FOARD HISTORY BOOKS ARE ALL SOLD OUT

Petitions Signed Protesting Trailer Lights, Brakes Laws

A large crowd of Foard County residents attended a meeting at the community center Monday night to hear Highway Patrolman Gerald Howard of Vernon explain the strict new laws passed by the Texas Legislature on lights and brakes requirements on trailers. The meeting was of special interest to cotton farmers.

A number of those present signed a petition protesting the new laws. Copies of the resolution will be mailed to a number of state legislators and officials, including Governor Preston Smith.

Gov. Pat Neff Visited in County in Early 1920's

Governor Preston Smith's visit here last Friday wasn't the first visit ever of a Texas governor to Crowell, but it has been a long time since one was here.

Jeff Bruce remembers that in the early '20's, Gov. Pat Neff was a visitor here. Mr. Bruce said that a delegation of Foard County residents went to the Pease River bridge to meet Governor Neff and escort him to Crowell. A Quannah delegation had escorted him to the river bridge.

Neff was governor from 1921 to 1925, so it was during that period that he visited here.

About 6 Inches

COUNTY RECEIVES BIG SNOW LAST THURSDAY

One of the heaviest snows in many years blanketed Foard County in a sea of white Thursday morning of last week and when the six-inch snow was melted, it yielded 1.74 inches of moisture to make it one of the wettest snows ever to fall here. Ordinarily, it takes about 12 inches of snow to make an inch of moisture.

This area remained under a blanket of clouds from last Monday until this Monday when the sun broke through for a short period. A total of .33 inch of rain fell here Monday, and .07 was received on Tuesday. Added to the moisture from the snow, the total amount of moisture for the week totaled 1.74 inches.

The snow remained on the ground through Saturday. Monday morning of this week, a heavy frost again gave the impression of a snow.

Foard County cattlemen were kept busy feeding their stock for a couple of days while the snow was so deep in the pastures and fields.

The moisture last Monday and Tuesday made .4 inch of rain for November.

In spite of the heavy snow, local highway department personnel kept the highways open.

Many trees had not completely shed their leaves and the heavy coating of snow broke many limbs across town.

Another cold blast hit the area Tuesday night of this week with weathermen predicting more moisture on Thursday.

D. A. Cox Is Patient in V. A. Hospital

D. A. (Shortie) Cox is in the V. A. Hospital in Amarillo. He will have stomach surgery this week and later will have back surgery. He will be unable to work for at least two or three months.

Anyone wishing to donate food for a grocery shower for this family can call 694-4572, or bring it to the Laurence Hinkle home, the last house on South B or Bradford Hollaway.

Local Post Office to Be Open Next Two Saturday Mornings

Postmaster Ted Reeder announced Monday that the Crowell post office will be open the following two Saturday mornings for the convenience of Christmas mailings.

Reeder said the office will be open from 8:30 to 12 noon on Saturday, Dec. 11, and Saturday, Dec. 18.

TRADE AT HOME

The Christmas season is at hand and residents of Foard County will probably do their share of spending for gifts this year.

We have more than twelve retail stores here in Crowell which are offering a wide variety of Christmas gifts ranging from auto accessories to clothing to toiletries, toys, gifts for the home, gifts for the sportman and floral arrangements.

Daily newspapers pour into Foard County each day with ads trying to draw our dollars to their places of business. But, it is our local merchants who accommodate us with things like boxes for packing, special prices and services for school, church and community functions.

When we spend our dollars for Christmas gifts with our hometown merchants, we are adding dollars of life to our business community, and maybe helping to keep businesses open that will surely wither and die without the support of Foard County residents.

THANKS!

It may have been in preparation for Governor Preston Smith's visit to Crowell, but regardless of the reason, several empty cattle trailers that had been parked on the east side of the square for a long time, have been moved.

The absence of the trailers from around the court house square materially aids the looks of things, and the News expresses thanks to the owners for moving them.

Senior Sidelines

The long awaited announcement of "Pictures are in!" was heard Monday. Seniors were glad to receive their pictures and began exchanging photos with classmates. Seniors ordered their graduation invitations Wednesday morning. Each class member also had to decide what name will be used on their anxiously awaited diploma.

