Tickets to be sold at games

The Friona ISD Administration announced this week that tickets will be sold for every home football game this year. They will go on sale at 6 p.m. outside the gate before the game at Chieftain Stadium. Staff members will be taking tickets inside the gates. Tickets are $4 for adults and $2 for students. Come support the Chieftains this season.

Kidz Fun Day August 27 & 28

The Temple of Adoration, 620 Washington will host a Kidz Fun Day on Saturday, August 27 at 5 p.m. and Sunday, August 28 at 10 a.m. The event will feature the Yoly Pacheco Ventriloquist show. Saturday there will be food, games, a water slide and many surprises. The community is invited to come and enjoy these fun days. For more information, contact Ramiro or Yolanda Ramirez at (806) 729-4657.

FFA parent meeting Monday

New Friona High School Agriculture teacher and FFA Advisor, Brian Reed, announced this week that they will be holding a parent and supporter meeting on Monday, August 29 at 6:30 p.m. at the high school Agriculture Building. The meeting concerns stock show animals as well as the formation of an FFA Alumni Chapter to support Friona FFA. All parents and students are welcome to attend.

Co-op stockholders meeting Aug. 29

The Friona Farmers Co-op Gin will host the 54th Annual Stockholders meeting on Monday, August 29 at 7 p.m. at the Friona Junior High Cafeteria. There will be a catered meal and door prizes.

The terms of Davy Carthel, Mitchell Wiseman, and John Jarecki will be expiring. Three directors will be elected.

Seliger hosting Town Hall meeting Sep. 7

State Senator Kel Seliger is kicking off his annual tour of Senate District 31, conducting town hall meetings across the Panhandle, South Plains and Permian Basin to discuss the activities leading up to the 85th Legislature.

Senator Seliger will be at the Old Depot in the City Park, 700 Main Street, in Friona from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. on Wednesday, September 7, 2016.

"I look forward to meeting with the residents of Senate District 31 to talk about the issues we will be addressing during the 85th Legislature and their priorities," said Seliger.

Senator Seliger is Chair of the Senate Higher Education Committee and also serves on the Senate Finance, Education, Natural Resources and Economic Development, and Business and Commerce Committees.

Prairie Acres Meet & Greet

Prairie Acres will host a Meet & Greet to welcome the consulting team on Tuesday, September 13 from 6-8 p.m. in the dining room. Appetizers and drinks will be served. The community is invited to meet the consulting team of Loree Tamayoo and Chantelle Julian from LTC (Loree Tamayoo Consulting).

The Ortega Family, l-r, Alberto, Abigail, Jose, and Rena, were one of many families in Friona participating in a first day of school ritual... dropping off their kids at school. Abigail was bouncing and happy to be going to school while her brother Jose was not quite so enthusiastic. Drivers are reminded to watch out for children crossing the streets going to and from school.

Miss/Little Miss deadline fast approaching

Time is running out to be a part of a Friona tradition! The Friona Chamber of Commerce & Agriculture is reminding the community that the deadline for signing up to compete in the upcoming Miss Friona and Little Miss Friona pageant is Wednesday, August 31. The pageant will be held Saturday, September 10, 2016 at 6 p.m. at the Friona High School auditorium.

If you are a sophomore, junior or senior girl, you are invited to participate in this yearly event.

The perks of participating in the pageant are: scholarship money, self confidence, public speaking, public interaction, and being involved in the community of Friona.

community of Friona.

Miss Friona will receive a $1,000 scholarship. First runner-up will receive a $700 scholarship and the second runner-up will receive a $500. The third runner-up, fourth runner-up and Miss Congeniality will receive a $100 scholarship each.

Contestants must have sponsors. Sponsorship is $100 for Chamber members or $125 for non-members.

Sign up forms are available at the Chamber Office or online at www.frionachamber.com.

Little Miss contestants must be 5-years-old by September 1, 2016 and not older than 6-years-old on September 1. They must be enrolled in the Friona Independent School District or a participant in a sanctioned home school program.

Contestants may be sponsored by their parents, interested persons, or a business. Entry fee is $75 for Chamber members or $100 for non-members. Entry forms are available at the Chamber Office at 621 Main or online www.frionachamber.com.

The Chamber is also accepting donations to the scholarship fund. Contact Chris Alexander or Raquel Trevino at the Chamber for further details.

Senior setter Kendall Barnett (7) sets for Erica Barrera (4) in Tuesday's match vs. Brownfield. The Squaws swept Brownfield 3-0 and swept Lubbock Christian 3-0 in the dual competition. Friona is ranked #9 in this week's Texas Girls Coaches Association 3A state rankings. District opponent Shallowater is ranked #4. The Squaws travel to the Denver City tournament this weekend then host Denver City here Tuesday August 30 with JV and C at 5:00 p.m. and varsity about 6:00 p.m.

