VOLUME 56.

BALLINGER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1937.

NUMBER 46.

Trippers to Visit Bronte And Robert Lee Friday

Ballinger good-will trippers will leave here tomorrow (Friday) at 7 o'clock for Bronte and Robert Lee to tell the citizens of Coke county about the Runnels County Fair and to present short programs.

W. O. Wallace will be general chairman of the trip tomorrow and will present the program numbers at each stop. At Bronte H. W. Lynn will make the good-will talk and J. D. Motley will extend an invitation to the fair and tell about the special features offered this year.

At Robert Lee Frank C. Dickey will be the good-will speaker and County Agent John A. Barton will tell about the fair. The Ballinger Cherry Band and special entertainers will provide the program.

A special trip has been announced for Tuesday, August 31, when Ballinger business and professional men will visit Bethel and Olfen. These two communities contribute much to the success of the Runnels County Fair both in attendance and in exhibiting splendid products in the various departments. Leaders of the good-will tours plan to offer a feature program to each of the places. As usual the trippers will leave here at 7 p. m. after assembling on the court house lawn.

Harry Lynn will be in charge of the Bethel and Olfen programs. Homer Vanderpool will extend greetings at Bethel and Mr. Barton will tell of the 1937 fair. At Olfen H. J. Zappe will be the good-will speaker and Troy Simpson will make the fair announcements.

Last week the trippers were received by a large audience at Winters and Wingate. At Winters T. D. Coupland introduced R. W. Earnshaw, who had charge of the program for the two visits. D. R. Hall extended greetings and Mr. Barton told the Winters people about the fair. E. C. Grindstaff was the speaker at Wingate and Mr. Motley gave details of the county fair.

FARMERS URGED TO KEEP COTTON SALES RECORD

County Agent John A. Barton urges Runnels county farmers selling cotton now to keep a record of all sales so that they can claim subsidy payments from the government in case they participate in the 1938 farm program.

Information needed for these claims is the date the bale was sold, the buyer, the weight, and the price.

The amount of the proposed government loan has not been set but extension service officials think it will be soon and the subsidy payments to permit the collection of the difference from 12 cents. To collect subsidy payments, Mr. Barton said farmers would have to cooperate with the 1938 farm program and keep a record of sales on the 1937 crop. After compliance with the 1938 program, farmers can claim their payments.

Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Brown, Miss June Wheeler and Mrs. Wheeler, of El Paso, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Armstrong and Mrs. Emma Dee McAden Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Erwin and son, Ralph James, and Miss Virginia Holman returned Monday from Colorado Springs, where they had been on their annual vacation.

Demonstration Club Council Women's Encampment Here is Cancelled Discusses County's Fall Fair

The Runnels county council in session here Saturday called off the home demonstration encampment scheduled to be held in Ballinger August 26 and 27. This action was taken because of the meeting of the state home demonstration association at San Antonio on September 28, 29 and 30. Following this meeting a rally day will be arranged and participated in by all the clubs of the county.

The state meeting at San Antonio will include voting delegates of all counties who were elected to attend the short course at College Station. Runnels county delegates are Mrs. Marvin Turner,

State Supt. Woods Principal Speaker At Banquet Here

County Superintendent E. C. Grindstaff is expecting practically 100 per cent attendance of trustees of the common school districts of Runnels county at the banquet Saturday evening in the dining room of the Central Hotel. School officials and board members of independent districts of the county will also attend this meeting and hear a program dealing with school affairs. State Superintendent L. A. Woods will be the principal speaker, discussing legislation, transportation problems and other matters of interest to every trustee and other school officials.

Mr. Grindstaff has already received acceptances from most of the trustees of the county and will make preparations for more than 150 people at the banquet.

Paul Petty, member of the county board, will deliver the welcome address. Deputy State Superintendent S. O. Murdock will present a group of musical numbers which will precede the main speech by the state superintendent. At the close of the principal address a general discussion will be held with questions permitted by any of those present.

State Senator E. M. Davis, of Brownwood, an invited guest, will be heard at the conclusion of the program and Representative James M. Simpson, of Eden, has accepted an invitation to attend.

Mr. Grindstaff will be master of ceremonies for this occasion. A number of school officials from outside the county are expected to be present.

Fort Worth Man is Injured in Wreck

Willard Humphrey, of Ft. Worth, was injured in a car-truck crash on the Ballinger-San Angelo highway near Rowena early Sunday morning. Information as to the extent of his injuries could not be obtained from local doctors who attended him after he was brought to Ballinger in a Jennings ambulance.

Humphrey was en route to Winters to purchase mules for Bob Bailey, San Angelo livestock dealer, when the accident occurred. He crashed into a truck, owned by a San Angelo trucking firm, at the intersection of the highway and the main road leading out of Rowena.

SHERIFF RETURNS CONVICT FROM LEAVENWORTH PRISON

Sheriff and Mrs. W. A. Holt returned Monday from Kansas City, Missouri, and Leavenworth, Kansas, bringing back Paul Frederickson, who was convicted in this county several years ago on a burglary charge. Frederickson will be held in the Runnels county jail here until state penitentiary officials take him to Huntsville, where he is to serve a two-year term.

Mrs. W. B. Woody left Wednesday morning for Temple to be at the bedside of her mother, who is critically ill.

Oak Creek; Mrs. D. B. McCombs, Content; and Mrs. Henry Leach, South Ballinger.

J. D. Motley spoke to the members of the county council Saturday relative to the women's division of the Runnels County Fair and a round-table discussion was held on the type of exhibits the clubs would make. Further fair plans will be made by the various clubs of the county and exhibit space will be reserved later.

A discussion was also called on the bi-district bedspread show to be held at San Angelo on October 22-25. Runnels county clubs will enter this competition.

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

1—Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia of New York shaking hands with Thomas E. Dewey, the young racket-smashing special prosecutor who is running-for office as candidate for district attorney on the Republican ticket with the mayor. 2—Panoramic view of Shanghai's famous docks which was rocked by explosions of bombs during the attack on the city by Japanese troops. 3—James Masters (left), famed aviator who flew from California to Alaska to join in the search for lost Russian polar divers, shown conferring with his navigator.

Winters Man Dies In Tourist Camp; Leaves Wife Note

Dennis Taylor, about 48, Winters novelty salesman, was found dead late Wednesday afternoon in the Nicholson tourist camp on the Abilene highway. Sheriff W. A. Holt, who conducted an inquiry, returned a verdict of suicide.

Taylor, who had operated a cafe in Winters until recently, came to the tourist camp Tuesday night and asked for a cabin. The proprietor told him there were no cabins vacant but let him spend the night with him. Taylor stayed in the camp all day Wednesday and in the afternoon asked an employee of the camp to go to a local drug store and get him some sodium cyanide. The man sent after the poison tried to buy ten cents' worth but as the drug clerk would not break a box, finally took a half-pound box. When he secured the poison, Taylor mixed half of the contents of the box with water in a tin cup and drank it, dying almost instantly. Before mixing the poison with the water, Taylor tore the label from the box and wrote his wife's name and address on the label. Sodium cyanide is commonly used in this section for killing prairie dogs and jack rabbits.

Decedent is survived by his wife, Mrs. Bessie Taylor, and small son, of Winters; and three sisters, Mrs. Jack Hughes, Mrs. Guy Mullins and Mrs. Barnhill, all of Winters. Spill Brothers Funeral Home (Winters) was in charge of arrangements.

Parents and Pupils Invited to Attend Pan-American Show

Group movement of school children, teachers, parents and friends from Ballinger to the Pan-American Exposition, Dallas has been set for October 25 and 26. The Santa Fe railroad has offered a group rate for this event at one cent per mile for the round trip.

When the group reaches the exposition it will have the facilities of a service officer near the main entrance gate. There orders for group admission tickets at 25 cents each will be issued, special amusement concessions provided and information as to lodging furnished, all without charge. The exposition authorities, at this office, will also maintain a baggage checking service.

