Building Permit For Lunch Room Approved by City

A building permit in the sum of $25,000 was approved by the city commission Monday for the Ballinger public schools.

Construction of a modern cafeteria will be started within a short time on the junior high school campus. Blueprints and plans have been okayed by the board, bonds have been sold, and the work will be done without a contract, school officials to superintend the details.

The building will be 100 feet and 3 inches long and 40 feet and 3 inches wide. The center of the building will have a slight offset, cutting the width at this part to less than 40 feet.

On the west end of the building a kitchen 40 by 30 feet is to be arranged for the preparation and storage of foods and the other sections of the building will be seated.

Steel for the structure has already been purchased and other critical materials have been obtained. Exterior of the building will be similar to that of the new negro school.

The city commission also approved a permit for Floyd Wimberly to build a residence on Sharp Avenue between Second and Third streets. Cost of the structure will be $7,500.

Fort Worth Man Killed in Crash Of Auto, Truck

Grafton Dunbar, 34, of Fort Worth, died in the Ballinger Clinic-Hospital Friday afternoon a few hours after he was injured in an automobile-truck collision four miles east of town on highway 67.

The collision of the car and a Gandy's Creamery truck occurred about 11 a. m. Highway Patrolman W. A. Jacob, who investigated, reported that Edgar L. Canada, driver of the truck, was en route from Coleman to San Angelo with a load of milk. Dunbar was driving alone in a 1951 Chevrolet, apparently losing control and swerving to the left. The right side of the car collided with the truck. Canada received treatment at the local hospital but was released.

J. P. McElroy, of Comanche, driving a 1949 Ford just behind the truck, averted a crash by easing his car into the ditch at the side of the road. He and a brother riding with him were uninjured.

Dunbar's car was demolished in the crash. The 1951 Reo truck, loaded with 1,000 gallons of milk, was badly damaged and much of the milk was lost. Jimmy Dittmore, 17, a cousin of the driver, riding in the truck, was not injured.

Housing Project May Be Started by June

John B. Rayburn, local secretary of the public housing commission, received a telegram Tuesday morning from the Fort Worth office of the PHA giving instructions to accept the bid of E. M. Lambert & Son, of Abilene, and proceed with construction.

The message stated that work could start at once on the 48-unit Ballinger project and in no case later than June 25. The low bidder met all requirements in the Fort Worth office and the figure of $317,440 has been accepted for the complete job in Ballinger.

The plot of ground for the 48-unit project is located in West End and all utilities have been made available. Work is expected to start on this group first. Eight units for negroes will be constructed in the southern part of town between Sixth Street and Broadway.

Apartment for the white group will have from one to four bedrooms and building features, ranges, refrigerators and modern baths will be included.

A mass meeting of farmers, implement dealers and agriculture workers held here Monday afternoon set July 6 as the date for holding a cotton insect control and machinery field day. With 150,000 or more acres in the county planted to cotton this year, leaders believe a very important factor in getting a maximum yield will be in the control of insects.

K. P. Ewing, USDA bureau of entomology, Waco, will be here to bring information on new insecticides and means of applying them.

The Runnels county seven-step cotton committee was named to act as the general steering committee for the one-day program. Other committees are:

Cotton insect and insecticides display—composed of vocational agriculture teachers, G. I. instructors, and members of the county agent's office

Display of machinery for insect control and other cotton equipment—composed of all managers and owners of implement houses in the county

Grounds and arrangements—T. J. Mansell, chairman; H. B. Edmondson, Joe Johnson, Raymond Berryhill and Hal Yoder. All newspapers, station KRUN, PMA employees and members of the county agent's office have been asked to give full publicity.

Clyde Chapman will be chairman of the refreshment committee. The meeting will not only be educational in the controlling of insects but will display modern machinery which may help with the labor shortage next fall. Spraying and dusting equipment will be shown and used in demonstrations, and other machines such as pickers, strippers, rotary hoes and choppers and the newest types of plows will be exhibited.

