Register to Vote NOW!

Under Texas' new voter registration law passed last year, all voters in the State must re-register this year in order to be qualified to vote in 1976 elections.

Although some confusion has arisen as to just when to register, the best advice is to register during January. That leaves Thursday and Friday, Jan. 29 and Jan. 30. There is a distinct possibility that state authorities will set the last of January as the cut-off day for registering, so if you haven't already registered, you should do so SOON.

Candidates Must File by February 2nd

Next Monday afternoon, February 2, at 6 p. m. is the final date for candidates to file for a place on the ballot for the first Democratic primary to be held Saturday, May 1.

Any person wishing to be a candidate should contact Democratic Chairman T. L. Tamplen before that deadline.

BASKETBALL TEAMS GO TO KNOX CITY FRIDAY FOR GAMES

Crowell High School basketball teams will travel to Knox City Friday night for District 7-A contests.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens Note Anniversary Basketball Teams Tied for First in District 7-A Race

Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Owens quietly observed their 64th wedding anniversary Thursday, January 22, at their home in Crowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens were married at the home of Mrs. Silas Moore and the late Mr. Moore here in Crowell on January 22, 1912. They went to Galveston following their wedding where Mr. Owens was employed as a street car conductor. The couple lived in Galveston for about two years before moving back to Foard County where they have since resided. Mr. Owens retired from farming several years ago.

They are the parents of four children: one son, R. J. Owens of Crowell; and three daughters, Mrs. James Sandlin of Crowell, Mrs. Loyd Longley of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Betty Broyles of Iowa Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens also have ten grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Crowell High School basketball teams, coached by Randall Ryan, have an excellent opportunity to win district titles this year. Should the varsity boys and girls teams win the four games each team will play this week and the next, they will both win District 7-A titles.

Both Crowell teams tied for the lead during the first half of the district race, which was ended last week. The boys were tied with Aspermont and the girls with Paducah. Should Crowell teams win the remainder of their games, they will win the district title without a play-off.

At Munday Tuesday night of last week, Crowell took a clean sweep of the three games with the Moguls. The varsity girls won 38-36. Anita Vecera led the Crowell scoring with 18 points, Kim Norman had 13, Kathy Sparkman 4 and Kathy Whitfield 4. Other members of the squad are Beth Graves, Sabrina Kearney, Terri Nelson, Mollye Wisdom, Mary Barrera, Sandra Bachman, and Darlene Tucker.

The varsity boys won over the Moguls 56-44. Ricky Coleman with 21 points was high pointer for the Wildcats. David Bell had 15, Melvin Westover 8, Marvin Coleman 6 and Dee Finley, Steve Stapp and Rocky Glasscock 2 each.

The junior varsity girls also won over the Munday girls by a 43-17 score. Jill Bell led the Crowell attack with 20 points. Hedi Vecera had 14 and Denise Branch 9.

Friday Night
These same Crowell teams hosted Haskell quintets on Friday night and again made a clean sweep.

The varsity boys won over the Haskell quintet 44-22. Crowell with 22 points was Crowell high pointer. Norman had 14, Tucker 12, Whitfield 8, Sparkman 6 and Wisdom 1.

The varsity boys swamped a strong Haskell team which on Tuesday night had defeated powerhouse Aspermont. Westover had 14 to lead Crowell scoring, Ricky Coleman had 13, Finley 12, Marvin Coleman and Jack Whitley had 10 each, Bell 8, David Crafton 4, and Stapp, Glasscock and Pat Norman had 2 each. Final score was 77-47. Other Wildcats are Tim Christopher and Daniel Field.

The junior varsity girls won 48-33. Vecera and Bell each scored 17 points and Branch 14. Other members of this team are Jonna Naylor, Jo Anna Hord, Shelia Coleman, Carol Thomas, Renee Norman, Retha Newman, Patsy Williams and Kay Morris.

City of Crowell Residents to Vote on City Sales Tax

Residents of the City of Crowell will get the opportunity to vote on a one percent city sales tax when they go to the polls April 3, at which time there will also be two aldermen elected for two-year terms.

