March of Dimes is the main source of financing polio patient care and polio research.

Methodist News

Lively Brown, Pastor
A saint whose name is fragrant over the whole world, was once asked to put in a sentence what had brought such joy and victory into his life and he answered in the words of the Psalmist, "I have set the Lord always before me." That is the secret of everything; that is the true source of comfort; that is the solution of every spiritual difficulty. In the world you can never learn anything beyond that, and nowhere on earth can you do that.

School Week

The week of March 4th through 10th has been proclaimed as SCHOOL WEEK in Texas by the governor, the legislature, the Texas Educational Agency, and the Masonic Lodge. This has been done in order that parents may learn more about what the schools are doing in the state.

A meeting for patrons and friends of education has been called in our local High School auditorium for Monday night at 7:30 so that a few phases of the school program may be discussed. There will be speakers from the faculty, the school board and community. All parents are urged to be present at this meeting. If you are unable to attend at this time you are urged to visit your school some time during the week.

Let your child and your school know that you are interested by being present Monday night and then by a visit some time during the week.

Intertainment will be furnished by local students.

Henry Collins, who was taken to the Blackwell Sanitarium last Friday suffering from influenza, was able to return home this week where he is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Hines Entertain with 42 Party

Mrs. Henry Hines entertained the members and their husbands the annual Valentine 42 party at their home Friday evening, Feb. 16.

Games of 42 were played during the evening. Refreshments of Timbales topped with cherries and whipped cream, salted nuts and coffee were served to the following:

Messrs. and Mmes. C. S. Eldridge, W. J. Greer, C. C. Gilbert, Glenn Justice, B. B. Poe, D. D. Sandlin, C. C. Stubblefield, guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wyatt and Mrs. Lonnie McCurry, the host and hostess.

Senior Play

The Senior Class of Carbon High School will present its annual play Friday night, March 9, at 7:30 in the high school auditorium. Prices are 35c for all school children and those under school age, 50c for adults.

Everyone is invited to come and help solve the mystery of lights that go off and on by themselves, of a strange whisper that is "unattached to any human being," and of other strange, unexplainable happenings.

When wax polish begins to look streaky on the furniture, it's usually time to remove the old wax that's gotten mixed with dirt and has collected on the surface. Mild soap and lukewarm water will serve the purpose, but don't let the soap remain on the furniture for any length of time. Be sure, also, to polish or re-wax the furniture immediately after the washing.

Fish Demand Careful Cooking to Preserve Delicate Full Flavor

MANY PEOPLE WHO really like fish have accustomed themselves to the disagreeable odors that often go with its cookery; many more people would be very fond of fish if it didn't fill the house with odors during its preparation.
 How few home-makers realize that the cooking of fish entails no unpleasant smell! Here is a delicate food that is tender and tasty. When cooked only to the point of doneness, at proper temperature, its only odor is as savory as that of nicely cooked chicken or beefsteak!
 Many of the broiled fish recipes call for high temperature, but for only a short time. If cooked just so, fish can be downright delicious. Do give it a chance.

YOU NEED DO little to fish to make it pleasing. It's tender and juicy, easy to prepare, delightful for meal variety. It can be seasoned or served with sauce, but in every way, it's good.

Creole Salmon (Serves 4)
 1 pound can pink salmon
 1 egg
 1 green pepper, finely diced
 1 small onion, finely diced
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon green pepper
 1 teaspoon chili powder
 1 cup canned tomatoes
 1 cup bread crumbs
 3 sprigs parsley, diced finely
 2 tablespoons butter
 Mix salmon and egg in saucepan. Add chopped green pepper and onion, seasonings, tomatoes and half the crumbs. Simmer for 10 minutes. Add minced parsley, cook 5 minutes longer. Turn into greased casserole, or individual baking dishes, sprinkle with remaining bread crumbs and bake in hot oven (400°) until crumbs are brown. Serve white hot.