Governor James V. Allred has officially proclaimed these dates as school holidays. Full credit will be allowed children who attend the exposition.

Much that is new and educational is offered this year, including the "Cavalade of the Americas," greatly enlarged, presenting the romantic history of all the Americas without charge. The Pan-American casino, largest indoor stage in the world, will offer entertaining programs. In the $1,200,000 hall of state, in addition to the romance of Texas, is presented an exhibit from Tulane University of mid-American history. The federal building has

County's '37 Cotton Crop Forecast as 65,000 Bales

Cotton ginning was getting underway in Runnels county this morning with a fair movement in most sections. At Ballinger about 150 bales have been ginned to date and more than 100 have been turned out at Winters. Other gins in the county have all had bales and will become busier as soon as weather conditions permit steady picking.

Heavy rains in many communities of the county stopped picking this week and also retarded the opening of bolls.

Local cotton men who watch the county's crops every year and who are capable of making an accurate estimate of the production set the total at present around 65,000 bales and declare it is possible for the county to make 5,000 to 10,000 more if insects do not damage and the rains prove beneficial. A few estimate the crop as low as 55,000 bales, however.

Most of the cotton men interviewed by a Ledger reporter today said they believed there was a 65,000-bale crop on the plants at this time. There is a slight increase in acreage in this county over last year and the general condition is better. Nearly 50,000 bales were ginned in 1936.

The next government estimate of production will be released on September 8.

Four Amendments Carry in County; Total Very Light

One of the smallest totals ever polled in a county-wide election was reported here Monday evening after the balloting on the six state constitutional amendments. A total of 519 votes was cast in the 27 voting boxes of Runnels county, all the amendments carrying with the exception of two, that concerning the salaries of county, district and precinct officials, and the one pertaining to highway construction in Harris county.

The two voting boxes in Ballinger only registered 137 votes and other boxes of the county came in in about the same proportion. Tabulations showed: The amendment providing for the amount of the liability in state banks— For, 288 Against, 187 The amendment dealing with destitute children under the age of 14 not to exceed $5 nor more than $12 per month for such children of any one family— For, 293 Against, 195 No. 3 authorizing the legislature to fix the manner and basis of compensation for all district, county and precinct officers— For, 219 Against, 261 No. 4 providing that property shall never be assessed for taxes

Cotton Specialists Coming For Meeting September 29

Paint Rock Man Killed in Wreck; Another Injured

Roy Day, 24, of Paint Rock, was killed instantly and Leonard Fikes, also of Paint Rock, was seriously injured when their automobile collided with the rear end of a truck loaded with cedar posts at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning between Eden and Paint Rock on highway No. 4. The victims were rushed to Eden for treatment and Fikes was brought on to the Halley & Love Sanitarium in Ballinger at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning for examination and treatment.

Day and Fikes left Tuesday afternoon for Junction to attend to business and were returning home Wednesday morning when the wreck occurred. Relatives of Fikes believe they failed to see the truck which was headed towards Paint Rock and crashed into it at a high rate of speed. Day was dead when taken to Eden and the body was removed to the home of his mother in Paint Rock.

Fikes sustained a number of serious head injuries which included a completely crushed mouth. One leg was also injured, but an examination revealed no broken bones except around the mouth.

SCHOOL BOARD TO MOVE OFFICE SEPTEMBER 1

The Ballinger school board office will be moved on September 1 to the Ballinger Printing Co. building on Hutchings Avenue. For several years the board has occupied an office in the rear of the C. A. Doose building.

The trustees will remodel the rooms at the new location and make them convenient for their use. All business of the board will be handled here with A. F. Breck in charge.

New Stock Pens Built By A. & S. Railroad

Livestock loading pens equal to any in the state were recently completed here by the Abilene & Southern Railroad. The new pens, costing over $3,000, are in the same location as the old ones, at the Y made by A. & S. tracks near the W. F. Mason and Raleigh Reese gins. E. M. Eubank, local agent of the A. & S., said the pens were modern in every respect and would be a great help to stockmen of this territory.

The arrangement consists of six pens, two small and one large pen on each side of a large runway. At one end of the runway is a chute for unloading stock from trucks, and at the other a loading dock for the railroad cars. Stock herded into the pens are driven in through a large gate on the north side of the pens.

From thirty to forty carloads of stock, depending on the size of the animals, can be kept in the pens. Being constructed of 2x8 and 2x10 lumber spiked and bolted to the uprights, the fences are bullproof and so constructed at the ground that a rabbit would have a tough time getting out.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS ENTERTAINS WINTERS MEN

Members of the Doss Bible class of the First Methodist Church were hosts at city park here Tuesday evening to about 35 men, who are members of the Winters Methodist church Bible class. The entertainment was a joint affair observing the end of a contest for new members between the two classes.

Jack Nixon, Sr., president of the Ballinger class, was in charge of the program and introduced speakers from each town who expressed appreciation for the gathering. Rev. J. W. Sharbutt, pastor of the Winters church, made the principal talk. Ice cold watermelons were served.

An important county-wide farm meeting will be held at the court house here September 29, beginning at 9:30 a. m. Farmers, cotton buyers, ginners, business men, and everyone else interested in improving the staple and grade of Texas cotton are invited to attend.

A group of the best posted cotton men in the county will discuss the alarming situation and the need for taking immediate steps to improve the staple and grade in this state. Included in the party to be here are Roy Saunders, of the U. S. department of agriculture; E. A. Miller, of the extension service; F. E. Lichte, gin specialist; D. T. Killough, cotton breeder at the main experiment station, College Station; and probably several others.

John A. Barton, county agent, stated that a committee would be appointed in every community in Runnels county to assist in creating interest in and seeing that a large crowd is present at this meeting. He emphasized the point that vocational agriculture teachers, bankers and ginners are especially invited to attend.

Further announcements will be made regarding this meeting and every effort will be made to make it instructive and give the visiting speakers a good hearing.

LAST UNION SERVICE OF PRESENT SERIES TO BE HELD SUNDAY

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

CAMERAS BY THE SEA

Enlarged from portion of negative taken with a folding camera giving post-card size pictures. Exposure 1/100 second at f.11 on supersensitive film.

COMES the time every year when many of us make for the seashore for cool breezes, swimming, sailing, motorboating, fishing, and the many other pleasures that go with a sojourn by the sea.

Any one can enjoy this fun without a camera, but verily to go to the seashore and return without having made a picture-story of your visit seems as useless as trying to write a book about it with water for ink. When you have finished, your memory may retain some of it for a time, but eventually you remember little else than the fact that you went there. Years later you will say, "Yes, I had a good time that summer," but what did you do, whom were you with, what did you see? Bet a million that with nothing in your snapshot album to show for it, you will remember scarcely anything of the details of that good time, and regretfully wish you could.

Another reason for taking your camera to the seashore is that where the sea is, with its bright reflecting waters, you have exceptional chances for making fine pictures.

Usually by the sea even on cloudy days you have more light to work with than inland. The extra light gives you opportunity to "stop down" (use a smaller lens opening) and thereby obtain sharp, clear-cut details.

Also there is no better place for interesting action pictures than a summer seaside resort, considering the many varieties of speed and motion that are in evidence—from sea snails to sea planes, not forgetting the high diving sea nymphs. In fact, except for the beach itself and the hotels, cottages and wharves, everything seems to be in motion. Of course, if you want close-ups of fast action you should be equipped with a fast camera, but don't forget that splendid work with many seaside scenes is done with an inexpensive fixed focus camera. If it is rapid motion such as an approaching motorboat, shoot from an angle at a distance of 75 to 100 feet and usually you get it without blur. Then have an enlargement made when you get home.

