LOCAL PRESIDENT - ATTENDS LIONS MEET AT BROWNWOOD

Paul Holcomb left last Saturday and went to McKinney, where Mrs. Holcomb had been visiting relatives, and together they returned to Brownwood where they attended the Lions district convention, returning to Winters Tuesday. Mr. Holcomb said he enjoyed the convention very much and had lots of fun. The following news of this convention is taken from Monday's Dallas News:

Brownwood, April 20.—The outstanding feature of the Lions annual district convention here Monday was the address of International Lion President Harry A. Newman of Toronto, Canada, who took for his theme "Service," and showed how the Lions organization is working together with the harmonious purpose of making service applicable to the blind, the orphan and the unfortunate boys and girls of this country who need help and encouragement.

There are two candidates for district governor, W. L. Dugzar, president of the Waco Lions club, and E. P. Cravens of Austin.

At noon Monday San Antonio withdrew from the race for the meeting place next year in favor of Houston, which leaves only Houston, San Angelo and Galveston in the field.

It is estimated that 800 Lions are in attendance and the sessions are being held at the First Methodist church, in the basement of which luncheon was served at noon. The program is in charge of the Lions clubs of Ennis and San Angelo.

Following a brief program Monday afternoon the delegates and visitors were taken for a drive around the city and then to a big barbecue on the campus of Howard Payne college. Monday night the visitors and delegates were guests of the local club at the coronation of the King and Queen of Brownwood Pure Food show at Soldiers and Sailors Memorial hall.

I. O. O. F. To Celebrate 106th Anniversary

Winters lodge I. O. O. F. No. 121 will celebrate the 106th anniversary of the founding of the order at the First Baptist church at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The program will be in charge of Rev. H. H. Stephens, and will be appropriate for the occasion.

All Odd Fellows are requested to meet at the hall and march in a body to the church.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend this service and all members of the organization are especially urged to be present.

Mrs. C. J. Bush of Fort Worth was the guest in the home of Mrs. Joe Vancil the past week.

METHODISTS HAVING A GOOD REVIVAL

Our revival, which began April 12th, has been a season of special effort to get men and women, boys and girls to turn to the way of the Lord and live after His will.

The church has been deeply stirred and consciously revived under the preaching ability of Rev. Alonzo Monk of Mineral Wells, who is holding our meeting, and we expect better things for the Winters church in the future.

We rejoice that a number of our Sunday school boys and girls gave their hearts to God on Sunday morning for which we give God the glory, and others from time to time have asked for prayer and we are earnestly praying for their salvation and for others.

The meeting will continue through Sunday. Talk the meeting, pray earnestly and work for souls and we will be graciously blessed.

Following are the announcements for Sunday:
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.
Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.

Epworth Leagues, Junior, Intermediate and Senior, 6:45 p. m.—Publicity Committee.

BEST PIECE OF NEWS FOUND RECENTLY

Starting about 5 a. m. Thursday morning and lasting some four hours the best rain received in the Winters country in some time covered the earth. Farmers were never in better shape in this section than they are right now. The ground was in fine shape and lots of cotton and maize had been planted the last two weeks and some of it is already up enough to be seen from one end of the row to the other, the rain came slow and was all soaked in to the soil, so we can't see how the fields are going to fail to turn green with cotton, maize, grass and weeds, and prospects are now that more rain will follow. At 10:30 Thursday morning the government weather gauge in Winters showed we had received 1.23 inches of rain. From the West Texas telephone Co. we learned the rainfall at the places named to be as follows:

Wingate	1 inch
Ballinger	1-2 "
San Angelo	.27 "
Crews	1-2 "
Norton	1 "
Abilene	1 "

C. of C. Directors Called Meeting

When the directors of the Chamber of Commerce heard of the court decision that perpetuated the injunction against the city concerning an ordinance drawn to protect its streets and alleys from being commercialized, a meeting of the directors was called Wednesday afternoon to discuss ways and means of procedure. The loss of this ordinance again jeopardizes the railroad motor service and any change in it might throw us back to where we were two months ago. Mayor Roberts, Judge Thornton, W. O. Shackelford and Editor Hill were present and joined in the deliberations. Action was held back for further developments following an appeal to the higher court.

The directors indorsed the idea of the home demonstration agent for Runnels county that is before our commissioners court.

E. A. Shepperd was selected as leader of the visitors from Winters to the Mineral Wells convention. Secretary Watts has selected three camp houses in the Mineral Wells tourist park as headquarters for the camp that will be established for our band and such as attend the convention. Ample facilities are there for tents and autos. Everybody thinking of attending please confer with Mr. Watts for further information.

The band uniforms have arrived and the boys are busily fitting them. If you have any doubt as to the ability of the band to play, don't miss hearing them next Tuesday night at Tinkle park.

Local Man Honored by Texas Seed Crushers

H. W. Lynn, manager of the Winters Oil Mill, received notification this week from the president of the Texas Cotton Seed Crushers' association of his selection as chairman of the rules committee of this organization. As we understand it, this committee of which Mr. Lynn has just been selected as chairman has to do with trading between oil mills. Also Mr. Lynn received the following letter placing him on the program of the state convention of this organization which meets in Galveston June 8th:

"Wharton, Texas, April 14, 1925.

"Mr. H. W. Lynn, Winters, Texas. Dear Mr. Lynn: We are going to place you on the program at the Galveston convention to respond to the address of welcome.

"We are writing you this letter so you can be prepared to handle this matter when it comes up.

"Thanking you for this and all other favors, I am, yours very truly,
H. E. WILSON, President"

NOTICE.

Will be working at the Fairview cemetery next week, any one wanting concrete work of any kind will find me there.—Sam Wyatt.

WINTERS SCHOOL WINS DISTRICT IN LITERARY EVENTS AT ANGELO

"On to Austin" is still the cry of Winters schools—a cry not quieted in the least by the two big days at the district meet in San Angelo Friday and Saturday. Every entre in literary events Friday was a first-place victory for Winters except one. These victories were scored by the girls' debating team, Glee Ingram and Leon Campbell, by the boys' team, Auburn Neely and Benton Neely and by Maurine Speer in junior declamation.

Sixteen counties were represented in this meet including a number of large schools among which were Midland and San Angelo. Supt. A. H. Smith and Miss Myrtle Barber had charge of the literary entres from Winters school.

As results of Friday's contest which were largely literary, Winters carried away 40 points, Angelo coming second with 22 points. The ambition of many schools to take the "win out of Winters" was evident enough, but the efforts failed. And the "win" remained Friday night larger than ever.

"Where is Winters, anyway?" was a frequent question heard among bystanders, a question answered by various means both Friday and Saturday.

Auburn and Benton, our boy debating team, drew Midland in the preliminaries, the San Angelo boys at the same time drawing Eden. The girls, Leon and Glee, drew the Odessa team leaving San Angelo to contest the winners of preliminaries, at the finals Friday night. Winters walked away with the decisions of all three judges, both against Midland and Odessa. The finals then with San Angelo and Eden would determine the real victory.

