$400,000 Road Bond Election In District 3 Set for June 30

Voters of road district No. 3 of Runnels County will go to the polls on June 30 for their third time in an effort to secure approval of bonds to provide right-of-way for proposed highway improvement in the south part of the county.

Following a public hearing Thursday, members of the Runnels County commissioners' court granted a petition asking that an election be called. The petition calls for the approval of $400,000 in bonds to be used for acquiring right-of-way and other county expenses involved in the proposed highway program. On Tuesday a similar petition was turned down by the court. The first petition specified an interest rate of 3 per cent which the members of the court felt might be too small for the sale of the bonds. The petition approved Thursday was for the same amount of bonds but allows an interest rate of 4 to 4 per cent which is felt would insure a good sale of the bonds.

The election will be presented in two propositions. One proposition will be for the approval or rejection of $100,000 to be spent on Highway 83 from Hatched to a point east of Ballinger to acquire a completely new right-of-way. The other will be for $300,000 for right-of-way on Highway 67 from the Coleman County line to the Tom Green county line. The latter would also include a new bridge across the Colorado River at Ballinger.

Similar bond issues were presented to the voters of the district twice in 1955 and each time failed to get the required two-thirds majority. Funds appropriated for highway projects in the south part of the county

Jaycees Plan 70th Party for Ballinger

Ballinger might have a birthday party after all, despite the 70 years.

Although the Chamber of Commerce voted to let June 29 pass without the traditional celebration, in favor of a big celebration on the city's 75th birthday, the Junior Chamber of Commerce is setting up a party to celebrate "in a way."

Bob Dickinson, president of the Jaycee group, announced Tuesday the junior group would have a three-phase party on Ballinger's 70th anniversary. "Although previous plans for a birthday party had to be postponed for good reasons, the Jaycees thought it a good idea to have some kind of party on Ballinger's 70th birthday," he explained.

The "party" will start about 10 a. m. with an old-fashioned political rally, with at least three of the state's five candidates for governor expected to attend. Reuben Senterfitt, W. Lee O'Daniel, and Price Daniel are in San Angelo about this time, and will probably show up for the rally, since all candidates will be given a chance to make a speech.

At noon, the Jaycees will serve a barbecue in City Park. Tickets to the barbecue are being sold by Jaycees at $1.00 each.

Following the barbecue, a match roping contest for about 20 top calf ropers is scheduled at the rodeo association's arena at 2 p. m. Dickinson said further developments would be announced later. The Jaycees next meet again June 11 when detailed plans for the party should be made.

Sheriff Gets Off, But Office Didn't

The county sheriff's office kept working while Sheriff Don Atkins was away. Some 10 cases were disposed of during the week. Sheriff Atkins spent most of the week at the Rotary Convention in Brownsville.

George Cortez, who lives between Ballinger and Winters, was released on $500 bond for first offense DWI.

G. A. Grisham, Coleman, was fined on checking on a Runnels County warrant.

Joe Flores, Lupe Flores, and Manuel Flores were fined $20.50 each in justice of the peace court at Winters for disturbing the peace and fighting Sunday night. Manuel Flores was treated for cuts as the result of the altercation.

Vernell Grant, former Winters man, was arrested Tuesday by the sheriff's office staff, for checking in Coleman County.

V. J. Mokry was fined on checking in a Tom Green County warrant, but no arrest had been made Tuesday.

Francisca A. Villamenda was fined on removal of mortgaged property. The warrant was sent to Pawnee, Texas. A similar warrant was sent to Elkhart, Texas, for the arrest of Bobby E. Cook, charged with removal of mortgaged property to that city.

R. B. French was arrested and fined $93.83 for checking in Runnels County.

George Lancaster, formerly of Ballinger and now living at Big Lake, was returned to Runnels County to face charges of checking and the removal of mortgaged property. He paid a fine of $88.30 for checking. The second charge was dismissed in district court.

Bill Edwards, Winters, pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $77.50, which included court costs, for driving while intoxicated.

Large Field of Golfers Expected Here Friday

The invitation golf tournament at the Ballinger Country Club will get underway Friday with a large field of players expected to tee off for their first rounds.

Bunky Johnson, winner of the tournament in 1955, will not be here this year to defend his championship. Johnson is playing golf in California at this time. A number of outstanding players including Chas. Thorp of Odessa and Harold Sexton and Ray Ferguson of North Texas State College, Denton, will be here to take part. All three are outstanding players and will be tournament favorites.

