Mary Gail Rader
Wm. B. Worthen
Wed in Church Rites

Mary Gail Rader became the bride of William B. Worthen in a wedding ceremony in the sanctuary of the Central Methodist Church in Corsicana, Texas, Friday, June 18, at 7:30 p. m.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. J. C. Rader of Corsicana, former Crowell resident. The groom is the son of Mrs. Reynolds of Dallas. The bride is the granddaughter of F. M. Rader and Mr. and T. W. Lewis of Crowell.

Participating for the double ring ceremony was Rev. C. D. Reynolds, pastor of the Pleasant Methodist Church, step-father of the bridegroom. The wedding rites were read in front of a altar arrangement banked with huckleberry greenery, and highlighted with an arch of huckleberry, accented with white chrysanthemums. Standing candelabra, wound with greenery, held white cathedral tapers, providing soft illumination for the bridal setting, and wedding vows were exchanged while the young couple knelt on the white prieu dieu.

Honor attendants were Jim Cooley and Miss Virginia Hamilton, with little Miss Carolyn Campbell as flower girl.

Ushers were Wes Reese of Denton; Paul Smith Jr. of Houston; Mickey Engle and Dwayne Campbell. Candelighters were Bert Rader, brother of the bride, and Miss Harriet Halbert of Crowell.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Bryam Humphries at the organ. She also accompanied Mrs. Dewey Matthews who sang "One Hand, One Heart," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a wedding gown of ivory satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, overlaid with Chantilly lace, which formed the scallops on the Sabrina neckline. Covered buttons closed the bodice and the long sleeves, which ended in petal points at her wrists. The bouffant skirt fell gracefully into a cathedral train, enhanced with the lace motif. A large self-rose added back interest at the waistline, and her waist length veil of bridal silk illusion was caught to a pearl tiara. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow rosebuds and daisies.

At the reception in fellowship hall, parents of the young couple and bridal attendants assisted in receiving guests. The bride's table was laid in white net over white satin, and centered with an arrangement of daisies, flanked with silver candelabra and white tapers.

Miss Carol Daniel, Denton, served the three tiered, columned wedding cake, which was topped with lemon yellow rosebuds and white wedding bells. Miss Jackie Holt, Dallas, presided at the punch bowl.

Miss Carolyn Denton of Dallas was in charge of the bride's book, registering guests from Denton, Dallas, Cleburne, Holliday, Henrietta, Winsboro, Houston, Crowell, Corsicana and points in Indiana.

Following a wedding trip to Hot Springs, Ark., the young couple will make their new home at 2017 Sycamore, Apt. 4, Denton.

Both of the principals are graduates of Corsicana High School and attended Navarro Junior College. They are presently students at North Texas State University and the bridegroom is employed at the Nike Air Force Base.

Dr. and Mrs. David Campbell were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at the Corsicana Country Club.

July Is the Season for Fresh, Plentiful Foods

July is the season of freshness—in the form of fresh fruits and vegetables available in abundance at local markets, according to the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Featured on the plentiful foods list of the U. S. Department of Agriculture are fresh plums. In addition, fresh peaches, seasonal fresh vegetables and watermelons are plentiful. Also, there'll be plenty of frozen concentrated orange juice, milk and all other dairy products.

This year's plum crop is forecast at just slightly short of last year's record-large production. The peach crop estimate in the nine southern states is triple last year's short crop. Watermelon production is expected to be about 10 per cent greater than last year.

Stocks of frozen orange juice this year are nearly two-thirds above that of a year ago, so frozen concentrated orange juice should be abundant.

Time To Face Facts

Under Texas' so-called "right to work" law, the incomes of Texas people have fallen way behind the rest of the nation. Because most Texans have not had the right to bargain effectively for better wages, we have always been behind other states but things have actually gotten much worse since 1947 when the so-called right to work law was passed. Texas is one of the few states to have enacted this unfortunate and harmful law.

