ANOTHER BIG RAIN SUNDAY; 5.12 INCHES

Another deluge of rain falling over this area Sunday night brought the official measurement to 5.12 inches. As was the case a month ago when Crowell received 8.6 inches, the water coursed out of creek banks and crossed highways during the night. For a time, Highway Department personnel had to stop traffic on U. S. 70 east of town.

This 5.12 inches, together with the .58 inch received October 4 and 5, brings the October total up to 5.70 inches. This, added to the 9.2 inches received Sept. 18-19, brings the 30-day total up to 14.9 inches. This is about four inches more than was recorded here the remainder of the year and brings the total for the year to nearly 25 inches.

The heavy rain Sunday night did damage again to the land and fences. Fences were again washed out, and land was washed severely.

Some of the young wheat was washed out. Probably, most of the tanks which were washed out during the September rain were refilled if the dams had been repaired.

The heavy rains at Thalia did considerable flooding to homes there. Paradise Creek went out of its banks surrounding many homes in Thalia with water.

A large truck ran off the pavement in high water about 1 a. m. Monday a mile west of Thalia. August Rummel of the Riverside community said Monday that the land in that area looked as if it washed worse this rain than it did from the 8-incher.

The recent rains have put sub-soil moisture in the ground that has not been present in Foard County for several years.

About 5 inches was also reported in the Truscott area, and the rain was general over the entire Foard County.

Damage was also reported as heavy in the Truscott area where terraces and tank dams were destroyed.

Hightower Endorses Liquor Control Board Stand on Teen-Agers

State Senator Jack Hightower this week declared he is squarely behind Coke Stevenson Jr., administrator of the Liquor Control Board, in the latter's effort to prevent employment of teenagers in places of business where alcoholic beverages are sold and dispensed.

Stevenson's recent directive of the subject was sent to holders of alcoholic beverage licenses and managers of private clubs who members are permitted to consume alcoholic beverages. Interested parties have been presenting Stevenson to waive or ignore statutory provisions governing employment of minors in liquor stores, Hightower said.

Attention was called to provisions of the Texas Liquor Control Act which prohibits employment of persons under 18 to assist in the sale or dispensing of alcoholic beverages. Employees of liquor stores or wine only package stores must be 21 years of age according to the statute.

"I'm pleased to see the Liquor Control Board taking action to enforce these laws," said Hightower. "In fact, I'm personally opposed to 18-year-old boys and girls working in such places, they're too young to drink alcoholic beverages under our law. It seems reasonable that they should be too young to sell to other people."

Senator Hightower further stated that enforcement is difficult under the best of circumstances and praised Stevenson's efforts to enforce provisions of the law regarding employment of minors in licensed establishments.

Better Times...for You

No other word than "if" starts off so many hard-luck stories. No other word explains so many failures. Yet it's the backward-looking word which crystallizes our experience... and when used as a guide, enables us to look forward with more wisdom.

For example, we might say "If every dollar of local money that has been needlessly spent outside of this trade area in past years had been spent at home, those of us who live in this community would be more prosperous, happier and more secure."

And thus contemplating what might have been... IF... we can make our plans and our resolutions to avoid the costly habits we have let ourselves take up in the past.

We can see more clearly how a dollar here and a dollar there... saved from dribbling away into the economic life-stream of some other community, will soon add up to brighter and more prosperous times... for us and our children, and for our friends and neighbors.

Paul, God began to form "the Church which is Christ's body" (Eph. 1:22, 23; Col. 1:24, 25). This is the Church of today, and it is founded, not on Christ as King, but as the exalted Lord and Head of the "one body" (I Cor. 12:13).
Paul does not present Christ as Messiah, but as Lord. In Rom. 10:9, he declares:
"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." Again, in I Cor. 12:3: "No man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Spirit." And again in Phil. 2:9-11 he declares that God has highly exalted Christ and given Him a name above every name, "that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."
Have you confessed Him as your Lord and Savior?

