Cotton Growers Reminded of 1967 Signup Deadline

Cotton farm operators are being reminded this week by the Foard County ASCS office, of the fast-approaching deadline for signing up to take part in the 1967 upland cotton program.

The last day for filing a program application is March 17.

All cotton producers are urged to sign up before the deadline. Program benefits named by the local office include diversion payments and price-support payments in addition to the regular cotton price-support loan. But, all program benefits, including the loan, will be available only to farmers who sign up and then carry out the intentions indicated in the application, the local ASCS said.

Mrs. Jean Reeder, office manager, added that advance payments will be made as soon as possible if requested. The rest of the diversion payment and the price-support payment will be made later after program performance has been determined.

Growers were also reminded that March 17 is also the last day for filing applications to take part in the 1967 voluntary wheat and the 1967 feed grain programs.

Signing up is the first step in qualifying for price-support loans and marketing certificates on 1967 crop wheat. No acreage diversion is provided under the 1967 wheat program.

Growers who participate in the 1967 feed grain program will be eligible for price support on their 1967 crops of corn and grain sorghums, and price-support payments.

All producers interested in taking part in this year's feed grain and wheat programs should call at the local ASCS office and discuss the program with the personnel there.

Mrs. Reeder added, "Reporters are in the field measuring wheat and you should be receiving notices of wheat acreages very soon. Your cooperation in assisting the reporters will be appreciated."

Wheat Farmers Have Meeting Here Friday

About fifty area wheat farmers attended a wheat meeting in the district court room in Crowell last Friday night.

Monroe Karcher of Rayland, member of the board of directors of the National Wheat Growers Association, presided at the meeting.

Dwight Hamilton of Olney, the president of the Rolling Plains Wheat Growers Association, told those present that the supply of wheat is down and a good market should be in prospect for the harvest time. He said that the certificate plan had brought the supplies down by moving wheat into export.

David Williams of Dundee, secretary of the RPWGA, told the group that the best market for U. S. wheat is Japan, and attributed the growing demand for wheat in Japan to the eating habits of American servicemen being adopted by the Japanese people.

He said that in Europe, the Common Market pays for farm programs there, and receive their money for subsidizing farmers from duties charged for importing American farm products.

He said that in Canada, the government buys all of the nation's wheat produced there for $1.16 a bushel. The government then sells the wheat for what it can receive, and the difference in price is returned to the farmers.

He added that the U. S. wheat program is not costing the American taxpayers anything except the administrative costs.

Short talks were also given by Virgil Johnson, Grady Halbert and John Cogdell.

All three local men are directors of the Rolling Plains Wheat Growers Association.

Quannah Resident Brags on Clean Yards Here in Crowell

Quannah has been in the process of "Operation Sparkle" for several weeks. This is a community effort to clean up the town, plant trees, and anything that will help beautify the city.

Mrs. Weldon Tabor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Adkins of Crowell, sent the News the following clipping which appeared in the Quannah Tribune-Chief relative to the clean-up campaign:

Ray Taylor asks: "In traveling on Highway 283 through Crowell, did you ever notice how neat and clean the town is? Homes well kept, yards pretty with grass and flowers. The same thing with Knox City homes along the highway. They are nice to look at with lots of pretty shrubs and flowers."

"What a contrast these two thoroughfares are with many you drive along and see."

"With effort, Quannah highways can be beautiful. This is an introduction to Quannah. It is imperative they are cleaned up so when one comes our way they will know that Quannah is a town that takes pride in homes and business places."

CHS Library Takes on "New Look"

The Crowell High School Library has taken on a "new look" and it is the desire of the librarian that patrons and all interested people visit the library soon.

Mrs. Owen New, librarian, said Monday, "We are most proud of the comfortable and colorful room which we feel contributes a great deal to the mood for study. The library has become quite attractive with the floral arrangements which adorn the counters beneath the windows and with smaller arrangements of flowers and figures that nestle along the book shelves. The color scheme of green, orange, yellow and brown not only lend attraction and color, but they have been used as an aid in filing materials."

