BALLINGER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1958

NO. 1

County Convention Held For Farm Bureau Tues.

The county convention of the Rannels County Farm Bureau was held Tuesday night in the district court room in Ballinger with a good attendance.

Marion Hays, farm bureau president, presided and welcomed all those present. He gave a brief summary of the activities of the organization for the past year.

The following new directors were elected: C. L. Howell, Ballinger; Alfred Multer, Rowena; Freddie Bredemeyer, M. L. Dobbin, Paul Gerhardt, Carl Gottschalk, all of Winters; Wm. Cervenka, Ballinger; J. L. Roach, Miles.

B. B. Campbell of Hatchel read 8 resolutions that were adopted at the convention. They are:

1. We, the Rannels County Farm Bureau, wish to reaffirm our national policy on States Rights and to commend our Congressman, O. C. Fisher, on his efficient representation, especially for his support, along with 19 other Texas Congressmen, on our States Right bill in our 84th Congress. We deplore the fact that both of our U. S. Senators voted against this bill.

2. Whereas, many learned judges, statesmen and educators, including the Chief Justices of thirty-six of the United States of America, have stated that the supreme court in recent decisions, has usurped authority delegated to the legislature and executive departments of the government by the constitution of the United States of America. We, the Rannels County Farm Bureau, hereby adopt the following resolutions, to-wit:

The Congress of the United States of America is urged to pass legislation at the beginning of its 1959 term, to delay all compulsory integration in the schools of the United States until the constitution of the United States of America is legally amended to provide for such integration in the schools.

The Congress on convening in January 1959, is requested to appoint a committee to thoroughly investigate the charges of the Supreme Court usurpation of legislative and executive authority, and if found true, to prefer charges of impeachment against each and every member of said court who is deemed guilty.

3. We, the Rannels County Farm Bureau, recommend that Congress, when it meets in January, 1959, investigate the feasibility of reorganizing the Supreme Court, making the Justices elective, one from each nine geographical districts, abolishing the appointive system.

4. We, the Rannels County Farm Bureau, are opposed to redistricting the present commissioners precincts.

5. We, the Rannels County Farm Bureau, petition Senator Dorsey B. Hardeman and Representative A. J. Bishop, and the Fish & Game Commission, that there be a closed season on Bob White and Blue Quails in Rannels County in 1959.

6. We, the Rannels County Farm Bureau, oppose any efforts to change the present farm-to-market road program.

7. Be it resolved that we, the Rannels County Farm Bureau, petition our senator, Dorsey B. Hardeman, and Representative A. J. Bishop to investigate and attempt to correct alleged abuses of the Texas Employment Commission.

Real Hallowe'en Observance Here Friday Evening

Tomorrow night (Friday) will be Hallowe'en and local people will have a large number of visitors as little folks in costumes ring door bells in the annual trick or treat visits. There will also be prowlers and officers warn against leaving loose items in the yards and on porches which might be moved. They also point out that it will be much safer to lock garages and homes if people leave.

The youngsters will not find as many people at home Friday night as usual on account of the Ballinger-Ranger football game which gets underway at 8 p. m. Friday. This will mean that many will leave home around 7 o'clock and will not be there to hand out candies and other treats when the goblins call.

Saturday will likely be window washing day for all local stores. It is a custom here that kiddies walk the business streets and use soap to mark up windows. In recent years this has been happening on two nights during the Hallowe'en season. One the night of the senior carnival and the other on the real Hallowe'en observance.

Extra officers will be on the job Friday night to keep watch for any tricks that are out of line.

Seventh Street Baptist Church Dedication Sunday

Senior Carnival Is Huge Success Saturday Evening

The senior carnival Saturday night at the library building on Eighth Street was perhaps the best attended and best handled of all those staged by the class in recent years. New features had been added to the carnival attractions to help entertain and hold the crowd and the income from all features will net between $1,400 and $1,500 for the class.

The carnival opened with a large crowd on hand at 7 p. m. and the guests remained until the final climax of the show which was the coronation of the king and queen. The senior candidates, Ralph Dankworth and Dorothy Smith, were the candidates selected by the highest vote to be crowned king and queen of the carnival.

School officials stated it was the best behaved crowd in a number of years and that little difficulty was experienced in keeping all under control. A few flour bombs were thrown on the streets and in front of the library and a few show windows had soap markings but otherwise little signs of the carnival were observed Sunday. Most of this will take place Friday night of this week with the real observance of Hallowe'en.

Members of the senior class and faculty sponsors express their appreciation to all friends and others who helped in any way in staging the carnival Saturday night. The financial success of the show will make possible the annual senior trip and other routine activities of the class for this year.