School was dismissed early last Thursday due to the bad weather. Several got to catch up on their favorite soap operas. Ballads are being studied in English IV and had news was received when students were told they had to compose a ballad themselves.

The Junior Journal

"Snow!" Do the juniors like snow? And how! They could barely keep their minds on their work when it was snowing Thursday morning. Of course, it is easy to yield to distractions when working, but the snow really got to the class. Everyone was rolled around in the snow at least twice. The teachers were understanding, though. Mr. Ward gave a study guide in honor of the snow, and Mr. Gafford postponed a pop test. Snow? We juniors enjoyed every minute of it. Now that the snow is melted . . . ough! Who likes mud?

The Governor's visit was quite an event for everyone. Did anyone stop to think while preparing for his visit that he is the man who presides over the State of Texas, and is also a fine fellow who took time from his busy schedule to visit Crowell? Happy invitational tournament to all!

Sophomore News

Sophomores awaited the arrival of our Governor Smith last week, and after his address to the student body, each had the opportunity to speak to him personally. In History, we've started our term paper, due December 17. Our next book reports for English are due December 15. In Homemaking II, several girls have now made their very first pie. After learning the secret of a successful pie crust, filling, and meringue, we were somehow able to make a pie. We still wonder, though how Mrs. Brown can make it look so easy.

Freshman Frolics

All the freshmen enjoyed the snow last week, and had a good many snowball fights to prove it! We also enjoyed the program Friday when the governor was here. The freshmen boys playing basketball this year are Nathan Frater, Don Sparkman, Wallace Silemon, Randy Prince, Randy Reed and Bob Brown. Good luck!

Library News

The CHS Library Club met in the study hall for a library work day on Thursday, Nov. 30. Each librarian had her share of work to do. Mrs. Halbert mimeographed a list of things that needed to be done to the books. Afterwards, Mrs. Halbert took us out to eat. Thank you, Mrs. Halbert.

During school there are many types of people who visit our library. Just sit down in a vacant chair, if you can find one, and gaze around the room, then you can distinguish between the different types. The first type which your attention will be alerted to is the wanderer. He jumps from chair to chair trying to stay one step ahead of the librarian. Being a good athlete is prerequisite for this.

Another type could be called the loose-lipped laureate of the CHS library. He has a knack for talking fast enough so he confuses the librarian. In this manner he causes her to forget her original mission—kicking him out. The last type, which we call the most entertaining, is the class clown. This type will do anything for a laugh, from playing chase with the teacher to sneaking out to get a drink, behind the teacher's back.

The librarian tries her best to control the entertainers, but she is only a minority of one. The main thing we worry about, losing some of our freedom or the intervention of higher authority. These are only a few of the things that happen, the others don't amount to much.

Sports

Tuesday night, Crowell Wildcats traveled to Harrold. The girls won 67-32. Jo Ann Gerhardt and Rhonda Vecera were high scorers with 19 and 18 points. Varsity boys won 62-45. Terry Farrar had 20 points and Emmitt Newman 11.

Friday night, the varsity boys were defeated by Notre Dame 64-49. Rocky Bachman and Rex Driver were high with 14 and 12. The JV won 60-47. Lloyd Waggoner and Jackie Houck were high with 18 and 14 points.

The Crowell tournament will be December 9, 10 and 11. Be sure to come.

Cafeteria Menu December 13-17

Monday: pizza burgers, lettuce and tomatoes, onion and pickle slices, cherry cobbler, milk.

Tuesday: pinto beans with ham, sausage links, spinach, tossed salad, Jello with fruit, corn bread, milk.

Wednesday: fried chicken with gravy, buttered rice, English peas, carrot sticks, apple sauce cake, hot rolls, milk.

Thursday: fish with tartar sauce, macaroni and cheese, blackeyed peas, beet pickles, light bread, pudding, milk.

Friday: turkey and dressing, giblet gravy, English peas, cranberry sauce, celery sticks, light bread, fruit salad, milk.

December Plentifuls

It's later than you think! Extension home economists remind that it's nearing the end of another year and time to plan for nutritious holiday eating. So remember these December food plentifuls: broiler-fryers, potatoes, apples, applesauce and apple juice, rice, fresh pears, cranberries, cranberry sauce and cranberry juice cocktail, split peas, pork, turkey and eggs.

