Unusually Hot Weather Here in October

September, with its abundance of moisture, brought Foard County some record low temperatures during the month.

However, October is proving to be a completely new ball game, with no moisture during the first two weeks, and record setting high temperatures. The mercury has risen into the 90's several afternoons during the past week, and high winds from the south have dried out the topsoil.

A cool front Tuesday brought some relief from the unseasonably-high temperatures.

Eighth Greenbelt LVN School to Begin Classes Monday

The eighth consecutive class of the Greenbelt School of Vocational Nursing will get underway at the community center next Monday with a new instructor and a total of 21 students.

Mrs. Betty LaFlower of Knox City is the new instructor replacing Mrs. Edith Roark who resigned to take a position with the Vernon college. Mrs. Hazel Marlow will be the assistant instructor.

There are four students from Foard County and the remainder come from area counties.

The school runs for a one-year period.

J. A. Marr Retires; Duane Johnson Elected SCS Director

IN TRAINING—Airman Arthur B. Cerda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jose G. Cerda of Thalia, has been selected for technical training in the U. S. Air Force fire protection field at Chanute AFB, Ill. The airman recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Texas, where he studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations. Airman Cerda is a 1975 graduate of Crowell High School. (USAF Home Town News Center.)

School to Continue to Offer Drivers Education Training

The Crowell school board voted to offer drivers education in the local system this year. The course will be offered free of charge to the students since a recent attorney general's ruling said it was illegal to charge students for taking the course. Previously there has been a $30 per student charge made for taking the course. There are presently 46 students in high school eligible to take drivers education. Supt. Larry Jones said the course will begin the second quarter of the school year, which will have the class beginning November 10.

The school will also be unable to make charges for English and chemistry workbooks, or typing fees. Also, grade school teachers will be unable to charge their pupils for buying construction paper, art supplies and other incidental supplies.

The board studied several proposals for a new show barn at the school campus. Floyd Borchardt and Don Welch were named to head a committee in raising funds for the project. The proposed building will be 60x100 feet in size. The project is hopefully going to be financed by donations from area residents and businesses. A meeting of the show barn committee is set for Thursday night to further plans for financing and construction.

The board approved the delinquent tax roll for 1974 which totaled $7,692.30. Delinquent taxes for '74 were up some $2500 over the fiscal year of 1973 in the district. About 95 per cent of the 1974 school taxes were collected, school secretary J. H. Gillespie said. He added that $35,736.00 in 1975 taxes had been collected from October 1 up to Monday of this week.

The board re-assigned duties of two faculty members, and voted that in determining honor students for this year's junior high graduating class, the grades in the science course are not to be used in determining averages.

The board approved the payment of $13,542.00 in current bills, and voted to spend $425.00 to buy a new public address system for the high school. The equipment will be purchased from Wholesale Electronics in Wichita Falls.

The board voted to pay the local district's share of the operating cost of the Greenbelt Co-Op., an association of schools in this area banding together for special education instruction. Crowell's share is something over $1,000.00.

Supt. Larry Jones told board members that shop foreman Allen Taylor was in a Wichita Falls hospital suffering from injuries received when his horse threw him and broke three bones in his foot. He was to undergo surgery this week, Jones added.

The Hornets have a 1-4 record having defeated Throckmorton in pre-season while dropping games to Olney, Jayton, Rule and Rochester.

Coach Gidney said Monday that all the Wildcats should be ready for action Friday night.

Commissioners Lease School Land; Buy New Diesel Tractor

Foard County commissioners court in a regular meeting Monday morning approved the bid of R. L.

Fields of Muleshoe for the lease of 531 acres of Foard County school land near Muleshoe. Mr. Fields bid

$2,001.10 per year for the lease of the land.

Commissioners bought a 42 horsepower 1975 Massey Ferguson diesel powered tractor from Red River Farm Supply Co. of Vernon on a low bid of $5,397.00. County Judge Seth Halbert said three bids were received. The county has bought a shredder for $378.00 and the tractor shredder will be used over the county in keeping down weeds and grass along the ditches of rural roads.

The court has not taken any further action on the restricting of the county, Judge Halbert added.

JUNIOR JJS
 The junior girls are eagerly awaiting the party that the junior boys are supposed to give us. It's going to be sort of messy because the boys magazine captain is going to get a pie in his face.

Just for something different, we've decided to use popular quotations pertaining to school life.

