Police Commissioner Mulkey of Ft. Worth has devised the plan of making negro women prisoners break rock within the prison yard. He claims there are many negro women vagrants in that city that only look on jail as a pleasant resting place, which costs them nothing. Mr. Mulkey believes this will put a stop to so much vagrancy.

On Nov. 26, Andrew Carnegie was 70 years old. He claims that his aim in life now is to "obey the judge within, and make others happy."

In San Francisco a murder has been revealed by a woman's dream. A lady friend had just disappeared, and on inquiry was said by her husband to be visiting her parents back east. The dead woman's husband was arrested and placed in jail.

A report from Ft. Worth police say that lost youngsters average two a day. Most of them are kept in after school and then get lost on their way home.

Last week a box was checked into Marshall Texas over the Southern Pacific railroad marked "tool box" and was checked from there to Little Rock Ark. where it was found to contain human bones. ### Faithful Women.

The Waco Tribune in commenting on the expected return of a man who had just served out a sentence in Fort Leavenworth says:

And awaiting him will be a woman, a good woman, bound to him by the sacred tie of womanhood, the mother of his children—a faithful, patient woman, whose devotion to him has never faltered, who is willing to greet him, and take her stand beside him, and with him take up again the battle of life. The spectacle is pathetic and even sublime. One feels like baring the head and bowing the reverence to this illustration of the devotion of a woman to the man she loves. Who will not feel like saying "God speed you" to the man whose life is sanctified by the trust and devotion of a good woman? Ah, men, "lords and masters all," God Almighty did not put in you—not one in a hundred of you—the spiritual fibre that is in the woman who are your wives, your mothers, your daughters. We know of another woman, a good woman, who is waiting and trusting in God as she waits, patient and uncomplaining—for the coming some day of the man she loves to whom she has clung to help him take up anew the broken thread of life and strive for peace and content. May God help them all and He will.

It is a peculiarity of woman that, no matter how grand a racial is the man she loves, she is true to him; though she does not love him; but she is nearly always true to him even, a woman is invariably true to the man she loves and sticks to him closer in his time of trouble than at any other time. Many a woman has waited patiently for a man to serve out a sentence in jail or penitentiary, greeted him with open, tender loving arms on his return, helped him to pick up the tangled threads of his broken down life's career and traveled with him right on down life's rugged way, never murmuring nor complaining, happy in the possession of his love and companionship, content to walk by his side, even to disgrace. This has happened thousands of times, but can anybody point out an instance of where a man stood by a wife or sweetheart when the rest of the world turned against her. Texas Woman never did hear of but one and he was not a lover nor a husband, but a son. The faithful son of poor Cassie Chadwick loved and trusted his mother to the end, and when all was over and the erring mother has closed her eyes forever on the fickle world that has bowed to her in her days of prosperity and scorned her in her hours of disgrace, that faithful son paid the only tribute that was laid at the feet of Cassie Chadwick. He said: "The world only knew one side of my mother's life. She was a better woman than she had credit for." The husband? He said nothing. After that loving tribute from a devoted son let her rest in peace and may the world forget the career of Cassie Chadwick, and may blessing follow that noble son who is every inch a MAN.—The Texas Woman.

A dense ashy haze and ashes on the ground several inches deep are the reports from Noma, Alaska, and it is supposed that a volcano is in eruption somewhere near by.

Lamesa is having quite a stir over the railroad situation. They are divided in two factions, one claiming that "Santos Dupondurant" is a fraud and a fake, and will not build the road, while the other faction is very energetic in their encouragement of the road and trying to maintain the bonus offered. This is a very good way for a town not to do, as it hurts no one particularly but themselves

Different.

"Look here, Bings! I think this proposed bond issue is all wrong. It is a needless act calculated to make heavier the burdens laid upon the shoulders of the people and is calculated to enrich a lot of financiers who have fastened their unholy hands upon the nation's finances and robbed the producers of the fruits of their toil. It is a plain case of conspiracy between the authorities at Washington and the gold clique in New York, and it—"

"Look here, Squiggs! I won't let you talk that way about our president. I want you to understand that this bond issue is made from purely patriotic motives, and it is little short of treason for you to use such language when our officials are doing their best "O, that's all rigot, Bings. I was merely reading from a letter you wrote to your favorite newspaper about thirteen or fourteen years ago. I found it in my scrap book last night.—Commoner.

A Look at Terry County.

