TOMATO, PEPPER PROBLEMS

Some home gardeners are confronted with blossom-end rot in their tomatoes and peppers, notes a vegetable specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The problem is identified by water-soaked areas near the base of the fruit which rapidly turn dark and eventually rot. The situation is believed to be caused by plant roots being unable to take up water as fast as it is being lost by the leaves. Thus water is removed from the developing fruit and decay sets in. Mulching around the plants helps along with good watering practices. Calcium chloride may also be sprayed on the foliage.

Nortex Taking Over EOAC

The North Texas Regional Planning Commission (Nortex) is completing plans to take over a federally financed manpower employment program presently operated by the Economic Opportunities Advancement Corporation office here in Crowell.

The changeover will eliminate two jobs in the Crowell EOAC office, and could possibly mean the shut-down of the school of nursing operated by the EOAC office with the loss of another two jobs.

The Manpower program

affected is the Mainstream project for young men older than 22 who come under the poverty guidelines and/or belong to disadvantaged minority groups.

The Mainstream project is funded by the United States Department of Labor which had contracted with the Crowell EOAC for the professional services.

Nortex has in the past been essentially a planning board, and this is one of the few times they have actively undertaken to operate a program.

The changeover is not expected to be complete until November 30, but Nortex already has a proposal on file to undertake the operation of the program.

Nortex took the action based on the new federal statute, the Comprehensive Employment Training Act.

Ms. Joanne Garrett, Nortex manpower coordinator, said while the move would eliminate some jobs in the Crowell area, that the programs themselves would not be adversely affected.

Ms. Garrett said administrative costs for the present programs were running between 16 to 18 per cent while the Nortex proposal expected an administrative cost of around 7 per cent.

Ms. Garrett maintained the programs were only being consolidated, without any loss to those the programs served.

But the CETA act requires that funding be apportioned on the basis of population which means in Nortex's 12-county area, Wichita Falls with 58 per cent of the population is required to receive 58 per cent of the money. The rest is to be divided among the 11 remaining counties.

The Nortex move only affects the Manpower programs such as Mainstream and the Neighborhood Youth Corps, presently contracted through the Burk Burnett school system.

Unaffected are EOAC programs such as senior citizens and the community centers. These programs are under a continuing authorization from Congress until September 30, with a good chance to be granted a new authorization.

Ms. Garrett maintained the programs were only being consolidated, without any loss to those the programs served.

But the CETA act requires that funding be apportioned on the basis of population which means in Nortex's 12-county area, Wichita Falls with 58 per cent of the population is required to receive 58 per cent of the money. The rest is to be divided among the 11 remaining counties.

The Nortex move only affects the Manpower programs such as Mainstream and the Neighborhood Youth Corps, presently contracted through the Burk Burnett school system.

Unaffected are EOAC programs such as senior citizens and the community centers. These programs are under a continuing authorization from Congress until September 30, with a good chance to be granted a new authorization.

COULD THIS BE A WINNER?—The Texas Department of Agriculture inaugurated its Family Land Heritage Program July 1 to recognize Texas farmers and ranchers whose families have been involved in a century or more of agricultural production on the same land. Those who qualify by Aug. 31 will be honored in a special ceremony at the State Fair.

VALUABLE AND FREE...

Motorists can get something for nothing in this nation besides water and air," reports the Meter, an Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company publication, "and it hasn't changed since its inception in 1918. It's the road map. Unknown in many nations throughout the world, the road map handed out without charge by gas stations is America's most-used device along with the phone book for instant information. One authority said that America's interstate road system could produce up to 30 million lost travelers if it weren't for maps. Today's road maps contain more information in one square inch than any like areas of printing matter. And the information is free."

The U.S. farmer gets about 46 cents of the consumer's food dollar. In 1951 he received 49 cents, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

ABSENTEEISM...

"Absenteeism," reports The Wall Street Journal, "surges most sharply among managerial personnel, a study shows. The rate of absenteeism among fulltime nonfarm wage and salary workers rose 10.3 percent between 1967 and 1972, according to new data on 'unscheduled absences' of less than a week. But the rate for managers soared 27.7 percent in the same period, the Labor Department finds.... A breakdown of the 1972 data shows women generally have a higher absenteeism rate than men. Divorced men had a rate of 2.5 percent, well below the 3.1 percent for married—and supposedly more stable—males. Absenteeism decreases with age.... The overall rate of absences caused by illness, injury, jury duty, personal business and other reasons stood at 4.3 percent... (in 1972), up from 3.9 percent in 1967."