Specialists with Native Grasses Visit SCS Office

Jake Garrison, manager of the Knox City Plants Materials Center; Arnold Davis of Temple, a state plant materials specialist; and Wayne Chapman, area conservationist of Vernon, visited the Foard County Soil Conservation Service Wednesday of last week.

The three men had been to Copper Breaks State Park north of Crowell where they made a study of range conditions on the park property. They will then advise the Parks and Wildlife Department on what native grasses can be seeded on the property to make the land the most attractive, both as to its beauty to park visitors and its value in preventing soil erosion.

Mr. Garrison and Mr. Davis explained some of the functions of the Knox City Plants Materials Center, one of 20 in the U. S. and the only one in either Texas or Oklahoma. The center takes desirable native grasses, which through drought and over-grazing, have become scarce with seed unavailable. The grasses are planted at the center, carefully cultivated, watered and cared for, and the grass seed harvested and then distributed through the Soil Conservation Service to landowners. The 70-acre center is also studying and working with grasses for better erosion control on lake shores, more and better wildlife food and cover, and for beauty. Mr. Davis cited several examples in which new and modern buildings in cities were being landscaped with beautiful native shrubs and grasses.

Retailers Required to Post Base Prices

Retailers may not increase prices until they meet the base price posting requirements of Section 300.013(b) of the Price Commission's regulations. Ellis Campbell, Jr., district director of Internal Revenue for North Texas, stated that this requirement is mandatory for all retailers until they post their base price lists. Every retailer must post his base price list by January 1, 1972, whether he does or does not increase prices.

The retailer is required to prominently display his base price list at the place of sale. The posting requirement applies to all food products except those specifically exempt. It also applies to those 40 items other than food in each department which have the highest dollar sales volume or those items which account for 50 per cent of the total dollar sales in each department, whichever is less.

Until the base price list is posted and thereafter, each retailer must display on each floor of the establishment at least one sign which reads, "Information regarding the lawful base price for any item sold by this store not posted may be obtained by filling in a base price information request form available at (specify location) and by handing it to (fill in.) You will receive a speedy answer by mail." The sign should be a minimum of 22 inches by 28 inches.

Mr. Campbell reemphasized that the base price list must be posted before any price increases can be made.

"Compensation," VA payments to veterans and dependents for service connected injury or death, is often confused with "pension" paid on the basis of need to veterans disabled from non-service connected causes.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the Thursday, Dec. 11, 1941, issue of The Foard County News:

The news of the bombarding of Hawaii by the Japanese brought fear to the hearts of many of the citizens of Crowell and Foard County, for there are a number of soldier boys, sailors and marines stationed there and nearby, who have anxious parents waiting for word of them or from them.

December has been designated as Safety Month by Governor Coke Stevenson. So far, Foard County has had no automobile accidents that resulted in deaths during the year.

Cotton farmers of Foard County will vote in a national cotton marketing quota referendum Saturday. Marketing quota system aims at dividing a limited market supply equally among cotton producers.

Mrs. Joe Smith entertained Friday afternoon with a birthday party for her son, Joe Vernon, who was six years old.

Bobby Lanier celebrated his fourth birthday at his home Friday afternoon when his mother, Mrs. Ragsdale Lanier, entertained a number of his little friends with a party.

A party to honor Reid Pyle on his nineteenth birthday was given in the home of Miss Juanita Shultz near Margaret Saturday night. Those present were Reid Pyle, Ruth Diggs, Sammy Jones, Mary Tamplin, Carol Jean Harvey, Helen Russell, Evelyn Johnson, Paul Johnson, Ray Tamplin, Abb Barto, Jerry Short, Lewis Pyle, Z. D. Texas cotton farmers are receiving highest price for cotton since 1929, according to Frank Senle, state AAA committeeman and cotton farmer of Robertson County.

There is a new, almost untouched market for cotton that will use around 750,000 bales a year if only 10 per cent of the potential market is captured. The field is that of insulation. Use of cotton for this purpose is apparently past the experimental stage.

With a high incidence of influenza and measles over the state, the public should be awake to the danger of pneumonia as a complication of these diseases.

