National Weather Service, Southern Region Headquarters, Fort Worth

Mr. Black reports directly via telephone to the National Weather Service office in Wichita Falls whenever one-half inch or more precipitation falls in his gauge within 24 hours. Follow-up reports are telephoned as needed. Daily precipitation data from Crowell are published monthly in Climatological Data—Texas, which is distributed nation-wide.

Mr. Orton, Climatologist for Texas, says "The success of our climatological program is due in great measure to conscientious citizens, such as Mr. Black, for without the records they have made available, our knowledge of the climate of Texas (and the United States) would be meager indeed. With all the advances of modern technology, including satellites and automatic stations for observing the weather, the services of the volunteer observers are more valuable than ever. The data these men and women have gathered is vital to agriculture, industry, and commerce, and their timely weather reports help reduce loss of life and damage caused by tornadoes, floods, hurricanes and other weather hazards."

The Junior Journal

The class of '73 decided to have a dark blue stone in their senior rings. The decision was made at a class meeting Thursday morning. Bob Shyro, a representative of the company, gave us all of the necessary information about the rings. Each person had several choices about how their stone could have an individual touch. Each could choose between a diamond cut stone, a sunburst cut stone, a smooth cut stone with a "C" under it, or a smooth cut stone with a "C" encrusted on it. Everyone seems to be satisfied with the choice and is anxious to get the order. All juniors, try to get your money turned in as soon as possible. The sooner you pay, the quicker our rings will come in!

Some of the juniors were upset because they missed most of the program by Roger the Magician, Thursday morning. The meeting about the rings took a little longer than expected. The end of his show was very good, anyway!

Volleyball, track, tennis and golf are in the air as spring draws near. Juniors will be participating in all of these events plus all types of literary, drama, and band contests. Busy, busy, busy!

Sophomore Scoop

Sophomores were entertained by Mr. Rogers, a magician, in the southern assembly program last Thursday. On Friday, the girls met in the auditorium to determine who was interested in being "Rattlesnake Queen" of Foard County. Girls in the running from our class are Brenda Cox, Remelle Marlow and Kathy Shirley. In English II, we have taken up the study of poetry, and learned that there is more to good poetry than just making up lines that rhyme. In biology, we have worked our way up from the study of one-celled invertebrate animals, such as the sponge, to the insect class.

Did you know that there are certain insects that communicate with one another through a set of dances?

Freshman Frolics

In home ec, the homemaking I girls are starting to sew. We will start cutting out our projects on Monday and will have all week to finish cutting them out and marking them. This past week, we have been working with the sewing machines and learning how to operate them.

Now that we've started health, everyone is getting in shape again. Some of the girls spend all period running (or walking) around the football field, others play volleyball, and the boys are playing basketball. In a few weeks we will start taking physical fitness tests.

Cafeteria Menu

Monday: fish with tartar sauce, blackeyed peas, tossed salad, macaroni and tomatoes, rolls, milk, red plum pudding.

Tuesday: pinto beans, vienna sausage, cabbage slaw, seasoned greens, corn bread, milk, spiced applesauce with Graham crackers.

Wednesday: fried chicken with gravy, mixed vegetables, buttered rice, rolls, milk, Jello with fruit.

Thursday: pork patties, baked potatoes, green beans, carrot-pineapple salad, rolls, milk, applesauce cake.

Friday: hamburgers, french fries, lettuce, onion and pickle slices, milk, apricot cobbler.

The new scientific methods are combined with the three R's to give the children of today unparalleled opportunities to learn. The school administrators and teachers are eager to reveal new techniques and to answer any questions about our Public Schools which you may have.

Music Teacher

It was while the young woman was living with her sister and family during college vacations that she rode horseback and taught music to 22 pupils of the Shinnery School in King County, the former Deedie Moffitt, is a Paducah resident. She also taught Miss Moffitt's older sister, Vena, and a younger one, Hattie.

In 1910 when Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hall arrived in Paducah and opened Hall-Scruggs & Co., Miss Gordon moved to Paducah to be one of their first clerks. "Scruggs," she stated, "was an imaginary person. With his flair for the out-of-the-ordinary, Mr. Hall thought Scruggs & Co. was more impressive than his name alone would have been."