The program will start promptly at 1 p. m. and will continue the entire afternoon. The place will be decided later. All cotton growers and others interested in cotton production are urged to make plans to attend.

West Texas Utilities Company

There's a size and a model to fit your needs.

THESE folks are enjoying something that's being pioneered by Buick.

It's freedom from the blinding glare of bright summer sunlight.

It's freedom from hot laps—caused by the sun's rays beating down through the broad expanse of windshield.

These freedoms trace to a new feature you may have noticed in '51 Buicks—a new kind of glass! with a cool, soft, blue-green tint, in every glass area of the car, front, side and back.

Buick engineers tell us that this "Buick first" reduces glare 18% over conventional glass—cuts sun heat as much as 45%—and Buick engineers are very conservative fellows.

*Optional at extra cost—available on most models. (Not presently available in California and Massachusetts.)

This glare-and-heat-reducing Easy-eye glass is factory-installed at moderate extra charge. It gives you a built-in transparent "sun visor" right in the windshield—and it also dulls the dazzle of oncoming headlights at night.

As we've said, this is something Buick owners were the first to enjoy. It takes its place with such exclusives as the valve-in-head Fireball Engine—coil springs on all four wheels—the firm power linkage of torque-tube drive—and the magic of Dynaflo.

As we've also said—rather modestly—"Smart buy's Buick."

Come in soon and find out what an understatement that really is.

*Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

COURT BATTLE NECESSARY TO SHOW MOTION PICTURE

A supreme court case which brought a favorable decision for the film, was necessary in one mid-western state before Hallmark's hard-hitting production dealing with scandals of the nation's galloping "teen-agers," titled "She Shoulda Said No," had clear sailing. Court testimony brought out the picture was neither immoral, salacious or indecent in any sense of these terms and that opposition was artificial and based on hearsay rather than personal viewing. Members of the court stepped down from the bench to view the film personally, it marking the second case in history where the judges consented to review a picture themselves. Attorneys termed the unwarranted opposition to the film "piddie-paddle" and those opposing it "do-gooders" who were worrying more about how their photographs looked on the front pages than they were about the behavior of the nation's youth.

The picture is to be shown at the Texas Theatre Friday night, June 15.

'I'd Climb the Highest Mountain' Ranked Among Year's Top Films

As fertile and challenging as the land it depicts, "I'd Climb the Highest Mountain," sweepingly pictorial 20th Century-Fox drama, in Technicolor, will be installed at the Texas Theatre Sunday for a three-day engagement. This production is said to tower over even the most superior of a year's pictures with the strength and stature of a giant. It has to offer, critics report, satisfaction for all seekers—visual splendor for the eye; deep spiritual conflict for the mind; poignant romance to touch the heart.

Co-starring are Susan Hayward and William Lundigan, each of whom rises to a new height in his role. "I'd Climb the Highest Mountain" affords both new breadth of characterization and power of appeal.

No less skillful are the supporting players: Alexander Knox, as a hard-bitten atheist who refuses to cross the threshold Lundigan opens to him; Rory Calhoun, a rugged newcomer who invests a secondary role with the characteristics of a new star; and Barbara Bates, an attractive and persuasive young actress of genuine ability; Gene Lockhart as a tough-minded parishioner; Lynn Bari, as a rival of Miss Hayward's whose superficiality is betrayed; and the redoubtable character actress Ruth Donnelly and Kathleen Lockhart.

Gregory Peck essays the top role in "Only the Valiant," principal attraction at the Texas today, tomorrow and Saturday. In the film, set during the past-Civil War era when savage Apache conflicts menaced the settlers of the ripening Southwest, Peck portrays a cavalry officer assigned to a delaying action against the outnumbering enemy until reinforcements can ride to his rescue. Barbara Payton and Ward Bond have supporting parts.

Fontaine, Cotten Paired In Paramount Rowance

Joan Fontaine and Joseph Cotten, two of the brightest stars in the Hollywood firmament, will be seen together for the first time in Paramount's "September Affair," scheduled at the Texas Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, June 20, 21.

