BALLINGER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 13, 1936.

Club Boys to Camp Near Ballinger August 20-21

Plans have been perfected for holding the Runnels county boys 4-H club encampment at the pecan mott on the C. A. Dooze farm, four miles west of Ballinger, August 20 and 21. County Agent John A. Barton has had the cooperation of a number of local business men and the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce in planning the program and making the arrangements.

The chamber of commerce will provide ice water, a big barbecue dinner Friday noon, and a cooperative free picture show Friday afternoon. Members of this organization will also be on the grounds to help make the encampment a success in every way possible.

The mott is large and will provide excellent shade for the camp. Softball grounds will be laid out, the swimming hole will be ready, and those who desire to fish may bring their tackle and bait.

Boys attending the camp will take the Ballinger Country Club road from this city and the route will be marked so they cannot miss it. The boys are requested to be in camp at least by 4 p. m. Thursday and remain until late Friday afternoon.

Those who attend should bring cooked supper for Thursday night, bacon, eggs, bread and sweets for breakfast Friday morning, all necessary bedding, cooking utensils and plate, cup, knife, fork and spoon. Each youth who can is asked to bring a lantern or flashlight and every one will need a swim suit, towels, baseball bats, softball and other game paraphernalia. Those who play musical instruments are requested to bring them.

The program will consist of life saving, first aid, health demonstrations, and one good speaker will address the group. The remainder of the time will be spent in games and other amusements.

Mr. Barton will be in the camp all the time and will personally look after the boys. He will be assisted by other adults so that every boy will have every attention while in camp.

All club members are urged to attend and any boy who did not get into club work this year is invited to come along and enjoy the same privileges as the clubbers. A general discussion will be held on club work for 1937 and Mr. Barton is anxious to have more boys become interested in the movement. He thinks an encampment is needed to stimulate interest in the clubs and urges parents to permit their sons to attend the two days. The county agent will visit seven clubs in the county this week in an effort to secure heavy attendance at the encampment.

Mrs. A. W. Woods, of Ballinger, and Mrs. R. E. McWilliams, of Big Lake, returned here Tuesday from a visit to Mrs. Woods' daughter in California. Mr. McWilliams accompanied his wife home from here.

Sheriff W. A. Holt, Deputy Sheriff Gerald Black and Constable E. J. Hanley raided a filling station south of Ballinger on the Paint Rock highway this (Thursday) morning and arrested Dan Liverman and Erma Liverman.

Charges of possession of intoxicating liquors for the purpose of sale were filed against each of the defendants. Sheriff Holt stated that the officers confiscated one case of whiskey, one case of gin, and several cases of beer, including many cans in the ice box. He also stated that two customers were present at the time of the raid.

Guns Roar Throughout Nation in Great War Games

Scenes such as this—huge guns thundering their salvos during maneuvers of student soldiers at Fort Bullis, Tex.—will be common during the next few weeks as thousands of national guardsmen and regular troops take part in giant war games. The great maneuvers, in which almost the entire midwest is divided into four warring "nations," are part of a program projected by the War Department to keep its reduced fighting personnel keyed for an emergency.

He will bring all his apparatus to the Junction meeting.

Ed Jansen, of Miles, president of the association, will preside over the business sessions of the convention. John Hankins, of Junction, secretary, has been making arrangements for the convention for the past several weeks. The largest crowd ever to attend one of the regional organization's meetings is expected this year.

Most of the Ballinger delegation will be at Junction Monday evening and will remain Tuesday to attend the full program, returning here Tuesday night.

Golden Oil Co. Test Past Contract Depth; Drilling is Continued

Drilling continued this (Thursday) afternoon on the oil test on the H. Giesecke ranch, which at 2:30 p. m. was 2,354 feet deep, 54 feet past the contracted depth of the hole. Parties arriving from the location shortly after noon today stated that the bit was working in lime which had turned from a dark color to a regular gray and that only slow progress was being made.

Drilling will continue, however, no announcement was made as to how deep the test will go. Either water or oil is expected to be encountered within the next ten feet.

Officials of the Golden Petroleum Company, of San Angelo, were here today, conferring with others interested in the well.

Mr. Childress parked the bale on the sidewalk in front of the Farmers & Merchants State Bank where it remained today (Thursday) until sold.

The bale was picked from seed planted early and the entire field of this age plants was covered in securing the bale.

A list was being circulated today to raise premium money for the first bale but the total will not be known until tomorrow.

County Budget Hearing Will be Held August 24

County's Farmers Receive Big Sum From AAA Set-up

Runnels county has received $1,345,925.68 in rental and benefit payments in the three years since the creation of the agricultural adjustment administration (AAA). This statement was made public this week by H. P. Drought, state director of the national emergency council.

Rentals and benefit payments on the cotton program amounted to $1,320,477.39, corn-hog payments were $18,237.86, and wheat payments $7,210.92.

Practically all farm operators in the county have shared in these payments which have been of great assistance to the entire financial structure of the county.

Rental and benefit payments in the state of Texas for the same period totalled $139,412,186.46. The state payments are divided as follows: cotton, $114,970,836.72, wheat, $16,581,129.10, corn-hog, $6,403,258.44, sugar, $705.98, rice, $1,975,143.03, and peanuts, $381,111.19.

Payments are still being made in this county to farmers who signed contracts last year. Subsidy payments are coming in slowly at this time since a majority of the claims have already been paid. More than $7,000 in subsidy checks were received here the past week-end to settle claims in this county, leaving only a few still unpaid.

Runnels and Concho Rural Mail Carriers Hold Meeting Here

A meeting of the Runnels-Concho District Rural Mail Carriers' Association was held at city park in Ballinger Monday evening. All carriers and their families in Runnels and Concho counties attended.

A. B. Legate, of Ballinger, gave a very interesting account of the state convention recently held at San Antonio. His talk reported the high points in the addresses made there and the items of most interest to the postmen. At the business session it was decided to meet in Ballinger again in September.

A basket picnic was the high spot of the evening's entertainment and at the conclusion of the meal Ross Smith, local carrier, provided ice cold watermelons for the entire group of about 40.

Employees of the local postoffice were guests of the carriers. H. W. Bigler, of Miles, president of the association, presided at the business session.

Miss Rosemary Warren, of Artesia, New Mexico, visited here the past week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Holloway. She accompanied her uncle, Arch Holloway, home for a visit.

Miss Gertrude McDaniels, of San Angelo, is the guest of Miss Jeffie Bell.

The hearing on Runnels county's official budget will be held on August 24. The county tax rate cannot be set until after the budget hearing but will be set immediately afterward so that the tax collector may go ahead and figure the 1936 rolls.

The budget has been prepared and studied by the commissioners' court and the rate proposed for the new budget is 55 cents on the $100 valuation, one cent less than for last year when it was 56 cents.

The reduction this year was occasioned because there was a balance in the improvement fund and it was not necessary to levy any tax for this account.

Citizens are invited to attend the hearing, inspect the budget, and receive any desired information on same. If no one contests any part of the budget it will be adopted by the court.

The state tax rate has been set at 62 cents and in case the county rate tentatively designated is approved, the combined rate will be $1.17, to be paid at the county tax collector's office. The Ballinger school district rate is $1, and the municipal rate will be set by the city commission at its first meeting in September. The total to be paid by property owners in Ballinger probably will be about $3.27 on the $100 valuation.

MILES MAN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

John Stringer, 39, of Miles, died in a San Angelo hospital Sunday, just 15 hours after being struck by an automobile. Mr. Stringer went to San Angelo Saturday night to spend a few hours and left there about midnight on foot.

The accident was said to have been unavoidable. A. G. Morrow, of Veribest, was driving east from town and was meeting another car and did not see the victim until his automobile struck him. He placed the injured man in his car and took him to the hospital.

Funeral services were held at Miles Tuesday afternoon and interment made in the Miles cemetery.

Survivors include the mother, Mrs. Tennessee Stringer; a sister, Mrs. C. E. Skinner; and a brother, Tommie Stringer, all of Norman; another sister, Mrs. Mollie Hardaway, of Kerens; four other brothers, L. Stringer, of Miles; Sam Stringer, of Midland; Elbert Stringer, of Kerens; and Huey Stringer, thought to be in Arizona.

Decedent had resided at Miles several years. He had been doing farm labor near town.

Judge and Mrs. Paul Trimmier and sons will leave Sunday for Dallas to attend the centennial exposition. Judge Trimmier will be out of his office at the court house until Saturday, August 22, according to his present plans.

Nevada Sheriff Has Large Collection of Weapons

ELKO, Nev., Aug. 12.—Sheriff J. C. Harris, is rounding out twenty-five years of service as a law enforcement officer in one of the largest counties of the West and in an area in which much of the atmosphere of the Old West still prevails.

Among the cherished possessions of this veteran officer is a unique collection of tools and weapons which he has taken from desperate criminals, some of which were used in attempts upon his own life while trailing criminals.

