Former Carbon Citizen Dies At Cisco Home

Funeral services for Jasper A. Elliott, 88, who died at his home in Cisco Sunday at 12:10 p. m. after a long illness, were held Monday at 3 p. m. in the First Methodist Church at Cisco followed by interment in Oakwood cemetery.

Mr. Elliott for many years resided with his family on his farm east of Carbon before moving to Cisco about 25 years ago. He had been a member of the Methodist Church since the age of 19.

Survivors include his widow and nine sons, J. T. and Cecil Elliott of Cisco; Eastland County School Superintendent Carl Elliott of Eastland; Claude Elliott of Houston; Clonus Elliott of Levelland; J. D. and Quay Elliott of Big Spring; and Cyrus and Ed Elliott of San Angelo; one daughter, Mrs. Lora Ford of Cisco, 17 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Carbon Boy Weds In Rites At Maryland

St. Marks Memorial Chapel in Fairland, Maryland was the scene of the marriage of Miss Nancy Olivia Schell, daughter of Mrs. Charles A. Schell and the late Mr. Schell of Kensington, Maryland and Mr. Jesse Elroy Bethany, QM 1-c U. S. N son of Mrs. J. H. Bethany and the late Mr. Bethany of Carbon.

Rev. Wm. P. Anna officiated at the double ring ceremony which took place at 4:00 o'clock on March 17. A reception followed in the parish hall adjoining the church.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Frank E. Schell, the bride was joined in white lace over satin with a fingertip veil fashioned of trench illusion. She carried a white orchid with lilly-of-the-valley treamers on a prayer book. Mrs. Melvin A. Lehman, wearing pink net and lace, served as matron of honor for her sister. The bridesmaids wore gowns of blue net and lace. Miss Susan Schell, 4 year old niece of the bride, served as flower girl. The bride's mother wore burgundy crepe with grey accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Carbon FFA and 4-H Club Boys Livestock Results

Our local F. F. A. and 4-H Club boys did a splendid job taking in ribbons and prize money exhibiting their livestock at the Cisco Livestock Show. Most of the boys who showed livestock at Cisco were also successful at the Ranger show held previously.

Following are the results of the showings:

Ray Burton Norris' two beef calves were placed in the No. 1 grade class and one of the calves was the top animal among the beef calves.

Grover Hallmark showed two Duroc boars that won first and second place in its class under six months of age and his first class boar was also selected as grand champion. He also had a gilt that placed third under six months of age class.

Charles McDaniel's Duroc gilt was selected as the grand champion in the female swine breeding class. His Duroc sow placed first in the sow class.

Bobby Tucker's gilt placed fifth in the class of gilts over 6 months of age.

Joe Edd Reynolds won first place on his Duroc boar over six months of age class. He also showed two jersey heifers that placed third in the white ribbon classes.

Harold Sandlin showed a second place boar over six months of age class.

James E. Guy's jersey cow placed second in the red ribbon class. He also showed a small heifer that won second place in the red ribbon class.

Charles Caraway showed a small jersey heifer calf that won first place in the blue ribbon class.

yellow roses.

The bride attended Montgomery Blair High school and is at present attending Abbott Art School where she will resume her studies after their return from a New York honeymoon. The groom is a graduate of Carbon High School and has served with the U. S. Navy since 1942. He is at present serving aboard the U. S. S. Des Moines.

Economical Easter Dinner Possible With Seasonal Vegetables

MOST OF OUR HOLIDAYS call for big meals that require a lot of preparation. Easter dinner can be different! Delicious to eat, lovely to look at with its generous sprinkling of fresh Spring green color in the foods, and simple to prepare is the Easter dinner if you follow these recipes.

Vegetables for the meal and the salad are seasonal, and thus economical; so, too, is the ice cream with its lovely green plums that require no preparation except the serving.

Lamb Shoulder Roast

Before roasting shoulder of lamb, be sure to note its weight in order to determine the proper cooking time. Low cooking temperature is important for best results. For roasting, wipe meat with a damp cloth, sprinkle with salt and pepper and place on a rack in an open pan. Insert a meat thermometer into a part of the roast which is free from fat and gristle. Roast in a low oven (325°) for 35 minutes per pound or until meat thermometer registers an internal temperature of 182°.

If you like a hint of garlic flavoring in the lamb roast, do this: Grate a clove of garlic and mix with 2 tablespoons olive oil or melted butter. Before roasting, cover the top of the lamb with this mixture, using a pastry brush.