Legion Auxiliary To Sell Poppies Here November 8

The American Legion Auxiliary has announced plans for their annual poppy day sale to be held on Saturday, November 8. This sale has been held on the Saturday before Armistice Day, November 11, ever since the days immediately following World War I by Auxiliary members.

This year the same plan will be followed with the small red paper flowers being sold to individuals all during the day. These flowers are made by patients in Legion Hospital near Kerrville. The men who have no income are paid for each bloom and in most instances this is their only income. The Auxiliary buys the flowers and their part of the sales are used for child welfare and rehabilitation work among veterans and their families.

They remind the public that many veterans of World Wars I and II are still fighting and should not be forgotten. The number of flowers these hospital patients can make depends upon how many the public will buy and they ask that every person buy at least one and wear it on November 8.

A booth will be maintained downtown all during the day and solicitors will cover all stores during the morning.

PUBLIC IS INVITED TO RELIGIOUS FILM

The public is cordially invited to attend a showing of the film, "Martin Luther," at First Christian Church, Wednesday, November 5, at 7:45 p. m. This picture, depicting the life of the leader of the Protestant Reformation, is full length and professionally made. The showing is being made possible by the Faith and Order Commission of the World Council of Churches.

Dedication Services Sunday For Seventh Street Baptist Girl Scout Fund Drive Needs $345

Sunday will be a big day for the membership and friends of the Seventh Street Baptist Church. An all-day program of dedication has been planned.

Rev. O. D. Carpenter, Church Pastor for the church which will climax with the burning of the notes showing all indebtedness has been paid, making possible the dedication of the House of God.

The speaker for the dedicatory sermon at the morning worship hour will be Rev. Cordell Bales, pastor of the South Lawn Baptist Church in Amarillo. He was pastor here at the time the auditorium was built.

The speaker at the afternoon service will be Rev. E. V. Brooks, pastor of the Hillcrest Baptist Church at San Angelo. He was pastor of the Seventh Street Church when the educational building was constructed and the parsonage bought.

The Seventh Street Baptist Church was organized in Ballinger in 1944 when a group of 44 people became the charter members of the church. At that time the congregation had no building, but soon plans were made and they set themselves to the task of building.

In the early days the congregation held their services in a downtown theatre. Later the congregation bought a two story building on the corner of Park Avenue and Broadway. For a time they worshipped in this location, later selling the property to the owner of Motel Stonewall.

The next place of worship was in the junior high school. By 1948 the congregation had grown and felt they should have a church home. Property on Hamilton Avenue and North Seventh Street was purchased, a loan was secured from the Home Mission Board, a Southern Baptist Institution at Atlanta, Georgia. This loan was made for a period of ten years.

The congregation had until next December 1 to make the last payment, but in September the note was paid in full.

During these years the congregation has received more

Local Youngsters To Trick-or-Treat For CROP Tonight

Ballinger youngsters of junior age will be ringing door bells late this afternoon and early evening to trick or treat for CROP. This annual program is sponsored by the Council of United Church Women and a meeting of representatives of all affiliated churches met last week in the home of Mrs. C. T. Parker to make plans for the annual solicitation.

All the children and adults assisting are to meet at the First Christian Church this afternoon at 5:30. Children will receive their instructions and street assignments and will begin making their calls. They will carry milk cartons with the word CROP on them and local people are asked to contribute. All the money will go to CROP and be used in sending food packages to those in need in overseas countries. Each area assigned to a group of children will have an adult leader with them.

As soon as the job is completed, the children and leaders will assemble at the First Methodist Church for a supper party.

VOTE TUESDAY

The general election next Tuesday, November 4, will submit to the voters of Texas nine proposed constitutional amendments which are very important. Every eligible voter should go to the polls Tuesday and cast their ballot. They should go well informed on these nine amendments and vote as they believe after a complete understanding of the intent of each.

The constitution of the State of Texas is our fundamental law. It establishes and limits the authority of our Legislature and state officials. It prescribes the power which may be exercised by local subdivisions of government. It protects the rights of private citizens. It affects the life of each Texan every day.

Any proposed amendment, such as those being submitted this year, deserves most serious consideration of changes they would make and of their foreseeable effects.

Below is just a very brief statement of the nine amendments which may help create interest in becoming informed on the entire text:

Number 1 on the ballot (HJR 1)—Proposes two important changes in the operation of our Texas Legislature. First, it would establish annual regular sessions for the purpose of making appropriations, rather than the single regular session now held each two years; second, members would be paid a yearly salary of $7,500, plus expenses. These changes would be accomplished by amending Section 5 and 24 of Article III of our constitution. The details of putting these two major objectives into effect require other changes, which in some cases are not clear because of ambiguous wording. All these proposals are part of one amendment, and must be adopted or rejected together.