Blue Catfish Moved 600 Miles

Ten thousand blue catfish, reared in a Texas Parks and Wildlife Department fish hatchery at San Angelo were transported by tank truck over 600 miles and released in Meredith Reservoir north of Amarillo in an effort to adequately stock this new lake.
The long haul was necessary since only a few of Texas Parks and Wildlife Department hatcheries are rearing blue catfish in sufficient quantities for large scale stocking.
The release of the 10,000 blue catfish in Lake Meredith will complete a lengthy stocking program for the new lake which included thousands of black bass, walleye, channel catfish, crappie and blue catfish.

Air Force Needs German Shepherds for Viet Nam Duty

The Air Force's urgent need for German Shepherds to be trained at the U. S. Air Force Sentry Dog School at Lackland Air Force Base was sharply pointed-up this week when 50 Lackland-trained sentry dog teams left in the second such shipment to Viet Nam.

Since the 50 teams were drawn from their bases of assignment throughout the United States, the school has the task of replacing them. The Animal Procurement Branch at Lackland, which supplies the school with dogs, needs "a thousand German Shepherd dogs as soon as possible," according to base officials.

The Air Force at Lackland is responsible for procuring all German Shepherds required by all the military services for all the training of the teams used in this country by the Army as well as the Air Force.

Requirements for dogs took a sharp upswing after word was received at Lackland that the experimental Project Top Dog 45, which sent 40 sentry dog teams to Viet Nam July 11, was working out well.

U. S. commanders in Viet Nam, impressed with the team's performance, requested more teams in addition to the ones being trained for duty throughout the United States. And the Sentry Dog School was already critically short of student dogs.

Owners of German Shepherds who wish to donate or sell their dogs for sentry dog duty are urged to contact the animal procurement branch at Lackland AFB.

Needed are German Shepherds between one and three years old. Among other requirements, dogs must weigh at least 60 pounds and stand at least 23 inches high at the shoulder. Either males or females are acceptable provided females are spayed at least 90 days before acceptance.

Teams shipped to Viet Nam in the experimental Project Top Dog 45 provided valuable information about how dogs and handlers react.

Veterinarians, who kept a close eye on the original 40 dogs, report they adjust well to heat and humidity after three to seven days. The only medical problem, the parasitic hookworm, is relatively minor—and improved kennel facilities now under construction in Viet Nam will eliminate it.

The dogs in Viet Nam receive the same diet as those in the United States. Water is purified and filtered, and is the same as that drunk by handlers and other personnel.

Some dogs are so well adjusted they now alert their handlers against snakes as well as infiltrators. Handlers have learned to distinguish between the alert signals.

Officials say a sentry dog team can patrol territory which required three men previously, thus releasing more trained men for combat. These teams are considered as effective as a cocked weapon for patrol and detection duties.

Hatchery Completes Final Distribution

San Angelo's two fish hatcheries have distributed 1,685,825 black bass and 379,359 channel catfish this year despite limited operation due to water shortage, according to A. E. Pettit, hatchery superintendent.

Only four hatchery ponds comprising nine surface acres were used to produce black bass for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. Twenty-one ponds totaling 14 surface acres were devoted to catfish production.

The last shipment of 117,500 fingerling catfish were released in Lake Meredith on the Canadian River approximately 350 miles from San Angelo.

Efforts Must Be Mightily Resisted

From the Moline, Illinois, Daily Dispatch: "It would be carrying it too far for the country to drift from medicare to full-blown socialized medicine, in which all of the medical needs of the entire population are taken care of by a tax-financed operation run from Washington. Many who want the country to go all the way regard medicare as a foot in the door. Their efforts must be mightily resisted."

Teachers Attend Workshops During Past Week

On Saturday, October 16, Mrs. Vera Manard attended the District VII Texas English and Language Arts workshop at S. H. Rider High School in Wichita Falls.