George Self Leads Rotarians in Fund-Raising Effort

Rotarian George Self presented the program at the Rotary Club meeting Wednesday, Dec. 1, and the first thing he did was play a musical record which was cut in 1902, on a Victor phonograph made in 1897.

"Strange, Odd, Curious, Chicane" was the title of Mr. Self's program and he auctioned many rare items such as turnips, turnip greens, pecans, cologne, etc. with proceeds going to the Rotary Foundation. He also gave every one present a new Eisenhower silver dollar, which in turn cost them $2.00 if they kept the coin. Mr. Self sounded like a carnival barker as he extolled the virtues of the items he was auctioning.

He was assisted by club pianist Sharla Haynie.

He also presented everyone present with a portion of fried rattlesnake.

Student guests attending were Jackie Daniel, Robert McElroy and Trey Autry. Another visitor was Mrs. Joe Meador.

Rotarian Irving Fisch called attention to the Pioneer Bowl football game in Wichita Falls Dec. 11 at which Miss Haynie will represent Foard County in the queen contest. She is sponsored by the Rotary Club.

The president, Floyd Borchardt, said the club's Christmas party will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 14, beginning at 7 o'clock.

Veterans, widows, and others can write, phone, or visit any VA office for details about the whole range of veterans' benefits, services, and programs. Such help is also available via veterans service organizations which have representatives and service officers on duty throughout the country as part of their counseling and informational programs.

Select a living Christmas tree this year, suggests Everett Johnson, extension landscape horticulturist. After the holidays, it can be placed in the yard or patio as a permanent fixture. Any of a variety of trees may be selected depending upon the area of the state. Do not keep the tree more than two weeks and do not place it in the air stream of a heater or air vent. The tree probably require watering at least twice a week. Do not use any living Christmas trees as the small twinkle type.

Two Minutes With the Bible

Our Weakness and God's Power

When our Lord was on earth, He healed great numbers of sick and diseased people. The believers at Pentecost also healed many in the name of Jesus, offering His return from heaven upon condition of their repentance (Acts 3:19-21).

All those who were healed, however, finally succumbed to physical infirmity or disease again and died after all. This was because the Lord Jesus was rejected as King both in His incarnation and in His resurrection. Rom. 8:22,23 declares the result as we see it in our own day:

"... We know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, that is the redemption of our body."

But Christians in "this present evil age" need physical infirmity to draw them closer to God in prayer and faith. Paul himself said:

"... there was given to me a thorn in the flesh... lest I should be exalted above measure. For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. And He said unto me: My Grace is sufficient for thee, for My Strength is made perfect in weakness" (II Cor. 12:7-9).

The apostle's response to this is beautiful: "Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me... I take pleasure in infirmities... for when I am weak, then am I strong" (II Cor. 12:9,10).

"For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day for our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory" (II Cor. 4:16,17).

Port Strike Hurts Wheat Producer

Wheat exports were cut by 15 million bushels worth $25 million in the April to October period by the West Coast strike of shipping facilities, according to K. E. Frick, Administrator of ASCS. The lost business went to Canada and Australia and away from American wheat farms. Frick told the Senate sub-committee on agricultural exports that labor troubles on the docks affect the entire farm marketing system and have made more difficult the job of pricing, storing, and handling this year's harvest.

Eighty per cent of Texas wheat is exported. Anything that affects movement out of Texas ports directly affects the income of Texas wheat producers.

If you would reap praise you must sow the seeds: gentle words and useful deeds.

THE INFORMED CONSUMER

BY CRAWFORD C. MARTIN
 Attorney General of Texas

Remember that unordered set of books you received in the mail along with a receipt requesting payment? Did you return the books or pay the bill? You didn't have to, you know. Recall the time you got up early so you could get to the store in time to purchase an item at a "one-day-only special sale," only to find that they were "all out" of the bargain 10 minutes after the store opened? Or how about that nice young college student who came to your door asking for a few minutes of your time to take a survey for a paper he was writing... and didn't leave until he had spent three hours trying to get you to buy a $600 set of books you didn't want or need?