Number 2 on the ballot (SJR 6)—Authorizes each county to establish, after approval by its voters, a retirement, disability and death compensation fund covering the elective officers of the county or precinct, as well as the appointive officers and employees of the county or precinct.

Number 3 on the ballot (HJR 30)—Provides that vacancies in the offices of County Judge and Justice of the Peace shall be filled by the commissioners' court only until the next general election.

Number 4 on the ballot (HJR 31)—Provides that any district, county or precinct official serving a four-year term must resign before announcing for a different office if there remains unexpired more than one (1) year of the term for which he was elected.

Number 5 on the ballot (HJR 48)—Provides that a home rule city may provide by charter provision, and a city operating under the general laws may provide by a majority vote, for a longer term of office than two (2) years for its officers, either elective or appointive, or both not to exceed four years.

Number 6 on the ballot (HJR 17)—Provides for pensions to retired Texas Rangers who are ineligible to participate in the Employees Retirement System of Texas, and their widows.

Number 7 on the ballot (SJR 4)—Authorizes the legislature to make appropriations and establish procedure for advertising the historical, natural, agricultural, industrial, educational, recreational and other resources of Texas.

Number 8 on the ballot (HJR 36)—Gives the legislature the power to authorize vendor for medical care in addition to the amount paid in the form of direct public assistance to and on behalf of needy recipients of Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Blind, Aid to Delinquent Children or Aid to the Permanently and Totally Disabled; providing for the acceptance of funds from the Federal government for the purpose of paying such assistance.

Number 9 on the ballot (SJR 3)—Authorizes the legislature to create a Hospital District coextensive with the incorporated limits to the city of Amarillo, Texas, and Hospital Districts in Jefferson County, Texas.

Programs for Christmas Planned for December

The Retail Committee of the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce and Ed Davis, manager, have completed tentative plans for the staging of Christmas programs in Ballinger during the month of December. The plan will be submitted at the next meeting of the board of directors for their approval and, if okayed, work will be started on each feature.

The first big attraction will be staged on Saturday, December 6, with a Kiddy Parade. This will be for all kiddies who wish to enter from 1 year through 10 years of age. They will wear any kind of costume which carries out the Christmas theme, may enter decorated toys or pets. In fact any kind of a Christmas entry will be acceptable to the committee.

The parade will be in the afternoon and the exact hour will be announced later. Judges will select the best entries and prizes will be awarded.

On December 13, Santa Claus will come to town and will have gifts of candy and fruit for the kiddies. The method of arrival and the location for the distribution of gifts will be announced later.

The final program will be held on Saturday, December 20, at which time a junior and senior Miss Spirit of Christmas will be selected. Entries in the junior contest will be for girls 11 through 14 years of age. In the senior division they will be 15 through high school seniors. Candidates will be dressed in the Spirit of Christmas and judges will select the best in each class.

On the same date a large number of merchandise prizes will be given to visitors. Tickets for the giving away of prizes will be distributed by local merchants, the chamber of commerce and other organizations. There will be nothing to buy in order to get the tickets.

Mr. Davis stated that an effort will be made to bring a large Christmas tree to Ballinger to be erected on the court house lawn. If the tree is secured, it will be decorated in place in December and left until after the holidays.

The committee plans to do an early Christmas spirit in Ballinger and then continue all during the month in an effort to attract shoppers here.

Salvation Army Fund Campaign Set Tuesday

Carl Murman will head the annual Salvation Army fund campaign which will be launched here Tuesday at 10 a. m. Workers will meet at the Acapulco Cafe for the kick-off of the drive. The fund raising event here is for the service unit committee which serves the south portion of Rannels County.

Mr. Murman has named Charles Hambrick, W. O. Wallace and D. G. Posey as team captains from the Ballinger Rotary Club. Captains from women's clubs of the town are Mrs. Dorsey Read, Mrs. Clyde Gabbert and Mrs. W. E. Moss. Four other captains are to be named by the Ballinger Lions Club.

Mr. Murman asks that everyone contacted please give generously of their time and efforts and added: "No one can turn down a hungry child and no one should turn down this opportunity to support the organization on which the needy rely."

General Election Expected To Draw Light State Vote

Tuesday of next week will be general election day in Rannels County. All election supplies have been purchased, ballot boxes have been prepared and distributed to the managers and each box in the county will be open from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m.

The general election ticket is a big one this year with five columns for the various parties and at the bottom of the list of candidates are nine constitutional amendments to be voted upon. The five columns are Democratic, Republican, Constitution, Independent and the fifth column for write-ins.

