Runnels County's Bond Quota $34,000 Over Top

Individual war bond buyers in Runnels county went over the top last Friday when a check-up disclosed sales of $564,949.78, $34,000 over the April quota. Sales made Saturday were still to be tabulated and will be included in the month's total. The final day's total is expected to be about $1,000,000 and will make the county $40,000 to $50,000 over its quota.

In addition to the quota of $531,000 for individual buyers, banks of the county were asked to purchase $439,000 in government bonds and other securities during April. This goal was far exceeded, the financial institutions subscribing for $650,000 of these obligations. This amount may not be issued, but it means that every phase of the bond drive is far over the top and a possible $1,225,500 from this county if all bank orders are filled.

Tabulations made Friday evening which sent the "thermometer" at the intersection of Hutchings Avenue and Eighth Street over the top were as follows:

Ballingier	$334,752.44
Winters	169,069.09
Rowena	28,222.00
Miles	23,575.00
Slavonic Society	5,000.00
Coleman P. C. A.	4,331.25

$564,949.78

The $5,000 from the Slavonic Society of Texas was credited to Runnels county through the federal reserve bank at Dallas, and the Coleman Production Credit Association, with headquarters at Coleman, gave credit of $4,331.25 on bonds bought by Runnels county customers through the association.

C. R. Stone, county war bond sales chairman, said the county's May quota had not been received but reminded citizens that there would be a quota and not to stop buying bonds regularly. The May quota will probably be much less than that for April, reverting to the regular monthly take.

Mr. Stone expressed appreciation for the great work done by so many organizations and individuals in putting over the April emergency drive. He especially mentioned the Ballinger Rotary Club for taking charge of the Ballinger contest work and the Harman Training Center organization for valiant work in the campaign.

The Ballinger bond committee headed by Sam Behringer and W. O. Wallace as co-chairman did fine work from the beginning of the drive and cooperated with all other groups in putting over the big job. J. A. Killough, secretary-manager of the Ballinger Board of Community Development, had a large share in the success of the campaign, being one of the most diligent workers in getting the importance of the effort before all the people. He was especially active in street stunts such as elephant rides, jeep rides and finally airplane rides for each $100 bond sold.

Plans for the second war loan campaign were made early in the month and on the opening day, April 12, all forces were well organized and ready to go to work.

The county bond committee is proud of a job well done and expresses appreciation to all who helped in any way with the campaign.

Knitting Shipped By Red Cross Unit To Headquarters

Supervisors of the local Red Cross chapter sent a large shipment of finished articles to headquarters Wednesday, representing practically all the spring knitting quota. Yarn for this quota was received and distributed two months ago and women in practically every section of the county have assisted in the work.

A check-up this week revealed that in most of the orders for specific garments, extras had been made with excess yarn and the shipment contained all garments requested by the army and navy.

The quota called for 24 olive drab turtle-neck sweaters and a total of 27 were made. Twenty navy blue turtle-neck sweaters were requested of this county and the exact number were completed. The largest single item was for 42 olive drab sleeveless sweaters and a total of 63 were finished and shipped. Other knitted garments shipped were 21 mufflers on a quota of 18; 8 helmets, and the extra yarn was made into 12 pairs of wristlets. The other assigned work included 34 pairs of gloves.

All garments were tied in bundles of five, moth-proofed and placed in sealed cartons for shipment. Finished garments were turned in this week as follows:

O. D. Sleeveless

MISSIONARY RETURNS FROM NASHVILLE SCHOOL

Miss Elizabeth Truly, missionary from Nigeria, West Africa, who has been in the United States for the past year on furlough, returned to Ballinger Thursday morning from Nashville, Tenn., where she had been since January attending George Peabody College.

She will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Truly, and make preparation to sail for Africa some time this summer. It is possible that she will embark for Africa in June as other missionaries in this country will depart about that time.

Mrs. J. C. Cook returned Tuesday from Dallas, where she visited her mother the past week.

W. S. Love and daughter, Mrs. Emmett Caskey; sister, Miss Ada Love, of Florence; and another brother, E. S. Love, of Corpus Christi, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Love this week.

Ballinger Co-op Gin Co. Pays Members Dividends

The annual meeting of the Ballinger Cooperative Gin Company was held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, more than 200 members attending. G. W. Dean, president, told the stockholders they were getting a 6 per cent dividend on all issued stock and patron dividends on all of the 1936 business. In addition, Mr. Dean stated, stock dividends will be issued on the 1942 earnings.

Henry Todd, member of an Abilene accounting firm, read a financial report, telling the shareholders that the co-op now had the gin paid out and that at a conservative estimate the value was $40,000.

Frank Kemp, manager of the local plant, stated that approximately 700 dividend checks were issued for about $10,000.

B. M. Batts, M. B. Wardlaw and W. J. Halfmann were members of the board whose terms expired but all were re-elected to serve another term. Manager Kemp stated that there had never been a change in the directors or officers since the company was established. Officers are G. W. Dean, chairman; G. H. Dierschke, vice-chairman; B. M. Batts, secretary; and other board members are Archie Tyree and Tom Moreland.

At the meeting County Agent John A. Barton talked on the right varieties of cotton to be grown in this county which would benefit the war effort most at this time and aid in a better cotton program after the war.

The two varieties recommended by the Texas cotton committee for Runnels county are Acala and Delta Pine Land Nos. 12 and 14.

The county agent pointed out that only 15 per cent of cotton grown in Texas is used by cotton mills in the United States due to its inferior grade and staple; and that the United States carry-over in 1941 was 54 per cent Texas cotton. The cotton spinning research laboratory at College Station, it was said established the fact that just as good cotton can be grown in Texas as anywhere if the right varieties are planted. Mr. Barton stated that the spinning laboratory is revealing a number of facts about cotton values never known before, which will work for the benefit of Texas growers if they will take advantage of the information.

COUNTY TUBERCULOSIS ASSOCIATION BOARD WILL MEET HERE SATURDAY

The board of directors of the Runnels County Tuberculosis Association will hold its quarterly meeting at the city hall in Ballinger at 3 p. m. Saturday, May 6.

The early diagnosis campaign, launched in April throughout the county, will be reported on at this meeting.

Directors are urged to attend this important meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hambrick and baby, of Waco, are here for a visit to relatives and friends.

Mrs. Fred McKay has returned to Ballinger from San Angelo to make home here for the duration. Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McKay of Ballinger, has entered military service.

Cooling Machines Will be Installed In Army-Navy Club

The council of the Army and Navy Club made plans for improvement of the club the past week-end to make summer use of the building more comfortable. Three air-conditioning machines will be installed in the upstairs to cool the auditorium which is used for dancing. Members of the council located three used machines and will install them soon to make continuation of the regular Saturday night dances possible.

With no more over-night passes for the duration use of the club is expected to be the heaviest in its history during the next few months. The fact that all cadets will have to report back at the field on Saturday night will eliminate visits to San Angelo and other cities.

Some improvement has been made in the stage to make it available for floor shows and to take care of the cadet orchestra on nights when they furnish the music. Scenery is still needed, but all the lighting system has been repaired, the front curtain repaired, and other work done to make the hall more usable.

In addition to visits by the cadets on week-end the club house contains the library which is open six days a week from 1 p. m. until 6 p. m. Women's clubs also meet in the club house for their regular programs and a number of local groups have been renting the hall for socials on nights when it is not used by the service men.

Installation of the cooling machinery will be made as soon as materials can be obtained for connecting the water lines with the blowers.

SAYS BALLINGER ON BOOM COMPARED TO MOST PLACES

T. H. Chaney, who left here a few months ago, after being manager of a local lumber yard for a number of years, and who more recently has been residing at Vernon, here this week to dispose of some city property, stated that he thought Ballinger was enjoying a real boom in comparison to most West Texas cities he had visited.

