

Funeral Rites For Mrs. McAlister Held Monday

Last rites for Mrs. Martha Jane McAlister, 85, were conducted from the Long Branch Baptist Church Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Rev. W. L. Massee, Pastor of the Carbon Baptist Church, officiating. Interment was in the Long Branch cemetery with Hamner Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. McAlister was born in Walker County, Ga. April 19, 1857, and departed this life Dec. 13, 1942 at 2:25 p. m. being 85 years, 7 months and 24 days of age.

She was married to Wm. J. Ferguson Dec. 15, 1875 at Greenwood, Ark. Two children were born to this union, Mrs. Nannie Hatfield of Ada, Okla. and W. J. Ferguson, Jr.

On Oct. 23, 1883 she was married to H. T. H. McAlister at Greenwood, Ark. Six children were born to this union as follows: Roy McAlister of Plainview, Mrs. W. L. Lewis of Carbon, Earl McAlister who died in 1920, Miss Esther McAlister of Dallas and two who passed away in infancy.

Mrs. McAlister was converted at the age of 24 and joined the Missionary Baptist church near Greenwood, Ark. and came to Texas in 1892 and located on a farm south of Carbon where she was living at the time of her death.

Besides her immediate family she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. J. A. Hearn of Carbon and Mrs. Z. H. Boen of Long Branch, also 18 grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral Last Thursday For Cisco Citizen

Funeral services for Elbert Bartley Owen, who died in a hospital at Ranger, were held last Thursday at Cisco with Rev. D. F. Martin conducting assisted by Rev. T. G. Story and Rev. W. L. Massee of Carbon. Burial was in the Carbon cemetery.

Mr. Owen had been in the barber business with his brother in Cisco more than 16 years. He was converted while in France during World War I.

He is survived by his wife and daughter and a host of other relatives including an uncle, J. L. Rhyme of Carbon.

Former Carbon Girl Is Wed Recently

Announcement has been received by friends here of the marriage of Miss Anna Pearl Puett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Puett of Plainview, to Pvt. M. E. Hodge who is with a paratroop division and stationed in Washington. Mrs. Hodge resided in Carbon before moving to Plainview with her parents several years ago. She is a graduate of Plainview High School and Wayland College. She took her degree at Texas Tech. Lubbock, and for more than a year has been in Washington where she is employed in the Office of Strategic Services. She will continue working.

Card Of Thanks

We take this means of thanking our many friends for the many deeds of kindness and sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement.

Mrs. Harris' Children.

All Farms Will Be Enlisted In Fall Scrap Drive

WASHINGTON - Organization of a late fall and winter Scrap Harvest Program designed to get an all-out salvage offensive, has been completed by the Executive Secretaries of Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana. The plan, as outlined in a bulletin to the county chairmen of the three states, may well serve as a model for other agricultural states and communities.

Timed to fit into the schedules of farmers, the plan entails the steps of an intensive drive to round up and deliver to official salvage depots all farm scrap before January 1, 1943, beginning with the close of crop harvest. The actual start of the drive will wait on frosts to kill high weeds in fields, ditches and along fence rows so waste of heavy and other materials will be visible to the "hunters."

The harvest scrap army in Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana will include farm implement blockmen and dealers; field representatives of the Rural Electrification Administration, assigned through R. E. A. cooperatives; detachments from U. S. Army, with trucks to assist in collecting the hard-to-move scrap; Department of Agriculture War Board members; County Agents and Home Demonstration Agents; Victory and Long Branch chapters; leaders of the Extension Service; 4-H Clubs and Future Farmers; WPA and the local press.

Local Man Sustains Painful Burns Sunday

Marvyn Mays sustained painful burns about his face Sunday afternoon while cleaning the gas line of his car when the gas in the line was ignited from a lighted match. He was rushed to the Doctor's office where he received treatment. The burns were painful but not serious and he will be back on his job in a few days.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to thank the people of Carbon and Long Branch for every kindness, every word of sympathy and every effort made to make our sorrow lighter during our recent bereavement. May God bless and comfort you when such hours of sorrow come to you.

The McAlister Children.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gilbert announce the arrival of a baby girl last Thursday morning at the Blackwell Sanitarium. The baby weighed six and one-half pounds and has been christened Iris Carolyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Athel M. Claiborn announce the arrival of a baby girl Saturday, December 12, at the Blackwell Sanitarium. She has been named Judith Carolyn. She is the 12th grandchild on the paternal side, born on the 12th day of the 12th month. Mr. and Mrs. H. Hull are the maternal grandparents.

Ralph Martin Is Buried At Long Branch

Funeral services for Ralph Martin, 43, were held at the Long Branch Baptist Church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. H. D. Christian of Olden officiating, followed by burial in the Long Branch cemetery. He had been a member of that church since he was 16 years old. Mr. Martin died in a Ranger hospital Monday morning after a short illness.

He is the son of M. B. Martin and had lived around Carbon most of his life but was living in Cisco at the time of his death.