The combat Friday night with Eden seemed close—so close that Miss Barber, the coach of Winters debating, felt that defeat was more probable than before. But the decisions when read were unanimous from five judges for Winters. This was the third unanimous vote carried away by the boys from Bethel, Midland and Eden, Ballinger being the only team to score at all, the score being the only one vote cast this season against the boys.

Winters High Takes Easy Game from Bradshaw, 8-4

Edwards and Robertson obtained 16 strike-outs in seven innings in the game with Bradshaw last Friday afternoon. The Bradshaw boys obtained only three hits, but they came together and enabled them to score four runs in the sixth inning. Edwards weakened in this inning when Young relieved McCoughan as catcher, who had injured a finger. Robertson pitched one and one-third innings, holding the visitors to no hits and no runs. Bradshaw has a good fielding combination but no pitching strength.

Mrs. D. Jones of Bradshaw was transacting business in Winters last Tuesday.

The girls met a strong foe in the San Angelo team. San Angelo was strong in argument and sure in delivery, and the fight was intense both in main speeches and rebuttals. Victory, however, was ours by one vote. The girls have had two unanimous decisions from Miles and Odessa, and two foes, Ballinger and San Angelo, have been able to score on us but still in defeat.

That these winning teams must now face a bi-district before going to Austin is a new ruling by the state department. It is probable that Winters will go against Comanche and then "on to Austin!"

Our teams have won eight consecutive victories. They have won by hard work, which has resulted in good poise, free manner of delivery, good argument and quick thinking. One of the judges at the district remarked Friday night that our teams had the most logical argument of any of this year's teams he had judged.

Maurine's victory was no less glorious. She spoke against a group of some ten girls and her competition was close. Her victory was made certain by first place from each judge. Her declamation was the noted poem "America for Me," and her splendid voice with a personality all her own won for her first place.

Supt. Smith had charge of the district declamation and was held in tense presiding all day long. He remained over Saturday to be with the track events, being joined Friday by Coach Childers and Mr. Robertson and the track contestants. Miss Barber returned to Winters Friday night with the Campbell and Ingram families, spreading a night message of victory.

Four Boys To Represent Winters at Austin May 7-9

The Winters relay team made a specialty of this event and took first place at the district meet at San Angelo Saturday. The team was composed of Fields, Knight, Lowe and Neely, A. There were seven teams from over the district in the contest. The Merton team was second, Miles, third, and San Angelo, fourth.

Auburn Neely won first in the mile run. Knight won third in the shot put. This gave Winters a total of 12 points in the field and track events. Fields was ruled ineligible for all events except the relay, because he did not compete in them at the county meet.

These four men are eligible to represent Winters in the state meet at Austin, May 7, 8 and 9.

Will Attend Photographers' Convention

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Jordan will leave Sunday for Dallas where they will attend the Southwestern Professional Photographers' association next week. They expect to be absent all next week. Mr. Jordan believes nothing is too good for his customers, hence he is attending this convention in order to post himself on all the latest methods used in his line of business. During his absence he will leave an attendant in charge of his studio to take care of the needs of his patrons during his absence.

REPORT OF WINGATE MUSIC CLASS

Following are the names of those who have practiced one hour each day: Loreece Blackwell, Faye Ellis, Bonnie Bryan and Guyrene Mott.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Anthony and children, Ben and Katherine, and Miss Estelle Moore spent the week end in Brownwood.

BAND CONCERT POSTPONED TO TUESDAY

On account of the revival meeting in progress at the Methodist church, the band concert which was to have taken place at Tinkle park this evening has been postponed to next Tuesday evening. The band has been practicing for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention which meets in Mineral Wells next month and is now playing some real good music, so if you don't want to miss a treat, don't forget to be present at the concert at Tinkle park next Tuesday evening.

J. B. Shackelford of the Abilene and Southern railway, Abilene, was in the city a day or so the past week meeting friends and attending to business matters pertaining to the railroad.

Dr. E. R. Middleton, a former resident of Winters but now of Abilene, was in the city yesterday on professional business and greeting friends.

News received from Mrs. J. T. Stevenson, who is at the sick bedside of her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Lewis, in Los Angeles, Calif., states that Mrs. Lewis is now on the road to recovery and if no complications set up she will soon be able to be moved from the sanitarium to her home.

Elbert Bilton of Evant is in the city visiting with his uncle, Sid Caskey, this week.

Winters Wins First Two Games of Season

The Winters baseball team is now going good, having won the first two games of the season, the first game being played with Ovalo last Saturday, the score being 10 and 2. Wednesday afternoon the home club took on the fast club from Miles and trimmed them to the tune of 3 to 1. Both games were played in the new ball park on South Main. Here's the box office score for the game with Miles Wednesday:

House Destroyed by Fire Wednesday

Wednesday evening about 8:30 or 9 o'clock the fire alarm was turned in from the southeast part of town. A house belonging to Sam Kirby had caught on fire in some unknown manner. The fire boys made a good run but the alarm had come too late and the house, which was unoccupied, was burned to the ground. The wind was blowing a pretty stiff gale, but fortunately the house was pretty well isolated and the fire was confined to the one residence building.

We understand the loss was partially covered by insurance.

When you see a fire think of Insurance; when you think of Insurance see SHEPPERD.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hodge left for Clyde Monday, where Mrs. Hodge will visit relatives and friends for a few days. Mr. Hodge returned home Tuesday.

WINTERS MAN PLACED ON BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF SIMMONS COLLEGE

Bert Low, cashier of the First National bank, received last week, official notification of his election as a member of the board of trustees of Simmons college, Abilene. This comes to Mr. Low as quite a compliment and is an honor not only for him, but one in which all Winters may take pride. The following paragraph is taken from the official notification Mr. Low received of his election:

"We are putting men on our board who have, we think, some religion, some influence in their sections and who can help us some financially from time to time and who can get monies from their friends for this institution."

We feel Simmons college is to be congratulated upon the election of men like Bert Low to serve on her board of trustees.

Maddox Responsible for Winters Golf Links

Dr. R. C. Maddox, who recently moved here from Abilene, is the one man probably who deserves the most individual praise for putting over and securing the golf links north of town for Winters.

Dr. Maddox not only put in his share of the money to put this proposition over, but gave more individual work and time to the proposition than any other one man. We believe in giving credit where credit is due, hence this mention of the doctor, and we believe every member of the Winters Golf club will agree with us when we say the doctor is entitled to a rising vote of thanks from every member of the club.

HOOVER RE-ENTERS BUSINESS ON MAIN ST

Light Hoover, who for some time past has been associated with the Davis-Patrick Motor company, recently dissolved his relations with this firm and the first of this week bought out the Geo. Speer up-town filling station on Main street opposite the post office.

In retiring from the Davis-Patrick firm, Mr. Hoover retained the Buick automobile agency and will sell this famous car and will as well handle gas, oils, tires, tubes and a full line of auto accessories. He will also keep an auto mechanic who is able to take care of any repair work in the auto line.