The Democratic column is filled with candidates from Governor on down to constables. These are a few candidates in the Republican and Constitution parties but none in the Independent or write-ins.

You may vote for the candidate of your choice by scratching all other candidates for that office. On the amendments it will be for and against with the voter scratching the one they oppose.

Elsewhere in this newspaper is a complete sample ballot printed as a public service feature of the First National Bank of Ballinger. Voters are urged to study this ballot and discuss it with other voting members of the family. If there is any question, voters are urged to discuss these with well informed persons. All eligible voters are urged to go to the polls Tuesday and cast their ballots.

Tabulations of the results in Rannels County will be made at the Ballinger Ledger office Tuesday night and then reported to the Texas Election Bureau at Dallas.

2 New Producers Near Ballinger; Gas Well Finaled

The Patsy Field, 3 miles north of Ballinger, has a new producer. It is the Robert & King No. 1 Garland Nunn which had a six-hour potential of 58.12 barrels of 44 gravity oil. It was producing from an open hole at 2,599-11 feet with the pay topped at 2,508.

A Ballinger (Palo Pinto) field was completed in the same area as the Nunn producer. It is the R. K. Stoker of Houston No. 2 L. W. Henniger which had a daily flowing potential of 240 barrels of 43 gravity oil. It is producing from perforations at 3,443-50 feet.

A gas well has been completed and gauged three miles south of Norton. It is the Hobbittelle & Perkins of Dallas No. 1 Bob Vancil and the gauge placed the potential at 5,800,000 cubic feet daily from perforations at 4,654-70 feet. Casing was set to a depth of 4,800.

Next Tuesday the people of Texas will vote in the general election and as far as candidates are concerned there will be little interest. It is taken for granted that all the nominees of the democratic ticket will be elected to office. The most important matter before the voters at this time is nine constitutional amendments. All are very important and some are worthy of the deepest thought on the part of the voters. No person should cast a vote for or against one of these amendments without giving each some study and have a good understanding of the effects it will have on the economy of this state. In the last several elections all amendments offered have been approved and this does not indicate that the voters had studied the proposals. Persons should either read the text of the amendments or else talk to someone who can explain them in detail. Some are good, some might not prove so good. Above all, go to the polls next Tuesday and cast your vote and be informed when you do so.

It is time to start making plans for Christmas. Towns must stage Christmas programs each year in order to keep up with their neighbors and to stage a good program which will attract many people. All merchants must be interested and willing to cooperate. In past years, Ballinger has had some fine programs which annually attracted crowds of 5,000 and up. Most of these have been discarded because there was not enough cooperation on the part of local businesses. Back when the first Christmas show windows were made into a big feature, practically every business in town, whether they had a regular window or not, had some lighted display. Windows were kept closed until a set hour and this fact alone helped to bring many people to town because they knew all business houses were cooperating. Then a large number of the smaller firms quit decorating a window. Others started opening them when they pleased and the effect was ruined and another good feature was gone. When a plan is submitted this year, let's all cooperate and make it work.

Sometimes we have something good in a town and little attention is given it. Such is the case of the weekly livestock show held here each Monday afternoon. This show is one of the best in this area and each week brings a huge crowd here, sells a large volume of livestock and brings in a large amount of money for the livestock owners. The market is always good and often brings the owners better prices than they could get elsewhere and without the expense and trouble of shipping. The sale is a fine service for both buyers and sellers. Take time off some Monday afternoon and attend

The Blackwell school held open house Sunday afternoon from 1 to 5 p. m. for people of the community to inspect the new addition to the school which was completed in time for the beginning of the fall semester. The new building includes a new gymnasium, kitchen and rest room. Another building has been remodeled with new furniture and fixtures. The homemaking department also has received new cabinets, sinks and other equipment. George Stoepfer is superintendent at Blackwell.

Entries in the big Christmas parade at Winters are being received and last week five local clubs had signed up to build and decorate floats. Business firms are underwriting the cost up to $40 and the clubs will do the work. Additional floats are to be secured for the huge parade which will open the Christmas season on December 10. November 15 is the deadline for clubs to enter. In addition to the floats a number of other special features will be included in the parade.

The first of what Menard civic leaders hope will be a lasting series of pilgrimages to the Mission San Saba was made last Sunday afternoon. A large crowd of Catholics from San Angelo, headed by Father Amian Lutomski and Father Fidelis Albrecht arrived at the mission at 2 p. m. and held a short religious service. Following this they toured the ruins this site. It may open your eyes to another fine service being rendered in Ballinger of which many people know very little.

and heard the history of the mission where two Franciscan priests gave up their lives in their effort to spread Christianity to the new world. After the program at the mission, the Menard Chamber of Commerce was host at a picnic at the Menard Park.