Feelings—Feelings are like chemicals, the more you analyze them, the worse they smell.

Carelessness — Many little leaks may sink a ship. This happens when little mistakes on a test add up to a zero.

Excuses—A bad excuse is better, they say, than none at all. Right?

Books—Books, like friends, should be few and well chosen.

Opportunity — Strike while the iron is hot. In other words, while the teacher is gone, take the chance to shoot paper wads.

Warning—Coming events cast their shadows before. Take all precautions when you know the class before you enjoy pestering the teachers.

Exaggeration—Exaggeration is to paint a snake and add legs. This happens every Monday morning while listening to the boys tell about the drag races during the week end.

Practice—Practice what you preach.

Thinking—A moment's thinking is an hour in words. This is what the teachers are hoping that we students will do someday.

Talking—A bird is known by its note, and a man by his talk. Of course, this is the way the teachers find out who's the big mouth!

This Friday there'll be plenty of excitement. First of all there will be a chili supper sponsored by the Columbian Junior Club at 5 and then the Cats play their first district game at 7:30. Juniors say Good Luck.

SOPHOMORE SCOOP
 Last week was a busy one for the sophomores. We had a test (which took two days) in biology, also a diagramming test in English. Students in typing are still struggling as they learn new keys.

This week is the first week of district play in football. There has been a great deal of spirit around school and a lot more is anticipated as the Wildcats will be competing for the district crown.

This week the Crowell-Aspermont game is here so let's all go out and yell for the Wildcats. It would be worth it, especially since everyone wants the Wildcats to come out on top! This week the sophs say; Harass the Hornets!

week with a few hot lines from our fantastic freshman. As you all know by now, the freshman class is always up to something, and this week we are conjuring plans and ideas for spirit week which will be November 7. We have fun making signs as a class because of our excess energy. Everywhere you go, you see signs that say "Conserve energy." Well, we have the kind of energy that you just can't conserve, so we use it in a useful manner. Our pep rallies are held in the auditorium each Friday at 2:15. The public is invited and the school would appreciate your coming to offer your support, too! That would also give you a chance to see us release some of our energy. Let's chalk up our fifth victory as Crowell plays Aspermont here at 7:30 in our first conference game. See ya there!

Freshmen say: Haunt the Hornets!

PEP SQUAD NEWS
 Last week's big mouth award was given to the honor band of Crowell High School at the Friday pep rally. Head cheerleader Kimberly Norman made the presentation. In spite of the fact that the band plays their musical instruments, they do an excellent job of yelling. This Friday the Wildcats will host the Aspermont Hornets here at 7:30. This is the first district game of the year. Pep squad says, "Sting the Hornets!"

THE CHS HONOR BAND
 Last Friday night the band marched their contest show for the first time. Mr. Streit announced Monday that there would be some changes and new drills added to compose a more complete contest show. Contest is less than one month away! With this in mind, each band member must strive harder to prepare our show. A mysterious sign appeared in the band hall Monday. It reads as follows: (Band Motto: You never get a second chance to make a good first impression!) If each band member will keep this in mind, there will be no doubt about CHS being the Class A Honor Band of the State of Texas in 1976.

Sportsmen Know Bargain

Texas sportsmen know a bargain when they see it. Sale of the Parks and Wildlife Department's $8.75 combination hunting and fishing license is on the increase while sales are declining for single $4.25 fishing and $5.25 resident hunting licenses. License sales officials at the P&WD compared sales figures at the end of the department's fiscal year Aug. 31 and found that revenue from the combination license increased from $3.5 million in fiscal year 1973-74 to $3.9 million in the recently completed FY 1974-75.

Pork Supplies Are at a 40-Year Low

Pork supplies are at a 40 year low—with "features" for the consumer practically "non-existent with the exception of bacon and sausage," according to Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt. Mrs. Clyatt is consumer marketing information specialist with the Extension Service. At other meat sections in Texas grocery stores this week, she advised consumers to check poultry prices. "Fryer chicken supplies are adequate—pricewise and tastewise, they are an excellent buy. Chickens are good values, and are featured in some of this week. Also, as large-size become more abundant their prices will drop. Currently, best beef are found on corned ground beef, liver steaks and chuck roasts—and may be a slight increase in beef supplies, which result in slightly higher prices, she added.