Mayor Robert Kincaid said Monday that the city council when it meets in February, will call the election. "The city of Crowell at the present time is taking in sufficient funds to meet its obligations, but there are a number of badly-needed projects which will require additional funds during the next few years," the Mayor said.

"Among them is a new fire truck to give our town's residents better protection from the ravages of fire and repair to the city's streets," the mayor continued.

The mayor went on to say that the sales tax covers a wider area of taxpayers than does the property tax and will also include out-of-town residents who make purchases here. Practically every city, town and hamlet in the state has had the tax for many years.

In comparing towns of Crowell's size which have the sales tax, it is estimated the city will realize some $12,000 to $14,000 per year from the tax if it is adopted.

New Child Care Act Is Explained

The new child care act, Senate Bill 965, states that it is unlawful for a person to operate a child care facility without a license or registration through the State Department of Public Welfare. This includes those persons who are caring or babysitting for six (6) or fewer children in their homes, either full-time or part-time. The Vernon welfare office said last week that "If your child is presently being cared for at an unlicensed facility, or a 'non registered' home, or if you are caring for unrelated children in your home and have not obtained a license or registered through the State Department of Public Welfare, please contact Donna Earp, Day Care Licensing Division, third floor courthouse in Vernon." Mrs. Earp can give each working mother a list of currently licensed child care facilities in her area, and unlicensed facilities can obtain information on how to 'register' or acquire a day care license.

Information Given on Social Security

People who plan to apply for supplemental security income payments can save time by first getting together some information about themselves, according to Carl Beisner, Social Security Claims Representative from Vernon.

The supplemental Security income program makes monthly payments to people with little or no income and limited resources who are 65 or over or blind or disabled. People can get information about applying for the payments by calling or writing any social security office.

"When applying," Beisner said, "it's a good idea to have with you as many of the following as possible: A checkbook, if you have one, to show how much you have in the bank, any savings account books, stocks and bonds, life insurance policies, automobile registration cards, latest real estate tax statements if you own a home or any land, last year's income tax return, W-2 forms, and evidence of all other income."

Society

Federation Met Monday

The Foard County Federation of Women's Clubs held its quarterly meeting Monday at the Community Center with Mrs. Ray Shirley, president, presiding. A library committee report was given by Mrs. John S. Ray. Mrs. L.A. Andrews, treasurer, urged all clubs to submit their annual $5 dues as federation dues had to be sent into TFWC headquarters by January 15. Election of officers was tabled until the March 29 meeting. Mrs. Clarence Garrett, president of the Adelpian Club, introduced the program - a mixed ensemble from the CHS honor band led by James Streit, band director. Members of the ensemble were: Patsy Williams, Paul Whitley, Stan Gentry, Scott Streit, John Thomas, Renee Norman, Amie Brasher, Jan Brown, Jana Glover and Joanna Hord. They presented a number of patriotic songs. A bicentennial talk was given by Mrs. Don Welch who told about how the bicentennial flag was awarded to Crowell as a bicentennial city. She also told about the $2500 federal grant and how it was being used to renovate the old City Hall building into a city and county museum with the help of the Foard County Historical Survey Committee. A brief description of the renovation was given with the opening date of the museum set for July 4th if at all possible. Mmes Allen Shultz, Grover Moore and John S. Ray served as hostesses from the Riverside Home Demonstration Club.

THE ADELPHIAN CLUB
The Crowell Adelpian Club met at 3:30 p. m. January 21 in the home of Mrs. Ila Borchardt. During a short business meeting with Mrs. Clarence Garrett presiding, the members were reminded to register for a voting privilege by January 29. They also were encouraged to begin the celebration of the nation's 200th birthday of freedom by touring the Freedom Train that is to be in Wichita Falls March 6-8. Mrs. Eva Sloan, as leader, introduced the program entitled "Our Heritage—Foard County."

Mrs. Sally Archer led the group in repeating the club collect. Mrs. Agnes Dunn, a long-time resident of Foard County, gave an interesting history of Margaret, established in 1884 as the county seat of Hardeman County. Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley were among the earliest settlers in the county, and it was for their daughter, the first white child born in the county, that the town was named.