Mr. Chaney is in the real estate business at Vernon and thinks he has found a pretty good place in which to live, but probably not as good as Ballinger.

B. C. KIRK BROUGHT HOME FROM TEMPLE HOSPITAL

B. C. Kirk, pioneer hardware and implement dealer, and long time resident of Ballinger, who had been in a Temple hospital for several weeks, was returned to Ballinger the past week-end and is now at the Halley & Love Sanitarium. Mr. Kirk has not recovered sufficiently to receive his friends but indications are that he is slowly recovering from his illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gray, of Baird, visited relatives and friends here Sunday.

The spring meeting of the 21st district of the American Legion, department of Texas, is scheduled at Brownwood on May 22 and 23. It will be an important meeting in several respects as officers will be elected, a number of resolutions passed, and a good program presented on the general theme of war.

Recently letters were mailed to all posts in the district setting forth the qualifications of Mr. Sykes and asking post delegations to help in his election.

C. D. Richards, post commander, stated that a meeting would be held here and plans made to send a strong delegation to Brownwood and that a campaign would be conducted. Advertising matter is to be distributed during the two-day convention and the Sykes candidacy brought to the floor of the convention at the final business session.

The Auxiliary will meet in conjunction with the Legion and separate business sessions and programs are to be held by the two groups Sunday afternoon.

A complete program for the convention has not been arranged but will be made up by the Brownwood committee and sent to all posts at once.

Gloria McGregor Becomes Bride of Lt. Richard Carl Willis

In a twilight service Sunday evening at eight o'clock Miss Gloria McGregor, daughter of Mrs. Malcolm McGregor, became the bride of Lt. Richard Carl Willis, son of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Willis of Huntington, Indiana. The ceremony was performed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Estes Lynn on Eleventh Street. Mrs. Lynn is the bride's paternal aunt and the home is the old McGregor homeplace where her father was born and reared.

The improvised altar decoration was especially lovely for the single ring ceremony, which was read by the Rev. J. C. Johnson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, in the presence of family members and life-long friends. The entire floorplace was an embankment of mock orange blossoms with tall floor baskets of white American beauty roses and five-branched floor candelabra holding white candles at each side. The mantel was covered with trailers of ivy studded with single white American beauty roses and tall white cathedral tapers. At other vantage points in the living room were bowls and vases of mock orange combined with pink radiance roses.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her only brother, Donald, wore an all-white bridal gown made with fitted bodice of chantilly lace trimmed with tiny covered buttons from the round neckline to the bottom, and fitted sleeves pointed at the wrists. The very full skirt was of mousseline de soie. Her Dutch bridal cap was made of imported hand-made Irish lace. She carried a colonial bouquet fashioned of white sweet peas with a sprinkling of pastels. Her only ornament was an heirloom brooch, which was a gift from her mother.

Mrs. John I. Guion was at the piano for a program of pre-nuptial music, using "Indian Love Call," "Until," "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life," "I Love You, Truly," and "O Promise Me." The "Wedding March" from Wagner's "Lohengrin" was the processional. Jimmy Dankworth lighted the candles.

For the reception, which immediately followed the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother, her grandmother, Mrs. Jack McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McGregor, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ransom of San Angelo.

The dining table was laid in hand-made Normandy lace. The crystal punch bowl, surrounded with mock orange blossoms and greenery, and the tiered wedding cake on round reflector topped with a miniature bridal couple which was outlined with single blossoms and greenery, were placed at diagonal corners. Miss Armour Lynn McGregor, sister of the bride, cut the cake and Misses Patsy McGregor, another sister, Marjorie McGregor, Mary Lynn, Clara Louise Ransom of San Angelo, and Ellen Jo Early served punch.

For going-away the bride wore a suit of red and red gabardine with white shoulder bag and other white accessories.

Mrs. Willis attended Stephen F. Austin College at Nacogdoches and Texas University following her high school graduation here. She has been a civil service employee at the Army Air Forces Navigation School at Hondo. Lt. Willis attended Indiana State University where he was a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity. He received his wings as a pilot and his commission at Mather Field, California, in September 1942. He is now a navigation instructor at the Hondo Field. After a short honeymoon trip the couple will be at home in San Antonio.

Eighth Street Presbyterian Church Scene of Wedding Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Margaret Johnston, daughter of Fireman First Class and Mrs. Victor Johnson of Cleveland, Ohio, and Aviation Cadet Carl Herbst, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Herbst, also of Cleveland, was solemnized in a twilight service Saturday evening in the Eighth Street Presbyterian Church, with the pastor, the Rev. W. A. Erwin, reading the doubling ceremony before relatives and friends.

Tall baskets of beautiful white calla lilies and five-branched floor candelabra holding white tapers, were placed against an altar embankment of ferns and other greenery. The choir rail was outlined with fern trailers and single lilies.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Aviation Cadet Kenneth Johnson of Chicago, wore a gown of white chiffon made with fitted bodice, long full sleeves and full skirt. Below the sweetheart neckline were floral designs of seed pearls. Her fingertip-length veil was held in place with a coronet of pearlized orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a locket belonging to her sister. Her arm bouquet was of calla lilies and satin fluffs.

Mrs. Allen N. Henderson, of Ogden, Utah, was matron of honor. She wore a formal dress of peach made with fitted bodice of lace and full net skirt. Her tiara veil was of the same shade and she carried a bouquet of blue Dutch irises.

Cadet Henderson attended the bridegroom as best man, and ushers were Cadets Hendrick Hudson and Bert Hopstein.

Miss Carmen Demmer was at the organ. Before the ceremony she played a group of numbers including "Beautiful Dreamer," "Love's Old Sweet Song," "Liebestraum," and "Londonderry Air." She used the traditional Lohengrin and Mendelssohn marches and played Carl Bohm's "Still as the Night" as vows were taken. She also accompanied Mrs. Robert Urban, who sang "Because," by d'Harlelot.

Out-of-town guests were the mothers of both the bride and bridegroom, and the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Edward Lesco. The bride's father is on duty with the Seabees somewhere in the Pacific. Cadet Herbst is a member of Class 431 at Bruce Field.

Canning Sugar Limit 25 Pounds a Person, To Prevent Spoilage

A maximum of 25 pounds of sugar per person will be allowed for home canning purposes under a new program to be put into effect in Texas at once to prevent spoilage of berries and fruits, the Fort Worth OPA office was advised Saturday from Washington.

The new order permits county war price and rationing boards to issue sugar allowance coupons granting home canners one pound of sugar for each four quarts of finished fruit, but not more than 25 pounds for each member of the household.

The sugar allowance for making jams, jellies, preserves and fruit butters was liberalized by permitting each consumer a maximum of five pounds for this purpose. However, the total allowance for canning and for making jellies, preserves and similar products cannot exceed 25 pounds per person during the period from March 1, 1943, to February 29, 1944.

Canning sugar was issued last year at the rate of one pound to each four quarts of finished fruit, but the allowance for jams and jellies was only one pound per person.

The new program simplifies the handling of applications by providing for ration boards to issue coupon books for canning sugar.

Applicants will be required to present the war ration book No. 1 of each person in the family for which the canning sugar application is made. The ration board will mark on the cover of each book the amount of sugar granted to each person, and any amount issued since March 1, 1943, will be deducted from the total to which the applicant is entitled.

CERTAIN TYPES OF VOICES AND FACES SAID RELATED

DUBLIN, May 5.—Certain types of voices belong to certain types of faces, declares F. J. McCormick, an actor in the Abbey Theatre, Dublin. In a train en route to Dublin recently, he says, he saw a man who looked like Sean O'Casey, playwright. The man had the nearest likeness to the playwright's voice McCormick ever heard. In a Chicago drugstore with his wife, McCormick heard a voice exactly like that of a Dublin friend. Investigating, they saw a Chicago girl who was the very image of their friend, McCormick reported.