Among the devices in the collection is a set of hoots, used to deceive cattle owners. The hoots are fastened on wooden soles which could be fastened to cattle rustlers' shoes, enabling the cattle thief to steal the animals and yet not show his own footprints. This unusual contraption was found by Bob Steele in a cabin abandoned by cattle rustlers. Steele is a Clover Valley rancher, and he gave it to the sheriff.

Sheriff Harris, in discussing the history of this prized collection, pointed grimly to a 39-39 rifle, asserting it took it from a rustler on the Diamond "A" desert after several bullets were fired from it by the man he was trailing. Harris grides himself on the fact that he never started to run down a horse thief without getting his man. Sometimes, he added, the chase occupied several days and meant sleeping on the ground in a single blanket.

A "quirt blackjack" was the beginning of the weapon collection. "I just decided to keep it," Harris said, "and kept adding to it. I never kept a history of the various things I took from criminals, but I often wish I had, because the mind finds it hard to go back twenty-five years when one has so many cases to keep track of." The "quirt blackjack" is loaded at one end with buckshot and is a vicious weapon if brought into play during a fight.

"Brass knuckles?" the sheriff queried. "Sure. They are included in my collection, but they are not as plentiful today as in the past. It's not a case of crippling a fellow today. When a racketeer or gunman goes for his victim he does it with the idea of putting him out of the way for good. Guns are the weapons they use now and the machine gun is one of the worst devices the gangster uses today."

Razors are included in the sheriff's display. He explained with a grin that many of them were taken from "dark gentlemen." Then there are opium pipes, adorning the wall of the sheriff's office. These were seized years ago when "smokers" were more numerous than now in this section of the West. There are long squirrel guns, carried by Texas cowboys, and swords worn by soldiers stationed at Fort Halleck, near Elko, during the Indian uprising.

The collection is made up of firearms, knives, blackjacks, opium pipes and other articles identified with crime and its suppression.

One of the most widely publicized cases handled by Sheriff Harris was that of Bob White, who was convicted of killing Louis Lavell, Greek gambler of Elko. Lavell had been taken to a lonely spot and was shot. White carried the body to Ryan ranch in Secret Pass and cremated it in the ashes. Sheriff Harris found a belt buckle, some gold-filled teeth and a few other personal belongings to identify

Stirring Drama of History in Fair's Cavalcade

Drawing the heaviest attendance on the Texas Centennial Exposition grounds in Dallas, "The Cavalcade of Texas," historical drama presented daily on the world's largest stage, portrays the stirring life of Texans under the flags of six nations. Above is a scene showing Stephen F. Austin's New Year Colonists trekking into the new frontier land in January of 1822, an extremely perilous journey.

ify the victim as Lavell and began his search. White was captured near Chicago, working on a farm. Blood stains were found on metal parts of his car. He was returned to Nevada and convicted. He was the fourth man to go to death in Nevada's lethal gas chamber.

Ben Kuhl, a convict in Nevada's state prison today, can testify to the resourcefulness of Sheriff Harris. Kuhl shot a stage driver to death during a blizzard, looted the mail and escaped. Sheriff Harris found a palm print on one of the envelopes dropped in Kuhl's haste to escape. Harris persuaded Charles Stone, chief of police at Bakersfield, Cal., to assist him. Stone was a "good man on prints," according to the Sheriff Harris. They decided upon a new method of evidence presentation. When Kuhl went to trial they flashed the palm print, taken from the envelope, on a curtain in the court, and alongside of it, they flashed a print of Kuhl's palm.

Kuhl was convicted and still is serving in prison for the crime committed in 1916.

Sheriff Harris smilingly remarked that he almost yielded to the temptation of breaking his record of longevity in Elko county. Reno, famed divorce city, is searching for a new chief of police. Harris was offered the post. He pondered the matter, but decided to remain in Elko county.

MAN'S HEART SKIPS BEATS—DUE TO GAS

W. L. Adams was bloated so with gas that his heart often missed beats after eating Adierika and him of all gas, and now he eats anything and feels fine. J. Y. Pearcee Drug Co.

Rev. J. W. Liggett, of Paint Rock, was here Monday to visit his son in the Halley & Love Sanitarium. The boy was injured recently when he dived into a shallow pool on the Concho River.

Mrs. H. H. Thomson and daughter, Miss Helen, are in Colorado on vacation.

MOVING WELSH MOUNTAIN IS GOING PLACES AGAIN

TREDEGAR, Wales, Aug. 12.—Wales' "moving mountain" has started on its travels once more. Ominous rumbles of minor landslides have been heard recently by people living in the shadow of Troedrhfwuch in the North Rhymney Valley.

It is impossible to get transport from New Tredegar to Abertyswg, which nestles at the foot of the mountain. The only way is to walk, picking out what remains of the old road. If the movement of Troedrhfwuch is not checked the railway will be compelled to abandon service, isolating Abertyswg.

Lives and homes of thousands are affected by the moving mass, which may destroy the water supply.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Jacob are combining a business and pleasure trip to Central Texas this week. They will spend most of their time in Temple and Waco.

Absentee Voting Started Tuesday, To End August 19

Absentee voting in the second primary election received a late start due to the state Democratic executive committee being unable to certify the ticket until after its meeting last Saturday at Austin. Several races were in doubt until after the final canvass and county chairmen were unable to get information regarding state and district offices until Tuesday morning. Absentee voting was supposed to have started Friday, August 7. The Runnels county clerk began receiving absentee votes Tuesday afternoon and this balloting stops August 19. This will give voters who expect to be away from home on election day a full week in which to cast their ballots in the run-off races.

Tickets will be printed for the boxes in the county this week and complete supplies mailed to election managers. The ticket for Runnels county will be very short. A few state races, a run-off for the 92nd district representative's office, two county commissioner's races, and the constable's race in precinct 1 will be the complete ballot. For the Ballinger boxes, the only candidates' names on the ticket, besides those for state offices, will be for representative and constable.

It will require little time to count the ballots in the August primary and most election managers will be ready to make reports when the polls close at 7 p. m. The votes will be tabulated here, posted on a bulletin board and telegraphed to the Texas Election Bureau Saturday night, August 22.

RUBIN TO MARKET

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rubin spent the week-end in San Antonio, Mrs. Rubin returning Sunday night. Mr. Rubin went to New York from San Antonio and will visit the eastern markets to buy merchandise for his dry goods store here. He will return about August 25.

HARRY LYNN SPEAKER AT WINTERS BANQUET

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynn and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lynn attended the annual firemen's banquet at Winters Tuesday evening. Harry Lynn was the principal speaker at the spread which was attended by all Winters firemen, their wives, honorary members and a number of invited guests.

Mr. and Mrs. George Golightly left Sunday for Marlin to visit Mr. Golightly's parents and will attend the centennial exposition at Dallas before returning home.

Claude R. Stone, Jr., is visiting his grandparents at Sherwood this week.

TREACHEROUS MONTHS

ahead

Why do people "catch cold" more easily during winter than in summer? In most cases it is due to indoor living conditions.

The generally accepted theory of "a cold" is that you carry cold germs in your throat constantly. As soon as you become tired, overheated or chilled you are susceptible to attack. Any sudden change in temperature disturbs the heat-regulating apparatus of the body and the cold germ rises to the opportunity to undermine your health. Therefore, quick changes of temperature should be avoided.

The threat of the cold germ is limited during summer months largely because warm weather living habits make it exceedingly difficult for cold germs to become active. In summer, there is an adequate circulation of pure, warm air throughout the home. Since the temperature is approximately the same in each room during the warm weather season, your family is not subject to sudden changes.

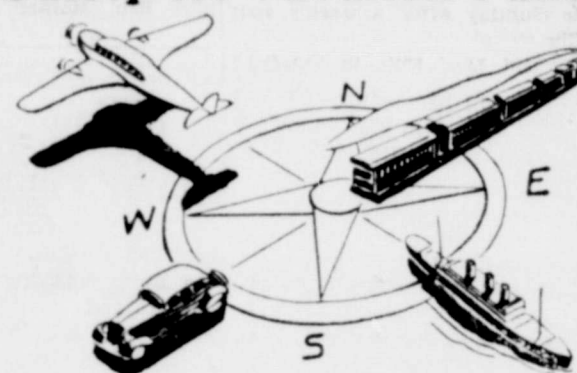

The common cold germ is responsible for more than two hundred million illnesses each year.

On the other hand, UNLESS you provide adequate heat and proper circulation of pure, warm air in every room of the house during winter, sudden temperature changes are unavoidable. Members of your family go from a heated room into a cold hall or unheated adjoining room. Then shivering and chilled, they return to the heated room. Each time this happens during the winter season, they have unnecessarily subjected themselves to the vicious attack of the cold germ.

It is good health insurance to take the simple precaution of providing adequate heat and proper circulation of pure, warm air in every room in the house during cold weather. Use your home to the fullest this winter as you have during the past summer. You will find it of valuable assistance in protecting your family from America's Public Health Enemy Number One, the common cold germ.