Unfortunately, most consumers—at one time or another—have had their anger aroused by these and similar incidents. The Texas Attorney General's files are filled with case histories of problems encountered by innocent, although sometimes gullible, consumers. Many of these legitimate gripes could have been avoided if the consumer had been aware of certain laws, or had been aware of the types of fraudulent practices typically used by unethical sales organizations. An informed consumer can be his own best protection in the market place.

The attorney general's consumer protection division enforces Texas' deceptive trade practices law which presently permits the attorney general to enjoin certain false, misleading, or deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of trade or commerce. The attorney general has received some 4000 complaints in the last year from Texas citizens who feel that they have been defrauded. Such complaints are processed and, if necessary, legal action is instituted to enforce the consumer protection laws. The attorney general's office is not permitted to render legal advice or opinions to individual citizens, nor may this office obtain refunds for individuals who have been defrauded. The attorney general may, however, obtain an injunction against those firms which violate the Deceptive Trade Practices Act. If the firm continues its deceptive practices, the attorney general may secure up to $10,000 in penalties for each and every subsequent violation of the injunction. Law enforcement in this area is emphasized by my office because compliance with fair and honest trade practices benefits not only consumers, but the majority of businessmen who want an honest and ethical climate in which to conduct their operations. This column, "The Informed Consumer," has been developed by my staff and by me to give consumer facts on consumer protection laws and information on consumer related topics. It was designed to make the "buyer be wary" as well as "beware." Hopefully, it will assist consumers in recognizing and avoiding common business frauds. Included will be facts on the role of state and federal agencies in the area of consumer protection. Some topics which will be covered in the near future include: referral selling, the scheme which offers the consumer a chance for a "good deal" by supplying names of friends as prospective customers; work-at-home schemes that prey on the elderly consumers and the young mother seeking to supplement the family's income while staying at home with her children; pyramid business organizations which pay bounties for bringing others into the program; a store's responsibility for accepting returned merchandise; and a credit series. If you feel that you have been the victim of a deceptive act or practice contact my Consumer Protection Division at the Office of the Attorney General, P. O. Box 12548, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

Busy Afternoon for Governor

GOVERNOR SMITH IS CROWELL VISITOR

Preston Smith, Governor of Texas since 1968, came to Crowell last Friday, made several speeches, shook hundreds of hands, cut the ribbon for the opening of an industry here, proclaimed CHS Band Director James Streit an Admiral in the Texas Navy, and generally seemed to enjoy himself as Foard County rolled out the proverbial red carpet for the first visit of a Texas Governor to Foard County in almost half a century.

A heavy snow which blanketed West Texas Thursday left the governor's visit in doubt until about mid-morning Friday when travel conditions were deemed good enough for the governor's plane to make the trip to North Texas.

The first item on the governor's itinerary here was a visit to the Crowell Schools. Upon his arrival at the local campus, the governor and his entourage were met by the entire student body in the gymnasium, which had been appropriately decorated by the various classes. Incidentally, Gov. Smith requested that the signs be sent to him in Austin.

Crowell Supt. Larry Jones presided, and introduced Terry Farrar, CHS senior and president of the Student Council, who gave the invocation. Henry Black, chairman of the committee for the governor's visit, then introduced the special guests. Foard County Judge Leslie Thomas, in his introduction of the governor, stated that Mr. Smith, one of 13 children, is a self-made man who grew up during the depression. Born in Georgetown, Texas, Smith is a 1934 graduate of Texas Tech. He is a 6-year veteran of the State Senate, a 9-year veteran as lieutenant governor of the state, and is completing his third year as governor.

In Governor Smith's talk to the students he said that he had had a life-time ambition to be governor of Texas, and he urged each of the students to select a goal and work towards that goal.

He expressed his gratitude to Joe Meador, who suggested that he visit here. He told the students something of the state government, and said that all the state offices belong to the people. He called the office of lieutenant governor one of the most powerful in the state; he presides over the Senate, appoints all Senate committees, and controls many jobs in the state government.

He said that although the governor cannot introduce legislation of any sort, he does have the power of veto over bills voted by the State Legislature. He said Texas has one of the best state governments in that nation; it has no state income tax, and no tax on groceries or medicines. Finally, he urged the students to assume a role in government and be active in politics.