COUNTRY MUSIC

It's going to be another country town Saturday night at Truscott on August 3. If you've been once you'll want to come back for this last musical of the summer.

If you haven't been, well you should have. There's playing and singing and smiles all around just like when your folks used to bring the eggs to the store and visit with everybody on the street every Saturday night.

Leave the eggs at home August 3, but bring your family. No need to bring the neighbors, they'll probably already be there patting their feet to the music and talking about you. So, come!

No admission charge because its all under the stars. They start playing long about 7:30 and play just about as long as anyone will listen. Y'all come.

Downtown Truscott, Saturday, August 3, 7:30 p.m.

A USDA spokesman said "suspected" cases were discovered in surrounding Texas counties and in an Oklahoma City stockyard.

Animal Health Commission officials recommended continued vaccination of cattle in Falls, McLennan, Leon, Freestone, Robertson, Bell, Milam, and Limestone counties. They were optimistic about control of the outbreak.

Oklahoma first placed an embargo on Texas cattle, then limited it to movement from the eight counties.

About 300,000 cattle were scheduled for vaccination in the Central Texas area, and only 250,000 doses of the vaccine were initially available.

An estimated 110,000 head of animals were in the quarantined zone. Forty-one roadblocks were established to prohibit movement.

Texas National Guard, the Department of Public Safety, and the State Department of Agriculture assisted in efforts to control spread of the disease.

ALLOWABLE SET — The Railroad Commission once more set the statewide oil allowable at 100 per cent, amid reports Texas is leading all other states in the search for oil and gas.

Texas has been operating under wide open production orders for more than two years.

Commission Chairman Jim Langdon said the agency has handled 10,600 drilling applications this year, compared to 6,600 by July of 1973. The number of drilling rigs has increased 42 per cent from a year ago — to 511 on location — twice as many as any other states, according to Langdon.

Thirty five percent of active rigs in the national are in Texas, by Langdon's count.

CONVENTION NEARS END — Whether delegates ever agree on a new state constitution or not, the Constitutional Convention of 1974 is about to wind down.

July 30 is the deadline for completion of the revision effort.

Delegates continued in pursuit of illusive compromise, voting down proposal after proposal, yet knowing that by the end of the month they probably would accept a revision package, like it or not.

ABC ADMINISTRATOR RETAINED — Alcoholic Beverage Commission Administrator O.N. "Newt" Humphreys Jr. weathered another effort to oust him from his $28,500-a-year job.

ABC Member R.L. Thornton Jr. of Dallas, for the second time, failed to get a second motion to fire Humphreys. Thornton made his first move last May.

Thus, Humphreys, 50, got a shaky two - to - one vote of confidence.

Russie Hord Is WSL Speaker

Mrs. Russie Hord shared experiences of a recent trip that she, Mrs. Brooks Seale and Mrs. Kathryn Fox made to Hawaii with members of the Women's Service League meeting last week at the community center. She was introduced by Mrs. Hazel Ramsey, program leader.

Mrs. Hord found the jet flight itself a highlight of her vacation. The local women spent three days in San Francisco sight-seeing, including dining at the Fisherman's Wharf. The group joined their tour in Hawaii where they were met by their guide at the airport—often many miles from the cities proper.

In the islands even the men wear beads which are usually made from nuts, shells and seeds. The islanders dress colorfully and no attire is unusual—everything goes.

With an average daily temperature of 70 degrees, it is quite pleasant the year around. Baby orchids are grown in the yards; however, the larger varieties are cultivated in greenhouses because of insects that attack them.

There are many outdoor restaurants and no flies but the birds will eat with the patrons. The Foard County residents witnessed and participated in a luau. A pig weighing approximately 140 pounds is dressed, then filled with heated stones, wrapped in banana leaves, then covered with a sacking and lowered into a pit lined with heated stones. The pit is then covered with dirt. This process is begun in the morning and uncovered late in the afternoon with ceremony. Mrs. Hord said the meat is clean and very delicious. It is served with an abundance of fruits, vegetables and fish. The guests are also presented the traditional leis.

Other highlights noted by Mrs. Hord were a flight to Hilo, a Polynesian show and the volcanoes. She displayed many of her purchases and post cards. The next Thursday meeting of the WSL will be a business meeting.

