making an appointment, we will know who is coming in and when. We will make it a point to have someone in the office and have their files already pulled. We will even try to accommodate a producer and schedule him an appointment on the same day that he has his appointment at the ASCS," Avila concluded.

Producers who wish to make an appointment can do so by calling 456-3703, Monday through Friday, 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Programs of the Soil Conservation Service are offered on a nondiscriminatory basis without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, religion, marital status or handicap.

Kid's Cooking School scheduled July 14

School age youth, six years and older, are invited to participate in a Kids' Cooking School Wednesday, July 14 in the clubroom of the old courthouse. Sponsors of the event are Southwestern Public Service and Yoakum County Extension Office.

The class will be limited to 25 participants. Young people may register to participate in the school by calling the extension office at 456-2263. The class is free, but reservations will be required.

The hands-on cooking school will be led by Melinda Holloway, SPS home economist, and Joan Chandler, Yoakum County Extension Agent.

Pressure canners to be checked

Homemakers who use pressure canners to preserve their garden produce should have their canners checked each year for safety and gauge accuracy, states Joan Chandler, Yoakum County Extension Agent, homemaking.

The free check may be arranged by calling the Extension Office, 456-2263.

Lady Texan Basketball Camp to feature Lady Raider Swoopes

Former South Plains College stand-out Sheryl Swoopes will make a special appearance during the Lady Texan Basketball Camp, which will be held July 18-23.

The camp, under the direction of South Plains College women's basketball coach Lyndon Hardin, is open to all girls in fifth grade through high school.

"We feel we have one of the better camps around," Hardin said. "We try to keep a small ratio between instructors and campers. It's a good environment to learn fundamentals."

The purpose of the camp is to provide an opportunity for girls and young women to improve their basketball skills in a fun environment. The fundamentals of basketball are stressed, with sportsmanship, team play and self-confidence emphasized as well.

"We're not going to make them great players in a week," Hardin said, "but we give them a good foundation. We're going to work hard on basketball skills. It's not a recreational camp, but they have fun too."

Swoopes played for the Lady Texans during the 1989-90 and 1990-91 seasons, and was selected as the National Junior College Player of the Year by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association in 1991.

Swoopes twice earned National Junior College Athletic Association All-American recognition at South Plains, and also was a two-time Kodak All-American. The Brownfield native set 15 school records at SPC, including most points in a career, most points in a season and most points in a game.

The camp will be held in Texan Dome on the SPC campus. Other facilities for use by the campers are indoor swimming pool, indoor racquetball courts and tennis courts. In addition, campers also may spend time at the SPC Student Center, which features a video arcade, pool and ping pong tables and a giant-screen television.

Camp participants may commute daily from their homes or spend the week on campus in a college residence hall.

The cost of the camp is $200 for overnight campers, $165 for day campers who eat in Texan Hall and $100 for day campers who do not eat in the dining hall.

Included in the camp fee is instruction, insurance, awards and entertainment, as well as certificates, a t-shirt, official camp photo and a basketball for

Summer readers earn certificates

Approximately 79 young readers have completed their required reading and have earned certificates in the summer reading club at Yoakum County Library in Plains. About 200 readers signed up for the summer reading.

Boys and girls who read 10 or more books earn a certificate and a coupon redeemable for a sundae at the local Dairy Queen.

The camp schedule will include ball handling, dribbling, passing and shooting drills, along with scrimmages, tournament games and individual instruction.

Time also will be devoted to "Let's Talk Basketball" a session which will stress attitude, desire, leadership and enthusiasm.

Camp applications will be accepted as they are received and should be returned as soon as possible. A $75 deposit should be sent with the application, and the remaining balance will be due at the time of registration.

Registration will be held on July 18 at 2 p.m. in Gillespie Hall, with camp activities concluding July 23 at 3 p.m.

The deposit is non-refundable after July 5, and $20 charge will be made on all refunds.