Governor Smith then read a letter of commendation to the CHS Band citing the Division I rating it received at the UIL's marching contest. In recognition of the excellent leadership provided by the band program here by the director, James Streit, Governor Smith made Mr. Streit an admiral in the Texas Navy. Following a short reply by Mr. Streit, he then directed the band in two numbers in a musical salute to the governor, concluded by the entire student body, accompanied by the band, singing, "Texas, Our Texas."

Following this program, Governor Smith moved to a front exit of the gym where he shook hands with every student in the Crowell Schools.

Dedicates New Industry

Governor Smith was then taken to town where he toured and cut the ribbon officially opening a small industry which has begun operation on the west side of the square. The new industry is one which manufactures plastic fishing worms. It is owned by Ernest Larmer of Fort Worth, and the plant will make fishing worms for the Pace Lure Co. of Austin. Mr. Larmer is consultant for the Four Winds Industrial Foundation. Also present for the dedication were Bill Pace, owner of the Austin lure company, and C. C. Risenchover, editor of Outdoorsman magazine. It was announced that the local plant will initially manufacture some 10 million plastic worms. At the dedication were three of the plant's first employees: Meses. Hope Quintero, Lucy Ann McGee and Susie Myers.

In brief remarks at the plant, Mr. Smith pointed out a number of state aids to smaller communities seeking industry, and he pledged his continued support for efforts to revitalize the rural communities of the state through a strong industrialization program. He said people go where the money is and he suggested that industry can be lured to the smaller communities through federal tax incentives. He said that governors of the nation at a recent conference okayed 48-2 a resolution asking Congress for legislation to provide tax incentives to industries located in the rural sections of the nation.

Visits Local OEO Office

Governor Smith's next stop was at the Foard County community center which houses the headquarters office for the Economic Opportunities Advancement Corporation of Foard, Cottle, Hardeman and Wilbarger Counties. Here, he was met by 36 employees of the organization who gave individual reports on their work to benefit the deprived families of the region.

Cow Country Coffee

Next on the agenda for Crowell's distinguished visitor was a "Cow Country Coffee" at the Crowell School cafeteria, where the governor visited with many Foard County residents, in addition to many area visitors from Quanah, Paducah and Vernon. Hostesses for the coffee were members of the Women's Service League.

Friday Night Program

At the concluding program Friday, Joe Meador of Crowell, regional field representative for the Texas Office of Economic Opportunity, introduced Fritz Lanham of Austin, who is director of the Texas Department of Community Affairs. Mr. Lanham stated that the job of his department is to strengthen local government and assist cities and counties in their dealing with state government. He and Gov. Smith both emphasized that these state offices and various departments belong to the people of the state and not to the officeholders.

Ray Shirley, Foard County Democratic Executive Committee chairman, introduced the guests which included Mrs. W. S. Heatly Sr. of Paducah (Rep. Heatly was hospitalized at the time); Henry Black of Crowell, chairman of the EOAC executive committee; Kyle Ellison, band director, and Sam Chappell, president of the Texas Student Council Association, both of Big Spring; Keith Vaughn, EOAC specialist of Austin; Felix Taylor, executive director of the EOAC; Bob Harrison and Dan Martin, both of the local EOAC; Ernest Larmer, Four Winds Industrial Foundation consultant; District Judge Rex Sullivan Jr. of Quanah; District Attorney Bill Neal of Vernon; Ed Daniel and Bob Mowery of Wichita Falls, both with the Nortex Regional Planning Commission; Vernon Daily Record editor Orlin Brewer, and W. S. Heatly Jr. of Seymour. Mr. Heatly introduced the governor.

Governor Smith introduced Claude Callaway of Crowell, a former Foard County judge and ex-state legislator. Mr. Smith said he and Mr. Callaway served together in the State Legislature back in the 1940's. Mr. Smith said he was proud to be governor of Texas, but it is occasionally a lonely spot, especially like the time he tried to buck the president's price freeze and give the state's employees the raises that had previously been voted by the Legislature. He said Texas has the finest government of any state in the Union and per-capita state taxes in Texas are lower than any other state except one—Ohio. He said that a governor's appointments to the various boards, agencies and commissions determine the destiny of the state, and he is asking for one more term as governor, in order to complete his appointments of capable men to these various agencies and boards—men who share the same philosophies of good government as the governor. In a welcome address preceding the governor's talk, Crowell Mayor Robert Kincaid presented the governor with two wooden bowls made from Foard County mesquite, a commodity extremely plentiful in this section. Following the governor's talk, he was presented a new shotgun from the people of Foard County. The presentation was made by Dick Todd, who was introduced by Felix Taylor. A rendition of "America the Beautiful" by the CHS Band concluded the day's activities honoring Texas Governor Preston Smith. All during his stay in Crowell, the governor on every occasion expressed his pleasure at going to small Texas towns, and from all indications, he thoroughly enjoyed his stay here.