Others who took an active part in the early days in the county were Fred Ditman and Benjamin Lower.

With the coming of the Fort Worth and Denver Railway through Quanah, a small town across Pease River from Margaret, some believed the county seat should be moved to the railroad town. In 1890, the people of Margaret and Quanah voted, and Quanah won the right to be the county seat.

In an informal discussion, members told interesting facts they had heard about the difficulty in making the move across Pease River and the establishment of the county seat in the new location.

Mrs. W. B. Johnson, federation counselor, gave a brief review of outstanding aims and accomplishments in recent months by the Women's Federation. Foremost were the responsibility of women in making this bicentennial year a great success and the part women should take in the fight against crime.

At the conclusion of the program, members displayed antiques that were typical of colonial days. Then they enjoyed trading something they had brought to others, typical of the "swapping" custom in days when there was such a shortage of money. Delicious refreshments were served by the co-hostesses, Mmes. Gussie Turner and Ila Borchardt.

The next meeting will be on February 18 in the home of Mrs. Samuel Wilson with Mrs. W. B. Johnson as co-hostess.

J. T. Smith Wins State Writing Award for 2nd Straight Year

J. T. Smith

For the second consecutive year, J. T. Smith, farm editor of the Abilene Reporter-News and a Foard County native, has been cited by the Texas Veterinary Medical Association for journalistic excellence.

Smith will again receive the association's Mark Francis Award at the TVMA annual convention in Dallas Feb. 8. This is the first time in the history of the award that a person has won the award for two consecutive years.

In addition to plaques for both Smith and the Reporter-News, the award carries a $200 individual prize. Smith was cited for journalistic excellence for a series of three articles written about brucellosis.

Smith is a 1969 graduate of Crowell High School and a 1973 graduate of Texas A&M University with a B. S. degree in agricultural journalism. He studied agriculture four years under Marvin Myers in Crowell High School.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith of Margaret. In addition to the 1974 and 1975 Mark Francis award, Smith also received the 1974 Texas Vocational Teachers Association Distinguished Service Award; and 1975 Texas Association of Soil and Water Conservation District's Outstanding Farm Writer in the State of Texas. Smith and his wife, Carolyn, have one daughter, Leigh Ann, one month.

Dr. Mark Francis, for whom the award was named, was born in 1863, and was the first dean of the College of Veterinary Medicine at Texas A&M University. In 1903, Dr. Francis and a few of his colleagues founded the Texas Veterinary Medical Association and Dr. Francis served as the organization's first president.

It was Dr. Francis who fought and won the battle against Texas (tick) Fever in cattle, a disease that was communicable to humans as well as animals.

Dr. Francis was still serving his students, his university, and the health of both animal and man when he died in 1936 at his home on the A&M campus where he had built a monument of veterinary medical learning for generations to come.

The veterinary medicine giant received his training at Ohio State University and on the 75th anniversary of the university, school president W. O. Thompson said of Dr. Francis:

"If Ohio State University had trained but one man in the 75 years of its existence, and that one man was Dr. Mark Francis of Texas, it had given back to its people more than they had expended upon it in three-quarters of a century of its existence."

The Veterans Administration has guaranteed or insured 9.1 million home loans to veterans since World War II.

State Honor Band Fund Started

The Crowell State Honor Band will play for the Band directors and all other music educators of all Texas. This honor gives all of Crowell and the Crowell School statewide recognition as being a progressive community. Several thousand music educators from the elementary through college level will be attending the convention at San Antonio.

Only three school bands are asked to perform at this state-wide convention. The other two are Class AAA Monahans High School and Lake Highlands Junior High School of Dallas. Only three college bands are asked to perform and they are Texas Tech, the University of Texas at Austin and Stephen F. Austin University.

To help finance the trip, the Crowell Band Boosters are establishing a State Honor Band Fund at the Crowell State Bank. This money will be used exclusively for the trip. The Band Boosters have on hand $1,600 to pay for the motel. Other expenses will include bus and food costs. If you would like to help this Outstanding High School Band, you may take or mail your contribution to the Crowell State Bank.