CREWS CHATTER

The revival at the Baptist church closed Thursday night of the preceding week. Elder W. R. Davis, of Paducah, conducted the 12-day series of services. There were a number of conversions and 18 additions to the church. The church auditorium could not accommodate the large crowds attending. We believe that great and lasting good has been accomplished. Bro. Davis was unanimously invited to return next summer by the church and the immense congregation present the last night of the meeting.

A revival will begin at the Methodist church Friday night. Bro. Smoot will assist the pastor, and Bro. Homer Vanderpool, of Ballinger, will preach the initial sermon. All are cordially invited to attend. Bro. Smoot held a revival here a few years ago. He is well known here and a splendid preacher.

The 4-H Club girls entertained the Lions Club at luncheon Tuesday noon. A nice program was rendered and a splendid meal served. The proceeds will be used to send some of the club girls to the centennial exposition soon.

The singing at the Methodist church Sunday night was well attended. Messrs. Low and Davis were present and favored the audience with some special songs.

There were no church services at the Baptist church Sunday, due to the pastor's illness. Bro. Carraway has been ill for the past few weeks and only attended two or three services of the revival. His condition is thought to be slightly better.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Walden and daughter, of New Mexico, and Sid Walden, also of New Mexico, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Walden, and other relatives.

Mrs. Pearl Fulwood left for her home at Corsicana Saturday after a week's visit with her brother-in-law, Elder H. B. Carraway, and family.

Mrs. Webb, of Waco, was a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Jimmie Lucas, and family, Thursday of the previous week.

W. W. King and John Lee left Monday for New Mexico to visit a few days' visit and sightseeing.

Crops are suffering badly for want of rain. Prospects for a good crop are decreasing each day. The fearful heat wave that has prevailed since Sunday is drying up what moisture the ground held. Pastures are also burning badly.

Miss Beulah White, county health nurse, and friend, Miss Lofton, were in our community Wednesday of the previous week. Miss White seems to be eager to be of any possible assistance in helping our community maintain a high standard of health. ### Grace Moore, Noted Diva, Stars in "King Steps Out"

Once again the golden voice of Grace Moore rings out from the screen, in Columbia's new musical romance, "The King Steps Out," scheduled at the Texas Theatre for special midnight pre-venue Saturday night, and regular showings the Sunday and Monday following, August 15-16-17. It is the diva's third picture since her return to the screen in the sensational "One Night of Love" in 1934, the other film being "Love Me Forever," which also was well received.

On this occasion Miss Moore has for her leading man Franchot Tone, who has grown in a short time into one of the most popular stars on the screen. Tone is seen in the role of Emperor Francis Josef, who woos one daughter of Duke Maximilian—played by Walter Connolly—and finally marries another. The other, one might safely presume, would be the lovely Miss Moore.

Also seen in leading roles are Raymond Walburn, Victor Jory, Elizabeth Madon, Nana Bryant, Frieda Inescourt, Thurston Hall, and Herman Bing.

The music in "The King Steps Out" was written by Fritz Kreisler, who is accepted to be the world's outstanding exponent of the violin and a composer of classical calibre. His famed composition, "Caprice Viennois" is sung in the film by Miss Moore, with lyrics by Dorothy Fields, who also penned the words for the other Kreisler music in the picture.

It is a romantic tale that the film tells. The young king is being influenced by his ambitious mother, the dowager empress, who wants him to marry Helena, one of the daughters of her brother-in-law Max, with whom she has been at loggerheads for years. The emperor commands the girl to come to the castle with her mother, ignoring Max. But, wanting to be on the scene, the duke takes his daughter Cissy (Grace Moore) to the castle town incognito. There, by pure accident, Francis Josef sees Cissy and falls in love with her, after all preparations have been made to announce his betrothal to Helena.

In a gay Viennese setting the romantic tangle is worked out, Miss Moore sings many Kreisler compositions, filling the film with her famous voice.

Jack Oakie and Sally Eilers Play Leading Roles in Snappy Story of Fun, Love and Intrigue

Jack Oakie and Sally Eilers play the leading roles in "Florida Special," a story of love, fun and intrigue aboard a speeding express train, to be shown at the Texas Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday.

The excitement of the story begins at the very moment the train pulls out of New York. Claude Gillingwater, an eccentric millionaire, boards the train with his entire fortune in uncut jewels in a brief-case handcuffed to his cringing secretary. His niece, Frances Drake, is also with him. Gillingwater trusts no one.

Rival gangs set out to nab the jewels. They kill the secretary and would make off with the gems and dispatch Miss Drake were it not for the cleverness of Jack Oakie, a reporter, who boarded the train to get a scoop from Kent Taylor, a young millionaire, and has found things too exciting to get off.

Sally Eilers is a hostess on the train with whom Kent falls in love.

Dumas' "Three Musketeers" Booked at Palace Theatre

All the thrilling ramifications of romance and deadly swordplay which attended Cardinal Richelieu's statecraft, combined with the brilliant pageantry of one of the most dramatic periods in French history, are seen as the background for "The Three Musketeers," famed Dumas romance of the 17th century which has just been faithfully adapted to the talking screen by RKO Radio. The new version will be shown at the Palace Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday next, August 16-17-18.

Realizing that it must meet the exacting demands of millions of filmgoers to whom the great classic is as familiar in action and atmosphere as a personal experience, unusual care was taken to adhere to the essence of the novel and faithfully recreate its historic setting.

And now d'Artagnan swaggers to the screen in a superb performance by Walter Abel, who adds to his Broadway stage distinction a role which promises high film ranking. Equally impressive as the immortal musketeers, Athos, Porthos and Aramis, are Paul Lukas, Moroni Olsen and Ralph Lukas. Moroni Olsen and Ralph Lukas, as the two lovely women are featured opposite handsome Ralph Bellamy in "Dangerous Intrigue," with Miss Perry enacting the role of a charming sophisticate and Miss Shea the part of a sympathetic and loving girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reese and son, of Houston, are here this week for a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reese.

Two of the nation's most beautiful women, Joan Perry and Gloria Shea, appear in Columbia's "Dangerous Intrigue," the drama of a steel mill, to be shown at the Palace Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

Miss Perry was called the "nation's model" before she made her debut in motion pictures, she was acknowledged the most beautiful photographer's model in Manhattan.

Before she entered motion pictures Gloria Shea not only won the coveted honor of being selected the most beautiful non-professional at the Hollywood Ball held annually in New York but she was recognized as "queen of beauty of America's radioland."

The two lovely women are featured opposite handsome Ralph Bellamy in "Dangerous Intrigue," with Miss Perry enacting the role of a charming sophisticate and Miss Shea the part of a sympathetic and loving girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reese and son, of Houston, are here this week for a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reese.

Jack McKay and mother, Mrs. J. N. McKay, of Wichita Falls, were here Sunday to visit friends. They left Monday for San Marcos where Mr. McKay will attend to business several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Drury P. Hathaway, and Mrs. W. C. Barber of Paint Rock, spent the past week-end in Dallas, attending the centennial exposition.

Jackie Cooper, Joseph Calleia And Dog Star in "Tough-Guy"

Action, adventure, thrills, a most unusual combination of characters—these mark the latest delight of the showman, "Tough-Guy," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's amazing drama of the oddest comradeship ever conceived, and the work of the government secret service. It will be shown at the Ritz Theatre on next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, August 16-17-18.

The principal characters are a man, a boy and a dog. Jackie Cooper of "The Champ," and "O'Shaughnessy's Boy" and others, plays the boy—a rich man's son who runs away to save a pet dog. The dog is Rin Tin Tin, Jr., son of the noted dog star of silent days, now following his father's screen career. The man is Joseph Calleia of "Small Miracle," "Riff-Raff" and other hits, playing a notorious public enemy. Others in the cast are Harvey Stephens, Jean Hersholt, Robert Warwick, famous star of silent days; Robert Greig, noted English comedian; Edward Pawley; and Mischa Auer, portayer of mysterious Oriental roles.

In the story the boy runs away with the dog, "hitch hikes" in a vegetable wagon that turns out to be the blind of a criminal. They witness a holdup. The criminal flees with them to the mountains where they camp. Here a great comradeship grows up between them. When the boy is seized by a gang, and the man by the government operatives, a sensational escape is followed by the rescue of the boy, the man and dog staging a daring coup before the man is shot down by the pursuing government men, and with his last breath pleads with the boy's father to understand and love him.

Dramatic highlights include the ride in the truck, the robbery of an armored car, the rescue of the boy by the dog in the gangster shack, the remarkable sequences in the woods, the arrest, the capture of the boy by the gangsters, the sensational denunciation of the rich father by the crook, the escape from the prison van, the pursuit, and the rounding up of the criminals on the deserted tug-boat in the harbor.

Splendid Cast Appears in Airplane Murder Mystery at Ritz, "Forced Landing"

"Forced Landing," Republic production, will be shown at the Ritz Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

A splendid cast was secured for this picture, written by the ace dramatic critic of the New York World-Telegram, Wm. Boehnel.