"Your wife used to be terribly nervous. Now she's as cool and composed as a cucumber. What cured her?"

"The doctor did. He told her that her kind of nervousness was the natural result of advancing age."

Humphrey Bogart, Other Bright Stars in Exciting 'Casablanca'

The film story of the age-old city of Casablanca... old world metropolis of intrigue, mystery and dark shadows, comes to the Texas Theatre in midnight preview Saturday, and Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, May 9, 10, 11, starring Humphrey Bogart, Ingrid Bergman and Paul Henreid.

The action is contained in a few days of last December, when Casablanca was the stopping place on the passage of desperation from occupied Europe to free America. There is the American Cafe, owned by Humphrey Bogart, where forged passports change hands freely for fabulous prices gained on the roulette wheels of the cafe.

Moments of high tension and suspense are provided in the cat-and-mouse game played by Germans and French and the business of intrigue which supports the residents and kindles hope in the new arrivals at this port of embarkation to freedom.

Claude Rains, Conrad Veidt, Sidney Greenstreet (of the "Maltese Falcon") and Peter Lorre have prominent roles, and are well supported by such well known players as Leonid Kinskey and Joy Paige.

"Casablanca" promises to fulfill the utmost in entertainment and does not stress too much the war in Africa, which will be a welcome relief.

Roy Rogers in Western, and Ann Miller in "Reveille with Beverly" Top Texas Program Tomorrow

The No. 1 feature-length film at the Texas Theatre tomorrow and Saturday is "Reveille with Beverly," starring Ann Miller, while the No. 2 offering is "Idaho," with Roy Rogers heading the cast. In addition are several short subjects, "Reveille with Beverly," swing-packed picturization of a popular radio broadcast consists of "jive" recordings intended for the early-morning hours of boys in the army camps. The film traces the origin of the program, and how it works, with Miss Miller seen as the tap-dancing announcer.

"Reveille with Beverly" brings to the screen such airwaves entertainers as Bob Crosby, Freddie Slack, Duke Ellington and Count Basie and their respective orchestras, Frank Sinatra, the Radio Rogues and the Mills Brothers.

Among musical numbers are "One o'Clock Jump," "The Big Noise from Winnetka," "South Rampart Street Parade," "Cielito Lindo," "Cow-Cowboogie," and "Take the A Train."

Inspired by the hit parade song, "Idaho," the new Roy Rogers film is said to embrace all the elements of color and romance which made the song famous.

Teamed with Rogers in the comedy lead is the inimitable Smiley Burnette, remembered by local western fans as Gene Autry's comic pal "Frog Millhouse." Virginia Grey has the feminine lead, and Ona Munson portrays a femme "heavy."

Runnels County Rationing Board At OPA Meeting

Officials of the OPA office in Ft. Worth have scheduled a series of seven meetings in North and Central Texas to carry the price control program direct to the local war price and ration boards. In these meetings they will meet with chairmen, chief clerks, price panel members and price clerks, outlining the duties of each under the price control program.

County judges also are invited to these meetings in order to acquaint themselves with the need of having price panel assistants at the local boards where they have not been appointed.

Runnels county board members are attending a meeting for board members of Tom Green, Coke, Concho and Runnels county at San Angelo today and tonight.

As explained by Richard A. Martin, price control officer of the OPA office, Fort Worth, the local control program calls for voluntary community participation on a large scale in controlling prices and keeping down the cost of living as an important phase of the national war effort. The purposes of local community participation are to develop community understanding of the purposes and methods of price control, to insure that local sellers and buyers have information on price regulations applying to retailers, to promote local compliance with retail price regulations, to provide a channel for reporting on the effects of price regulations on the local economy and on particular sellers in the community, and to provide for orderly and systematic handling of reports required from local sellers.

The price panel members will operate as to enforcement only after complaint is made by someone from the general public. Wherever possible such issues will be settled by a friendly visit from a member of the price panel to the store in question. In cases where there seems to be substance to a complaint that a price ceiling violation has occurred, the matter will be reported to the full price panel. Adjustment of the case will then be attempted through mediation or through friendly persuasion. Where it becomes clear that a violation has occurred, the panel will seek to obtain assurance that the violation will not be repeated. Cases which the panel cannot adjust or in which flagrant or repeated violations have occurred will be referred by the panel to the OPA district office.

OPA officials have emphasized that such local board price panel members will not act as policemen in the community but will serve as friendly counselors and mediators. However, the OPA has announced that it will be considered the duty of the price panel, both in meeting its responsibilities to OPA and to its community, to report its cases which either can not be adjusted or in which there are repeated or flagrant violations.

The price panel is to be composed of three or six outstanding citizens in each community and in counties of heavy population, additional units of three members each may be added.

HARRIS COUNTY 4-H CLUB GIRL MAKES GOOD PROFIT IN RAISING RABBIT MEAT

COLLEGE STATION, May 5.—Beginning with two rabbits which were gifts, Gene Tucker, Harris county 4-H club girl, with the help of her sister has developed a profitable business venture and is producing meat for victory which finds a ready market.

Gene's rabbit colony now consists of 36 does which include New Zealand Whites, Chinchilla Blacks, and American Grays plus three New Zealand White bucks. Since she began her rabbit demonstration she has sold approximately 200 rabbits, receiving $1 each for fryer rabbits. These weigh three to three and a half pounds at two months of age. She estimates the cost of feeding a rabbit to the fryer stage at 25 cents.

The three hutches in which the rabbits are housed are in the backyard of Gene's home near LaPorte. One hutch, because the space is limited, is triple tiered with double bunks on each tier, while the other hutches are single tiered. Gene says the three-decked hutch is difficult to clean and therefore is not entirely satisfactory.

Each hutch is 18 inches above the ground because of the heavy rainfall in the Harris county area, explains Frances Punched, assistant county home demonstration agent.

Gene says if the proceeds of her demonstration had not been so successful she would never have consented to killing the first pet. Now, however, even her mother pays for those she uses.

YOUR DENTAL I. Q.

Q: Is it advisable to use an anesthetic for drilling out the average dental cavity?—N. M. P.

A: The use of a local anesthetic to prevent the pain or discomfort caused by most cavity preparations is advisable. As pointed out by Drs. M. L. Tainter and S. M. Moore, "local anesthesia (an-es-the-zee-ah) has a particularly important place in dentistry, since almost all dental procedures can be carried out under its influence. If patients are to accept a program of regular dental supervision, when minor pathologic processes are corrected before they progress to major defects, they must be assured that their dental visits will be pleasant and painless. Otherwise they will postpone the visit until it becomes unavoidable and the disease process has made serious inroads. For this reason, therefore, successful local anesthesia, in assuring freedom from pain, undoubtedly may be one of the most potent forces in bringing about the public health ideal of regular dental care."

Send questions with self-addressed, stamped envelope, to American Dental Association, 212 East Superior street, Chicago, Ill.

The normal action of the tongue, lip and cheek muscles helps to guide the teeth into proper position. Any habit that interferes with the normal action of these muscles may result in irregularity of the teeth and jaws. The slight pressure resulting from prolonged thumb or finger sucking may cause malposition of the teeth.

Gary Cooper Plays Lou Gehrig In 'The Pride of the Yankees'

Eighteen good-looking movie actors can't play baseball convincingly, says Samuel Goldwyn. Also Lloyd Brown, Cliff Dapper, Al Montgomery, Fred Gay, Bill Flaughter, Gilly Campbell, Bill Sweeney, Jack Salverson.

Denton a Cappella Choir To Sing Here on May 13

The famous North Texas State Teachers' College a cappella choir of forty voices will fill an engagement in Ballinger on Thursday evening, May 13, at the high school auditorium. This nationally known group is directed by Dr. Wilfred C. Bain, head of the music department of the Denton school. The program here is being presented for the cadets of Bruce Field as a special wartime entertainment.

