School Board Has Busy Session on Monday Night

The Crowell School Board, in a called meeting Monday night, covered a number of subjects ranging from paying a total of over $3,300 in bills to making plans for this summer's recreation program.

After okaying the payment of $3,301.04 in bills, Supt. Larry Jones told board members about the school administrators' conference he attended in Austin during January. Main topic of discussion at the Austin conference was the court ruling pertaining to property taxation for schools. The Texas Education Agency said the court ruling stated that resources available for educating each child must be equal but did not say that actual spending on each child must be equal.

The board hired Mrs. June McLain to replace Mrs. Barbara Wall on the faculty during the last six weeks of the current term.

In planning for the summer program at which an enrollment of 40 children is hoped for, Mrs. Pearl Crowell was named as coordinator. The two teachers are Mrs. Fay Cates and Myrna Jones and the two aides are Mrs. Wilma Coleman and Rachel Dunham. Mrs. Barbara Tucker was employed as cook for the 2-months program during the summer. All these jobs and the program itself are subject to approval of the Title I amended budget for the school. This approval must come from Austin.

The board okayed the spending of funds for improving curriculum of the local system. This money was made available through Title III, National Defense Education Act of 1958.

The textbook committee's recommendation of books on the adoption list was approved by the board. The board also approved the transportation report. This report of the number of students riding school buses is used to determine how much money the state will allot the local district next year to operate buses.

The board also called a trustee election for Saturday, April 1. Deadline for filing for a place on the board is March 1. The terms of Roy M. Whitley and Jack W. Brown are expiring this year.

Supt. Jones stated that the average daily attendance for the local school is about 480 for the entire year which qualifies the local system for 21 classroom teachers, which is the same as the school now has.

Freddy Prather Inspecting Knox Cattle for Scabies

The Texas Animal Health Commission has called for a visual check of all cattle in Knox County, according to County Agent Herman H. Collier.

Freddy Prather of Crowell has begun contacting cattle owners to make on-the-premise visual inspections and all producers are urged to give him full cooperation.

This inspection is not being made with the expectation of finding cattle scabies in Knox County, but to prove the cattle are clean.

Mr. Prather will be working from his home in Crowell and his telephone number is 684-4412. He will also be contacting the county agricultural agent's office in Benjamin frequently.

Foard County's Cotton Total Rises to 2,884 Bales

It's About Time to Register for Voting in April Elections

Although qualified persons may register to vote any time during the year, the time is growing short for registering in time to vote in the city and school elections set for Saturday, April 1.

The deadline for registering in order to vote in these elections is Wednesday, March 1.

A number of other vital elections will be coming up this year, including a presidential election in November.

A total of 942 Foard County residents had registered to vote up to last Friday afternoon, Mrs. Jackie Borchardt, of the local tax assessor-collector's office said.

Ray Pruet Died in El Paso Feb. 14th

BLOODMOBILE TO BE IN CROWELL THURSDAY

Thursday, February 17 (today) is the day that the Red Cross Bloodmobile will be making one of its scheduled visits to Foard County. Quota for this drive is 45 pints and local officials, headed by Mrs. Fred Collins, county drive chairman, are hoping for a big turnout, with Foard County residents exceeding the suggested quota of 45. Many times the county has fallen short in its efforts and this would be a fine time for area residents to respond wholeheartedly and exceed the goal.

A number of preliminary efforts to stimulate blood giving have been carried out in the past two weeks. A film depicting how blood is drawn and its many uses has been shown by Mrs. Collins, and also two workers from the Wichita Falls Bloodmobile, Jon Ayers and Mrs. Joan Zolnerowich were here Thursday of last week conducting a workshop for those who will be helping in the work the day the bloodmobile is here.

A junior high school art group instructed by Mrs. Bob Cook has made attractive posters reminding local residents of the date. Although donors may schedule the time most convenient for them to give their blood, an appointment is not necessary and the prospective donor should experience little delay.

FOARD COUNTY RECEIVES NOW LAST FRIDAY

What started out gently last Friday afternoon as a few fine bits of snow fluttering about, turned into sleet and snow after dark and by Friday morning had covered the ground to a depth of over an inch. The snow increased in intensity all Friday morning, and when it stopped shortly after dinner, about 3 or 4 inches of the white stuff covered everything.