Wildcats Split Games with Notre Dame
The Crowell varsity and junior varsity boys basketball teams split games with Notre Dame High School in Wichita Falls last Friday night. The Crowell JV won 60 to 47 over the ND JV and Lloyd Waggoner was high pointer for Crowell with 18 points and Jackie Houck was second high with 14. The Crowell varsity lost 64 to 49, and despite the loss Coach Bob Cook was extremely proud of the local boys who played a fine game against a team that is ranked second in the state among Catholic high school basketball teams. Rocky Bachman led in Wildcat scoring with 14 points, while Rex Driver was second with 10. Bachman latched on to 19 rebounds and blocked several shots. As of action last Friday night the Wildcats are now 2-3 for the season. Saber-toothed tigers are extinct.

Oranges Are Tops In Citrus Fruits

Oranges top the list in popularity of all citrus fruits in U. S. households, report extension foods and nutrition specialists at Texas A&M University. According to a nationwide consumer survey conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, nine out of 10 homemakers reported using fresh oranges and orange juices in a one-year period. Seven out of 10 used fresh grapefruit and lemons during the same period.

Homemakers interviewed in the survey indicated that they thought oranges were the best of the citrus fruits for health, taste and family appeal. They considered grapefruit as good for health, low in calories and high in vitamin C, and lemons as good for flavoring.

Foard County Senior Citizens News

Mrs. B. J. Halencak, Aide

The senior citizens of Foard County have had a good number of activities in the month of November. Many more activities are planned for December. Our activities have been brushed wool flowers, ring holders and flower carts. The senior citizens have had some extra money given to them to purchase craft supplies. We have two new frames for center pieces for the table and two new frames for making pillow tops, and lots of pretty yarn. Also we now have plaster for making wall plaques. Gladys Meek gave us a program on "fight back at stroke" which was very interesting and informative. Some of our plans for December include a bazaar on Dec. 13th and a Christmas party on the 15th given by the Sub-Junior Columbian Club.

Cooking Game

Game meat adds variety to meals and is high in nutritive value, report extension home economics specialists. The meat is an excellent source of high quality proteins, fats, minerals, iron, copper, phosphorus and B vitamins.

Fresh and properly handled game meat can be made tender and palatable when cooked by dry or moist heat. But the success of cooked game is determined before the animal is brought home. If a hunter properly cares for the game after it is killed, the homemaker can prepare a savory and nutritious meal.

Directive Issued on Reporting of Contributions

Secretary of State Bob Bullock announced Friday that, as the state's chief election officer, he has issued to all persons involved in the election process a directive governing the maintaining and reporting of campaign contributions and expenditures.

"The Texas Election Code clearly specifies," Bullock said, "that the people have a legal right to know who contributes money, how much money is contributed and how the money is expended in every campaign for elective public office in Texas.

"Likewise, contributors themselves have the right to know that their contributions are expended for campaign purposes and not diverted to fulfill a candidate's personal financial obligations.

"Unfortunately, however, it has become common practice for candidates to list names and addresses which are insufficient to identify the contributors. In addition, records have frequently not been maintained or made available to the public concerning the sources, amounts and expenditures of contributions to local campaign committees and candidate clubs.

"The failure to keep complete, accurate, and up-to-date records during campaigns has led to reports that do not sufficiently inform the electorate or conform to the spirit of the law.

"An absence of any guidelines and the lack of interpretation of the reporting section of the statute have led to confusion on the part of candidates who wish to fully comply with the law but are unsure of what is required of them.