Chieftain head coach Jimmy Arias and the 2016 Chieftains will host the Farwell Steers here Friday August 26 with a 7:30 p.m. kickoff. Prior to the game Cargill and the Noon Lions will be providing free hamburgers, French fries, and drinks to all fans. It is also parent night. Introduction of seniors and their parents will begin about 7:00 p.m. Everyone is encouraged to come support the Chieftains. You can sign up and join the Chieftain/Squaw Booster Club too.

Official weather guy John Gurley said it did not rain last week but it might this week. Sure glad he is in charge of reporting our local weather.

A reminder to fans attending the Chieftain season opener vs. Farwell Friday night. It is parent night and the senior parents will be introduced beginning about 7:00 p.m. Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m. Free hamburgers and fries from Cargill and the Noon Lions will be served probably starting about 6:00 to 6:30 p.m. Come out and support the Chiefs. Go Big Red.

This year the school will be selling tickets starting at 6:00 p.m. before home games. The tickets will be sold outside the gate and you give them a ticket when you enter. This should cut down on the congestion at the gate for fans entering the field.

For some reason the people who own KNNK Radio in Hereford, a part of the HPRN group, decided to broadcast Nazareth games on KNNK Radio and the Chieftain games only online at knnkradio.com. Go to the website and click on the link. Andy Montana will be broadcasting the games.

Linda Smith has resumed her Amarillo Globe News paper route. She is quite popular with local Amarillo newspaper customers. On occasion she throws a newspaper with her car window rolled up. She often complains about all of the traffic at 4:00 in the morning. Her reports on Facebook about her carrier experiences are humorous and popular. You might want to friend her. She makes great cookies and cakes too.

Pre-school age kids at least 3-years-old by September 1 are invited to attend the Friona library's pre-school story time. It begins at 9:30 a.m. Thursday September 1 and is held each Thursday from 9:30 to 10:15 a.m. For information call the library at 250-3200.

Congratulations to Alryna and Heath McElreath on the occasion of their 12th wedding anniversary. Many more ahead.

Donna Mears had a knee replacement last week and is recovering in the Parmer Medical swing bed program. She was to be there for about a week. Get better and up and around soon Donna.

Rhonda Pemberton, hired as the new Prairie Acres administrator, did not stick around very long. She did start the job but has already left and returned to the Dallas area from which she came. Once again a search is underway for an administrator.

The volleyball girls are off to a great season start. Before the Levelland tournament they were 10-2 and they won the Levelland tournament championship this past weekend. It is the first time in Friona volleyball history that a team has won the championship of an invitational tournament.

They are playing in the Denver City tournament this weekend and will host Denver City here Tuesday August 30. Games are at 5:00 and 6:00 p.m. Come out and support the Squaws run for the district championship.

The 2015 FHS yearbooks are in. Pick yours up at the high school. The sponsor for the 2016-2017 yearbook is Choir Director John Bonner.

For the first time in my memory the Chiefs/Squaws will have both a Chieftain and a Squaw mascot this year. They are Alejandro Cigarroa and Rickie Castillo. That's pretty cool. Go Big Red.

Happy 48th anniversary to Rosa and Jose Correa. Their daughter Lourdes and husband Jaime Benavides will celebrate their 26th anniversary this week. Congratulations to you each and every one.

The Texas Girls Coaches Association this week ranked the Friona Squaws volleyball team #9 in the 3A state rankings. Shallowater was listed as #4.

Holy Family Church in Nazareth will hold their Labor Day Weekend Picnic and Parish Fundraiser Sunday September 4. Parade kicks off at 10:00 a.m. Roast beef lunch from 11:00 A.M. TO 2:00 P.M. Livestock auction starting at 1:00 p.m. A hamburger supper from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. Lots of other games and arts and crafts.

Someone entrusted to 31-year-old men from Mexico with a 1995 BMW and $5.6 million worth of heroin to haul it from Albuquerque to Chicago. A DPS Trooper stopped them on I-40 for a traffic violation near Amarillo, found the drugs, and arrested the two. My advice to them is to hurry back and hide in Mexico before the owners of the $5.6 million in heroin find them.

The Friona High School English department has developed a Literacy Project. There is a story and a small crossword puzzle in this Star. They are asking for support to increase student exposure to higher level vocabulary in hopes of improving test scores and reading and writing levels. Hope you can participate.

Donations are being accepted at the Chamber of Commerce for the Miss Friona scholarship fund. Businesses or individuals can contribute directly to the chamber. Call 250-3491 for information.

My daughter Megan is recovering from her accident. She is still doing rehab at home. Her surgeon told her this week that her recovery has been above average. Needless to say we are grateful. One positive sign is her boyfriend took her to Walmart. Thanks to everyone for your encouragement and support. See you next week. Until then!

Friona Literacy Project

The Friona High School English department developed the Friona Literacy Project because our research on STAAR test data indicated that students seemed to struggle the most with vocabulary-related skills. The purpose of the Friona Literacy Project, then, is to extend vocabulary use beyond the classroom and increase students' exposure to the words at all levels and in all subject areas. Teaching words once or twice a week in the classroom is not enough; the more often words are seen, heard, and used, the more likely they are to be committed to longer-term memory. Therefore, we are asking parents, teachers, and the community as a whole to help increase student exposure to higher-level vocabulary in the hopes that we can improve test scores, as well as reading and writing levels on a whole.