The "bare look" returns as big fashion news for the warm weather ahead. Halter tops, peplum tank tops, camisole tops and strapless shrinks will be abundant. Lightweight "easy shirts" provide a quick cover-up for a coordinated look, says the Extension Service.

Federation Makes Plans for Coming Year

The Foard County Federation of Women's Clubs has completed its calendar for the coming year with its theme "Unity—The Spirit of Truth and Concord." The Federation will meet four times, and will continue to have the Foard County Library as its main project.

Members preparing the calendar were Mmes. Henry Borchardt, Ed Huskey and Ray Shirley, president of the FCFWC.

A Silver Tea for the library will be held for the opening meeting on September 30 from 4:30 to 6:30 in the home of Mrs. H. C. Brown with the program leaders being members of the Columbian Club and hostesses, the Women's Service League.

The book "Upstairs at the White House" by J. B. West will be reviewed by Mrs. Grady Halbert. Steve Setliff will render a voice solo with Miss Amy Brasher accompanying him. The sub-theme for the meeting is "Truth in the Printed Word."

The November meeting has an open date but will be the same as the Home Demonstration Clubs annual Rally Day. Program leaders and hostesses for the all-day meeting will be the Gambleville, Riverside and Westside Clubs with a covered dish luncheon planned. "Concord in Togetherness", a bi-centennial program, will be the leading thought of this meeting.

A program entitled "Truth of International Relations in Vietnam" will open the new year's program on January 27 with the Adelpian Club scheduled as program leader and Columbian Club as hostess. Carl Brock, a teacher in the Crowell schools and a Vietnam veteran, will relate his experiences in that war. Patriotic songs will be sung with Mrs. Bob Thomas accompanying at the piano. The meeting will be at the Community Center at 3:30.

Concluding the year's calendar will be a meeting on March 31 with its theme "Concord with Oneself". Leaders will be members of the Women's Service League and hostesses, the Adelpian Club. Misses Pam Whatley, Betty Collins and Kimberly Norman will present folk music; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adcock will talk on their activities at the Vernon drug center. The meeting will be held at the Adelpian Clubhouse at 3:30 p.m.

National Library Week for 1975 is scheduled for the week of April 13 through 19.

The Veterans Administration reminds married home-minded veterans that it is now easier to qualify for GI home loans because the agency accords full recognition to incomes and expenses of both veteran and spouse in determining ability to repay loan obligations.

30 Years Ago in The News

The First Bank of Truscott, which has been in operation since 1907, has been liquidated and its doors were closed on Saturday night, July 15. The voluntary liquidation followed the death of its owner and president, T. B. Masterson, which occurred in May. The bank was closed and the records were moved to the Trust Department of the First National Bank of Fort Worth. The Truscott bank was organized in 1907 by Potts and Pitts of Fort Worth.

J. V. Counts, 24, of Amarillo, was arrested in Quanah by Hardeman County Sheriff M. C. Owen on July 17 as a suspect in the robbery of the W. R. Womack safe on the night of June 19.

Twelve voting boxes will be open to Foard County voters when they go to the polls July 22 in the first Democratic primary. A total of 1,301 poll tax receipts were issued this year and a fairly heavy turnout of voters is expected.

This week marks the fourth anniversary of the grocery business of Fred Wehba. Four years ago this week, he opened a grocery store and market in the Self building.

Three years ago this week, J. T. Brooks purchased the grocery stock of Herman Fox and started business in Crowell. His store was practically destroyed by the tornado two years ago but started anew and is now operating a frozen food locker in connection with his grocery and meat business.

Officers of Crowell Masonic Lodge who were recently installed for the ensuing year are Leslie Thomas, worshipful master; J. L. (Bill) Bell, senior warden; Merl Kincaid, treasurer; D. R. Magee, secretary; T. S. Haney, senior deacon; J. C. Prosser, junior deacon; W. L. Callaway, tiler; R. S. Watkins, chaplain; C. R. Seale, senior steward; J. J. McCoy, junior steward.

Mrs. Lucy S. Travers of Cambridge, Mass., has announced the marriage of her daughter, Lucy, to Pfc. Thomas C. (Cecil) Short, son of John L. Short of Olton, formerly of the Riverside community. The wedding took place on Saturday June 24.

Truscott was hit by strong wind, rain and hail, Monday afternoon. It unroofed part of the school building and upset several small buildings and blew down quite a few trees.