Thanks to the leadership of our Texan President, Lyndon B. Johnson, we now have a chance to put the family wage-earners of Texas back on an even basis with people throughout the nation. President Johnson has asked Congress to approve new labor legislation repealing the section of the Taft-Hartley law that has done so much to lower the average incomes of millions of Texans. This section is called 14-B. Let President Johnson know that Texans stand behind him in his program to help the wage earners of Texas. Write your Congressman today and ask him to support the President by voting to repeal section 14-B of Taft-Hartley. You'll be helping the economy of Texas and helping your children to grow up in a state with greater opportunity for all in the years ahead.

 by Marion Crowell

If I could whip out a quick cartoon, I would draw a huge crown, squarely in between three little leaguers. The crown would be labelled "Foard County Little League," with the three ball players labelled VFW, Crowell State Bank and Farmers Elevator, with each one clutching for the crown and only missing it by half an inch.
 To VFW, all this is strictly an Alfred Hitchcock ending. What a revolting turn of events! With a 3 1/2-game lead a week ago, it appears, as we go to press, that VFW might—after having led the league all season long—drop the crown in the final week (or even the final game!).
 The destiny of VFW's baseball team seems to hinge on the good right arm of one Jessie Barrera. Needing one more win to cinch a tie for the crown, last week Big Jessie had his roughest night of the season, walking eleven men. Perhaps Lynch will get back in time to help win one game. Maybe not. Maybe big Jessie will come through with enough pitching to win one. Maybe you already know as you read this column. Regardless of what happens, this is the closest, weirdest finish of "em all. Little League championships many times are determined, not by those on the field, but by those absent from the field!

Last week was one of personal triumph for Danny Naylor (this-ing-wise), but his team just still couldn't win. His three home runs for the week put him into a tie for second place in the home run marathon (Jessie Barrera leads him with five) . . . Did you, as I did, wonder what Richard Blackburn said to his son last Tuesday night? I asked and found out: "I just told him to stay in that batter's box and hit that ball." P. S. Son Jackie did (a sizzling line-drive to left center field on the next pitch!).

 John Urquiza is not a ten-year-old. Investigation shows him to have been eleven years old on the 26th day of June . . . so his Little League age is eleven.
 Plans are shaping up for our tournament of July 22. Official notice has been sent to Knox City. Awards have been purchased. Notice was sent to the All-Star manager at KC that he could pick his night to practice on our field. Starting a week earlier this season has enabled us to hold off the All-Star selecting until the season's end . . . which is highly desirable.
 This column is being written on the night of July 4. I wish I knew what's gonna happen this week in L. L.!

Card of Thanks
 I want to thank the doctor and the hospital staff for the excellent care I received while a patient there. I also want to thank my friends and neighbors for the flowers and cards. May God bless each one of you.
 Mrs. Dan Brisco.

Miss Nelda Chappell and Loy Hopkins Wed Here on June 25th

Miss Nelda Ruth Chappell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn D. Chappell of Alamosa, Colorado, became the bride of Loy Keith Hopkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane L. Hopkins of Crowell at 8 o'clock Friday evening, June 25, in the home of the groom's parents.

Bro. Welton E. Nickel, Minister of the Eastside Church of Christ, and Rev. Glenn Willson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, jointly performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her cousin, Miss Phoebe Strother of Dimmitt, served as maid of honor. Bob Hopkins, the groom's brother of Vernon, was best man, and Miss Lisa Hopkins, the groom's niece, also of Vernon, was flower girl.

Mac Strother of Dimmitt, cousin of the bride, sang "Whither Thou Goest," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Walter Stapp of Crowell, who also provided traditional wedding music for the ceremony.

The bride's floor-length gown was of white satin, with a long-sleeved lace bodice. The semi-full skirt was pleated at a "V" waistline and swept to a short train. The bodice was adorned with a scalloped neckline and tiny buttons at the sleeves and down the back.

A large satin rose held the layers of tulle in her veil, and white carnations composed her bouquet. The maid of honor was dressed in a blue satin, floor-length dress and a short veil of tulle topped by a satin bow. Her bouquet was of blue and white carnations. The flower girl was also dressed in blue and carried a basket of rose petals.

After the ceremony, the guests, and relatives of the couple attended a reception also in the groom's parents' home. Mrs. Bob Hopkins, sister-in-law of the groom; Mrs. Virgil T. Lindsey, aunt of the groom, both of Vernon; and Mrs. R. B. Strother, aunt of the bride, of Dimmitt, assisted with the serving.