Mexican University Oldest in America

AUSTIN, August 25.—A whole display case in the Garcia Library at the University of Texas is devoted to an exhibit of items concerning the University of Mexico, oldest higher educational institution in the two Americas. This university was established in 1551, and by 1775 had graduated over 28,000 bachelors of arts and more than 1,400 masters of arts and doctors of philosophy. This display has been of particular interest to University of Texas students since each summer many of them attend the Mexican institution.

Shown in the display is a manuscript history of the University of Mexico, several of the school's elaborately embossed and illuminated invitations, a hand-illuminated diploma of 1643, the university's constitution, and a rule book for students, "The Courteous Student," issued in 1722.

The last named item instructs the students how to behave at the table and while eating, how to treat their equals, the parents and their instructors, as well as in other forms of etiquette.

Excerpts from this handbook follow:

When he is eating with his parents or prelates, let him not be free to talk and although he may have reasons to do so, in his own opinion, let him restrain himself and not talk unless he is asked questions and having to do so let him do it in such an orderly manner that he will be praised and esteemed for his judgment and modesty.

Whenever he eats with the religious in the community or convent let him pay special attention to conducting himself in a religious and grave manner and with silence.

Let him not unfold his napkin, until the persons of greater authority have done so. Let him do likewise in cutting his bread or beginning to eat. Let him be the last in these three respects.

Let him not be the first to drink at the table until others have drunk. The student will notice carefully if there is anyone about to drink or is drinking; he must not do so until the person has finished. Before he drinks, he must wipe his mouth with a napkin and again do so after he has drunk.

When he is eating, he must not lower his head over his plate too much so as to appear blind, nor holds it so high as to let his eyes wander restlessly about the room at everything that happens.

He must take up his food with only three fingers, for eating with the whole hand is unclean and too crude.

The knife must serve only to cut food because to make a toothpick of it is unclean. To eat with the knife is not urbane and it must not serve as a spoon.

Only the right hand must be used in eating or drinking and those who use both hands are like greedy boys who think one hand insufficient to fill their jaws and fill their mouths so full that they cannot talk. Whenever he drinks he must not make noises; nor must he drink before eating, which is characteristic of harvesters and while he is drinking he must not take his eyes from his glass.

While he is eating at the table he must not rinse his mouth nor with his pocket handkerchief nor with a toothpick until after leaving the table.

It is ill-mannered to place the elbow on the table while eating.

Let him not put under the table fruit seeds nor bones except when two people are eating from the same plate because then it would be bad taste to return the bones to the plate just as biting into a piece of bread and returning it to the plate where another must eat.

Sucking the fingers is childlike.

He must always leave something on his plate.

If he receives letters while eating, he must not read them until he has left the table or until he is alone.

Scratching at the table is indecent and bad and to speak with a toothpick in his mouth is discourteous and likewise to take salt with the fingers. It should be placed on a knife.

Let him not drink with his mouth full and having eaten the food from his plate let him not return it for another lest he be considered greedy.

If he is eating with his equals, let him not choose the best plate nor look for the seat where there is more to eat.

His soup bowl must not be too full and he must eat it with a spoon.

Part of his napkin must always be on the table and part over his clothes because he must not get soiled and after having eaten he must fold his napkin and with it clean up the crumbs of bread and leave the table clean for those who eat after him.

After having eaten he will wash his hands, rinse his mouth and try to keep it clean as well as the rest of his person and clothing because it (cleanliness) is the ornament of a well-bred and noble young man.

All of the items on display were taken from the Garcia collection, in the university library, which is considered by authorities to be the finest collection of Mexican art in existence.

IN MEMORIAM

In Memory of Lang Iden

Comrade, friend, we will be so lonely. Now that you have gone away we will always miss you, only we shall meet again some day. We shall miss your sunny face and your boyish smile. You could never be commonplace, no matter how hard you tried. You had a word for everyone—something sweet to say. Your face looked cheerful, like the warming rays of the sun. We shall meet when our dear Saviour comes to earth from His throne, as He comes in all His splendid glory just to call all His beloved ones home.

'Wee Willie Winkie' Stars Shirley Temple, McLaglen

Adventure as only Rudyard Kipling could write it blazes from the screen in the 20th Century-Fox picturization of his "Wee Willie Winkie," to be shown at the Texas Theatre in midnight preview next Saturday night, and in regular presentations Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, August 29-30-31, with Shirley Temple and Victor McLaglen in the starring roles.

Adventure—rugged as the killed Highlanders holding Khyber Pass, colorful as India's jeweled and brazen hues, strange as the skirling bagpipes on the roof of Asia, romantic as empire's last untamed frontier—fills every moment of this exciting film, the most spectacular production in which Shirley Temple has ever appeared.

"Wee Willie Winkie" marks the beginning of a new phase in Shirley's screen career. The drama was directed by Academy Award winner John Ford.

The curly-headed child star, who has been acclaimed as the No. 1 boxoffice attraction of both America and England, has a highly dramatic role, the strongest supporting cast of any of her screen successes, and the most elaborate production yet accorded one of her films.

Victor McLaglen is himself an Academy Award winner, and the supporting cast includes C. Aubrey Smith, June Lang, Cesar Romero, Michael Whalen, Constance Collier and young Douglas Scott, among many others.

Radio Idol Kenny Baker in New Picture

"Mr. Dodd Takes the Air," a picture which combines several unusually appealing features, will be shown at the Texas Theatre tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday.

The thing most noteworthy about it, perhaps, is that it introduces as a full-fledged film star, young Kenny Baker, who has long been one of the top-ranking radio favorites of the nation. And those who have seen previews of "Mr. Dodd" say Kenny is really great.

"Mr. Dodd Takes the Air" was adapted from that best-selling novel by Clarence Budington Kelland, called "The Great Crooner," a story about a young singer of fair ability who had a throat operation which gave his voice a peculiar something that was different from any other voice in the world.

Kenny Baker sings five tuneful melodies written by the highly successful composing team of Harry Warren and Al Dubin. Kenny is surrounded by a high-class comedy cast for his movie debut. The always delightful Alice Brady plays a goofy opera singer who pursues him with matrimony in mind. Frank McHugh is his audacious and somewhat nutty press agent. Gertrude Michael is a vamp who has mercenary ambitions toward Kenny. His real romantic interest is Jane Wyman, pretty little starlet. Henry O'Neill, Ferris Taylor and Harry Davenport add to the melee.

'Night Must Fall' Unusual Mystery Play to the Ritz

An experiment in defiance of tradition was attempted by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer in filming the stage hit, "Night Must Fall," to be shown at the Ritz Theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, August 29-30-31, with Robert Montgomery and Rosalind Russell in the stellar roles.

A new type of murder story, "Night Must Fall" is unfolded on the screen with a technique as different from any employed before as was "The Thin Man" unique in its handling.

A star known for sparkling, frothy roles of the most sympathetic sort, Montgomery greets his fans in the new picture as one of the most fiendish of murderers.

Montgomery's fans will have the surprise of their lives. They will meet an entirely new person, a thoroughly false and bad one.

Throughout the whole story impends the threat of his murderous impulse. And Rosalind Russell has the difficult task of playing a plain girl struggling with her need for love and her loathing of the only man, whom she is convinced is the criminal, to excite the emotion in her.

Developing new treatment of such unusual story material, and for the purpose of reintroducing a star in so completely different a role from any he has done previously, was a compelling problem.

Besides Montgomery and Miss Russell, the cast includes three members of the original stage troupe, Dame May Whitty, Kathleen Harrison and Merle Tottenham, and also Alan Marshall, Matthew Boulton and E. E. Clive.

"Romeo and Juliet" Booked Here for Early Showing

The most brilliant cast the screen has ever known brings to the world Shakespeare's never-to-be-forgotten "Romeo and Juliet," which will be shown soon at the Ritz Theatre. The story that has tugged at the heartstrings of the world for more than 300 years, the lovers who can never die, was produced by the late Irving G. Thalberg, who made "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" and "Mutiny on the Bounty."