Spanish Style Fish (Serves 4-6)
 4 cod steaks
 2 egg yolks
 Flour
 1/2 cup oil
 3 tablespoons honey
 3 tablespoons lemon juice
 1/4 teaspoon allspice
 Cut steaks into serving pieces. Add 2 tablespoons water to egg yolks and beat slightly. Dip fish into egg yolks and then into flour; brown quickly on both sides in hot oil. Add honey, lemon juice and allspice and simmer fish until all liquid is absorbed, about 5 minutes, turning once.

*Baked Fillet of Fish (Serves 6)
 6-8 fillets of lean fish (sole, haddock, bluefish)
 2 tablespoons butter or salad oil
 2 teaspoons chopped onion or 1 clove garlic, very finely minced
 1 bay leaf, broken very fine
 2 tomatoes, skinned, thickly sliced
 1 green pepper, sliced
 Juice 1 lemon
 Salt, pepper
 Melt butter. Add onion (or garlic) minced, with bay leaf, stir over low heat until soft. Arrange tomato slices with over-lapping slices of green peppers to cover bottom of Broiled lobster tails are a favorite with many for a good fish dinner. They will broil quickly, and are done when they turn a deep, rich pink. Serve them with lemon wedges and mayonnaise.

Chunks from cooked lobster tails are seasoned and mixed with egg and bread crumbs to make these lobster fries. Serve with a tangy tartar sauce, French fried potatoes and green salad for a satisfying meal.

large shallow baking dish. Sprinkle the sauted onion or garlic over top. Add salt and pepper. Arrange the fish fillets on this "bed" of tomatoes and peppers. Sprinkle with lemon juice, salt and pepper. Cover with waxed paper; bake in moderate oven (350°) 20-30 minutes. Pour over this Mustard Hollandaise Sauce. Brown under broiler. Serve at once.

*Mustard Hollandaise Sauce
 3 egg yolks
 3 teaspoons dry mustard
 1 teaspoon tarragon vinegar
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 Cayenne pepper
 2 tablespoons cream
 6 tablespoons butter
 Mix in medium small bowl (or top of double boiler) the egg yolks, mustard, tarragon vinegar, salt, cayenne pepper, cream. Place over hot water (not boiling) and beat until mixture begins to thicken. Add butter, bit by bit, stirring continuously until sauce is rich and creamy. Remove from over water. If too thick, thin with a little additional cream.

Broiled Rock Lobster Tails (Serves 4)
 4 small rock lobster tails
 1/2 cup melted butter
 1 tablespoon lemon juice
 3 tablespoons chopped parsley
 Salt and pepper

Crack heavy back shell of lobster tails lengthwise to make tail lie flat. Turn lobster over and remove thin under shell with scissors. Combine butter, lemon juice, parsley, salt and pepper. Preheat oven and broiling pan at 400°. Place lobster tails on back on pan, brush with butter and set pan about 4 inches from heat. Basting frequently with butter, broil about 15 minutes or until lobster tails are well browned. Serve hot or cold with lemon wedges and mayonnaise.

Rock Lobster Fries (Serves 6)
 2 1/2 pounds boiled rock lobster tails
 1 1/2 cups flour
 2 tablespoons salt
 1 1/2 teaspoons pepper
 1 1/2 teaspoons paprika
 3 eggs, beaten
 3 cups fine bread or cracker crumbs
 Butter
 Tartar Sauce
 Lemon slices
 Watercress

Remove cooked meat from lobster tails; cut into egg-sized chunks. Roll lightly in a mixture of flour and seasonings. Dip floured pieces in beaten eggs. Roll in fine bread or cracker crumbs. Melt enough butter to fill 1/4 inch depth in skillet. Saute lobster until nicely browned on all sides. Serve with tartar sauce, garnish with lemon slices and watercress.