The chamber of commerce at Stephenville met last week and started plans for the Christmas shopping season there. They plan to open the gift buying season on November 28, at which time there will be free picture shows, a hula hoop contest and other features. Later an old time fiddler contest will be held and Santa Claus will arrive, for his official visit, in a helicopter. All during the shopping season a treasure hunt will be in progress with all local merchants cooperating.

The members of the Parent-Teacher Association at Paint Rock held their annual Halloween Carnival at the school last Saturday. The affair opened with a chicken dinner served in the school lunch room and this was followed by the usual games, shows and other attractions. The Paint Rock Carnival has been staged for many years and offers a wide selection of entertainment for their customers. Much of the budget for the organization for the entire year is raised at this one feature. Coronation of the queen was the main feature for the program.

The Texas Armory Board has advertised for bids for the construction of an armory at Coleman. They expect to let a contract for the building in November with work to get underway within a short time.

The new armory will cost approximately $100,000 and will contain 15,000 square feet of floor space. It will be located on a five acre tract of land which has been deeded to the city for the site of a national guard armory. It was announced that the building would also be available for large community meetings.

Civic leaders at Colorado City are studying the results of the recent fall fair and find it was a success both from participation and finance. They hope to continue next year and make the annual event much bigger than before. The civic house and the national guard armory were used this year to house the exhibits and crowds jammed the two buildings for the entire fair dates. The first fair was planned and sponsored by the agriculture committee and their report showed the fair paid its own way and a small balance.

The city council at Brady has granted an easement to the McCulloch County Electric Cooperative to build a line across city property. The new line will go from Brady to Voca to take care of an increased demand for electricity from irrigation farmers and the new sand plant there. The manager of the Co-op stated that between $25,000 and $35,000 would be spent to establish the new service for people of that community. The council and the Co-op manager also suggested that a map of the fringe area be drawn showing the areas to be served electrically by the city and by the Co-op.

The Comanche County ASC office was recently cited as the outstanding county office in District 7 composed of 17 West Texas counties. The citation issued commented on the service rendered for the 1958 program and the efficient operation of the office over a period of years. In addition to the citation to the office, each county committeeman was presented an individual citation for their part in the achievement. A number of office employees were also given special awards.

Unanimous approval of Eden as the site of the proposed district Methodist Hospital and Retirement Home was voiced at Eden last week by the site and location committee when they met with the mayor and Rev. J. B. Jordan, Methodist pastor at Eden. After looking at three locations for the district program, the committee decided that Eden offered the most for the proposed project. A meeting of the district board has been called for this week at Eden to further study of the proposed site and future development. The site would include the now closed Eden Hospital and adjacent grounds.

Bearcats Rally to Win Over Coleman 15 to 6

Ballinger football fans were kept on their feet for most of the final quarter of the Coleman game Friday night. They watched the Bearcats stage a last quarter rally which came from behind to take the game by a score of 15 to 6.

For three quarters the Bearcats had the best of running and passing but were on the short end of the score due to four fumbles lost to Coleman, four others that lost yardage but were recovered, three intercepted passes and one punt return for 40 yards.

Coleman scored in the second quarter after recovering a fumble on the Ballinger 4 yard line. They received a penalty of 5 yards and then lost a yard before Jim Marrs took the ball into the line, cut to his left and was in the end zone for front by a score of 7 to 6. Ralph Dankworth pounced upon a Coleman fumble on the Coleman 39 yard line a few minutes later and the Bluecats helped the Bearcats with the final score. On three plays they drew fifteen yard penalties for personal fouls to place the ball on the one-yard line. Candler hit right tackle for the score and Wiginton circled right end for the extra two points.

Feelings ran high on the field during the final quarter of the game after the referee sent two Coleman players to the side line for rule violations. Coleman fans also showed their displeasure at the end of the game.

The Bearcats gained a total of 217 yards on the ground to Coleman's 171. In passing, the Bearcats went to the air 12 times, completed 6 for 126 yards, had three intercepted. Coleman passed seven times, completed three for 15 yards and had one intercepted. In first downs the Bearcats piled up 18 to Coleman's 8. Ballinger was penalized 5 times for 45 yards while Coleman drew 12 penalties for a total of 130 yards. Ballinger fumbled 8 times, lost four and recovered four while Coleman lost only 1 fumble. Coleman showed fine distance in punting with an average of almost 40 yards in six tries.