"The room accommodates fifty students with ample tables and attractive chairs for each student. During this school year, there have been 3,229 magazines bound in card board boxes of green and white, labeled in such a way that there is no difficulty in locating any desired issue."

"Twenty-six current magazines—representative of every interest level—have acetate covers and are readily accessible to all students."

The library staff has mended and rebound 427 books and added approximately 31 running feet of new shelf space. All career material has been filed in orange colored letter files with yellow labels. Within each file, there are at least 200 helps for students seeking career information.

Other career materials have also been arranged for counselor and teacher use.

College information has been filed for student use, along with the career material.

Books for Teachers Available in High School Library

Many professional books and magazines are filed within the office area for teachers of all levels and subject areas. Supt. Henry Black has announced.

With the professional materials, there are catalogs and book lists to aid in purchase of needed materials. The vertical file is being re-done as a special activity for the English classes.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Owen New, the English I classes are making folders for unusual materials to be used in research work. This material is being placed in dark brown folders 11x18x1 inches in size and will be filed in the office.

There are now 1,207 books of fiction, 1,370 books of non-fiction class, and 243 reference books.

Black said, "We are yet to receive one new set of World Books and some fifty more books under the Title II program."

He added that according to a survey made recently, 93 per cent of the high school students are using the library every day. Many reported using it as many as three times daily, Black said. The survey also revealed that seniors and freshmen use the library more than other classes this year.

Library Club News

The Teen-Age Library Club is sponsored by the library and is made up of sixteen girls who are working in the library and who meet once a month to discuss the needs and work of the library. This organization has contributed time in the library—many beyond the actual school hours.

The girls presented a love basket to the rest home at Christmas and have given the following books to the library: The Life and Times of Rembrandt—Hendrik Willem Van Loon; A Wolf in the Family—Jerome Hellmuth; Lust for Life—Loving Stone; Everything But Money—Sam Levenson; Etiquette (Emily Post)—Elizabeth Post; The Life of Helena Rubenstein—Helena Rubenstein.

There are six girls who have given a great deal of time to the library work who are not members of the Library Club this year. These girls deserve a great deal of acknowledgment for their contributions.

On February 6, this group was entertained with a Valentine party at the Susie Q in Vernon. The table was covered with a white cloth with a centerpiece made of white roses. Small red hearts, bearing the name of each girl, filled with valentine candy, were used as place cards and favors. The group enjoyed a show at the Plaza Theatre following the supper.

Bills Sponsored by Hightower Approved by Senate Last Week

Three legislative measures updating and broadening the responsibilities of the State Soil and Water Conservation Board were approved last week by the State Senate. Sponsor for the proposals was Senator Jack Hightower of Vernon.

The proposals would give the state board power to negotiate with local agencies, organizations and the federal government in conservation programs. The state board would be authorized to enter into agreements with local and federal agencies and buy and sell property for the development and protection of the state's water and soil resources.

Conservation funds from the federal government and other sources would be deposited in a Natural Resource Conservation and Development Fund for administration by the board.

825 miles of irrigation pipelines were installed last year by Texas farmers to save water.

VISIT THE SCHOOL NEXT WEEK

During Texas Public Schools Week, our schools are scrutinized carefully by parents of children attending the schools as well as others who are interested in our modern public school system. Texas Education is constantly moving forward to keep pace with latest developments in this state. Texans have considered education to be important, because public schools are celebrating their 113th year in this state. All interested citizens are urged to see the remarkable progress which has been made in recent years to solve tomorrow's needs today. The new teaching techniques make a difference. You can glimpse a portion of these new advances by a visit to a public school during Texas Public Schools Week, an annual observance which is scheduled from March 6 through March 9. Open house is being conducted in all the schools with the school administrators and teachers serving as hosts.

Carrots are Good for You, Agent Says

Usually during the winter months, the homemaker is faced with a more difficult task of adding variety to meals than at any other season, Mrs. Virginia Iseng, Foard County H. D. Agent, says. An old wife's tale says eating carrots will curl your hair. Most authorities agree now that carrots won't put a single ringlet in your hair, but they are one of the important "beauty foods" because of the vitamin A they contribute.