GOVERNOR ATTENDS HEATLY EVENT — Governor Dolph Briscoe, center, was in Paducah Thursday to honor Rep. W. S. Bill Heatly. On the left is Felix Taylor of Crowell, and partially hidden on the right is Joe Don Brown, also of Crowell.

Foard Museum Recipient of Valuable Papers, Scrapbooks

A recent and valuable acquisition for the Foard County Archives is a collection of scrapbooks and valuable papers which have been donated by Milton and Joe Mark Magee and Jim Allee Hart.

The collection has been received by the Foard County Historical Commission in two separate packages, one from the Magee Brothers and the other from Mr. Hart. They will be carefully filed and displayed in the Foard County Archives at the Old Fire Hall when it is completed in 1976. Within the collection are documents prior to 1850 in Collin County, the home of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Allee before their coming to then Hardeman County in 1885. Of special interest to this county is a scrap book which was started in 1885 for the late Mrs. Carrie Allee Hart; a hand-written story of Cynthia Ann Parker by the late Mrs. J. M. Allee, and hundreds of individual pieces, including hand-written ledgers, which relate to the operations of the Sheriff and Tax Collector's Office of Hardeman County, covering a period of 1885-1889, when the county seat was located at Old Margaret. Mr. Allee was the second Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hardeman County at the time of his death in 1889.

The Foard County Historical Commission, of which Mrs. Virgil Johnson is chairman, wishes to express its sincere gratitude to the descendants of this pioneer family for placing such valuable materials in the county for future use.

Atty. Gen. Ruling Is Explained

A seven point letter designed to answer questions raised by the recent Attorney General's Opinion eliminating many fees traditionally charged public school students was mailed to school administrators across the state Friday, October 10, by Dr. M. L. Brockette, Commissioner of Education.

The opinion issued on October 1 by Attorney

General John L. Hill covered three key areas: tuition for driver education, charges for school supplies and instruction and lab fees, and fees for extra curricular activities.

Hill's ruling confines itself to the specific questions asked. Brockette's letter to the school superintendents points out. It also states that all areas addressed in the Opinion that are not permitted by law are prohibited.

"The following statements are submitted in response to the many questions from local school districts," Brockette says in his letter to some 1,100 district superintendents. "We hope the following will help you in implementing the Opinion."

1. The effective date is the date of the ruling, October 1

1975. The Attorney General's Opinion did not cover fees collected prior to the date of October 1, 1975.

2. The ruling does not speak to students furnishing traditional supplies such as pencils, paper, etc.

3. Fees charged to buy such materials as workbooks, etc., are covered under the ruling. Fees for typing, labs, etc., are also covered by the ruling.

4. Materials necessary for the student to acquire basic skills in vocational education courses must be furnished by the school district. However, the school district may allow a student, at his option, to furnish costlier or different vocational materials for approved projects undertaken for credit in such courses without incurring any obligation to pay for such materials, so long as the materials and the projects created from them remain the property of the student.

5. A school district may charge tuition for driver training if taught in the student's fourth quarter (summer school). This is one of the areas in which tuition may be charged as indicated in Texas Education Code 16.864.

6. A school district may charge non-participating students admission to extra curricular activities where attendance is voluntary.

7. A rental fee may not be charged for band uniforms. The opinion does not address the question of students furnishing their own uniforms and or equipment.

GOD'S GRACE

Men today are seeking salvation. Many men teach from the pulpits of the land that God's grace is sufficient. No place in the Bible are we taught that God's grace alone saves.

Paul wrote, "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation HATH APPEARED TO ALL MEN..." Titus 2:11.

Many religionists want to stop there and claim their salvation. Or they want to base their salvation on another Scripture, namely John 3:16. There Jesus is quoted as saying "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

One does not have to be a Greek scholar to understand Paul in the first Scripture mentioned. He simply says God's grace has APPEARED to every man. He does not say every man is saved, but simply that God's grace has appeared; that through God's grace man can be saved. Through His grace the plan of salvation has been revealed. In Romans 5:8, Paul writes, "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Surely these words also show us that by God's provision, because of His love for us, we can be saved. But we are not saved by His love alone; neither is man saved by faith alone, repentance alone or by baptism alone. All of these, however, are taught in the Bible as having a part in our salvation. May we all strive to accept the whole will of God and be thankful for his grace which makes our salvation possible.

Sandhill Crane Hunters Need Federal Permit

The western third of Texas opens to lesser sandhill crane hunting starting the latter parts of October and November, but with a new twist this year.