Paducah at that time consisted of two brick buildings and a dozen or so framed ones among the scattered residences.

She was in Hall's employ one year before she went to Crowell to be with her mother, work for R. B. Edwards Dry Goods Co., week ends and summers while teaching music during two school terms at Truscott.

Your Dollar Is BIGGER at Home . . .

It's a statistical fact that about one-third of every Dollar we spend goes into the taxes and contributions that pay for community services and facilities . . . IN THE COMMUNITY WHERE IT IS SPENT. When we run a Dollar through our own home trade channels, WE enjoy the benefits of better living and richer opportunities which a third of that dollar buys.

The dollar we spend somewhere else, pays for these advantages FOR SOMEBODY ELSE. Our money has bought the same things . . . but WE do not get ALL it has paid for. . . we have received LESS for it. And . . . since, obviously, we get MORE for a home-spent dollar, who can deny that your dollar is BIGGER at home?

1972 Texas Public Schools Week

Community leaders are sponsoring the celebration of Texas Public Schools Week which has been traditionally set as the first full week in March. This year it will be observed from March 6 through March 10. This event is designed to focus attention on the public schools and how they operate. During this week all Texans are invited to visit and observe classes in our schools.

An open house is usually thought of as an opportunity to visit a new home, building, or business to see the newest in modern ideas. This year, Texans will visit our Public Schools not so much to socialize or view the newest physical improvements as to become aware of the new mental attitudes in our modern system.

Texas Public Schools Week gives every person interested in the Public Schools the opportunity of getting as much information as he wants from teachers and administrators about how the school in our community functions.

Wheat Growers Urged to Use Set-Aside Before March 10 Deadline

Wheat growers in Texas have an opportunity to strengthen their own income and that of wheat growers nationwide through use of set-aside provisions of the 1972 farm program, according to Leo Witkowski of Hereford, president of the Texas Wheat Producers Association. Witkowski urges all Texas producers to heed the appeal for program participation of National Association of Wheat Growers president, Gene Moos of Edwall, Wash.

Moos says, "Wheat growers should consider the long-range advantage to each individual producer and to the wheat industry if they sign up some wheat acreage in the new set-aside option in 1972."

Moos, who has 300 acres of winter wheat planted, says wheat producers who anticipate more than an average yield on wheat already planted will be tempted to gamble on price at harvest

Half as Honest

"We're only about half as honest as we used to be. Recently, the editors of Liberty magazine conducted a test similar to one run nearly a half century ago. The results were quite illuminating... and embarrassing for the current generation. Back in 1924, Liberty sent out 100 letters to people selected at random across the country, explaining that a dollar bill enclosed was 'in adjustment of the error you complained of in your account,' which of course, did not exist. Of the 100 people contacted, 27 returned the dollar, announcing that a mistake had been made, which was in marked contrast to the results in 1971. In this year's test, only 13 of 100 people returned the money." — Terre Haute, Ind., Spectator.

Two Minutes With the Bible

Numbered with the Transgressors

"And the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And He was numbered with the transgressors" (Mark 15:28).

The progressive fulfillment of this passage from Isaiah 53 is the amazing story of our Lord's three baptisms.

First, this prophecy must be applied to our Lord's incarnation. Born a babe at Bethlehem, He was baptized into the human race, becoming, not merely one with us, but one of us, a true human being, though still also "very God." This is how He was first "numbered with the transgressors."

Later the Lord was baptized again, this time with water, by John the Baptist. John's baptism was unto "repentance for the remission of sins" and those who responded came to his baptism "confessing their sins" (Mark 1:4,5). Little wonder that John at first refused to baptize this sinless One, saying: "I have need to be judgement upon sin in order that He might save us from it. Finally, then, Isaiah 53:28 was fulfilled, for it is in connection with His death at Calvary that Mark 15:27,28 says: "And with Him they crucify two thieves; the one on His right hand, and the other on His left. And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, And He was numbered with the transgressors."