Two Ballinger teachers, Miss Kay Evans and Lana Belle Bechum, were members of the choir last year and are largely responsible for the group's appearance here.

Trained to the precision of Prussian guardsmen, the forty young men and women offer a performance that is exciting both to the trained music lover and the man in the street. From its programs audiences derive the same thrill that comes to the spectators watching any other finely balanced human machine in action—a crack battalion of troops on dress parade or a championship football team driving down the field toward victory.

The Denton choir, dressed in purple velvet and white satin robes, move quickly to their positions in the phalanx formation in which they always sing. The conductor takes his position, and immediately the choir begins singing—the "Ballad for Americans." They sing number after number, and each time there is no hesitation, and as far as the audience can tell, no clumsy "getting the pitch."

The result is a graceful performance in which Dr. Bain plays on his human "symphony of voices" with even greater precision and variation than a skilled organist. Bain guards closely as a professional singer his method of enabling his singers to start their programs without permitting the audience to discover how they receive their pitch.

After games, refreshments were served to Joyce and Weldon Brookshier, Elbert, Rufus and Willie Graves, Frankie, Tommy, Charles and Milford Jackson, Peggy Ann Culp, Jimmy McAden, Jimmy Jones, Boyce Gene and Carroll McKnight and Glen Chapman.

Construction Men Wanted for Navy Enlistments Now

Navy recruiting men from the San Angelo sub-station were in Ballinger Wednesday seeking recruits for construction regiments and asked that those interested come to the San Angelo office on May 15 and talk with the construction engineer, Lieut. C. B. Parrett, who will be there for that day. The recruiters also called attention to the fact that May is WAVE month and many enlistments are expected.

In regard to the need of enlistments in the "seabees" the visitors made the following statement:

"Construction men are urgently needed to serve their country in the 'seabees.' Skilled workers are badly needed in such specialized skills as carpentry, welding, pipe fitting and laying, motor repairmen and operators, heavy road equipment operators, bulldozers and cat skimmers, electricians, draftsmen, telephone men, and many other skills.

"Skilled men... with two or more years' experience... between the ages of 17 and 50... can use their trades to fight. Never before has there been such an urgent demand for workers, and the navy offers a petty officer rating with pay that will sustain a family while the man is doing this job. Petty officer ratings from third class to chief are available to qualified men with pay ranging from $100 to $188.70 for men with dependents.

"Unskilled workers are also needed in the 'seabees' for many types of jobs. They will be advanced to petty officer ratings as quickly as they are qualified."

HORSE PERENNALLY STYLISH IN MEXICO

MEXICO, D. F., May 5.—Not a phenomenon or a revival, the horse, except in the city of Mexico still may be found attached to almost any kind of vehicle in Mexico from the smart brougham to the little black curtained buggy such as Benito Juarez used as a protective mode of travel. Open to the sun or moon, the traveler can enjoy intimate views of native life from a carriage slowly rolling along narrow, cobbled streets.

The horses introduced by the conquistadors were of Arab stock and their strain remains, not only in the blooded mounts of the Mexican army. The timid need have no fear, however, of the carriage horse, for instead of mold and mettle, his chief qualities are fortitude and amiability.

Miss Odena Parrish and Miss Ann Morton, students of Baylor University, Waco, came home this week and will not return to the university due to the fact that it has been taken over by the government for training service men.

POINTERS GIVEN ON CARE OF HOME ELECTRIC IRON BY EXTENSION SPECIALIST

COLLEGE STATION, May 5.—War-time restrictions on electric irons make it imperative that homemakers take good care of this household labor saver which is given frequent use.

Mrs. Bernice Claytor, A. & M. extension service specialist in home improvement, adds that proper care of an iron will reduce bills for electric current and save clothing as well as time and energy. She says that the three most damaging treatments of an iron are to overheat it, drop it, or to put it in water.

Careless overheating of an iron wastes current and is hard on the delicate heating element. High temperatures will discolor the sole plate and in extreme instances make the iron a fire hazard, she explains.

The specialist says that probably more irons are damaged by being dropped than any other way. A fall may cause a broken connection inside, may injure the thermostat and throw it out of adjustment, or it may scratch or nick the sole plate so that the iron catches on delicate fabrics.

Irons and other electrical appliances should never be placed in water because this will ruin the heating element. An iron should be allowed to cool before it is wiped off with a damp cloth. Starch spots on the sole plate can be removed with a cloth wrung from soapsuds or a mild scouring powder such as whiting or silver polish. If the iron sticks a little during the ironing it should be rubbed lightly with paraffin or beeswax. Once a month the electric iron should be waxed with paraffin or beeswax while it is still warm. The surplus can be removed with a soft paper or cloth.

Robert Lowry and Alexander McGregor, students of A. & M. College, were at home the past week-end for a visit with their parents and friends.

PROVIDENCE PAPER TELLS OF DEATH OF FLYER WHO WAS IN CRASH NEAR HERE

The following item clipped from the Providence, R. I., Evening Bulletin, evidently refers to one of the crew of ten killed in the crash of a bomber near Ballinger two weeks ago. The clipping was mailed to The Ledger by Corporal George M. Beard, who is stationed at Providence:

"John P. Hull, executive officer of the state board of milk control, and Mrs. Hull, of 21 Lauriston Street, this city, were notified by the war department last night of the death of their son, Lieut. John Keats Hull, 25, in aviation accident at Ballinger, Texas, on Monday. No details of the accident were given.

"Lieut. Hull was born in this city and was graduated from Hope high school. He attended Rhode Island State College for three years and Bryant College for two years before enlisting in the army March 2, 1942.

"He trained as an air navigation cadet at Turner Field, Albany, Ga., and was commissioned as a second lieutenant, navigator, army air force, at Monroe, La., last November.

"Survivors, in addition to his parents, are two sisters, Mrs. John Montgomery, Jr., of Hartford, Conn., and Mrs. Robert N. Arnold, of Warwick."

T. H. Chancy, of Vornon, spent the week-end in Ballinger, visiting friends and attending to business.

NEW FUNERAL DIRECTOR FOR KING-HOLT COMPANY

Allen Davis, recently of Big Spring, former Brownwood citizen, and college classmate of Rev. J. C. Johnson, local Presbyterian minister, who formerly was employed at Taft, Rockport, Brady and other Texas cities, and who has had twelve years' experience in the undertaking business, with his wife and two daughters, Patricia, 6, and Rebecca, 16 months, has arrived in Ballinger, and will be associated with E. E. King in the King-Holt Funeral Home.

Mr. Davis will reside at the funeral home and take charge of the direction of funerals and other details connected with the business.

A member of the Rotary Club, a past master of the A. F. and M. Lodge, and Sunday school superintendent at Big Spring, Mr. Davis is also a member of the Methodist church.

Mr. King, manager of the funeral home and furniture store, stated that he had been unable to close his furniture business and will continue to operate the store at the same location for the reason that he is daily receiving furniture and other merchandise which he has had ordered for from 6 to 10 months. Joe Ostertag will continue to make repairs on furniture and Mr. King will continue to sell what merchandise he has and can get, and collect outstanding accounts in the same stand as heretofore.

GRACE BAPTIST CHURCH REVIVAL TO CONTINUE

Revival services are continuing at the Grace Baptist Church with services each evening at 8:30. Rev. Raymond C. Wilson, pastor, is delivering the gospel messages and the music is under the direction of John A. Sparks.

Elsewhere in this issue is an advertisement giving the sermon subjects for the remainder of this week and next. These subjects deal with coming events as based on the scriptures.

The revival will close Sunday night, May 16. An invitation is extended all residents of this area to attend and participate in the services.

EDITOR HAS THE MEASLES AFTER MANY YEARS ESCAPE

Editor Troy Simpson of The Ledger was confined to his home this week with a case of measles after escaping the disease for many years.