For more information, contact Hardin at 806-89409611, ext. 224 or write: Lady Texan Basketball Camp, South Plains College, 1401 S. College Avenue, Levelland, TX. 79336.

Seagraves group to visit July 10

"Celebrate Seagraves" caravan will stop in Plains Saturday, July 10 at the local Pay-n-Save Grocery to extend an invitation to local residents to join in July 17 festivities in Seagraves. The group is slated to arrive about 10:30 a.m.

Spokesmen for the group say that fun events will begin in Seagraves July 17 at 8 a.m. with a 10k run or one mile walk. Craft booths, antique cars and tractors, games, music, food, a parade, cow patty bingo and street dancing until late are some of the activities in store.

City adopts interim budget

An interim budget for July 1 through Sept. 30 was adopted in a called meeting June 24 of Plains City Council. The council had previously voted to change the city's fiscal year from July 1 through June 30 to Oct. 1 through Sept. 30.

Steve Jones was appointed to fill the position vacated by Rick Ramos. He was first runner-up in the general election held May 1.

In previous action, the council had voted to enter into contract negotiations with Hibbs, Oiler and Todd Engineering Inc. and Howco for engineering and grant management for the construction of a wastewater treatment plant. The project will be funded with a $250,000 Texas Community Development Program grant. Construction of the wastewater treatment plant should begin next year.

Other projects planned and/or underway include the replacement of undersized water lines in the northwest portion of the City and replacement of steel gas lines in the southeast part of town.

Two Yoakum County youths attend citizenship meeting

Tracy Bearden and Kaymi Jones of Denver City recently attended the 31st Annual Citizenship Seminar sponsored by Texas Farm Bureau. The seminar was held in San Angelo. Bearden is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rickey Bearden. Miss Jones is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones of Denver City.

The two were sponsored by Yoakum County Farm Bureau and were among some 400 high school junior and senior students from more than 150 counties across the state.

Purpose of the seminar is to provide students with a better understanding of their American heritage and the capitalistic free enterprise system, according to the elder Bearden, Yoakum County Farm Bureau president.

BRIDAL COURTESY for Catrina Poplin was attended by Billie McDonnell, grandmother of groom; Darlene Wilson, mother of groom; honoree; Becky Poplin, mother of bride and Dene Rafferty, aunt of groom.

Catrina Poplin is honoree at bridal courtesy Saturday

Miss Catrina Poplin of Lubbock, bride-elect of Chuck Wilson, was complimented with a bridal courtesy Saturday in the home of JoAnn Barron.

Honor guests were mothers of the betrothed couple, Darlene Wilson and Becky Poplin of Lubbock. Other special guests were Billie McDonnell, grandmother of the prospective groom, and Dene Rafferty, aunt.

The party table was laid with a white cloth and adorned with an arrangement of white silk flowers. Appointments were crystal. Cookies, mints, nuts and punch were served.

Hostesses presented the couple with a vacuum.

Assisting with hostess duties were Carolyn Culwell, Karen Williams, Toni Jones, Sheri McGinty, Pam Redman, Denise Peoples, Dolores Davis, Sidney Murphey, Susie Powell, Connie McWhirter, Estelle McAdams, Cyndy Koncaba, Janelle Brantley, Latrell McDonnell, Sue Randall, Vicki Blundell and Billie Howell.

State Line Homemakers conduct bread making clinic

Joan Chandler, Yoakum County Extension Agent, gave a demonstration on bread making for members of State Line Extension Homemakers Club recently. Each member made a loaf of bread to take home and bake.

Elizabeth Clanahan and Ragan McGinty presented their 4-H method demonstration on proper care of the teeth.

Roll call was answered with "What I Recycle". Plans were made to go to Lazy J Ranch in Ruidoso. Announcement was made of council meeting July 6.

Attending were guests, N.C. and Beth Clanahan and Helen Perkins and members, Margaret Box, Carol Beth Box, Ann Jenkins, Gayle McDonnell, Dolores Davis, Dene Rafferty, Toni Jones and Sheri McGinty.