The guests registered at a table adorned with blue tapers and an arrangement of pink roses and two white "doves."

Miss Foster and Mr. Masters Married in Floydada June 26

Miss Helen Fay Foster and Burl Wilson Masters exchanged wedding vows in an impressive ceremony read in the First Baptist Church in Floydada Saturday, June 26.

Rev. Floyd C. Bradley, minister, was assisted in performing the double ring vows by Rev. H. S. Calahan Jr. of Abilene, uncle of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Garland C. Foster and the late Mr. Foster of Floydada and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leldon Masters of Andrews.

Prelude of traditional music was presented by organist, Mrs. Bill Hardin, who also accompanied Mrs. Melvin Lloyd, as she sang, "O Jesus We Have Promised" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A large screen of commode formed the wedding scene, which was flanked by white wrought iron and baskets of white gladiolus. Spiral candelabrum and floor palms of commode completed the setting.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Alton R. Griffin of Lubbock, wore an original gown of candlelight peau de soie designed with a chapel train, scooped neckline and elbow length sleeves. The fitted bodice and front skirt panel were enhanced with appliques of re-embroidered lace and seed pearls. Her waist-length bridal veil was attached to a matching peau de soie pillbox with lace medallions embroidered in seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with showers of small satin ribbons and white maline that held a large white Cattleya orchid.

For something old she wore a gold locket that her mother received as a child and wore at her wedding. For something new she designed and made her wedding gown, something borrowed was the veil belonging to Mrs. Robert Ragdale and something blue was the traditional blue garter, a gift from Mrs. W. O. Newberry. The bride also wore a sixpence in her shoe brought from New Zealand.

Following a short honeymoon, the couple returned to Crowell to make their home.

by her uncle, dated the year of her birth.

Feminine attendants were Miss Linda Foster, sister of the bride, maid of honor; Miss Sue Foster, also a sister, bridesmaid; and Mrs. Fred R. Thayer, Lubbock, bridesmatron.

They were attired in identical dresses of pale pink imported Jacquard cotton, featuring portrait necklines, short sleeves and floor length bell shaped skirts. Each carried a Colonial type bouquet of pink and white feathered carnations highlighted by large pink satin leaves. Their head pieces were tiny petal hats with circular veils.

Misses Rhoda Griffin, Odessa, and Betty Jane Oster, Pecos, both cousins of the bride, were candlelighters. They wore street length dresses and wristlets of small feathered carnations.

Leldon S. Masters, Andrews, served his brother as best man, and Ray Don Foster, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Groomsmen were Rob R. Blackmore, Lubbock, and Charles Simpson, Dallas.

A reception in the parlor of the chapel followed the wedding. Guests were registered by Miss Dian Calahan, Abilene, cousin of the bride. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Jim Broome of Lubbock and Mrs. James Sims of Crosbyton. Other members of the house party were Mrs. Clarence Oster of Pecos, Mrs. Riley R. Griffin of Odessa, and Mrs. H. S. Calahan Jr. of Abilene, aunts of the bride, and Mmes. Floyd Boren, T. L. Hollard Jr., Orval Newberry and Ralph Thayer.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Santa Fe, N. M., the couple will be at home at 3715 23rd St. in Lubbock.

The bride is a graduate of Floydada High School and received her BS degree in home economics from Texas Tech in May, 1965. Her husband is a graduate of Lovington, N. M., High School, and received a BS degree in park management from Tech in January, 1965. He is employed by the City of Lubbock Planning Department.

New Family in Crowell Appreciates Friends

The News has received the following letter from Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Reynolds, relative newcomers to Crowell. Mr. Reynolds is employed by the West Texas Utilities Co. in Crowell. The letter follows:

Dear Editor: Please allow me the opportunity to tell about and say "thank you" to the wonderful people we have found in Crowell.

We have been in Crowell only about 2 months and in that short time, we have undergone a great trial in the life of our eldest son, Harvey Wayne. Harvey underwent surgery for the third time since we came to Crowell, at Wichita General Hospital. Instead of finding ourselves alone at this time, we found ourselves blessed with an abundance of friends, willing to share our load, not because of anything we had done for them, because to most of them we were barely acquainted. But because they had the spirit of Christ. "Love thy neighbor as thyself." We would like to say God bless you each and everyone for every kind thought, every prayer and every deed of love. Thank you for the beautiful cards and gifts. God bless you all.