Go to Channel 6 or 76 for the word bank. The words will also be available in local businesses, at the Friona Public Library and on the Chamber of Commerce marquee on Hwy. 60.

Sleep?

Have you ever had one of those weeks when it begins with waking up entirely too early and then not being able to go back to sleep? That is how I started this week.

I woke up at 3:30 a.m. and again at 4:30 a.m., at which time I gave up and got ready for work, which started at 7:30 a.m. at the Primary School. Yes, I was the one out there taking pictures of parents/grandparents dropping off their children/grandchildren. I only saw two parents and a grandparent that were misty-eyed.

The day just went on from one project to the next until it was time to go and take pictures of the big kids and their parents at Meet the Chiefs & Squaws. There were a few misty-eyed parents here too. These are parents of seniors that will have their last season of football, volleyball or any other sport. These seniors will have had their last first day of regular school and that will lead to their last last day of high school before they embark on a life in the real world.

Sorry, I got a bit off track.

Why do our brains take over while we are asleep and deem it appropriate to awaken us three or four hours before the alarm makes itself known?

I would be fine with waking up too early if I could just reassure my brain that the alarm WILL wake me up in enough time. However, nooooo! My brain starts telling me how many minutes until the alarm goes off and other things like "Don't be late!"

It is just easier to get up, shower and get ready for the day.

Unfortunately, I am one of those that when awakened too early I get sleepy mid-morning. I think the scientists call it a "low" period. I was once told that when that happens after lunch that your body is dumping all the bad stuff in your system and you should take a break and/or nap. I don't know about you but naps are at a premium and rare.

I was told that I needed a caffeine boost. Maybe I did, but I have been trying to give up caffeine. I still slip and have a soda on occasion. I'm not sure if it helps keep me up but I realize each time that I don't really need it and I don't have any more energy than before.

My nights start off with this one thought, "Sleep, glorious sleep."

If only it was so easy. I can get the room the right temperature. The covers spread just right. The pillows have been beaten into submission. The right amount of darkness. And just as I am drifting off to sleep, the distant drums begin pounding as a car/pickup turns on to 5th Street. As the pounding gets closer, my pictures and knick-knacks begin to rattle to the beat. It is only for a few moments but it messes with my thoughts. Then the covers are no longer where I wanted them and the pillows are attempting to escape the shape I have beat them into. Darn, now I have to start all over and more time is lost.

I am sure there is a scientist out there that knows the answers to all my sleep questions. I am also sure that millions of dollars are being spent to find the answers. It is more than likely an easy fix and right in front of our faces. However, I cannot see it. Maybe I need to get my eyes checked...darn one more issue to deal with. Getting older is a pain.

Friona Flashbacks

News from the week of August 23, 1962

*A total of 44 boys reported for the first football workout for the Friona Chiefs Monday morning at 7 a.m. The number had increased to 47 boys by Wednesday and the Chief coaches were more than pleased.

*A new all-time record enrollment is expected next week when Friona and area students find that vacation is over and its school time once again.

Superintendent of Schools Alton Farr said, "We are expecting approximately 1,200 students to enroll, or about 75 more than last year." Some 1150 students enrolled at the beginning of school last year, which was a new record.

*Among the students on the Dean's honor roll for the 1962 summer session at Southwestern (Oklahoma) State College is Don Paul Spring, son of Mr. & Mrs.

Edward Spring of Route 2, Friona.

*Final approval was given at a quarterly conference of the Methodist Church at Friona last Sunday for the construction of a new church educational building and a new parsonage.

*A Friona swimming team will swim against a Hereford team Saturday morning at Hereford.

*Carl Newell, young son of Carlton Newell, will be a first grade student this fall. During the summer he has seemed quite anxious to embark on his educational career.

As he entered the office Monday, I greeted him with, "When are you going to start school?" His answer, "Just as soon as school starts," amused me a great deal... June Floyd.

Facing Fear With Faith

By JEFF PROCTER, Minister, 6th Street Church of Christ

Growing up one of my favorite stories in the Bible was a bit obvious. David and Goliath had great appeal. As I have mentioned in other writings I was small. Most of the time the smallest in my class. So in a very physical way I related to David. Here was this kid in all respects facing a giant. Yet I must say he had a pretty impressive resume before Goliath, having already killed a lion and a bear. I am not so sure I would want to take on any of the three, but he did... and won.

Sometimes I hear the roar of Satan from the dark places and valleys of life. He throws out a challenge knowing my weaknesses and laughs as I am not sure what to do next, because his accusations about me are correct. I am weak, sinful and helpless to stand alone against him. He really doesn't see me as much of a challenge because I am human and we historically have not resisted to well. In fact, none of us have. There is nothing more hopeless than to believe defeat is the sure thing, because the accuser knows my truth. This is all true if I am the one trapped in the chains of sin. But God full of mercy and grace introduced not a little stone like the one David had. Yes, God powerfully used the little stone to remind the nation of Israel what was possible with God. But God gave us a Rock. Jesus destroys death so I need not be afraid to face my Goliaths with faith.