The unsurpassed cast includes such screen notables as Norma Shearer, John Barrymore, Leslie Howard, Edna May Oliver, Basil Rathbone, C. Aubrey Smith and many others. Over two thousand extras were employed in the production.

Fidelity to Shakespeare's immortal poetry was assured by Prof. William Strunk, Jr., of Cornell University, who served as literary adviser. More than a year of intense research was required to recapture the life and spirit of the fabulous Italian Renaissance in setting and costume as a colorful frame for the swift action of the story.

The story is an exciting adventure of four days in the lives of Juliet and her Romeo, their meeting, their eager, desperate love for each other, the swift dramatic events that follow, causing Romeo's banishment and their final reunion in the unforgettable tomb scene.

'Hopalong' Story Soon at Palace

That popular trio of the western screen, "Hopalong Cassidy," "Windy," and "Lucky," return to the Palace Theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, August 29-30-31, in "Rustlers' Valley," latest of the Clarence E. Mulford action stories.

The story is a mile-a-minute account of how "Hopalong" triumphs over a crooked banker who is out to wrest valuable lands away from a group of ranchers, and who does not hesitate to use rustling methods and trumped-up murder charges to accomplish this end.

"Rustlers' Valley" returns charming Muriel Evans, who appeared with the three inseparable saddle-mates in "Three on the Trail" and "Call of the Prairie," to the popular Mulford outdoor romances. Since her last appearance in these stories she has scored in "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town" with Gary Cooper and Jean Arthur.

Much of the action in "Rustlers' Valley" was filmed in Columbia, California, famous "ghost town," once the center of the gold rush in the Mother Lode country and the mecca of prospectors from all over the world.

William Boyd plays the role of "Hopalong" as usual, with George Hayes as "Windy," and Russell

Hayden as "Lucky." The cast also includes Stephen Morris.

South Has Many Assets For Livestock Industry

(This is one of a series of short, authentic articles on livestock production and feeding, published as a service to farmers and stockmen in cooperation with the West Texas Cottonseed Co. mills.)

Many natural advantages of soil, climate and crops enable the South to produce livestock economically and efficiently, livestock authorities point out. With cotton no longer profitable as the only cash crop, Southern farmers are turning to livestock as the best means of supplementing cotton income and of marketing grains and roughage.

To the farmer who is raising, or wants to raise, livestock, knowledge of a few simple but fundamental facts on animal nutrition will prove most helpful.

All farm animals are "living factories," producing meat or milk, wool, eggs or mohair, or energy for work. To supply the needs of its body, each animal requires the following substances: fats, proteins, crude fiber, nitrogen-free extract, minerals, water and vitamins.

Nitrogen-free extract and crude fiber, combined, are called carbohydrates. Carbohydrates, made up of sugars and starches, are combined with fats as sources of energy and fuel. When fed in amounts exceeding that needed to maintain the body, they are stored up in the form of fatty tissue.

Protein includes all nitrogenous compounds of feeds. The primary purpose of protein is to form lean meat and to restore worn-out tissues and muscles; but, in addition to these functions, protein can be used—and is used—to produce heat, and is, therefore, a source of fat. Because no other food nutrient can do its work, protein is the most important nutrient in foods. Proteins can substitute for carbohydrates and fats, but carbohydrates are not function as protein.

POWER PLUS

Although her skill and technique deserve full credit for Jadwiga Jadowska's recent victory over Alice Marble, American tennis champion, in the tennis finals at Rye, N. Y., the power and determination of the Polish star, demonstrated graphically in this picture, were the major weapons in her armament. Here, too, is evidence of the great stamina that enables Jadwiga to maintain a killing pace in the pinches.

In the South, the most commonly used protein supplement is cottonseed meal, or cake, made from cottonseed grown on Southern farms. Cottonseed meal is an economical and efficient source of protein in rations for all farm animals; in addition, Southern farmers help the market for their own cottonseed by feeding meal or cake. Properly combined in the ration, two pounds of cottonseed meal will replace about four pounds of corn or oats. When corn is $1 per bushel ($35.70 per ton), cottonseed meal, used to replace part of the corn, has a feeding value of $71.40 per ton.

Mineral matter is found in all vital parts of the animal body, so that an adequate supply of mineral is essential in balanced rations. Salt, calcium and phosphorus are the chief minerals needed. Limestone, oyster shell flour and bone meal supply calcium, while cottonseed meal is a rich source of phosphorus.

Both water and salt should be available in ample amounts at all times.

Vitamins are essential, also, for a balanced ration. Abundant pastures and good, bright grass or legume hay will furnish the vitamins necessary for livestock. At least part of the roughage in rations should include one good source of vitamins, such as legume hays, grass hays, silage and pastures.

By feeding home-grown grains and roughages, properly balanced with cottonseed meal—the South's own concentrated protein—Southern farms can produce livestock efficiently and economically, both as a second "cash crop" and to supply their own needs for food and farm power.

growth. Rosborough warned that fall gardens should not be planted until rains had provided plentiful soil moisture. To insure a fair stand of fall vegetables under unfavorable fall conditions, fall sown seed should be planted at a much thicker rate than is necessary in the spring.

Girl Tells of Life In Masonic Orphan Home at Arlington

Miss Adell Feeler, of route 3, Winters, who was reared in the Masonic Orphan's Home at Arlington, has been asked by many of her friends to give a description of the home and the activities of the children there. She wrote the following and requested that it be printed in The Ledger:

"The Masonic Home is one of the most beautiful places in the state with beautiful green lawns and huge flower beds.

"We have one of the best school systems with nine months of winter school and two of summer school. The winter school day consists of eight periods of forty-five minutes, the summer school day of seven forty-five minute periods. The twenty-five teachers live in the home with the students.

"There is a hospital on the campus of the school complete with operating rooms and modern equipment. The hospital is cleaned by a group of girls in the home known as the 'hospital girls.' I have helped in several operations within the past year.

"The laundry is a large up-to-date building with excellent equipment. Girls in the home do not work in the laundry, all the laundry staff being hired for that particular work.

"The small boys and girls live in dormitories. There is also an honor dormitory for girls with the most honors. I was in it last year. In the larger boys' and girls' building the children live in rooms. Some of the rooms are made for four girls, some for two. The girl making the most honors in the high school building gets the prize rooms.

"Every child has a duty of some kind. The little girls who are too small to work keep the lawn clean, the larger ones keep the buildings in order. The matrons see that the place is kept clean and nice.

"Some people think that we don't have very much fun, but we do. We have most of our fun at Christmas. On three or four days we have Christmas trees. Not only do we have fun on Christmas but on most any other day. In the winter we have a movie every two weeks.

"When summer school is out we get to go on a vacation. The girls and boys that don't get this privilege get something nearly as nice as we do.

"So many people have asked me questions about the Masonic Home I thought I would write about it. If any of you wish to write me about the home I would like very much to hear from you."

Joe Forman of the First National Bank, was operated on for appendicitis at the Halley & Love Sanitarium Monday morning. He is recuperating rapidly and will soon be able to return home.

FORMULA FOR FALL GARDEN SUCCESS GIVEN BY EXPERT

COLLEGE STATION, Aug. 25— "Fresh vegetables, as supplied by fall gardens, are necessary to supply variety in the fall and winter diet," says J. F. Rosborough, horticulturist of the Texas extension service, who gives a series of suggestions which will make the fall garden more successful.

Rosborough divides vegetables into three groups on a basis of maturity. South Texas gardens may contain all three groups, early, medium, and slow maturing plants. Central and North Texas gardens may carry the medium and early maturing plants. Only the early group can reasonably be expected to mature in the Panhandle and Plains section.

Included in the early group are mustard, radishes, turnips, leafy lettuce, and similar vegetables which will be ready for harvest in around 45 days. The medium group is made up of Irish potatoes, beets, onions from sets, Swiss chard, collards, and the like, which will mature in 60 to 70 days. The slow maturing group includes spinach, cabbage, carrots, beans and similar types, which require about 100 days to reach maturity.