The subject for the workshop—sponsored by the Texas Joint English Committee for School and College—was "New Challenges for Teachers of English."

Approximately 120 teachers were in attendance. Abilene Christian College was chosen to be the host for the 1966 session.

Tuesday, Oct. 12, Mrs. R. G. Rasberry and Mrs. Lewis Sloan attended a reading workshop at Midwestern University in Wichita Falls held by Miss Dorothy Kendall Bracken, who is president of the International Reading Association and head of the Corrective Reading Clinic at Southern Methodist University.

The International Reading Conference has a membership of 40,000. Miss Bracken could not imagine any school not having at least one or two memberships. A membership includes the "Journal of Reading" and costs $4.25.

"Self-proclaimed reading specialists are no good and pressure from lay people to teach three-year-olds is no good," said Miss Bracken. "Some so-called specialists claim they can teach a three-year-old to read the Bible. This can be done by phonics—only word calling in this instance. All phases of teaching reading are important and listening is most important. Any child should develop a good sight vocabulary. Phonics has its place, but in many instances too much stress has been placed on this phase.

"The basal reading program in any teachers' manual has been carefully laid out by people who have spent years in careful research with those who are best in the field. If teachers would work as hard on their manuals as they do on a phonics program, how much could be accomplished. Minimize the mechanics of reading so that more time can be spent on the meaning.

"A certain reading clinic in Dallas runs a daily advertisement claiming that it can teach people to read 5,000 words per minute. It is physically impossible for the eye muscles to move faster than 900 words per minute. Anything more than that is only scanning the material.

"The vowels should not be taught first as many cannot move their eyes to the middle of the word. Children should be screened with a telebinocular. We need to know how they read at eighteen inches. We must have proof; we must have people who will listen; we must put all things together to consider."

of life. These conclusions were developed in a survey of more than 300 outstanding high school science students who attended the recent National Youth Conference on the Atom in Chicago. Of the hundreds queried, fully 85 per cent of the young men and women stated they were devoutly religious, attended church regularly, and were active in their church organizations."

Vandalism Costs Taxpayers Plenty

Vandalism and disrespect for public property in the National Forests of Oregon and Washington alone is costing taxpayers about $70,000 a year—enough to build a completely equipped 60-unit campground—according to the regional forester. Malicious vandalism has ranged from destruction of signs and picnic tables to burglary of a forest guard station.

"Good Buys" This Week

Larger supplies of poultry than a year ago are resulting in attractive prices on fryers and turkeys, reports Mrs. Gwen Clatt, Texas A&M University Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Birds of all sizes are available at economical price levels.

If you are buying turkey, remember that the larger birds will yield more meat in proportion to bone, she says.

Another good meat choice this week is beef. It remains plentiful with little or no price change except for cuts placed on "special" at some markets. Round steaks, chuck and other cuts for pot roasting and ground beef are among the better buys.

Eggs remain a good protein choice during October, designated in some markets as "Egg-tober" time. Prices are only slightly higher than they were a year ago.

Good quality vegetables are available at most markets, as larger-than-usual harvests of lima beans, snap beans, beets, cabbage, sweet corn, green peas, winter spinach and tomatoes continue to arrive. New crop grapefruit and cranberries are appearing in many stores. Tokay grapes continues as one of the most economical fruit choices. Bananas, pineapples and pears are in good supply, and honey dew melon quality is excellent.

Immense Market

... there is an immense market outside the United States for all the food this nation could produce. The market consists of the around 500 million people in the world who are trying to get by—and generally failing—on a starvation diet... If a program were adopted whereby the United States would raise as much food as its farmers wanted to and sell it overseas, it would have a profound effect both on the buying countries and the United States." —Alameda, Calif., Times-Star.

Three Ways to Bond Fabrics

More bonded fabrics are on the market this winter than before, says Mrs. Lynn Stiles, extension consumer specialist at Texas A&M University. Manufacturers that in a few years about 90 percent of all fashion fabrics including linens and bedspreads will be bonded.