Vitamin A is essential for clear, healthy skin. Good teeth and bones demand plenty of vitamin A. This is beauty that shows. More than skin deep is vitamin A's importance in protecting eyesight, building resistance to infection and promoting normal growth.

Carrots are an excellent late-winter selection for homemakers in the Southwest because of the extra plentiful supply on farms in South Texas and the large amounts available from western farms, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

These plentiful carrots can be used to add flavor and richness to salads and meat or fish dishes or as a vegetable dish either alone or in combination with other vegetables.

Raw carrots are good salad joiners. Grated carrot and raisin salad is an old favorite, but for a variation, Mrs. Iseng suggests trying this carrot-coconut salad. Mix together 2 cups grated raw carrots, 1/2 cup shredded coconut and enough mayonnaise to moisten. Serve with lettuce. If desired, top with 1/2 cup chopped red apple or cubes of golden pineapple. Makes 4 servings.

Church of Christ Minister Participating in Evangelism by Mail

Welton Nickel, minister of the Eastside Church of Christ in Crowell, is in Hurst, Texas, participating in a study of a bold new concept of Christian evangelism by mail.

The program is called Direct Mail Evangelism. Its operation is simple. The Brown Trail Church of Christ in Hurst writes and publishes a sixteen page evangelistic magazine each quarter. The Star, as the magazine is called, is then mailed into various states and foreign countries.

Any congregation in the world can have the magazine mailed to its postal subdivision, or an entire city or county by requesting such coverage and furnishing the funds to cover postage, addressing and handling costs. The work is completely non-profit and no advertising is accepted.

The mechanical work involved in printing and mailing the publication is not actually performed by the church, but is purchased from private businesses.

The program met with wide acceptance among churches of Christ in 1966, and results were immediate. Six hundred fifty-one congregations participated in the campaign. Five thousand two hundred fifty-five of those receiving mail requested more information. These requests for more information led to the enrollment of 4,421 persons in free Bible correspondence courses. These students, in turn, enrolled an equal number of additional students. The church mailed out six thousand and five hundred fifty-six tracts and religious booklets.

During 1966, all fifty states and nine foreign countries received the Star. Circulation totaled slightly less than four and a quarter million. $136,000 was expended by the churches in this first year of operation.

Plans for 1967 are probably best expressed by the slogan which has been adopted by the 170 ministers and church officers attending the Direct Mail Evangelism Workshop in Hurst—"Mail a Million a Month."

Pamper Your Personal Prosperity with Growth Vitamin $

Every drop of water, every bit of fertilizer that you put on a growing plant is returned to you in value . . . increased many times.

- And every dollar spent at home instead of in some other community . . . promotes the growth and luxuriance of your own little personal prosperity tree.
- We don't expect the neighbors to water and weed and fertilize our gardens so that we won't have to put out any effort on them. But a lot of us expect somebody else to do all of the trading at home that it takes to support and improve our jobs, our businesses, our schools and churches and other community helps to a richer life.

- Trouble is . . . a lot of them are looking for us to keep the ball rolling while THEY go city-shopping.
- Let's . . . every one of us . . . remember that loyalty to our home community is merely loyalty to our own economic welfare . . . that scattering our buying power leaves our own personal prosperity plant with less nourishment.

Easter Seal Appeal Letters Delivered in Mail This Week

Easter Seal Appeal letters are being delivered this week in Foard County, according to Robert Kincaid, who is the Easter Seal representative for the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas.

As representative, Mr. Kincaid serves as contact representative for disabled persons needing Easter Seal rehabilitation services and also serves as treasurer of the Easter Seal Appeal in Foard County.

The Easter Seal Society offers physical and occupational therapy, speech and hearing programs, and special equipment loans to enable disabled persons to make the best use of their abilities to overcome handicaps. These services are financed by the annual Easter Seal Appeal.

The Society also provides for research into the causes and cures of crippling conditions, finances public education programs, and provides scholarships for training of professional personnel to staff rehabilitation centers.

Mr. Kincaid pointed out that all these programs are important if Texas is going to continue to provide the best in rehabilitation services for its own disabled citizens.