Mr. Hoover will be glad to have all his friends and the public generally call around and see him in his new place of business.

Mr. Speer is not retiring from business but will continue to sell Oakland cars and operate his Day and Night Service station opposite the Tourist hotel on West Dale street.

Abilene After Next W. T. C. of C. Meeting

Abilene is after the 1926 meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce which convenes in Mineral Wells next month, and Winters, which is the home of two members of the board of directors of this organization (John Q. McAdams and — Brown of the Nance-Brown Motor company) is going to do everything possible to assist her in securing this great convention. Learning through Sunday's daily papers of Abilene's desires in this matter, the Winters Chamber of Commerce sent the following telegram to the Abilene Chamber of Commerce Monday:

"Winters, Texas, April 20th, 1925. —To Abilene Chamber of Commerce, Abilene, Texas: We understand you are after the 1926 West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention. If so, you may depend upon our cooperation and help to the limit.—Winters Chamber of Commerce."

Mr. Anderson, manager of the Blease Motor Co., Ford dealers at Cisco, with Mrs. Anderson, was visiting with friends in the city the first part of the week.

THE PASSING DAY

(Will H. Mayes, Department of Journalism, University of Texas.)
Must Believe in Your Work.

Unless you believe in what you are doing and show faith in your ability to get results you are not likely to have and large amount of success. A person usually gets about what he goes after, but he has to go after it with earnestness and zeal and stay with it until he gets it. The half-hearted people who do things in an indolent, listless way are sure to get the same kind of response to their efforts. If I wrote this column as though I did not care whether it was read or not, you would hardly care to read it; if I wrote it not caring whether it sets you thinking, it would not start a thought in your mind. The fact that I believe in it and that the editor of this paper believes in it gives it a weight it could not otherwise secure. About a half million persons read it every week and I have a strong faith that many of them get something worth while from it. Still, I know they would not if I did not put worthwhile effort into it.

Failure Is Largely Your Fault.

When a reasonable amount of success is not secured from an effort, it is well to try to find where the fault lies. In most cases at least part of the trouble will be found to be with yourself. There may be calamities that are unavoidable; and every one is likely to make mistakes. We do not at all times exercise good judgment in our undertakings. But three-fourths of the business failures are due to lack of successful effort or to a failure to keep up the stride until success is attained. Often when success comes in sight we make the mistake of thinking we have it well in hand. I have seen hundreds of farm crops cut short by being "laid by" too soon. Scores of merchants have "laid by" when they seemed to be doing well, and bankruptcy has resulted.

Contests Stimulate Effort.

The Interscholastic League meets are doing wonders for the school boys and girls of the country and towns. Almost every paper now tells of county and district meets participated in by students who are contesting for honors in debating, declamations, music, reading, spelling, athletic events and other things that test the mind and body. Young people who come together in these contests put their very best efforts into whatever they do, and whether they win or fail, they are greatly helped by the trials they make. It has been well said that it is not so much what we try to do that counts. It is the "try" in these school contests that develops these young people. Next to the effort, the best thing that comes from these "meets" is seeing what others are doing in the same way, and getting inspiration for still greater effort. At a track meet recently at the University of Texas there were "world champion" runners, high jumpers, and others—several of them—brought to the university at large expense. Nearly every young athlete there is now trying to beat the records of these champions.

Why Fair Exhibits Pay.

We do not like to admit that anyone can beat us at what we are trying to do. There are thousands of Southern farmers now trying to grow more cotton on five acres than the Anderson county, Texas, farmer produced last year. They are saying "I am not going to let that fellow beat me, if I can help it." The chances are good that the Anderson county man will not be the champion after this year. When the farmer goes to a fair and sees that some one has raised a better calf or hog or coop of chickens, or has produced a crop that beats his, he feels his pride a bit hurt, if he is the right sort; and there he determines to see if he can't be a leader in something himself. Fairs, like the school "meets," create a spirit of contest that results in better effort.

The Great Southwestern Oil Field.

Oil developments in the Southwest in the last few years have been such that time may prove the entire section to be underlain with oil at varying depths. Even now it appears that oil or gas may be found almost anywhere in Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana if only it is gone after in the right way. Hardly a week passes that a new field is not developed or a proven territory is not extended. It may yet be found that the greatest wealth of this territory is under the ground.

Texas Building Good Roads.

Texas is just now doing much effective highway development. The state will get $4,415,715 of the $75,000,000 voted by congress just before adjournment, making a total of $98,126,000 received since the beginning of the Federal aid policy. With 2122 miles of Federal highway built and 1450 miles under construction, Texas is leading all other states in highway mileage. At the present rate of construction Texas will soon have good roads covering most of its populated area.

Curry Bros. Had a Very Successful Demonstration Saturday

Last Saturday Curry Bros. had a very successful demonstration and open house at their popular grocery store on Main street. D. C. Hale, with A. Schilling & Co., demonstrated the superior qualities of Schilling's coffee and tea. M. Melton, with H. J. Heinz & Co., the Heinz "57 varieties" of pure food products and Mr. Griggs, of the Brown Cracker Co. demonstrated the high quality cakes and crackers manufactured by this company.

Music was furnished for the occasion by the Cortez orchestra, which was located in the balcony of the store, and the numbers rendered by this organization of musicians was enjoyed by the steady stream of guests which crowded the store the bigger part of the day. The guests were served a very palatable lunch made up of the articles being demonstrated. Besides the special representatives mentioned above, Curry Bros. were assisted in serving their guests by Luvera Needy and Martin White.

Curry Bros. believe in quality merchandise. In other words they procure quality merchandise first, then put a fair price on it. So in buying groceries, if you want absolutely high quality merchandise, reasonably priced, you should visit or phone Curry Bros.

Chevrolet's Copyrighted Plan Bringing Results

Cars and trucks aggregating $8,000,000 have been sold under the Chevrolet six per cent purchase certificate plan since this copyrighted method was inaugurated among Chevrolet dealers seven months ago.

The plan, regarded as a fundamental improvement in automotive merchandising, has met with such uniform approval that now more than 2000 of the certificates are sold each month.

Under its provisions a prospective car owner may start with an initial payment as low as $5. If desired, a larger first payment may be made. This is followed by weekly or monthly installments suiting the convenience of the purchaser. These payments are then entered upon the back of the purchase certificate. When the sum of the payments plus the six per cent interest earned reaches one-third of the retail price the car is delivered. The balance may be met either outright or on a deferred payment plan.

Another attractive feature is a provision that a certificate holder who already owns a car gains a further credit toward his new automobile of six per cent of such amount as he may spend with the dealer for service, repairs or accessories on his old machine.

The certificate savings are amply safeguarded. They are banked in a separate trustee's account, in a local bank. Over 2000 of these accounts are established in different banks in the United States. In addition all money paid in on a Chevrolet purchase certificate is insured against loss by a strong and well-known insurance company.

Frank Paxtor of the City Drug company left Tuesday for Dallas to attend a three-day Rexall convention in that city.

