STEEL BENCHES TO BE PLACED IN TINKLE PARK

A committee has just completed its work of securing steel benches for Tinkle Park. Some seventy-five benches have been donated by the business institutions of the town, and when placed in the park will afford the people a nice place to gather for band concerts, picnics, etc. We are requested by Dr. Tinkle to ask those having bermuda grass which can be transplanted in the park to please notify him. The petition and list of signers with the number of benches donated follows:

We, the undersigned persons or firms, hereby subscribe to the number of steel benches set opposite our names, which benches are to be placed in Tinkle Park in Winters, Texas. It is understood by the signers here to that such benches are to be delivered in Winters, Texas, for the sum of $8.45 each.

FILLING STATION OFFERS DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE

The "Day and Night Service Station" is now ready to serve the public as the name implies, "all day and night." This gas station will remain open all night, and is an indication that Winters is rapidly coming into the city class, as this is the first gas station to inaugurate this service. Besides selling gas, this station carries practically all other automobile accessories. It is operated by George Speer.

Mr. Dennis Brown was called to Dallas Saturday to be examined by a medical board there to determine if possible the extent of his injury in the Kornegay Gin accident of October 1, 1924.

The egotism banks heavily on the "I."

WINTERS FIRE DEPARTMENT TO VISIT BALLINGER

The members, their wives and sweethearts of the Winters Fire Department will journey over to Ballinger on the evening of Thursday, March 12th, where the Ballinger Fire Department is preparing a banquet and program for their entertainment. Local fire boys are looking forward to a big time as the Ballinger firemen are noted for their hospitality and well known how to "put the big pot in the little one."

This banquet is in the nature of a return engagement, the Winters firemen having entertained the Ballinger Fire Department here some thirty-days ago. It is predicted that the party will make this trip will number some seventy-five.

DEATH OF W. PINK KING LAST MONDAY

W. Pink King was born in Polk county Texas, June 16, 1861; died March 2, 1925. He spent almost his entire life in Texas. His first marriage was solemnized on December 15, 1884 to Miss Ida Gray. There were nine children born to this union, seven of these are still living, Mrs. Lee Porch, Mrs. Frank White, Mrs. Roy Mathis, William Elbert, Mrs. Thelma Traylor and Mrs. Clifford Woods. Mr. King's first companion died March 15, 1907 and he buried two children the same month. On April 16, 1911 he was again married, this time to Mrs. Lena McBeth and to this union two children were born, Pinkie and Mansey. Bro. King was converted when about twenty years of age and joined the Baptist church and has served it well as a member and has served the last more than twenty-five years as a deacon. The very large concourse of people who attended the funeral services was evidence of his high standing as a Christian gentleman and neighbor and friend.

The funeral services were conducted by his former pastor, J. A. Brannaman of Winters, last Tuesday at Crews, and at the close of his services the Klansmen took charge and Scott W. Hickey delivered an address in behalf of the Klan of which Mr. King was a member. The many beautiful floral offerings were beautiful tokens of friendship existing between Mr. King and people from widely separate districts.

Peace to his ashes and comfort from Heaven be given the family and friends.

Merchants Are Offering Bargains On this Day that Can't Be Duplicated

Having felt the need of a trades day in Winters, the second Monday in each month has been set apart for this purpose and the merchants in order to make a success of this special day are offering their customers and the public generally some bargain prices on merchandise which cannot be duplicated in any man's town.

Winters merchants and business institutions are bidding very strong for the spring trade. The indications are that they will enjoy a much larger volume this spring than ever before in the history of the town. There are many reasons for this prediction in West Texas—and but few of the cities.

Winters has grown until the service it affords the buying public is hardly equaled by any town of its size in West Texas—and but few of the cities.

The mercantile houses of Winters carry such large and varied stocks that buying here is made a real pleasure, and the quantity of merchandise bought by the local institutions enable prevalent prices to be lower than is normally found—and much lower than the average city.

Come to Winters Monday—see the new spring merchandise and carry home with you your quota of the special bargains being offered on that day.

PIONEER CITIZEN DIED TUESDAY, 3RD

August Jonas, age 62 years, two months and twenty-one days, died at the family home some five miles west of town last Tuesday, March 3rd.

Mr. Jonas was a highly respected citizen and had lived in the Winters Country some thirty-three years. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Gid J. Bryan and interment was made in the Fairview cemetery Wednesday.

The Enterprise joins hosts of other friends in offering sympathy to the bereaved.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddie Williams have recently moved to Winters from Teague, Mr. Williams having accepted employment with J. I. Street & Co.

J. W. Edwards, who lives some eight miles out of town, was here transacting business Friday and called pleasantly at the Enterprise office.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hodge visited with relatives in Abilene last Sunday.

ARTHUR BRYAN SUFFERS STROKE OF PARALYSIS

Arthur Bryan, who suffered a second stroke of paralysis last Thursday evening, is reported to be slowly recovering and we are hoping for an early and complete recovery.

J. L. Bryan of Caddo, Howard Bryan of Lubbock and Harry Bryan of Illinois, sons of the stricken man, were called to his bedside and will remain in the city for a time with their father.

DILLINGHAM ERECTING BUILDING FOR GALLO-WAY SEED INDUSTRIES

O. D. Dillingham of Ranger is spending a few days in the city this week. Mr. Dillingham is the owner of the Winters Ice & Fuel Co., and a former resident of Winters and he tells us he still feels perfectly at home here.

In conversation with Mr. Dillingham we learn that material is now on the ground near the ice plant and that work will start immediately on the erection of a large 60x100 ft. building with concrete floor, to be used by the Galloway Purebred Cotton seed Industries. This building is being built by Mr. Dillingham especially for Mr. Galloway's seed business.

Bill Hope was in the city transacting business last Monday.

Sheliff McWilliams of Ballinger was in the city Monday on business.

George Speer made a business trip to San Angelo the latter part of this week.

Big Trades Day At Midland On March 14

Midland, March 4.—Business men of Midland are planning for the biggest trades day ever held in West Texas, on March 14. Pat P. Barber, general chairman of all committees, is working in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce in bringing people here from 30 miles around. Horse and mule traders will be in Midland in force. Col. Capt. W. E. Wallace will cry all kinds of articles at an auction sale of farm machinery, household goods and farm products.

Come to Winters Monday.