Consumers often ask why bonded fabrics separate from the rest of manufacturing process. There are three types of bonding methods used in making fabrics:

1. Adhesives glue the fibers together. This is the least expensive process and the most successful as the blue is dissolved by solvents used in cleaning process.

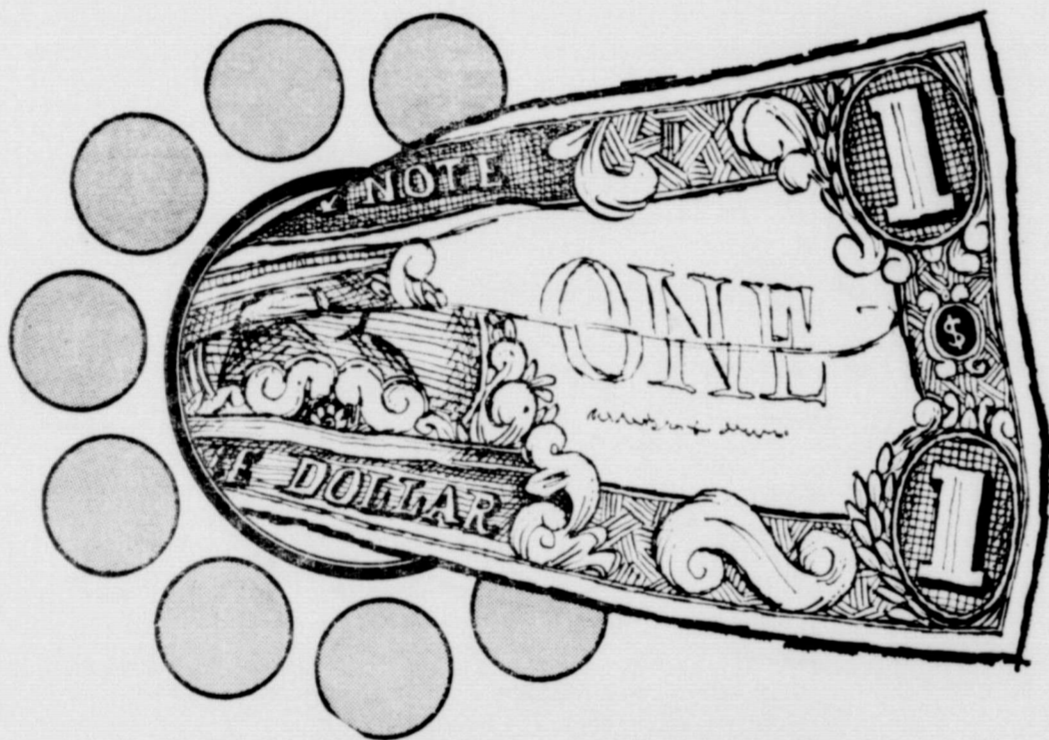

2. Heat setting a polymer foam between two fabrics, expensive but lasts longer. It is not destroyed by cleaning solvents. This method, however, is so thin that it is difficult to distinguish from the fabric.

3. Lockknit fabrics consist of two layers connected by the weaving process. This is found in clothing because of the expense of the process.

Mrs. Stiles suggests that consumers buy bonded fabrics fully and look for the grade of permanent bonding on the label.

From the News...

THIRTY YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the Thursday, Oct. 17, 1935, issue of The Foard County News:

A bill authorizing the creation of the "Pease River Flood Control District" passed at the special session of the Legislature and will be signed by Governor Allred, according to information received by The News in a telegram yesterday from George Moffett of Chillicothe, representative from this district.

A crew of six men arrived here this week to do telephone line construction work between Crowell and a few surrounding towns.

Crowell won its first conference game of the season last Thursday night defeating the Burk Burnett Bulldogs 20 to 7 before about one thousand people at the local stadium.