Mr. Simpson had put in a hard week last week fighting for the war bond drive and perhaps his condition was not up to par. Anyway "the force" is sending you a paper this week that was put out on the "hit and miss" plan and we hope the errors and omissions will be overlooked.

On This Mother's Day

In 1914 President Wilson issued the first proclamation for the nation-wide observance of Mother's Day. It was near the beginning of the first World War. And now, after a lapse of nearly three decades, the youth of America has again been called upon to fight in the cause of freedom.

This year, it is fitting that Mother's Day be dedicated first of all to mothers who have a son or daughter in uniform with our armed forces. A mother can make no greater sacrifice. No greater service to humanity can be rendered.

For all mothers of today—and for those of past generations—the nation has set aside a special day each year to acknowledge its debt of gratitude. And it is especially to mothers in this community that we extend greetings and sincere good wishes.

Service Mothers' Will be Honored By Methodists

Mothers with sons in the service will be especially honored in a Mother's Day service at the First Methodist Church Sunday morning. This service was arranged by the Doss Bible class and members of other Sunday school groups are cooperating to make the program impressive in every detail.

Flowers have been purchased by the class and corsages will be given each mother as a gift from her son. Bruce Field cadets will assist by pinning flowers on the mothers and in cases will be seated with them during the service.

A center section of the church has been reserved for the mothers and cadets and all program features will be directed to the mothers who today have sons scattered all over the world with the fighting forces.

Special music in keeping with the occasion has been arranged and the sermon will be directed to all mothers and more specifically those known as "service mothers."

Cadets who have mothers visiting them Sunday are urged to bring them to the service and any other mothers, not worshipping in other congregations, are invited to attend.

The program consisted of classical, semi-classical, popular, and religious music.

Special entertainers from the group were: Lavinia Faubion, Eula Mae Payne, and Bonnie Nell Kenley, forming a trio which has always been enjoyed.

This organization, under the leadership of Miss Kay Evans, has given several performances. Tuesday the program was free, and was enjoyed by all who attended. The selections given showed a lot of hard work, and the large audience proved to the club that its efforts have been appreciated.

"The Night of January 16th"

The Cue and Curtain Club of the Ballinger senior high school presented the play, "Night of January 16th" Friday, April 30, in the auditorium. This was the play of the year. The club presents a play at this time each year as a last performance.

As a sign of their appreciation for work done by the club, there was an audience of about five hundred. The play proved to be an outstanding performance, and $12.71 was taken in, and $55.77 cleared from this production.

A jury was selected from the audience. It was composed of: Judge Grindstaff, Nat Williams, John A. Killough, Mrs. Greenwood, Mrs. Jack Hampton, Gladys Kemp, and Oscar Batts. Their verdict was "not guilty."

Mr. Lindsey announced Tuesday that the last payment had been made to the publishing company for the school annual, "Paw Prints." This book will be the best ever made here before, and will contain 93 pages. "Two hundred and forty-eight copies will arrive any day now," said Mr. Lindsey.

All of the machines have been moved to Ballinger and are now installed in the Atnipp shop.

The president introduced three new members, Peggy Ann Culp, Ruthie Wilson, and Betty Joyce Wilson. There are now nineteen members in the club. The next meeting will be held on May 17.

Bruce Field News

By A/C Andy Walker

Here we go again, folks, on the old Bruce Field merry-go-round. What with Mrs. Nixon hoppin' all over us for using her new twelve-cylinder typewriter, and with Lt. Knott accusing us of riding the "gravy train," we figure that we'd better get busy and give you the lowdown on this week's happenings at Mr. Harman's flying school.

First of all, we want to remind you of the forthcoming Bruce Field variety show, which will be presented on, or about May 14, in the Ballinger high school auditorium. Under the able direction of Lt. Griffith, post intelligence officer, who is being assisted by Lt. Bernfeld, music director, and Cadet Supervisor Barr (alias "big-stuff" Barr), the production is rapidly taking shape, and should be a headline attraction for the people of Ballinger.

Among the highlights of the big show will be two of Bruce Field's latest additions—the thesplan group, or "Sweet Corn and Drammer Society," and the Bruce Field Glee Club, under the direction of A/C Ford. This glee club has appeared in several of the Ballinger churches, and is said to be one of the best ever to represent the field.

Clever comedy will prevail throughout the performance, which features the antics of A/Cs Barr and Buerlin in their operatic offering of "El Bocho"—and also the new team of Fink & Fay, who will be making their debut in Ballinger. Of course, no Bruce Field show would be complete without the musical strains of our two talented instructors, Messrs. Van Liere and Murphy, who have pleased many a Ballinger audience on previous occasions. And then, there will be that popular Bruce Field dance band, headed by Lt. ("hot-lips") Bernfeld, and featuring the smooth trombone of Lt. (Dorsey) Griffith—playing the popular arrangements that you like. . . . All in all, we expect this latest edition to be our biggest and best yet—so remember that date, and we'll be seein' you at the Bruce Field Variety Show.

POSTAL RESTRICTIONS FOR OVERSEAS ARMY PERSONNEL MODIFIED

Mailing restrictions on packages to personnel of the U. S. army stationed overseas have been modified, Postmaster Tom Caudle said today.

A new regulation provides that parcels weighing not more than eight ounces may now be shipped overseas by first class mail to men in the military services, without an approved request from the addressee. This change was made to permit the mailing of small essential articles, such as fountain pens, eye glasses, watches, insignia, etc.

Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Charles Bilbrey announce the arrival of a baby son, born May 2 in the Shannon Hospital, San Angelo. Kenneth Charles made his debut at 11 a. m. and the little sergeant wishes his father could have been here to give him a big welcome, but word was received that the father had landed safe somewhere in North Africa. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dee Bilbrey of Ballinger and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Atwood of Eden. The new arrival has a large number of relatives in the service that he can be proud of. Five are uncles: Alvin and Carl Bilbrey, who also are in North Africa; J. W. McLeon, stationed at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii; Dawson Drake, now in England; and Jerry R. Bilbrey, at Camp Swift, Texas. All of the wives are at home with their families, now that they can no longer be with their husbands.

And here is some good news for all of you cadet wives—including mine. Mr. Wheeler, Concho county rancher, and friend of Fred Harman's, has invited all cadets who have wives—and who can prove it—to a big, and I quote, "barbecue with all the trimmings." Mr. Wheeler has had this idea up his sleeve for some time, and Fred Harman, who is all "hepped up" about the thing, has promised to furnish transportation for the whole bunch. The schedule, as it now stands, calls for busses leaving downtown Ballinger at 10:30 Sunday morning, and going direct to the barbecue site. Plenty of food is on the menu, and it is rumored that there will be enough to satisfy even the ravenous Mrs. Ramstad.

Well, chillen, it looks like a big week-end, so we'll put an end to this drivel, and say so long 'till next week.

MR. AND MRS. STURGES FISH, REST AT BROWNWOOD LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sturges, of the Bettis & Sturges ladies' store of this city, spent Tuesday and Wednesday at Lake Brownwood, fishing and resting.

Mr. Sturges has been feeling below par for some time and felt that he could best exercise his "freedom" away from the cares of business at some quiet place like the lakeshore, and it is whispered around that he thought he could beat the meat rationing program by exercising his "fishing ability."

FOUR SQUARE CHURCH WILL CELEBRATE MOTHER'S DAY

Special Mother's Day services will be held at the Four Square Gospel Church Sunday, according to an announcement by Rev. and Mrs. Lale E. Green, pastors. At the morning hour there will be a gift for the oldest mother present.

Other regular services will be held during the week and on Sunday evening.