CHURCHES NOT TO DISMISS FOR PROTRACTED MEETINGS

It has been the custom of most of the churches of the city, to dismiss all services except the Sunday morning service all during the summer protracted meeting season, when there was a protracted meeting in progress at anyone of the churches. But it was the decision of the ministers of the city in conference last Monday morning, that such dismissal of services over such an extended period of time was so detrimental to the regular routine of work sought to be carried out by each of the churches, that in the future no Lord's day services should be dismissed at any of the churches, but that the regular order of services should continue at this season of the year the same as any other. Of course it was understood that during the days of the week, among all those who desire to do so, the usual co-operation should continue. Signed,—Gid. J. Bryan, H. H. Stephens, Hal F. Smith, and A. H. Clark.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

Friday, 7:30 p. m., March 6th, all our members and friends are invited and urged to be present at the called session of the quarterly conference, Friday night this week.

The committees working to raise all the church debt will report. We expect to pay off the entire debt on the church building. Trust God and do your best.—Gid J. Bryan, Pastor.

DIVORCE RECORD SHOWS DECREASE

The divorce record for 1924 shows a decrease of a half dozen legal separations in Runnels county. In 1924 twenty-six divorces were granted in this county, while for the year 1923 thirty divorces were granted. Twenty per cent decrease in our domestic troubles is said to be proof that we are getting better.

C. W. Lehmborg, County Farm Demonstration Agent, was in the city last Tuesday.

J. W. Monroe was a business visitor in Abilene Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Q. McAdams were visiting in Abilene last Monday.

Twenty-six million was spent last year on cosmetics. Now let somebody say there's nothing to show for money.

A BIG SCHOOL PARADE HERE FRIDAY

The high school will stage a big public school parade Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock featuring through all the streets every activity represented by the school and especially featuring "Good English" posters and banners. This occasion comes as the climax of the "Good English" just observed in the school. The Chamber of Commerce is offering a prize of $5.00 for the prettiest float in the parade. The parade will be led by the junior band of Winters. Next will come the banner-bearer carrying a "Good English" banner, class floats, Seniors, Junior, Sophomore and Freshmen, will follow suit. Representations of athletics, clubs, departments etc., will come in line. Then will arrive the circus, there will be clowns, old maids, jelly-beans, flappers, hobos, monkeys, everything.

The Chamber of Commerce is offering the prize of $5.00 for the best float. Every class is competitor for this with the result that there will no doubt be a splendid display of decorations even though the number be few.

The student body is anticipating the fun of the parade and are hoping that not only all Winters will be out to witness it, but that many from outside the Winters vicinity will come in to see the "circus."

Winters Lady Draws $250 Prize At San Antonio

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Roberts returned the last of the past week from San Antonio, where they attended the Winchester convention in that city. Mrs. Roberts was lucky quite at the convention. On arrival delegates were requested to register by number and these numbers were shuffled in a box and one drawn out and the number drawn proved to be the one placed in the box by Mrs. Roberts and she was given a pair of scales, valued at $250.00. We understand she was offered $200 for the scales. Mr. Roberts' luck did not prove so good, however. On the return trip he ran over and killed a sheep in the Llano country, and friends have been asking him the price of sheep the past few days.

H. W. Lynn, of the Winters Oil Mill, who was a member of the executive committee of the State Cotton Seed Crushers association, left Wednesday for College Station where the executive committee meets in special session in connection with the A. & M. College. Here's hoping Mr. Lynn has a pleasant and profitable trip.

Roy Mack of Ballinger is now working in the office at the Winters Oil Mill.

"Holding Up The Game"

YOU CAN GET IT IN WINTERS

Improved business conditions and a constantly increasing demand indicate a splendid spring trade. Local merchants have made liberal provisions for a large volume of spring business, and they are prepared to meet this demand with up-to-date merchandise.

Women who plan their spring wardrobe early will find the Winters stores ready for them with large and complete stocks of new things, in the latest styles and the finest quality. You cannot buy reliable merchandise any cheaper than you can buy the same article right here at home.

It will be to your advantage to buy in Winters this spring. It means greater satisfaction for you and greater prosperity for everybody.

ACTIVITY OF CONCERNS NOT AUTHORIZED IN TEXAS CALLED BRAZEN

Austin, Nov. 1.—The most persistent enemy to state supervision of the insurance business in Texas is the activity of non-admitted insurance organizations. John M. Scott, state commander of insurance, declared in his annual report just submitted to the Governor.

These companies are an enemy to our "GOOD FIRE RECORD" which now saves the Winters people 15 per cent of their insurance costs.

The New Chevrolet Proving Very Popular

Smooth motor car operation is one of the most desirable qualities in any automobile today because of the extensive and contest use to which the average car is put on both short and long trips.

The thousands who have purchased the new Chevrolet report that the driving of this car requires little physical effort, due in great measure to the perfect single plate dry disc clutch.

This new type clutch not only starts the car smoothly and operates with only a light pedal pressure, but has such large contact surface that it delivers all the power all the time it requires no lubrication.

While the new type clutch is one of the most obvious of the mechanical features, it is only one of the many features that makes for easier driving qualities, more sturdy chassis and more economical operation.

To improve the riding qualities, the new Chevrolet has been equipped with new semi-elliptic springs. They are chrome vanadium steel, the rear springs being 54 inches long and the front springs 36 inches long. To lower the center of gravity and improve the roadability of the car, the rear springs have been under-slung.

Both front and rear axles are new and have been greatly strengthened. The front axle has been strengthened and redesigned to accommodate the semi-elliptic springs. The rear axle is entirely new and has a one-piece

Don't Be A "Jumping Jack" In the Hog Business

News item says there are 200,000 farms in Texas without a pig of any kind and that it is costing Texas over $70,000,000 annually to buy pork products. Continuing, it says that with low prices for purebreds, a rising hog market and good prospects for a fair crop of grain sorghums, it looks as if it is time for the farmers of the state to restock their farms. This is all quite true. It is a good time to get back into the hog business, if one intends staying with it. But by the time farmers as a class realize that hogs are again profitable, it will take a heavy expenditure to get back into the game. Foundation stock will then be high priced, and by the time the stuff can be raised, the market may be down again.

The farmer, who jumps into the game when prices are high and out of it at the first evidence of a slump, buys at the peak and sells when conditions are most unfavorable. The farmer who wins out in the hog business or any other phase of farming, is the one who sticks to the game and gives the profits of good years an opportunity to balance the losses of the lean ones. We repeat that now is a good time to stock up again, provided you do not intend selling out at the first indication of low prices.

The astronomers will be figuring no results of the recent eclipse until it's time for another one.