Home Gardening Calendar

For the home gardener who wants a "day-to-day" plan to follow throughout the year, the extension service has the answer—a new garden calendar.

The calendar has just been published and is available from the extension service for 25 cents a copy.

The new calendar is a daily guide that lets the gardener know when to do what for a successful garden and features a list of recommended vegetable varieties for this area of the state along with a guide which provides information as row and crop spacings, time required for crops to mature, and expected yields. The calendar deals primarily with vegetable gardening, but also includes hints of growing fruit and nuts, shrubs, flowers and lawn grasses.

To order send 25c to Department of Ag Communications, Texas A&M U., College Station, Tex. 77843.

Transplant Trees Properly

For successful transplanting of trees, shrubs, and vines, particular attention should be given to a few details.

In transplanting any woody plant, the planting hole and backfill used are extremely important. The hole should be just deep enough to allow the tree or shrub to be set at the same depth it was in the container or at the nursery.

The poorer the soil, the greater should be the diameter of the hole. If the existing soil is to be used as backfill, it should be enriched with at least one part peatmoss or compost to 2 parts soil. Build a dam about 8 to 12 inches beyond the edge of the hole as an aid in watering the first year or two. Water regularly and thoroughly when needed but do not overwater as this keeps soil pores filled with water and slows root growth. Fertilize only after the plant is well established.

Improper pruning of trees can be just as bad or worse than not pruning them at all. On the other hand, proper pruning can turn a tree or shrub into a beautiful plant specimen.

Here are ten pointers to consider as far as the pruning operation is concerned:

1. Do not top trees. Topped trees often die because the topped branches cannot heal, thus letting in decay fungi and bacteria. Also, side branches below topped stubs are usually weaker and are subject to wind damage.

2. Prune at the right season. Prune deciduous trees and shrubs, vines, ground covers, and evergreens during the winter. However, an exception is that spring flowering shrubs such as azaleas, forsythia, bridal wreath and gardenias should be pruned after flowering.

3. Use proper tools. Hand shears can handle twigs under one-half inch in diameter. Long handled lopping shears are needed for timber one-half to one inch in diameter. Branches larger than one inch in diameter should be cut with a pruning saw.

4. Make all cuts flush with the trunk. Stubs don't heal properly and the decay and deterioration spreads down the trunk of the tree until wind topples it.

5. Seal big cuts with pruning paint. Use pruning paint on cuts larger than one inch in diameter to ward off insects and diseases.

6. Repair damaged plants at once. Plants should be kept healthy year-round.

7. Use common sense when pruning. Watch for limbs that may fall over power lines or damage other property.

8. Always prune after transplanting. Pruning is especially important for balled and burlapped plants; this compensates for roots lost during digging.

9. Beware of the door-to-door pruner. If you can't handle the pruning job yourself, hire someone with an established operation and years of reputation.

10. Have a reason for pruning. Don't prune just to pass the time of day.

Late winter and early spring is the season to apply dormant oils for controlling some of the hard-to-kill insect pests on trees and shrubs.

Dormant oils are especially refined petroleum oils that contain emulsifying agents which allow mixing with water. They are effective for controlling pests such as scale insects, mites, pecan phylloxera, insect eggs and hibernating caterpillars. These oils kill the egg as well as immature and adult stages of insects and mites by enveloping them in a continuous film of oil, thereby smothering and ultimately killing them.

Dormant oils have several advantages over most other insecticides, such as being less expensive, giving good covering action, leaving residues on fruit and nut trees that are exempt from tolerance, and being safe to handle. However, oils are toxic to leaves, have low toxicity to some insects, and are relatively unstable in water solutions.

A dormant oil can be used on any trees and shrubs that are in the dormant stage.

However, better insect control will be obtained if used in late winter or early spring just before new plant growth begins. Apply the oil when temperatures are between 40 and 65 degrees F. Do not make an application if freezing weather is expected within 48 hours after treatment.