HERE'S A TASTY way to use the leftover portion of the lamb roast:
Creamed Lamb on Toast
(Serves 6)

- 3 cups cold, cooked lamb, diced
- 4 tablespoons flour
- 4 tablespoons butter
- 2 cups milk
- Salt and pepper
- Paprika
- Button Mushrooms

Make a white sauce of the butter, flour and milk. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Add meat and mushrooms, cut in slices. Serve hot on toast triangles. Garnish with a sprinkling of paprika and a sprig of parsley.

- *Quick Celery Crescents
(Makes 1 dozen rolls)
- 1 package dry yeast
- 1/4 cup warm water (105°-110°)
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3 tablespoons soft shortening
- 2 cups sifted flour
- Melted butter
- Celery seeds, salt

Add yeast to water and let stand. Scald milk and pour into a large bowl with sugar, salt and shortening. Blend together and cool to lukewarm. Stir yeast mixture and pour into bowl. Mix in flour, one cup at a time. Place in a greased bowl. Cover with a damp cloth and let rise in a warm place for 30 minutes. Punch down. Toss dough onto lightly floured board. Roll into a 12-inch circle, 1/4-inch thick. Brush with melted butter. Cut into 12 pie-shaped pieces. Stretch wider end of each piece a little as you roll, so the long point winds up on the outside. Curve ends to form a crescent. Brush with beaten egg. Sprinkle with celery seeds and salt. Let rise

If you're fond of leg of lamb, you'll like the similar tasting lamb shoulder roast. It's not only a fine flavored cut of meat, but it also has the distinction of being an economy cut as well. Apricot halves with mint jelly centers offer a simple but tasty garnish.

Let dessert for Easter be easy to prepare, so you can enjoy the holiday. Ice cream is simply placed in a large attractive bowl, then garnished with canned, green gage plums. If desired, roll the plums in shredded almonds or other finely chopped nuts.

- LYNN CHAMBERS EASTER DINNER
- Chilled Apple Juice
 - *Lamb Shoulder Roast, Apricot Garnish
 - *Franconia Potatoes, Celery Crescents
 - *Minted Peas or *Asparagus Polonnaise
 - *Tossed Spring Salad
 - *Ice Cream with Green Gage Plums Beverage
 - *Recipe Given

for 15 minutes. Bake in a hot (400°) oven for 12 to 15 minutes.

Franconia Potatoes
Wash and peel medium-sized potatoes. Rinse well in cold water. Par-boil for 10 minutes, then place in pan in which meat is roasting. Bake until fork tender, about 45 minutes, basting with fat in the pan. Before serving, season with salt and dust with paprika.

Either asparagus or green peas are a good choice for a vegetable with the lamb dinner. Pay special attention to seasonings if you want them to be at their best.

Minted Peas
Cook green peas in a small quantity of boiling, salted water. Season with butter and minced mint leaves. Toss until leaves are well mixed with the peas.

Asparagus Polonnaise
Use fresh or quick-frozen asparagus tips and cook in a small amount of boiling, salted water until tender. In the meantime, melt butter in skillet, and brown fine dry bread crumbs in it. Toss this mixture into the asparagus just before serving.

- *Tossed Spring Salad
(Serves 6)
- 1/2 head lettuce
- Few leaves of leaf lettuce
- 1 medium-sized cucumber
- 1/2 cup sliced radishes
- 1 green pepper
- Salt and pepper
- 2 tablespoons blue cheese, crumbled
- French dressing

Break head lettuce into bite-sized pieces. Arrange on leaves of lettuce. Add cucumber, peeled and sliced with radishes and green pepper which has been sliced. Sprinkle with salt and freshly ground pepper, then cheese. Add French dressing and toss lightly.

- French Dressing
(Makes 1 cup)
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon paprika
- 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/4 cup vinegar
- 1/4 cup salad oil
- 1 teaspoon minced parsley
- 1 clove garlic, cut

Combine all ingredients in a bottle; cover and shake. Chill and use as needed.

Plums for the ice cream dessert may be chilled in advance, though it's not necessary to remove them from cans or jars until almost serving time.

- *Ice Cream with Green Gage Plums
(Serves 6)
- 1 quart vanilla ice cream
- 1 No. 2 1/2 size can green gage plums

Drain syrup from plums. Arrange ice cream in a large bowl with large spoon or scoop. Garnish or surround with the drained plums. Serve immediately with a pitcher of the syrup, drained from the plums.

Painter Feels Good Again

HADACOL Supplies Vitamins B¹, B², Niacin and Iron Which His System Lacked

When a man works hard all day, he has to get a good night's sleep in order to keep going. Take Mr. Tony Wesalick of 1010 Tabor St., Houston, Texas, for example. Up until a few months ago Mr. Wesalick just couldn't sleep, had no appetite, and was bothered with indigestion. Then he heard about HADACOL and started taking it. A painter by profession, Mr. Wesalick says that now he gets up in the morning feeling so rested, and so full of energy that he's almost never tired any more. He eats everything he wants without being troubled with indigestion, and has a wonderful appetite since HADACOL helps overcome his deficiencies of Vitamins B¹, B², Niacin and Iron.