It is a touching thing to realize that our Lord from heaven should deign to identify Himself with us, even to taking our sins upon Himself. Now, as we respond, trust Him as our Savior and ac-

1972 Texas Public Schools Week

During Texas Public Schools Week, our schools are scrutinized carefully by parents of children attending the schools as well as others who are interested in our modern public school system. Texas Education is constantly moving forward to keep pace with latest developments in this space age. Texans have considered education to be important, because public schools are celebrating their 118th year in this state. All interested citizens are urged to see this remarkable progress which has been made in recent years to solve tomorrow's needs today. The new teaching techniques make a difference. You can glimpse a portion of these new advances by a visit to a public school during Texas Public Schools Week, an annual observance which is scheduled from March 6 through March 10. Open house is being conducted in all the schools with the school administrators and teachers serving as hosts.

Rate of Farm Program Signup Is Increasing

More farmers are coming in daily to the Foard County ASCS office to sign up in the 1972 feed grain, wheat, and cotton programs, with 217 enrolled to date and another 280 to 300 expected before the March 10 closing of the sign-up period.

So reported Harold Fish, chairman of the Foard County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, who added that a rush of business early in the sign-up period consisted primarily of producers seeking information on new farm program options opened by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in January and February after early announcement of the programs last fall.

New options for additional set-aside acreage at higher payment rates for corn, grain sorghum, and wheat were added. Detailed information on these options and all other options and provisions of the 1972 set-aside farm programs are available from the county ASCS office.

"Probably most producers now have been acquainted with the details of these new options, have studied them, and are now beginning to come back into the ASCS office to sign up," Mr. Fish said.

With perhaps another 300 farmers in Foard County still planning to sign up in the 1972 farm set-aside programs between now and March 10, the best chance of avoiding waiting in line is to come in to the ASCS office as soon as possible, the ASC committee chairman said.

He reminded producers that it is convenient to request early set-aside inspection and measurement service, provided at cost, when they sign up. "Of course, anyone who has already signed up for the 1972 farm programs, but who overlooked requesting set-aside inspection and measurement service, can get his request in at any time. The earlier a request is made, the earlier the set-aside inspection and measurement service will be performed," Mr. Fish said.

Local All-Stars Win Consolation Trophy at Vernon

In the consolation finals, Bob Cook of Crowell scored 38 points while Willie Gardner tallied 20 to pace the Crowell stars over the Electra team in a 77-60 win. Others playing for Crowell were Ace Whitley, L. H. Wall, Guy Todd, Randy Adkins, Clarence Reece, Phil Wilson, Scott Boyd and Lynn Rader.

Each girl successfully performed one movement of a sonatina. They were accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Curtis Casey, and by Mrs. David Counts of Knox City.

"Seems like our nation is faced with one crisis after another. One problem is solved and six more crop up. Grain ports being closed by strike create serious problems for our farmers and those in related businesses, like elevators, railroads, truckers, etc. President Nixon is blamed for everything bad that happens, while he gets no credit for any good development. When you think about the huge headaches involved, you can't help but wonder why anyone would want to be President." —Spirit Lake, Iowa, Beacon.

Forage Outlook

The outlook for forage production in Texas is bright, contends Dr. Neal Pratt, extension agronomist. The state is blessed with favorable soil and climatic conditions and a long growing season. High quality and high producing grasses are available for producing top quality forage. As beef consumption continues to increase, the profit potential for forage production will likewise increase.

H. D. Committee Fetes Commissioners Court

The EEE committee of the Foard County Home Demonstration Council served coffee and cookies to the county commissioners Monday, February 28.

The committee was composed of the chairman, Mrs. J. W. Fielder, Mmes. Milton Hunter, Robert Hammonds and Homer Ketchersid.

After the commissioners were served, others in the court house were invited to have coffee and cookies.

West Side H. D. Club

Mrs. Homer Ketchersid was the hostess when the Westside Home Demonstration Club met Feb. 22. The president, Mrs. George Riethmayer, was in charge of the meeting. Roll call was answered with "What I know about 4-H."

Council report was given by the delegate, Mrs. Ketchersid. The district THDA meeting to be held in Quanah April 7 was discussed. Mrs. Riethmayer was elected delegate from this club. Foard County is to be co-host with Hardeman County for the meeting. It was decided that secret pals will be revealed the last meeting in May.

After a short business meeting, Miss Lynn Meads gave a very interesting program on ESP—extra-sensory perception, sometimes referred to as the 7th sense. Miss Meads told a story about twins, Debra and Donna. When one was injured in an accident, the other perceived the accident and ran screaming to the scene, although she was in a separate part of the school building. It can and has happened to people though they were not twins.