Mrs. John D. Owens of Leonard, Texas, is in the city visiting in the home of her sons, Messrs. Buford G. and Luther M. Owens.

J. B. Clack and family of Hilton were here Saturday transacting business. While here Mr. Clack called for a short visit to The Enterprise office.

MATTER OF ENDURANCE.

A noted economist says the present rise in prices of farm products is not merely temporary, but reflects deeper conditions—the lack of new lands to be opened for agriculture and the constant increase in population. All the farmer has to do is to live long enough to step into his reward. Luckily farming is a healthy calling.

The busy home gardener does more than all the economy orators to cut the high cost of living.

Hey son, bring that old bed sheet or pillowslip your mother has discarded to the Enterprise office; we need them and will give you 5 cents per pound.

Crossword puzzle pictures on the screen at Mission Theatre.

"The White Sin" a Powerful Human Drama

Have you been wishing that someone would produce a photoplay of a story so powerful that it literally sweeps you off your feet? Hold your breath—for here it is! "The White Sin," showing at the Queen Theatre, Friday, April 24th, interprets through the splendid acting of an all-star cast one of the most powerful stories ever screened. Written directly for pictures by Harold Shumate, former St. Louis bond salesman, but now, through his success with this and other recent stories a new power among screen playwrights, "The White Sin" presents a new, virile and amazing plot structure, powerfully human, daringly realistic.

The motion picture goer who can sit through this without laughing, crying and applauding isn't merely blasé—he's ready for the undertaker. The girl and other characterizations of "The White Sin" are among the most powerful that the screen, the stage or printed literature have given us. The plot, the dramatic structure and the continually surprising situations and thrills with which the story is packed are equally new throughout and the technical aspects of the production are worthy of the young screen playwright's masterful story.

HERE COMES THE BRIDE.

The bridesmaid carried bouquets of American Beauty roses and saved-off shot guns, while the maid of honor was equipped with a high power rifle such as is used in hunting big game; the six little flower girls wheeled a one-pounder field piece into position.

The bride wore a charming gown of white satin, a veil of old lace and stung from her slender waist several automatic pistols of heavy calibre.

As usual, no notice was taken of the bridegroom or his attire, so it passed undetected that he had donned beneath his cutaway, a neat suit of armor of conventional black.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, so as to have her own right arm free for a quick draw. With some dismay, those present observed that she was as nervous as the average bride of former times. In many quarters the whispered hope was expressed that her weapon possessed the usual safety device and that if she should see any cause for action she would calm herself and confine her ire to the target she was about to take for better or for worse.

Desperately the groom attempted to force a thick wedding ring on the trigger finger of his blushing bride, but she sternly frustrated him by holding forth the usual digit of her hand.

However, before the nuptials had been completely solemnized, a seedy young man rushed up the aisle and disarmed the bride.

"Who is the well-wisher?" exclaimed the startled groom.

The hungry looking intruder responded by handing the bride his card, though he retained the pistols.

"Yours for good, old fashioned methods," he pleaded. "I'm a divorce lawyer.—Goblin."

"Born Rich" at Queen Monday and Tuesday

A new note in motion picture direction has been struck by Will Nigh, director of "Born Rich," a First National picture which is to be shown at the Queen Theatre Monday and Tuesday, April 17 and 28. Based on the successful novel by Hughes Cornell, it is a story of New York society circles, but, unlike the ordinary story of "high life," it is one of the most human stories ever thrown upon the screen.

Motion picture fans never tire of "society dramas," and as a result the majority of pictures shown in the many thousands of cinema palaces throughout the land are of that type. Everyone likes to see how the "other half" lives, and inasmuch as the vast majority of Americans are outside of that magic circle of the wealthy, they have given strong evidence of their interest in how the rich conduct themselves.

In the filming of "Born Rich" both the author and the director have set out to show a different side of the wealthy, and to prove that the latter are as susceptible to the elementary emotions and desires as the average mortal. Pride in home and family in many instances outweighs worldly possessions, they demonstrate, and they have woven a brilliant and interesting story about the theme.

Constable Harter Getting Sore at "Hot Checkers"

Constable C. E. Harter of Wingate was in the city Saturday and when asked what he was doing he said he was looking for "hot checkers." Mr. Harter said everybody was getting tired worrying with "hot checks" and from here on out, for his part of it, he is going to put the "lid on," and make it hotter for the passers of "hot checks" than it has been for some time. So if you want to avoid trouble you had best discontinue the practice of giving worthless checks. The Wingate official "mumbled" something about Ballinger and jail as he left the office.

Victory School District Is Now Free From Debt

Here's a bit of news that should listen good to the patrons of the Victory school district No. 27.

This school has been in debt some $1000 for the past three or more years, and in talking with a member of the board of trustees last Saturday we learned they had cleaned up and paid all indebtedness against the school except their bonds, the above indebtedness having been incurred in carrying on the school and buying equipment, and, by the way, these good people have the distinction of having the best equipped school in Runnels county, according to a statement made by the state inspector of rural schools. This is a three-teacher school and is enjoying this term one of the best school years in its history. The school is receiving $700 state aid at the present.

In talking with the board members, we were asked to extend the thanks of the board to the banks of Winters, to the lumber companies, the old trustees and others for their cooperation and assistance in clearing the school of debt. At present the personnel of the board is August Spill, Loss Williams and B. C. McCasland.

SCHOOL NOTES

The school notes have become so important lately that they belong on the front page. Surely no one objects. You see, when news becomes of such interest to people far off, other than those who are right within our walls, then it no longer remains individual but becomes universal.

Who was it who said "Take the Win out of Winters?" It can't be done! It was made there. It belongs there. We must keep it there.

Messrs. L. G. Mosley and J. C. Koen, students of Simmons college, were our visitors Monday. L. G. is well known here, and J. C. was a graduate of Colorado High school last year.

Miss Fields visited in San Angelo this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Ingram, Owen and Lottie, went to San Angelo Friday to witness the finals in debating.

Miss Myrtle Barber was notified Saturday that her brother, Perry, would go to Austin as representative of senior boys' declamation from Abilene district.

Supt. A. H. Smith went to Abilene Wednesday to be in a school superintendents' conference there.

The Seniors tested their talents as poets this week. E. F. says that he never expects to make writing a profession and, therefore, wonders why the teacher persists in making a poet of him. Juanita had a hard time making anything rhyme with "think," and Iva could get only three lines in her first stanza. Oral says he has called continually on the "muses" but no inspiration comes, and George Key makes no doubt of the fact that he is non-poetic.

Still people often do not know their ability until they try once, at least. For instance, Charlie has come out on the second day with a brilliant ode to "Winters III." And who ever would have thought of Bobbie being gifted with literary symptoms? Yet he becomes famous over night in the Senior circle by his ingenious "Keep the Win in Winters." Other noted poets are Virginia Pierce, Alfred Lamotte, George Poe, Ruby Nell Roberts, Louise Poe and Ila Mitchell. Who knows but a Shakespeare or a Keats may not be found in W. H. S. yet?