When mixing and applying dormant oils, use only the amounts recommended by the manufacturer. Some trees tolerant to normal application rates of oil may be damaged if excessive amounts are used. Even normal applications of oil have been noted to damage beech, sugar and Japanese maple, walnut, butternut and some spruces. Cover tree trunks and limbs thoroughly with the spray but avoid excessive application of the oils.

TEXAS 1876 PERSONS

January 23 - 30, 1876

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Gov. J. W. Throckmorton of Texas is asking the attention of the U.S. Congress to the condition of the Texas frontier and praying compensation for losses sustained by the people of Texas for the incursions of Indians and Mexicans and reimbursement for sums of money spent by Texas to defend the frontier.

DALLAS — The bonded debt of the city of Dallas is $230,000 inclusive of interest. Pretty good for a youngster.

GALVESTON — Attention: A dead horse reported by the police to be lying on Avenue Q and 24th Street. The attention of the health officers is respectfully directed to the same.

MARION COUNTY — Jefferson disgraced by prize fights.

THE STAKED PLAINS — Information has been received on important discoveries made by Colonel Shafter, who has been exploring the Staked Plains. He is said to have found plenty of water and excellent land where only the most sterile desert was supposed to exist.

COMANCHE COUNTY — Corn is received here in payment for school taxes at 50 cents per bushel.

DENISON — The DENISON NEWS exposes "The Mineral City Fraud." A fine map of the Gainesville branch of the M.K.&T. Railroad has been issued by the so-called Ohio, Kentucky and Texas Land Company of Cincinnati, Ohio, for the purpose of swindling the unwary in the Ohio Valley. The map is ornamented with six school houses, six churches, three public halls, one opera house, one city hall, one college, one female college, one academy of arts, one free school, five public parks, one street railroad and one railroad depot. This, like St. Louis is "the great city of the future." At present the NEWS says, there is no such town or city as Mineral City, nor is there any Gainesville branch of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad, nor has any of the above-named city any prospects, while of number of inhabitants are "nix."

FORT WORTH — Major J. J. Jarvis delivered an address for the benefit of the (Robert E.) Lee Monument Association. The receipts in the contribution box totaled $9.65.

GALVESTON — The Rev. William Crane, D.D., President of Baylor University, will preach in the First Baptist Church at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday. The morning sermon will be a Centennial educational address.

SAN ANTONIO — Advices received at different Mexican points on the Rio Grande through couriers from Satillo are to the effect that a revolution has been started in the northern central portions of Mexico near the Rio Grande.

Sheriff Emmitt Howard said Monday that he is filing charges against a 17-year-old Crowell High School male student for possession of 4 oz. or less of marijuana.

Sheriff Howard said the misdemeanor charge was made since the amount of marijuana was less than 4 oz. He said the charges stemmed from the discovery of the drug in the school one day last week.

Former football greats Darrell Royal, Dick Todd and Braly Burson were inducted into the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame at its 18th annual meeting Sunday afternoon in Amarillo.

Todd, standout football player at Crowell High School, played for Texas A&M and the Washington Redskins. Burson, from Silverton, was a West Texas State fullback from 1921-24. Royal, athletic director at the University of Texas, qualified by playing high school ball at Hollis, Ok. He played quarterback for the University of Oklahoma.

The book was published a few years ago, and the museum is rapidly becoming a reality. Mrs. V. A. Johnson, chairman of the historical committee, brought members of the Rotary Club information on the new museum when she was the speaker at the club's meeting on Wednesday, January 21.

Mrs. Johnson told about how the historical society had searched in vain for some time to find a suitable building to house a museum when it was suggested that the old fire hall on North Main Street would be an ideal location. The building was obtained about 1 1/2 years ago. With a $2500 grant and many individual donations, the commission is planning the museum as a gift to Foard County and hopes to have the museum open by April 27 which is the 85th birthday of Foard County. Of course 1976 is the nation's 200th birthday along with the county's 85th birthday.

Mrs. Johnson said the museum will be one of the most beautiful in the state. It is being designed by Mrs. Otis Gafford with assistance being received from the State Historical Commission. It will look like a museum instead of a re-done house.