In an effort to learn more about the sandhill cranes and harvest of the big birds, the state and federal governments require each hunter to obtain a permit before hunting the cranes.

Such permits are available at no charge upon written request from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, John H. Reagan Bldg., Austin, Texas, 78701.

Wildcats Drop from Unbeaten Ranks with Loss to Electra

The Crowell Wildcats were knocked out of the state's list of undefeated football teams last Friday night by a powerful Electra Tiger team which held the Wildcats to just one field goal and no touchdowns. Final score was 15-3.

Crowell's three points came in the second quarter when senior David Bell kicked a 32-yard field goal after a Wildcat drive bogged down. Bell led the Crowell rushing attack with 82 yards on 12 carries. His longest gainer covered 46 yards when he galloped from the Crowell 35 down to the Tiger 19 before he was dragged down by an Electra defender.

This penetration by the Wildcats stopped there and was followed by an unsuccessful field goal attempt. Another try for a field goal earlier in the game also proved no good.

Rocky Glasscock and Myron Halencak both picked off Electra passes during the game.

Just before the half ended the Wildcats had moved to the Electra 1 when time ran out and Crowell went to the locker room trailing 12-3.

Scoring for the Tigers were Gary Gibson, who ran two yards for the first touchdown, in the first period. In the second quarter Tiger quarterback Wayne Sales passed 25 yards to Larry Brown for the TD. Try for extra points failed after both scores. Bobby Henry tacked on 3 more points for Electra with a field goal in the fourth period.

The Wildcats, under Coach Printiss Gidney, have completed their non-district schedule with a successful 4 wins, 1 loss record and now begin District 7-A action here Friday night with the Aspermont Hornets.

Applications Being Taken for Practices

Applications are now being taken for conservation practices that will be completed by December 31, 1975, according to information released last week by Joe Sabbe, executive director of the Foard County ASCS.

Sabbe added, "There are limited funds available. If you are planning any conservation work to be completed by December 31, 1975, contact this office."

Sabbe also told Foard County producers that any feed grain or upland cotton that is not going to be harvested must be inspected by the ASCS office before the crop is destroyed. "If you decide to harvest and have a low yield, bring your production evidence to this office so we may check your eligibility for a low yield payment," Sabbe said.

All price support commodity loans made on or after October 1, 1975, will bear a new interest rate of 7.50 per cent. The previous interest rate was 6.125 per cent and was in effect from April 1 to October 1, 1975. Adjustments in the interest rate are made twice a year and are based on the cost to Commodity Credit Corporation of borrowing money from the U. S. Treasury, Sabbe says.

Individual Retirement Bonds Placed on Sale by Government

The Department of the Treasury has placed on sale U. S. Individual Retirement Bonds. They are specifically designed for investment by persons who lack coverage by any other retirement plan. The Bonds are issued pursuant to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. They are sold at face value in denominations of $50, and $100 and $500. Interest accrues at the rate of six percent per year, compounded semiannually, and is payable upon redemption.

LETTER TO EDITOR
To the Editor:
Interest in preserving local history is growing by leaps and bounds throughout the state. Since organization a few years ago of the State Historical Commission, county historical societies have been springing up all over.

The result is that Texas is becoming a leader in preserving its past. Old homes are being restored, small community museums are being built, historical landmarks are being recognized and pioneer histories are being gathered and preserved. All of this is being accomplished by non-paid volunteers who believe what they are doing is important for today's citizens and those of the future.

I was in Crowell recently and had the opportunity of visiting the McAdams Ranch Museum. It was quite a surprise to see such a well-planned and interesting home museum a few miles outside of Crowell. I had no idea it existed.

I was especially impressed to learn that it has been made possible primarily by one person, Mrs. Betty B. Gafford, although she was quick to point out that she had received the help of many.

I'm sure that is true but there has to be a nucleus of interest. Someone has to be dedicated enough to be willing to spare the time, the work and the money to make such a facility a reality. Many have the time and the money but few are willing to use them for such a purpose.

I understand that Crowell historical leaders are now planning another facility, this time in the downtown area, to provide for preservation of your rich past. This is wonderful. Certainly they are to be appreciated for their efforts and for pursuing these worthwhile projects. As a result, in the years to come Crowell will be among those communities recognized as being smart enough to realize the value of historical preservation.

I'm sure everyone in your town know what has and is being done but thought it wouldn't hurt if they realized that some "outsiders" do also.