David knew a very simple truth. God plus one is a majority. No matter the situation. In David's case his faith in the living God was enough to inspire an entire army to find theirs. So as August begins its decline and school in now a few days old remember. God plus one is a majority. You have no idea what others struggle with, but when you face your struggles in faith the impact on others can be just what they need to find the courage and faith to face their Goliaths. Simply put, live in such a way to inspire others to become what God can make them. When the roar of Satan comes blasting into your life. Face fear with faith and watch God conquer because He can and will.

Good Bye, Guy Paul

By TEENA HUGHES

I have always said, "If you want to see the sweet face of Jesus, go to Camp New Dawn," our church camp for mentally-challenged adults.

Sunday, we lost one of the people who really was the "sweet face of Jesus," Guy Paul Hintergardt of Gruver.

Guy Paul and his brother Scott (also mentally-challenged) lived by themselves in Gruver. They served as managers of the football, basketball, baseball, and maybe other teams. Campers aren't supposed to call volunteers, but somehow Guy Paul got my phone number, and he would call me when the Gruver Greyhounds were doing good, especially in football. One year, Guy Paul brought a football program to camp. In it was a picture of Guy Paul and Scott with the caption, "World's Greatest Managers." When Gruver built a new baseball and softball field, Scott threw out the first pitch at one stadium; Guy Paul threw out the first pitch at the other.

Guy Paul had a great laugh. I never saw him get out of sorts with anyone, and no one could convince me he ever had a bad thought about anyone. He was just a fun, happy, sweet, kind, caring, loving child of God.

SO MUCH can be learned from Guy Paul, Scott, and the Gruver community, and it boils down to one word: LOVE! Guy Paul and Scott loved people, and people loved them. I have read several things about Guy Paul since his passing, all wonderful and kind things, but everyone wants prayers for Scott. Even though he would make me laugh by acting like Guy Paul was an irritation to him, Scott will dearly miss his brother.

Tonight is going to be a sad night when Guy Paul isn't on the sidelines of the Gruver vs West Texas High game, and it is going to be a sad Monday next June when Scott comes to camp without Guy Paul. Guy Paul wouldn't want us to be sad; he would want us to have fun and enjoy life, just like he did. May we all be Jesus to others, just like Guy Paul was Jesus to so many of us.

Dugan Butler, seated, celebrated her 100th birthday Wednesday, August 17. She was joined by George and Aundrea Frye as well as a number of Prairie Acres residents at a party in her honor. Dugan was born in Lubbock on August 17, 1916. She has been a resident of Friona since 2009.

Run/Walk details released

The Dixon 6 Mile Run and 2 Mile Walk will be held Saturday, September 17 beginning at 7 a.m. The top three runners, male and female, in each division will receive gift cards. Divisions are: ages 10-18, and 19 and over.

The six mile run will start four miles north on Hwy. 214, go around Reeve Lake, to the high school, down 6th Street and end at the Friona City Park on Main Street. The two mile walk will start at Reeve Lake and follow the same route as the six mile run to the high school, down 6th Street and to the finish line at the city park.

Proceeds from the event will go into a scholarship fund for high school seniors.

Entry fee is $5 per runner. Runners will be able to register the day of the race at Reeve Lake. For more information, contact Cindy Moreno at (806) 626-9436 or cmoreno@frionaisd.com.

HRMC hires new CEO

Hereford Regional Medical Center has hired a new CEO – Jeff Barnhart. Jeff was born and raised in Canyon, TX. He has a Bachelor's in Health Management from Ottawa University and a Master's in Science of Clinical Practice Management from Texas Tech University. Jeff is married to Marci and they have 2 daughters.

HRMC would like to invite the community to a reception welcoming Mr. Barnhart on Tuesday, August 30 from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. in the hospital Education Room. A special thanks to the hospital Board Members for working diligently with TORCH to find the right candidate to place of Deaf Smith County Hospital District.

Psalm 11—A Sure Refuge

BRETT HOYLE, Pastor, First Baptist Church

Have you ever done anything, sinful or even accidental, and your immediate reaction was to run and hide? Personally, breaking a window in Junior High, totaling a salesman's vehicle when I was in second grade, and falling asleep on a tractor going down the road and eliminating a fence along the way top the list for me. Whatever may be on your list, it is very likely that before you die, there will come more situations where you would like to run and hide, but God may have you do otherwise.

Psalm 11 is written in the midst of a tough situation where David seems to be tempted to run and hide from the wicked who are after him. Instead of slipping away, though, David affirms his resolution that "In the Lord I take refuge." Taking refuge in the Lord is not a feeling you get, but a resolution and a commitment to the truth that God is sovereign. The Lord has always been sovereign over His creation, He is sovereign over your sin and mess ups, and He will continue to be sovereign no matter who wins the election. Therefore, the question is if you will stick with Him, who is our sure refuge in uncertain times.