Players in the championship flight and those trying for medalist scores will shoot qualifying rounds Friday. Players in lower flights will be able to turn in scores from their home courses for qualification.

Glen Barnett, of Abilene, will be here to have charge of the play. He will arrange the flights after qualifying scores are in and will also be the official starter and score keeper for the three days.

Ladies of the Ballinger Golf Association will have charge of concessions at the club house. Other features will include a party Friday night for all players and their families. Saturday night a stag party will be staged at the club house and members of the local club not playing in the tournament may attend by purchasing tickets in advance at $1 each.

Late Sunday afternoon, when play in all flights is completed, a special program will be staged at which time prizes will be awarded. Approximately $1,000 in golf equipment has been purchased and will be given the winners in each flight.

Spectators will be welcome at the course and a large gallery is expected to follow the matches in the championship flight.

The greens and fairways at the Ballinger Country Club are in the best shape in several years. Extra help has been put on the job this week to have everything ready for the big field of golfers to be here for the three days. Matches will be underway morning and afternoon each day with the finals in all flights Sunday.

Local School Changes Create Summer Work

The new school building at West Ward is moving along on schedule and Supt. Ernest Caskey expects to have the building turned over to the school about August 1. This will give school authorities one month to install new furniture and fixtures and be ready for the opening of the new semester in September.

Mr. Caskey stated that all new furniture that would be needed has been purchased and paid for and is now being held in storage subject to shipping instructions.

The new arrangement of the schools to start the September term will send all students in the first six grades to the new building at West Ward. E. B. Blackburn will be the principal there and will have approximately 800 students. All furniture in the present Central Elementary Building will be moved this summer to the school at West Ward and when the new section is completed, new furniture will be installed. The old building at West Ward will be remodeled later into a gymnasium and music department.

The building formerly used as Central Elementary will become junior high school with I. B. Funderburk as principal. Furniture from the present junior high will be moved into this building during the summer.

High school will have one less grade this September with the 9th grade being moved to junior high. This will give more room in high school where an enrollment of 225 is expected this fall. A large study hall is being divided with glass partitions to provide a reading room adjoining the library. The high school building is receiving the usual summer clean up and repairs.

The old building at junior high is being torn down and will be built into a gymnasium which will take care of girl's physical education for both senior and junior high schools. This work will be completed before September.

A large amount of the new furniture and fixtures required in the various buildings is here and will be installed as soon as possible.

mer and an enrollment of approximately 375 is expected in the 7th, 8th and 9th grades. Some work is being done in this building which connects three rooms into a library, study hall and special study room adjoining the library. A new Laboratory for the teaching of science is being installed and all necessary equipment has been purchased. All this work is now underway and will be completed within a few weeks. All lockers in the class rooms at junior high will be removed and placed in the corridors.

Additional Seats At Little League Field For Fans

Crowds at Little and Pony League games are increasing and each evening the streets leading to the playing field are filled with cars.

Announcement was made this week by league officials that additional seating space was being provided to help take care of the crowds. A stand, 50 feet long and nine tiers high will be erected behind home plate and made ready as soon as possible. Steel will be used for the elevations and customers will participate in purchasing redwood for the seats. Those who purchase a plank will have their names on the seat which they can use during the season.

Those in charge of the two leagues this year will do everything possible to make the season successful both for players and spectators. They have been delighted with the response of local people in helping to provide one of the finest fields in this section of the state and in support at the games.

C of C Directors Discuss Projects At June Meeting

Allen Davis presided at the regular meeting of the board of directors of the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce Monday night. He announced at the start of the meeting that a special committee had been named to complete the organization of the Ballinger Chest and that a meeting would be held on June 12.

Guy T. White gave a report on the committee working with the Mercer Shoe Co. for a plant in Ballinger. He stated that some of the work had been slow due to members of the committee being out of town on their vacations. He added that results so far had been very satisfactory.

Ernest Caskey stated that the legislative committee had written the congressman from this district in which they stated that the Ballinger chamber of commerce did not favor the federal government fixing highway wages.

R. D. Travis asked that the chamber set up a special sports committee and work with Tony York on some program which would make players on the Westerners acquainted with the Ballinger people. He suggested some kind of special night at the park which would bring out a big crowd.

The committee interviewing applicants for a new manager stated they had no report to make at this time.