If Auburn were not the type of boy who never lets his honors give him the "big head," he would surely be troubled with an abnormal head this week. Who else around here will represent Winters at Austin in two events? Auburn believes in the all-round boy being fit mentally, physically and spiritually.

What makes Winters win, boys?
What makes Winters win?
Team makes Winters win, boys,
Team makes Winters win!

Everybody from here who heard Christine Friday was proud of her, even though she lost. If we'd been choosing the girl we'd rather call ours and the one who represented best the ideal of W. H. S. we would have chosen Christine. It takes a sport like Christine to lose well, for there's more test of real character and backbone in losing than in winning.

There are five more weeks of school. The odors of May flowers are in the air, and the melodies of commencement songs abroad. Senior girls are talking of filmy graduation dresses and boys are counting days till "fishin' time." Memory books make their way more frequently down the study hall aisles, and a general sentiment prevails that school will soon be out. With that sentiment comes the feeling of half joy and half regret.

POEMS BY SENIORS.
The Value of Love
(By Juanita Pentecost.)

What is life without some loving?
Did you ever stop to think?
If you thought that no one loved you—
Don't you think your heart would sink?

Love is such a little word;
Yet it reigns supreme o'er all the world.
Millions of our fellow-men have died
heroically
For this word—and flags unfurled.

Our Savior died on Calvary
Because he loved us true;
Our mothers and fathers watch o'er us
Because they love us, too.

Then if the world is dying
For a little bit of love,
We should be ever trying—
To give love even here—as above.

A Message From the Canvas
(By Iva Jordan.)
A painter before her easel,
Sat at the break of day;

The world was white and silvery,
And she made her canvas say:

"Tiny little snow flakes,
Dropping to the ground;
Here is one, there is one,
Everywhere they're found.

"On the canvas you could see:
Through the frosty air,
Every little snow flake,
With its beauties rare.

"Soon her canvas was covered
With imitation snow;
Then she painted the snow birds,
Flying to and fro.

"O, rare and beautiful painting,
Paintings we should enjoy,
They're a gift from God,
To every girl and boy."

Some Rules from Golf Grounds Committee

Below we are printing some rules and regulations relating to the use of the Winters Golf club links, who can play, courtesies which should be extended, etc. We were also asked to state that non-members should keep off the links entirely unless carried out by invitation of members. The rules referred to follow:

Please Read Over Carefully.

No person who is not a member of the Winters Golf club is allowed on these grounds, except by invitation.

Residents of Winters who think that they would like to take up golf are entitled to visit the course for the purpose of trying out the game to see if they like it; but these visits are limited to three times and must be by invitation only and accompanied by a member of the club.

All children under fifteen years of age are not allowed on the course, with the exception of caddies, and they only when in the performance of their duty.

Caddies are not allowed to play golf except at an allotted time which will be posted on the bulletin board later. Said bulletin board will be placed near number one tee and it is the duty of every member of this club to read and familiarize themselves with all notices there posted.

Automobiles are not allowed to drive over the course at any time. There is suitable parking space provided for cars near the main gate and this is where they should be left.

Any balls found by caddies or players must be dropped in a box placed for this purpose at number one tee. This box is provided by the club for this purpose and it is the duty of every player to mark his ball so it may be recognized by them at any time. Hence, when they are dropped into the box the player can pick out his own ball.

When playing the game it is very important that you do not shoot into the players ahead of you. Give the players ahead of you reasonable time to get out of danger before you shoot and then yell "fore," as "fore" is the universal danger signal when on the golf course.

When you get on the putting greens hole out your puts as soon as possible and then move on off, as there will probably be players waiting to approach the green. Do not discuss your game on the greens. No one but the player in action is allowed on the putting greens. A caddy may go on the green only when asked to do so by his player. These putting greens cost money and it takes money to keep them up, so it is the duty of every player to give as much care and attention to them as possible, as a golf club is judged by its putting greens. No one is allowed on the greens with high-heel shoes on as they tear up the greens very badly. This rule is very important.

Please get a rule book and familiarize yourself with all the rules and if there is any rule you do not understand it will be gladly interpreted if taken to the proper authorities.—The Grounds and Greens Committee.

City Loses Bus
Suit at Ballinger;
Will Appeal Case

District Judge J. O. Woodward perpetuated the injunction as prayed for against the city of Winters, ruling in favor of the motor bus operators and against the city of Winters, after hearing three hours' argument in the case Monday morning at Ballinger.

The defendant gave notice of appeal, announcing that the case would be taken to the court of civil appeal. In substance the court's ruling leaves the motor bus lines free to operate through the city of Winters and on the streets of that town, picking up and delivering passengers as they have been doing. The plaintiff's argument was based on the ground that the city council of Winters exceeded its powers in attempting to pass a law which, if enforced, would prohibit the operation of such cars on the streets of Winters.

With the criminal docket set for 1:30 p. m., District Judge Woodward began hearing the injunction suit filed by the motor bus drivers at 9 o'clock. Judge C. O. Harris of San Angelo opened the argument for the defendants, the city of Winters, and he was followed by Judge Jas. A. Stinson of Abilene, counsel for the plaintiffs. The other attorneys in the case, and who also presented arguments, are Judge W. A. Wright of San Angelo and City Attorney Thornton of Winters, for the city of Winters, and Judge E. T. Brooks of Abilene, representing the plaintiffs.

What Are You Going to do About it?

Conditions with reference to our water supply are bad indeed and even if it should rain and refill our lake then we would not have a supply for so very long. Business is suffering and our growth is being retarded by the lack of an adequate water supply. What will we do about it?

For years you have heard much about Guaranty Fund and Safety for deposits. If we have the right dope, the Guaranty Fund no longer applies in this community. With a clear conscience and an uncompromising conviction we can still look the world in the face and say

THERE IS NOTHING SAFER THAN OUR NATIONAL BANK SAFETY

What Are You Going to Do About It?

The First National Bank

This is a suit in which the motor bus operators between Ballinger and Abilene, operating through the city of Winters, are seeking by injunction to restrain the city of Winters from putting into effect an ordinance prohibiting line cars from hauling passengers and freight into and out of Winters. O. C. Murphy and W. H. Avery are plaintiffs named in the suit.

Judge Woodward a short time ago granted a temporary injunction and set Monday morning of this week as a date for hearing the case.

The passage of the ordinance and the filing of the injunction proceedings to defeat the ordinance is the outgrowth of the threat of the A. & S. Railway company to cut its passenger service on that railroad if better support was not forthcoming from Winters. The railway officials had threatened to suspend the motor car service operating from Ballinger to Abilene, greatly to the inconvenience of the mail service of the points between the two cities, if the road was not given better support. It was alleged that the automobile line was competing with the railroad in such a way as to make the operation of the motor car on the rail line unprofitable.

In order to maintain the present train service Winters took steps to throw both its moral influence against the bus lines and motor truck lines which were hauling freight, and passed the ordinance which resulted in the injunction suit.—Ballinger Ledger.