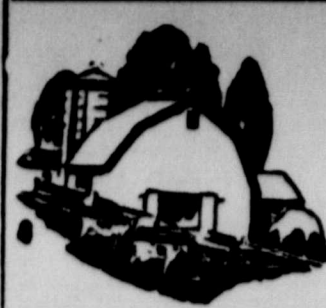

Frank Crockett, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Crockett, and one of the Ballinger high school seniors, will report at Lubbock Friday for examination for the V-12 test given through the high school. If he passes all the tests he will be accepted for navy training at some college in the state.

Read the grocery ads and save.

Frank d'Angelo

Today's picture is of Class Commander d'Angelo, who has left us for a short while, in order he may attend an advanced instructors' refresher course at Randolph Field, Texas. Frankie d'Angelo has been with Mr. Harman for more than two years—first as head instructor; later being promoted to the position of class commander. He is a wizard in the air, having upwards of 2,000 hours logged time, and any cadet who has gone through Bruce Field will tell you that Frankie d'Angelo is a swell guy!

Runnels county has done another good job in the biggest war financing campaign in history. Last Friday local leaders reported the county over the top in the $531,000 war bond selling drive by a wide margin. Many citizens rendered good service in the drive and had it not been for the combined efforts of all the goal could not have been reached. Not only did Runnels county come through but the nation over-subscribed the quota in a way that should tell the Axis leaders to watch their step, that they have just started tasting American tools of death and that more planes, tanks and guns will be coming over to deal the knock-out blow somewhere down the line.

Next Sunday will be observed all over the nation as Mother's Day. This year the day takes on special significance because of the fact that so many anxious mothers are separated from their soldier sons, and many do not know where they are and will have little chance of hearing from them. Everyone should lay special emphasis on the observance this year. It is a good American custom and if you know of mothers who are worrying about their sons who may be prisoners of war or in action far away telephone them and wish them a good Mother's Day or send them a flower in honor of their son. All local churches will feature this theme Sunday.

Hitler and his Axis partners can get little relief from the way Americans bought bonds to continue the war, but on the heels of this magnificent contribution strikes and threats of strikes are giving his broadcasters plenty to talk about. This is welcome news for the Axis. There is nothing that arrests the efforts of a nation quicker than internal troubles that lead to work stoppages such as the soft coal strike. It convinces the enemy that they still have friends in this country who are carrying on and doing a better job than they are on the front lines. Let's hope that laws will be enacted that will put the home front to work with the same efficiency as the battle fronts.

CAMERON COUNTY 4-H CLUB BOY MAKES GOOD IN LIVESTOCK RAISING

COLLEGE STATION, May 5.—A combination of good management, a keen business sense and determination to do his part in the war effort has made Tom Corbello, of Cameron county, an efficient producer of food-for-victory. He's a member of the San Benito boys' 4-H club.

Starting from scratch 17 months ago, Tom now owns livestock and poultry estimated to be worth $1,063. According to Assistant County Agricultural Agent George Shearer, young Corbello owns only a small amount on his five-cow dairy herd, his flock of laying hens, and pigs.

Shearer quotes H. L. Starnes, president of the Valley Production Credit Association, that Tom took over the management of the family citrus operations after his father entered defense work. He became interested in livestock in October, 1941, and through his 4-H club and a local service club borrowed money to buy one of the registered Jersey cows brought to the county to be distributed among club boys. The next year he borrowed money to buy three bred gilts and 300 baby chicks to pay for the registered cow. He raised 291 of the chicks to broiler age and now has 142 pullets producing 100 eggs daily.

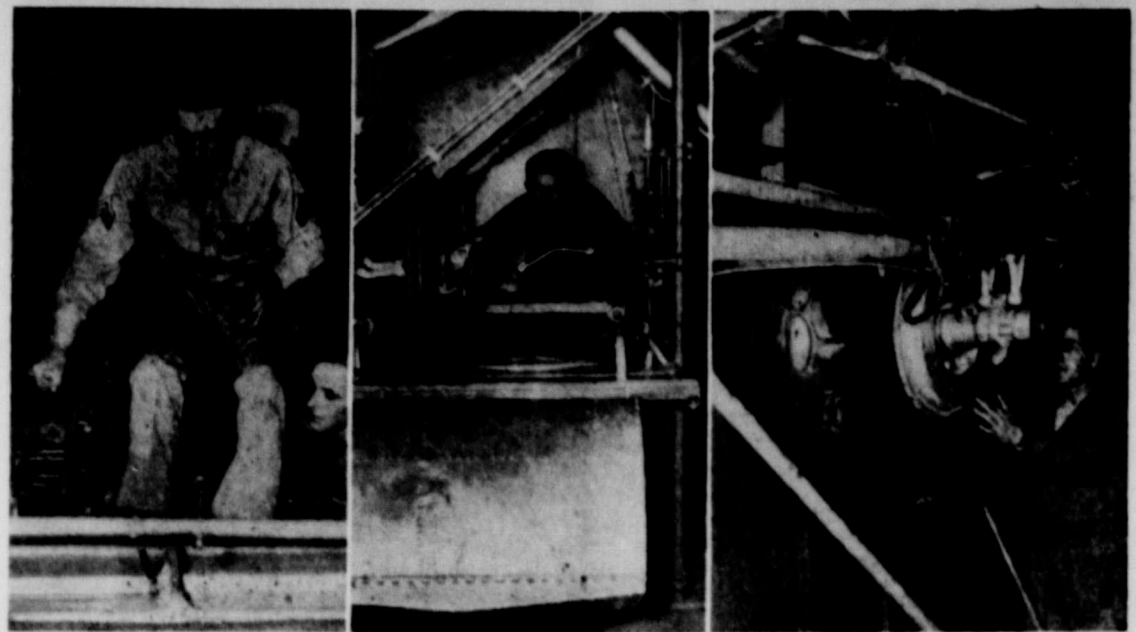

From the litters of the three gilts, Tom raised 24 pigs to weaning age. With foresight he made a further loan to buy sufficient grain to feed them out while it was cheap. He marketed his pigs recently, and with the ones kept for breeding he has more than $650 worth of hogs produced at a cost of slightly less than $300, according to Shearer. Tom used the money from the sale of the pigs to pay the feed bill for his chickens and dairy herd, along with expenses incurred in starting his various enterprises.

Recently he was able to finance purchase of grain needed for operations during the next four months, and to feed two litters of pigs.

Addition of livestock and poultry has given the Corbello farm a well diversified agricultural program, Shearer says. Income from the orchard supplemented by his father's earnings have covered the expense of operating the citrus grove, living and taxes. Tom reinvested earnings from his demonstrations in building his livestock and poultry program.

WEST TEXAS NOTES

Robert Merz, Concho county farm agent, stated last week that he had vaccinated approximately 250 animals against a disease commonly known as sleeping sickness. Although there have been no serious cases reported in the county every possible precaution is being taken to prevent an epidemic.

Mevin citizens were all out for the second big war loan drive which proved to be most successful. According to E. A. Baze, chairman of the war finance committee, Mevin exceeded the set quota of $53,000 by $10,000.

Activity in oil leases and drilling three miles east of Winters has gained momentum in the past few weeks with the L. A. David producer pumping, another well down several thousand feet, and one to be spudded soon. Other wells have been reported underway and negotiations for leases purchased by drilling contractors, Callahan & Skakely, of Abilene, have been handled by W. G. Bedford, Winters attorney.

All teachers of the Paint Rock schools have been reelected for another year, and all intend to accept except Elvin Mathis, who has tendered his resignation.

The Junction elementary school added $2,165 to the "jeep" contest last week. If all school children had contributed as liberally as the students of this school did the government would have 40,000 "jeeps" instead of the 15,000 set up as a goal. The contest was participated in by practically every pupil in the elementary school.

The H. H. Hardin Lumber Co. of Stephenville was sold last week to Barnes McCullough of Hico. The Hardin yard at Stephenville was established by the late H. H. Hardin in 1895. It was the first yard operated by Judge Hardin and the beginning of a firm that in later years had holdings in all sections of Texas, including a yard in Ballinger.