Construction was completed this week on a combination garage and servant house at the T. S. Haney home which replaced the structure that was practically destroyed by fire on August 31.

"Get down to work and stay at work," stated Governor Allred in a message to the Texas Legislature Tuesday in its second special session. The Legislature convened at high noon, after having adjourned the first session at midnight. The only subject submitted thus far for the second special session was the matter of providing old-age pensions. At the first session, the Legislature failed to pass liquor control, pension and county salary bills or any substantial revenue-raising measures, all of which had been submitted.

Mrs. A. Y. Beverly, Mrs. W. C. McKown and Miss Minnie Ringgold spent Thursday in Wichita Falls visiting Mrs. L. A. Beverly.

At a meeting held at the court house last Saturday afternoon, it was decided to organize a Garden Club in Foard County and the following officers were elected: Mrs. H. Schindler, president; Mrs. Esca Brown, vice president; and Miss Maye Andrews, secretary and treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Self and little daughter, Rondyn, returned Wednesday from Dallas where Mr. Self attended a showing of 1936 Ford V-8 cars at a dealers' meeting.

A general mass meeting of all farmers in Foard County will be held in the district court room in Crowell Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. This meeting has been called by the chairmen of all commodity associations, which are wheat, cotton and corn-hog organizations. It was stated that this meeting vitally concerns those interested in the AAA programs.

The News received a letter from J. M. Russell last week requesting that his address be changed from Los Angeles to Desert Center, Calif. He is working for the Aqueduct Construction Co., which is building an irrigation dam on the Colorado River down through the desert and Imperial Valley of California. He expects to be in Desert Center until June, 1936.

O'Connell's will be the scene of the regular monthly banquet of the Farmers and Business Men's Association which will be held Monday night.

Roll call was answered by eight members with "my favorite meat." Mrs. Thomas read "Be Strong" as opening exercise and also served as hostess at the home of Miss Maymie Lee Collins.

Mrs. Warren Haynie and Mrs. Clarence Garrett gave reports on their trip to THDA state meeting in Austin. Rally Day will be at the community center on Nov. 4 from 10 to 3. There will be a display of handwork and a white elephant sale with Mrs. Willie Garrett as auctioneer. Each person is asked to bring a covered dish for the "tasting" party at noon.

Mrs. J. G. Adeock read and discussed the ten proposed amendments to the state constitution at a meeting of the Truscott Home Demonstration Club on Thursday, Oct. 14, at the Truscott Community House. Mrs. H. P. Gillespie was hostess.

The program leader emphasized the importance of voting on the amendments and invited questions from the group as each amendment was read.

Roll call was answered with the name of a person in public office. Mrs. W. M. Rake read "Being a Good Citizen."

Opening songs were led by Mrs. J. R. Brown. Mrs. J. M. Chowning read the THDA prayer and Mrs. W. R. Owens brought the devotional from the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians.

Mrs. Rake presided at the business meeting. All were reminded of the leadership training meeting in Benjamin Nov. 10-11. This meeting is for everyone in the county and will benefit anyone working with an organized group from a decorating committee to a convention, according to the county program building committee which is sponsoring the workshop.

Following the council report by Mrs. Rake, the Truscott club voted to ask the council to combine achievement day and the council Christmas party again this year. Members were reminded the district meeting will be in Breckenridge and the state meeting in Corpus Christi this year.

"Good Buys" This Week

Larger supplies of poultry than a year ago are resulting in attractive prices on fryers and turkeys, reports Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, Texas A&M University Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Birds of all sizes are available at economical price levels.

If you are buying turkey, remember that the larger birds will yield more meat in proportion to bone, she says.

Another good meat choice this week is beef. It remains plentiful with little or no price change except for cuts placed on "special" at some markets. Round steaks, chuck and other cuts for pot roasting and ground beef are among the better buys.

Eggs remain a good protein choice during October, designated in some markets as "Egg-tober" time. Prices are only slightly higher than they were a year ago.