Heading the cast are such talented personalities as Toby Wing, Onslow Stevens, Esther Ralston and Sidney Blackmer. And in the featured roles, Willard Robertson, Bradley Page, Barbara Bedford, Eddie Nugent, Barbara Pepper, Julia Grich, Lionel Belmore, Kane Richmond, George Cleveland, Dean Benton, Frank LaRue, Ralf Harold, Harry Brown and Arthur Aylesworth are seen.

Some very interesting settings were constructed for this picture, including the interior of a great transcontinental plane.

Dove Season Opens Here September 1; Hunting to be Good

The hunting season on doves will open in this zone September 1. J. P. Flynt, state game warden, stated that the same bag limit and restrictions would apply here that has been in force for the past several years. Hunters will be allowed 15 birds a day and the usual hours will govern the time of hunting.

The dove crop this year is unusually large and hunters will find little trouble at the beginning of the season in getting the limit. Water is plentiful at present but unless it rains the birds will be confined to large surface tanks by the opening of the season. This will make hunting better at those spots and will save walking over fields in order to flush the birds.

Mr. Flynt said the new fishing and hunting licenses would be here September 15. They will be on sale at the Schuhmann Hardware Company store or can be obtained from Mr. Flynt.

Persons hunting in another county will be required to have licenses and fishermen using lures must have fishing licenses.

The controversy over stopping duck hunting all over the United States has not been decided, Mr. Flynt said conditions in the great drouth area were causing much argument in favor of putting a three-year ban on shooting ducks in order to let them increase.

C. O. HARRIS REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR GOVERNOR

Judge C. O. Harris, of San Angelo, formerly Ballinger attorney, was named the Republican nominee for governor Texas at the state convention of the party at San Antonio this week. He returned to San Angelo Wednesday, jubilant over the chances of the G. O. P. in national politics this year.

Judge Harris' nomination came as a complete surprise to him. He was working with the credentials committee at the St. Anthony Hotel when he was nominated on the convention floor. He will go to Dallas this week-end to confer with party leaders and map the state and national campaigns.

Judge Harris is a pioneer of Runnels county, settling at Runnels more than fifty years ago, later moving to Ballinger where he practiced law for many years.

RUSSIA REPORTED BECOMING MORE DRESS CONSCIOUS

MOSCOW, Aug. 12.—The stylish clothes of the city are fast replacing the traditional village garb of the ninety million peasants of Russia. Factory-made suits and smart dresses, silk ties, starched collars and felt hats and leather shoes are increasingly making their way into the village store to replace the peasant woman's dress, the tatyanka, and the goatskin coat, the shuba.

There is in process of organization a new chain of 5,000 country departmental stores which promise to carry city goods in stock. All Russia is dress conscious and the village barber is growing into an institution of profound importance. Although 387 barbers were trained for the Ukraine collective farms last year, the supply has not met the demand. City "style institutes" are organizing fashion exhibitions in the villages, and lectures on "what the well-dressed woman should wear" attract large audiences.

The first brewer in the United States was not of German-American origin, as is commonly supposed. He was a Scotchman and became one of the country's largest producers.

Soviet Authorities Test Effect of Tints On Classroom Walls

MOSCOW, Aug. 12.—Experiments to decide whether green, pink or other tints for the walls of school rooms will make the pupils do more or better work have been begun by Soviet educational authorities, in cooperation with physicists representing the Russian Academy of Sciences and representatives of organized artists and architects.

In spite of many years of scientific interest in the mental effects of colors, together with varied theories and many incidental experiments, psychologists have not decided which colors have the best effects or even whether colors have definite mental effects at all.

One theory is that so-called warm colors such as red and yellow are stimulating, while cool colors such as blue and green are quieting or depressing. Another theory is that mixed colors such as purple and violet are exciting. An evolutionary theory is that green is the natural color of the forests and grasslands in which mankind was evolved and that therefore green-tinted walls and blue-tinted ceilings like the sky seem most natural and let human beings both work and rest better than with other color combinations. A related idea is that red is exciting and disturbing because it is the color of blood.

Another but more modern idea is that wide use of red and green for danger and safety signals, respectively, has caused these colors to start unconscious mental effects. Deciding that these conflicting ideas could be tested best in schools, where many children of about the same age and characteristics are available as experimental material, the Soviet experts will tint school rooms in different ways and keep records of what happens to the children's work.

Mrs. S. R. Yates, and Miss Lois McKnight, of Arlington, have returned home after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bruce. Mrs. Bruce and children accompanied them home to visit several days.

To the Voters of Texas

I take the liberty of handing you herewith some reasons why I favor George Terrell for our Commissioner of Agriculture. Having had the unusual experience of having served the State in the capacity of Chief of the Pean work under the appointment of Fred Davis, George Terrell and J. E. McDonald, I favor Mr. Terrell because of his good moral character, honesty of purpose, his knowledge of the law concerning his duties and responsibilities. He is morally clean in both his public and private life.

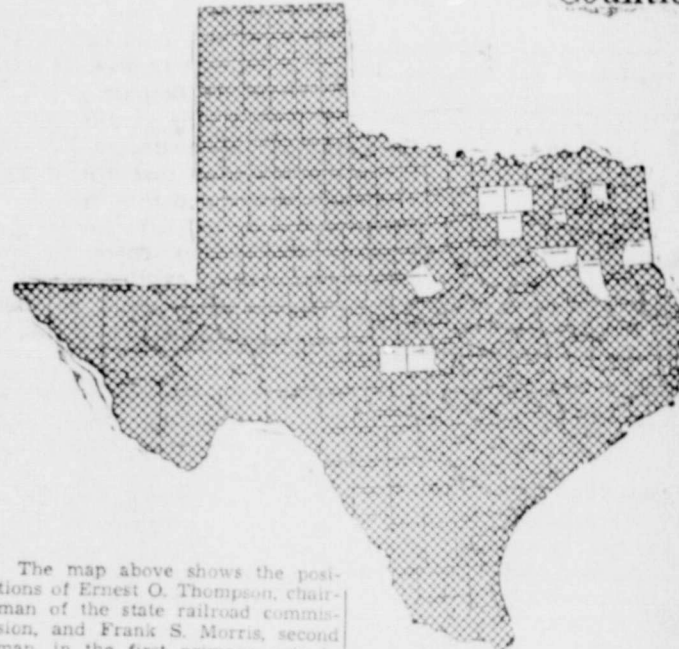

The citizenship of the State can point with pride to George Terrell as a worthy example in official life: to the youth as an example worthy of their emulation.

The office of Commissioner of Agriculture is of greater importance to the citizens of the State than Governor or any other office in the gift of the people.

Taj Mahal Regarded as World's Handsomest Tomb

Dated history of India begins about 600 B. C., but little was known of that country by Europeans until Alexander the Great's invasion in 326 B. C., says the Detroit News. The Mohammedans conquered most of the country during the Twelfth century and this was succeeded by a great Mongolian invasion.

The Mogul dynasty was established in the Sixteenth century, ruling India for about 200 years. French and British trade rivalry by the middle of the Eighteenth century led to the ascendancy of the British East India company, under Clive and Hastings. The Indian mutiny of 1857 led to the transfer of the country from that company to the English crown. In 1877 Queen Victoria was proclaimed Empress of India.

The Taj Mahal near Agra, India, considered by some to be the most beautiful building ever constructed, was built by the Shah Jehan as a tomb for his favorite wife, Mumtaz-Mahal. It is of white marble, octagonal, and has an exquisite dome. Its construction required the labors of 20,000 men during a period of 21 years, from 1632 to 1653. Its architect was Ustad Isa.

Belgian Horse Believed Oldest of Pure Breeds

With the exception of Merino sheep, the Belgian horse probably can claim to be the oldest pure breed in the world, says the Montreal Herald.

Records show that draft horses have been bred pure in the Flemish lowlands of Northern Europe since 750 A. D. While they have not always been as heavy as they are today, the Flemish horses have served to carry knights in armor, pull chariots of war, and take part in flat races, as well as cultivate and harvest crops. It is even noted that some Belgians have been recorded for their speed and endurance, and some speeds recorded 100 years ago or more are very creditable.

Of the three well-known British draft breeds, the Clydesdale, the Shire, and the Suffolk, the first two owe much to occasional infusions of blood of the Flemish horse during recent centuries. As long ago as the Fifteenth century the Flemish horse had its well-muscled, close-knit body, but its legs at that time were presumably much finer than they are today.

"Feather in Your Cap"

The phrase, "feather in your cap," means that something is an honor to you. The allusion is to the very general custom in Asia and among the American Indians of adding a feather to the headgear of every enemy slain. The ancient Lycians, and many others had a similar custom, and it is still usual for the English sportsman who kills the first woodcock to pick out a feather and stick it in his cap. The custom in one form or another seems to be almost universal. In Hungary at one time boys might wear a feather but he who had slain a Turk, and it will be remembered that when Gordon quelled the Taping rebellion he was greeted by the Chinese government with the "yellow jacket and peacock's feather."