Girl Scouts send out plea for supplies for special camp

Teen moms in Lubbock and the surrounding 18 counties are invited to attend a special week-long camp designed for them and their babies. The camp will be held July 18-24 at the Girl Scout Camp Rio Blanco located east of Crosbyton. Teen moms ages 10 through 18 and their children ages three months to three years are invited to attend. Unwed mothers, as well as married mothers, are welcomed.

Sessions will include parenting, child safety, health and nutrition, education and career information and beauty and glamor.

Scholarships are available by contacting Caprock Girl Scout Council, 2567 74th Street, Lubbock, TX 79423 or calling 745-2855 or 1-800-530-4957.

Baby beds, port-a-cribs and high chairs are needed for the camp. If you have baby furniture that you can loan for the week or can donate your time for the week to assist with childcare, call the council office at 745-2855.

Layette courtesy honors John Ryan Curtis Saturday

Little Master John Ryan Curtis, infant son of Jimmy and Cathy Curtis, was feted Saturday with a layette courtesy in the Heritage Room of Yoakum County Library.

Honored guests were his mother and father, his paternal grandmother, Pat Curtis, and his great-grandmother, Maurine Smith.

Hostesses presented the infant with a high chair and swing.

Assisting with hostess duties were Dolores Davis, Sue Parrish, Pam Rowe, Latrell McDonnell, Kathy Jones, Dorothy Jones, Bea Pippin, Bitsy Martin, Margaret Box, Cindra Box, Martha Palmer and Judy Fitzgerald.

Spring dead spot in grass often blamed on grub worms

Examination of lawns reflect that many of the problems that are attributed to grub damage are actually of other concerns....one of which is Spring Dead Spot (SDS).

The first turfgrass disease making an appearance is SDS. It is considered the most damaging disease of bermudagrass in North America. SDS is caused by the fungi Letosphaeria horrae and Leptosphaeria narmari. It occurs mainly in the northern limits of the bermudagrass range, where it is cold enough for the turf to go dormant.

SDS appears as roughly circular, bleached, dead spots during spring "green up." These spots range in size from two inches to three feet in diameter. Spots may remain for a year or more, but most often the turf grows over the spots by August. In some cases, weeds invade this area without competition from the grass. Sometimes the spots develop into rings, which may reappear and enlarge each year.

SDS is common in "Tif" and Texturf 10 bermudagrass lawns although it also occurs in common bermudagrass. It is often associated with compacted soil, close mowing, late fall nitrogen fertilization and heavy fall watering. High fertility and water in late fall delay dormancy and sets up the turf for damage with the first fall freeze. It has been noted that very cold winters, in general, are association with sever SDA.

Controls for SDA include aerifying the soil to reduce compaction, maintaining balanced fertility, avoiding late season nitrogen applications, having well drained soil and applying the fungicide Rubigan in the fall.

Apply a single application of Rubigan at four ounces per 1000 square feet in September. If you wait until October or November, make one application at the higher rate of six ounces per 1000 square feet. After applying, irrigate with one half to one inch of water.

Fungicide application is done in the fall ONLY. When you see symptoms in the spring, fungicide applications will not be effective.

Four Myths About Osteoporosis

- ① Osteoporosis is not serious enough for me to worry about.
- ② I'm a healthy person. I do the right things. I'm not at risk.
- ③ I'm too young to worry about osteoporosis now.
- ④ It's too late for me to do anything about osteoporosis.

One out of two women and one out of five men is at risk of developing osteoporosis during their lifetime. Yet, common myths about the disease keep many people from taking steps to prevent and treat osteoporosis.

Myth: Once Osteoporosis Develops, Nothing Can Be Done

Many people do not realize that it's never too late to slow or stop further loss of bone. Twenty percent of women polled in the Gallup survey thought that nothing could be done to prevent and treat osteoporosis. But, in fact, medical research shows that prevention and treatment regimens like estrogen and calcitonin can help prevent further bone loss and reduce the risk of fractures, at any age.