During 1966, the Texas Easter Seal Society provided treatment and services to 11,045 children and 4,986 adults who were in need of rehabilitation services. These services are available to anyone disabled person who can benefit from help provided by the Easter Seal Society, Mr. Kincaid added.

The Easter Seal campaign will run through Easter Sunday March 26.

Kincaid urged increased support for the Easter Seal Society and its program of services to crippled children and adults.

"Education Is the Bulwark of Democracy"

"Education is the Bulwark of Democracy" . . . this has been the firm belief of Texans for 113 years. That's when the Public Schools were established in this state. Democracy has a chance to prove itself in the public schools, and everyone has the opportunity to see how the schools are fulfilling their responsibility during Texas Public Schools Week. Next week is the time when Texas Public Schools are holding open house in order that all those who are interested may see how our schools are operated. You will be able to view new teaching devices; but more especially you will have the opportunity of meeting and getting acquainted with the teachers and administrators of our school system. They will welcome your questions and will be pleased to give you any information about our public schools which you request. Your local school organizations urge you to attend a public school next week and make this year's celebration of Texas Public Schools Week an important event.

Foard Residents Attend Vernon Cotton Meeting

Some 500 persons attended the Greenbelt Cotton Improvement Association's first annual meeting at which two distinguished speakers in the agriculture field discussed the "Future of Cotton" and "Rural Living" in Vernon Thursday night.

The Association includes Foard County and a number of Foard residents attended. Newell Hoffmann is secretary-treasurer and Emmitt Martin represented the Rayland community on the board of directors last year.

Also, the Crowell State Bank and the Foard County gins were among the sponsors of the meeting.

Dr. J. G. Johnson, chief entomologist from the National Cotton Council in Memphis, Tenn., spoke on the "Future of Cotton."

He said there are many reasons to be optimistic about cotton's future. These were listed as cotton fiber's adaptability to chemical finishing; the increasing resources for cotton research, and the tremendous power of cooperation. He added that cotton can benefit from test tubes just as rapidly and effectively as the fibers which are born there. A wide range of entirely new characteristics can be permanently imparted to cotton products, he said, including dura-press, wash and wear, water repellency, spot resistance, higher luster and resistance to fire, mildew, weather and shrinking.

He said that with these factors and cotton's ability to combine a balance of properties of absorbency and comfort, flexibility and strength, stability and chemical modification, and low production costs, quite a different picture emerges than artificial fiber manufacturers have envisioned.

In fact, Dr. Johnston pointed out, one business forecaster has noted: "Cotton consumption has shown surprising strength in the recent period of unsettled conditions in the textile market. This may mean that the sharp downward shift in the trend of cotton consumption, previously anticipated, is less likely to occur."

He added that cotton's good outlook comes in large part from the decision made by cotton producers to approve a $1 per bale assessment for promotion. In so doing, he said, positive proof was offered that they intend to "sell cotton products so that they can continue to grow cotton."

Reagan Brown, responsible for the Community Improvement Program in Texas, kept his audience in near continuous laughter for most of an hour. Presenting relevant data with statistics on rural Texas, Mr. Brown's story might not have drawn laughter without the humorous colloquial analogies interspersed throughout.

He narrated a set of color slides depicting poverty areas in rural Texas and steps being taken to eliminate them.

Mr. Brown said that 75 out of every 100 persons are concentrated in 22 Texas cities and that a slow migration is in the making, back to rural areas. "These rural communities must be upgraded to receive them," he said.

Mr. Brown cites numerous examples where, during the past few years, poverty conditions have been eliminated in rural communities. "And it's not through welfare agencies," he said. He drew applause when he said, "If you give a welfare check, give a job to go with it. If there's not a job, create one for the receiver — sweeping streets, anything."

He said that people can and must be motivated through education.

Progress is being made, he said. "Fifty per cent of today's crops in the U. S. were unknown 10 years ago. That's progress. With three new families beginning each minute and the U. S. population being doubled in 40 years, we've got our job outlined."

Otto Streit, president of the association, served as master of ceremonies for the meeting and barbecue supper.

From the News . . .