Good quality vegetables are available at most markets, as larger-than-usual harvests of lima beans, snap beans, beets, cabbage, sweet corn, green peas, winter spinach and tomatoes continue to arrive. New crop grapefruit and cranberries are appearing in many stores. Tokay grapes continue as one of the most economical fruit choices. Bananas, pineapples and pears are in good supply, and honey dew melon quality is excellent.

Immense Market

"... there is an immense market outside the United States for all the food this nation could produce. The market consists of the around 500 million people in the world who are trying to get by—and generally failing—on a starvation diet... If a program were adopted whereby the United States would raise as much food as its farmers wanted to and sell it overseas, it would have a profound effect both on the buying countries and the United States."

Three Ways to Bond Fabrics

More bonded fabrics are on the market this winter before, says Mrs. Lynn Stiles, extension consumer specialist at Texas A&M University. Manufacturers that in a few years about 90 percent of all fashion fabrics will be bonded.

Consumers often ask how bonded fabrics separate, of manufacturing process, and how long they will last. There are three types of bonding methods used in making fabrics:

1. Adhesives glue the fibers together. This is the least expensive process and the most successful as the blue is dissolved by solvents used in cleaning process.

2. Heat setting a polymer foam between two fabric layers is not destroyed by cleaning solvents. This method, however, is so thin that it is difficult to distinguish it from the fabric.

3. Locklined fabrics consist of two layers connected by the weaving process. This is found in clothing because of the expense of the bonding process.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the Thursday, Oct. 17, 1935, issue of The Foard County News:

A bill authorizing the creation of the "Pease River Flood Control District" passed at the special session of the Legislature and will be signed by Governor Allred, according to information received by The News in a telegram yesterday from George Moffett of Chillicothe, representative from this district.

A crew of six men arrived here this week to do telephone line construction work between Crowell and a few surrounding towns.

Crowell won its first conference game of the season last Thursday night defeating the Burkburnett Bulldogs 20 to 7 before about one thousand people at the local stadium.

Construction was completed this week on a combination garage and servant house at the T. S. Haney home which replaced the structure that was practically destroyed by fire on August 31.

"Get down to work and stay at work," stated Governor Allred in a message to the Texas Legislature Tuesday in its second special session. The Legislature convened at high noon, after having adjourned the first session at midnight. The only subject submitted thus far for the second special session was the matter of providing old-age pensions. At the first session, the Legislature failed to pass liquor control, pension and county salary bills or any substantial revenue-raising measures, all of which had been submitted.

Mrs. A. Y. Beverly, Mrs. W. C. McKown and Miss Minnie Ringgold spent Thursday in Wichita Falls visiting Mrs. L. A. Beverly.

At a meeting held at the court house last Saturday afternoon, it was decided to organize a Garden Club in Foard County and the following officers were elected: Mrs. H. Schindler, president; Mrs. Esca Brown, vice president; and Miss Maye Andrews, secretary and treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Self and little daughter, Rondyn, returned Wednesday from Dallas where Mr. Self attended a showing of 1936 Ford V-8 cars at a dealers' meeting.

A general mass meeting of all farmers in Foard County will be held in the district court room in Crowell Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. This meeting has been called by the chairmen of all commodity associations, which are wheat, cotton and corn-hog organizations. It was stated that this meeting vitally concerns those interested in the AAA programs.

The News received a letter from J. M. Russell last week requesting that his address be changed from Los Angeles to Desert Center, Calif. He is working for the Aqueduct Construction Co., which is building an irrigation dam on the Colorado River down through the desert and Imperial Valley of California. He expects to be in Desert Center until June, 1936.

O'Connell's will be the scene of the regular monthly banquet of the Farmers and Business Men's Association which will be held Monday night.

Mrs. J. G. Cooper Attends State Cancer Meeting

Mrs. J. G. Cooper was the delegate of the Foard County unit of the American Cancer Society at the 20th annual meeting of the Texas Division held in Dallas October 13 and 14.

