THE X-RAYS.
Recent experiments, by practical tests and examination with the aid of the X-Rays, establish it as a fact that catarrh of the stomach is not a disease of itself, but that it results from repeated attacks of indigestion. "How can I cure my indigestion?" Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is curing thousands.

It will cure you of indigestion and dyspepsia, and prevent or cure cattarrh of the stomach. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by Ross & Clements.

BIG VALLEY.

Editor Eagle: As nothing of late has been in your interesting paper from the Valley, I thought I would drop you a line or two.

Farmers are all busy. Several had to plant their cotton all over on account of the hail and rain storm.

A good shower would do good now.

The health of our community is generally good now, although there has been considerable ailment in our neighborhood recently.

A large crowd attended church Sunday. Elder Hayes preached one of his fine sermons Sunday, but he was rather hard on the prodigal son. He said he was the meanest fellow in that neighborhood. Well I believe he was tough, but he repented and went to his father and confessed all to him, said he was not worthy to be called a son. His father received him joyfully. But look at that elder brother. The old hypocrite did not care if his brother was lost; didn't care if his brother starved to death, was angry when his brother humbly came to his father, would not go in to see him, and he had no love for his father or his brother. Say, Mr. Editor, what makes preachers give the prodigal son fits and never say one word about that old selfish elder son.

The grain fields are turning golden and the reapers are beginning to click.

W. E. Ligon harvested T. P. Reed's oats last Saturday.

Prof. S. E. Stark of our neighborhood has contracted to teach the Trifler Mountain school. That community is to be congratulated, for if they will cooperate with him they are sure of a good school, and they will have a teacher that will leave a good moral impression on the minds of the children.

Miss Susan Brown of San Saba county is staying at Mr. Jarrett's taking music lessons. Mrs. W. S. Miller visited Mrs. T. D. Perry this week.

Mrs. Henry Avery visited Mrs. Jarrett Monday.

J. B. Baker has bought Mr. Oglesby's interest in the gin and is going to repair it and have it ready for the cotton crop this fall. That is the way to help your neighbors, and I am going to squeak a good word for you.

I hope you people will all go to the fifth Sunday meeting and have a good time, like W. L. Martin said for you all to do, and some one of you write it up I want to hear from it, as I can't be there this time. M'DENA.

CHESSEY VALLEY. Editor Eagle: As I see writing up the local items of the community is the latest fad, I'll try to follow suit and venture to give you a few remarks from our little Valley. Although I am no poet, or philosopher, but probably my communication will be of a style that the people of our neighborhood can understand any way.

Farmers all smiles, and the weeds and grass in our cotton have a fair show for perfect maturity.

Manuel Williams' wheat continues to flourish.

He will have it all harvested in a few days and says he thinks by Christmas he will have a few spare biscuits to give the News Boy, if he is still hungry.

Mrs. Stebbins of the Bayou community was a visitor in our midst a few days ago.

Misses Della and Ola Chessier visited their brother's family at Mullin last week and report a nice time.

Bennie Williams was missed from home Saturday night and Sunday. He says he had a pleasant time.

Several of those up-to-date stock men took dinner with our big hearted friend, J. D. Chessier last Saturday.

Now, we must say to Bethel that the young man from your midst wouldn't even get a turtle bite should he place his hook in our community. Now if he is such a popular young man, why not set his hook at Bethel? Surely you have a few old maids and widows there yet. Of course it never rains goose grass any where except on goose ranches.

John Hester visited friends on Browns creek last Saturday.

The friends of Walter Malone regret to learn he will soon return to the west and resume his former position on the ranch.

Our Mullin correspondent certainly has the right idea of building up our towns and communities.

Miss Lizzie Ray and George Williams went to Santa Anna last week and will remain until the close of the Santa Anna school and return with their sister Allie, who is attending school there.

Now, Alex, what have you against those Cryer Chicks? They are all O. K. If you don't believe it just go to Cryer some day and six prettier chickens you'll say never saw.

Manuel Williams had business on the bayou Sunday.

We thought we heard a wedding bell in the Valley last Sunday morning, but it was only Bert Chessier riding a wild pony.

Yes, Alex, those Bayou Ducks certainly did quack about the picnic. But they were not like you, wait until it was all over before doing their quacking, for when they quack it amounts to something. They are not like a bunch of you little green goslings, stand around a mud puddle and quack your selves to death.

Joe Williams and Henry Forsthe were visiting in the Valley last Saturday.

W. P. Bolton made a business trip to Goldthwaite Friday. He reports the city flourishing.

Almon Johnson of Eastland county writes that: crops there are better than has been for several years.

Well, as I see a young lady shyly looking this way and for fear she has matrimonial ideas I will close and go and churn.

Success to the glorious old Bird and its wife.

BIG VALLEY.

Editor Eagle: As I have seen nothing from this part of the moral vineyard for some time I will give you a few happenings.

Farmers are getting along very well with their work, notwithstanding some have had to plant their cotton the third time, think most of them have a good stand now. Corn is looking well.