Social Activities

Baptist Association Mission Study Institute

The Baptist Association Mission Study Institute met in an all day meeting at Ballinger Friday, April 17, when two books were taught. "The Decade of W. M. U." was taught by Mrs. Swindell and Mrs. H. H. Stevens taught "The Woman and the Leaven in Japan." Both ladies are very fine teachers of mission study and consequently this meeting was quite a success.

The Ballinger ladies served an excellent dinner and proved to those present their ability as cooks.

Those attending from Winters were Mesdames Frank Pumphrey, S. E. Hunt, M. A. Quindlin, Bert Low, J. W. Patterson, H. H. Stevens, J. N. Key and D. H. Taylor.

P. T. A. Announcement.

The social meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association, which was postponed April 14 on account of stormy weather, will be held at the high school auditorium Tuesday, April 28. Parents are urged to visit the school and enjoy the following program:

Orchestra number—Misses Heivley and McElroy's rooms.

Reading—Allene Jones.

"Hawaii as I Saw it During My Three Years There"—Miss Wade.

Piano Solo—Anna Lee Cobb.

During the social hour refreshments will be served.

Presbyterian Young People in Special Program

The young people of the Presbyterian church rendered a special program last Sunday, April 19, entertaining the adult Christian Endeavor. About twenty-five young ladies took part in the program with Mrs. Vancil as leader. The subject was "My Denomination." Special music was furnished by the church orchestra. Miss Pauline Dunn gave a reading.

One of the most important bits of information brought out in this program was the fact that the Presbyterian church is the second largest church in the world with a membership of 52,556,268.

Presbyterian Senior C. E.

The Presbyterian Senior Christian Endeavor society will meet Sunday, April 26, at 6:45.

Topic—"Friendliness as Expressed Through Educational Mission." Leader—Mrs. Van Zandt.

There will be a special program and report from the delegates to the district convention, which met at Ballinger April 17, will be made. Every member is urged to be present.

Euzelian Class Meets.

The Euzelian class of the Baptist Sunday school met in regular business session Thursday, April 16, at 4:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Dinwiddie, teacher of the class. The subject of discussion was a social to be given for all the Senior department Friday April 24. During the social hour the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Baptist W. M. U.

The Baptist W. M. U. met in regular session Monday, April 20, at 2 o'clock in the parlors of the church. The mission study, "Baptists in Italy," was taught by Mrs. H. H. Stevens. It was decided to change the hour of meeting from 2 o'clock to 4 o'clock. Next Monday afternoon the fourth and fifth chapters will be studied.

House Party.

One of the most delightful occasions of the season was a house party at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Key, when their daughter, Miss Towner, who is a student of John Tarleton college at Stephenville, returned home for the week end, bringing as her guests Misses Edith Childers, Helen White of Bellview and Miss Frances Sikes of Graceland. Invited guests of Winters were Misses Thelma Cobern, Leon Campbell and Gerriela Galloway.

Presbyterian W. M. S. Meets.

The Presbyterian W. M. S. met Monday, April 20, at 3 o'clock at the church in regular missionary meeting. The following program was carried out:

Song—"Lord, I Want to be a Christian."

Scripture—Romans 10:11-16; Matt 25:34-36.

Prayer.

Minutes.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Clements for the week end were Mrs. Wilson and Miss Marjorie Wilson of Abilene, mother and sister of Mrs. Clements, and Mrs. Elmer Stearns of Matador.

"Facts every Presbyterian should know about work among colored people"—Mrs. Gaston.

"Our young people at work for the American negro"—Mrs. Johnson.

"Whither Going"—Mrs. Lynn.

"The Story of Emma and Alice"—Mrs. Townsend.

"The Lord had a job for me"—Mrs. Vancil.

"The Three Rs"—Mrs. Smith.

"Missionary activities of colored women"—Mrs. Rives.

Home Builders Class Meets.

Mrs. L. E. Low was hostess to the Home Builders Sunday school class when they met in a business meeting Friday, April 17. Delicious punch was served each guest as they entered the spacious reception rooms.

The following officers were elected: First vice president, Mrs. Jackson; second vice president, Mrs. R. L. Mosely; third vice president, Mrs. J. R. Cook; fourth vice president, Mrs. J. W. Dixon. Mrs. E. Clements was elected class reporter.

Discussions were made and plans formulated on how to enlist new members to the class. It was decided to have a social meeting once each month. During the social hour the hostess served apricot ice and angel food cake to Mesdames Kornegay, Bryan, Dixon, Bateman, Kennedy, Key, Jackson and Clements.

Announcements.

The Presbyterian Ladies Auxiliary will meet with Mrs. Albert Spill Monday, April 27, when the regular work will be continued.

The social meeting of the Literary and Service club will be postponed to meet Friday, May 1, with Mrs. A. H. Smith and Mrs. Owens as hostesses.

The Methodist W. M. S. will meet Monday, April 27, when the literary program from the year book will be carried out. Every member is urged to be present.

Methodist W. M. S. Has Meeting.

The Methodist Missionary society met in regular meeting Monday, April 20, at 3 o'clock in the basement of the church. Prayer meeting was held in interest of the revival.

Dr. J. H. Craig will leave next Tuesday for San Antonio where he will attend the state convention of chiropractors which meets in that city Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week.

Messrs. Nance, Brown and Jim Dowell attended the Ford clinic at Abilene Monday. They report a most pleasant and profitable trip.

F. Falls of Rising Star is visiting in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Van Piercy, this week.

George Key went to Stephenville Friday and brought home for the week end his daughter, Miss Towner Key, and Misses Thelma Cobern, Frances Sikes, Helen White and Edith Childers, all students in John Tarleton college.

Bevens Callan, wife and baby, of Fort Worth were here the past week end visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Callan, we understand, is holding a very responsible position with one of the large commission houses in the Panther City.

C. Kornegay returned the first of the week from a fishing trip on the Pecos river.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Q. Adams are the proud parents of a fine baby girl born Wednesday evening. When we met Mr. Adams on the streets yesterday morning he was stepping high and talking about the fine rain and his new daughter. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

Presbyterian Notes

All the regular services will be held next Sunday.

Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Let everyone be on hand on time. Last Sunday was the banner day—the largest attendance for months. Now let's keep up the good work. There are lots of people that should be in Sunday school.

Don't forget that when you joined the church you promised to attend all the services of the church. You will not be happy if you do not keep your promise to the Lord. Strangers welcome. Hal F. Smith, Pastor.

LOYALTY TO YOUR HOME TOWN

There is not a citizen of Winters that doesn't take pride in everything that the city does in a progressive way. We are proud of our football teams, basket ball, base ball, and all other things that are of a competitive nature, when our town enters and comes out on top.

And why shouldn't we be proud of our stores, and every business establishment that is in town, for they all help to make the town bigger and better. When we do this new businesses come to town, and that is what makes a town.

Another thing that helps to make a town is, by patronizing you home mechants. Get everything that you possibly can buy that you need in Winters, and when you do that, within a few years, the result will be a better town, more businesses, more people, a bigger town and a more prosperous place in which to live, for your dollar stays right here, and maybe comes back to you in a short time.