Summer weeds should be cut and removed from the garden site, Rosborough said, as they will dry out the soil through heat generated by decay. From three to four wagon loads of well rotted manure per half acre of garden will hold moisture and help

"The Child in the Corner..." NEEDS GOOD LIGHT, TOO!

Home lighting problems have been solved by the student lamp. Installed today, the I. E. S. student lamp is a guarantee of ample light conducive to sight conservation when your boy or girl begins the forthcoming school term.

IT IS unfortunate that so many West Texas school rooms were built without consideration for "the child in the corner". Too often he or she is surrounded by blackboards that give off no light. Crowded conditions make it impossible to seat every child where ample light is obtained from outside.

It is safe to predict that school rooms of the future will be constructed so as to assure students the maximum light provided by nature. But, meanwhile, it is impractical to re-build the present facilities. Hence, it is highly important that artificial light be used to give EVERY child an opportunity to develop under normal circumstances.

Nor can the most scientifically constructed school room, depending upon nature alone, provide sufficient light on gloomy days during the winter school months. Children are required to read on cloudy days when light is reduced to less than 10 foot-candles.

This company has developed a school lighting system that is economical. It is designed primarily for "the child in the corner". At the same time, it throws no major burden on school trustees—responsible for school finances. Inquire at our local office for free estimate.

Club Girls of This County Tell of Their '37 Projects

In the following article, several Runnels county 4-H club girls tell of their projects and achievements and of the help 4-H club training has been to them.

Mildred Campbell, garden demonstrator for the Hatchel 4-H club, gives the following story of her club work:

"I first prepared my garden for planting by flat-breaking and laying it off. My plan was to provide sufficient 'other vegetables' for my family. Recommended varieties of seeds were selected and planted. I bought 100 cabbage plants, 100 tomato plants and grew the other tomato and pepper plants. Among the other vegetables I have in my garden are beets, peas, beans, okra, cucumber, and onions. We have gathered 424 pounds of fresh vegetables from the garden and have canned 216 quarts of vegetables and fruits."

As bedroom cooperator Mildred has made two towels, two dresser scarfs, one quilt, one pair of pillow cases, and several undergarments. In addition to this she has helped set the incubator three times and helped to raise between two and three hundred chickens

Mildred is 12 years old and has been a club member three years. She is reporter for her club and served as editor of the 4-H club Encampment News, published by the girls during their encampment in Ballinger.

Providing a suitable, well ventilated storage space for her canned products is part of the work Norma Jean Hoffman, 4-H club cooperator of the Benoit club, has done. Her pantry is located in a rock house not far from her kitchen door. It has two doors and one window to give sufficient light and ventilation. There are six-inch shelves spaced a foot apart around the walls. These she painted white. Her fruits are put in one section, her canned vegetables in another part and the meats in another.

She says, "Now that my pantry is all fixed up I can go get the things I want without any trouble at all. Almost every day I have to prepare the meals or help to prepare them." She has 341 containers of fruits and vegetables canned to date. These include beans, sour kraut, peas cucumber pickles, corn, mince meat, plums, peaches, berries, jam, jelly and preserves. For a total expenditure of seventy-five cents, Laura Mae Moeller, cooperator of the 4-H club at Offen, has grown sufficient vegetables in her garden to provide for the needs of her family and for canning for winter use. To date she has canned 159 containers with an estimated value of $31.80. Some of the vegetables canned were: corn, beans, onions, squash, cucumber pickles, and 20 quarts of peaches.

Wanda Clayton, bedroom cooperator for the Benoit club, gives the following story of her bedroom improvement:

"When I started my club work, my bedroom was dark and untidy. The paint on the bed was cracked and rough, and the walls were dirty. I started by washing the walls, then painting them white to make the room lighter. My bed was pink. It was refinished in walnut to match my dressing center and other furniture. I hung a suitable picture or two in the room and arranged the furniture to best advantage. My mother helped me to tuft a bedspread for my room. The total cost of remodeling my room was $6.04 and I am very proud of it now. I wouldn't take anything for what I have learned in my years of club work."

Rev. Ramey Called By Local Baptist Church as Pastor

The membership of the Ballinger Baptist Church in conference Sunday morning issued a call to Rev. M. E. Ramey, of Edmond, Oklahoma, to accept the pastorate of the local church. Rev. Ramey was here three weeks ago and preached for the Ballinger congregation morning and evening. He made an impression that was favorable over all others who visited the local church, resulting in the formal call being extended Sunday morning.

The pulpit committee recommended him Sunday morning after the church conference was opened and the congregation supported the committee choice with its vote. A telegram was sent Monday morning notifying Rev. Ramey of the call and he is expected to visit here shortly to take up the matter further before accepting or rejecting the call.

Rev. Ramey is a graduate of Baylor University, Waco, and the Fort Worth Seminary. He has served at Edmond for a number of years and has been active in supervising young people's activities in that college town. He is an excellent speaker and is considered one of the outstanding preachers of the denomination in Oklahoma. His recommendations to the Ballinger church were above criticism in every respect and officials of the church hope to have his acceptance soon.

Mrs. Ramey is also a trained church worker, knows every phase of church work, and has had special training for young people's and Sunday school activities.

A son, Coy Ramey, a graduate of Baylor University, is now employed at Houston.

Drivers Urged to Test Vision With New Depth Device

Ballinger drivers are urged by Fire Chief Chester Cherry to take advantage of the depth-vision testing machine installed at the city hall a few weeks ago. The machine is available to the public each Tuesday and Friday night. Fairly good attendance has been recorded on these nights but is not what it should be, according to Mr. Cherry.

The machine, which tests the ability of motorists to judge distance and relative positions of cars, is one of the few in the state and was purchased by Mr. Cherry as an aid in the campaign for traffic safety. Firemen all over Texas are taking part in the drive to reduce traffic fatalities.

The machine takes on added significance with the new drivers' license law passed by the 45th legislature. This measure provides for more stringent tests before the motorist is issued a license. Those who obtained licenses in 1936 will not have to renew them until 1939, but all others wishing to secure the permits must undergo the more rigid examination.

Printed Posters Of Trench Silos To be Displayed

Trench silos are being further encouraged in Runnels county by the display of a number of large posters which show views of various types and lists names of land-owners in the county who have silos in use at this time.

The posters are distributed by the extension service of Texas and county agents will post them in all communities. A list at the bottom of each poster gives the names of people in the community who are using them to preserve feed.

The posters assert that there are more than 6,000 trench silos in use in Texas, and information compiled the past month reveals more than 50 in Runnels county, besides others being constructed.

One Runnels county man, Owen Ingram, has completed his fourth trench silo, and R. I. Collingsworth, C. W. Colburne, Lewis Rohmfeld, George Kemp, Frank C. Dickey and George W. Renfro have two or more.

The posters point out that trench silos can be built on any farm at little expense, that there is no loss of feed, that feed can be fed to any animal, and that every farm needs one or more.

County agents have been asked to push this program and to give farmers every possible assistance in building trench silos.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnston, of Belton, have returned home after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Tunnell, of Maverick. Mr. Johnston is superintendent of the Belton schools.

Mrs. Nora Gee, of El Paso, came in Wednesday to be at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Scott H. Mack.