Law of Life That Enriches

It is a law of life that what we give unselfishly multiplies and returns to us. In helping others we enrich ourselves in the real things—the things that endure. We develop character—we grow in power and usefulness—we become real men and women, not dwarfs. The moment you fling open the door of your heart, and let your sympathy and helpfulness flow out to shed their fragrance and beauty upon lives that are starving for human fellowship, you begin to develop power. The moment you begin to help them as you begin to strangle the best things in you, then you begin to dwarf your power and possibilities. Give and grow!

New Students Will Register in Local Schools September 4

Supt. H. C. Lyon of the Ballinger schools announced today that all students who did not register in classes at the end of the last term would be expected to do so on Friday, September 4. This applies to all who will enter either the junior or the senior high school in the fall. They will register at their respective buildings and teachers will be on hand all day to receive them.

Pupils in all buildings will report to their classes Monday morning, September 7, will be issued books and assigned lessons, and dismissed for the day in order to purchase their supplies and be ready for classwork Tuesday morning, September 8.

All members of the faculty will be called to a meeting Saturday morning, September 5, at which time Supt. Lyon will talk to them about the program for the ensuing year and give instructions for the opening Monday. No program for the general public has been announced and probably will not be arranged.

Mr. Lyon said one question had been asked so much in regard to enforcement of the absence rule that he desired to make an explanation. This year children who miss school to attend the centennial exposition will be given opportunity to make up the work. This special concession has been made because of the educational exhibits at the exposition and because many local citizens will be unable to go to Dallas before the opening of the fall term.

ROME MOVES TO FOIL FUTURE PLANE ATTACKS

ROME, Aug. 12.—Rome is being made immune from air attacks, according to members of the Unpa, the semi-independent organization being backed by the Italian government in its campaign of preparation, propaganda and instruction. Because of Rome's hills and the available refuge space, Unpa engineers and experts have decided that the best plan will be to prepare a large number of small shelters, rather than many big ones. There are already a number of existing underground retreats which could be used as bomb-proof shelters, it has been decided.

These include the tunnel under the Quirinal hill. Meanwhile the people are being encouraged to equip cellars as bomb-proof shelters. In every case the landlord is being made to pay the bill.

GLIDER SCHOOLS FORMED FOR TURKISH YOUTH

ISTANBUL, August 12.—Much publicized here are the activities of the "Turkish Bird" Association, which trains Turkish boys and girls to be gliders and also aims at making young Turkey air-minded.

All schools have been urged to join in the movement by the committee for Turkish air defense and Russian specialists act as instructors. The headquarters of the movement are at Ankara but branches have already started here and at Smyrna, while others will follow at Adana, Kayseri and Brussa. Three months is the required training time for gliders.

Inventor 'Delivers' Sunlight

With this apparatus, Jacques Arthuys, above, French inventor, delivers sunlight right to the windows of New York skyscraper apartments from which natural light is blocked by building walls. The mirror to which Mr. Arthuys points catches the sun's rays and deflects them down to other mirrors, which, in turn, divert them where needed. One of the mirrors follows the course of the sun throughout the day. The inventor terms his device Arthel, a name composed of the first three letters of his name, and of "helios," the Greek word for sun.

Soviet Stomach Aches To Get Special Foods

MOSCOW, Aug. 12.—The first workers' organization to consider the digestions of their members a matter of public concern has been formed in Russia.

Like many industrial plants in capitalistic countries, some of the new Russian factories are provided with restaurants or cafeterias in which employees can get their lunches or even other meals if they wish.

Recently several of these factory food departments, especially the one attached to the great Stalin automobile factory, have decided to do something about employee digestion. Safety engineers in Russia and elsewhere always have known that indigestion is a common cause of accidents.

In one recorded American instance the chronic indigestion of a truck driver was convicted of contributory go no less than five serious highway accidents. Usually, however, safety experts who discover such a case can do nothing about it except advise the dispirited worker to see a doctor or to eat more suitable food or to take some other step to cure his indigestion for himself.

Experts at the Stalin plant decided to go further. In one room of the factory restaurant a special dining room was installed for people with indigestion. The plant doctor is instructed to refer to this department anyone whose meals disagree with him or who is found for any other reason to need a special diet.

All such workers are fed in this diet room instead of in the general dining rooms and are compelled by the restaurant staff to eat precisely what the doctor

Health Nurse Meets With Blanton Group To Plan Program

Miss Beulah White, county health nurse, met with the Blanton health committee in the home of Mrs. Charles Tounsett Tuesday afternoon to consider plans for health work in the community in the fall, especially among the school children.

The sanitary program recently approved by the county superintendent and the county nursing service has been adopted by the Blanton committee and the school graded, scoring 200 points out of a possible 280.

The health nurse has launched a clean-up campaign for the schools of this county and is asking each community to devote a week to this before the opening of their terms in September and October. Practically every district where a health committee has been formed has agreed to follow this plan and will hold sanitary surveys in connection.

As soon as the independent district schools open early in September, Miss White will begin her school program which will be continued through the fall, visiting the common district schools as they are opened.

HAS YOUR ADDRESS
CHANGED RECENTLY?

Ledger subscribers are requested to notify the publisher of any change in their addresses promptly. Under the new postal laws newspapers and periodicals must pay postage due for notices of any change in addresses furnished by the postoffice. Besides, there always is the probability that your paper will be delayed or fail to reach you altogether if you do not give immediate notification when you move. The best plan for all concerned is to send the change of address in advance.

The heat wave during the past week has made rain badly needed. People need cooler weather for their feelings and crops are showing signs of burning under the scorching sun. All crops would be benefitted by a general rain at this time, but farmers declare they do not want a protracted wet spell.

October 15, 16 and 17 are the dates set for the 1936 Runnels County Fair. This is only a short time off and if a successful fair is held there must be many plans made for the entertainment of the crowds. There is no doubt but that Runnels county can present a fair this year which will have quality in every department and will attract many visitors. Besides the exhibits there must be entertainment and this requires time and thought on the part of committeemen.

As the fall season approaches many new residents are moving to Ballinger. A town that grows must have new residents and those who call themselves citizens should be glad to extend a welcome and sell their city to the new-comers. A man who moved here last week remarked Monday "I have lived in bigger towns, but I have never known the friendly spirit that seems to exist here." A few words of welcome said Ballinger to this family and they are ready to take their share of the load and become boosters for a bigger and better city.

City officers in endeavoring to enforce traffic regulations here, especially with regard to double parking and running stop signs, are not trying to aggravate people, but are trying to solve a problem that is causing worry in every town. The constant increase in automobiles has caused small cities like Ballinger to have a dangerous problem on week-ends. Towns just a little larger than this have had no double parking for many years and have found it is the only way to keep the streets open and allow citizens to use their cars downtown, at the same time reducing collisions. The Ballinger plan is built for the convenience of everyone and is not intended to work a hardship on a single person. When informed that there would be no more double parking here a few people became indignant and informed the police that they would go elsewhere, but the places they referred to allow no double parking. The enforcement of this ordinance is for the protection of everyone and officers ask the cooperation of motorists in this action.

AIR RACE FROM ENGLAND TO SOUTH AFRICA SLATED

JOHANNESBURG, Union of South Africa, August 12.—One of the longest air races ever held will be that from England to South Africa during the British Empire Exhibition in Johannesburg in September. The prize money will be $50,000 and is expected to attract aviators from many parts of the world.

The purpose is to arouse interest in commercial aviation in South Africa and to show that it soon will be possible for Europeans to spend week-ends in Johannesburg. It is expected that the flight will be accomplished in two days.

The race is approved by the British and South African governments. I. W. Schlesinger, South African millionaire, who recently was in the United States, is promoting the event.

In the same county, Eurma Louise Sheegog, garden demonstrator of the Providence 4-H club, has made a profit of $10.01 from sale of vegetables from her garden of 2,380 feet of row space which cost her only $2.37 to plant because of saving seed from her last year's garden. NEVER READS IN FUN, SAYS ELEVATOR OPERATOR

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Abacost, vaccinator, gastrologist—No, we didn't really expect you to understand that. These words are the dictionary test of Columbia University's dictionary expert. It's a good dictionary that contains one of them, and a rare one, indeed, that has all three.

Columbia's lexicographical authority is not a professor or even a more humble member of the faculty. He is an elderly elevator operator, known only as "Murray," who works in the school of journalism building. For twenty years now, Murray has devoted up to twelve hours a day to the perusal of dictionaries.

"I can stick any of these professors," said Murray, outlining the scope of his knowledge. "But lots of these words would stick anybody in the country."

Don't think that Murray is a narrow pedant, confining himself to a single field of knowledge.

"I've never read for pleasure," he confessed. "I used to read the Congressional Record. Lately, I've been reading law reviews, United States government publications and medical books."