A discussion was held in regard to the road bond issue to be voted upon in road district 3 on June 30. The directors voted to spend money for advertising and promotion of the issue and a committee will start the campaign in the near future.

Members of the chamber will assist the Ballinger Jaycees in the staging of the special program here on June 29. This will include a barbecue dinner and a special rodeo program in the afternoon.

The meeting was well attended Monday night and was held early so that directors could attend the baseball game between Ballinger and Pampa.

Ballinger Chest Group Will Meet To Name Officers

A meeting of some twelve local men will be held Monday at which time a permanent organization will be formed for the Ballinger Chest and a date for starting the first fund campaign approved.

Earlier this year the plan for a chest fund was presented to all local service clubs and other organizations at which time the plan was approved. The board being formed at this time will elect permanent officers, set a date to solicit pledges and prepare contact cards of all business firms, clerks and individuals.

The board will also adopt a plan of organization for the drive and secure a fund chairman to get workers to make the actual contacts.

Under the plan some twelve to fifteen organizations would participate in the fund. Main purpose is to make one solicitation do the work of all participating organizations and eliminate so many drives each year.

Contributors will be able to decide just what organizations they will support and set down on their pledge card the exact amount for each group. Others who do not care to specify their units to receive part of their gift may make a blanket pledge to be used as the board wishes.

In addition to the outside organization that stages a fund campaign each year, a number of local groups will also come in for part of the money. These will include the chamber of commerce, the annual Christmas show and the Ballinger fire department.

Following the meeting next Monday, officers will be announced and the date for the first fund drive set.

Members of the committee are Guy White, Jack Moore, Harold Adling, Troy Simpson, Ralph Erwin, Price Middleton, Otis Powers, Bob McGarvey, Lige Rubie, and Allen Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Adair left Tuesday for Austin where Mr. Adair will attend a board meeting of the Petroleum Marketers.

Robert Lusk, Jr. of Dallas is here for a visit with Mrs. Robert Lusk and other relatives and friends.

The couple plan a summer wedding.

Miss Tubbs, Donald Lindly United in Marriage

Baskets of white gladioli at each side of an arch entwined with greenery flanked by floor candelabra burning white tapers formed the altar before a window for the wedding of Miss Wanda Sue Tubbs and Donald Frank Lindly of Winters last Friday at 7:30 p. m.

The wedding was in the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Turner, 3099 W. Beauregard, San Angelo.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tubbs of Ballinger. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lindly of Winters.

The Rev. Emmett Brooks,

pastor of the Hillcrest Baptist Church in San Angelo, performed the double ring ceremony. Recorded wedding selections were played. Miss Maudie Parker sang "Because" prior to the wedding march.

The bride wore a pink embroidered cotton satin sleeveless dress made with a low round neckline in the front, and V-shaped in the back, designed on sheath lines. Her small white lace hat was trimmed with rhinestones and other accessories were white. For something old and borrowed she wore a locket belonging to her aunt, Mrs. Turner. She carried a white Bible topped with a single gardenia nestled in pink split carnations and tied with satin ribbons and love knots.

Miss Nancy Lindly, of Winters, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Her dress was white dotted summer cotton made similar to that of the bride's. She wore a pink hat and shoes and wore a pink and white carnation corsage.

Steve Davis of Winters served as best man.

A reception followed in the home. The bride's table was laid with white lace over pink and centered with pink and white carnations flanked with white tapers burning in crystal holders. The tiered wedding cake, decorated with pink and white flowers and topped with a bridal couple, accented one end of the table while the punch service was placed at the other end.

Miss Gay Nell Jarrett of Ballinger served the cake while Miss LaRuth Montgomery of Ballinger ladled punch. Lana Tubbs, sister of the bride, registered guests.

Mrs. Tubbs wore a turquoise blue linen sheath dress with black accessories. Mrs. Lindly wore a navy sheer dress with navy accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

When the couple left for a wedding trip, the bride topped her bridal dress with a white duster. Her accessories were pink, and she wore the gardenia corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The bride finished her junior year at Ballinger High School this spring. The bridegroom was graduated from Winters High School, and is now employed by a Well Servicing Co. in Winters.

Winters. They will make their home in Winters.

The bride is a spring graduate of the Ballinger High School and the groom attended high school in Winters.

Mrs. Malcolm McGregor returned home Sunday from a four weeks vacation visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Major and Mrs. Melvin Holt and son in Columbus, Georgia; and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter A. Copeland, in New York City; and a friend, Mrs. Lillian McDonald Stroumeyer, in Paramus, New Jersey.