The film, made on location in Italy, co-stars veteran continental performer Francoise Rosay, and according to preview audiences, it matches the pictorial splendor of the Italian countryside with a brilliant and moving tale of an unconventional love.

Miss Fontaine and Cotten are said to play a series of love scenes that are wistful, tender and eloquent. And Mme. Rosay, as Joan's teacher and companion, acquires herself with distinction in her American starring debut. Dazzling back-grounds include the famous ruins of Pompeii, the coliseum in Rome, the beautiful Isle of Capri, as well as striking views of Florence and Naples.

Carl Black, Jr., of Abilene, spent the past week-end here, visiting his grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Black. Leaving here the first of the week, he went to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, for two months of artillery training.

'Go for Broke' to Have Southwest Premiere At Hillcrest Drive-In Commencing Sunday

M-G-M's new picture, "Go for Broke!" to have its Southwest premiere at the Hillcrest Drive-In Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, June 17, 18, 19, stars Van Johnson, as a young Texas officer.

"Go for Broke!" battle cry of the famed 442nd regimental combat team, composed of all-volunteer Nisei (Americans of Japanese ancestry), is pldgin English slang for "shoot the works!" The story centers around the 442nd's unexcelled wartime record in Italy and France. After 4 months, the outfit's casualties amounted to 300 per cent. Later, in France, they climaxed their brilliant record with the near-suicide rescue of the "lost battalion," the 36th Texas division. Of the original 3,000 men and 6,000 replacements, more than 6,300 received purple hearts and 9,000-plus combat decorations.

The heart-pounding story of a typewriter-pounding reporter who battles the underworld to pay off for a beautiful girl who was shortchanged, Paramount's "Chicago Deadline," starring Alan Ladd and Donna Reed, is billed at the Hillcrest tomorrow and Saturday, in conjunction with "California Passage."

Suspensefully mounted against the exciting background of the Chicago newspaper world, "Chicago Deadline," is declared an intriguing blend of mystery and romance. Ladd again demonstrates why he is one of the screen's most popular stars, according to preview reports.

Charming Adele Mara co-stars with Forrest Tucker and Estelita Rodriguez in "California Passage," in which Adele is seen as Beth Martin, who crosses the country to reach California in the fabulous gold rush days.

Assistant Agent Introduced At County Council Meeting

The Runnels county home demonstration council met in the office of Miss Ollie Chenoweth, county home demonstration agent, at 2:00 o'clock Friday, June 8. Mrs. Thomas Egan, chairman, presided.

Mrs. Egan introduced Miss Sue Milligan, of Rockwood, as the county's new agent-in-training for the three summer months. Miss Milligan will assist Miss Chenoweth in her work, while getting training as an assistant county agent.

Miss Thelma Casey, district agent, was also a visitor at the council meeting.

Mrs. Egan exhibited the homemaker's plaque which she won in the soil conservation contest, and gave the highlights of the luncheon and program at Junction on May 23, at which she was presented the plaque. She also thanked the council for the corsage which was given her to wear to the luncheon.

There were no committee reports.

Miss Chenoweth and Miss Casey reported on the district 4-H encampment, held June 5, 6, 7, at Bruce Field, stating that it was very successful. The girls were given demonstrations on food, outdoor cooking, landscaping, recreation, handicraft, grasses for lawns and how to plant seeds. Ellen Shelburne, of Bethel; Yvonne Halfmann, of Olfen; and Wanda Baker, of Norton, were 4-H girls attending the camp, and Miss Betty Greger, of Norton, was the adult leader. Miss Casey said Bruce Field was a very nice place to hold the camp.

Eleven clubs were represented for roll call and reports were given of various activities for their communities. All clubs are represented in the first aid class being taught by D. G. Posey. Every one is busy making gardens and helping out in the rush to get field crops planted. New furniture has been added and several rooms have been papered. Demonstrations on house planning, flower arrangements, and the use of the master mix in cooking were given in different club.