"For I know the plans I have for you," says the Lord. "They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope."

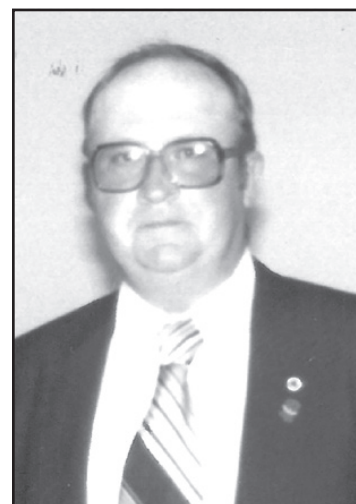

Jeremiah 29:11

OBITUARY

Mass of Christian Burial for Albert Charles Stengel Jr., 67, long-life resident of Hereford, TX were celebrated Monday, August 22, 2016 at St. Anthony's Catholic Church with Reverend Anthony Neusch, pastor, and Reverend Anthony Aakula, pastor, of St. Teresa's Catholic Church of Friona, as Celebrants. Interment will follow in Rest Lawn Memorial Park Cemetery under the direction of Parkside Chapel Funeral Home. Mr. Stengel passed away in Deaf Smith County on Friday, August 19, 2016.

Albert Charles Stengel, Jr. was born August 14, 1949 to Albert Charles Sr. and Rosalie Urbanczyk Stengel in Amarillo, TX. He went all through Hereford schools and graduated in 1967. He then attended WTSU graduating in 1972 with a degree in Agri-business. Albert was a member of the Knights of Columbus. He was a life-long farmer, and had a very recognizable laugh.

Survivors include one brother, Philip Stengel of Friona; one sister, Linda Adams and husband Donald of Bard, NM; nieces and nephew, Kelly, Heidi, and Casey; cousins, Gerald & Denise Marnell, Cindy, Katie, and Emily.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

The family suggests memorials in Mr. Stengel's name be made to a favorite charity or to St. Ann's Catholic Church, 401 3rd St., Bovina, Texas 79015.

Squaw volleyball update

From Coach Bryan Masse

Coach Bryan Masse has furnished details of the Squaw's volleyball season. This update is through Monday August 15. Here are the highlights.

Friona varsity volleyball season opened with a dual match in Amarillo vs. Holy Cross and West Texas High. In the first match the Squaws served really tough to a 25-7, 25-14, 25-9 win. Kim DeWit had 9 kills on 10 attempts. Bailey Pope and Paige Upton added 4 each and Erica Barrera had 2 kills. Taylor Stallings and Paige Upton had 11 serving aces each, Sabrina Baraza added 5 and Kendall Barnett had 4.

In the second match the Squaws continued to serve well with Stallings getting 9 aces, Upton 8, Pope 5, and DeWit and Barnett 3 each. DeWit had 12 kills, Pope 4, and Barnett 3. The back row did a good job passing the ball to Barnett who had a two match total of 43 assists.

We competed in the Shallowater tournament August 12-13. In pool play the Squaws defeated Brownfield in two straight games, 25-14, 25-18 for their third win of the season. Next up was Lubbock Christian. Friona swept the Lady Eagles 25-17, 25-18. To finish pool play the Squaws battled Graham and lost 21-25, 15-25.

On Saturday the Squaws drew the eventual winner, All Saints from Lubbock. Friona won the first game 25-23 and had a 15-8 lead in game two before mistakes cost them a 23-25 loss. In game three the ladies lost momentum and lost 18-25. In the second round Friona faced the Lubbock Titans. The Squaws returned to form and beat the Titans 25-15, 25-15.

In the finals of the silver bracket the Squaws were cold in game one and lost to Lamesa 21-25. In games two and three the Squaws served and passed better to win 25-19, 25-15.

Last week the teams traveled to Childress for matches with Childress and Sanford-Fritch. The C team won their only match with Childress 25-16, 26-24. The JV team won their first match with Childress 25-17, 28-26. Megan Stone scored 17 points from the serving line in game one and 5 points in game two. Emma Recitor was back from injury. Coach

Ray was pleased with Emma and Amelia Sandoval's play as the JV Squaws beat Sanford Fritch 25-9, 25-25.

At Childress the varsity started the dual match with Childress. The Squaws were steady in most phases of the game and came out with a 25-17, 25-15, 25-17 win. Kim DeWit had 17 kills out of 26 attempts. Paige Upton had 12 kills on 20 attempts. DeWit also had two solo blocks and Erica Barrera had a block. Kendall Barnett had 35 assists and 3 kills, Bailey Pope had 5 service aces and Taylor Stallings had three aces.

The girls did a good job passing and serving. In the second match the ladies beat Sanford-Fritch 25-14, 25-22, 25-10. DeWit had 12 kills on 19 attempts, Upton was 4 kills for 9 attempts, Barrera was 3 for 3 kills, and Bailey Pope and Mariah Trevino had two kills each.