MRS. PEARL WILSON DIED MARCH FIRST

Cora Riggs was born March 1, 1897, in Williamson County Texas, and died at her home in this county March 1, 1925. Age 28 years. She was married to Pearl Wilson October 6, 1915 and to this union three children were born, all boys. She is survived by three sisters, two brothers, father and mother and husband. She joined the church in July 1917.

Burial took place at Wingate last Monday, Bro. Clark of Winters conducting the funeral services.

The Enterprise extends sympathy to the bereaved.

On Tuesday of last week the Freshmen Class had a most enjoyable time at the bridge near the Collinsworth home. Upon arriving many photographs were taken for the "Glacier" night drew near, supper was served with every man for himself.

Later everyone assembled and an election of officers for the new term took place which were as follows:

Vernon B. Campbell, one of the real freshmen sports, President. Lucile Donham, Vice President. Velma Griffis, Secretary.

Bernice Woodrow, Treasurer. Jack Callan, Reporter and Class Historian.

Clementine McCaughn, Poet. Truett Barber, Yell Leader.

Clara Nell—No sir.

Mr. Smith—Have you read "When Knights were Bold?"

Clara Nell—No Sir.

Mr. Smith—Then What have you read?

Clara Nell—I have Red Hair.

C. R. Smith—The word "sat" is always used as an object.

The Sentence—"The girl sat the hen" is used how and why?

Vernon—Sat is used because there is an object in the setting of the hen.

Mrs. Jackson asked Ora Louise the meaning of a certain term.

Ora Louise—I don't know, it begins with a "D."

Mrs. Jackson—That signifies a bad term.

Buck Jones In Fast Western At Mission

Recent Buck Jones vehicles have been hitting a high average of entertainment value and "The Trail Rider" at the Mission next Thursday and Friday, his newest Fox is no exception, and it is a picture that will please the majority of "western" fans.

Buck appears as a wandering cowboy who in a strange town meets with unusually exciting experiences revolving around the keeping of diseased cattle from crossing a deadline. It is a well-knit story skillfully handled, the interest of the spectator being focused especially on sustained suspense, literally of the hair-trigger variety for the hero depends on his quickness and skill with a "gat."

There is, however, no lack of action and good riding and hard fighting of the usual western variety and a pleasing romance together with good human interest has been introduced into the story. There is a particularly despicable villain, a stampede of a herd of cattle which the hero attempts to handle single-handed.

E. E. Morris, who has been with Gambill & Roberts for some time, was in the office Monday and ordered his paper sent to Munday, Texas, to which place he and family are moving.

School Notes

The Literary Service Club, represented by Mrs. Hawkins is offering a beautiful "Peace" pin to the student in H. S. who will write the best essay on the question of "Peace." Mrs. Hawkins spoke in chapel Wednesday morning on the question, presenting the rules for the contest. Mrs. Jackson and Miss Barber will sponsor the contest by giving credit on it in their department.

The peace question has become a most vital one today. It has become a universal issue and every student should have impressed into his early training an attitude of anxiety for all that it means.

Mrs. Hawkins is supplying the library with material on the subject of "Peace" and the following suggestions and rules are laid down:

Rules For Peace Essay Contest

1. The contest is open to all high-school students of the Winters public school.
2. The subjects are not limited. Students may choose any phase of peace which they desire.
3. The essay shall contain not less than one thousand words.
4. Papers shall be graded on the following basis:
Subject matter and its arrangement 75 per cent.
Spelling and grammatical construction 15 per cent.
Neatness and general appearance, 10 per cent.
5. Theme paper shall be used.
6. Signatures shall not appear on the essays.
- Each essay shall bear a number which the author has drawn and shall be accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the name and number of the contestant.
7. The essays are due on or before
8. The judges shall be three disinterested persons selected by the P. T. A. and Literary and Service Club.
9. The winner of the contest shall be awarded the Peace pin offered by the organizations named above, and the prize essay shall be published in the local papers.

Suggestions For Subjects

- The Dawes Plan as a Peace Maker.
- The World Court Plan. (Shall we enter the world court?)
- America's Responsibility in the Peace Program. (Science for Peace—not war.)

Charlie and Clifford Win Contest

Charlie Graham and Clifford Rhoden are the most popular students of W. H. S., as was announced by the final vote late Friday afternoon. The contest has been in progress something over two months and has been a hot battle, especially between the junior and senior contestants and their devotees.

Charlie is a senior in W. H. S. this year and has become noted as being an excellent student. She is apt, and original in her thinking. She is a pupil in the expression department and a splendid mixer in social events and student activities. Charlie is a girl who takes an honor bestowed upon her as this one, with every queenly manner of unselfishness and appreciation.

Clifford is a well known athlete in H. S. He is president of the senior class this year and editor of the Glacier. Clifford is a dependable ambitious boy, who everyone predicts will make good at any place, anywhere.

See the parade Friday.

The "Good English" campaign has excavated from its sleeping place every error ever made in conversation, it seems. Some of the most common errors which have forced students to unwillingly untie their tags and give them away are:

1. Have you got
2. Uh-huh, huh? and ugh-uh.
3. I taken
4. I have took
5. If I was you
6. I seen, I have saw
7. They saw he and I
8. I have went.
9. I done it
10. "Aint!"

The material for the "Glacier" is coming in fast and it is hoped that all of it will be ready for press at the close of the week.

Who said that Winters high school didn't have some school spirit and some real "pepper?"

See the scholo circus Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Be on the streets and see the sights.

We wonder what would happen if Ben ever studied. Richard were a senior. E. F. were real fat. Lorene didn't chew gum. Alfred Lamotte threw paper wads.

"Honor to whom honor is due." Auburn Neely was presented a beautiful gold medal in chapel Tuesday for best all-round playing during this basket ball season, and Jim Fields, Clifford Rhoden, Walker Bailey, Bailey McCaughan, Gerald Knight and Auburn were presented gold basket ball charms as awarded for their splendid playing this season. Raymond was announced as captain of next year's team.

Supt. Smith presented the awards, having the boys to come and stand before the students. A fine applause came from the student body at each presentation, showing the fine spirit of co-operation that prevails every phase of the school life.

These boys played thirteen official games with a loss of only one game. The climatic event of the season came with Ballinger near the close of the season where the "Blizzards" in every way displayed superior team work.

Mention is most certainly due to coach Childers who has worked most faithfully with the team and trained them to meet and conquer their every "foe."