TEXACO FILLING STATION

Located Corner North Main and Parsonage Streets. Sell the Texaco Gas and Oils, Dayton Tires and Tubes.

Since the accompanying photograph was made, the Texaco Filling Station has made some wonderful improvements. The readers will note the left end of the station is solid in the picture, but this has been torn away, or transferred to the right end. In doing this gives this station now three driveways and six gasoline pumps, which is greater convenience and better service for the patrons of this station.

At the sign of the Texaco Filling Station in Winters is without a doubt headquarters for motor oils and gasoline and real service, for the employees of this concern take just as much pride in delivering water and air service quickly, willingly and efficiently as they do in dispensing oil, grease or gasoline. They do not wait to be asked to fill your radiator, and test your tires, as this is a regular part of the Texaco's service, and you will like the attention given you, just as you will like their products, because both are maintained at the highest standards at all times.

The Texaco Filling Station is owned and operated by Wm. A. Mitchell, who came in possession of it January 1, and has maintained a type of service that has won for him a flourishing and prosperous business.

Besides dispensing Texaco oils and gas, exclusively, this firm sells the famous Dayton tires and tubes.

Mr. Mitchell is one of Winters' well-known citizens and in the "Buy It in Winters" campaign, we can say that for courtesy and prompt service this station is headquarters.

A Very Interesting Letter from Calif.

Los Angeles, Calif., April 14.—Dear Enterprise and Folks at Home: Greetings: Since Sunday my thoughts have all followed one direction—that toward home and friends, and I am not yet homesick but Sunday was a wonderful day for us.

Arising at 3:30 we joined the 40,000 worshippers at Hollywood Bowl for a sunrise service. On account of the traffic we had to walk several blocks before the real climb commenced.

Straight up a mountain, such climbing—the fat and the lean, short-winded and long-winded—finally to reach the ruin and look down into the natural bowl where every seat was already filled. We stayed on the rim with thousands of others and the greater part of the program was heard distinctly.

As the sun began to tip the highest points two robed in white appeared on the opposite peak with cornets and played "He Is Risen!" everyone in the vast audience was perfectly quiet—not a breath seemed to disturb the atmosphere, then followed "The Holy City," sublime and would lift those worshipfully inclined to the highest peaks.

To the left a white cross stood out in bold relief against a rugged background. On the immense platform in the form of a cross stood the children's-community choir of Hollywood. As the music for their Hallelujah began, their capes dropped from their shoulders and they were all in white, looking from the distance like lilies, their heads making the centers.

A reading, "God of the Open Air," followed, which was rendered with much impressiveness by a man. A prayer, male quartette and a sermon with singing by the audience, and we had witnessed our first program of this kind. There were other vast audiences gathered in different parts of the city for sunrise services estimated at 150,000.

At the close of the service we got our family in the car and drove to Hot Springs for lunch. It is a beautiful place. Looks like down on "Bear Creek," so you know it suited Mr. Eason and myself. Enroute we stopped to visit an old mission, San Juan Capistrano, established in 1767. It is kept in fairly good repair and very interesting. Returning by the way of the coast we saw many places where we might enjoy a few days' outing, but as we told you we are in "no hurry." We are seeing Southern California at the rate of 35 and 40 miles an hour.

The most wonderful thing to me about the country is that it has been transformed from a desert into a place for people to live. There is nothing natural except the coast line and the mountains. Sometimes the hills look like where folks had emptied the ashes. Most of them are in cultivation. It has taken a mint of money to make this country what it is today.

On the way out we visited the Elephant Butte dam. It's a wonder. Greatest project of its kind in the United States. Been thinking ever since about our Colorado river project near Bronte, which has caused so much agitation. That dam would transform our section of the state, those who oppose it to the contrary. I've never been much interested until now. I'm for it strong. Hope to see it put over.

Missed seeing the Speers, as they

BILIOUSNESS

Retired Minister Tells How He Keeps in Good Form With the Assistance of Black-Draught.

West Graham, Va.—The Rev. Lewis Evans, a well-known retired minister, now past 80, living here, has a high opinion of Black-Draught, which he says he has taken when needed, for 25 years. "For years I had been suffering with my liver," he says. "Sometimes the pain would be very intense and my back would hurt all the time. Black-Draught was the first thing I found that would give me any relief.

"My liver has always been sluggish. Sometimes it gives me a lot of trouble. I have suffered a lot with it—pains in my side and back, and had headache, caused from extreme biliousness. "After I found Black-Draught, I would begin to take it as soon as I felt a spell coming on and it relieved the cause at once. I can recommend it to anybody suffering from liver trouble. A dose or two now and then keeps me in good form."

Made from selected medicinal roots and herbs, and containing no dangerous mineral drugs, Black-Draught is nature's own remedy for a tired, lazy liver. NC-166 checked out the day after we arrived. Mrs. Ritch and children, the Proctors, Lails, T. K. Oliver, Presly Nesbitt, D. T. Duncan and others whom we have seen or heard of are getting along fine.

Mrs. H. H. Lewis (Miss Kirksey Stevenson) is still very low. She is in a sanitarium and so far we have slight hopes for her. Within the next 24 hours we are sure will be the crisis. Mrs. Stevenson is weak on account of the shock and also a blood transfusion which was made next morning after her arrival. Her blood tested better for Kirksey than Mr. Lewis' so it was used.

We are at present visiting with Erma and Clarence. Beaty is in the city and we see him every day as well as a number of friends, so you see we don't feel lonely.

Been wanting to hear of a big rain at home but so far the good news has failed to reach us.

Our address is 232C West Vernon, Los Angeles, and we will be glad to hear from friends any time. Our best wishes are always with Winters and our friends there. The Enterprise is eagerly read by all of us, and much appreciated. MRS. EASON.

New School Board at Bradshaw

Bradshaw, April 20.—A school trustee election was held here last Saturday and the following were elected trustees for the new Bradshaw Independent School district: Mrs. H. A. Parris, Mrs. Dee Jones, A. L. Newby, C. J. Poor, J. W. Hardy, N. F. Whitley and Ocie Hunt.

On Monday the new board met and elected A. L. Newby and Ocie Hunt its president and secretary.

The term of office for each trustee was determined by drawing numbers. Those whose terms expire April, 1926, are A. L. Newby, N. F. Whitley and J. W. Hardy, while the remaining four hold office until April, 1927.

After a free discussion of the school and its requirements it was agreed that additional room and equipment was badly needed. A $15,000 bond issue election was ordered, the amount to be spent for additional room and furnishing. The election will be held in the near future, probably May 22. A contract of sale and purchase was entered into between the school board and H. C. Burt & Co. of Houston, whereby the latter is to direct all election procedure and if the bond issue carries, to pay for the bonds, which will be 5-1/2 per cent, 40 year bonds, maturing serially, averaging 24 years.

