Don't Forget Clean-Up Day Tues. May 3rd

The City Council has designated May 3rd, the first Tuesday in May as Clean-Up Day for Carbon and requests that all trash be properly sacked or boxed and placed conveniently along the street for the pick-up truck.

The public is hereby notified to strictly observe our stock law by keeping their stock from running at large.

The City Council also made arrangements with our County Commissioner to pull the hoses on all streets and request the cooperation of all citizens in order that we might have better drainage and better streets.

J. W. Jackson, Mayor

Sgt. Snodgrass On 30-Day Furlough

Sergeant Willie J. Snodgrass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ebert B. Snodgrass of Carbon, is taking a 30-day furlough from duty with the 2nd Communication Squadron of the 2nd Air Base Group. He has reelected to fill his own vacancy in the base radio repair shop. Entering the service in April 1946 at Eighth Air Force Headquarters at Fort Worth, Texas, Sergeant Snodgrass served overseas in Japan from 1946 to 1948.

The 2nd Bombardment Wing is one of the oldest in the Air Force with a history dating back to September 1918. The Wing is now in the process of moving from Tucson, Arizona and will be equipped with B-50 medium bombers similar to the "Lucky Lady II" which made the non-stop flight around the world last February.

Devoe Dover and family and Mrs. Rosa McCall visited Mrs. Billie Dañen of Olden Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fox and children of Olden spent Sunday with her parents, Eibert Snodgrass and wife.

4-H Clubber Takes Fox-Trapping Crown New York State Rates Raymond Premru Best

The title of New York's fox-trapping champion for 1948 is held by Raymond Premru, of Gorham in Ontario county.

The youthful 4-H club member led the list of 800 trappers from 32 counties with a total catch of 50 during the year. Second honors went to Gene Gage, of RFD 1, Canandaigua, who trapped 42. Tied for third with 34 foxes apiece were Russell Kilian, of Cowlesville, and William Smith, Jr., of Ancramdale.

With the side of his garage piled high with pelts, here is Gene Gage, of RFD 1, Canandaigua, New York state, who trapped 42 foxes during 1948 and won honors in the statewide contest.

The 800 trappers in the contest accounted for 1,691 foxes, with red-pelted specimens outnumbering the gray animals six to one, according to Prof. D. B. Fales, assistant 4-H club leader. After four years, a total of 8,768 foxes have been trapped by rural boys of the state.

Some 60 county trapping champions were honored at the banquet which brought the 1948 season to a close. Agricultural and conservation officials and adult professional trappers attended the ceremony and watched the presentation of awards. Premru, the state champion, received a repeating shotgun as top prize. Other awards totaling about $250 in value were presented other trappers and pelt preparation winners.

The New York state poultry council, the state Farm Bureau federation, the state conservation council and the American Agriculturist cooperated in sponsoring the program of awards, entertainment and banquet.

The annual fox trapping contest is conducted by the New York state extension service in cooperation with those agencies and the state conservation department.

New Crop Blower

A new farm machine that saves the farmer time and labor by automatically blowing forage wherever he wants it has been placed on the market by the New Holland Machine company.

This new crop blower can swallow blow it anywhere the farmer wants up to 20 tons of hay per hour and to store it. Or, if the farmer is filling his silo, the blower handles up to 25 tons of chopped corn an hour.

Weighing 1,350 pounds, the blower has 12-foot hopper for receiving crops from the field. A patented leveling device keeps the forage flowing evenly into a large throat which feeds a 42-inch flywheel. Whirling at speeds up to 1,200 r. p.m., this huge "fan" blows crops through an eight-inch pipe wherever the farmer wants to "aim" it

It All Depends

Auto Examiner—Do you know what it means if a driver puts out a hand? Applicant—Well, if it's a woman, it means she is going to turn right or left, shake the ashes off her cigarette, or reverse or stop, or she's pointing to a hat store, or admiring her ring, or— Examiner—Yeah, and if it's a man? Applicant—Why, he's usually waving at a woman.

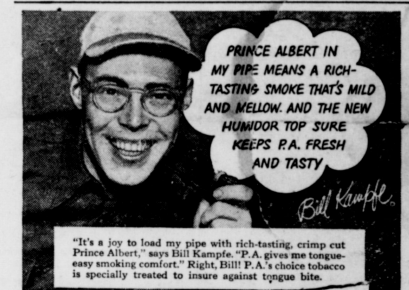

Daring Invitation

Little Butch was going to have a party. His mother insisted that he invite a neighbor's boy with whom he had had an argument. He finally promised to do so, but on the day of the party the neighbor's boy failed to turn up. Butch's mother became suspicious. "Did you invite Johnny?" she asked. "Of course I did, mother," Butch replied. "I not only invited him to come, but I dared him."