NOTICE

Fairbanks Does The Impossible

Douglas Fairbanks' amazing picturization of the Arabian Nights, "The Thief of Bagdad," which will be presented at The Mission Monday Tuesday and Wednesday, is generally considered as being, beyond question, the most extraordinary example of screen art known up to present times. According to all accounts, it marks a distinct and radical advance in this popular form of entertainments, and places it on a higher plane than it has yet attained. In "The Thief of Bagdad" Douglas Fairbanks will be seen at his best as the agile, happy-go-lucky rascal of old Bagdad. The story is based upon the Arabian Nights tales and utilizes the services of thousands of people. Fairbanks' role is that of a Thief who reforms and becomes a veritable Prince—conquering unbelievable difficulties and finally winning the hand of the beautiful princess. To depict such happenings as are revealed in "The Thief of Bagdad" has never before been considered within the bounds of possibility. Some of the adventures are: The Thief mounted on the Winged Horses, flying up and through the clouds; the Thief and the princess, on the magic carpet soar above the house-tops and into the sky; the raising of the Magic Army from nothingness, and The invisible Cloak, by the aid of which the redoubtable Thief reaches the presence of the Princess.

INFANT DIES

Last Wednesday morning the 17-month-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kelly of the Drasco community passed away. Burial took place in the Fairview cemetery. Rev. Speer conducting the funeral services. PEACE PLEDGE

Before I speak or act in retaliation.

I will try a peaceful solution of every difficulty.—Mrs. George Langsdon.

If we can't stop war nothing else matters. The women of the world are undertaking to wage peace by "putting sentiment into action," and world peace can come only through the individual.

The purpose of this department is to get the club women and others to inform themselves on international affairs, to tell it to others and to consciously realize that a nation is just as strong as its individuals and so the Peace Pledge can do that and will train us to think peace, not fiction, hate or greed but to co-operate, be friendly and entertain good will. The world court of international affairs through which will come universal peace is striving to substitute a law for war.

One man said: "Where my country's safety is concerned, I am not willing to take a chance.

Co-operation Will Stop War

Necessity taught individuals, cities, states to co-operate and stop war. President Coolidge says, "It is the duty of America to set an example for the world in reducing armament and to invite other nations to follow that example."

Necessity now drives the nations to co-operate or perish.

Major Gen. Jno. O'Ryan has said, "I should be a traitor to my country if I did not do everything in my power to abolish war." Thus our peace pledge again by Mrs. Geo. Langston, Chairman of State department on Peace and adopted by the State Federation of Women's Clubs.—Mrs. Horace B. Hawks, Chairman of Peace of the Literary and Service Club.

FAMILY TROUBLE LEADS TO SHOOTING OF MARIE MAN

U. G. Thomas is in the Halley & Love Sanitarium suffering with gun-shot wounds, and charges of assault with intent to murder have been filed against Joe Haygood as the result of a shooting on Thomas' farm near Marie in the Northwestern part of Runnels county early Saturday morning.

Sheriff McWilliams was called to Marie, 18 miles from Ballinger, following the shooting, and found Haygood at the home of a neighbor, where he was waiting for the officer to come after him. Haygood was brought to Ballinger, and an examination was being held Saturday afternoon with a view to fixing bond for the man. Quite a number of neighbors and friends accompanied Haygood to Ballinger, or arrived here a short time after he was brought to town, and were waiting to sign any bond which might be fixed in the case.

At two o'clock Saturday afternoon a report from the sanitarium said that Thomas was resting well and the wounds were not considered necessary fatal, and probably would not prove to be very serious. An operation had been performed and the shot removed. Thomas was shot with No. 4 shot, two charges from a double barreled shot-gun being fired at a distance of fifty or sixty feet. The bones in both hands were said to be broken. One shot penetrated the forehead above the eye, one entered the side, several struck him in the lower limbs and groins.

Statements made by witnesses, and by the defendant himself, had not been made public by the officers Saturday afternoon, the investigation having not been completed when The Ledger went to press, but neighbors stated that the shooting was the result of family trouble between Thomas and Haygood which had been existing for more than a year. According to an account of the shooting as related to The Ledger by parties more or less familiar with the circumstances, Haywood went to the Thomas home about midnight Friday night and secreted himself near the house, expecting Thomas to come out, some time later. Thomas did not come out of the house until about 7:00 o'clock Saturday morning, or a short time after daylight. He started towards the lot and when within a short distance of where Haywood was waiting Haywood opened fire with a double-barrel shot-gun.

Haywood got between Thomas and the house, and after being shot Thomas ran about three-quarters of a mile to a neighbors house and called for a gun. Failing to get a gun he continued to another neighbor's house. In the meantime Haygood, who made chase after Thomas, was stopped by a neighbor.

Haygood has been living in the Marie country for about three years. Thomas has been a citizen of that part of the country for twenty-five years, or more. The tragedy brought quite a crowd of the Marie-Norton citizens to Ballinger Saturday afternoon.

The first report of the shooting reached Ballinger about eight o'clock Saturday morning in a call to Sheriff McWilliams. Mr. McWilliams left immediately for Marie after conferring with the county attorney. It was at first reported that Thomas was dead, but a later report stated that he was seriously wounded, and the extent of his injuries had not been determined.

The shooting is said to have taken place near the home of Thomas about daylight Saturday morning, Haywood using a shot-gun. The tragedy is the outgrowth of trouble which has been brewing for more than a year and is the result of alleged family difficulties. Thomas has been separated from his wife for some time, and a suit is pending in the district court at Robert Lee in which Mrs. Thomas is plaintiff and in which she is seeking a divorce from Thomas and a partition of the property. Mrs. Thomas has been living at Robert Lee where she operates a hotel since her separation from Thomas. Parish & Crager, of Ballinger, were attorneys for Mrs. Thomas in the divorce proceedings.

According to a story told to the officers in the sheriff's and county attorney's department at Ballinger Thursday by Haygood, trouble between he and Thomas began in 1923 while Haygood was a tenant on Thomas' farm and was the result of Thomas paying attention to Haygood's wife. Haygood told the officers that Thomas continued to pay attention to Mrs. Haygood after they moved off Thomas' place.

Last Monday Haygood went to Big Lake on business, returning home Wednesday. He stated to the officers that upon his return Wednesday that he and Mrs. Haygood retired Wednesday night as usual, and that when he awoke Thursday morning he found his wife missing. Her suit case and clothing were missing and he charged that Thomas had been instrumental in taking her away.

According to Haygood's story to the officers, neighbors told him later that Thomas had been visiting the Haygood home during Haygood's absence, and Haygood stated that he believed that Thomas had stolen his wife. He came to Ballinger with eight or ten friends to confer with the officers and see if criminal charges could not be filed against Thomas. Thomas was still at home at that time, while Mrs. Haygood was missing, and the officers informed Haygood that no criminal charges could be supposed by the statement and Haygood and his friends returned to their homes. The next news from the trouble come in the report Saturday morning that Thomas had been shot and that Haywood had surrendered to the officers.