Highlights of the meeting were special addresses by Dr. George Pack, renowned cancer surgeon from New York, and Dr. B. L. Arnoff, outgoing president of the Texas Division.

The appointment of Dan Blocker (TV's Hoss Cartwright) as state Crusade Chairman was announced by L. E. Ross of Quanah, vice chairman for the 1966 Crusade. At the general elections, Dr. Goldston, a well-known Amarillo surgeon, became president of the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society.

Four physicians conducted a case presentation session on cured cancer patients for the more than 350 delegates at the meeting.

Foard Unit to Meet

The Foard County Unit of the American Cancer Society will meet Thursday, Oct. 21, in the Methodist Men's Sunday School class room at 7 p. m. The public is urged to attend this meeting.

Dominating Structure

Raymond Moley writes in Newsweek: "The house of law is the dominating structure in the institutional settlement that we call the civilization in which we live. It stands guard over the many other structures created out of the jungle once inhabited by men who lived in primitive anarchy. Among these subsidiary structures slowly, so slowly put together, there are provisions for individual welfare, health, comfort, education, mutual aid and the enjoyment of a short life here on earth. There is also the protection of individual liberty, closely integrated with the house of law. But as history has shown, the protection of individual liberty is a very fragile thing. Time after time over the centuries, the fullness of a free life has been enjoyed, but after a few short years it has vanished. Its enemies have been the many vices and weaknesses of those who have enjoyed it."

Two Accidents Reported in County During September

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated two accidents on rural highways in Foard County during the month of September, according to Sgt. D. R. Dowdy, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for five persons injured and an estimated property damage of $1,125.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county from January through September of 1965 shows a total of twenty crashes. As a result of these crashes there were no persons killed and 23 persons injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $24,715.00.

November 29, 1965, is the deadline for applications for the next Patrol training school. "Applications for the position of patrolman should be made as soon as possible," the sergeant stated. Those who are selected to fill these positions have the privilege of knowing that they stand as the symbol of order in our society and are respected by all law-abiding citizens.

"The work of the patrolman is challenging," the sergeant pointed out, "but the rewards are many. Each man answers a call to serve with the best of opportunities for participating in the constantly developing effort to curb the dual menace of increasing crime and traffic accidents."

Full details on qualifications can be obtained from the nearest Department of Public Safety office or from any DPS Patrolman.

Once Upon a Time . . .

"Once upon a time, the sports seasons were clearly defined. There were certain accepted standards that the baseball season would last from April through September. Football would take the spotlight from that time until the holiday season and then basketball would take over for the next few months. Not so, anymore. . . . It appears that as long as Gus Fan is willing to pay the admission prices and the sports magazines can rake in their television and radio receipts, there are no more clearly defined sports seasons, and more is the pity." —Bristol, Conn., Press.

Social Security Designed as an Income Supplement

Is social security enough to meet your retirement expenses? Not likely, says Mrs. Patsy Yates, Extension family life education specialist, Texas A&M University. "Texas families now receiving social security payments are often finding them inadequate," Mrs. Yates adds. Social security is a form of insurance designed to supplement but not replace other forms of retirement income. Too many families fail to make other provisions for income after age 62 or 65.

Recent research in four Texas areas shows that 83 per cent of the farm and 74 per cent of the urban families studied received social security payments. Yet, it was necessary for some of these families to also receive welfare pensions.

Forty-two per cent were living in extreme poverty with less than $1,500 income a year. Seventy per cent had a sub-standard level of living with a yearly income of $3,000 or less.

"When you add to the above figures all the widows or widowers receiving social security income but not being able to make ends meet, it is a very sad picture," says Mrs. Yates.

"Families must plan for adequate retirement income long before they reach that age," she added. According to Mrs. Yates, only action now will prevent the picture from becoming even worse for Texans in the future.