Dr. and Mrs. Dick Du Mouchel and children, Jan, Rene, and Andre, of California are visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Kennedy.

FOR THE BIRDS—That's the phrase with which to describe "Old Man," pet of the William Hormann family in Oconomowoc, Wis. There's no other tail to this story—Old Man is a Manx cat. At latest report, the Hormann's two parakeets and one canary consider the amiable feline a purrfect perch.

The Gospel of Christ

Rightly Dividing The Bible

Last week we noticed that one requirement for understanding the Bible is a proper division thereof. Paul exhorts "... rightly dividing the word of truth" 2 Timothy 2:15.

As to testaments the divisions are two: Old and New. As to dispensations the divisions are three: Patriarchal, Mosaic, and Christian.

Genesis through Exodus 19 tell of the Patriarchal dispensation. Patriarchal means "father ruler." God spoke to the fathers for the families. The father served as priests in this period of family style worship. Abraham was the outstanding character of this period which began at creation and continued for 2500 years till the giving of the law of Moses. A study of this period is profitable but certainly it would be absurd to go to it to try to find how to be saved today under a different dispensation.

From Exodus 20 through the remainder of the Old Testament we read of the events of the Mosaic or Jewish dispensation. It began at the giving of the law on Mt. Sinai and ended with the death of Christ. This period lasted about 1500 years. Moses was the principal character. The style of worship was national, or nation-wide for the Jews alone, the fleshly descendants of Abraham. Romans 9:4; 1-2; 2:14; 3:19 and other scriptures prove the fact that the law of Moses was for the Jews only.

Even for the Jews the law of Moses was abolished at the death of Christ. In Matthew 5:17 Christ said, "Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets. I am not come to destroy but to FULFILL." In other words Christ said he did not come to violate the Old Testament or loose the people then from obeying it. He didn't come to destroy its purpose, designs, types, and prophecies; rather he came to complete it, to fill it full, to "accomplish" it (Revised Version), to live up to it perfectly, to allow it to accomplish its purpose and then to abrogate it. It was to remain in force and not one particle of it would be destroyed until all of it was fulfilled, completed, and finished (Verse 18). That Christ did and it "waxed old" (Hebrews 8:13).

The law was never intended for all time but only until "the seed should come" Galatians 3:19. Verse 16 shows that the seed was Christ. Colossians 2:14 shows that the old law was "blotted out," "taken out of the way" and "nailed to the cross." In Galatians 3:24 the law is called a "schoolmaster." Verse 25 plainly states "But that after faith is come, WE ARE NO LONGER UNDER A SCHOOLMASTER" (the law v. 25). Space forbids a more detailed discussion but here are a few other references teaching the same truth, i. e. the law of Moses has been abolished. (See Galatians chapter 3, 4, and 5 to 5:4; 2 Corinthians 3:7-11; Ephesians 2:12-19; Romans 7:1-5 and Hebrews chapters 7 through 10).

Hebrews 10:9-10 states the truth plainly and simply concerning the law of Moses and the law of Christ and which one we are sanctified or saved by: "... HE TAKETH AWAY THE FIRST, THAT HE MAY ESTABLISH THE SECOND, BY THE WHICH WILL WE ARE SANCTIFIED..."

The Old Testament is just as genuine and inspired as the New but it is not binding as a law on anyone today. It contains the account of God's laws and dealings with people under two dispensations that have come to an end. To illustrate a parallel consider General Pershing and Eisenhower. Pershing's orders were genuine and had to be obeyed in World War I but his orders did not apply in World War II when Eisenhower was the general. Christ is our general today, not Moses. The principles of the two past dispensations such as love, faith, obedience are in effect but not the commands of those laws; just like the principles of the British laws were incorporated into the laws of the thirteen colonies but the pilgrims were not subject to British laws.

Why study the Old Testament then? It is profitable for many reasons. It helps prove the inspiration of the scriptures; it helps explain the New Testament by giving literal types, shadows, etc.; in it we see the importance of Christ's coming; it helps us to see the superiority of Christ's laws; it shows how we got here; it gives man's history, etc. 1 Corinthians 10:5-11 and Romans 15:4 further shows our need for the Old Testament. Study it for great profit and to help understand the New but not to find out what to do to be saved today. Look for more on this subject next week.