Official moisture measurement from the snow was .28 inch.

Although farmers report plenty of subsoil moisture the top of the ground was getting dry and the snow will be of great benefit to alleviate this.

Ice particles clung to trees and wires most all of Saturday morning as a heavy fog accompanied by sub-freezing temperatures, caused the freezing moisture to collect on trees and lines during the night. It looked as if an ice storm had hit early Saturday.

Secretary of State Mails Election Instructions

Secretary of State Bob Bullock announced last week that he has mailed detailed instruction to all county party officials concerning the operation and financing of the 1972 primary election.

"I am following the Texas Election Code procedures in every instance possible. The primaries are going to be conducted in the same manner and by the same officials as in past years."

"I have made modifications in present law only in areas concerning primary financing and procedures for qualifying for the ballot. These are procedures that were directly affected by the court order in Johnston v. Bullock.

"What I have done in these instructions is to provide rules setting out what expenses will be paid by my office and how the expense vouchers should be submitted to my office for payment."

Bullock said that his office would require of county party officials a complete and accurate audit of all funds expended in the conduct of the primary.

THE INFORMED CONSUMER

BY CRAWFORD C. MARTIN
Attorney General of Texas

You have just purchased a brand new appliance. Along with your purchase you received a "fully written guarantee." You are assured by the salesman that in the unlikely event of a breakdown, you have nothing to worry about. Your guarantee will make good on anything that goes wrong.

Alas, your appliance fails to function properly. Armed with your guarantee you set out to obtain satisfaction. You go to the store that sold you the appliance and talk to the friendly salesman who was so helpful when you were buying the item. It is then that you discover, upon close examination, that the store did not guarantee the appliance, the manufacturer did.

The salesman and store manager refer you to the manufacturers' service center which nearby always is located in some distant city. You contact the manufacturer and he writes you a nice letter informing you that his company will be happy to inspect your appliance if you will send it back to them for examination at your own cost.

The service center then writes

Free Phone Service Offered on Federal Job Information

To improve federal job information services to the public, the Civil Service Commission is introducing toll-free telephone service effective February 14, from any point in the North Texas area to the Dallas area office.

Vera B. Robinson, acting area manager of the Commission's Dallas office, said: "We believe this new service will significantly increase our ability to provide prompt and accurate information on current federal job opportunities as well as information about special employment programs for returning veterans." Anyone in the north Texas area may call toll-free 1-800-492-4400 (in the immediate Dallas area, the number is 749-3156). The North Texas area includes such localities as Amarillo, Lubbock, Wichita Falls, Texarkana, Abilene, Sherman, Waco, and Tyler. Applications for employment, job information, and other civil service pamphlets will be mailed on request.

Mrs. Robinson emphasized that this new service is a means to provide prompt civil service employment information to all segments of the public and does not imply an immediate increase in federal manpower needs. Although federal employment has declined somewhat since 1968, in a work force as large as the federal government there is a continuing need for qualified persons in many occupational areas. Information about these current needs may now be obtained simply by placing a toll-free call directly to the Dallas area office.

you back and tells you that the defective part was not guaranteed. Upon close scrutiny of your guarantee you find that the defective part actually is excluded from the terms of the guarantee. Occasionally the manufacturer even suggests that you may have abused the appliance thereby exempting his company from any future liability.

Perhaps you find that the part would have been covered by the guarantee if you had mailed in the card you received at the time of purchase. Your failure to do so has invalidated the guarantee and you find that the company has no obligation at all.

Another problem may arise when the store itself guarantees your new appliance for one year, both parts and labor. Now what could be wrong with this? Nothing so long as the seller stays in business and stands behind his guarantee. But if the seller goes out of business who will service your appliance under the guarantee?

Unfortunately, the average consumer in many cases has little legal recourse aside from pestering and persisting when he purchases a product that does not work. It is an old axiom but it is still true, "A guarantee is only as good as the person making it." Before you buy a guaranteed item, know the following terms of the guarantee:

1. What parts of the product are guaranteed;
2. Who is making the guarantee;
3. The guarantee is for what;
4. What will be required if warranty work is needed, that is, can you have it done in your local town or must it be sent off;
5. What steps must be taken to validate the guarantee, an example would be returning a card to the manufacturer;
6. What is your recourse in the event the item is defective, that is, will it be repaired or will it be replaced with a new item;
7. For how long is the guarantee; or
8. For whose lifetime, the product or the owner's; and
9. Does the guarantee exclude certain uses of the product which will invalidate the guarantee.