All clubs were represented at the school conducted by Coleman county club women at Bruce Field.

The South Ballinger club is selling vanilla extract to get a large coffee urn for the club.

Mrs. J. Wesley Jones, of South Ballinger, reviewed the book, "Mother of the Groom," for her club with the Bethel and East Side clubs as guests. Several library books were read by club members.

The state meeting of home demonstration clubs will be held at College Station on August 28, 29 and 30. This will be in celebration of the 25th anniversary of the founding of home demonstration club work. Miss Casey stated that all attendants will be housed in the college dormitories at $1 a night, and food will be served in the mess hall at reasonable prices. Three delegates to this meeting will be elected at the July council meeting, and the clubs are to select their nominees at their June meetings. Miss Casey said that home demonstration club work had grown from a "canning club" to include studies in food, clothing and shelter, and now club women are learning to read and keep up with current events.

Miss Casey pointed out that the new Runnels county agent-in-training, Miss Milligan, won the national "Make-It-from-Wool" contest two years ago with a coat she made for herself. She was active in 4-H work and will help with the 4-H girls' program as well as the women's clubs.

Plans for the county-wide club rally on August 9 were discussed, and clubs are to decide if they want an overnight rally or one day only. Mrs. Egan appointed a special committee, naming Mrs. Harold Routh, Mrs. B. M. Batts and Mrs. Glen Eager, to help plan recreation for the rally. Mrs. Neuman Smith will have charge of providing plates, napkins, cups, etc.

A package of "pink and blue" gifts from the clubs was sent to Mrs. Audrey Duffey, in England, and a package of comic books is being collected to send to a children's orphanage in England.

Mrs. Marion Hays reported on the progress of the first aid class, stating that it was very worthwhile.

Suggestions for the 1952 year book should be turned in to the year book chairman soon, it was stated.

Mrs. Claude Simmons was requested to take greetings from the council to Mrs. Tom Crockett, who is recovering from a car wreck.

Miss Chenoweth distributed material for a program on safety.

THEIR FIRST JUMP . . . Leaving the rear door of an air force Fairchild C-82 "flying boxcar," are paratroopers taking their first qualified jump, during the fifth and last week of their training at Fort Benning, Ga. Five jumps are made with each man packing his own parachute. After the men have finished packing their chutes, instructors carefully inspect the packs.

Farmers are planting one of the largest cotton crops in the history of Runnels county. With no government restrictions on acreage and a plea for a sixteen million bale crop at a fair support price, farmers of this county will plant 150,000 or more acres. Another reason for the extra large acreage is because rains were not sufficient for planting other crops and cotton seems the best bet at this late date. Many acres have already been planted in cotton and some is up and will soon be ready for plowing. Others are still operating planters from early morning until late at night, trying to put in their remaining acreage. With no underground "season," cotton will have to get additional rains after it comes up to do well. Seed has posed a problem, but recent shipments have about supplied most of the growers of this immediate section.

The Ballinger school board is preparing to build a lunch room for the students of the junior high school and the new elementary school. Bonds recently authorized by property owners of the district have been approved for the building. No contract will be let, but a local builder will be put in charge and the cafeteria will be completed and equipment installed in time for the next term. The new lunch room will offer hot meals to more than 600 pupils.

One of the biggest building programs here in recent years is to be launched soon when contractors start work on the 48-unit federal housing project. The units will provide one-, two-, three- and four- bedroom apartments for people who are classified in the low-income bracket. Just how much relief this housing will give Ballinger cannot be determined. Most people seeking living quarters here cannot qualify in the low-income group and those who do qualify will not vacate desirable places. Every few weeks, when new oil crews come into the region, there is a big rush for modern apartments. Many have gone to nearby towns because they could not find living quarters here. The condition is being helped gradually by the construction of new residences and a few modern apartments in recent months a number of places have been made available for those who prefer to rent.