Cpl. Robert E. Choate, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Choate of Margaret, who has been stationed in the Aleutian Islands for the past 28 months, has returned to the States and is now at Camp Plauce, La.

FIREARMS MAJOR RURAL ACCIDENT
Pointing out that firearms accidents, last year's major fatal farm accident, took 42 lives on Texas farms and ranches in 1973, the Texas Safety Association suggests some basic gun safety rules for the farmer or rancher.

All firearms should be securely stored after a check to make sure they are unloaded. Any person allowed to use a firearm should be familiarized with its safe use and should be responsible enough to follow the rules. A gun should not be used by a person who is fatigued or intoxicated.

Hunters should check in and out and should be required to specify where they will hunt. They should wear identifiable clothing. The farmer-rancher should be careful not to overstock his place with too many hunters.

Quanah Editor Comments on Wilbarger RC&D Request

(Editor's Note: Considerable publicity has appeared in area papers lately concerning Quanah turning down the application of Wilbarger County's efforts to join the RC&D program. The following comments of Ed Eakin of the Quanah Tribune-Chief, are timely.)

When Quanah's city council reconsidered and hopefully give approval to the application of Wilbarger County's entry into the RC&D program, a basic flaw in area county relations came to the surface.

Although the Council is going to reconsider and hopefully give approval, their attitude toward our neighboring county to the east unfortunately is shared by a host of others here.

While Wilbarger County hasn't really "done" anything to her smaller county neighbor to the west, some comment here has been "where has she been when we needed her."

For examples, Wilbarger refused to be a partner in the Greenbelt Water Authority or even to give aid and succor when the program was being developed.

Likewise, while the Four

Winds Industrial Development program was being laboriously excoriated, Wilbarger showed no common interest but spent her time politicking for a Junior College that Quanah thought it wanted, getting more facilities for its state hospital, nabbing the state agricultural center that everybody in the area wanted, and picking up a Hardeman County industry, Stein-Hall, Inc., from Chillicothe.

Now, the argument runs, Wilbarger wants to jump in without so much as a "thank you mam" and pick up the cream from years of work putting the Four Winds program together.

Quanah's city council probably has a dog in the manger attitude but not without reason. Wilbarger's requested entry into the Four Winds RC&D program was filed without a single word to Quanah and probably not to other members of the area organization in good standing.

To cement area cooperation and to help stimulate growth, we think Wilbarger County should be in the RC&D. However, we also think there should be some expression of good faith on their part that they are going to work for the area, not just Wilbarger County.

Being the "big sister," Wilbarger has an opportunity to help provide solid leadership in the area, but not at the expense of its smaller counties to the west.

In recent months, Four Winds newspapers have been publishing a Four Winds Shopping Guide in an effort to encourage area shopping. We felt the need to strengthen our area ties and to promote industry and business in all our counties.

Area cooperation is needed now more than ever for the economic well being of all our counties. Wilbarger County could fill an important slot, but it will take a spirit of cooperation from both sides of the county line.

Little League All-Stars Lose to Munday

The Crowell Little League all-star baseball team participated in the district tournament last Thursday afternoon, and came out on the short end of an 8-1 score in the game with Munday at Munday.

Ricky Sosa, Munday pitcher, kept the Crowell attack under control most of the game. Leslie Denton, Crowell first baseman, connected for a home run in the first inning, and John Henry McGee got a base hit in the third and a two-bagger in the sixth to account for the only Crowell hits. McGee went all the way on the mound for Crowell.

Members of the local all-star team were McGee, Ray Santos, Denton, Dan Klepper, Dan Brown, Bobby Joe Cerda, Ronnie Wasia, Bill Bond, Mike Brown, James Martin, Jeff Christopher, Randall Hardy, Jimmy Quintero, and Reuben Santos. Dale Henry was manager and Bill Bell his assistant.

Besides ministering to dying beggars, the nuns also care for lepers and any and every child brought to their door. Mother Teresa takes special pride in the fact that the children are never turned away. "We have never refused a child," she told Mr. Muggerridge. "We always have one more bed for one more child."

Summing up his impressions of this remarkable woman, Mr. Muggerridge wrote: "To me Mother Teresa represents love in action, which is surely what Christianity is about."

Any faith, to be true to itself, translates love into action. It is up to each of us to discover whether our beliefs stand up to this crucial test.