The Bearcats played some of their finest football Friday night and also some of their worst in the defeat of the Coleman Bluecats by a score of 15 to 6. The Cats were running and passing well but their ball handling caused drives to bog down four times because of fumbles lost and on four other occasions when they recovered their fumbles for lost yardage.

A fumble on a pass from center on a kick situation gave the Coleman team the ball on the Ballinger 4 and set up the lone touchdown for Coleman. When the Bluecats scored they had not made a single first down in the game.

Fans cannot complain of not getting their money's worth as the game grew in interest as it progressed until the last whistle. Because of personal foul penalties, feelings were running high on the field and coaches for the Bearcats were smart in having their players dash for the bathroom as soon as the game was over. Members of the Quarterback Club, school officials and local officers were also on the field to see that nothing was started following the game.

The Bearcats are at home again Friday night and will meet the Ranger Bulldogs. Bulldogs have been a thorn in the side of the Bearcats this year as they met the Stamford and Brady Bulldogs in their opening games and took lopsided beatings. They will try to conquer the Jinx Friday night.

Ranger has a fine ball club and one that is air-minded and can also move on the ground. The two clubs will be rated fairly even and fans should see one of the finest games of the season Friday night. Ranger lost to Cisco last Friday night but has a good record so far this season.

The junior high team will entertain Colorado City here tonight in a pair of games starting at 6:30.

Saturday night the B team will journey to Winters for a game with the Blizzard B team.

Tickets for the Ranger game can be secured at all local drug stores and at the gate Friday night. Ranger received a section of reserve seats and are expected to bring a large crowd here Friday along with their fine band and cheering section.

Changes In Your Social Security

By F. Neal Tarvin
(Field Representative of the San Angelo, Texas Social Security District Office)

Ever since the enactment of the original social security law, marriage or remarriage has often been a reason for ending social security benefit payments to dependents or survivors of insured workers. In many cases, it is still a cause for the termination of benefits. The laws as recently amended, however, removes some of the restrictions.

For example, Mrs. Florence Jackson, 64, was widowed 2 years ago. She has continued to live in the home she and her husband bought soon after their marriage, and has been receiving $81.40 a month as a social security widow's benefit. Naturally, she's been lonely and has welcomed the friendship of Frank Brown, a lifelong neighbor. Frank, 72, and a widower for many, many years, lives in a small furnished room, on the income from the monthly social security checks paid to him because he was dependent upon his son Bill, when Bill died a number of years ago. Recently, it has occurred to Mrs. Jackson and Mr. Brown that it would be both pleasant and sensible for them to marry and spend their remaining years together. Until just a month or so ago, however, their marriage would have meant financial disaster because it would end social security payments for both of them. Under the provisions of the social security law, benefits paid to the dependents of a worker—to his child, to his widow (or widower), or to an aged dependent parent—stop when that dependent marries.

A change in the social security law will now make it possible for them to go ahead with their marriage plans. Under this change, a dependent's social security benefit payments will not stop if he or she marries another person who is also receiving social security payments as a dependent. A woman receiving widow's benefits can therefore marry a person, who like Mr. Brown, is getting dependents parent's benefits, or she can marry someone who is eligible for benefits as a dependent widower or as the disabled son or daughter of a retired worker.

Marriage to a person who is not receiving social security benefits will still end the benefit rights (present and future) of a dependent beneficiary. But another change in the law will help dependent-beneficiaries who marry persons who are now or who may soon be getting old-age insurance or disability insurance benefits. Until now, such a marriage would have ended the dependent's benefits and he or she would have had to wait at least 3 years to get benefits as the dependent of the new spouse, or in the event of his death, she would not have been able to qualify for benefits as his widow unless the marriage had been in effect for at least 1 year.

The 1958 amendments to the law remove these periods. Someone like Mrs. Jackson could therefore marry a man who is getting old-age insurance benefits and qualify immediately for wife's benefits based on his social security account.

In the first article of this series, I touched briefly on the increased benefit amount provided by the 1958 amendments to the social security law. In my next article, I shall discuss social security benefits in more detail.

Adventures in ADVERTISING

THE FANTASTIC STORY of MUSA-SHIYA THE SHIRTMAKER

(Also Sometimes Drygoods Selling)

If the shipping department of a factory had not made an error, the world would never have known of Musa-shiya the Shirtmaker and the most astounding advertising campaign in history would never have been launched.

Following World War I an English textile factory was getting back on a peacetime basis. In error it sent a full five year backorder of shirting material to Musa-shiya, a Japanese shirtmaker who operated a small shop in Honolulu. Business was poor and Musa-shiya was near bankruptcy, when the customs office informed him that certain bales of cloth and a fat bill for duties awaited his pleasure at the port of Honolulu.