Tartar Sauce (Makes 1 1/2 cups)
 1 cup mayonnaise
 1 tablespoon chopped onion or chives
 2 tablespoons chopped olives
 1 tablespoon chopped sweet pickle
 1 tablespoon chopped sour pickle
 1 tablespoon chopped pimiento
 1 tablespoon capers
 Mix all ingredients, blending well.

When a typewriter ribbon begins to get vague, it can be revived with stamp-pad ink, applied sparingly to the top of the ribbon as the ribbon is wound from one spool to the other. Or, dip a toothpick in ordinary mineral oil and dab bits of it over the entire length of the ribbon at intervals of one inch. A few hours later the ribbon will be ready to make a firm impression on whatever confronts it.

Not in Constitution
The Constitution says nothing about the number of justices; it requires only a court and chief justice. By the judiciary act of 1789 congress called for five associate justices. In 1807 the number was changed to six; in 1837 to eight; and in 1863 to nine. In 1869 the present number of eight associate justices and one justice was set.

Sharp Characters Act At Ease With Others
WHY is a sharp character sharp and why is a sad sack sad? Why do some guys and girls seem at ease with others? Why do others with just as many assets seem to be beating their brains out trying to decide what to do with their hands?
It's all a matter of learning to control your outward actions, no matter how awkward you feel, says Holly Miller, whose column in nationally circulated Capper's Farmer is a popular feature among teen age boys and girls as well as their elders.
"The smoother you act, the smoother you feel," she counsels.
"To be well-groomed may cost you an effort, but don't let it show. Mend your clothes by midnight oil, get up at dawn to press your suit, spend half an hour before your mirror getting your make-up right—if you must. Then forget your appearance."
"Boys, that means no fussing with ties and trying to make a crease where there should be one. Girls, that means no peeking in mirrors, no patting your hair, no pulling of clothes and straightening of stocking seams."
Among Miss Miller's suggestions for cultivating poise and ease are: Stand up straight; Look 'em straight in the eye; Avoid rearmenisms; Don't talk with your hands.
"Beat your gums—but not so loud," she advises. "A shrill, loud voice is curdling to the spirit. On that same subject, resounding giggles and horselaughs are strictly for the birds."

Interruptions
Lesson for March 4, 1951

PEOPLE KEEP making your life shorter every day. For time is the stuff of which life is made, and you never do have a full 24 hours a day. After taking out what has to be spent in sleep, eating and so on, and taking out what has to be spent on your job, whatever it is, there still ought to be a few hours to call your own. But if you are like most people, you live from one interruption to another. If it isn't the telephone it's the door-bell. The more important you are, the more you are likely to be interrupted.

Dr. Foreman

Unscheduled Stops
THE LIFE of the Master himself, to judge from what we read in the Gospels, was a long series of interruptions. The tenth chapter of Mark is a good example. Jesus himself at this time had one great thing in mind: the Cross. He was going up to Jerusalem not to talk to beggars or to listen to lawyers' arguments or to hold interviews with puzzled young people. He was going to die.

A man on his death-bed might be spared interruptions. He could not be blamed if he said to interrupters one and all: "Sorry, I can't be bothered. See my assistants if there is anything you want done."

But Jesus did not say anything of the kind. He did not fume over the unscheduled stops on his life's highway. He took time to clear up misunderstandings; he took time for little children when even his best friends thought he ought not to be disturbed; he took time to answer the question of the rich young man.

Ministries by the Wayside
JESUS DID not always take the initiative in every situation, though indeed he controlled every situation. When the Pharisees asked him about marriage he did not say, "Let's not talk about marriage; let me suggest the topic of salvation instead." When the young man ran up to him, Jesus did not ask: "Did you have an appointment for an interview?" Jesus not only did not resent other people's initiative. He never seems to have resented an interruption in his life.

Does this example of Jesus mean that we ought not to plan our days ahead of time, or that we ought never to try to "budget" our time? Must we never plan any project, but always wait till other people suggest what we are to do?