THIRTY YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the Thursday, March 4, 1937, issue of The Foard County News:

The State Highway Commission appropriated $25,000 for hard surfacing part of Highway 16 north of Crowell to Pease River as a result of a hearing given Foard County before the commission February 24.

Wayne Diggs, J. B. Harrison of Crowell and Bud White of Vernon were uninjured in Wichita Falls Sunday night when the car in which they were riding crashed into a steel post that was in the middle of the pavement to separate traffic.

A night school for persons over sixteen years of age, who have not secured as much education as they would like to have, was started Monday, March 1, in the reception room of the relief office in the Ringgold building. Crockett Fox has been engaged as teacher for the school.

Howard Bursley and Jim Cook left Crowell last Friday with four carloads of mules for Memphis, Tenn., where they will be sold. A car will haul between twenty-four to thirty mules. The shipment was made over the Santa Fe to Clinton, Okla., where they were transferred to the Rock Island.

Uniforms were issued to thirty football recruits who reported for spring training Monday afternoon when a six-weeks grid training period opened.

Work on the new grammar school building is progressing rapidly. The brick wall has been laid to a height of approximately two feet.

A drive is being made by Crowell cage fans to raise money to purchase sweaters for members of the basketball team.

Only 23 cars have been registered for new license tags with the deadline coming up on March 30.

One and three-tenths inches of rain was registered by the gauge at the Crowell State Bank this morning, breaking a continued dry spell of about four months.

Physical examination for pre-school children and all children in the grade school will be given Tuesday morning, March 9, at the Baptist Church, Miss Thelma White, health chairman, has announced. The serums that will be given are typhoid, diphtheria and small pox.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burress and son, George Thomas, moved to Paducah last Thursday where Mr. Burress assumed new duties as bookkeeper for Etter Tractor Co.

The following ten boys reported Monday for the first track workout for the season: John Lee Orr, Bernice Fitzgerald, Marvin McKown, Clinton McLain, Garland Rasberry, Ira Klepper, Marion Benham, Richard Veceera, Carl Connell, Ben Barker and Kelsey.

The marriage of Grady Halbert of Foard City and Miss Eunice Johnson of Clarendon occurred in Ozona Saturday, Feb. 20.

A lovely new stage curtain has been installed in the Thalia High School auditorium.

Big Refund

The Internal Revenue Service reports that $239 million was returned to taxpayers who overpaid their income taxes in 1965. This overpaid tax total is more than one-third of all U. S. individual income taxes collected 30 years ago, reports Brevitts, a publication of the Employers' Association of Greater Chicago.

Two Minutes With the Bible

The Significance of the Resurrection

In his great Epistle to the Romans, St. Paul introduces himself immediately as "a bond-slave of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle," to proclaim God's good news about Christ.

Paul's "gospel of the grace of God" was essentially about Christ. He was always talking about Christ. His epistles are filled with Christ. Christ, in his message, was everything. This is in striking contrast to much of our modern preaching and evangelism, which is not Christ-centered, but man-centered.

The gospel Paul proclaimed was God's good news about Christ and His power and glory in defeating Satan, overcoming death, paying for sin and nailing the law to His cross.

This is why the apostle calls his message "the good news of the glory of Christ" (II Cor. 4:4) and "the good news of the glory of the blessed God" (I Tim. 1:11). To enter experientially into the truth of this good news is the greatest blessing one can possibly enjoy.

In verse 4 of his introduction to the Roman Epistle, the apostle declares that Christ was powerfully declared to be the Son of God "by the resurrection from the dead."

Now the resurrection of Christ had been both prophesied and proclaimed as an historical fact before Paul, but to Paul was committed a special message of good news in connection with the resurrection. In his God-given message, Christ was raised from the dead to demonstrate that as God the Son He had paid the full penalty for sins that would have sunk a world to hell. Thus the apostle writes to Timothy, his son in the faith:

Suicide Fourth Among Deaths of Youths

In the United States, suicide has become the fourth leading cause of death among adolescents and young adults, reported Dr. Kurt Glaser of the University of Maryland in a recent issue of Today's Health.