NORTON GIRLS' 4-H CLUB

The girls of the Norton 4-H Club met in the home of Frank Greger on Saturday, May 26 at 9:30 a. m. Frances Greger presided at the business session at which plans were made to have a picnic at City Park in Ballinger on June 9. Plans were also discussed for holding a community night in the future.

Miss Charlene Eckert gave a demonstration on making a vegetable salad. This salad was served with crackers, punch and cookies to: Frances, Patty and Barbara Greger, Marie, Lucille and Virginia Niehus, Jackie Horton, Carolyn Gottschalk, Nancy Minzenmayer, Jane Bryan, two leaders, Mrs. Frank Greger and Mrs. Carl Gottschalk and two visitors, Anna Gottschalk and Myra Minzenmayer and Miss Ollie Chenoweth and Miss Eckert.

A series of games were played at the close of the meeting.

SOCIAL SECURITY MAN WILL BE HERE JUNE 12

If you have a social security problem, contact John Dickenson of the San Angelo Social Security office. He will be in Ballinger, Tuesday, June 12, in the County Office Building.

Social security payments can be paid retroactively for only one year before the formal application is filed, if entitlement exists in the earlier months, according to E. M. Bowers, manager of the San Angelo district office.

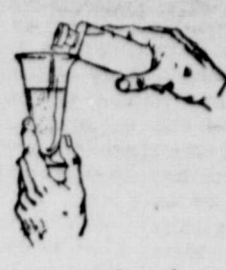

"There are some rare occasions," he went on, "when a person claims benefits, fails to prove entitlement for a number of months, then succeeds and gets back payments for more than a year from the time he furnished the last bit of evidence on which his eligibility depended."

"Ordinarily, such occasions are few and far between, as a social security office is usually able to help most people gather, in no more than a week or so, any evidence needed to prove their rights to benefits," added Bowers.

He further stated that the vast majority of the more than 8 million people now receiving monthly social security payments had no trouble getting their checks started. It was thus not necessary to pay them retroactively for more than a month or so unless they had delayed filing their claims for many months past their initial eligibility.

"We have always suggested that the nearest social security office be notified when a possible claimant reaches the age of 65, or when a person insured under social security dies," Bowers concluded.

SECONDHAND LUXURY—The lacy creation is a Jacques Faith original, marked down from $375. The gray satin originally sold for $900 and will go for something less than a third of its original price. Such secondhand "bargains" as these are available at a dress shop in New York City, operated by Mrs. Florence Morris Barry, who is shown displaying the dresses. Her customers are members of the "carriage trade" who fancy an original creation, even if it is a hand-me-down.

HISTORICAL—Freighted with memories, this Conestoga wagon is posed at entrance to the covered bridge which leads to the Shelburne Museum, Shelburne, Vt., where it will be displayed beside other significant examples of the carriage-and-wagon-makers' art. The freighter of the plains from 1750 to 1850, the Conestoga wagon was usually about 24 feet long and could transport a load of up to five tons when tied to a six-horse hitch. Save for its cloth cover, this relic of another age is in a remarkable state of preservation.

SPRINGTIME—Boy, bat and ball belong to no particular locality. The fact that this picture was taken in Minneapolis, Minn., is of incidental importance. What IS important is that the days are longer, there's a vacant lot down the street and Willie has a bat and ball.

WEST TEXAS
NOTES

Ballinger needs a better chamber of commerce. For a number of years the organization has worked on an income that would not permit the services of an experienced manager and they have had to curb all other expenses in order to get by and keep their bills paid. The chamber, through their directors and committees, is doing a good work; but in this day of opportunities for the smaller towns there is need for a manager with ideas and contacts that can make the organization mean much more to Ballinger. Those serving as directors and on committees already have businesses to look after and therefore cannot give all their time to projects for the good of the city. Today industry is looking with favor on the smaller towns where they can operate more economically and the towns with the live chamber of commerce organizations are making every bid to secure these payrolls. It would not take a lot more money to make it possible for Ballinger to hire a top-notch manager and carry on a much bigger program of work. In the past, efforts have been made to stage membership drives and also secure new firms as paying members. This increases the budget a little each year but by the end of twelve months a number have dropped out and the income is back where it was at the start of the year. Looks like the best plan would be for all regular members to increase their monthly payments enough to make possible a budget to provide all needs of the organization. As directors are looking for a new manager, now would be a fine time for the town to provide enough money to create a chamber organization that could be worth far more than it has in the past.