DeWit had 4 solo blocks. Barnett had 23 assists and 5 service aces. Taylor Stallings had 3 service aces. Taylor, Bailey, Sabrina Baraza and Gabby Douglas did a good job passing the ball. The varsity is 8-2 on the season.

Since we have at least one person in our midst who turned 100 years old this month, I thought it might be nice to know what it was like 100 years ago and what was happening in the world. For example, 1916 was also a leap year, the U. S. population was 101,961,000. It was also an election year and Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, was re-elected in a narrow election on November 7 on the fact that he 'had kept America out of the war', World War I. Vice-President was Thomas Marshall from Indiana. Republican Teddy Roosevelt had turned down his party's nomination and had supported Charles Evans Hughes. Jeannette Rankin was the first woman representative elected to Congress.

The national debt was $970,624,590.00 in interest bearing debt and $1,506,180.26 in non-interest bearing debt. In 1916, the gold standard coins had been the $10 Eagle, the $5 half eagle and the $2.50 quarter eagle. A first class postage stamp cost 1 cent, postcard 1 cent and special delivery 10 cents, a loaf of bread 7 cents, average price of a car was $400 and a house $5,000. Coffee was 15 cents a pound and sugar 4 cents a pound. The 40 hour work week had just officially begun in Endicott-Johnson factories. Worker's Comp Act passed by Congress. Only 6% of Americans had graduated from high school and only 8% of American homes had telephones. The first supermarket "Piggly Wiggly" opened in Memphis, Tennessee. John D. Rockefeller becomes the world's first billionaire.

The light switch was invented. Einstein completed his formulation of his general theory of relativity. The first blood transfusion was carried out. First Boeing aircraft was flown. Tallest building in the world was the Eiffel Tower in Paris. Temperature in Montana went from 44 degrees down to -56 degrees the greatest drop on record. Saturday Evening Post published its first cover a Norman Rockwell painting. Monet painted his Water Lilies series. Coca Cola first brought its current formula to market. Charlie Chaplin accepts a film contract.

The 1st Professional Golfer Association Tournament was played. Chicago Cubs played their first game at Weeghman Park, now Wrigley Field. 2nd Rose Bowl game between State College of Washington and Brown University in Pasadena, California. Washington State won 14-0. 1st National U. S Women's Swimming Championships held. Boston Red Sox won the World Series and the Boston Marathon was in its 20th year. National Park Service is created. Georgia Tech coached by John Heisman defeated Cumberland 222-0 most lopsided victory in college football.

World War I was in full swing and the Germans used Zeppelins to bomb France as they had Britain earlier. Battle of Verdun began in February between Germany and France. U S tries to get Germany to end WWI. USA invades Cuba for the 3rd time. Pancho Villa invades the US in Columbus, New Mexico and 18 are killed. Irish Republicans rose against the British occupation in Dublin. U S asks Germany to curtail its submarine warfare and to stop torpedoing unarmed ships. U. S. Marines invade the Dominican Republic and U. S. stays until 1924. First cargo submarine arrives in the U. S. from Germany. President Wilson supports the idea of a League of Nations. British debut the use of tanks in war. French defeat the Germans in the Battle of Verdun, Dec. 15, 1916.

Texas A&M working with industry to strengthen vegetable production program

By Kay Ledbetter

Texas retailers want locally grown produce, and Texas A&M AgriLife is working to make that happen.

Dr. Bill McCutchen, Texas A&M AgriLife Research executive associate director in College Station, and Joseph Bunting, United Supermarkets produce director from Lubbock, talked about the need for Texas-grown produce at a recent Summer Crops Field Day near Bushland.

"Studies show 75 percent of shoppers select their grocery store based on the produce and the quality and freshness of that section," Bunting said. "Second is convenience and third is price, but quality and freshness are the main drivers to a grocery store. "We look to buy local first, then domestic, and if we can't get those, we look at importing," he told the crowd. "Currently, we have someone who grows squash and turnips for us. Another producer grows pecans, watermelons and cantaloupes. Another grows russet potatoes for us."

Bunting said he is excited to be talking with Dr. Charlie Rush, AgriLife Research plant pathologist in Amarillo, who is looking at high-value vegetable crop production under high tunnels, particularly tomatoes.

High tunnels are Quonset hut-type structures similar to greenhouses in appearance but lacking artificial heat. Rush's research is aimed at aiding producers in growing tomatoes on a commercial basis and being a consistent source for area retailers.

"Our meeting was timely because we've had a lot of farmers come to us in the past couple of years saying their crop consultants have suggested they diversify into the produce area," Bunting said. "We are very interested in that and have talked to farmers on what it would take to get them to grow produce. I think as we work together with the research projects going on here, we can get some more producers."

This is only one step in AgriLife's re-commitment to vegetables, McCutchen said.

"We recently examined what we were doing in research, and one of the things we were not doing well at Texas A&M was vegetables," he said. "Back in the '80s when I was going to school at Texas A&M, we were one of the top three in the nation. We had the mild jalapeno, which built an entire industry."

"For some reason, we lost our way. But we are going to get our way back again, because we are making investments."