Not at all. The example of Jesus means that if and when interruptions occur, if we share his spirit we shall not be irritated by them or resent them. For what Jesus did, always, was to make use of the interruption. Each one was turned into a "Wayside Ministry." Indeed, a large part—some would say the larger part—of Jesus' life was made up of just such by-the-way ministries.

Life's By-the-Ways
HOW MANY of Jesus' teachings we would never have had, if no one had interrupted him or asked him questions! How many of his miracles would never have been done if he had refused to perform any but those he planned and scheduled himself!

In Jesus' story of the Good Samaritan (no doubt an incident from real life) we are not told what were the original errands of the priest, the Levite and the Samaritan. Very likely the first two were on time for their appointments.

But the priest and the Levite missed a wonderful chance, just because the poor beaten traveler was not, so to speak, on their agenda. The Samaritan was delayed, and maybe bothered, by what he did for the man in trouble. But what he was willing to do by the way, something he had not planned for at all, won him the immortality of the Master's praise.

Kirk will serve in Gorman and Frank Robinson in Rising Star. Mrs. M. W. Greiger will serve as rural chairman which comprises Carbon, Desdemona, Olden and the rest of the county.

The county quota of $6000 has been broken down in the following manner: Eastland, $1500; Cisco, $1500; Ranger, $1500; Gorman, $500; Rising Star, $500; Rural communities, $500.

The 1951 fund raising campaign which runs through the month of March opened Tuesday night in New York City with a mass rally in Madison Square Garden which was broadcast over major networks from coast to coast and to the Armed Forces around the World. Each community will have its own opening rally, times and places for which will be announced within a few days by local chairmen.

 W. M. DUNN, Publisher

THE STATE OF TEXAS TO MILDRED M. FIELD, IF LIVING, AND IF NOT, TO THE UNKNOWN HEIRS AND LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES OF MILDRED M. FIELD, DECEASED:

You are hereby summoned to appear before the District Court of Eastland County, Texas, to be held in the Court House in the City of Eastland, Eastland County, Texas, on the 26th day of March, A. D. 1951, at 10:00 o'clock A. M., same being the 4th Monday of March, A. D., 1951, then and there to answer the petition filed in this court on the 7th day of February, 1951, in cause No. 20,950, wherein Ben W. Clyatt and wife Gwendolynne Clyatt, Bascom Franklin Hatton, Joseph W. Hatton, Fannie Lucille High, a widow, Madeline Louise Sellers and husband Owen Sellers, Leo A. Hatton, Delores Taylor Platt and husband, William J. Platt, Arthur Gale Taylor, a minor and Chester A. Taylor are Plaintiffs and Mildred M. Field, if living, and if not, the unknown heirs and legal representatives of Mildred M. Field, deceased is defendant, in which cause Plaintiffs allege that they are the record owners of 312/360 of the minerals in and under the 1/2 of the Northwest 1/4 of Section 31, Block 4, H. & T. C. Ry. Co. Survey in Eastland County, Texas, save and except 15 acres in the form of a square out of the Southeast Corner thereof.

That the Defendant Mildred M. Field has been absent from Eastland County and from the State of Texas for more than five years prior to the filing of said suit and that the residence of the Defendant Mildred M. Field is unknown; that the Defendant Mildred M. Field is the record owner of an undivided 48/360 mineral interest in the above described tract of land; that said Defendant has not paid any taxes on said mineral interest and has not rendered same for taxes at any time during the last five years immediately preceding the filing of such suit. Plaintiffs seek to have a receiver appointed for the purpose of selling an oil and gas lease on the interest of said Defendant in the land above described in accordance with Article 2320-b of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas.

Issued and given under my hand and seal of the District Court of Eastland County, Texas, this the 7th day of February, A. D. 1951.
 ROY L. LANE
 Clerk of the District Court of Eastland County, Texas.