Remember, if you don't understand the terminology of your guarantee, ask questions before you make your purchase. Have a clear understanding at that time. After the purchase, it may well be too late.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the Thursday, Feb. 19, 1942, issue of The Foard County News:

The fourth meeting of the School of Instruction for Air Raid Wardens was held in the local high school building on Tuesday night with about 60 air raid wardens of the county in attendance.

The test blackout last Thursday night from 10 to 10:30 o'clock in Foard County, along with other communities of this section of the state, was pronounced a complete success, according to A. W. Lilly, sheriff and chief air raid warden.

Approximately 300 people attended the formal opening of the new Womack Funeral Home which was held on Saturday and Sunday.

Thalia High School's District 4-B basketball champions added another victory to their long list at Thalia Saturday night when they defeated a hard fighting crew of Pampa Harvesters, 25 to 25. Thalia starters were Abston, Payne, Adkins, McBeath and Johnson.

Through the efforts of District Judge C. Y. Welch, the district court room in Crowell is now decorated with two beautiful flags, a national flag and a state flag. These flags were given to the county by the West Texas Utilities Company.

The Crowell High School Wildcats won their last conference game from Archer City last Friday night by a 23 to 7 score and dropped their first bi-district game to the Nocona Indians at Nocona on Tuesday night by practically the same score 24 to 7. Playing for Crowell were Nelson, Blevins, Roark, Thompson, White, Adams, Archer, Owens, Cox and Gobin.

Members of the Crowell Methodist Church have been looking forward with happy anticipation to the time when the church building could be dedicated since the debt was paid in full last fall prior to the annual meeting of the Northwest Texas Conference.

I. T. Graves was elected superintendent of the Crowell Schools for another three-year term at a recent meeting of the board of trustees. Mr. Graves has been superintendent of the local school system for a long period of years.

Some needed improvements have been made at the Foard County Hospital during the past few weeks. A nursery has been constructed from the office in the lobby. The space has been enclosed with glass windows and has been constructed as to be perfectly sanitary.

Feel the Pinch?

One of the major reasons you are feeling a pinch in your budget is the increasing cost of government. According to the latest estimates, over one dollar of every three generated in income is returned to the government in the form of taxes. Thirty years ago it was only one dollar of every five.

Taxes have been growing at a brisk rate, partly due to inflation and partly due to the increased services demanded by taxpayers. State and local taxes illustrate this growth. Between 1957 and 1969, these taxes per person more than doubled in all but ten of the states.

A major cause of the increasing tax burden is the boom in welfare costs. Spending by state and local governments for welfare purposes rose 247 per cent in the period 1957-69, a rate of increase greater than for any other major, state-local government function, including education.

While the average man on the street may not be aware of this, you can be sure he has more than a sneaking suspicion that the growing welfare program is behind it all. The time is ripe for a serious re-appraisal of the entire welfare program. Few taxpayers would deny help to those in genuine need. The argument is with those who see welfare as a way of life and no intention for change or improvement.

Church Going

There is an important passage on church going in Hebrews 10: 23-25:

"Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering . . . And let us consider one another, to provoke unto love and to good works; not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is . . ."

We are often urged, these days: "Go to the church of your choice." The implication is that one church is as good as another—just so you go to church. But this is not so.

The Scriptures teach that the true Church is composed of those who have placed their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as the Savior who died for their sins. Such are told to "hold fast" the faith which they have professed without wavering. This must come first, for it is only those who have first exercised such faith, who can meet together with unity of mind and purpose to encourage each other "to love and to good works."

It is a truly blessed experience for those who have been saved by the grace of God, to assemble to express their praise together in song, to lift their hearts together in prayer and to join together in the study of God's Word so as to "grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ."

In these days of tension and confusion there is a tendency for even the most sincere Christians to be so occupied with temporal things that they deprive themselves of the encouragement and spiritual uplift that comes from getting together with other Christians. But these are just the times when true believers need the encouragement of each other's company and should particularly remember the admonition of Scripture not to forsake "the assembling of yourselves together . . . and so much the more as ye see the day approaching."