Joe Poindexter, W. L. Pratt and C. M. Hunt were appointed by the school board as a board of equalization, and the county tax assessor and collector were appointed school tax assessor and collector.

Mr. H. J. Bradshaw of Abilene was awarded the contract of architect to submit plans of the new school building and to supervise the work when contract for construction has been awarded. Mr. Bradshaw, as a civil engineer and architect, has few peers, having been employed by Taylor county to oversee the work of the present courthouse; was employed by the city of Abilene as architect of the former high school building, and was employed by the federal government as architect for the weather bureau building in Abilene. Numerous other instances could be cited.

Mr. H. O. Harris, Misses Polly Anna Shaw, Eula Maye Ayres and Beulah Waddell, the present teachers, were elected as teachers for the coming school year. All four have accepted. It is expected the fifth teacher will be employed this week.

This is to announce that your county has been selected as the future home of Thorobred cotton. That means that this strain of cotton (which is the best cotton ever developed from the wonderful Mebane variety) is to be bred and grown in your vicinity with Winters as headquarters.

Our method of bringing forth annual improvements are open for your inspection both as to field and laboratory work, and you are invited to call and go over the matter with us at any time.

Cotton is, beyond a doubt, a staple product, being used by every civilized nation in dozens of forms every day and by almost every civilized individual in the world in some form, therefore, a worthy commodity on which to attempt improvement as so many human beings reap the benefit. Only a few decades ago, before any scientific efforts were made to improve cotton, it required much more gross production to net the grower the same revenue; for instance, some 1600 pounds of seed cotton then were required to give 500 pounds of lint, as against about 1300 pounds with improved cotton now, and the staple was at least no better, it matured later, made less per acre and by reason of inferior bolls was harder to pick.

Now the question is—what will a cotton-breeding plant do for the community? It is unlike a business that draws trade altogether from local territory, as the planting seed is shipped to the four corners of the cotton growing world, thus bringing in outside capital. The profits are equitably divided with the contractors who grow the seed—a bonus plus extra cotton produced by using better seed. The vast amount of correspondence, advertising, etc., necessary to conducting the sales end of a seed business furnish free advertising to the place where located, and the entire community profits directly or indirectly.

We are doing our part toward making a good town still better and, if fair dealing in the best product on earth counts for anything, Winters will soon be known as the home of better cotton and the place to buy pure seed. Let's bring the seed money to Winters instead of sending it away.

We assure you that we will appreciate any interest you may show in the better cotton movement.

Distance Disappeared When the Telephone Came

Do you want to ask a neighbor to meet you downtown?

Possibly you want to tell the doctor how Willie's cold is and ask for instructions. There are the groceries to order.

These things are done with as much ease and speed as if the neighbor and the doctor and the grocer were right there in the room.

You simply use the telephone. It is five minutes out of a day. Without the telephone it would have been half a day's work to attend to the three items.

No community would be worth while without the modern facilities for communication that the telephone brings.

Because it is an essential public service its services are available to all at the lowest reasonable cost. For this reason also their interest in telephone service is as great as the interest of the telephone company.

This company wants its customers to know the company better and to aid the company by cooperating to make the service as good as it can be made—and with the modern progress in this service that will be mighty good.

KEEP THE "WIN" IN WINTERS

Winters High, April 20.—Upon arriving in San Angelo Friday of last week, the Winters winners noticed posters placed in popular places throughout the city which read "Take the Win Out of Winters." Of course this was most impossible and our debaters, declaimers and others proved it.

San Angelo dropped their heads in shame when those real old sports of Winters High made certain to them that it was not only the greatest school in Runnels county, of sixteen counties, but the greatest school in the world.

Although the Freshmen did not represent the school our time is soon to come.

The motto, "Keep the Win in Winters" can be upheld only with the Freshmen and Sophs.

We, the "Fishes," will not let the trophies jump back into the hands of anyone, for they were made for Winters and are here to stay.

THE HIGH SCHOOL SPIRIT.

The High School spirit of our old town,

Is greater by far than any around. It may be hard for you to soak in your brain,

The cause of this spirit, so I'll try to explain.

Our superintendent wears glasses and is as broad as long,

If you get on his toes he will sing you a song,

Yet he always has a smile, very often a joke,

And it is very seldom he is known to provoke;

Therefore, we love him and try to keep his word, for we know it is us he is trying to serve.

Then there is our principal, who sideways can not be seen.

His head and feet are far between;

Whose interest in all is numbered as one.

And is always sure to have his fun. His hair is so red it looks like a crown,

With tassels and everything sticking around,

For it is impossible, you will observe,

To make the stuff lay close to the curve.

But in spite of his looks and unnecessary fat,

He is the best principal that ever wore a hat.

These two of a similar comparison,

Are part of the cause of our great enthusiasm.

Then here are the teachers, a very good line,

If you searched the world over no better could you find;

Always ready to serve you or share your grief,

Working day and night without relief.

With a faculty like this and a bunch with a heart,

Always ready to do their part;

Loyal, honest, straight forward is our rule.

Put them together and you have "Winters High School."

Rev. Ruiz, the missionary to the Mexican people in Runnels, Concho and Nolan counties, will preach for us Sunday evening. Let's give him a good hearing for he has a great message.

Pastor H. H. Stephens returned Monday from Eden, where he has been doing the preaching in a week's revival. He reports a good meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. LaRoque, Inez and Truett LaRoque and Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of Cisco motored over Sunday to attend services at the Baptist church and spend the day with Mrs. LaRoque's brother, Mr. J. T. Fielder, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hunt, Fred and S. E. Hunt, Misses Mary D. Taylor, Bonnie Davidson and Jewelle Nance attended the joint recital of Mrs. Metcalf, senior in piano, and Miss Naomi Hunt, junior in expression, at the Simmons University hall last Monday evening.

We wish to make special mention of Miss Hunt since she is one of our own Winters girls, and she did herself proud in each number she gave.

Miss Hobgood, head of the speaking department of Simmons classes Miss Hunt among her best in expression and predicts for her a great future.

Ballinger People in Car Wreck Near Winters

W. R. Smith of Ballinger is in the ken and other injuries, while Carl sanitarium here with several ribs broken. Wilson is carrying his left arm in a sling, it being broken just above the elbow, as the result of a car wreck which occurred Sunday morning while they were on their way to the American Legion convention at Stamford, the accident taking place on Chalk hill on the Winters-Ballinger highway.

Mr. Smith, who was driving, lost control of his car in some way and went off the embankment at a spot where the grade is about ten feet high. The car turned over once and landed on the top, breaking the top down and doing other damage to the auto.

W. R. Smith, Carl Wilson, E. W. Kilpatrick and Henry Vorbeck were in the car, Kilpatrick and Vorbeck getting off with a few minor bruises and the other two men receiving considerable scratches and bruises in addition to the injuries mentioned.

It was feared at first that Smith was in a worse condition than appeared and he was rushed to the sanitarium as rapidly as possible and medical aid given him. Late reports from his bedside state that he is resting well and aside from feeling sore is doing nicely.