The new park for the Little League and Pony League provides one of the best playing grounds in this section of the state. With uniformed teams and such facilities, the two leagues are due for a most successful season. Those who are

Winters is perfecting plans for the biggest Showdeo program they have ever staged. In addition to the regular rodeo performances, this year parades will be featured. Committees have been working on parade features for some time and most of the business houses in Winters will feature floats this year. A western committee will stress the need for all Winters people to go western for at least two weeks prior to the annual show. Specialty acts have been booked which will be entertaining for all ages, and prizes for rodeo acts have been posted to assure a field of the best performers. Clowns will be in responsible are due a vote of thanks from the people of Ballinger. If there is a criticism it would be that spectators have a hard time seeing the games. Additional seats and parking space are needs that can be overcome at just a little more expense. This type of baseball is attracting crowds in all towns where leagues are operated. The first few days here the crowds were much larger than the facilities would accommodate in Ballinger. If the directors make an effort, let's help them complete the job they have so well underway, and also make it possible to handle all crowds that attend games. Part of the success of the operation will be large crowds. The young players like the crowds and those in charge need numbers to help take care of the expense of operating the league.

When Ballinger schools open next September it will be in the best facilities in the history of the school. The new building at West Ward will provide additional room that has been needed in the new arrangements of classes will make it possible to have more room even in high school. Not only will the school have the needed room, but the facilities will be much more modern and all students will have class rooms that are similar in conveniences and equipment. Good progress is being made on the new building and everything should be ready when work starts next September.

the arena at all times to help entertain the crowds.

More than one-half of the Bronte high school graduation class have indicated they will resume school work in September. Five members of the class have stated they would attend Texas Technological College at Lubbock. Others have announced they would enter Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene, Tarleton State College at Stephenville and Howard Payne College at Brownwood. Several expect to attend San Angelo College.

Colorado City has announced a community celebration for July 3 and 4 and eleven events have been planned and sponsoring groups obtained for each. Others may be added before time for the start of the program. Parades, street dancing, a fishing contest at Lake Colorado City, a barbecue, boat racing, beauty contest, reunion of old timers, a community picnic and closing the affair will be a religious service sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance. Plans are being made to take care of a big crowd for the two day program.

Extension on the Stephenville sewer system will be started within ten days according to a statement from the contractor, J. C. Oliver. He was awarded the contract on a bid of $134,318 and informed members of the city council that he would start work within ten days and have the job completed within 180 working days. A crew of Stephenville workers was being formed to have employment on the job.

The Miles softball league started play Tuesday night with the league sponsored by the Miles Lions Club. Games will be played each Tuesday and Friday with boys teams having the first game and adults team the last one each night. Play will be continued all during the summer months. Members of the Lions Club will operate concession stands and will also charge 10 cents admission to the games. The money will be used to take care of lights and other game expenses.

Trans-Texas Airlines announced flight changes at Coleman on June 1 which is expected to improve service and cause more use of the service. Heretofore the only east bound plane left Coleman in the evening. A morning flight to Fort Worth and Dallas has been announced so that people of the area may spend most of the day in either city and return on the evening west bound flight. The morning flight will leave Coleman at 7:20 a. m. and be in Fort Worth at 8:31 and Dallas at 8:50.

The Paint Rock Lions Club will stage their annual barbecue on June 19 at Fuller Park. The club is planning a good entertainment program for the evening and all people in the Paint Rock Community are invited to attend. Tickets are now on sale with adults to pay $1 per plate and 50 cents for children. Other lions clubs in the area will be invited to have delegations present and tickets will be offered them in advance.

The city council at Brownwood started a new plan for those who receive tickets for overparking. Heretofore when a ticket was issued if the party took it to the city hall within one hour and deposited a 5 cent piece in a meter the charge was dropped. Now the rate has been raised to 25 cents and unless this is paid within one hour the car owner is fined $1. The change was made in the plan and the rate increased because of the large number of tickets issued by traffic officers each week.

Brady is working to complete all plans for the annual July Jubilee program which will open on July 2. More parade entries from Brady were being solicited last week by a special committee and other events are being rehearsed and made ready for the big three day show. Invitations have been mailed to 37 churches, 40 organizations, 19 school bands, 50 towns and to 30 neighboring duchesses asking them to participate in the big programs. June 19 is the deadline for placing entries in the parades. Eden announced the forming of a Little League with four teams and regular scheduled play to start on June 11. Managers for each team had been secured. Eden firms were sponsoring each group and other games officials and workers had been secured. A playing field has been located and placed in excellent condition and will be used by the league all summer. Grass was planted last year and the entire field has a good turf. The Hill Country Hereford Association will have their annual sale at Mason on June 12. This year 150 head of Hereford will be offered in the sale and many buyers have accepted invitations to be present. The cattle will be located at the Mason Sales Company arena, three-fourths of a mile east of Mason on Highway 29, the morning before the sale starts. Walter Britten, auctioneer, will start the sale at noon on June 12.