Ace Whitley Tells Rotarians of Little Dribbler Program

Rotary Club of Crowell Is Sponsor of Local Program

Rotarian Ace Whitley told members of the local Rotary Club Wednesday of last week about the Little Dribbler basketball program, sponsored locally by the Rotary club, and which is about set to begin its second year of operation here. Whitley said that Little Dribblers, Inc., was formed two years ago at Levelland, a town of 11,386 population. The Little Dribblers, before incorporation, was initially designed by four citizens of Levelland to combat juvenile delinquency, teach teamwork and bring many other benefits to the youngsters in Levelland. The program proved so popular there that the program was incorporated and made available to any other town or city, and is now a national organization. Whitley cited several advantages of the kid basketball program: less space is required for playing the game than baseball, for instance, and the personal development of the individual youth as he learns sportsmanship, basketball fundamentals and how to lose as well as win.

Whitley told about some of the LD rules: no zone defense, all man to man; no pressing in back court except when a team is behind in the last 3 minutes of play; and every member of the squad must play at least one full quarter of each game.

Whitley is chairman of the local Little Dribbler program, and he expressed his appreciation to the 12 adults who are coaches and assistants of the 6 teams; to the Rotary Club members who do the score keeping, time keeping and operate the concession stand, and then donate the concession stand profits to the athletic department of Crowell High School.

He said that a total of 46 11- and 12-year-old boys signed up for the program this year.

During the first year of the program—last year—Whitley said that 42 boys ages 10, 11 and 12 were in the program. The success of the first year's play caused a number of boys who did not play last year to want to participate this year.

Attending the meeting were student guests Ricky Lopez, Lee J. Whitley and Jerry McLain. Also present were Rotarian Ross Hendrick of Vernon and Rev. Joe Ainsworth of Crowell.

Grants Approved for Nortex Group

Two grants totaling $34,807 for Nortex Regional Planning Commission and Wichita county were among awards recommended last week by the Criminal Justice Council executive committee. The funding is subject to final approval of Governor Preston Smith.

The Criminal Justice Council oversees statewide law enforcement planning and administers funds from the U. S. Department of Justice for crime control projects in Texas.

Nortex RPC's application was approved for $14,307 to provide a regional law enforcement training program for the 12 counties it serves. This is the third year that CJC has funded this project.

Nortex RPC will provide basic and advanced training for law enforcement officers of the region and will send officers to the Southern Police Institute, the National Armed Robbery Conference and a federal narcotics school in Washington, D. C.

Local governments in the region will contribute a $11,610 in-kind match. Counties in the region are Childress, Cottle, Hardeman, Foard, Wilbarger, Baylor, Wichita, Archer, Young, Clay, Jack and Montague.

Also approved for Nortex was a $20,500 grant application for hiring a radio engineer to supervise planning and implementation of a regional law enforcement radio communications system.

The engineer would inventory existing radio equipment, prepare a detailed system design and specifications, assist in reviewing bids and supervise implementation of the regional radio system. The regional system is designed as a part of a statewide law enforcement radio communication network. Nortex PRC will provide an in-kind match of $7,075.

A lot of people have been shooting at the telephone companies these days.

And, in truth, we've had our hands full keeping up with the zooming demand for increased phone service.

But General Telephone and, in all fairness, the other phone companies haven't been sitting around counting dimes.

For some time now, we've been paying a healthy "phone bill" ourselves trying to make our service do everything you expect of it. And a few things you don't expect.

During the next five years we'll be spending millions of dollars in the areas we serve upgrading and expanding every phase of our phone operation. From laying underground cables (an important, if invisible area) to customer contact service (an equally important, but highly visible area).

But no matter how much we spend on equipment and expansion, it's what we do for you in your home or business that counts.

Ladies and gentlemen, we're working as fast as brains, manpower and money can combine to make our service as efficient as possible.

Girls Basketball Team Posts 18-8 Season Record

Local Girls Close Season with Loss at Holliday Last Week

The Crowell High School girls basketball team, coached by Bob Cook, closed out a successful season by getting into the play-offs. The first game of the play-offs for the girls was at Holliday Monday night of last week and the local fens came out on the short end of a 55-48 score.