When the little shirtmaker realized what had descended upon him, he asked for time and went into the silence for purpose of mental refreshment. Remembering a friend in a big mercantile establishment, he hid himself there and sought counsel. How in the name of the horned prophet of evil was he ever to get rid of all that English shirting? And in the meantime where was he to put it? His little box of a shop wouldn't hold one bale.

"You'll have to advertise," advised his friend. "Leave it to me. I'll have our advertising agents help you out."

This merely compounded the little Japanese shirtmaker's troubles. Advertising to him was an uncharted sea. The advertising agent called on Musa-shiya and suggested $300 as a modest starter. "Too-o-o much. Maybe I think thirty dollar plenty," said the shirtmaker. He was told that wouldn't even get him in print. The agent explained the costs of various advertisements and finally Musa-shiya agreed to try the plan and what was destined to be the most astounding and far reaching campaign in the history of advertising was launched.

Two column by five inch ads then started appearing regularly in the Saturday Honolulu Star-Bulletin. The ads were written just the way Musa-shiya talked—in colorful pidgen English which is used throughout the Orient. Here is an example of one of Musa-shiya's ads:

"Well here come storek again—but Musa-shiya, the shirtmaker, is able prepare. Wonderful accumulation of baby things in dry goods selling corner of Musa shop. Everything for the baby—especially diaper. Exclusive of storek, which find most easily, many persons not finding little shop of Musa-shiya the shirtmaker in King Street, Makai side, between fish market and river."

Tourists started sending copies of Musa-shiya's ads to their friends in many countries. Soon Musa-shiya was receiving orders from all over the world as well as doing a thriving business in Hawaii.

And that is the story of how a well planned, small advertising campaign made an unknown Japanese shirtmaker not only wealthy but world famous.

Your local newspaper doesn't promise to duplicate this story for its advertisers, but it does take your sales message into the homes of your customers where full and careful consideration is given your suggestions. Who knows, perhaps you too can be a Musa-shiya.

1959 Edsel Showing Tomorrow

To make it America's most practical car, the 1959 Edsel has been repositioned in price and in size. Offered in a selection of 10 models in three series - Ranger, Corsair and Villager station wagon - the 1959 Edsel features increased passenger space with no added overall length, reduced total weight and a wide selection of economy engines and transmissions. Shown here, left, is the Corsair four-door hardtop and at the right, the rear of the Ranger four-door sedan.

The George Ford Motors, corner of Hutchings Avenue and Ninth Street, will show the new 1959 Edsel this week-end. All people in this area are invited to visit the show rooms Friday and see these new models.

In its new 1959 automobiles, Edsel offers a complete line of four different engines of proved durability, economy and performance, coupled with transmissions to meet every driving requirement.

All four engines are of modern overhead valve, short-stroke design which provides more efficient combustion and cuts friction loss to a minimum.

Edsel's transmissions include the versatile dual range Select-O-Matic Drive, the rugged manual transmission, and the Mile-O-Matic Drive, an entirely new economy automatic two-speed transmission.

Standard V-8 in the Ranger series is the 292-cubic-inch Ranger V-8 engine. It has been introduced in the Edsel line to meet the economy demands of today's market. This light-weight engine operates on standard gasoline.

The Express V-8 displaces 332 cu. in. and develops 225 hp.

It also operates on regular fuel and is the standard V-8 for all station wagons and the Corsair.

High performance engine for the Edsel is the 361 cu. in. Super Express V-8. Optional on all models, the Super Express develops 303 hp. on premium fuel.

For Edsel buyers who want the maximum economy, Edsel offers the most modern Six in the industry.

Edsel's new Mile-O-Matic Drive has over 100 fewer parts and through greater use of aluminum is 50 pounds lighter than conventional automatic transmissions. It combines the tested principles of torque converter and planetary gears. The driver has the choice of two forward speeds—low and drive, plus reverse, neutral and park.

Select-O-Matic Drive is designed for use with the Super Express V-8. It gives the owner the choice of two drive ranges, the first providing a smooth 1-2-3 upshift for top acceleration, the second starting in intermediate and shifting automatically to drive. A special one-way clutch and other refinements make gear shifts imperceptibly smooth. Kick-down passing is provided in either range.

For those who prefer manual shifting, Edsel offers a three-speed synchromesh transmission with helical gears for quiet, smooth operation.

You get beautiful new efficiency. Wonderfully spacious interiors—with less length outside. Six adults ride in comfort, but Edsel's compact 120-inch wheelbase fits any normal garage, swings easily in and out of tight spots.