HAS YOUR ADDRESS BEEN CHANGED?

Ledger subscribers are requested to notify the publisher of any change in their address promptly. Under postal laws newspapers and periodicals must pay postage due for notices of any change in address furnished by the post office. Besides there always is the probability that your paper will be delayed or fail to reach you altogether if you do not give immediate notification when you move. The best plan for all concerned is to send the change of address in advance.

WEST TEXAS NOTES

The Oak Creek to Bronte pipeline was considered when members of the Upper Colorado River authority met at San Angelo last week. Members were informed by Harry Williams, assistant state auditor, that the UCRA has collected $32,165 more taxes from Coke and Tom Green counties than state law allows. L. T. Youngblood, chairman, reported that the authority could depend on $76,000 a year income in the future. No date was set to renew the discussion on the Bronte pipeline.

The Paint Rock Methodist Church has a new pastor, Rev. B. C. Schmidt, who will report about July 1. Rev. Schmidt has been pastor at Stoneridge, New York, while attending Drew Seminary. He is married and has two children. Both Rev. and Mrs. Schmidt are former Texans and were assigned back to the state after his education was completed.

The city of Comanche has completed and equipment installed in time for the next term. The new lunch room will offer hot meals to more than 600 pupils.

employed H. J. Hunter, planning engineer and water and lake specialist, to make a survey to determine the cost of a nitration plant. The survey is expected to require three weeks, when Hunter will give complete estimates and make a recommendation on how to clear up the "murky" condition. City officials have been discussing for some time plans to improve the water supply.

A permanent site for the annual Eastland county livestock show will be discussed at a meeting of the membership on June 22. For the past five years the show has been held at Cisco, but a group fought the naming of a permanent site when directors met last week. Backers of the Cisco site offered the argument that their city had spent considerable money to provide an adequate show barn.

The building industry at Brownwood hit boom times for the first five months of the year and 58 building permits were issued in May for a total cost of $147,914. This brought the total for the first five months to $1,481,914. Eleven new residences costing $93,350 were included in the May permits. They were 18 new dwellings in April and 13 in March. Building in the thickly settled areas adjacent to the corporate limits are not reflected in the city permits and a large number of houses have been built in these additions.

At least 64 Coleman county farmers will be in the castor bean business in 1951. This was revealed the past week-end by the Coleman PMA office. The office has issued contracts to 64 farmers and distribution of 11,000 pounds of seed has been started. Plantings have begun, most farmers making an effort to put seed in the ground this week. A cleaning plant will be set up at Brownwood.

Members of the Winters Athletic Association, sponsors of the annual rodeo, were in Breckenridge last week to look over special features there and stated they had hired a clown and announcer for the Winters show, scheduled June 28 and 29. Calves have been purchased and a contract made with a San Antonio firm for the Brahma bulls. A trained horse, bucking broncs and other features have been booked. An advertising program, to be conducted soon, will invite citizens of a wide area in West Texas.

The Miles Methodist Church has a new pastor, Rev. Alvin Mauldin having been transferred there by the West Texas conference. Rev. Mauldin has served churches at Wingate, Bronte, Water Valley, Rock Springs and Eagle Pass. Rev. R. L. Herring, pastor of the Miles Baptist Church, has tendered his resignation to the membership, effective July 1. Rev. Herring has been pastor at Miles since 1949.

The Stephenville city council has granted the Gulf States Telephone Co. permission to convert to a modern dial system. Estimated cost of the change is $275,000. The conversion will also coincide with higher rates than are now being charged by the company. The installation will begin on November 1 and the new system will be put in operation as soon as possible after that date. A joint meeting of the Brady city council and the McCulloch county commissioners' court was held Tuesday of last week to consider the installation of two-way radio sets in county and city peace officers' cars. Costs of the equipment are being considered at this time. If the installations are provided, they will be financed jointly by the city and county.