Cold shooting by Crowell and a good defense thrown up by Holliday stymied Crowell's offense. Sandra Whitfield led the locals with 18 points.

The local girls ended up with 18 wins and 8 losses for the season—which is one of the best records ever for girls basketball teams in Crowell.

Coch Coach said last week, "We'll be back next year. We lose only three members of our team—Bette Sue Barry, Rhonda Swan and Rhonda Howard—and we will have the nucleus of girls for another fine team next year."

Playing on the girls team this year were Cheryl Branch, Rhonda Vecera, Sandra Whitfield, Jo Ann Gerhardt, Remelle Marlow, Rhonda Howard, Rhonda Swan, Babs Streit, Sharon Brown, Nora Darham, Sally Gerhardt, Carolyn Sparkman, Teresa Coleman, Vernell Morris and Rita Washburn.

Bookkeepers for the girls' team were Cindy Wisdom and Mrs. Cook.

Boys' Junior Varsity Cage Team Finishes Season

The Crowell boys junior varsity basketball team closed out a successful season at Paducah last Tuesday night; but as the local girls did in their last outing, were defeated. The boys got walloped 50 to 46 by the Paducahans. Phillip Bell led the Cats scoring with 17 points.

The local JV ended up with 13 wins and 6 losses for the season and 7 wins and 1 loss in district play. The Crowell team had the best district record of any JV in the west half of District 8-A.

Members of the local junior varsity this year have been Randy Dorsey, Jackie Houck, Grover Reed, Nathan Frater, Johnny Urquiza, Bob Taylor, Jackie Eavenson, Phillip Bell, Jackie Blackburn, Ernest Barrera and Bob Brown.

Boys' Varsity Cage Team Loses to Paducah Dragons

The Crowell boys varsity basketball team in a game Tuesday night of last week—the last regularly-scheduled game of the season—led by from 6 to 8 points for 3 quarters against the Paducah Dragons but a nightmare fourth quarter which saw the Wildcats out-scored 26 to 8, brought defeat to the locals by a 65-48 score.

The Dragons after trailing all the game, caught the Cats at the end of the third period and then held on to win. Billy Ray Neal was high scorer for the Cats with

Boys Basketball Team Loses at Paducah Friday

The Crowell Wildcat boys' basketball team played a fine game at Paducah last Friday night, but a hot shooting Paducah quintet again demolished the Crowell defense. The Wildcats just did not have a hot hand in the shooting department as did Paducah, and the final score was Paducah 80, Crowell 68.

Billy Ray Neal sparked several comebacks for the Wildcats, but none of them amounted to enough points to overcome the deficit.

Crowell played at Petrolia on Tuesday night and was defeated 86-40 to finish the Wildcat season.

Crowell's box score for the Paducah game last Friday night follows:

	fg	ft	f. pts.
Bob Burkett	3	4	4 10
Emmitt Newman	2	0	0 4
Terry Farrar	3	2	0 6

Profitable Pastures

Profitable pastures have to be planned, contends Dr. Neal Pratt, extension agronomist. A key management practice is proper fertilization, according to soil test recommendations. Cross-fencing is also an effective tool to improve production. Weed control can boost grazing during the summer months. Another major aspect is to plant grass species and varieties adapted to the area. Record keeping is one of the most important factors in forage production, contends Pratt.

18 points and Harry Lee Swan was great on defense for the Cats.

The Wildcats ended regular season play with 14 wins and 9 losses.

Members of the Wildcats varsity team are Rex Driver, Billy Ray Neal, Rocky Bachman, Terry Farrar, Harry Lee Swan, Ronny Naylor, Emmitt Newman, Randy Dorsey and Jackie Houck.

One Accident Investigated Here During January

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated one accident on rural highways in Foard County during the month of January, according to Sgt. Jack Therwanger, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area. This crash resulted in no person killed no person injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for January 1972 shows a total of 500 accidents resulting in nine persons killed and 217 persons injured as compared to January, 1971, with 467 accidents resulting in 17 persons killed and 235 persons injured.

Also during 1971, Lubbock County's 511 traffic accidents was the highest number recorded by any county of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety region. Parker County ranked second with 429 accidents.