The Tommie Reynolds Family.

Pioneer Circle

The Pioneer Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday, July 4, in the home of Mrs. Charlie Bryson with Mrs. Bryson as hostess.

The meeting began with the singing of "Blessed Assurance." Mrs. J. N. Ribble was leader. She used "We Would See Jesus" as her theme, emphasizing that spiritual renewal sources are the Lord Jesus, the Bible, prayer, worship and the discipline of daily living.

After the program, a period of fellowship and conversation was enjoyed, ending with the serving of refreshments by the hostess.

V. F. W. Faltering in Little League

League standings:

W	L	%
V. F. W.	11	5.688
Crowell State Bank	9	6.600
Farmers Elevator	9	6.600
Foard County Mill	2	14.125

Although still ahead and having been out-front throughout each week in the current campaign, VFW's Veterans, minus the services of their diminutive short-stop and sparkplug, Bill Lynch, seem to be faltering on the eve of the final week of play.

Having lost two-in-a-row this past week to Farmers Elevator, VFW must win one game this week to win a tie for the league title.

Crowell State Bank maintained the pace with two victories over Foard County Mill. Any one of the three top teams has a mathematical chance at the crown.

Details of last week's games are as follows:

Tuesday, June 29, 6 p. m.: Farmers Elevator 9, VFW 8. Lee J. Whitley was the hero of this one as he relieved Urquizo in the first inning, put out the fire, and got stronger as he went along for the balance of the contest.

Junior Urquizo hit two-for-two for the only hits off Jessie Barrera, but Barrera had difficulty in throwing strikes, walking eleven, and four errors by his mates contributed to their downfall.

Ken Sellers hit three-for-three for VFW, and David Stapp hit one-for-three.

Tuesday, June 29, 8 p. m.: Crowell State Bank 10, Foard County Mill 9. Danny Naylor pitched and hit his way to a 9-4 lead for four innings in this one, but he allowed five hits in the fifth frame, along with two walks and an error to see the Braves pull away with the victory.

Bill Erwin's hit was the clincher after Buff Nelson's double had tied the ball game. Nelson hit two-for-two for the Braves, scoring three runs, while Bill Erwin, Frog Smith, Billy Hollenbaugh and Rex Driver each came through with one hit. Driver's double play was also a feature of this game.

For Foard County Mill, Danny Naylor hit two home runs and a single to lead the Cards to near-victory. David Myers and Jackie Blackburn each contributed one hit.

Friday, July 2, 6 p. m. Crowell State Bank 17, Foard County Mill 7. Trailing 17-1 going into the final frame, Foard County Mill rallied for five runs (including a three-run homer by Danny Naylor) to make the score respectable. The Braves had hammered away with thirteen hits, and the Cards had helped the scoring by committing eight errors.

Rex Driver, with three-for-four, led the Bank hitters and also sparked in the field. Frog Smith and Pat Cates each hit two-for-five, and one hit each was garnered by Buff Nelson, Jackie Thomas, Bill Erwin, Billy Hollenbaugh, Steve Black and David Fish.

For the Mill crew, Ishmael Santos hit two-for-three; Danny Naylor hit two-for-four, and David Myers, Bob Burkett and Kenneth Abbott each slashed out one hit.

Friday, July 2, 8 p. m.: Farmers Elevator 17, VFW 1. Junior Urquizo and younger brother, John (one inning) collaborated in a four hitter in this one to smash VFW's Lynchless Veterans by an overwhelming score.

For the Yankees, Mike Weathered hit two-for-three; Lee J. Whitley and John Urquizo hit two-for-four; Larry Bursley hit two-for-five, and Junior Urquizo hit one-for-four.

Ken Sellers led the Vet hitters with a two-for-three performance, with David Stapp and Jessie Barrera each banging out one hit.

This week's play winds up the scheduled play with VFW playing Crowell State Bank, and with Foard County Mill trying Farmers Elevator.

In the PeeWee League Thursday, July 1, the Tigers won their second straight game to throw that league into a tie. Tonight's game (Thursday) should decide the winner of the PeeWee League.