It is believed that the new six-room frame stucco ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. John McIntire, who live 20 miles from Fort Stockton, was destroyed by fire about 10 a. m. last Sunday as the result of bullets dropped by members of the crew of a Flying Fortress based at Pyote. The gunnery range is only about one and a half miles from the McIntire home. Members of the family were in the corral milking at the time of the accident. The house was in flames soon after explosions were heard, the furniture and all personal belongings being destroyed.

Miss Jewel Hipp, Coleman county home demonstration agent, has a busy month ahead of her from the looks of her calendar for May. The first week of the month will be spent with the 370 4-H club girls, who are getting ready for 4-H Achievement Day, to be held in the Coleman city park May 8. This week is observed by 4-H club girls all over the nation.

After final check-ups at Rising Star, Mrs. James M. Parkins, county chairman, announced that the quota set for the recent Red Cross drive had been exceeded by $15,000. The total amount contributed was $19,499.31.

More than a million pounds of scrap iron collected in Coleman county has been donated to the U. S. army and sold to a local buyer since the campaign began several days ago. The drive is to continue until May 11 at least.

The Robert Lee school will be closed May 14. The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered Sunday evening, May 9, at the Methodist church, by Rev. E. D. Henson, pastor of the First Christian Church of San Angelo. Graduation exercises will be held Friday evening, May 14, at the high school auditorium. There will be no other programs in connection with the closing of school.

The Red Cross room at Talpa has completed approximately 4,000 surgical dressings since beginning operation several weeks ago. It was announced this week. An average of 14 women in the Talpa area, including two who ride horseback at least ten miles, meet twice weekly to sew for the Red Cross.

The 21st district American Legion convention, scheduled to be held at Brownwood, has been postponed from May 8 and 9 to May 22 and 23, due to the death on April 16 of District Commander Jennings Monk, of Kerrville. Brownwood Legion officials assured that there would be plenty of rooms available to take care of all delegates who plan to attend.

Of the group of four boys arrested at Coleman last week by the sheriff's department, three of them 14 and 15 years of age, were turned over to the county juvenile court and were released on parole to their parents with orders that they were to report every two weeks to the judge for observation. The other boy, 17 years old, had burglary charges filed against him, but was released on bond. It is reported that he has enlisted in the armed forces.

The first shipment of fish for Lake Brownwood was put in the lake near the dam last Thursday. In the lot were 144,000 bass, bream, crappie, rock bass and channel catfish.

ECONOMIST IMPRESSES IMPORTANCE OF KEEPING ACCURATE FARM RECORDS

COLLEGE STATION, May 5.—The importance of keeping records was impressed upon Texas farm families who made their first federal income tax returns this year. According to Tyrus R. Timm, economist in farm management for the A. & M. College extension service, accurate records throughout the year eliminate guessing items of income and expenditure, or the tedious task of searching for receipts or scattered memoranda to determine the taxable income and deductions. He estimates that approximately 300,000 Texas farm families will have to file returns in March, 1944, either for victory taxes or income taxes, or both.

Since at least 95 per cent of Texas farmers, including most beginners, file returns on the cash basis, Timm itemizes what should go into the record book.

Learn More Cuts of Meat Low-point meats have high food-value

HOW MANY FRESH MEAT-CUTS do you know? ... 15 or 20?

In a well-stocked market there are 139! .. So, if you haven't enough points for a sirloin steak, you can settle for a Breast of Lamb Stew, and STILL HAVE YOUR MEAT VITAMINS. The lower-priced lean meats have just as much nourishment (per volume) as the highest priced. Have you ever served a Stuffed Beef Heart, or Oxtail Joints?

Our Home Economics Department is spreading the word, in print and on the radio, for customers to learn more cuts of meat. This is for the sake of nutrition and thrift, especially important in wartime.

Pigs' Feet at 1-point
If you can't get Pork Tenderloin, how about Pigs' Feet, at 1 point a pound? (Steam the feet tender in salted water, with a bay leaf and some whole cloves. Serve cold, doused in spiced vinegar.)

Store Meat Carefully
Left-over meat needs a good cold spot in your gas refrigerator, and so does smoked meat. Since ground meat is very perishable, use it in 24 hours.

GREASE
Are you turning in your worn-out kitchen fats, for war materials?
Remember, one pound of fat makes glycerine for four 37-millimeter shells. Two pounds will make one pound of dynamite.

Beef Short Ribs (4 coupon-points)

2 lbs. short ribs 1/2 onion
2 lbs. meat 1/2 c. water
drippings 2 carrots
2 tablesp. salt 1/2 green pepper
1/4 teasp. pepper 1 c. chopped celery

Cut ribs in squares, as shown. Flour them, and brown slowly, allowing 20 to 30 minutes to brown. Add the seasonings, minced onion, and water, to simmer (tightly covered) for two hours.

Add the vegetables, cut small, and cook 30 minutes. Taste, to be sure it has enough seasoning. Remove meat to platter, and thicken the vegetable gravy.

Roast At Low Heat
To keep roast meat from shrinking too much, use the thermostat-control on a modern Gas Range to keep a low heat: 250° to 300°. This hangs on to the vitamins, and makes a better flavor.

'Point Schedules' May be Obtained At Postoffice Here

The new "point price schedules" for meat, fats, fish and cheese have been received by the Ballinger post office and are now available to dealers only. Postmaster Tom Caudle announced today.

Except for retailers served by rural routes these schedules must be called for at the main post-office, it was said. A sufficient quantity has been received here to furnish all meat dealers and retailers who deal in processed foods in this territory, but they must call for them at the post-office. Copies of old schedules remaining on hand at the end of each month should be destroyed, it was pointed out, as they will be superseded by a new supply.

Distribution of Ration Book No. 3
The postoffice department will cooperate with the office of price administration in the distribution of ration book No. 3, which takes the place of ration book No. 1 about to be used up.

The OPA will furnish all postmasters a supply of blank applications, form R-129, to be distributed to the public generally. These forms will probably be received by all postmasters between May 17 and May 20, 1943. Beginning May 20 postmasters will make a general distribution of these applications without address to all patrons of their offices, by city, rural, village and star route carriers, performing box delivery and through lock boxes and call boxes, and will keep a supply on hand for persons who call for their mail at the postoffice. Delivery by carriers will be completed not later than June 5, 1943, and cards will be available to call to and including June 10.

The OPA states that all applications must be mailed to the address printed on the card prior to midnight of June 10, 1943, and that applications received bearing a later postmark will be held by OPA for later handling.

VACUUM CLEANERS AND OTHER APPLIANCE NEED GOOD CARE DURING WAR

COLLEGE STATION, May 5—Housewives fortunate to have a pre-war vacuum cleaner or carpet sweeper will want to know how to keep these appliances in good running condition for the spring house cleaning which imposes extra heavy duty on these cleaning tools which must last for the duration.

Your vacuum cleaner will last longer and serve you better if you know the type of cleaner you have and how it cleans, says Mrs. Bernice Claytor, specialist in home improvement of the A. & M. College extension service. It makes a difference whether your cleaner cleans by suction alone, or whether it has a sweeping and beating action, too. The main thing to watch in a straight-suction cleaner—and an important feature in any cleaner—is that the nozzle makes a good seal with the rug. For best results, clean rugs often, operate the cleaner slowly, keep the dirt container empty and the brushes free of hair and thread. Be sure that the brush tips extend below the nozzle. If the cleaner needs repairs, or a check-up, take it to a reliable serviceman.

When the cleaner is put away, the rubber belt that turns the rotating roll should be taken off the fan shaft if the manufacturer recommends it, Mrs. Claytor says. Since pins, hairpins, or other stray bits of metal can cut the belt and nick or bend the fan, the housewife should not expect the cleaner to pick up such articles and since string winds around the rotating roll it should not be taken up by the cleaner. If the belt is very loose or worn, replace it—the old one can be turned in for salvage.