The nine traffic deaths for the month of January, 1972, occurred in the following counties: Lubbock 3, Palo Pinto 2, Cochran, Garza, Gray and Wheeler, 1 each.

Social security is for the young as well as the old. In case of death, social security pays your surviving dependents. In case of disability, social security pays you and your dependents. Age 65 has nothing to do with these benefits. Many young people have earned their right to social security and are collecting each month.

Sign-up began February 3 for the 1972 ASCS wheat, feed grain and cotton programs. The sign-up will continue through March 10 and Mrs. Jean Reeder, executive director of the local ASCS office, urges producers to come in and sign up as soon as they know the program they wish to participate in.

Referring to the additional wheat set-aside, Mrs. Reeder said, "If you wish to sign for additional wheat set-aside—it will be necessary for you to designate the exact acres on the photo-copy at the time you sign in the program. This additional must be acres seeded to wheat and must be at least average quality as other wheat on the farm. This acreage must not be disposed of before April 1, but may be grazed through May 14."

CHS Student to Attend Nuclear Science Meeting

West Texas Utilities Company Is Sponsor of Local Student

West Texas Utilities Company will sponsor an outstanding student from Crowell High School to the 12th Texas Nuclear Science Symposium for High Schools to be held in Austin June 5-8, according to local manager Cecil Davis.

Held on the campus of the University of Texas at Austin, the four-day symposium is co-sponsored by the university and the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation. West Texas Utilities Company and nine other investor-owned electric utility companies in Texas compose the foundation. The foundation is supporting research at the university in seeking a future source of energy supply for generation of electric power by controlling nuclear fusion reactions.

A number of noted speakers from science, industry and education will address the delegates to the symposium. Two afternoons will be spent touring the science laboratories at the university.

The company also will sponsor a teacher to accompany the student. Both the student and teacher will be selected by the high school. Some 550 delegates from throughout Texas will attend.

"This is an unusual opportunity for those attending to participate in a most educational, interesting and eventful experience," Mr. Davis said. "We are pleased that we can make it available to each of them."

Check for Bagworms

Now is the time for homeowners to check for bagworms on trees, advises Dr. Weldon Newton, extension entomologist. Bagworms can now be easily detected while the trees are bare. The insects can completely defoliate a tree next season if they are not controlled. Full grown worms or eggs may be found in the bags during the winter. On small trees, bagworms can be hand picked. Larger trees with bagworms should be sprayed in May or June with diazinon, carbaryl or trichlorfon.

Second, you get special savings on any parts or labor you need. From the day you buy for 24 months. Third, the special savings are good all across the country at most Chevrolet dealers. Say you're on a vacation trip and find you need service. You just get in touch with a participating Chevrolet dealership. All you do is show an OK warranty identification card you receive when you buy your used car.

The official call to the twelfth annual convention of Santa Rosa District of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, in Quannah March 17-18 has been received by 65 clubs in the district.

The theme for this convention during Diamond Jubilee Texas Federation of Women's Clubs is: "Federation—Our Rich Heritage."

Mrs. Philip Carpenter, president of TFWC, will be the honored guest and speaker for the dinner Friday evening, March 17th.

Throughout the convention, pioneer club women will be honored. District officers anticipate a good representation from this group.

The guest speaker for the luncheon on Saturday, March 18, will be Mrs. R. L. Whately, second vice president of TFWC. Her message will be "Our Rich Heritage—Our Challenge." A diamond jubilee parade of local presidents will be one of the highlights of this closing session.

Quannah is hosting the convention this year, and the Crowell and Knox City federated clubs are sponsoring the March 18 coffee.

Mrs. Henry Borchardt will serve with Mrs. J. C. McGee of Knox City as co-chairmen for this coffee.

Mrs. Overton Neal, Santa Rosa district president of Quannah said that Crowell will have a number of pioneer clubwomen honored at this convention.

Mrs. Virgil Johnson will be called on to report on her outstanding Texas heritage report from Foard County Clubs. Also Crowell juniorettes will serve in various capacities during the convention, Mrs. Neal added.