Thomas is a man of about forty-five, or older, and is the father of several children. He has been living in the Northwestern part of the county for many years. Haygood is forty-one, has been married twenty-one years, and is the father of five children, three of whom are living and are 8, 11 and 14 years of age.—Ballinger Ledger.

Nine bandits were executed in a bunch in Mexico the other day. The ultimate results cannot but be pacifying. Every bandit in a cemetery is one less on the highway. It may seem harsh treatment, but it is efficient. The Mexican government is determined to insure peace and order and to protect the life and property of the stranger.

Colleen Moore and Conway Tearle at Queen Theatre

Superb entertainment is "Flirting With Love," the First National Attraction, co-featuring Colleen Moore and Conway Tearle, which will be the feature attraction at the Queen Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, March 11 and 12th.

In this picture, in which she is co-featuring with Conway Tearle, she portrays a role which at times calls for a highly emotional type of acting and in these tensely dramatic scenes she is not found wanting. The charm of this talented young actress is irresistible and those who are Colleen Moore fans—and they are legion judging from the success of her recent pictures—will find in "Flirting With Love" that their favorite can bring tears as well as provoke laughter.

"Flirting With Love" is excellent entertainment. The story, with the stage background, is plausible and yet unique. There is nothing trite or hackneyed about the plot or theme, and on the whole it is a refreshing change from the general run of films.

Miss Moore shares the co-featuring honors with Conway Tearle in this picture. Tearle is ideal in the role of the attorney, play-censor and amateur psychologist.

He Called Us A Liar and We Thanked Him

Driving from Abilene to Ballinger recently the editor of this so-called journal had as a travelling companion a visiting business man who had not been in this particular part of Texas for about 15 years.

"I remember driving out in this direction 15 years ago," he said, "and I remember a little town down here somewhere they called Winters. I remember it particularly because it was an August day and I thought that was one of the hottest Winters I ever saw."

"Yes," said we, politely laughing.

"We will pass through there." A little later we rolled in over that beautiful gravel pike as smooth as a dancing floor and onto that main brick paved thoroughfare.

"Say," said our visitor. "This is an attractive little city. What do they call it?"

Said we, "This is Winters."

"This is what?"

"Winters."

"Winters?"

"Yes, Winters."

There was a deep silence as we rolled down the avenue and our visitor got an eye full of paved streets and shaded lawns and beautiful residences and churches and brick business buildings. And then he turned to us and emphatically announced:

"You are a liar!"

"On behalf of Winters," said we,

"We thank you for the compliment."

And if by any chance you happen to remember the two or three frame store shacks and the scattering farm buildings that was Winters 15 years ago, and know what Winters looks like now, you will know just why we got called a liar and took it as a compliment.—West Texas Utility News.

FRESHMEN NEWS WEEKLY

(Delayed last week)

Social Notes

The class met on February 24 for the purpose of planning a picnic in which pictures were to be taken for "The Glacier."

LOCALS

The class president, Edith Hamilton is coming pretty good on the most popular girl contest; she is third on the list, (there are only four in the contest.)

Myron Pumphrey, a sincere freshman, has been studying lately. The "old freshmen" have the honor of having many new members from the seventh grade.

There has been a conflict which concerns many of the freshmen since Christmas. Many have thought they were sophomores but for some reason we have decided to remain freshmen.

Gruth Barber is also increasing his number of votes for the boy's popular contest but still remains third as there only three in the contest.

One of the pupils informed the class that Mrs. Jackson dyed her hair, but the mistake was soon found.

The freshmen are studying hard as the exams come next week.

ORDINANCE—

An ordinance declaring the right to use the public streets, highways, alleys and thoroughfares of the city of Winters, Texas, for the purpose of carrying freight or passengers for hire to be a privilege and unlawful unless the public necessity and convenience does in fact require such use, and a certificate of public necessity and convenience has been granted by the city council of the city of Winters, Texas, and a permit issued pursuant thereof by the city secretary; classifying vehicles carrying passengers for hire into two classes and defining the same; defining freight; providing for the application for and the granting of such certificates and permits; declaring the operation of vehicles for the carriage of freight or passengers in violation of this ordinance to be unlawful; fixing a penalty, and declaring an emergency.

Be it ordained by the board of commissioners and city council of the city of Winters, Texas:

Section 1

The right to use any of the public streets, highways, alleys and thoroughfares of this city for the operation of any vehicle carrying freight or passengers for hire, or on the donation plan, is hereby declared to be a privilege, subject to the control and disposition of the City Council as herein provided, and the privilege of operating a vehicle for the carriage of freight or passengers over any such public streets, highways, alley or thoroughfares of the city of Winters, Texas, shall not be granted to any person, partnership, association or corporation except upon application therefor first made as hereinafter provided, and not then unless the public necessity and convenience shall in fact exist and require the granting of such privilege to such applicant in accordance with the terms and provisions of this ordinance.

Section 11

Vehicles carrying freight or passengers for hire as used in the preceding section are hereby divided into two classes: (a) A motor bus, which is hereby defined to be any truck, automobile, or trackless motor vehicle engaged in the business of carrying freight or passengers for hire within the city limits of the city of Winters, Texas, over, long, or upon or across any street thereof, highway or alley or thoroughfare, which is held out or announced by sign, device, voice, or writing or advertisement, to operate or run, or which is intended to be operated or run over any particular street or route, or to any particular or designated point, or between particular points, or within any designated territory, district, or zone, or form within the city limits of the city of Winters, Texas, to any point, district, zone, or territory, or place, without said city, or form any town, zone, city, point, place or territory without the said city to within said city of Winters, Texas; (b) Taxicabs, which are hereby defined to be any vehicle carrying passengers for hire not coming within the designation of the term "motor bus" as heretofore defined. "Freight" is hereby defined to be any goods, wares or merchandise or either or them, transported by any vehicle, for hire.