To Supply Farmers With Pickers WPA Jobs May be Halted

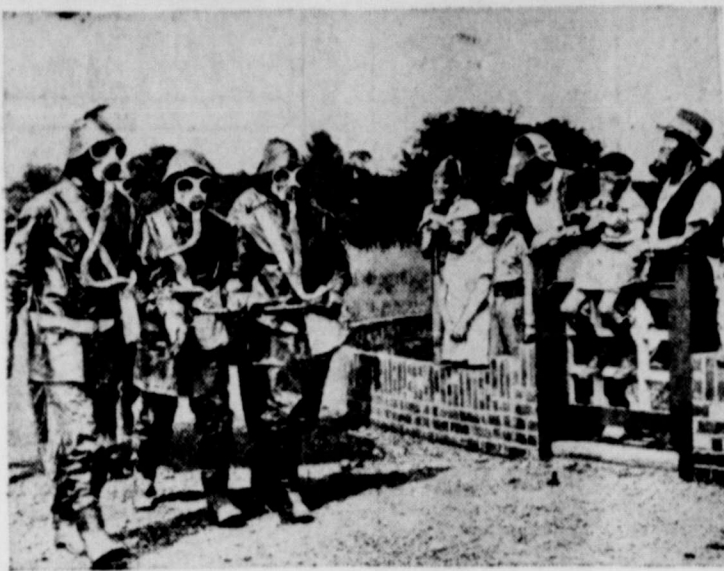

Announcement was made this week by works progress administration headquarters at San Antonio that farmers desirous of obtaining WPA workers to assist in gathering cotton would be able to get them. Farmers are requested to notify county judges, county agents of the office of the national reemployment service when they need cotton pickers or other farm laborers.

It is the policy that WPA projects be suspended if necessary to provide workers for private employers and the administration is anxious to cooperate with farmers who need help. The policy of closing WPA projects temporarily when outside job opportunities are available for workmen is in line with the provisions of the 1937 appropriation act. State Administrator H. P. Drought said.

Cotton picking will be in full swing in Runnels county in a few weeks and many pickers will be needed. Some farmers have already made contracts for gathering their crops and Mexican labor will come here for that purpose. With all sections of the state producing bumper yields it is predicted that pickers will be scarce and many WPA projects will be halted during the fall and early winter.

Frances de Montmolin is at home after spending the summer with her grandmother at Abilene. She also visited in Toronto, Canada, and saw the Dionne quintuplets.

Here's a Brand New English Custom

A sign of the times in Old England is this photograph, made during Chatham Navy week, which gives you an idea of the extent to which Europe is suffering from war jitters. The oldskinned gent at left are members of a "decontamination squad," who are rehearsing the duty they hope they'll never have to do—mopping up after an "enemy" gas attack. To lend realism to the scene an entire English family stands in front of its home, gas-masked, watching the squad go by.

Commissioners Set County's Tax Rate At 55c on the $100

The county tax rate was set this week at 55 cents, the same as last year, on the $100 valuation. This will be the general rate for the county, however, in road districts 2 and 3 an extra five cents was added which will make the rate 60 cents for property owners in these districts.

The commissioners' court set the rate after a report was submitted by W. A. Forgey, tax assessor-collector for Runnels county, showing the renditions about the same as last year, $10,189,125 for the county and $7,635,745 for the state.

This rate allows 25 cents for the general county fund, 2 cents for the jury fund, 12 cents for the road and bridge fund, 2 cents for the permanent improvement fund, 2 cents for the bridge bond sinking fund, and 12 cents for the road and bridge warrant sinking fund.

The state rate was set recently at 49 cents on the $100 valuation.

The Ballinger independent school district will employ the same tax rate as in 1936, $1 on the $100 valuation. The Ballinger city commission has not set the municipal rate yet. Last year the city collected $110 on the $100, and if the same rate is set this year, citizens here will pay a combined tax of $3.14.

BARBECUE FOR S. S. CLASS

Members of the young men's Sunday school class of the Ballinger Baptist Church enjoyed a barbecue at city park last Thursday night. Clyde Holliday furnished the barbecue.

Mrs. F. C. Miller, Mrs. Oscar Routh and Mrs. Uel Stephens returned to Ballinger Wednesday after visiting relatives at Midland. Mrs. Stephens left today for her home at San Antonio.

Ballinger Radio Studio is Closed; Equipment Moved

The Ballinger radio studio, operated by George Hill through KGKL, San Angelo, was closed Saturday afternoon. Mr. Hill was arrested by local officers Tuesday night and released under bond of $250 Wednesday to appear in justice court Monday on a "cold" check charge filed against him.

Aubrey Patton, representative of KGKL, was in Ballinger this week to make adjustments with local advertisers and look after the disposal of leased equipment in the local studio. He stated that the San Angelo station had no connection with Mr. Hill and the Ballinger studio other than to rent Mr. Hill time over KGKL.

In the adjustments here the San Angelo station will complete existing contracts by continuing announcements from San Angelo between 1:30 and 2:30 each afternoon in conjunction with a transcribed program.

Votes in the popularity contest to send some local girl to Hollywood, California, for a screen test, were counted Tuesday afternoon and Miss Susie Belle Thomas was declared the winner. The San Angelo man presented her with $25 as a gift.

Mr. Patton stated that the equipment in the local studio would be taken back to San Angelo this week.

The Ballinger studio was located in the Sam Behringer store and the last program was broadcast Friday afternoon.

Phillip Walker, of Houston, was here today, visiting relatives and friends. His mother, Mrs. E. D. Walker will return with him tomorrow for a visit. Mr. Walker said another former Ballinger citizen, Frank Holliday, had joined him in his taxicab business at Houston.

City Lake is Filled By Heavy Rains; Supply Tests Pure

Heavy rains falling on the watershed of Elm Creek replenished the Ballinger water supply Sunday by filling the reservoir and sending the water over the spillway sufficient to wash out the lake. While only showers fell in Ballinger some communities in the county received as much as five inches. Wingate and Norton reported the heaviest participation Saturday afternoon when from four to five inches fell.

The rise on Elm Creek will improve the quality of the water here and is expected to eliminate the pungent taste caused by moss and vegetation in the lake.

City Secretary K. V. Northington received reports on the condition of the city water this week, showing it to be free of any kind of contamination and good for drinking purposes. This report was on samples taken from the lake, the basins at the pump station, and from the distributing system.

Another sample of water which is of interest to a number of local citizens was sent from the Ballinger Country Club lake. This sample was also given an oke by the state health department as being free of contamination and good for both bathing and drinking purposes.

NEW AUTO PARKING SPACES PAINTED ON STREETS AND CURBS IN DOWNTOWN AREA

Parking spaces have been painted on the curbs and pavement in the downtown district and Chief of Police Lee Moreland requests that all drivers park their cars between the lines as near the center as possible.

This arrangement will permit the parking of 38 automobiles to the block with 18 inches between each machine. It is pointed out that this gives ample space for doors to be opened without scratching the next car and if parked at the correct angle will save many bumps when backing into the street.

Local officers will keep a close watch to prevent motorists from parking on the lines and thereby taking up the space of two cars and will appreciate the cooperation of automobile owners in making this plan successful.

Mr. Moreland stated that by the end of the week all parking spaces would be painted and local citizens are requested to assist the officers by parking in the right place and at the right angle.

ARCHIE PARR PURCHASES NEW MOTOR SPEED BOAT

Archie Parr has returned from Dallas where he purchased a new motor boat to be used at Christoval the remainder of the summer. Mr. Parr said business at Christoval had been better this year than since 1931 and that week-end crowds were still large. He extends an invitation to Ballinger people to ride with him when visiting the resort and promises a thrill.

Miss Helen Brewer will leave Sunday for Odessa to resume her work on the faculty of the Odessa high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Willis, of Waco, have returned home after visiting relatives here.

LEOLA HOLMES FINED $50 IN COUNTY COURT HERE

Mrs. Leola Hoimer, of Winters, was found guilty and fined $50 and costs in county court here Tuesday on an appeal from a Winters justice court charge of disturbing the peace. The fine assessed was double that set by the justice court.

Proceedings probably will be instituted by the county attorney for forfeiture of the $500 peace bond Mrs. Holmes has been under since early in the spring. The last alleged offense occurred May 10.