Sincerely,
Jim Servatius, Editor,
Plainview Daily Herald.

Drawings Set for Hunting Permits

If you want to hunt deer on one of six Parks and Wildlife Department wildlife management areas, your application must be in the Austin office by 5 p. m., Oct. 20.

A public drawing will be held at 10 a. m., Oct. 23 in the John Reagan Building, Austin, to select 1,055 hunters.

A spokesman for the P&WD reminds hunters that wildlife management areas are not hunting preserves and do not necessarily have large game population. Management areas are outdoor laboratories where wildlife experiments are conducted. Public hunts are an integral part of game management research.

The goal of such areas is to develop biologically sound game management practices which can be applied elsewhere on private lands.

This... and That
—By JIM SERVATIUS—

Now that Plainview is on the way to having a museum, the subject is of interest to many people. We had an opportunity this past weekend to visit an unusual facility near Crowell.

The McAdams Ranch Museum is located a few miles west of town and is actually the former home of the McAdams family, pioneer ranchers of the Crowell area. The rooms have all been furnished, from large pieces down to the smallest accessories, with items of the early settlement period plus some later articles.

An interesting aspect is that the whole thing has been the project of one woman, the McAdams' daughter, Mrs. Betty B. Gafford who now owns the ranch. With dedication, hard work and no small amount of money Mrs. Gafford not only has transformed the large home into an outstanding private museum but spent years collecting the interesting items that are used to furnish and decorate each room.

On hand to guide visitors through the home, she obviously delights in things of the past and takes great pride in preserving them. The museum is closed during the winter months beginning Nov. 1.

Betty B., as she is known in and around Crowell, is one of those interesting people abounding with energy, enthusiasm and talent who leave you somewhat in awe. An artist (her own home and the adjacent museum are full of her paintings and she did the art work for Foard County's official Bicentennial historical medallion), she also is an authority on Indian history.

She recalls the days when Indians would come to the ranch each year from Oklahoma, setting up their tents and slaughtering the beef given to them by her father. These ties, plus trips to New Mexico and Arizona, have resulted in quite a collection of Navajo rugs, pottery and other Indian crafts.

Outside, cow bells dangle from trees and in the backyard a miniature prairie dog town flourishes, a suitable addition to the home of a woman who lives very much in the present but who has taken the time to hold on to and preserve a big part of her area's past.

(Editor's Note: This article is photographically reproduced from the Plainview Daily Herald. It concerns the local museum and is written by the editor of the Plainview Daily Herald, Mr. Servatius is a brother of Mrs. Ed Roark of Crowell.)

Mirror to New Center

The Women's Service League has presented a framed mirror to the Crowell Nursing Center. The gift which has been placed above the organ complements the Spanish decor of the facility. Mmes. Thelma Lemons and Marlene Fox made the selection.

Practicing what it preaches, the Veterans Administration has hired more than 28,000 Vietnam-era veterans.

Truth in Statistics
Page 5
Foard County News
Crowell, Texas, Oct. 16, 1975

The Federal Trade Commission has advised more than 1,000 leading manufacturers they must furnish the government detailed statistics on business activities affecting competition. The new questionnaire is called a Corporate Patterns Report.

But even before the information is on its way to Washington it appears that it will be of questionable value, according to no less an authority than the FTC's top statistical expert until a few months ago.

Dr. William Levin, an FTC employee of 22 years who retired recently as chief of the agency's Division of Financial Statistics, branded the information to be gathered as "fundamentally and irrevocably flawed."

The basic problem, he explains, is that the FTC is collecting information about shipments, rather than sales, and he says the data would be misleading if used to prosecute antitrust cases.

"Value of shipments data, by definition, includes multiple counting of shipments," Dr. Levin says. Thus he adds, the data would not accurately reflect a company's share of a market for a particular product -- a factor in many antitrust cases.

The FTC nonetheless is going ahead with its quest for the information. The question is raised whether we need a truth-in-statistics law. Perhaps the statisticians can give us an answer.

Brother of Leon Speer Died Oct. 6

Funeral services were held Wednesday of last week at the First Baptist Church of Los Alamos, N. M. for Dick Speer, 67, a brother of former Crowell resident Leon Speer. Mr. Speer had visited frequently in Crowell during his brother's residence here.

Mr. Speer died Monday of last week at Los Alamos Medical Center after a brief illness.