What One Person Can Do

MOTHER TERESA FRIEND OF THE DYING

Dying beggars are a common sight on the streets of Calcutta, so common that everyone ignores them—or almost everyone.

Mother Teresa, a Yugoslavian born nun, has spent over 25 years befriending these outcasts during their final hours.

"We want them to know that there are people who really love them, who really want them, at least for the few hours that they have to live, to know human and divine love." This is what Mother Teresa told Malcolm Muggerridge, the British social commentator, who has written a biography of her called "Something Beautiful for God."

To date, Mother Teresa and her Missionaries of Charity have taken in nearly 25,000 dying beggars. About half of these hopeless patients have recovered under their loving care although doctors considered them beyond the help of any modern hospital. Jobs are found for those who can work. Those too weak or too old remain in the home. In 1952, the Indian government gave Mother Teresa an abandoned temple to house her "Home for the Dying."

Besides ministering to dying beggars, the nuns also care for lepers and any and every child brought to their door. Mother Teresa takes special pride in the fact that the children are never turned away. "We have never refused a child," she told Mr. Muggerridge. "We always have one more bed for one more child."

Auction Set for August 7th

Dick Todd reminded Foard County residents again this week that the auction which benefits handicapped children and adults at the North Texas Rehabilitation Center in Wichita Falls, will be held Wednesday, August 7.

This sixth annual sale will be held at the Wichita Livestock Auction in Wichita Falls.

All profits from the sale go to support the rehabilitation center which provides needed therapy for children and adults in Foard County and this entire section.

Todd is contacting cattlemen seeking pledges of cows, calves, bulls, steers, horses, lambs, goats and all other livestock. "Cash donations also will be accepted," Todd added.

AID AVAILABLE FOR WASTE SYSTEMS

Texas livestock and poultry producers who are not engaged in "Custom" or "Commercial" operations can not get 50 per cent cost-sharing assistance in installing waste management systems, according to an agricultural engineer in waste management for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Funds of up to $18 million are now available through the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Rural Environmental Assistance Program (Reap). The facilities must be substantially completed by December 31 of this year to qualify for the assistance program.

RURAL WATER SAFETY URGED

The Texas Safety Association, noting that drownings accounted for 41 fatal farm accidents in Texas last year, urges that farm ponds be equipped with lifesaving equipment and that children never be allowed to play in them alone. Fencing should be in place and in good repair around tanks, cisterns and wells.

TSA is one of the sponsors of Farm and Ranch Safety Week, proclaimed by Governor Dolph Briscoe for July 25-31.

Shortages 'Acute' Says Survey

AUSTIN—Baling wire and fertilizer shortages are termed acute in numerous counties around the state according to figures recently issued by the Texas State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) in College Station.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said the figures reveal that the baling wire shortage is acute in 42 counties and tight in 95. Baling twine is acute in 39 counties and tight in 81.

Nitrogen fertilizer supplies are reported as acute in 17 counties, phosphate in 11 and potash and mixtures in eight.

The report is issued monthly by the ASCS as a monitoring service. State findings are forwarded to the Federal Energy Office in Dallas. The report was started with the onset of the fuel shortage and it continues to monitor gasoline and diesel supplies.

No counties reported acute fuel shortages during June and only 33 mentioned tight gasoline or diesel supplies.

White said fuel problems generally can be alleviated quickly because agricultural producers receive top priority in this area. Fertilizer and baling wire are different stories, however, because the government has no control over either.

Pesticides are also listed on the report. Thus far, acute shortages have been minimal.

The 233 ASCS offices around the state are responsible for compiling the information from their particular counties and forwarding it to the state office.

LAKE PARK, IOWA, NEWS:

"At the turn of the century, government employed less than one million persons and there were approximately 26 persons employed in the private sector for every one employed in the public sector. By 1972 the picture had changed drastically. Government employment had grown approximately five times as fast as employment in the private sector and there were then only 5.1 persons employed in the private sector for every one civilian employee. If this trend continues unabated by the beginning of the next century, the year 2,000, for every worker in the private sector there will be one in the public sector."

William Henry Harrison died on April 4, 1841, just one month after he was inaugurated president of the United States.

"Politicians have often been accused of being long-winded. This thought came frequently to my mind as I glanced over a 63-page report on the problems of welfare programs, compiled by a man who was leaving his department. For all of its wordiness, the simple fact still remains: "It's a poor system that gives people more money for doing nothing than they could earn for doing something!"