"You can take different steps, at different times during your life to protect yourself against osteoporosis," says Dr. Lindsay. "Your doctor can recommend a diet and exercise program and may prescribe medication to help prevent further bone loss and help you to preserve an active lifestyle and avoid the consequences of osteoporosis."

For more information about osteoporosis, or to receive NOF's new brochure, "Stand UP to Osteoporosis," call toll-free, 1-800-223-9994, or write to: National Osteoporosis Foundation, Department MY, 1150 17th Street, N.W., #500, Washington, D.C. 20036-4603.

Volunteers make a difference at Hospice Service, Inc.

Becoming a Hospice Volunteer is a very rewarding experience.

There are two kinds of hospice volunteers:

1) PATIENT CARE VOLUNTEERS - Patient Care Volunteers are those who have direct contact with patients and their families:

* Drop in for visits to check on the needs and desires of the family.

* Are trained for patient/family assignments.

* Provide listening and support to patients and family members.

* Provide needed "physical" contact.

* Perform errands or other kindness in support of hospice families.

* Develop a close and trusting relationship that supports the family throughout the bereavement period.

2) SUPPORT VOLUNTEERS

Support Volunteers are those volunteers that assist in the everyday activities of the hospice. The tasks performed by support volunteers are vital to the members of the "hospice team". No volunteer can be expected to perform all functions necessary, so some volunteers choose to direct their efforts to "supporting" the organization by:

* Assisting with office work,

mailing, telephone calls

* Acting as a member of the speakers bureau - spreading the word of the hospice mission.

* Assisting with fundraising activities.

WHO CAN VOLUNTEER?

You can!! Volunteers are a very important part of the hospice team. You can be trained to perform volunteer duties in the areas that you feel the most comfortable. The success of the volunteer program is based upon the numerous volunteers and their diverse interest.

Hospice Services, Inc. serving the terminally ill and their families in Lea, Gaines and Yoakum counties needs volunteers, due to the increase in hospice patients and referrals.

A training course is being offered by Hospice Services, Inc. Classes will be held in the Church of Christ fellowship hall in Denver City at 219 N. Avenue C on Saturday, July 10 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Lunch will be provided.

If interested, please call the Hospice Office at 505-393-4717 or the Church of Christ office at 806-592-3545.

LAWN AND GARDEN TIPS

Grappling with Grubs

(NAPS)—White grubs prefer to keep a low profile. So low, in fact, that you may never see one. But if patches of your lawn have been turning yellow and then brown, or if you can easily pull clumps of grass from the soil, white grubs may be the culprit.

White grubs injure and can even kill turfgrass by feeding on tender root systems. What's more, grubs sometimes attract insect-eating birds, moles, skunks and other animals that cause further damage to grass as they dig through your lawn searching for a snack.

To see if these cream-colored, C-shaped larvae are present, simply pull back a section of grass in the affected area.

Because grubs are protected by a layer of soil, treatment can be tricky. However, control is possible with SEVIN® brand carbaryl insecticide, available in easy-to-use granular and liquid formulations.

SEVIN® brand is most effective when applied during late summer or fall. If soil is especially dry or cold, water the area to be treated a day or two before application. The moisture causes grubs to move closer to the surface.

Minimize grub damage by keeping your lawn watered and fertilized. Grubs are less likely to cause severe injury to a healthy lawn.

SEVIN® is a registered trademark of Rhone-Poulenc.

Hospice Services, Inc. serving the terminally ill and their families in Lea, Gaines, and Yoakum counties needs volunteers.

The number of hospice patients and referrals in the area continues to increase. Hospice volunteers put the "CARE" in caring by providing support and encouragement for the patients and their families.

A training course sponsored by Hospice Services, Inc. will be held in the Church of Christ Fellowship Hall
219 N. Ave C
Denver City, TX
Saturday, July 10, 1993
from 9 a.m. til 4 p.m.
(lunch will be provided).