"I have the duty and the responsibility, as the state's chief election officer, to help eliminate confusion and possible evasion in the reporting of campaign contributions and expenditures and to standardize the reporting procedure. Therefore, I am issuing the directive to all persons in Texas involved in the elective process. The full compliance with this directive that we expect will provide us for the first time with complete public disclosure of all campaign financing in this state."

Mr. and Mrs. Eudale Oliver and Mrs. Myrtle Neill went to Abilene Monday of last week and brought the Olivers' son, Leon, home for the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Naomi Fitzgerald spent last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O'Neal Johnson. She also visited Mrs. Bonnie Gamble, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hammonds, Mrs. C. C. ## This Is to Have Succeeded ...

The California-Pacific Utilities Company comments in their publication, "High Spots," "To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you lived. This is to have succeeded."

Prairie Chicken Have Few Hunters In Panhandle

The Panhandle prairie chicken harvest went begging this year, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials.

The birds were in little danger because of the lack of hunters. During the two-day season hunters bagged only 179 chickens.

However, the 116 hunters confessed firing 664 times to down the 179 birds they took home, no doubt hoping their wives wouldn't ask how many they saw or shot at.

The prairie chickens were plentiful. Shotgunners saw an estimated 2,060 birds during the 326 hours they spent in the field.

Christmas Smiles

A smile is such a funny thing; It wrinkles up your face, And when it's gone you never find Its secret hiding place.

But far more wonderful it is To see what smiles can do; You smile at one, he smiles at you And so one smile makes two.

And since a smile can do so much By cheering hearts of care, Let's smile a lot this Christmas time—

Such smiles go everywhere! —Book Review.

Letter Received Praising Efforts of C. H. S. Band

December 3, 1971

Editor, Foard County News.

Recently the Crowell High School Marching Wildcat Band was awarded a Division I at the Interscholastic League Marching Contest. This is a prized rating, indicative of high goals and a great deal of diligent work.

Too often, the accomplishments of student organizations are not recognized in accordance with the amount of pride and work that has led to that accomplishment. Let us be reminded that a Division I in band competition is comparable to the first prize in most any contest; there is no rating above a I.

Mr. James Streit and the Wildcat Band are to be commended for fine representation of Crowell High School.

Sincerely, Pat Cates, 341 Carpenter, Texas Tech, Lubbock, Texas 79409

Crowell Wildcats Win Basketball Games at Harrold

The Crowell A basketball teams—boys and girls—brought home victories from Harrold Tuesday night of last week, Nov. 30.

The Crowell girls won 67 to 32 with Rhonda Veceira leading the locals in scoring with 19 points, followed closely by Jo Ann Gerhardt with 18. Cheryl Branch played flawless defense and pulled down 8 rebounds.

Gerhardt hit 8 field goals in 12 attempts, and as a team, the local girls hit 17 of 24 field goals. They showed great improvement in every department in this game.

The Crowell girls had won 4 and lost 2 following this game.

The Crowell A boys looked their best so far this season as they outscored the Harrold boys 62 to 45.

Senior Terry Farrar netted 20 points while sophomore Emmitt Newman dropped in 11, all in the first quarter. Rocky Bachman and Farrar grabbed 6 and 8 rebounds, respectively.

Rex Driver played very well, making timely passes and directing the offense. Bob Burkett was hampered with an infected toe and Lee J. Whitley was recovering from the flu.

With the win over Harrold, the boys brought their record to 2-2.

Winter Wheat Outlook Good, Says Santa Fe Report

The Santa Fe Crop Report for December 1971 had the following to say about the winter wheat:

Except where seeding had been delayed by wet weather most of the intended winter wheat acreage for the 1972 crop in the Central and Southern Great Plains was up to a good stand by early November with early seeded fields providing abundant pasture for grazing of livestock. Except for portions of northern Kansas and eastern Nebraska most of the wheat was showing good growth by mid-October and late October rains covered most of the previously dry areas.

Damage from insects and disease would appear to be light this year and except for a few areas without adequate vegetative cover damage from wind erosion would appear to be less than normal. Moisture supplies generally are adequate to take the 1972 winter wheat crop in Santa Fe-served territory into the winter in good shape. Additional moisture in beneficial amounts during the late winter and early spring should continue favorable prospects for the 1972 winter wheat crop.