The Menard County Commission Co. is fast becoming one of the county's largest business firms. The company was organized the first of the year and at its sale last week 2,300 head of sheep, 90 goats and a large number of cattle, hogs and horses passed through the ring. Sales for the year have already totalled $225,000. The company is an answer to a long standing need of livestock producers of the area.

A recreation program for the youth of Melvin was launched last week with K. O. Ellington director and Mrs. Dennis Dail assistant. Both were well pleased with the first play night and these will be continued through the summer to entertain old and young. Skating and round games will be added to provide a better balanced program.

A lawyer is a man who will work as hard as he can to see that you get what's coming to him.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS

All persons living in the city of Ballinger are requested to come to the City Hall and render their property for taxes.

The law requires that every person shall make a rendition and in order to save expenses of a tax assessor, property owners are urged to sign rendition sheets as soon as possible.

CITY TAX DEPARTMENT

How the Tax Bite Grows

Back in 1913, the first income-tax bill was introduced as a "temporary" measure. It took only a small bite. A man with two dependents and an income of $3,000 paid nothing. If his income reached $5,000, he paid only $10.

But it is the tendency for taxes to increase, and for "temporary" measures to be permanent. You may have noted how a tax can grow, when you figured your income tax this year, and the trend is still upward. The defense program and essential functions of government must be financed. But waste in Washington means further destructive inflation.

State Softball Tourney For Girls Here in July

Ballinger Jaycees are making plans for two softball tournaments for girls this summer. This week they received word that the state tournament of the National Softball Congress would be held in Ballinger and dates were set for July 10 through 14. The district tournament will begin here on June 26 and continue through June 30. Committees in charge of the preliminary plans for the two events are striving to find housing for the large number of girls who will be here for the state meet. There are eighteen districts in the state and the first and second place winners in each district are eligible. State officials expect 25 to 30 teams to sign up for the state contest.

At present nine teams are entered for the district tourney, as follows: Ballinger, Verbest, Paint Rock, Olfen, Norton, three from Brownwood, and the Red Chicks of San Angelo. L. R. Rieger, Jaycee president, said several other teams are expected and that there is a possibility that the area of this district will be enlarged.

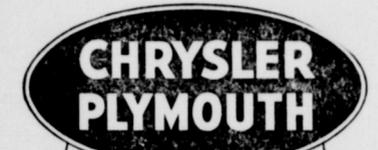

A Jaycee committee will start preparations soon on arrangements for the state tournament. Housing, meals, officials and many other items will be left up to the local sponsor.

MIDGLEY COMMISSIONED OFFICER AS SEMESTER ENDS

Walter E. Midgley, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Midgley, of Ballinger, was named supply officer with the rank of captain by A. & M. College officials at the end of the semester.

A large crowd attended the livestock sale at the Ballinger Auction & Commission Co. barn Tuesday afternoon. Rains earlier in the day kept many producers from bringing in livestock, however, and the run was light.

About 75 head of cattle, 10 hogs and a few other animals went through the ring. Fat calves brought 35 cents, light stocker calves 47 cents, hogs 21 cents and cows and calves $255 per pair.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. B. W. Smith on June 22.

Tracy, Joan Bennett, Elizabeth Taylor In Hilarious 'Father's Little Dividend'

The captivating Banks family, whose adventures in "Father of the Bride" provided one of Hollywood's most hilarious pictures, are back again in M-G-M's follow-up film, "Father's Little Dividend," to be presented at the Horseshoe Drive-In Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, June 17, 18, 19.

In the original story, we left Spencer Tracy, as Stanley Banks, and Joan Bennett, as Mrs. Banks, exhausted but happy at having launched their "little girl" Kay (Elizabeth Taylor), over the threshold from unexpectedly grown-up daughter to budding bride. The new adventures revolve themselves about the uproariously funny and warmly human happenings contingent on Stanley becoming a grandfather!