Here is Mr. Wesalick's own statement: "I was run-down and I would get up in the morning feeling as if I hadn't slept at all. My appetite was bad, and I just didn't feel like eating, and when I did eat I had terrible indigestion. After a bottle and a half of HADACOL I felt much better. I have now taken about five more bottles of HADACOL and can eat and enjoy everything I want. I sleep much better and feel more rested. HADACOL has done this for me."

If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana. Send no money. Just your name and address on a penny post card. Pay postman. State whether you want the $3.50 hospital economy size or $1.25 trial size. Remember, money cheerfully refunded unless you are 100% satisfied. —Adv.

Messrs. Eric Johnston and Michael Di Salle, Washington, D. C. Gents:

I once heard of a lifeguard who yelled at a drowning man, "You've got some time to go before you sink for the third time. Let us not get excited," and it reminds me of you boys in your statements to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Public, as they stagger punch-drunk through the rising prices and look to you for comfort. What goes? I don't read a word from you on the high-cost-of-living problem that doesn't sound like you were going into the battle with all the vim and vigor of a couple of lads already conceding that the cause is lost. The only thing you seem to think in steady supply is ice water, and the housewife gets a bucket of it in the face every time she picks up the paper to see what the office of Price Stabilization is doing.

Maybe not much can be done. Perhaps the consumers must be ready to take more punishment. But couldn't you give them a little comfort? Must you slap controls only on those priceless commodities known as rays of hope? From the moment you two took over the job of protecting the public from paying through the nose you have been issuing statements that prices would be a lot higher and the pain would hurt more next summer than ever. I have gone over scores of your statements, and boiled down, they seem to deliver one message to the public: "We are BEHIND you. If you need to be scared further by the outlook, call us!"

You, Mr. Di Salle, chilled us the other day by saying you hoped to hold the rise in prices to between 9 and 10 per cent for the first year, and this on top of what are already the highest prices in history. Is that the frame of mind in which to battle for the American consumer? If he is due to get the works must you treat him like a condemned man? It's a wonder you don't shave his head and offer to escort him to the big jump-off. And you, Mr. Johnston, offer less sunshine and light to Joe Doskes and the family than any crusader in the public interest on record, unless I don't read and hear straight.

How about a few kind words, a flash of hope, a couple of hints now and then that maybe you will try moderately to fix things so we can eat regularly without watering the soup and making counterfeit money? We can stand it, and it shouldn't take too much time from the daily photographic routines. Dizzily yours,
Elmer Twitchell

YE GOTHAM BUGLE

Gert Lawrence opened in "The King and I," the new Hammerstein-Rodgers musical at New Haven, and it was a sellout a month back . . . Governor Lodge of Connecticut was the fall guy at Saints & Sinners jamboree, with Walt Kiernan presiding . . . Linda Darnell got a divorce on the ground that her husband wouldn't stay up to the finish of the house parties. Has a husband got to keep that bored? . . . Mike Todd's Peep Show closing after a nine-month run. Ye ed thinks it would have been good for a couplea years if Mike had stuck to original idea which he had in mind for years, only to abandon in the stretch. It included jackpot awards, an adapting of the old-time audience routines and a Hellza-poppin mood. Still, Michael is a smart showman, so who can tell? . . . Remember away back when Washington's birthday marked the finale of Miami zone season?

VANISHING AMERICANISMS—Taxes are paid in the sweat of every man's brow. "We must consider public reaction to this." "How peaceful everything is!" "The grocery bill won't amount to much this week."

How Sin Begins
Lesson for April 8, 1951

NO ONE can believe in sin who does not believe in God. That is, no one can believe that sin is real unless he believes that God is real. For the meaning of sin is religious; it cannot be understood at all, apart from God. For sin means going contrary to the will of God. Sin may not consist of "doing" anything, of course; it may be only wishing or thinking against God; or it may be refusing to do, or neglecting to do, what God wants done.

Dr. Foreman

A thing is not right just because God wills it; he could not, by a mere proclamation, make murder good and mother-love wicked. But God never wills a thing unless it is right, or forbids it unless it is wrong; one reason for this is that he is creator of all, and so knows what is best for every creature.

Sin on the Outside

HOW does sin begin? The Bible says sin has been on this earth as long as people have lived there. But the story of the temptation in the Garden of Eden is also a parable of how sin always begins.