Besides his father he is survived by his widow and six children as follows: Billie, Cleopha, Barbara, Don, Billie Ray and Joe Wayne. Also the following brothers and sisters: Beek Martin of Carbon, Mrs. Billie Carter of Loveland, Mrs. Dan Martin of Eastland, Ray Martin who is in the army, Guy Martin of Ohio and Mrs. Essie Fulson of Ohio.

Gets Promotion

Word has been received from Bob Collins, who is stationed at Fort Belvoir, Ill., that he has been promoted to the rank of Sgt. This is a splendid record for Bob since he has been in the service only about two and one-half months. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Collins of Carbon and formerly lived here.

Jack Murphy and Wayne Wyatt reported to Fort Worth this week where they joined the marines.

Pfc. Frank Clement of Massachusetts and his mother, Mrs. Mamie Clement of German visited relatives here Sunday.

Victory Rally To Be Held At High School Tonight

The students and faculty of the Carbon Schools, together with citizens of the community will gather in the High School auditorium Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The meeting will have a four-fold purpose; first, to aid in the War Effort; second, to help maintain our morale; third, to increase our personal savings; and fourth, to enjoy some good entertainment.

This meeting is called by proclamation of Governor Coke R. Stevenson, and similar meetings are to be held in all other Texas High Schools on the same night. Texas is the first state in the union to promote the sale of War Bonds and Stamps in this manner. We are glad to cooperate with the State Department of Education, and to meet with our friends and neighbors in a patriotic effort to help win the war.

The high point of the program will be the recognition of the most popular boy and girl in high school, in a victory pageant, with appropriate music, costumes and stage setting. Other features will be assembly singing, the showing of a motion picture, local quartet and other local talent.

Admission will be free, provided that each person who attends buys a war stamp at the door or has already bought a bond or stamps from some of the students. Let's show our loyalty to the boys who are sacrificing all for us.

Pvt. Ed Jackson of Tarrant Field visited his mother, Mrs. Mary Jackson, this week.

Mrs. Thurman Payne and little son returned to their home at Baird Tuesday after visiting her mother, Mrs. J. W. Vaughn.

Wendell Willkie and Global Politics
By Frank Gerassi

(WNU Feature—Through special arrangement with Collier's Weekly)

Wendell Willkie's recent visit to the Middle East was the second of two memorable events during the last days of August and early September. The first, of course, was the defeat of Rommel's Afrika Korps. This, among other things, caused stocks to rise on the Cairo Bourse. The victory over Rommel removed an immediate threat to Egypt and at least put our side in a position to resume the initiative—as they say in treaties on war. The enemy lost a considerable quantity of men and weapons. The myth of Rommel's invincibility was destroyed in a brief but bitter battle which was over almost before anybody knew it had begun. It was as brief as it was hot and almost as destructive to the German war machine as a short circuit in a generator.

There's no tendency here, however, for the British to overestimate the damage done to the Afrika Korps or to underestimate Rommel's ability to recuperate.

Two Events Coincide.
The two events—the victorious battle and Willkie's arrival—coincided so closely that they became confused. The newspaper boys hardly had time to cover the first event before it telescoped into the second, and they were very busy with the second. The blitz visit was crammed with statements, interviews, receptions, appearances before still and movie cameras, radio talks, calls on diplomats and kings, conferences with politicians, soldiers and more diplomats.

Short as it was, the correspondent worked harder and longer during Willkie's visit than at any time while away from the fighting front. Willkie shook up their lives.

He assayed the censors, made formal diplomatic calls in a lounge suit instead of the sacred striped pants and tail coat of tradition. He managed to impart to nearly everything he did an atmosphere of clamor. Censorship, motivated by the sheer necessity for keeping Berlin in the dark as to Willkie's views about politics and military affairs in the Middle East, prevented details of his visit from becoming known. This article is an attempt to supply some of those missing details.

In any other setting, the breezy politician might have seemed a heroic figure, remarkable for his frankness and sincerity. In the Middle East, however, with its traditions of reticence, its compunctions of secrecy in political and military matters, Willkie's act didn't quite come off. He was usually out of character and seemed, most of the time, a huge and handsome bull in a store full of porcelain images. Every time he moved, you wanted to warn him that he might break something.

Willkie, Image Breaker.
He did some good but he also broke a few images. The damage occurred despite the presence in his cruise crew of Joseph Barnes, soft-spoken former newspaper man who now is an official in the Office of War Information. Joe was the conscience of the party, a small voice which kept saying, "Be careful, Wendell! Somebody might be trying to sell you a bill of goods. Watch what you say and remember this is a British battlefield and they are the bosses here."

Calls on King Farouk.
He didn't prevent Willkie, however, from calling on His Majesty King Farouk of Egypt in an ordinary suit, or from having himself photographed in a sloppy bush shirt, baggy pants and an outside sun helmet with German prisoners who stood rigidly at attention and regarded him with considerable coolness.