Section 111

It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person or persons, firm, corporation, association, partnership, or society, to run or operate, or cause to be run or operated, any vehicle for the transportation of freight or passengers for hire, or on the donation plan, over any public street, highway, alley or thoroughfare of the city of Winters, Texas, without a certificate of public necessity and convenience theretofore granted by an ordinance passed by a two-thirds vote of the city council of the city of Winters, Texas, and a permit issued in pursuance thereof by the city secretary, and no such ordinance shall be passed or certificate of public necessity and convenience granted for the operation of any vehicle for the purpose of carrying freight or passengers for hire over any public alley, street, highway or thoroughfare of the city of Winters, Texas, until and unless the person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation so desiring to operate any such vehicle or vehicles shall first apply to the city council of the city of Winters, Texas, therefor by filing a written application with the city secretary, which application shall state:

(a) The number, type and passenger-carrying capacity of the vehicles, or the tonnage carrying capacity, for which a certificate and permit is desired.

b) If a motor vehicle, such application shall also state (1) the type of car, (2) horse power, (3) factory number, (4) state license number, (5) the seating capacity thereof according to its trade rating, or tonnage carrying capacity, (6) the name and age of each person to be in immediate charge of each such vehicle as drivers, (7) the kind of permit desired; that is, whether for a motor bus or taxicab and if for a motor bus or carrier of freight, designating the route or routes over which the same is to be operated, and whether for the carriage of freight or passengers wholly within the city, or to within the city.

No application for a permit to do more than one class of service shall be granted, and it shall be unlawful for a motor bus to be operated as a taxicab, and a taxicab to be operated as a motor bus, and for a motor bus authorized to carry passengers from within the city of Winters, Texas, to without said city, or from without to within said city, to carry freight or passengers between points or places wholly within such city.

The city secretary shall refer such application to the city council of the city of Winters, Texas, at its next regular meeting occurring not less than thirty-six hours after such filing, and the city council shall thereupon make such investigation of the public necessity and convenience for the operation of such motor vehicles as it may deem necessary, having the right to postpone action on such application to any later date, and if such public necessity and convenience in fact does exist, may grant such application either as applied for, or with such modifications (not in conflict with the provisions hereof) as it may deem best, but shall refuse the same if the public necessity and convenience in fact does not require the operator of such vehicle or vehicles. If such application be granted the city council shall cause the city secretary to issue a permit in accordance with such ordinance upon the applicant complying with all the terms and provisions hereof, but no such permit or certificate shall be granted for a longer period of time

BILIOUSNESS

Retired Minister Tells How He Keeps in Good Form With the Assistance of Black-Draught.

West Graham, Va.—The Rev. Lewis Evans, a well-known retired minister, now past 80, living here, has a high opinion of Black-Draught, which he says he has taken when needed, for 25 years. "For years I had been suffering with my liver," he says. "Sometimes the pain would be very intense and my back would hurt all the time. Black-Draught was the first thing I found that would give me any relief. "My liver has always been sluggish. Sometimes it gives me a lot of trouble. I have suffered a lot with it—pains in my side and back, and bad headache, caused from extreme biliousness. "After I found Black-Draught, I would begin to take it as soon as I felt a spell coming on and it relieved the cause at once. I can recommend it to anybody suffering from liver trouble. A dose or two now and then keeps me in good form." Made from selected medicinal roots and herbs, and containing no dangerous mineral drugs, Black-Draught is nature's own remedy for a tired, lazy liver. NC-166

Makers of West Texas

Under the above caption in the Western Weekly, a supplement to some eight or ten West Texas daily newspapers, we take the following which is of interest to our readers. The article was accompanied with a full page picture of the subject of the sketch of John Q. McAdams, of Winters, Texas:

Guess his age—he looks so like a boy!

Nearly forty-one! Would you believe it? Born March 26, 1884, in Johnson County, organizer and cashier of the Winters State Bank, and a staunch believer in the creed of the West Texan, which is that West Texas is the finest country under the sun—that much, no more or less, is the sum and substance of John Q. McAdams' life and works according to his point of view. "There is simply nothing else to say," he insisted to his interviewer; but oh, well—

His father was A. J. McAdams, native Texan and stock farmer of Grandview. There were two boys, John Q. and Ben C., the younger, and in due time both became bankers; Ben is in the Wichita Falls State Bank. When John Q. was a year old the family moved to Coleman County, and when he was twelve his father died and the boy had to hustle as he had never hustled before.

But he had learned the habit of hustling. A. J. McAdams was an old fashioned father. John does not remember the day when he was not working at something.

"Looking back on his boyhood," he said, "I do not remember that I did any playing, although of course I must have. Our home in Coleman County was at Content, near the Runnels County line and not so far from this place, Winters. My father bought a farm of course; he was a country man from inheritance and by choice. He was pretty well-to-do as prosperity was counted in those easy times, but you'd never have known it, the way Ben and I worked. Why, I remember we used to make weekly trips from Content to the farm, five miles away, and if we arrived there after daybreak my father thought we had squandered the day.

"Later we moved to Coleman and my boyhood was spent there; and in 1901 we moved to Abilene, before I was seventeen. My schooling was confined to grammar and high school and a commercial course. I was mainly interested in a job and went to work in Geo. W. McDaniel's hardware store in Abilene, soon after we moved to Abilene. Mr. McDaniel was like my father: he had old-fashioned ideas about work. I worked as hard for him as if the business was my own, and went to night school all the while."

Fritz Kreisler as a boy looked forward to being a tram-car motorman, and then Fate and genius made him the greatest violinist of his day. John McAdams' boyhood ambition was to be a tailor, and he actually made a start in that direction. The first business he ever owned was a one-horse tailor shop in the town of Brady.

"I picked my location with as much care as a man with a million to invest," he said. "Of all the West Texas towns at that time Brady looked best to me. I opened that tailoring business literally without a dollar; borrowed enough to buy a gas-line stove, a goose iron and a table, and pay my first month's rent for one-half of a store building.

"Did I make good? I'll say so! I had advanced ideas: went to the county clerk's office, got the names of all the men of the town, and commenced bombarding them with circular letters. I flattered them, told them they were too good-looking and well set up not to dress well, and I set the example by dressing well myself. There was one place I did not economize: I bought good clothes and plenty of them and kept them spick and span, because I did the work myself.

"It seemed to me that every man in Brady was giving me his work—it was a man's country and I didn't go after the woman trade; simply did not think of it. I had clothes stacked halfway to the ceiling. I had no helper; did the work myself, working every night. What little success I have had in business has come from tenacity and patience and being everlastingly on the job. I made that tailoring business fairly hum, and in six months sold out to Grover Kirk, dog-tired and hating the sight of a goose iron but with some real money in my pocket."

It might be worth mentioning here that Grover Kirk is still running that tailor shop at Brady, with a fine haberdashery store added. Grover has done well, too; they say the business has given him a profit of $75,000.