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Carroll, Fred Mitchell and Jack Carroll left Friday for Dallas to attend the centennial exposition.

Bearcats to Start Training About September First

Coach Felton T. Wright, of the Ballinger high school, stated Monday that he was setting Tuesday, September 1, as the date for beginning fall football training. This will give the boys a week's work before school begins September 7, and all who can are asked to make arrangements to be on hand September 1.

Assistant Coach Paul Gibbs will arrive here about August 20 and will be ready to start work getting the backfield men ready for the season ahead. Billy Jack May, looked upon to carry the brunt of the work in the backfield this year, has pneumonia and probably will miss several weeks training if he does well and is able to play at all this season. His absence would mean much loss to the team as he can kick, pass, carry the ball, and block.

The installation of lights and seats at the field will not interfere with early practice in any way and equipment will be issued and training started September 1. The first game will be played September 25 at Menard.

The Coleman Bluecats are getting the earliest start of any team in the district beginning training August 17. They will be working under new coaches this year. Head Coach Shelton, who comes to Coleman from Honey Grove, has a good reputation in football and he will be assisted by Line Coach Johnson. The Coleman school board is erecting 1,000 additional seats at the football field. About 60 candidates are expected to be out for the team.

The Winters school will have the same coaching staff and many of the members of the 1935 championship team back, besides plenty of new material. The Blizzards will also begin training about September 1 with some of the boys doing some kicking and passing before that time.

At Rising Star, Carr Cprayberry is the new coach and with his past reputation and plenty of experienced material the Indians are looked upon as a tough member of the new district.

The Santa Anna, Bangs and Mozelle schools will continue with the same coaching staffs and little has been heard from them to date.

NEW AIRPORT BUILDING OUTSIDE OF MOSCOW

MOSCOW, Aug. 12.—Construction of a large new airport has been started ten miles outside of Moscow. The port will handle 720 passengers and forty tons of freight daily. Its construction has been necessitated by the steady increase of air communication between the capital and all parts of the U. S. S. R., as well as with foreign countries.

Special grounds for mass air demonstrations have been laid out with stands to accommodate over 200,000 spectators and parking space for 15,000 cars.

Miss Lola Eubank Elected to Teach In Local Schools

The Ballinger school faculty was completed at the regular meeting of the trustees Monday evening with the election of Miss Lola Eubank. Election of another teacher was necessitated by the recent resignation of Miss Ellasoise Walker.

Miss Eubank has been assigned to the fourth grade. She holds a degree and has ten years' teaching experience. In 1935-36 she taught at Ranger, where she was reelected for another year.

Miss Walker had taught in the school system here for the past twelve years and has many personal friends in Ballinger.

Miss Carmen Demmer was assigned to the third grade, formerly taught by Miss Walker.

Supt. H. C. Lyon stated that with the faculty complete, plans were being made for the opening of school, less than one month hence. Construction at the negro school is progressing steadily and the building will be ready for the opening on September 7. The Mexican school will open at the same time.

The board fixed the compulsory attendance period to commence at the first of the fourth month of the term and to continue for the specified 100 days.

Judge O. L. Parish Discusses Amendments at Luncheon

Members of the Ballinger Rotary Club heard Judge O. L. Parish speak Tuesday on the proposed amendments to the state constitution. The district judge explained each amendment from a legal standpoint, without giving his personal opinion in regard to the merit of any.

Judge Parish devoted a considerable portion of his time to the amendment dealing with the control of the liquor traffic in Texas. He gave a history of the law which has been on the statute books since 1876, and which has been amended numerous times. The speaker explained the section dealing with the state's right to buy and sell in unbroken packages with no consumption on the premises. He referred to other states and nations which have laws setting up government liquor monopolies. The local option feature was also explained at length. Judge Parish was asked if in his opinion precincts in dry counties would be allowed to hold elections and vote wet. This he refused to answer, stating that he had not studied the question at length.

The amendment dealing with pensions for retired school teachers who had followed the profession for twenty years was mentioned briefly by the speaker. The proposed amendment dealing with the legislature being empowered to provide workmen's compensation insurance for all state employees was passed quickly without much comment. Judge Parish did call the attention of the Rotarians to the cost of this measure and stated that it would be a good thing for some insurance company.

The reorganization of the pardon board was mentioned and referred to as a very interesting move.

The amendment seeking to raise the salaries of the governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, attorney general and comptroller was discussed and apparently favored by most of those present. Judge Parish gave figures on what other states pay their principal officers which were far in excess of that paid in Texas. The amendment would fix the governor's salary at $12,000, the attorney general's at $10,000, and the other three at $6,000 each.

The last amendment referred to deals with fixing the number of legislators from any county and aims at prohibiting the big centers from controlling policies.

Fire Chief Chester Cherry made a short report on the state fire school at College Station and Alexander McGregor rendered a cornet solo.

A basket picnic was announced for this (Thursday) evening to which each Rotarian is to bring a member of a new family in Ballinger as his guest.

Common Germs Find Cannibals Very Vulnerable

LONDON, August 12.—Another instance of the devastation that can be worked by germs on savage peoples not accustomed to them was reported from the island of Malekula in the South Seas in a recent talk by T. H. Harrison to the Royal Geographical Society in London.
Mr. Harrison lived a year among the cannibal head hunters of the Malekulan race called the Big Nambas, a people continually at war over things which Mr. Harrison calls as trivial as those which lead to wars in Europe. One war began because a visitor accidentally stepped on the chief's dog.

In spite of continual warfare, the enemies killed during Mr. Harrison's year numbered only thirty, of whom but seven were brought home and eaten. By contrast with this, an epidemic of influenza in 1934 caused more than one hundred Big Namba deaths. An epidemic of whooping cough in 1932 killed off more than 600.
While whooping cough is common in all civilized countries, it is so seldom fatal that it has almost ceased to figure in death statistics. Its greater deadliness among the Malekulan natives is not explained by lack of medical care, but by the fact that American or European populations have a kind of mass resistance to the whooping cough germs, built up gradually during past generations. In Malekula this germ presumably was absent before 1932. No mass resistance of the people existed.
Finally some living whooping cough germs managed to reach the island. Lacking any such natural resistance, the infected natives promptly died.

including fried chicken, salads in many varieties, pickles, potatoes, beans and other vegetables, homemade pies and cakes for dessert, and iced tea and punch for drinks. Just before the meal Judge Paul Trimmer was given a platter of gizzards and Troy Simpson a platter of livers. Both men had previous expressed fondness for these parts of the chicken and were remembered generously.
In the afternoon Miss Myra Tankersley, county home demonstration agent, presided and the program was continued, a council meeting was held and County Agent John Barton addressed the women in regard to the Rannels County Fair and invited the full cooperation of the home demonstration clubs in the exposition to be held in Ballinger on October 15, 16 and 17.

The women passed many compliments on the city park, saying that it was a credit to the entire county and one of Ballinger's biggest assets.

YOUTH PROJECTS TO CONTINUE AT PARK AFTER AUGUST 17

K. V. Northington, city secretary, received notice today that youth administration work would be resumed in city park here August 17. All available youths will be given employment in the park and an improvement program launched which will continue the remainder of the summer.

Trees will be cared for during the next two weeks, mistletoe trimmed from the tops, and a number of diseased trees doctored.
Mr. Northington stated that the new section of the park being opened would come in for most of the work. Additional tables and seats will be constructed and the new section otherwise beautified.

LADDERS ARE APPROACHES

OSLO, August 12.—Ladders, not roads, are the only approaches to Norway's more inaccessible farms, which are mere ledges on the mountains. Norwegian farmers in the old days sometimes pulled up their ladders when the tax collector came by, but a law later made a stationary ladder of iron compulsory.

Among Asiatics there still is a popular belief that earthquakes are due to the skipping and breathings of a huge frog.

WITH THE BOYS IN CAMP

By Sergeant R. B. Thomas
Company C, 102nd Infantry

CAMP HULEN August 12.—After the rain stopped last Monday, August 3, we had plenty of details to keep us busy. Tuesday morning we were given the order to furl our tents and scrub tent bases. Sgt. Price Middleton's supply tent caught fire while furling and burned.

Wednesday morning we went to the drill field and from 11 o'clock until noon we practiced guard mount. We went to the rifle range Thursday morning and fired our musketry problem—our company placing fifth in the regiment. Friday afternoon we mounted guard and left eight men on post and then made a divisional review. There has been a new regiment added to the 36th division, the 32nd Field Artillery, and their new equipment added to the review, the largest review for Camp Hulen since the cavalry moved to Mineral Wells.

We came off guard at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon a very tired but happy bunch of men. The guard required more men this year than ever before due to a near serious water shortage.

Sunday was a complete day of pleasure for all. Six of us, Sgt. McKay, Sgt. Middleton, Cpl. Winans, Pvt. Stubbs, Pvt. Boier and the writer left camp at 4 o'clock Sunday morning for an all-day fishing trip in Palacios Bay and the Gulf of Mexico. We fished about two hours in the bay 10 miles out and then went to the gulf. The "Elm Creek" boys are not very good salt water fishermen and our luck was terrible. I landed an 8-pound shark. I would pull him a while and vice versa—finally both of us gave out, him first. We got back to camp in the late afternoon with a new experience added for all of us.