Willkie's first plunge into Middle East affairs happened in the marbled hall of the impressive headquarters of the United States forces in North Africa, formerly the home of a wealthy Egyptian family. The active and passive press, uniformed and ununiformed, male and female, American and foreign, were there about seventy strong. Even the Times of London came; so did British and American censors.

THE BIRTH OF JESUS

LESSON TEXT—Luke 2:20. GOLDEN TEXT—You shall call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins.—Matthew 1:21.

How shall we keep Christmas this year of our Lord 1942? That is a question which is pressed home to all of us by trying circumstances, growing wickedness—yes, by countless things which try to tell us that there just is not any use to try to keep Christmas as usual this year.

Well, then let's make it unusual! Let's have it more genuinely Christ-like than any ever. That's what we need. Doing that will mean that this year we will live.

I. Keep Christmas With Joy (vv. 8-10).

"Merry Christmas" may sound a little flat and empty this year, for there may be little to create merriment. "We wish you happiness at Christmas!" will probably not fit very well, because happiness depends on what happens—and a good many of the wrong kind of things have happened to most (perhaps all) of us.

But joy—that is quite another matter. We do not tire of the reminder that joy is something which God gives in the heart and which goes far down into the depths of man's soul that the surface tempests of life cannot disturb it. Remember Paul who was sorrowful on the surface "yet ever rejoicing" in heart (II Cor. 6:10).

The ground of our Christmas joy is the good tidings of Christ's coming. That has always been the real heart of Christmas joy, but often it has been obscured by tinsel and trimmings. This year let's get back to essentials.

And let it be said that this does not mean that we are going to omit all the precious little customs and pleasures which have had their innocent part in making this a holiday season. No indeed; let us have them all, or as many as we can, but make the heart of it all Christian joy.

II. Keep Christmas With Assurance (vv. 11-14).
With so many other things (many of which we had foolishly regarded as permanent and sure) falling us, it is a delight to have something sure to tie to, and we have it this Christmas. Christ the Saviour has come!

Not only do we know that He was born, lo these many years ago, as the Babe in the manger in Bethlehem town, but we know that He still lives! He was born, died for our sins, was raised for our justification, ever lives to intercede for us, and He is one day to come again.

The evidence for all this is plentiful and satisfying, and gives us abundant ground for the keeping of Christmas even this year in assurance.

III. Keep Christmas As a Testimony (vv. 15-20).
Having found the Christ, the shepherds "made known abroad" (v. 17) the good news. They returned "glorifying and praising God" (v. 20).

They, too, lived in a time of great darkness. They were part of the people of whom the prophet said: "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined" (Isa. 9:2). That light was Christ, the "light of the world."

There could be no more appropriate time to testify to the world, whose lights have failed, that we keep Christmas because it tells of the coming into this world of the unfailing Light, the One who said of Himself: "I am the light of the world" (John 9:5).

The writer of these notes does not often hear from his readers, scattered all over the continent (yes, and in foreign lands), but he counts them all his friends. He prays for them, and counts it a joy to serve them through these lessons. So, since they are his friends, he says to every one of them who sees these lines: "May God make this a blessed Christmas. Through the clouds of trying circumstances may you see His face. Above the noisy clamor of this world may you hear the angel's song. And may the joy of the Lord fill your soul this Christmas Day!"

Gems of Thought

SO LONG as we love, we serve. So long as we are loved by others I would almost say we are indispensable; and no man is useless while he has a friend.—R. L. Stevenson.

Teach us gently, Time! If I've not pruned nor reared wings; Our ambition, our contentment, Lies in simpler things.

Heaven is blessed with perfect rest, but the blessing of earth is toil.—Henry Van Dyke.

For friendship, of itself a holy tie, is made more sacred by adversity.—Dryden.

The bravest are the tenderest.—Bayard Taylor.

IS high time to think of a gift or two for Aunt Emily and Sister Sue? Why not give aprons this year? Your piece being so sure to have many odds and ends of rick rack braid and bias binding and bright scraps of material which will do for trimmings with a 3/4-yard remnant of plain gingham or unbleached muslin.

The diagram gives you cutting dimensions for the skirt and shows how to shape the waistline. It is easy to add a straight bib if you like. Use wider belts, about 2 1/2 inches finished, for the bibless type and cut the ties about four inches wide. These three aprons will give you ideas for any number of trimmings. Be lavish with bright color for this is the season for gay gifts to bring good cheer.

NOTE—These aprons are from Mrs. Spears' BOOK 4 which also contains directions for many other gifts and things to make for the home, from

Household Hints

Apples flavored with maple sirup, cider or grape juice, baked, can be served with roast ham. It's a pleasing food combination.

Save all meat skewers for spring house cleaning time. They are excellent for cleaning corners and grooves in woodwork.

To vary muffins, mix one-third cup of coconut, nuts, raisins or candied fruits, into the dry ingredients.