John McAdams decided he needed more education, and did another turn in commercial school. Then he went back to Abilene with the thought of learning the banking business. For some months he worked in the Farmers & Merchants National Bank without pay. But the experience was invaluable, as he came under the sympathetic direction of two very fine bankers, Henry James and Rich Keeble.

In 1906 came the turning point in his career. Winters was a busy little cotton town of Runnels County, thirty-eight miles south of Abilene. It had no bank; Ballinger was getting its banking business. Two of its well known citizens, T. W. Murray and J. J. Bedford decided that the town must have a bank, since it was going to have a railroad. So they came to Abilene on a scouting trip, and ran across John McAdams. He had $9,000 saved up.

"Those two men induced me to go to Winters," he said. "I was actually given a business lot. But I would have gone anyway, as Winters looked good to me. I built the first stone building in the town, and opened the Winters State Bank, September 26, 1906. I retained the majority stock, and have always been the largest stockholder and active head.

"The bank was opened with $15,000 capital stock. W. M. Smiley, now a merchant of Fort Worth, was our first depositor, with $1,500. Our bank quarters were quite primitive—a high picket fence stretched across the room, with one of those tall standing desks, secondhand at that; but we had a fine burglar-proof safe, the best money could buy. I had already learned that the way to make money was to save money. I had no assistant; I was the whole thing—cashier, teller runner and bookkeeper. J. M. Johnson was the first president."

The bank grew slowly. Whatever chance it had for a running start was knocked out by the financial stringency of 1907, when, throughout the nation, script took the place of cash.

"But not with us," John McAdams said proudly. "There was never a day when we resorted to script. During the stringency a ragged five-dollar bill was all the cash we had at the close of each day. Nobody wanted that. I remember one windy Saturday when Ballinger had been promising all day to send me $250 cash. A long line of patient customers had formed. They were laughing and joking. They had the most complete confidence in the bank.

which was right and proper; it was sound as a dollar from the first day.

"Finally the money came. I heard some one yell, 'Come on boys, the money's here!' It lasted only an hour. When it was gone I called out, 'That five-dollar bill is all we have, boys. Come tomorrow,' and the line broke up. I like to remember this, that we ended that trying year with $150,000 on deposit.

Winters soon became, and is today, one of the best towns in West Texas. The Abilene & Southern built in. The level plain at the break-off of the Callahan divide commenced to turn in monster cotton crops. The town sailed right through the drought of 1917-18, and so did the bank. In 1919 its deposits touched the $600,000 mark. John McAdams thought that was wonderful, but since then his deposits have gone to $1,500,000 making the Winters State Bank the largest banking institution in Runnels County.

His capital stock was increased twice and is now $50,000 with another $50,000 certified surplus. The bank owns and occupies a fine corner location, a two-story brick, 50x86 feet, and lately $30,000 was spent on the interior. Besides being one of the best-equipped banks west of Ft. Worth, it is considered by the state as the model bank of the guaranty system.

John McAdams was married in July, 1908, at Ballinger, to Miss Lela Northington. They have three children, two girls and a boy. John has always been active in his town's affairs. During the war he was county fuel administrator and local chairman of various Liberty Loan drives. In 1922 he was a leader in the campaign for street paving in Winters in which the town laid ten blocks of paving without voting a dollar in bonds. In 1918 he was treasurer of the Texas Bankers Association and on the executive committee. In 1923-1924 he was chairman of the state bank section of the association, and treasurer of the Guaranty Fund Bankers Association and on its executive committee. He is a member of the Presbyterian church, an Odd Fellow and a Lion.

IMPROVED ROADS

Nothing pays better than good roads. It costs something to secure them, but they are the arteries which connect city with country, along which the currents of comfort perpetually flow. Bad roads, full of chuck holes, kill time and temper. Good roads bring more good roads.

JAILS

The school building in a small Missouri town was destroyed by fire. Seeking a place in which to hold school, the citizens found that the town jails hadn't been used for over a year. They removed the bars and converted it into a school. If other jails in other towns could be put to such a use as the country would be better off. Modern criminology is making schools of the prisons as far as possible. The movement advances. When we have more public schools and when, through improved social conditions, children remain in them until graduation, we will not need so many jails. Much of crime is fostered and caused by ignorance. Jails eventually may be largely replaced by schools.

SPORTING NOTE

Chicago seeks to clinch its name on being the sporting center of the nation by staging a six-day bicycle race. The next thing in order will be a checker marathon. The wheelbarrow teaming on Michigan Boulevard is said to be fine.

Methodist W. M. S. In Business Meeting

The Methodist W. M. S. met in the church parlors on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. During the business discussion the society pledged five hundred dollars for the new church building fund. The attendance was large and enthusiastic. There was a pleasant social hour during which refreshments were served.

Dorcas Class Has Meeting

Mesdames Dallas Rogers and Davis were joint hostesses to the members of the Dorcas class of the First Baptist church on Tuesday afternoon in business and social meeting. During the business session Mrs. Rogers was elected president and Mrs. Wilbanks reporter of the class.

Serving the banquet to the young men's bible class was discussed.

After the current business was disposed of the members enjoyed a social hour with the hostesses. Delicious refreshments of ice cream and angel cake were served to the following: Mesdames Wilbanks, Holcomb, Lindley, Brannon, Miles, Crockett and Cook.

G. A. On Wienie Roast

The Girls Auxiliary of the First Baptist church enjoyed a delightful outing last Friday afternoon. The party assembled at the church and went in cars to the bridge at Bluff Creek where they soon proved themselves adept at campfire building. Weenies and Marshmallows were roasted and a picnic lunch was spread. There were games and storytelling before the girls reluctantly shouldered the fire and returned to town.

Schol Board Given Luncheon

Mr. A. H. Smith honored Mr. Fowler, high school supervisor, when he entertained the members of the scholo board with an informal luncheon at the City Cafe last Wednesday noon.

Young Men's Bible Class Banqueted

One of the most sociable functions of the season was the banquet of the Young Men's Bible class at the First Baptist church on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The dinner was served in the dining room of the church in four courses by the Martha and Dorcas classes.

With Mr. Paul Holcomb master of ceremonies, informality prevailed throughout the evening. There was special music by the church orchestra. Messrs. Key, Stephens, Watts, Bryan and Hensley were the principle speakers and several impromptu talks were made. The following menu was served: Fruit cocktail, chicken, dressing, cranberry sauce, creamed peas in potato nests, cheese balls, congealed salad, hot rolls, salted pecans, ice cream, angel food cake and coffee.