"Remember that Jesus Christ, of the seed of David (this is how Christ had formerly been known) was raised from the dead according to my gospel, wherein I suffer trouble as an evildoer, even unto bonds" (II Tim. 2:7,8).

Miss Frances Cates and Otis Smith Wed Sunday Afternoon

Miss Frances Marguerite Cates became the bride of Otis Paul Smith in a ceremony performed at four o'clock Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist Church in Crowell. Rev. Homer T. Stephens, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Camp Wood, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cates of Crowell and the groom's parents are Mrs. J. D. Smith and the late Mr. Smith of Truscott.

The nuptial vows were repeated before a setting of spiral candelabra, arrangements of yellow chrysanthemums and white gladioli on pedestals. Tapers in green composites surrounded by greenery accented the church windows.

Organist, Mrs. Walter Stapp, and pianist, Miss Lanette Lemons, provided traditional wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Miss Janell Gray, as she sang "True Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's brother, Gary Lee Cates, and the groom's brother, Jim Tom Smith, served as candle-lighters.

Mr. Cates presented his daughter in marriage. She was attired in a formal length A-line gown of white tulle with accents of yellow chrysanthemums and white gladioli on pedestals. The gown was accented with re-embroidered Alencon lace and fashioned with an empire waist, scoop neckline and wrist length petal-point sleeves. The chapel length train accented with Alencon lace fell from her shoulders and an imported veil of illusion was attached to a coil of sequins. The bride wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

The bride's corsage was of white catalpa orchids.

Mrs. Charles T. Garrett of Port Lavaca, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Another sister of the bride, Miss Lela Jo Cates and Miss Billy Sue McClain of Hale Center, were bridesmaids; while Mrs. Howard Ferguson and

MRS. OTIS PAUL SMITH

Mrs. Paul Clayton of Knox City were brides matrons.

The attendants' attire was of identical floor-length A-line gowns of emerald green tulle with white imported lace accenting the front panel and bottom of the skirt. Long white gloves complemented the brief sleeves and headpieces of emerald green flowerettes. The attendants carried cascades of yellow chrysanthemums and white satin loops.

Paul Clayton of Knox City served the groom as best man, and groomsmen were Jack Kennedy of Lubbock, Moses Osbourn of Abilene, Gary Taylor and Mike Gamble, Marion Hord and Jimmy Weatherly of Pampa; Charles T. Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents were hosts for a reception in the banquet room of the church.

The bride's table was covered with a white taffeta cloth with an overlay of green net centered with an arrangement of white gladioli and yellow chrysanthemums. A three-tiered wedding cake topped with wedding bells graced one end of the table. The opposite end featured a crystal punch service. The appointments were of silver and crystal.

The reception decorations were done by Mrs. Loraine Carter and Mrs. Vernon Garrett.

Truscott H. D. Club

A program on "Mental Retardation" was presented to the Truscott Home Demonstration Club Thursday, Feb. 23, by Mrs. Camille Claymon.

"Mental retardation becomes most noticeable at three times," she said. "The first period is birth to three years when slowness in physical and mental development and difficulty in language developments are observed. The second period is when a child enters school and displays a general disability in learning. The third period is when an adult shows an inability to remain independent or meet requirements of employment."

She pointed out that many people are never actually regarded as mentally retarded. They get social promotions in school, and later hold jobs, but will be among the first to lose jobs to automation or in an economic recession.

She named persons having a high risk of having mentally retarded children as being those who marry close relatives, women who do not get good prenatal care, and those who do not take children to a doctor frequently during early childhood. The largest groups of retarded children cluster in the lower social-economic groups.

She said that children from low income families will probably test lower on IQ because their environmental experiences have been so limited, and that pre-school programs can help them.

Eight members and two guests attended the meeting in the club room at which Mrs. Idoma Chowning presided. A letter was read thanking the club for its Christmas gifts to the Vernon State Hospital. The club voted to sponsor a domino tournament at the community house soon. Members were urged to attend a garden meeting on plastic mulching at Benjamin March 1 and were notified that a tailorin course, for members and non-members, will be held at the community house starting at 1:30 Tuesday, Feb. 28.

Mrs. J. R. Brown presented the devotional, the story of the Good Samaritan.