You get lots of go for little gas. Pounds and pounds of useless car weight are gone. And four new Edsel engines are here! Including a thrifty six with a powerful test track record. And a new kind of economy V-8 that uses regular fuel and wrings big mileage from every ounce! You get all the magnificent quality that marks a superior car. Super-smooth ride. Big, self-adjusting brakes. Luxurious carpeting, electric clock and four other customary "extras"—at no extra cost.

Yet the challenging new 1959 Edsel is priced with the most popular three! For example, you'll find that a new Edsel Ranger is priced almost exactly the same as many models of Chevrolet, Plymouth and Ford. See for yourself—this comparison is actually based on the factory suggested list prices.

It's easy to see why this is the car that makes history by making sense. The new kind of car you've been waiting for. See it and drive it now at your Edsel Dealer. Ten history-making new models!

Miss Pat Tisdale's Engagement Told At Coffee Saturday

Miss Pat Tisdale's engagement to Jerry Bell was announced at a coffee Saturday morning in the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Tisdale.

The bridegroom-to-be is the son of Mrs. R. L. Bell and the late Mr. Bell. The couple will be married December 22 in the First Methodist Church here.

Mrs. R. T. Hall and Mrs. Herman Price welcomed guests. Receiving guests were Mrs. Tisdale, Miss Pat Tisdale, Mrs. R. L. Bell, Mrs. W. C. Norwood of Coleman, grandmother of the bride-elect, her sister, Miss Della Tisdale, Mrs. Jimmy Evans of Lubbock and Miss Martha Kay Northington. Mrs. Al Purifoy of Fort Worth and Mrs. Charles F. Bailey invited guests into the dining room.

The table was laid with an ecru embroidered linen cloth. A styrofoam stairway laid with a white satin runner highlighted a red and white centerpiece of carnations, valley lilies and fern. A picture of the honoree and her fiancé, when they were freshmen in Ballinger High School, was featured at the bottom of the stairway which depicted their friendship through high school and college. The couple's wedding date and a present day picture were on the top step of the stairway.

Other decorations included an arrangement of red roses and white mums on the mantel in the living room, and a miniature bride and bridegroom figurine was at the registry. Miss Maryatt Smith and Mrs.

Bill Bell registered guests.

Serving at the silver service were Mrs. W. B. Woody, Mrs. E. Y. Bailey, Mrs. Jack Williams and Mrs. Tom Hunt of Coleman, aunt of the bride-elect. Assisting in serving were Misses Pat Bell, Pamela Price, Dorothy Wilson and Jackie Branley.

Mrs. W. E. Moss and Mrs. Billy Dykes spoke the goodbyes. Miss Tisdale received her degree from Texas Technological College last June and is now teaching in Junior High School at Shallowater. Her fiancé is a senior at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, where he is captain of the Red Raiders football team.

FFA Boys Elected For Houston Show Scramble March 1

Three boys from the Ballinger FFA chapter have been selected to scramble at the Houston fat stock show on Sunday night, March 1. They are: Johnny Park, Mike Murphy and Alton Urbanke.

Twenty boys and ten calves go into the arena at each performance and good sportsmanship and fair play are the key notes. Half the boys come out winners with the opportunity to start their own herds.

The boys are selected from FFA chapters throughout the state. The boys that catch calves halter them and get them across the finish line are awarded certificates which entitles them to buy a registered heifer for $125.

Many special prizes are offered, including scholarships, cash awards, boots, etc., for showmanship.

Boy Scout Fund Campaign Short For Area Quota

Workers in the annual boy scout fund campaign are still busy and it will be another week or more before the drive is completed. Most of the downtown solicitations have been made but many people were missed on the first visits and will be contacted again.

Don Atkins, fund chairman, stated Wednesday that the money was coming in good but there was much more to be done. If Ballinger reaches its quota, Wednesday several hundred letters were mailed out to persons who could not be contacted with personal solicitors and they were asked to mail in checks.

The special gifts committee has met with good success and a number of local firms who get their checks from other towns have been included this year and most of them have

FARM BUREAU HEAD URGES ALL TO VOTE

Marion Hays, president of the Runnels County Farm Bureau, urges all people to vote in the general election to be held next Tuesday. "Vote for whom you please for governor in the coming election, but please vote," the president says. He makes the following statement to show his reason for urging a full vote of the people.

"The reason your vote is important is because the number of votes cast for governor in the general election in your precinct determines the number of delegates your precinct will have to your party's county convention in 1960. In turn, it also determines how many delegates your county will be able to send your party's state convention."

"It is in the interest of good government that the individual should participate in his political party's activities. For if the majority does not exercise its citizenship responsibilities, there is a real danger that a minority faction can take over the party machinery, and if we are to keep our democratic form of government, the majority must always rule."