Brother Hays filed his regular appointment here Saturday and Sunday. He is certainly an earnest worker and we hope much and lasting good will be done at this place.

The fifth Sunday meeting will meet with the Shaw Bend church next Saturday and Sunday. All who can we hope will attend.

J. W. Young was on the sick list last Sunday and Monday.

Miss Eva Miller was at preaching Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Ezell and children and Mrs. T. Robertson and children spent the day with Mrs. J. W. Young one day last week.

Grandma Ezell expects to start to New Mexico next week for a visit to her children. Will be gone about a year. She will be sadly missed in the Valley.

Say, Mr. Editor, have you heard anything about mad dogs? We have and may have more as it was reported the dog that was reported mad bit several other dogs in the community. Those who have good dogs had better keep them closely confined if they don't want them killed. The women and children are afraid to put their heads out of the doors.

J. H. Johnson and Miss Travis Long spent three days in Brownwood last week attending the Sunday school convention held at that place. They report a nice time.

Mrs. J. W. Young has been suffering with neuralgia for the past week.

Miss Laura Smith and Miss Effie Walker from the lower Valley were at preaching here Sunday. Come again girls.

The singing at Mr. Brook's Sunday night was enjoyed by all present. GRANDMA.

ZEPHYR.

Editor Eagle: Wheat and oat crops are very good in these parts. The recent rains have lengthened the heads of the wheat.

Farmers are beginning to harvest their grain and hay.

Corn was benefited by a fine rain, which fell Wednesday evening. No more is needed just now on account of the grain harvest.

An insect called a blood sucker is infesting fowl houses and killing a great many grows and small chickens.

Jeff Driekill and family have returned from Dakota, where they have been living for the past three years, and will make their home here with Mr. Driekill's mother.

J. E. Reese and family and Framan Wardsworth, who moved from here to California two weeks ago, have decided to locate in the town of Valley Springs, but find rent houses scarce. Miss Totie Evans accompanied them on the trip and will remain on a visit until Christmas.

L. M. Everett of Blanket, who purchased G. D. McQuerry's stock of general merchandise at this place, has moved his family to J. E. Reese's place.

The Misses Henderson's visited relatives in Brownwood Tuesday. Montie Hicker attended the Knights of Pythias banquet in Brownwood Monday night.

Pleas and Henry Couch spent Monday in Brownwood on legal business.

Joe Nation killed huge rattlesnake, on Blanket creek on his father's farm this week. It was about seven feet in length and had thirty-two rattles. It is claimed that a snake has one rattle for each year he lives. If that is true this one must have been an old settler.

The ladies of the Methodist church are preparing to have an ice cream festival at the church one week from Saturday night. The proceeds of which will be used to help finish the church inside. This is a move in the right direction and we hope the affair will be a playing success.

K. LAMITY. PICKENS SPRINGS. Editor Eagle: Corn is finer than I ever saw at this time of the year.

Some cotton good, some to plant over yet. Oats and wheat very good.

People are all smiles, had a nice rain last night.

Health is good except Jim Sherfield, he still has the mumps. Singing at Mr. Dalton's Sunday night.

Sunday school and singing doing well. S. H. G.

AGENTS GLEANINGS. Sorghum, kaffir, Jerusalem and milo cane planted in Mills county this year. Also June (or Mexican) corn with millets. So we are looking forward for some 30, 60 and 100 yield, for the people are tilling the soil better this year than common. Peaches and plums will be limited in number, therefore, we'll enjoy what we get as very luscious. Vegetables are just coming in nicely with us. Children's Day at Pleasant Grove Sunday, May 31, 1903. Preparations are being made for exhibits upon the stage, with dinner, dinners in the shade, for dogs and us all of any age. Now think, wink, blink, blink some nickels, dimes, quarters, halves and dollars for the poor heathen far away. These entertainments ye receive for ly, therefore, to the collectors ye may or may not freely give. Attend any way and be as happy as ye want to. I suppose Bethel will entertain with Children's Day in June to compete with her sisters South Bennett, Center City and Pleasant Grove, for Wages with pleasure. Sunday school, golden text, May, 1903, was read in Matt, 6:33. We need these things. THE BOOK AGENT. Meedames Mauldin and Hufstutler of near Antelope Gap were visitors to the city Thursday and called on the Eagle.

Ed Brown's little son, while playing in a hole of water at his home Thursday afternoon, stepped upon a garden rake and one of the iron prongs pierced clear through his foot. He is resting well now, but the wound is a very dangerous one and his physician is giving it close attention.
The court of civil appeals has affirmed the judgment of the Mills county district court in the case of E. G. Crawford against the Western Union Telegraph company. The suit grew out of the company's failure to promptly deliver a message to Mr. Crawford informing him of the death of his mother.
Dr. Calaway and his family made a visit to their old home in Trigger Mountain community and during their absence some one visited their home here and carried away an ax, a wrench, a bar of soap and a box of blacking. Dr. Calaway says if the party who took the things will return them no questions will be asked.