A pioneer resident of Los Alamos, Mr. Speer opened the town's first department store in 1947 and organized the Chamber of Commerce there, serving as president in 1968-69. He was a Mason.

Survivors include his wife, one daughter; three brothers, Leon Speer of Vernon, Ed Speer of Crystal City and Horace Speer of Winters, two sisters, Mrs. Jim Clement of Limon, Colo. and Mrs. Ray Kump of San Angelo, and one grandson.

Mrs. Russie Hord is Rotary Speaker

Mrs. Russie Hord, who made a tour of Spain during the summer, showed pictures and told about her trip at the Wednesday, Oct. 8, meeting of the Rotary Club of Crowell.

Mrs. Hord said Spain is the fourth largest nation in Europe. In times past it was the richest nation in Europe, but a devastating civil war in the 1930s and a dictatorship for all the ensuing years has left it one of the poorest nations in Europe. She told about visiting Madrid, a city of 2 million people and Toledo, a city located on a granite mountain and which is famous for its Damascus steel manufacturing enterprises.

Mrs. Hord accompanied a touring group of some 250 persons and the group traveled from Spain to Tangier in North Africa. En route Mrs. Hord caught a brief glimpse of the Rock of Gibraltar which was almost hidden from view by fog the day the group passed nearby.

En route home, she said she left Spain, the plane refueled in Newfoundland, traveled to New York, then to Dallas, and on to Lubbock, all in the same day.

Mrs. Hord was introduced by Rotarian Cecil Davis. Another visitor at the meeting was Rotarian Newell Hofmann of Vernon.

U. M. W. MEETS

The United Methodist Women met for their monthly business meeting Monday in the fellowship hall of the church.

Mrs. C. V. Barker, accompanied by Mrs. Jack Welch at the piano, led the opening sing song. Mrs. Aaron Mitchell offered thanks, and a delicious covered dish luncheon was enjoyed.

Rev. Mitchell gave the devotion. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Moody Bursey and the treasurer's report was read by Mrs. L. M. Brown. A report on where the pledge money goes was given by Mrs. Lewis Sloan, vice president, acting in the absence of the president. Mrs. Allen Sanders, who is ill in the Foard County Hospital. Mrs. Halbert Is W. S. L. Speaker

Mrs. Grady Halbert described an overnight stop at Barrow—most northern village in Alaska—at last week's Women's Service League luncheon. She was introduced by Mrs. Elizabeth Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Halbert enplaned at Denver, Colo., and landed at Anchorage before continuing their tour. They were able to see Mt. McKinley while in flight—clouds usually make this impossible.

Arriving in Barrow with 30 degree temperature in mid-July, the tourists were met by their guide who immediately took them via bus to secure a parka. Mrs. Halbert stated these are not always made from skins but now often from other materials. She emphasized the fur around the hood was a great protection for the face.

There was broken ice in the Arctic Ocean and 24-hour sunlight. The Foard County residents who had heavy drapes over their hotel windows arose to take pictures of the midnight sun.

The hotel which was very expensive to build due to the necessity of flying in all supplies was meager to our standards. All buildings must be constructed on poles above the ground due to the permafrost—otherwise they would slowly sink. Transportation has also made the pipeline expensive.

The Halberts attended a native program at the Barrow community center. They had reindeer and whale for dinner—both sub-standard but reindeer the better of the two. The local restaurant noted that it was here Wiley Post and Will Rogers were killed in a plane crash in 1935. They also witnessed a blanket toss.

Their guide stated welfare has changed the people in many instances—they are very poor. Trash is evident everywhere but is covered by snow some ten months of the year. The children are healthy.

This area has an ample lake but a scarce water supply due to the temperature. Eskimos buy ice for water in the winter. Milk sells for $5.95 per gallon. Freezers are holes dug in the earth. Snowmobiles are used. Eskimos can kill polar bears but cannot sell their skins to the white man—who cannot kill them—thus the skins are often used for dog beds.

Mrs. Halbert displayed the certificate she was issued when she crossed the Arctic Circle and other souvenirs. The couple toured other parts of Alaska that were a complete contrast to the Barrow area. They particularly enjoyed fishing, the beautiful scenery and leisurely pace of another region.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to gratefully acknowledge those of you who have been so supportive during this difficult period in my life. Your kindness and good will has not gone unnoticed, and I shall be forever appreciative of your selfless actions.

Mrs. William Cates and family.