PEAT BOGS OF IRELAND MAY PRODUCE POWER

DUBLIN, Aug. 12.—Peat bogs of the Irish Free State may be used to produce electrical energy. This was suggested by President de Valera and Sean Lemess, minister for industry and commerce, at the national turf-cutting contest, which was opened by the president at Umetas Bog near Monasterevan.

It was stated that $1,000,000 is to be spent on the mechanical production of peat, and that the work has already been started.

President de Valera said that recently a delegation went under government auspices to study the methods employed in Russia, Germany and other countries in the utilization of peat and the production of peat fuel by a mechanical process.

TURKISH PARENTS GIVEN RULES FOR CHILDREN

ISTANBUL, August 12.—The headmasters of all high schools for girls have been giving hints to Turkish parents to raise the standard of their pupils' moral outlook.

According to these recommendations, no girl should go to a cinema unless accompanied by an adult member of her family or in a school party; a student should not talk to any young man in the street, except her own brother, and if any man should address her, she should tell her parents or headmaster; she should refrain from wearing loud colors, rings, or earrings and the painting of her face or nails.

She ought always to wear her school cap.

Former Representative G. Y. Lee Endorses Simpson

Eden, Tex., August 12, 1936. Mr. James M. Simpson, Sr., Paint Rock, Texas.
Dear Mr. Simpson:

Replying to your inquiry concerning the assistance rendered to me in my candidacy for the office of Representative, you were the man that forced me into the race. You procured a petition and filed my name in the three different counties and paid the filing fee thereon.

I have at all times regarded that action on your part with a great deal of pride. Having known you for more than thirty years, you having known me intimately all during those years, and having had the opportunity to know my limitations, I could but accept that token of confidence with much regard.

Under the circumstances and conditions existing today I hope that your son, James Simpson, Jr., will succeed in winning the representative race at this time and it is all right for you to use this letter as seems proper to you if it will further his candidacy and if my support will be of value to him.

Yours very truly,

Parties for Bride-Elect
Mrs. Neil McAlpine was hostess at a morning bridge and china shower to honor Miss Cordelia Batts, bride-elect of Lloyd Johnson of Tuscola. The wedding will take place August 16, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Batts.

Bride and groom tallies were used for recording bridge scores in rooms decorated with summer blooms in dainty pastel shades. Mrs. Levy Lee was recipient of high score prize and the guest of honor was required to wash dishes because she was found "cheating." The dishes proved to be a set of matched china from her assembled friends.

A salad plate with iced tea and cookies was passed at the noon hour.

Included were: Misses Batts, Louise Batts, Vhelma Parrish, Cathleen Connelly, Fay Clark, Helen Brewer, Mmes. E. W. Stasney, K. V. Northington, Lee, Rothal O'Kelly, J. G. A bridge breakfast Friday morning was the courtesy extended Miss Batts by Mrs. J. C. Sturges, Jr., and Mrs. Jack Rudd in the attractive Rudd home on Seventh Street.

A green and white color scheme was employed in room decorations and game appointments. Sweet peas in low bowls centered Madeira-laid quartette tables for the serving of the two-course breakfast.

High score award won by Mrs. A. R. Jones was presented the honoree. The hostesses also presented gifts.

Guests were: Misses Batts, Louise Batts, Virginia Holman, Fay Clark, Cathleen Connelly, Mmes. Jones, H. J. Zappe, John Stitt, F. T. Woody, Leonard Stallings, Troy Simpson, Horace Sessions, Robert Bruce and Loyd Herring.

Mrs. E. H. Boelsche and Miss Vhelma Parrish entertained a group of Miss Batts' friends Friday afternoon with bridge and a surprise kitchen shower.

A wealth of varied summer blooms in shades of pink graced rooms where five tables were in play. The guest of honor was late in arriving and was asked to see her wedding scene in miniature on the dining room table. Surrounding it were the gifts, all for kitchen use.

A green ice was served with cakes iced in pink.

Guests were: Misses Batts, Louise Batts, Nadyne Sonricker, Nell Shepperd, Rosa Crockett, Cathleen Connelly, Willie Jones of Brownwood, Zenma Street, Nanell Jones, Mary Jane Kiechle, Mmes. The lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Simpson in Wilke Terrace was the scene of a gala party Tuesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Schnable were joint hosts to more than a hundred friends.

Punch was served throughout the evening by Mary Simpson and Isla Mae Jennings, and cantaloupe rings topped with ice cream were served at the refreshment hour.

The guest personnel included: Dr. and Mmes. E. H. Boelsche, C. W. Cheatham, Oren Chandler, C. F. Bailey, E. W. Stasney, Messrs. and Mmes. Homer Vanderpool, Tom Agnew, W. C. ### CHINESE BOY JOURNEYS FAR TO GRAVE OF PARENT

SYDNEY, N. S. W., August 12.—To fulfill the sacred duty of the Chinese of making a pilgrimage to the grave of a parent, Chong Shang-Yin traveled thousands of miles to Peru.

That accomplished, he set out to see the rest of the world, and has reached Sydney.

Lack of money did not deter the youth, who at the age of 15 set out to work his way from China.

He was forced to accomplish the journey in stages, going first to Japan, then to the United States, Colombia, and Ecuador, and Ecuador, and on to Peru. He next visited Chile, the Argentine, Uruguay, and Brazil, then went to New York and crossed to England.

HOLD-UP NETS VICTIM PROFIT

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 12.—Being a hold-up victim netted a profit for a muscular musician in Buenos Aires. Three bandits waylaid him, and one covered him with a revolver while the other two went through his pockets. Snatching the weapon from the man, the musician smote him over the head with it. All three ran as the musician fired at them. They had found about $1.25 cash in his pockets; he had a revolver which he sold for $15.

OLDEST GOLD OBJECTS UNCOVERED IN HUNGARY

BUDAPEST, Aug. 12.—Of great historical interest is the find made by peasants digging for clay in the village of Jeszlady.

Treasures now excavated include marble beads which are thought to have been ankle and thigh ornaments of women, a copper hatchet and some rare gold pins which the National Museum experts say belong to the oldest gold objects ever found in Europe.

Some of the skeletons also found are believed to be descendants of the "homo nordicus" the long-headed men of the Stone Age.

Trades Parents After 17 Years

Awarded to her family in a Georgia baby mix-up of 17 years ago, Louise Madeline Pittman, motivated by her resemblance to daughters of the other family, has changed names and parents. Louise Madeline is pictured at left in the top photo with one of her new sisters, Mrs. Cecil Hensley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Garner of Macon, Ga., whom Louise Madeline has decided are her real parents. The lower photo shows baby Louise Madeline with Mrs. Daniel L. Pittman, who, with her husband, was awarded the baby shortly after her birth in 1915.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Holloway and little son, Donald, of Happy, have returned home after visiting here for the past week with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Holloway and Mr. and Mrs. Doss Herring and family.

Jennings & Agnew Form Partnership In Funeral Home

A deal was closed Tuesday in which H. G. Agnew buys an interest in the Jennings Funeral Home and will become actively associated with the institution at once. It is planned to incorporate under the name of the Jennings-Agnew Funeral Home.

Mr. Agnew will assist in the business management of the institution but will not devote full time to the work. He has numerous other interests which demand part of his time and he will continue to look after these interests which include oil production in this area.

C. G. Jennings will remain at the head of the institution and will devote his entire time to the work. He will personally supervise the work in the operations room, make ambulance trips and direct funerals.

No immediate changes are contemplated at the funeral home but a steady improvement program will be carried on to keep the institution strictly modern and provide service as good as can be had, carrying a large stock of equipment to provide any type of funeral desired.

AVALANCHES CHANGE THE FACE OF FUJI

HAKODATE, Japan, August 12.—Continued avalanches around the base of famous Mount Fuji have greatly altered the appearance of the country. The Gotemba and Subashiro roads up the mountain have suffered most seriously from snowslides. The Oishi tea house at Turubo has been swept away.

One slide devastated seventy acres of forest. Fusakichi Kajl, veteran mountain guide, reports that the entire aspect of the mountain has been changed by the avalanches. Ravines ten feet deep have been cut and new mounds and hills created. Ascent will be dangerous until construction crews repair the damage.

Mrs. L. H. Hamilton is repairing her home at 1001 Strong Avenue. Both the interior and exterior are being improved.

Water Consumption About Average Here; Consumers Pay Bills

City water consumers in Ballinger used from 400,000 to 450,000 gallons of water daily during the recent heat wave. This amount is not unusually high as in previous years as much as 500,000 gallons have been used in a day and the peak was reached one day last year when more than 600,000 gallons were metered.

The water supply is holding up well and there is no shortage or prospective shortage here. The water is pure, samples being sent to the state health department every week for analysis.