DEATHS

Mrs. D. Johnson
Mrs. D. Johnson, 80, died at her home, 418 Strong Avenue, at 1 p. m. April 25. She had been ill for more than two months and in failing health for the past seven years.

Decedent came to Runnels county from Oklahoma in 1907 and made home here ever since. She was married in 1897 at Springer, in the old Indian Territory and was a member of the Methodist church since childhood.

Survivors besides the husband include three daughters, Mrs. D. L. Brackeen, Wichita Falls; Mrs. Wayne Jones, Ballinger; Mrs. Elmer Dameron, Ballinger; eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Crews Methodist Church on April 26, Rev. John Merritt, of Taipa, officiating. Interment followed in the Crews cemetery.

Palbearers were S. S. Robinson, E. W. Rainwater, Alva Berry, Amos Roach, Paul Martin and Fred Dameron. Agnew Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

AN EARFUL BY AN EAVESDROPPER

Just through curiosity we listened to a few cases of stamp shopping or point spending one day and some interesting things take place over the meat counters and checking stands if one will but listen.

One woman, making her first purchase of fresh meat for some time was heard to say: "All these stamps are now out of date; wonder who buys that much meat anyway?" The butcher countered with: "Well, when you consider that many people have to buy all their butter, lard, meat and cheese with their stamps, it is no wonder they use all their stamps and want more." The woman referred to lives on a farm and doubtless has her own lard, cured meats, plenty of butter, and countless chickens.

At another place a fellow was heard to say: "Let me have a roast off that piece of meat there." The meat cutter obligingly complied and said: "That will take 21 points." But the customer had only eleven points and had to do with much less meat.

At the checking counter a woman had some salmon but didn't have sufficient points, while a neighbor who was standing nearby volunteered with all the points necessary and remarked that she couldn't use nearly all her points. Occasionally customers think when they have surrendered their points that the bill is paid and some have even started to walk away without paying for their merchandise.

Most people take rationing good naturedly and little complaint is heard from the average person, although inconvenience may be caused in some instances. Butchers are doing a good business in poultry when that delicacy can be found, but it is not always available. Fish, either fresh or frozen, is becoming popular as a substitute for "red" meats and all in all housewives are learning more and more to procure unrationed items for their main dishes.

Since dried beans have been reduced in point value and since blackeyed peas are on the point-free list, these items are not clamored for quite so insistently as they were in the first weeks of rationing, grocers declare.

Prunes and apples are about the only dried fruits one sees in the food stores these days, although there are a few raisins. Apricots and peaches are nearly unknown quantities in the past few months.

'Mother' Theme For First Baptist Services Sunday

Rev. Clarence A. Morton, pastor of the First Baptist Church, has announced special services at this church both morning and evening Sunday.

Mother's Day will be observed in all services Sunday, starting at the Sunday school hour where flowers are to be provided for all. Mrs. James A. Wear is in charge of decoration for the day.

At the 11 o'clock hour Rev. Morton will deliver a Mother's Day sermon and special music will be rendered by the choir and guest artists from Bruce Field, who will be heard in organ, trumpet and vocal numbers.

Mrs. R. T. Williams and Mrs. J. A. Kilgough will act for the church in providing dinner invitations in homes for cadets and other men in uniform attending the service.

The cadet fellowship hour will be held Sunday evening at 6 o'clock in the church parlors, directed by Mrs. Malcolm Morgan. Sunday night at 8:30 the choir and the sacred drama club of the church, directed by Mrs. Ernest Moody, and with Miss Carmen Demmer as guest violinist, will offer "A Musical Silhouette." Mrs. Moody will be the reader; Miss Tommie Mansell, organist; and R. E. White will direct the large choir. There are twenty-five characters as life portraits in beautiful music, tableaux, pantomimes in the midst of a spiritual and sacred atmosphere blended in colorful ceremonies.

NORTON SCHOOL NEWS

Bond Rally
The bond rally sponsored by Mrs. Roy L. Roper, Miss Beattie Mae Wheeler, and Mrs. Janie B. Hull last Thursday night, April 29, was attended by a large crowd and stamp and bond sales totaled $6,700. The sales at school during April were $171.75.

The next bond rally will be sponsored by the women of the community on May 13. Mrs. Charles Patton and Mrs. Earl Cope are co-chairmen.

In order to keep our minute flag flying, 90% of the school must buy a stamp each month. Last month the entire high school was 100% and the grammar school average was 98%.

Seniors Entertained

The senior class and the faculty were entertained last Friday night, April 30, by the W. M. S. at the Baptist church. Mrs. Otis Allen opened the program and Rev. L. Roy Stuckey talked on "Christian Education." Afterwards Mrs. Eva Morrison and Mrs. Carl Lewis conducted a social in the form of airplane races and tests. Airplane puzzles were matched to secure partners for refreshments.

Those attending were: Evelyn Scoggins, Pansy Setser, Dominga Duran, Eleanor Bryan, Magdalene Moreland, Ouida Hambricht, Norman Roper, Scott Barrett, Neil Stewart, Jack Herring, James Leonard, and Doris Stewart; and Misses Eunice Lilly, Ruth Morgan and Beattie Mae Wheeler; Mrs. Janie B. Hull and Roy Roper; and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Douglas.

Senior Personalities

Evelyn Scoggins has indeed a personality for the Senior Personalities. She is well liked by all her classmates and she will answer to the name of Shially or Estelle. She likes speech and Mrs. Roper and her ambition is to be a singer for Glen Miller's Orchestra. Her hobbies are tap dancing and collecting photographs.

Pansy Setser is another senior with a pleasing personality. She too is liked by the entire class. Her hobbies are reading and singing and her best liked subject is bookkeeping. Her ambition is to be a private secretary.

Neil Stewart is the only member of our class who didn't make the grade last year so he is finishing with the class of 1943. His favorite subject is speech and his ambition is to be a stock-farmer after he returns from the army. Playing football and shooting Japs are his hobbies.

Doris Stewart is a very sweet and likable person. She is the brains of the senior class and we all love her for her generosity and sweet personality. Her favorite subjects are English and civics, and Mrs. Roper is her favorite teacher. Her hobbies are reading and working on a scrapbook.

Mrs. Taylor Henley and little son left last Wednesday to join Lieut. Henley, who is a chaplain in the army. Lieut. Henley is stationed at Fort Jackson, South Carolina. Mrs. Henley was accompanied by J. D. Reneau as far as Georgia, where he reported at Ft. Benning after a visit here with relatives and friends.

Jack Carroll Ranch Bought by Abilene Man for $30 an Acre

Announcement was made this week of a long sale involving more than 1,300 acres of land and improvements. The deal was for the Jack Carroll ranch, fifteen miles southeast of Ballinger, which was bought by Verne W. Dalton, plumbing contractor of Abilene and Sweetwater. The price announced was $30 per acre. The transaction was consummated by Renza Lee, of Maverick.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll have been living on the place since 1929. They have done much improvement since moving there, the most important of which was the building of a modern fieldstone residence. Livestock herds have been built up and one of the best water supplies in this section of West Texas was provided.

Mr. Carroll has accepted a position with the Harman Training Center and will have charge of plumbing and other work in properties operated by Mr. Harman here.

Possession of the ranch has already been given the new owner but the Carrolls will not vacate the house until June 1. Mr. Carroll stated that he had purchased the W. A. Bridwell residence on Broadway and will move there June 1 to make home. At that time Mr. and Mrs. Bridwell will move to their ranch near Ballinger.

Mrs. R. L. Cobb and children, Janis and Wayne, have been visiting in the home of Mrs. Cobb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Kenley. Mrs. Cobb left Tuesday to rejoin her husband, Major Cobb, who is stationed at the army air base near Tucson, Arizona.