Mrs. Worsham Baxter Johnson of Crowell, a past president of the Santa Rosa district, will have several prominent posts at the convention. She will give the invocation at the opening dinner, and is a hostess for the reception honoring Mrs. Carpenter. She will also speak during the election of the treasurer. Mrs. Ray Shirley of Crowell is chairman of the resolutions committee for the convention.

Adelphian Club

The members of the Crowell Adelphian Club met at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday, Feb. 9, at the Adelphian Club house.

Mrs. Lewis Sloan, president, conducted a short business session and welcomed members of the School of Vocational Nursing as guests.

The program leader, Mrs. Sallie Archer, led the group in the pledge to the flag. She introduced Mrs. Paul Cargill, regional director of the American Heart Association, whose subject was "The Heart Association and You." She presented a film, "Eat to Your Heart's Content," which was shown by James Welch. Mrs. Warren Haynie dismissed the group in prayer.

Hostesses for the meeting, Mrs. Ray Shirley, Mrs. Donald Werley and Mrs. Bob Cook, served delicious refreshments.

Rehabilitation Services Increased

Because of the steady growth in numbers of crippled children and adults in Texas, the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas has stepped up its rehabilitation services.

According to Robert Kincaid, who is the Easter Seal representative for Foard County, over 22,000 handicapped Texans received Easter Seal treatments during 1971.

"Despite medical scientific advances," Mr. Kincaid explained, "the ranks of the crippled are growing. This is because of population growth, increased number of accidents and medical treatment which saves victims of crippling diseases who might not have lived in past years."

Quoting the annual report of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas, he said that 19 affiliated treatment centers are in operation in Texas. They include treatment and rehabilitation centers, sheltered workshops, recreation and educational programs, and many others.

"Through these programs, persons with a wide variety of handicaps receive the help they need to live normal lives," he said.

The largest group served includes those with major deformities of bones and joints, severe speech defects, cerebral palsy, arthritis, muscular dystrophy and multiple sclerosis and stroke. The Easter Seal campaign, which provides funds for continuation of these services, begins February 28 and continues through April 2, Easter Sunday.

"Pillow Talk" Is Curriculum Title

Mrs. Carmen Welch Subject of Article

(Editor's note: The following article appeared in the February edition of Centerline, a publication of Region IX Education Service Center in Wichita Falls.)

Carmen Welch, Special Education teacher in Crowell, Texas, has designed a curriculum unit which is useful for teaching a number of concepts to pre-school age children. Among the benefits to be derived from the unit are recognition of colors and shapes, motor coordination and oral language skills. The unit is called Pillow Talk.

Materials required are a number of throw pillows in a variety of shapes, sizes and colors. The larger the collection the more concepts one is able to teach. If one has to build a pillow collection slowly, it is best to start with pillows that are basic geometric shapes such as round and square and primary colors. After one has these, others can be added so that the child can explore more concepts.

Best time to schedule the activity is late in the school day. Excess energy can be dissipated because the activity requires using energy throwing the pillows. There is also little competition involved so the chances of the student feeling he is a failure are minimized.

Children are either seated or lying on mats or blankets spread on the floor. They form a semi-circle with the most severely handicapped children at the center of the circle. The teacher is also seated close to the ground either in a small chair or on a mat of her own. She has the pillows and tosses a pillow to each child, asking a question such as "Did you catch the pillow?" The child then responds, "Yes, I caught the pillow." The first few times the game is played, if a child fails to catch the pillow, the teacher can take the blame by saying, "I am sorry. I threw the pillow poorly and caused you to miss." This should not have to continue as the child develops self-confidence.

Now that the child has caught the pillow, some other questions can be asked such as "What can you do with the pillow?" "What color (shape, size) is the pillow?" Eventually, the child should be able to extend the concepts he has at his command to help him compare his pillows to others.

For development of motor coordination, the children may be directed in a game of Simon Says which includes such commands as "Place the pillow on your head," "Hold the pillow up high," "Walk around the room with the pillow on your head."

Mrs. Welch notes the following success with the activity in her class composed of EMR students, pre-primary and primary students, some of which have physical handicaps:

* All students showed improvement in the identification of geometric shapes in pencil-and-paper exercises within the first week.

* They improved their ability to identify primary colors.

* Two severely physically handicapped students began moving their arms in attempts to catch pillows. They had not tried to move previously.