In line with the program on 4-H, Mrs. Riethmayer conducted a quiz on 4-H. Do you know what year 4-H was begun? Do you know what the purpose and name of the first 4-H Club was? It was organized in 1908 and the purpose was to improve the quality of corn and the name of the club was The Corn Club. Now, beside the U. S., there are 4-H clubs in 76 foreign countries.

Refreshments were served to 5 members and 5 visitors: Mrs. Milton Hunter, Mrs. J. T. Fielder of Marietta, Okla., Miss Lynn Meads, Donna and DeeAnne Baize. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Louise Churchill on March 14 at which time the agent, Mrs. Peggy Meads, will give a demonstration on fitting a garment. Visitors are always welcome.

Junior Adelprians

The Sub-Junior Adelprian Club met after school at the club house Feb. 16. President Debbie Johnson welcomed all visitors to the tea. Some of the club girls modeled in the style show: Beth Welch, Karen Gray, Treanna Cash and Sandy Whitfield. Shariya Haynie was narrator while Karen Statser accompanied on the piano. Items modeled were from Marjorie's Dress Shop, Fishes and Birds. A warm thank you was given to each of these owners. Kathy Shirley and mother and April Werley and mother displayed an attractive table with delicious punch and decorated cookies.

A regular meeting was held Feb. 23. In the absence of Mable Lee Fairchild, Darla Powers and Karen Statser gave an excellent demonstration on make up. Delicious refreshments were served by Lynn and Lee Meads.

Any young miss, pre-school age, may enter the contest. This means some of the lovely young misses will not be able to walk but they will all "probably look good on stage," Mrs. Todd said.

Already entered are Carolyn Santos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Santos; Carol Ann Powers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Powers; Julie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Jones; Brandy Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Todd, Jr.; Jayme Lynne Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glyndon Johnson; Tiffni Whitley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ace Whitley; Jonna Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jon Lee Black; and Judi Gafford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Mac Gafford.

Deadline for the Miss Petite Contest is Friday, Mrs. Todd said. Anyone wanting to enter a Miss Petite may call 684-3831. Any civic group, organization or individual may sponsor a contestant. The winner of the contest will be determined by the number of votes or pennies in the voting cans. There will be one winner and one runner-up. Both winners will receive a trophy.

Mrs. Sanders' Pupils Present Programs

Mrs. George Scott was hostess at a piano party for the older piano pupils of Mrs. Allen Sanders on Saturday, February 26.

Duets and solos were played by these pupils: April Werley, Barbie Scott, Connie Werley, Pam Whitley, Debra Walker and Karen Statser. Carol Sue Scott and Ann Seelig were unable to attend.

Mrs. Dee Powers was hostess to the primary children at the home of Mrs. Sanders. Each one played solos, then the three played a trio, "Chopsticks for Three." Wayness Elliott, Tanja Baize and Bobby Powers are the beginner pupils.

Removing Thatch

Late winter or early spring after danger of a freeze is past is the best time to remove thatch from your lawn, advises Al Novosad, extension agronomist. Thatch is a tightly intermingled layer of living and dead stems, leaves and roots of grasses which develops between the layer of green vegetation and the soil surface. A powered machine (rake, vertical mower) designed to remove thatch is the best way to alleviate the problem. A rotary mower set as low as possible can also be used to scalp the lawn. Be sure the soil is moist when removing thatch so as to prevent mechanical injury to grass.

1972 Texas Public Schools Week

"Education is the Bulwark of Democracy" . . . this has been the firm belief of Texans for 116 years. That's when the Public Schools were established in this state. Democracy has a chance to prove itself in the public schools, and everyone has the opportunity to see how the schools are fulfilling their responsibility during Texas Public Schools Week. March 6 through March 10 is the time when Texas Public Schools are holding open house in order that all those who are interested may see how our schools are operated. You will be able to view new teaching devices; but more especially you will have the opportunity of meeting and getting acquainted with the teachers and administrators of our school system. They will welcome your questions and will be pleased to give you any information about our public schools which you request. Your local school organizations urge you to attend a public school this week and make this year's celebration of Texas Public Schools Week an important event.