City officials were complimented recently when a letter was received from Westwood, New Jersey, asking for the system used here to obtain the record collections this city enjoys.

GERMANY'S SUPER AIRPORT IS NEARING COMPLETION

FRANKFORT-ON-MAIN, Aug. 12.—Germany's new super airport is nearing completion and will be opened shortly. It covers 700 acres, of which 183 are intended for the use of dirigibles. An administration building is flanked by a number of secondary buildings.

Surrounding the field about forty-eight obstacle lights have been installed, these being supplemented by thirty-five lights showing the field boundaries. An electrified smoke oven to show direction of the ground wind has been sunk into the center of the field. A beacon of 1,800,000 candlepower has been installed on the roof of the Zeppelin shed. The field contains three runways, each equipped with a battery of searchlights for night landings. The hangar which will house the airships of the transatlantic airship service has a length of 900 feet, a width of 170 feet and a height of 162 feet.

Giants Feared Midgets

Midgets often have keen minds, while giants are frequently below the average in intelligence, says a writer of "The World of Midgets," published in London. The contrast in stiltiness and wit between giants and midgets was amusingly illustrated in the Seventeenth century by an Austrian empress, who collected as many as she could and housed them in the same building. Many people feared the giants would harm the midgets, but the reverse was the case. The midgets teased the life out of the giants, and insulted and robbed them to such an extent that the poor giants, with tears in their eyes, complained about the way they were being bullied! Finally, armed sentinels had to be stationed in the building to protect the poor little giants from the "great" bullying midgets!

Washington, a Dog Lover

George Washington pioneered the breeding of the American foxhound, Washington, who was an ardent fox hunter, imported from the kennels of the Marquis de Lafayette, in France, a number of French hounds. He crossed these with his own English hounds and established the first strain of the American foxhound. The French dogs crossed the Atlantic in 1785, in the care of John Quincy Adams, who later became President of the United States. Like his predecessors and successors, Adams, too, was a dog enthusiast.

More than 10,300,000 washing machines are in use in American homes.

French Beds Elaborate During Day of Louis XIV

In France during the time of Louis XIV the bed frequently stood in an alcove provided for it with a balustrade in front, giving it a position of importance and also separating it from its boudoir-like surroundings. These rooms reached great heights of elegance. Usually, notes a writer in the New York Sun, the woodwork was painted white and gold with panels of finest silk brocade, often blue and silver or blue and white or blue ground and varied colors kept subservient to the ground. The elaborate bed hangings and coverlet were of the same material as the walls and were effectively trimmed with silver or gold braids.

In England, Chippendale designed many beds familiar to us from the few originals and many copies. Most effective was the large four-post bed with cornice and unlike the fine fabric-covered gaiter-boarder design, but now of richly polished, carved and pierced mahogany. Graceful and handsomely carved columns supported the canopy and fine damask or brocade or embroidery of lighter character hung on newly invented pulleys to provide for their being easily drawn.

During the reign of Louis XVI in France, beds continued to suggest elegance and in tribute to Marie Antoinette they became more graceful and feminine. Columns supporting canopies were supplanted by beds with paneled head and footboards of wood or of silk or cane with surrounding frame of painted carved wood. They stood free of their draperies, which usually hung from a crown or segment of a circle or ellipse attached to the wall above them.

Mice in Milady's Hair Common Many Years Ago

As a result of historical study of the Eighteenth century, a writer in the Journal of the Royal Society of Arts says that during that period in England women wore most elaborate head-dresses. A head generally lasted three weeks before it was "mended" and nine weeks was as long as it could safely go in summer. One went to bed in a nightcap of the extinguisher variety, made of stiffened linen or pasteboard, or, at any rate, in a strong net filled. According to contemporary art, a lady sleeping in all this artificiality of coiffure could still look delightful.

An advertisement of 1777 shows, however, that it provided fresh work for the ingenuity of the silversmiths and jewelers: "The many melancholy accidents," it reads, "which have lately happened in consequence of mice getting into ladies' hair in the night time induced the Society of Art, at their last meeting, to offer a premium to the person who should invent the neatest and most useful bedside mousetrap. A silver trap is now invented by Mr. Moses Martingo, in New Bond street, price 3 guineas. He also sells nightcaps made of silver wire, as flexible as gauze and yet so strong that no mouse or even rat can gnaw through them."

Quakers Purchase From Indians

Original land purchases from the Indians on behalf of English settlers were made in the fall of 1677 by commissioners acting for two groups of Quakers, respectively from Yorkshire and London. Title to the lands between Big Timber and Oldman's creeks, covering the present Gloucester county, says the Philadelphia Bulletin, was granted by Chief Mohocksey on September 27, 1677, with three Swedish colonists—Peter Rambo, Lacey Cock and Israel Helmes—acting as interpreters. The consideration stated in the deed is typical of such early transactions with the aborigines, including 30 matchcoats, 30 guns, 30 kettles and one great one, 30 pairs of hose, 20 fathoms of duffels (a popular cloth of the day), 30 petticoats, 30 narrow hose, 20 bars of lead, 15 small barrels of powder, 70 knives, 30 Indian axes, 70 combs, 60 pairs of tobacco tongs, 60 scissors, 60 tinshaw looking-glasses, 120 awl blades, 120 fish-hooks, 2 grasps of red paint, 120 needles, 60 tobacco boxes, 120 pipes, 200 belts, 100 Jew-harps and 6 anchors of rum.

Typical Scenes in Bloody, Revolt-Torn Spain

INFLUENZA IS CREDITED WITH CURING CRIPPLE

MOTHERWELL, England, Aug. 12.—After being wheeled in an invalid chair for fourteen years, John Heuchan, 51, a steel worker, is able to walk again. And he gives credit for his unusual cure to the influenza germ.

Until 1922 Heuchan had been employed at a steel plant in Motherwell. Then, following paralysis of his leg and back, he became a total invalid. "Recently," Heuchan relates, "I had a bad attack of influenza. Recovering from this, I found to my amazement that the power of my legs were gradually returning. My condition improved rapidly,

German Scientist Believes Sawdust Will Provide Food

LONDON, August 12.—Sawdust as the great food crop of the future was predicted by Dr. Friedrich Bergius, of the University of Heidelberg, in an address to the recent international conference on timber utilization, held at London.

There also are to be valuable by-products of drugs, dyes and other chemicals, all produced from sawdust for use in medicine or industry. Several processes have been developed previously for turning part of the substance of sawdust or other woody material into sugar. These processes, however, have never been commercially successful for the reason that most of the wood was not used and the processes were too expensive to be economical when applied to only part of it.

According to Dr. Bergius, German chemists now have perfected ways of separating the sawdust or any other kind of ground or chipped wood into two fractions.

One fraction consists of the material called cellulose, which is the same as the substance of paper. By suitable chemical treatment this cellulose then is converted into crystallized glucose or corn sugar, to be used directly as food.

The other fraction separated from the wood is called lignin and is found to be a raw material capable of yielding almost as many useful products as coal tar.

Indeed, it is probable that the chief substances of coal tar were produced chiefly from the lignin of the original plants which formed the coal beds. Dr. Bergius believes that an acre of average land can raise more food in the form of wood and sawdust than it can in any other crop.

"SAILORS' ARK" TO FEED THE POOR OF SCOTLAND

EDINBURGH, August 12.—Thanks to a generous bequest by a pious master mariner, thousands of hungry poor in Edinburgh are to enjoy all the luxuries of an up-to-date restaurant for a few pennies per meal.

The mariner was Captain Charles Taylor, a native of Stonehaven, and out of his wealth there has been erected in Edinburgh a soup kitchen costing $100,000, where cheap or free meals will be served to the deserving poor. The terms of Captain Taylor's will were that his estate of $190,000 should not be touched until it had accumulated to about $500,000, when there was to be erected "a suitable and handsome soup kitchen to be called the 'Old Sailors' Ark,' in humble remembrance of Him who came to this earth and fed the hungry."

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Corbett and daughter, of Mineola, visited Mr. Corbett's mother, Mrs. O. B. Corbett, and other relatives here the past week-end.

ED MEADERS APPOINTED TROOP 30 SCOUTMASTER

Ed Meaders has been appointed scoutmaster of Ballinger Boy Scout troop No. 30, sponsored by the Ballinger Rotary Club. He succeeds Joe Baxter, who had been in charge of the troop for several months and who recently resigned because of business demanding his full time.

Mr. Meaders will be assisted by Paul Gibbs in directing the troop's activities during the fall and winter and will begin the program at once. The troop is at full strength and the members are doing excellent work on special projects. A number of the boys are about ready to be raised to higher rank with the completion of work which will give them additional merit badges.

HEAVY PRESSURES MEASURED

PEIPING, August 12.—Chinese scientists have found a method of measuring great pressures, such as take place in building structures, by the effect of the pressure on a photographic film which is afterward developed. The discovery was made when it was found that the films were unusually sensitive to pressure.