Five Menard County landowners were named on a special committee last week by the commissioners' court to guide efforts toward formation of a water district in Menard County. Those named on the committee accepted their responsibility and all qualified for their jobs. They will start work at once in an effort to have a district approved as soon as possible and work started on some type of water conservation. Members of the committee are Carl Martin, Jr., Bill Menzies, Raymond R. Walston, George Kothmann and John M. Treadwell.

County Judge Alton Kirkland, of Comanche County, has tendered his resignation and announced he will enter private business. The office pays $3,750 per year and the judge stated he was resigning because of financial reasons and would enter the hatchery business. Earl Seay was selected by the commissioners' court to take over the office for the remainder of the term. He served as county judge for four years and only left the office on January 1, 1955 when he did not seek reelection.

You'll see when you try Buick's new Variable Pitch Dynaflow!

BUICK CENTURY
4-Passenger 2-Door Riviera

IT TAKES A NEW word to describe the magic at your command when you drive a '56 Buick—with the newest transmission of them all.

It's full power go-ahead on the instant. You can get where you were just looking in a shaved second's time—with the most modern and most thrilling surge of safety acceleration in the land today.

It's smoothness, too. Complete freedom from the "bump" and lag of gears shifting. Only with Dynaflow can you go winging away with so smooth a sweep.

And only with a '56 Buick can you enjoy Dynaflow's newest marvel. The engineers call it "double regeneration." Lets you start off like an Olympic sprinter, with the pedal pressed just an inch or less. (And driving that way, you get better gas mileage.)

There's more big news, too, that goes with this new Buick magic. And that covers a lot more than styling.

Sure—you'll like the graceful new beauty of the V-shaped prow and sweep-ahead look. And you'll like the extra room inside.

But as you drive you'll find that this Buick responds with the new might of a big, record-powered V8 engine of 322-cubic-inch heft.

It handles easy as butter to a warm knife. Tracks the curves like a plane on the beam. Makes any road seem paved with pillows.

And what's responsible for all this are more new engineering advances than Buick has ever made in one model year.

So why not come in and see—and feel—the difference they make? You'll soon know why owners find it's the best Buick yet—and the best buy yet, by far.

New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.*

Deferred Grazing Urged In County
On All Grassland

Technicians of the Runnels County soil conservation service give advice to ranchmen in regard to range management and especially the resting of grass lands. They state that grass is like a human being and can take just so much work without sufficient moisture and rest. The naive grasses of the rangelands of Runnels County have been overworked under the existing adverse conditions and are badly in need of rest.
With the conditions existing for prolonged periods, grasses are losing all their energy and will eventually die out completely. If grass does not get a chance to produce seed, there are no seedlings to take the place of those plants that die.
To prevent this condition from becoming prevalent, rangeland must undergo a period of rest each year. It must also be used properly by adjusting livestock grazing units to meet grass production.

Management of rangeland is becoming a science. The rancher must study his rangeland and the existing conditions. He must learn to identify the good grasses from those of poor quality. When the good grasses begin to disappear and those of poor quality show up, it is time to start a good range management program.

Proper use of rangeland consists of adjusting grazing use so as to leave a good sized plant factory (leaves) to grow more forage and to provide enough cover to make effective use of rainfall. When more than half of the green leaves are removed, the plant is weakened and production reduced. Proper use in this manner means grazing half and leaving half of each year's growth of the good forage plants.

Cooperators of the Runnels County district who are now following a good range management program, or who plan development this year include: John Eashaw, John Miller, E. F.
Vogelans, Herman Giesecke,
Hugo Voelgang, Boyd McClure,
Gordon Baggett, George Cope,
Gordon Brookshire, H. B. Edmondson, Joe Willeke, Joe Freeman, Jake Presley, J. O. Briggs, J. W. Reese, Mrs. Wilma Morgan, Charles Humphreys and Garland Crouch. These people have planned deferral of more than 5,000 acres.