P. T. A. To Have Social Meeting

The Parent-Teacher association will have a social meeting on Tuesday afternoon, March 10 at 4 o'clock in the high school auditorium. The following program will be rendered: Prayer; paper on "Importance of Correct Aims and Attainments in the Primary Department,"—by Mrs. Rhoden; Piano Solo—Marjorie McAdams; Paper—Mrs. Chandler; Solo—Mrs. Jackson; Reading—Charlie Graham; Refreshments will be served and every lady in Winters who is interested in this association is invited to be present.

G. A. Meets With Mrs. L. E. Low

Mrs. L. E. Low was hostess to the Girls Auxiliary on Monday afternoon at four o'clock. The interesting program on "Home Missions" was lead by Glee Ingram. Marie Hill was welcomed as a new member in the club. The hostess served cake and fruit whip to twenty-three guests. The next meeting will be on March 16 with Mrs. E. Clements.

Church of Christ Bible Class Meets

The Ladies' Bible class of the Church of Christ had a regular study meeting on Monday afternoon at three o'clock at the church. The lesson under the leadership of Mrs. Luther Ownes was a continuation of the "Life of Christ."

Baptists W. M. S. Meets

The W. M. S. of the First Baptist church met on Monday afternoon at the church in a well attended business meeting. Miss Mary Taylor presented a letter from B. S. U. headquarters asking the co-operation of the W. M. S. in honoring the Baptist seniors with a banquet. It was decided to endorse this plan and the affair will be given on the evening of March 12th. The Baptist seniors will have as their guests all other members of the class and the members of the faculty. Concluding the business session the first of a series of prayer meetings was held.

Mrs. C. F. Pumphrey lead an interesting program on "The Joys of a Christian Life."

League Party a Success

About thirty young people enjoyed the League party given in the First Methodist church last Friday evening. For this delightful occasion the church parlors were decorated in yellow and white-league colors. Numerous games were played and delicious refreshments of jello with whipped cream and cake were served. The class divided into two groups—the canaries and blue birds and a membership contest launched. The campaign will end Easter and the winning side will be entertained by the losers. At Sunday's meeting the canaries were ahead.

Misses Fanny Foster, Francis Lambert and Peggy Bartlett were in Abilene Monday night and attended the style show.

Literary and Service Club With Mrs. Hickman

The Literary and Service Club will have a regular study meeting on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. W. L. Hickman as hostess.

The Ego Amo Te Club will be entertained by Mrs. Brim on Thursday evening.

Cowboy Pastimes In Big Gibson Western

There is no country whose development from the raw state is so tinged with romance in any of its periods as is the case with that section of the United States which began with cattle raising as its chief industry, in most cases the only industry.

Motion pictures have been a potent instrument in keeping alive the romance of the cattle range days. "Let 'Er Buck," taken from the novel by Charles Wellington Furlong, Universal-Gibson special at The Mission, Friday and Saturday is an outstanding example of the kind of motion picture having an historic as well as an entertainment value.

For those who live in the present day west, or anywhere for that matter, although in the case of those far distant and considerable expense is entailed, there is another instrument of preparation and that is the rodeo or round-up. Several cities that once were the cowtowns of the

Windmill

A Windmill built like a gas engine—with finished, ground and polished bearing surfaces, with machine cut gears, with compact fully enclosed mechanism! No wonder the Fairbanks-Morse Steel Eclipse is received everywhere as the most advanced windmill design of the day.

And it has other features such as slow lift and quick down stroke, which enables the mill to start in a light breeze; its wheel is tilted at the correct angle to get the maximum power out of the wind; it has an effective method of speed control.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

The spring revival meeting of the Church of Christ began last Sunday with very encouraging prospects. The house was practically filled at both the morning and evening services.

These services are being conducted by Bro. Arthur Slater of the Denver Heights Church of Christ of San Antonio, Texas, assisted by A. H. Clark, the local minister of the Church of Christ here.

Brother Slater is an humble, yet courageous and thoroughly competent servant of God and Minister of the Gospel, from whose heart there comes a message every time he stands before an audience, literally filled with the great truths of the Bible. He speaks right into your heart with force and power, and yet in such a practical way that every message is capable of great utility.

Don't miss this great spiritual feast.

Come and enjoy the old-time congregational singing, where everybody has a book and everybody sings.

There will be two services daily. Morning service from 10:00 to 11:00 a. m. Evening service beginning at 7:45.

Everybody in Bible-study next Sunday morning.

At 10:00 o'clock, your service—every day.—A. H. Clark, Telephone 75.

FOR RENT—2 furnished rooms, on Truett Ave., plenty good water.—Mrs. J. H. Tyer, Phone 2622 44-2tc

FOR RENT—6-room house with bath.—See G. E. Seagler. 44tf

Ferguson Amnesty Again Given A Delay

Austin, Texas, March 4.—Ferguson amnesty as provided in Senate bill No. 252 lost another preliminary skirmish today when opponents refused to permit the house to lay Senate bills on the table subject to call in order to make way for the amnesty measure.

The members favoring amnesty had won a victory when the house lay two senate bills on the table. But the momentary victory quickly faded when the house suddenly reversed itself and withdrew one of the two senate bills from the table.

The fight to bring amnesty up for consideration developed bitter charges from both camps. Opponents of amnesty charged that Ferguson's friends were arbitrarily killing constructive legislation in the interest of one man, while the proponents charged that there was an actively organized filibuster attempting to prolong debate in order to talk the bill out of its day in court.

Norfleet Sued for Interest on Notes

Dallas, Texas, March 4.—Suit to collect principal and interest alleged to be due on notes aggregating $22,000 was filed today in the 14th civil court against J. F. Norfleet and wife of Hale county by the Southland Life Insurance Company.

Norfleet, a former sheriff, gained fame when he pursued a band of confidence men who had fleeced him out of about $45,000 several years ago. His chase took him to all parts of the country and he succeeded in getting all of them. The promissory notes are alleged to have been given March 1, 1920 and interest installment are said to be overdue. Ellis county property secured payment, it is said.

C. R. Hightower was a visitor in Winters Wednesday.

Mrs. Mich Boyd of Ballinger was shopping in the city Wednesday.

Bogus Check Law and Local Measures Signed

Austin, Feb. 28.—House bill No. 80, known as the bogus check law, was signed by the governor Monday. Under the bill a person who gives a check when he has not sufficient funds in bank to cover would be guilty of a felony if he does not make the fact that the checks are not covered is prima facie evidence of intent to commit fraud, according to the bill. The passage of this bill was urged by numerous business organizations of the state, the Texas Hotel Keepers' Association taking the lead.