McCutchen said about three years ago, Texas vegetable production was analyzed and it was determined the High Plains, South Plains, Overton, Wintergarden and Weslaco areas were prime growing regions.

"We import over 90 percent of our tomatoes to Texas," he said. "What's going on here? That's got to change."

McCutchen said after looking at the strengths, weaknesses and opportunities that face the vegetable growing industry in Texas, they determined Texas A&M has the faculty and staff capabilities with a good reputation and credibility.

"But the question was, were we trying to do more with less?" he said. "We knew we needed a critical mass for breeding new varieties. We got away from developing our own varieties. That's where our opportunities lie - developing our own new varieties and doing our own research."

Ramping up a program includes developing plant breeding and variety trials, cropping systems, integrated pest management, food safety and consumer and market research, McCutchen said. But it also meant getting the most efficient irrigation technology.

"If we are going to turn Amarillo and Lubbock into an oasis of vegetable crops, we are going to have to do this very efficiently with our water."

McCutchen said the advanced breeding and variety trials have been started, and AgriLife has made a significant commitment over the past year and a half by hiring seven faculty and putting them strategically around the state, mostly in the Rio Grande Valley and Wintergarden area.

Some of the top priority crops include onions, watermelons, cabbage, spinach, cantaloupes, citrus and tomatoes, he said.

Both McCutchen and Bunting talked about the cost to transport tomatoes from California or Mexico and the issues of shelf life, which meant picking them when they are not as ripe.

"If you can grow this produce within a 100- to 200-mile radius of the distribution facilities, there's an incredible opportunity here," McCutchen said. "This is the Texas Department of Agriculture, United, H-E-B and others saying this, not just me."

To build the program, McCutchen said it will be modeled after the wheat and small grains program within Texas A&M AgriLife.

"Texas A&M has the No. 1 wheat program in the country," he said. "We worked with our producers, with checkoff funds and protecting our germplasm and intellectual property, and now that money goes back into the research through royalties and it feeds off itself."

"We are going to do the same thing with vegetables, but it won't happen overnight. We are going to work with the growers, the vegetable association, retailers; we're going to have a management team and will have a vegetable working group."

He said the vegetable working group, much the same as the small grains group, will come up with good ideas and will talk with industry as well as retailers. Researchers will be offered seed grants to get projects started.

"They won't be large grants, but they will begin to feed the development of new varieties. Then the funding we get from intellectual property and royalties will continue to generate funds and continue to grow the program. We've seen this strategy work in the wheat program, and we are excited about using it to renew our strength in the vegetable industry."

Hartzogs elected Angus delegates

A.L. Hartzog, Jr. and Trudy Hartzog, of Bovina, have been elected as an alternate delegate to the 133rd Annual American Angus Association Convention of Delegates, November 7 at the Indiana Convention Center in Indianapolis, Indiana.

The Hartzogs are members of the American Angus Association and are two of the 260 Angus breeders who have been elected by fellow members to serve as an alternate state representative at the annual meeting. Representing 44 states and the District of Columbia, those serving as state delegates will participate in the business meeting and elect new officers and five directors to the American Angus Association board.

The American Angus Association is the nation's largest beef breed organization, serving nearly 25,000 members across the United States, Canada and several other countries. For more information about Angus cattle and the 2016 convention, visit www.ANGUS.org.

Texas wheat variety 'Picks' for High Plains released

By Kay Ledbetter

The Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service has released its "Picks" of annual grain wheat varieties for the 2016-2017 cropping season in the High Plains and Rolling Plains.

Dr. Jourdan Bell, Dr. Calvin Trostle and Dr. Emi Kimura, AgriLife Extension agronomists from Amarillo, Lubbock and Vernon, respectively, along with statewide small grains and oilseed specialist Dr. Clark Neely, compiled the list of Picks.

"Our ongoing Picks criteria include a minimum of three years of data in AgriLife wheat variety trials across numerous annual locations within each region of Texas," said Trostle. "As we have noted before, a Pick variety means this: Given the data, these are the varieties we would choose to include and emphasize on our farm for wheat grain production."

The data are derived from High Plains wheat grain testing coordinated by the Texas A&M AgriLife wheat breeding program based at Amarillo. Irrigated and dryland test sites range from Lamesa to Stratford, including a test site at New Mexico State University-Clovis.

Picks are not necessarily the numerical top yielders, he said. Disease-resistance traits such as leaf or stripe rust or wheat streak mosaic virus, or insect tolerance for greenbugs, Hessian fly or Russian wheat aphid are important.

Standability can also be an important varietal trait that is an important consideration for high input production. Considering multiple traits in addition to yield potential enables a producer to better manage potential risk and better position specific varieties for their management,

Bell said.

Among the top High Plains Picks are:

- Full irrigation - TAM 113, TAM 114, TAM 304, WB Grainfield, Iba and Winterhawk.

- Limited irrigation - TAM 111, TAM 112, TAM 113, TAM 114, WB Grainfield, Iba, T158 and Winterhawk.

- Dryland - TAM 111, TAM 112, TAM 113, TAM 114, WB Grainfield, Iba, T158 and Winterhawk.