SALOON NOT OPENED.

Many people in Goldthwaite and surrounding country are rejoiced to learn that Mr. Kirby has abandoned his plan of opening a saloon outside the limits of the school district. The saloon will not be opened for some time, at least, and very likely the idea will be given up altogether. Mr. Kirby has about $2000 invested in liquors and cigars and it was to dispose of this stock that he intended to go into the saloon business again, but the people of the town and country, or a great majority of them, objected so strongly to the business being opened that Mr. Kirby has decided to respect their wishes, if it is possible for him to do so. The law does not allow him to distribute his stock of liquors among a number of dealers, but requires that he sell it in a bulk to one man. Few dealers would care to buy so heavily at one time, but by giving extra inducements and easy terms Mr. Kirby hopes to dispose of his stock without a great loss to himself.

CEMETERY WORK.

Next Friday and Saturday the Odd Fellows will work in the cemetery, clearing off the graves of their deceased brethren preparatory to holding memorial services on the Sunday following. Persons who are not members of the order will be welcome to be present and clear off the graves of their friends or relatives. All weeds, grass and brush raked off the lots must be carried out of the cemetery, for to leave it in the walks would make the grounds very unsightly. The Odd Fellows will devote their time exclusively to the graves of members of their order and will not clear off other graves.
The lodge contemplates building a new fence along the south side of the cemetery and using the old fence to enclose the new addition on the west side of the grounds. This improvement will cost about $100, but will add a great deal to the appearance of the cemetery.

MRS. FARDUE DEAD.

Mrs. W. E. Fardue died Monday, May 25, of consumption and was buried Tuesday afternoon in the Odd Fellows cemetery.
Her death was not looked for at this time, and it came as a sad shock to all her friends; and the sympathy of the entire community is given to her husband and children for the bereavement. A visit to relatives in another portion of the state had been planned, in hope that her health might be benefited by the change, but for some days her condition grew worse and at 6:30 o'clock Monday evening she passed away. The memory of her loving motherhood and the loving sympathy of many friends is all that is left of her to her three orphaned children. May it comfort them in this sad hour of unassuageable grief.

MULLIN.

Editor Eagle:

We have again been blessed with very good rains through this portion and crop prospects are simply fine.

The hum of the reaper is heard all around Mullin for the last three days. Everett Oxley has finished cutting his wheat and everybody that has looked at it thinks it will not fail under twelve bushels per acre, and some think that some wheat here will make more.

Oats are fine and there is a good many oats harvested here this week. William Goode, G. E. Spencer and W. T. Vann of Pleasant Ridge community was doing business with our merchants this week.

M. C. Ross and R. W. Nevins made a business trip to the capital city Tuesday.

J. T. Guthrie and Enoch Reynolds of Trigger Mountain community were in Mullin Tuesday on business.

Fay Driskill and Joch Plummer of the Pleasant Ridge community were in Mullin on business Tuesday.

J. W. Barber of Ratler, Texas, has moved his stock of goods to Mullin and is now a kind of "side partner" of uncle Sam Shelton and you can get anything from a soda pop to a pair of ball bearing suspenders.

Our postmaster, A. C. Warren, has now fixed up his new post office south of Mr. Abeher's store and has the post office fixed up better and arranged more conveniently than has been at any time since we have had a post office in Mullin. It is now where the ladies and children can go to it and be out of the stir of the business of the town.

M. D. Mills and sister, Miss Mittie, were in Mullin one day this week on business.

Joe Roggers is on the sick list this week.

Carey Vaughn's little daughter has been very sick, but is some better at present.

Mrs. E. F. Casey and Mrs. J. S. Chesser spent one day this week with J. P. McDaniel and family.

Hays Burgess has returned from Howard Payne college and is now, we judge, in the act of committing matrimony, judging from his conduct in Lover's Lane this week.

The singing at E. F. Cassey's at 3 o'clock last Sunday was attended by a large crowd.

George W. Finney and Jno. S. Chesser made a business trip to the capital city Friday. They report a good time and plenty of chili.

Mr. Editor, we hear a good deal of talk of a certain fellow here going to start a peddling wagon. He wants to know the price of chicks in the Cryer community.

We see where the News Boy was troubled about Tom Thumb on account of being scared about the goose pulling. Tom says he had known all the while they were going to pull a goose's head off and consequently he was not scared in the least, but Tom was much concerned about the Bayou Duck, as some ducks are very large and fine and resemble a goose in some respects.

Henry Smith and John Mankins made a trip to the capital city Wednesday. We learn they had business with the county clerk.

Miss Nannie Lee Fisher's school at Cisco is out and she has returned home to stay with her parents.

Uncle W. D. Fisher, who has been poorly for a long time, we are glad to learn is up and about.

George Romans says he wants the young ladies to understand he is making a crop this year and the prospects now are that he will be able to take care of some one of them another year.

Ask B. P. Kittle who [the hear man is now. Ben knows all the same if he will tell. RUSTLER.