Upstairs will be a display area along with a pioneer kitchen, parlor, bedroom and school room of 1920 vintage. The old fire hall was constructed in 1922. There will be an archives for scrapbooks and county histories. Also upstairs will be a miniature chapel including a stained glass window, a pulpit built in 1910 and formerly used in the Foard City church, along with a pew which came from an early church in Margaret. An elevator which came from a home recently demolished in Vernon, has been installed for the convenience of museum visitors.

Downstairs, there will be additional cases for display area. A mural will be painted on the east wall of the ground floor, and exhibits downstairs will be telling the story of this area, from prehistoric times to Indians, to buffalo hunters, the open ranges and on to farming and ranching.

The old town to be re-constructed will have dirt streets and board side walks. A buggy will be featured in the east end of the building.

Along with members of the committee working on the project, N. A. Denton and Clyde Sellers have been employed as carpenters on the project for over two months.

Mrs. Johnson was introduced by Rotarian Bill Klepper. Other visitors included student guests Dee Finley, Billy Halencak and Jack Whitley, and Bob Williamson of Vernon.

Alfred Eddy Died

Alfred Eddy, 64, operator of Eddy's Cafe in Vernon, and a Crowell native, dies last Thursday night in a Vernon hospital following a brief illness.

Funeral services were held at 3:30 p. m. Saturday in the First Baptist Church in Vernon with Dr. W. E. Norman, former pastor of the Baptist Church of Quanah, officiating. Interment was in the Quanah Memorial Park under direction of Sullivan Funeral Home of Vernon.

Mr. Eddy was born Nov. 28, 1911, in Crowell, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Eddy. He attended the Crowell Schools and in 1942 he married Clara Scaggs in Knoxville, Tenn. She preceded him in death in 1965.

He served in the U. S. Army in World War II. Mr. Eddy operated a cafe in Crowell before the war, and spent most of the time since the war operating cafes in Vernon and Quanah.

He is survived by one son, Mike Eddy who was associated with his father in the operation of their cafe on the expressway in Vernon; one daughter, Mrs. Ed Perry of New Hampshire; two brothers, Joe Eddy of El Cajon, Ca., and Clyde (Sonny) Eddy of Crowell; three sisters, Mrs. J. B. Fairchild of Crowell, Mrs. Larry D. Campbell of Lubbock, and Miss Zonell Eddy of Midland.

Bearers were Roy Horn, Roy Taylor, Carl Flores, Mark Belew, Karl Karcher and Willie Richardson.

Former football greats Darrell Royal, Dick Todd and Braly Burson were inducted into the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame at its 18th annual meeting Sunday afternoon in Amarillo.

New Foard County Museum Beginning to Take Shape

When the Foard County Historical Survey Committee was created eleven years ago, the group set as its goal two projects: a published history of Foard County and a museum telling the historical story of this section of West Texas.

The book was published a few years ago, and the museum is rapidly becoming a reality. Mrs. V. A. Johnson, chairman of the historical committee, brought members of the Rotary Club information on the new museum when she was the speaker at the club's meeting on Wednesday, January 21.

Information Given on New Truscott Oil Well

The Munday Courier had a story in last week's issue about a new oil well near Truscott. It was stated that: "Cities Service Oil Co. was setting casing last Thursday afternoon at 6309 feet on a discovery well on the J. R. Brown place, four miles southwest of Truscott. The well is producing from the Conglomerate formation and a two hour drill stem test Wednesday afternoon showed a possible twenty-four hour potential of 456 barrels of oil with no water showing. Bottom hole pressure was 3100 pounds."

Changes are Noted in Dates of Events

For the first time in a number of years, the annual 4-H and FFA Project Show, scheduled each year for the second week end in March, will not come the same week as the Public Schools Week in Texas observance.

The Public Schools Week is traditionally set for the first full week in March and will be held March 1 through 5 this year, with the open house and pancake supper tentatively set for Friday night, March 5.

The project show will be held the following week end, March 12 and 13.