LOCAL BOY TO PREACH FOR BAPTISTS SUNDAY

Rev. Fred Walter King, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. King, will preach at the Ballinger Baptist Church Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock hour. He was ordained by the Ballinger church and has been a faithful member for years.

In the evening the church will participate in the closing union service at the high school football field.

Mrs. S. H. Nance, of Cisco, and Mrs. John W. Speer, of Bastrop, Louisiana, have returned home after a visit here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ford Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Swann and Mrs. G. C. Stanley and children are attending the Pan-American exposition at Dallas this week.

Mrs. Ralph Hodges, of Compuce, is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cal Adair.

HAS YOUR ADDRESS CHANGED RECENTLY?

Ledger subscribers are requested to notify the publisher of any change in their addresses promptly. Under the new postal laws newspapers and periodicals must pay postage due for notices of any change in addresses furnished by the postoffice. Besides, there always is the probability that your paper will be delayed or fail to reach you altogether if you do not give immediate notification when you move. The best plan for all concerned is to send the change of address in advance.

The Ballinger school faculty will contain a number of new faces this year. About nine new teachers will begin their duties in Ballinger on September 8. Most of the resignations have occurred because of teachers finding positions elsewhere that offer more money. The board and superintendent have been very fortunate in filling all the vacancies this late in the year with well qualified instructors.

The vacation period is about over. Next week the young hopefuls will return to the classroom for nine months of study and most families will settle down to staying at home so the children can get their lessons and regular hours of sleep. The opening of school usually marks the beginning of fall business here. Movement of cotton will get well underway in two or three weeks and Runnels countians will be busy several months gathering one of the largest crops in many years.

Practically every section of Runnels county has received a good rain during the past two weeks. Showers have covered practically every acre and now most farmers admit cotton opening has been retarded and the underground "season" is sufficient for planting small grain. Some communities received as much as five inches of rain without damage to crops. Streams and tanks have been filled and grass on the range is becoming green and will furnish good pasturage until late in the year.

With West Texas prosperity well advertised, this section may expect numerous grafters during the next few months. When big crops are being marketed and money is circulating rapidly gangs of high powered salesmen flock in to take the easy coin from those who are ready to try anything new. Some people are never satisfied with what they have and quit their true and trusted friends for schemes that look good when pictured by the "slickers." Ballinger and Runnels county probably will see many of these grafters during the autumn and winter just ahead and it is up to the home people themselves how long the "visitors" stay and how well they prosper.

WEST TEXAS NOTES

[Clipped from Our Exchanges]

With one-third of the county's voting strength giving voice, the $200,000 court house-jail bond issue in Coleman county was overwhelmingly defeated. The returns showed 389 citizens favored the issue while 632 opposed. The three Coleman city boxes voted favorably on the issue but the total there was a disappointment to the proponents. Practically all of the boxes in the county outside of the city of Coleman asserted disapproval of the issue.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Middleton, of Melvin, recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary when more than one hundred relatives and friends gathered for a family reunion at Hardin Park.

Out of a request for $300,000 for rural power in McCulloch county $100,000 was granted. The McCulloch county allotment was the first project approved in West Texas by the rural electrification administration. There were over 700 signers to the contracts who are requesting electricity in their rural homes, and when the project is completed, practically every home in the county will be served with current.

S. Vernon McCasland, son of T. P. McCasland, of Winters, will spend the coming year in Jerusalem, where he has been appointed annual professor in the American School of Oriental Relations. He was granted a year's leave of absence from Goucher College, Baltimore, Maryland, where he has been professor and chairman of the department of religion for the past nine years.

Comanche county grapes are rapidly becoming famous. Last week two truck operators arrived from Pueblo, Colorado, to purchase 400 bushels of grapes. The Colorado buyers had heard of Comanche as a grape producing center through a story carried in the Comanche Chief and copied by other newspapers in the state and which finally reached the Associated Press and was printed by newspapers throughout the nation.

Brownwood voters will go to the polls September 23 to vote on an amendment to the city charter that would raise the pay of members of the city equalization board from $3 to $6 per day, separate the offices of city manager and mayor, and provide for the appointment of chief of police by the city council instead of electing that officer by popular vote.

Erath county commissioners are considering filing suits to collect delinquent taxes. Two members of the court opposed the move, while two favored it. Those opposing preferred to raise the tax rate. The county judge was forced to cast the deciding vote, there being two commissioners on each side of the question. Local attorneys will probably get the contracts for the suits.

Citizens of Menard county pay around $120,000 in gasoline taxes. This figure is based on the amount of gasoline shipped into Menard in a year. But the county received only $31,000 in highway funds, both state and federal, during the past 12 months, only one-fourth of the amount paid into the state and national highway fund.

County home demonstration agents in the West Texas section report that members of home demonstration clubs there are making plans to get the greatest possible amount of pleasure from their yards.

"Getting my yard started was no easy job," Mrs. C. D. Harris, of the South Ballinger club recently told members of her club. To begin with, 50 loads of rock were dug up and hauled away and 60 loads of new soil added. The lawn was seeded early in the spring and grass has covered the front of the yard. Among Mrs. Harris' plantings are amur river privet, pecan trees, rose bushes, and pfitzer juniper. Vines on three trellises shade the window of her home.

The use of a four inch layer of cotton gin waste around the shrubs and rose beds in the yard of Mrs. Will Smith of the White Chapel club in Coleman county enables her to keep her yard looking well with the use of a minimum of water. The waste holds the moisture, keeps down weeds, and keeps the soil from cracking.

The home demonstration agent of Coleman county recently gave a series of 10 demonstrations on outdoor games and equipment. The meetings were attended by a total of 119 women, who found that many items of equipment can be made at home or bought for a very small outlay of cash.

A series of similar meetings in Brown county attracted the attendance of 127 women. Different types of games suitable for outdoor use were played.

Improvements Needed in Local School System Listed

Citizens of Ballinger and vicinity enjoy the benefit of a fine school system with modern buildings and equipment, often referred to as one of the best in the state, but there are still many improvements that should be made in the system.

Considerable work is still needed on the buildings, new equipment should be added, supervisors employed for special instruction, additional departments equipped, and some new building done to complete the work attempted.

A check-up by school officials the past week reveals some of the most needed improvements for the Ballinger schools as follows:

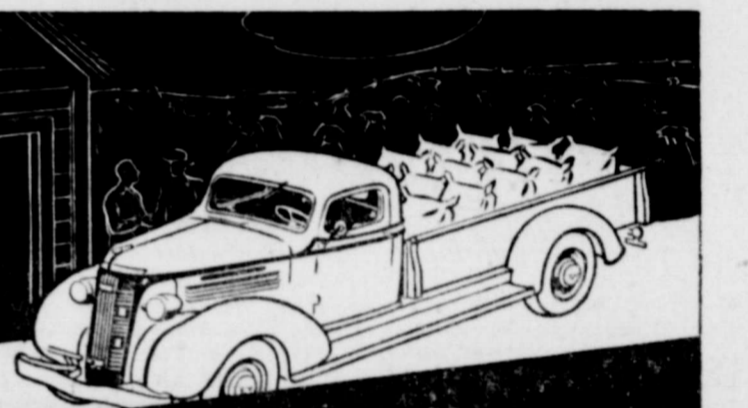

1. Completely remodel the interior of the old high school building (Primary No. 2). Probable cost $4,000 to $5,000.

8. Buy new desks for all primary rooms where old desks are not suitable in size.
9. Place manual training in colored school.
10. Add to junior high school building as it is crowded at present.

Probable cost $15,000.

RANGE CONSERVATION PROVES OF VALUE TO WEST TEXANS

COLLEGE STATION, Aug. 25.—The building of earthen tanks and reservoirs is the practice of most interest to West Texas farmers participating in the range conservation program, reports of county agricultural agents in that section indicate, but other practices such as eradication of mesquite, eradication of cedar, and deferred grazing are receiving much attention.