It's all here as it happens in all families whose daughter is "expecting." The typical "stork shower," the fears of the young expectant mother, the issue of which doctor is the best, the arguments as to what the baby will be named, the period of tenterhooks in which Stanley and Ellie are riveted to the telephone in case of an emergency call. Then the turbulent excitement of the baby's birth, further jealousies between the respective parents-in-law, each of whom wants a hand in the raising of the young heir, the inevitable spat and reconciliation between the inexperienced young married couple. And, finally, when all seems well, with Kay and Buckley established in a home of their own, Stanley by an unexpected misadventure comes close to losing the baby! But all ends happily, with a final fade-out at the infant's christening with the distraught grandpa coming into his reward when the baby is named "Stanley."

Tracy's portrayal of the man who finds it difficult to reconcile himself to the fact that he has reached the grandfather stage is both humorous and touching and his scenes with the baby, whose initial antipathy toward him turns to affection, are a sheer delight. The others in the respective Banks and Dunstan families are similarly ingratiating, with Joan Bennett again proving an admirable helpmeet, Elizabeth

Spencer Tracy, who was "Father of the Bride" in M-G-M's comedy now is grandfather of little Donald Clark in the hilarious follow-up film, "Father's Little Dividend," at the Horseshoe Drive-In commencing next Sunday. Elizabeth Taylor is now a doting young mother, while Joan Bennett again represents Tracy's better half.

Taylor and Don Taylor enacting a young couple who might be living next door, and with Billie Burke and Moroni Olsen providing laughs as the rival in-laws.

THERE are a lot of reasons you can expect a new GMC to keep hauling a lot longer than any other truck you can buy.

First is the fact of horsepower. Whether it's a gasoline-powered 1/2- to 2-tonner with horsepower unbeaten in its class, or one of the new heavy-duty Diesels—you can't beat a GMC for "go"!

But the extra value you find in these great trucks doesn't end at the power plant.

There's the smooth GMC Synchro-Mesh Transmission linked to a sharp-shooting drive line, pouring every ounce of power back to the rugged rear axle.

And the solid way horsepower becomes wheel-action—you know there's extra depth of truck performance engineered right down through a GMC's broad shouldered frame!

And standing guard over these long-time trucks are husky brakes with more area than most—the surest, easiest steering ever devised to direct a pay load home—all controlled from a spacious "Six-Footer" Cab that's Weathersealed for a lifetime.

GMC's are made in the widest variety of engine-body-chassis combinations to meet any trucking need. And the prices? No better buy anywhere! Come see for yourself.

BASEBALL FRANCHISE RETAINED AT MIDLAND

Ballinger was represented at the meeting of the Longhorn Baseball League at Midland Sunday, but local men came home with no prospects for professional baseball for this city. Midland fans decided to purchase the franchise from Harold Webb and continue operation of the club in that city.

Part of the money was raised Sunday and business men underwrote the proposition for a $30,000 corporation to buy the franchise and have sufficient funds for operations the rest of the season.

PETIT JURY VENIRE DISMISSED BY JUDGE

A petit jury venire reporting for duty in 119th district court here Monday was dismissed, no cases being called. Several cases had been docketed and counsel had announced ready. Arguments on technical points came up, however, while a jury was being selected, which called for more time, and District Judge O. L. Parish dismissed the jurors soon after noon.

The grand jury met at the same time and immediately went into investigations of cases being held for attention.

The Crews Methodist Church was the scene, June 3, of the marriage of Miss Christine Hambright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hambright, and Edwin Franks, of Brownfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Franks, of Fort Worth.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, the Rev. Wayne Dunson, of Talpa, reading the double ring ceremony before an altar of gladioli, fern and palm leaves, with white tapers in tall candelabra.

Miss Dana Pirtles, of Throckmorton, played the traditional music throughout the ceremony. She accompanied Miss Katherine Elliot, who sang "I Love Thee," and "Because."

Mrs. George Lange, of Ballinger, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Flower girls were Shirley and Jerry Sue Hambright, sister and cousin of the bride. Candle lighters were Patsy Hambright and Bennie Hambright, sister and brother of the bride.