Quite a number of people have killed hogs in Terry County recently. It is an every day occurrence that some citizen is in town soliciting purchasers for nice porkers. Almost every farmer has plenty of hogs to make his meat for another year.

Com'r Groves has 100 head Jno, Scuddy Jr, about 100, Messrs Benton, Howard, Cotten, Heflin and Brownfield, each have quite a number.

Several loads of feed stuff and wood have been offered for sale. Three different farmers with a lot of turkeys were in town the last few days preparing to fill the Xmas wants of the people. There are thousands of head of good fat cattle grazing in Terry County.

Good rains fell all the fall a splendid season in the ground for next years crop: As productive soil as is in Texas, and plenty of it is ready for the farmers attention. Pure water in abundance. The sun will shine, the winds will blow, the seasons come and go, and nature has done her part, its up to you.—Don't worry, but get busy.

G. W. Neill reports the following "On Thursday morning of last week I went with Mr. G. W. Wilson an old neighbor of mine and a friend of Mr. W. M. Howard, out to Mr. Howard's place, arrivin there near noon, but found no one home we at once smelt a mouse (or some thing better) and quickly took to the wagon tracks that led away, and following them over the prairie a few miles, we came to the home of Prof' A. K. Huckleberry, who seeing we were not to be outdone kindly invited us in, where we partook of a large fine Thanksgiving turkey dinner, with a nice crowd of some of the most social people on earth. We made good use of our motto! "Never waste an opportunity".

(Judge Neill was sick last Friday and Saturday) which only happens about every Thanksgiving and Xmas.

Our people are in better condition financially than for years, and this broad fertile country is full of opportunities that people only have to take hold of to make them prosperous in the extreme.—Avalanche.

Yes and if it wasnt for outside papers, Terry County would know nothing about a money panic.

The "Knocker."

Most of you know what a "knocker" is and some are good and some are bad. This is directed principally against hard times and high prices, but we expect to make it a winner and see the walls of competition crumble and hear Sears & Roebuck grumble. We are out for cash, we must have it, and we are going to get it! There is any to be had. We must sell $10,000 worth of goods during this sale and confidently expect to beat that as our prices warrant it and we are relying on your judgment. This sale will be absolutely for cash and nothing but cash, so do not disappoint us and yourself by asking for credit or to have something booked as our book, without exception, will be closed all but those who have been running 30 day accounts and paying for them at the end of 30 days. This is fair notice to all, so do not forget your pocket book. If you have to sell a bale or two of cotton cheap you can make it back on this sale as you can save from $20.00 or $30.00 on every $100.00 spent. Don't wait till the last days to buy as we have no new goods coming and our stock will be "shot all to pieces" so to speak, in 19 days. Especially will this be true of our Christmas goods, of which we have a limited but a nice assortment. Our stock is so varied and so large it is next to impossible to make an itemized list of all the slaughtered prices; but to give you an idea that we mean business we herewith give you a partial list:

Female Weakness

"Last Fall," writes Mrs. S. G. Bailey, of Tunnelton, W. Va., "I was going down by inches, from female disease, with great pain. After taking Cardui, Oh! My! How I was benefited! I am not well yet, but am so much better that I will keep on taking Wine of Cardui till I am perfectly cured."

Despite the envious attacks of jealous enemies and rivals, Cardui still holds supreme position today [as in the past 70 years] for the relief and cure of female diseases. It stops pain, tones up the organs, regulates the functions, and aids in the replacement of a misplaced organ.

Lester B. Colby Here.

Tell of his travels in the West.

Lester B. Colby, staff correspondent of the Ft. Worth Telegram was in Brownfield this week and called upon the HERALD. Mr. Colby who is gathering a series of West Texas articles for the Telegram and is traveling all over this portion of the state, says he is unusually well pleased with this section and predicts a great future for this region.

He has visited nearly all of the plains towns in the interest of his paper which is gathering data of this fast settling country in order that its readers may learn of the wonderful opportunities which abound in West Texas. Mr. Colby whose duties in the past five years have led him over the greater portion of the country, says that nowhere does he believe greater opportunities exist than here, in the Great Southwest, and especially in this part of Texas.

The Telegram is a hustling paper and West Texas appreciates what it is doing for the country. The Telegram is the first big daily to send a man to West Texas to write up the country in detail.

"Papa's mind is full of business all the time," said Ethel, indignantly, to her best friend.

"What's the trouble now?"

"Well, when George asked him for me, without ever looking up from his newspaper, he said: 'Yes, take her along; and if she isn't up to our advertisements, bring her back and we'll exchange her!'"