To date, 31 dam sites have been located in Brown county. Elevations on these dams have been taken and stakes are for the base of the dams have been set. Applications for the building of 101 more tanks are on file in the office of the county agricultural agent, and these tanks will be measured and completed as rapidly as possible. The water area impounded by these tanks runs from one-eighth of an acre to 10 acres.

The lines run on one spreader dam on the Means ranch in Jeff Davis county when completed will turn a vast volume of water from an arroyo onto about 20 sections of grazing land where it will be irrigated in one body. This dam when completed will be 1,800 feet long and from 8 to 9 feet high.

W. W. Sherrill cleared a 70 acre trap of prickly pear in 10 days with three men and a truck. Using labor at $175 per day per man this work cost him 75 cents an acre. The pear on the Sherrill ranch was classed as medium by the range inspector and Sherrill will draw 75 cents an acre from the government for compliance.

Ranchmen in Menard county have made application to build 56 earthen tanks and reservoirs which will total 87,435 cubic yards of dirt to be used in the dam sites.

Severe functional pains of menstruation, cramping spells and jangled nerves soon rob a woman of her natural, youthful freshness. PAIN lines in a woman's face too often grow into AGE lines!

Thousands of women have found it helpful to take Cardul. They say it seemed to ease their pains and they noticed an increase in their appetites and finally a strengthened resistance to the discomfort of monthly periods.

Try Cardul. Of course if it doesn't help you, see your doctor.

Football Training For Locals Begins Monday Afternoon

Coach and Mrs. Felton Wright and family will return to Ballinger Sunday from Junction and the coach will meet candidates for the high school football at Bearcat Field Monday afternoon. Assistant Coach Paul Gibbs will arrive on September 1 to begin his work with the boys.

The Ballinger team will be one of the last in the district to begin training but indications are that most of the boys are in fair physical condition, having worked during the summer. Several of the players were here last Monday to start training and stated that they would be back next Monday.

Coach Bob Fulkerson, of Winters, was here Tuesday night to attend a social gathering and stated that he had already started workouts for backfield and end candidates. He threw a scare into Ballinger fans when he stated that he would have a squad of 40 men with seven letter men back from last year's team. Included in the letter men are four backs who saw plenty of service last year. They are Ramsall, Hodge, Partain and Phelps.

All other teams in the district have commenced training and have sufficient material to warrant a rough schedule for other teams. Spring prospects for the Bearcats were much brighter than for years but they must win one game at a time this season since there appear to be eight very good teams in the district.

His equipment is that which is built and recommended by the Goodyear Company for use in all of their authorized shops.

Mr. Williams stated today that his business has shown a nice development since he opened in 1936 and expressed appreciation to the citizens of Ballinger and Runnels county for their patronage.

Teacher Writes Vivid Narrative Of Mimic Raids

AUSTIN, August 25.—A vivid description of a mimic airplane attack upon Kyoto, Japan, was given in a letter just received by Dr. Jet Winters, professor of home economics at the University of Texas, from Miss Mary E. Gearing, head of that department.

The letter was written July 30 from Kyoto and was received by Dr. Winters August 16. Miss Gearing said that all possible precautions are being taken by the people of Japan against air raids by the Chinese, including among other phases of training citizens to protect themselves against that mode of warfare, that of seeking safe shelter and protecting themselves against gas. The people of the city were apparently stirred to a high pitch of patriotism and a round of demonstrations in support of the Japanese government in its war upon China took place during Miss Gearing's stay there. Flags were flying everywhere.

Her letter said that she had planned to leave for Tokyo the following day and that she had made no decision as to her itinerary beyond there. It was her original intention to divide her year's leave of absence from the university between visits to Japan and China. In view of the war situation in Shanghai at this time it is expected that she will have to defer indefinitely and probably cancel her proposed trip to China.

She left Austin for Yokohama June 20 and sailed from San Francisco a few days later. While her visit to the Orient was primarily for rest and pleasure, she is taking advantage of any opportunity that may be offered to make a study of educational matters related to home economics during her stay there. Her letter said she has met a number of the country's prominent educators.

While in Japan Miss Gearing met Miss Elizabeth Tarpley, assistant professor of home economics at the university. They arrived at Yokohama about the same time. Miss Tarpley, however, is now on the Pacific on her way home. It is understood that she will land at Seattle and come direct to Austin.

C. R. Stone spent Sunday in San Angelo, attending the American Legion state convention.

Seeks Bride on 121st Birthday

Cutting a birthday cake decorated with 121 candles, Abraham Wisniewski is pictured, as he began his one hundred twenty-second year of life, at the home of the Daughters of Jacob in the Bronx, New York. In a birthday interview, Patriarch Wisniewski, who is Polish by birth, announced that he is ready to marry again—for the sixth time—stipulating, however, that his bride must be "young and pretty."

Bearcats Split Pair With Shepherders; Retain League Lead

The Ballinger Bearcats retained their top-run position in the Concho Basin League by splitting a double-header with the San Angelo Shepherders Sunday. The game was played at Fort Concho Park before a record attendance. The Ballingerites are now leading with ten games won and four lost, while the Angeloans are in second place with nine games won and five lost.

The Herders took the first game 15-2, Troy McKinney letting the Cats have only five safe blows. Day pitched for Ballinger. Williams and Crockett were hitting stars for the Cats.

In the second game Lee twirled a 5-2 win for the Ballingerites. Peoples was on the mound for San Angelo.

Midnight Sunday was the deadline for signing players for the remainder of the season. Ballinger officials released Van Horn and Kemp and signed up Brandy Ray and C. H. Ray, of Miles. The Bronte moguls released Adams and Bradford.

The games between the Miles and Winters teams were called off because of the death of A. H. Lewin, of Miles. The double-header was to have been transferred to Winters but could not be played here on account of wet grounds.

Playing at Rowena, the Saints took two straight games from the Bronte Pirates, winning the first 9-3 and the nightcap 6-3.

Next Sunday, August 29, the Winters Blizzards will come to Ballinger for their second round of play with the Bearcats this season. The Miles Giants will take on the Bronte Bucs at the Coke county metropolis, and the Rowena boys will journey to San Angelo for a twin-bill with the Herders.

HAWAII DESCRIBED IN ROTARY PROGRAM

Miss Faye Clark, principal of primary school No. 2, spoke at the meeting of the Ballinger Rotary Club Tuesday, describing her trip to Honolulu this summer and her six weeks' stay in the University of Hawaii.

While away she toured most of the islands in the group and told the Rotarians about the side trips she made, giving an accurate picture of the most interesting points, the people, the main industries and the historical background of the island and towns.

She stated that perhaps her greatest thrill came when nearing their destination, a pilot came to the boat some hour and a half before time to land and had the three Texas girls aboard paged. They went on deck and received greetings from the pilot along with bouquets of native flowers.

She and Miss Lola Eubank, another local teacher, returned a week ago after a summer course in the university.

Harrell Canady, of Woodboro, came in Monday to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Canady.

Mrs. Orville Rose and baby, of San Angelo, are here visiting her parents.

OUTFITTERS FOR THE FAMILY

The Cold Germ will

"bite you"

if you don't watch out

Too much praise cannot be given the formula of medical science that "it is better to keep well than to get well." Every effort should be made to prevent illness particularly during the treacherous months of winter.

Soon the common cold germ will wage its relentless attack to pave the way for such serious illnesses as bronchitis, sinus infections, tuberculosis and other health-wrecking diseases. Watch for that first "sniffle" . . . it's a warning that should not be overlooked.

For your health's sake, fight colds this winter with comfortable temperatures and adequate ventilation in every room of your home.

The cold germ is responsible for more than two hundred million illnesses each year. Any sudden change in temperature as you go from a warm room to a cold one makes you susceptible to "catching cold."

Common colds are dangerous. Don't gamble with them. If you should catch cold during the coming winter months, consult your family doctor before it has an opportunity to undermine your health.