Now we can see in this story that sin came into the world because there came a suggestion from the outside. Not everything in this universe is now good; there is anti-God at work, as well as pro-God. There are forces at work that do not wish God's plans to succeed.

If this seems hard to take, at least it cannot be denied that a great many sins would never have been committed without some pull from the outside. A child who goes to school for the first time will pick up, in a few days, habits and language and attitudes that shock the parents. They wonder what's got into the child. Her playmates' meanness has got into her, that's the nub of it.

Sin on the Inside

BUT the fact is, we can't blame the situation as if the situation were the sinner.

If it were simply the situation that makes the sin, then every bank clerk would be as dishonest as the worst, and every man who passes a bar would not pass it but go inside and get drunk just like the bums who can't pass a bar-room door.

No, there is something on the inside of us that pushes toward sin. What is it? The story in Genesis may offer a good clue. One of the New Testament writers put it this way: "A man's temptation is due to the pull of his own inward desires, which can be enormously attractive." (James 1:14, J. B. Phillips translation.)

Sin Beforehand

THERE is another sad feature of sin that stands out in the Genesis story and in the story of Everyman. That is, sin almost never looks the same afterwards as it did before.

Before the sin, Eve sees the forbidden fruit as beautiful and desirable; afterwards in shame she hides away from God. Living with herself, with her husband, with God, is no longer the pleasure it had been.

In the last stages of sin, to be sure, it may be quite different; a man may be caught in the grip of a habit he hates, and no one can call him worse names than he calls himself. But in the beginnings of sin, few if any persons see anything repulsive, or bad in what they are about to do.

That is why "I do as I please" is a fatally bad rule for living. If you do as you please, sooner or later you will please wrong, and down you will go. Adam and Eve did exactly as they pleased, and lost their Paradise.

The Way it Happened . . .

IN DAYTON . . . A housewife, equipped with field glasses, hired Miami Valley Flying Service to circle over Wright Patterson Air Force Base, where her husband works, because "I want to find out where he goes after he leaves the field and before he comes home."

IN MILWAUKEE . . . Mrs. Evelyn Hamber, 52, was charged with disorderly conduct for spitefully ordering seven ambulances and six hearses to the home of a woman acquaintance.

IN BALTIMORE . . . Chairman Gordon Fleet of the Maryland Game and Inland Fishing Commission and Lester Towner, member of the Maryland Board of Natural Resources, were each fined $25 for illegal hunting.

IN SAULT-STE. MARIE, ONT. . . Salesman Edward Certin paid the manager of a restaurant $1.10 to keep the jukebox quiet during his lunch.

Says New Dry Yeast has helped her to success

Wins 92 ribbons in cooking contests at Oklahoma Fairs

Mrs. Alice Allenbach of Cherokee, Oklahoma, has made an enviable record as a prize-winning cook. In 1950 alone she won 92 awards for her food exhibits—at the State Fair and at Oklahoma County Fairs.

Mrs. Allenbach is another of the many prize-winning cooks who praise Fleischmann's New Improved Active Dry Yeast. "This New Dry Yeast gives me grand results," she says. "It's faster rising, easier to use."

Now's the time for lots of yeast-raised goodies. Make Lenten and holiday meals more delicious, more satisfying with delectable, wholesome treats made with yeast.

And when you bake at home—use the fastest, easiest yeast yet! Fleischmann's New Improved Active Dry Yeast dissolves in a few moments—it's faster rising, easier to use. Buy several packages today—you'll like it.

CHOCOLATE FLUFF CAKE
A Snowdrift Quick-Method Recipe
Sift together into a large bowl:
2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
3 teaspoons double-action baking powder (or 4 tsp. single-action)
1 teaspoon salt 1 1/2 cups sugar
Add: 1/2 cup Snowdrift 3/4 cup milk
Mix enough to dampen flour. Beat 2 minutes. If by hand, count beating time only. With electric mixer use "low speed." Scrape bowl often; scrape beaters after 2 minutes.
Add: 3 eggs 1 teaspoon vanilla 1/4 cup milk
Beat 1 minute. Bake in 2 greased 9-inch layer pans, lined with plain paper, in moderate oven (375° F.) about 25 minutes. Cool. Frost with—
CHOCOLATE FLUFF FROSTING: Cream 4 tablespoons Snowdrift with 1/4 cup sifted confectioners' sugar. Add 1 teaspoon vanilla and 3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted, and blend. Beat 2 egg whites until stiff; add 1/4 cup sifted confectioners' sugar (2 tablespoons at a time) and beat after each addition. Continue beating until mixture stands in peaks. Fold into chocolate mixture. Frost cake. Decorate with pastel colored mints cut in half. (See picture.)