"We initially discussed removing TAM 111 from our Picks list due to a modest decline in recent yields and its susceptibility to leaf and stem rust," she said. "However, TAM 111 is still a top-yielding variety in our regional variety trials."

"So, for producers, as long as you understand that good management, which will include timely scouting for rusts and treatment if needed, is an important key for TAM 111, then it remains a good choice."

TAM 114 has good across-the-board resistance to rusts, good straw strength, desirable milling and baking qualities, and also has intermediate resistance to some biotypes of Hessian fly, Bell said. WB Grainfield grain yields are good and key rust resistance is in place.

T158, a Limagrains product, is on the recommended list due to its tolerance to stripe rust under both dryland and limited irrigation.

On the two and three-year "watch list" are Gallagher, by Oklahoma State University, due to its good rust resistance, she said. Denali and Byrd, both from PlainsGold/Colorado State, show good yields and have generated discussion as possible Picks, though susceptibility to rusts is a concern.

"TAM 304 remains a viable choice for true high-input production systems with high irrigation, high nitrogen fertility applications, etc. where producers are shooting for yields at 100 bushels per acre or more," Bell said.

Kimura said the Picks list for the Rolling Plains region includes Greer by Syngenta; TAM 114, Texas A&M; WB Cedar, Monsanto; Gallagher, Oklahoma State; WB 4458, Monsanto; and TAM 304, Texas A&M. Yields are obtained only from dryland trials in the Rolling Plains.

Bentley and SY Grit are on the "watch list" for the Rolling Plains. Both have moderate to good resistance to leaf and stripe rust and have performed reasonably well in yield trials the past two years. In their first year of testing, Monsanto's WB 4721 and WB 4515 and Syngenta's SY Southwind did well across the Rolling Plains in 2016.

She said a more complete discussion of each variety can be found at <http://bit.ly/2bd3PMM>, including yield trends from past trials and photos of each variety taken during growing season in the Rolling Plains.

"Pick varieties with a minimum of three years under AgriLife testing in the High Plains continue to yield an average of 7-11 percent better as a group than all other varieties in both irrigated and dryland tests," Trostle said.

"Though you may have a variety for your production conditions that you really like, we encourage you to include one of our Picks in your cropping. Perhaps a Pick variety that has a specific disease package, which may have been valuable in the stripe rust outbreaks of 2015 and 2016, or relative maturity that contrasts with your current variety would be a good complement to your overall program."

For further discussion of wheat Pick varieties in the Texas High Plains consult "Pick Wheat Grain Varieties for the Texas High Plains and Eastern New Mexico (2016-2017)" available at <http://lubbock.tamu.edu/> or <http://bit.ly/1PjMAGL>. The full report will include the two-, three- and four-year averages calculated for irrigated, dryland, yield and test weight.

4-H News

By Tim Ally, 2016-17 4-H Reporter

My name is Tim Ally and I am a member of 4-H. We once again finished a great year. We had several meetings last year. We did the stockshow, passed clothes out for Prairie Acres, meat judging and livestock judging, that was such a great experience, and it was fun. We did community service and some boys and girls made a great scrapbook. Several boys and girls went to different camps. Those camps are so much fun.

The last meeting, we held an election for the coming year. Our new board is:

Hadley White, President
Adaline White, Vice President
Mason Fleming, Treasurer
Caden Bunker, Secretary
Tim Ally, Reporter

Our special thanks going to Jeri Lynn White. Without her we would not have a great 4-H in Friona. Our next meeting will be Sunday, August 28 at 3.30 p.m. at 2422 CR 17.

Everyone is always welcome for a great year of 4-H.

NOTICE OF 2016 TAX YEAR PROPOSED PROPERTY TAX RATE FOR PARMER COUNTY

A tax rate of $0.574300 per $100 valuation has been proposed by the governing body of PARMER COUNTY. This rate exceeds the lower of the effective or rollback tax rate, and state law requires that two public hearings be held by the governing body before adopting the proposed tax rate.

The governing body of PARMER COUNTY proposes to use revenue attributable to the tax rate increase for the purpose of Deferred maintenance, and (2)3% pay increase for county employees and certain elected officials.

|---------------------------|----------------------|
| PROPOSED TAX RATE | $0.574300 per $100 |
| PRECEDING YEAR'S TAX RATE | $0.541600 per $100 |
| EFFECTIVE TAX RATE | $0.536500 per $100 |
| ROLLBACK TAX RATE | $0.578300 per $100 |

The effective tax rate is the total tax rate needed to raise the same amount of property tax revenue for PARMER COUNTY from the same properties in both the 2015 tax year and the 2016 tax year.

The rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate that PARMER COUNTY may adopt before voters are entitled to petition for an election to limit the rate that may be approved to the rollback rate.

YOUR TAXES OWED UNDER ANY OF THE ABOVE RATES CAN BE CALCULATED AS FOLLOWS:

$$\text{property tax amount} = (\text{rate}) \times (\text{taxable value of your property}) / 100$$