Elements of Salt Interchangeable

Chemically speaking, common table salt is a true compound consisting of the elements sodium and chlorine; nothing more and nothing less. Its complete interchangeability can be demonstrated by merely heating the salt red hot until it melts and passing an electric current through the molten liquid; the resulting products will be sodium—soft, shining metal—and yellow chlorine gas.

If the experiment is followed through and the sodium thus obtained is warmed gently to render it molten and plunged back into the aforesaid chlorine gas, the two elements will unite, burst into flame and burn back into pure white everyday table salt.

 DEVOTIONAL READING: Matthew 11:2-10

Jesus Is King

Lesson for May 1, 1949

IT IS A SIN to tell the truth out of season. So declares a famous Protestant creed. It is not always good nor wise to tell everybody everything you know. Keeping your mouth shut may be one of the best things you ever do.

Jesus himself never uttered an untruth about himself, but for a long time he did not openly declare his conviction, in spite of being pestered to say Yes or No about it.

Dr. Foreman

The question was: Are you the Messiah? This was the same as asking, Are you the King? Jesus would not say Yes, because the mere word would be taken to mean "revolutionist" or "traitor." But he would not say No, because he was a king; indeed of all men he had the best right to the title.

Royal Entrance

BUT WHEN the time came, Jesus did declare himself king in a spectacular way. We know the story as the "Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem," the story of Palm Sunday, now so fresh in our minds. Jesus lived in a nation of people who were familiar with the meaning of symbols, both in word and action.

When Jesus rode into the ancient capital where his forefathers reigned, astride a mule, colt, the people knew, and he knew they would know, that this was not just somebody riding a mule on a Sunday morning. In the history of the Hebrews, mules were the steeds of kings.

King Solomon was crowned riding on a mule. That was a famous prophecy (Zech. 9:9) that when Jerusalem's great king should come, he would be riding on just such a royal steed. So when Jesus rode into Jerusalem, the people threw their palm branches and shouted their welcome, not to the teacher and prophet, but to the King.

Master of the Temple

BOLDER THAN JESUS' triumphant entry was what he did inside the city. It was one thing to claim royal rights over the nation; but at the temple Jesus' claims reached far higher. It should be remembered that in the eyes of all Jews at that time the Temple was absolutely sacred. It represented the dwelling-place of the invisible God. Now the priests at the time were more profiteers and politicians than priests. They carried on what today we call a "racket" in the sale of animals for sacrifice and in changing the ordinary money of all countries into the local Jewish shekel (in which coin alone could temple offerings be paid).

The racket was notorious; every decent Jew hated the priestly profiteers. But no one had ever done anything about it, for that would mean assuming an authority over the temple that no man dared to assume.

But Jesus took it on himself. His direct and even violent action in smashing the racketeering ring was a mark of something more than ordinary self-confidence. He laid claim to being no less than the Master of God's Temple. He was acting in the name of God and with the authority of God.

Master of Man

WHEN THE CHRISTIAN church calls Jesus "Lord" and "King" today, we are making no claim for him which he did not make for himself. What we mean by these titles is that Jesus Christ, for us and for all men, is the authority above all others.

Peanut Seed

We are offering for sale again this season the uniformly graded peanut seed which proved so successful last season. We have selected the best peanuts we purchased in Texas and Oklahoma and stored them separately for planting seed. These are free from damage and have a high sound Mature Kernel content. They will be carefully shelled, graded and hand picked. Your choice of Arasan, Ceresan or Spergon treatment. You are invited to see our stock of peanuts before they are shelled. The Oklahoma peanuts made a higher yield per acre than Texas peanuts and averaged a higher SMK content. You may prefer them for seed.

We are now booking seed peanuts at 20 cents per pound. A small deposit will protect you from any increase in price.

Fertilizer

Introducing the Heart Of Texas Brand Peanut Special Fertilizer. By adding trace elements to the Guaranteed Food Analysis, we have developed a more complete plant food.

This new fertilizer contains Manganese Sulphate, Copper Sulphate, Zinc Sulphate, Iron Sulphate and Borax. These are present in small but important quantities. Also the use of some ground peanut hulls add plant food value to the fertilizer and makes it put out better. Come by and let us explain the advantages of this new fertilizer.
