

The Chase County Courant.

W. E. TIMMONS, Editor and Publisher

The Parkville Enterprise, quite a newsy paper, has entered its third year.

Col. S. N. Wood has sold the National Era to Mr. H. W. McCune, so we understand.

What a dis-paragement of a population of fifty millions to say there is only one man among them fit to be President! Yet Grant is emphatically a common man.

Is this a nation? A Republican candidate for Sheriff in Louisiana. Smarting under defeat at the late election, indulged in the pleasing pastime of killing two sons of his successful Democratic competitor.

As the Republicans will be satisfied with nothing but a strong government, how would Garcelon and Grant do for a Presidential team? Gov. Garcelon has nerve and brains; and Gen. Grant has nerve; which make the ticket strong and available.

Should it prove true that when Senator Sharon, the Nevada millionaire, who last February drew two years' pay for Congressional sessions that he never attended, attempts to repeat that performance, his game will be blocked by the Secretary of the Senate, neither Republicans nor Democrats will grieve.

POSSIBILITIES OF KANSAS. The editor of the Lancaster, Pa. New Era, who recently made a trip through this State, writes a long letter to his paper, giving his impressions of Kansas.

The total eclipse of the sun which will occur on the 11th instant, is attracting very little attention. The line of totality can be easily reached by astronomers. The eclipse will be central and total along a line twenty miles south and parallel to a line drawn through Monterey, Cal., Mariposa and Salt Lake City.

On New Year's Day, W. W. Embry, editor of the Leavenworth Sunday Herald, was shot and instantly killed in Pat Doran's saloon by his partner, Thomas C. Thruston. It appears that each of the partners had had the other arrested on a charge of theft in collecting money belonging to the firm and not accounting for it; and both were out on bail at the time of the shooting.

years ago. He was one of the firm who started the Leavenworth Appeal, of which the Sunday Herald was successor. When the Appeal was started, and until we came to this city to start the COURANT, we kept the books of the Appeal firm; and we found Mr. Embry kind, courteous and obliging in all his dealings.

THE NEWSPAPER LAW. We find the following in the Jersey Shore Herald: "The New Haven Journal and Courier Publishing Company has recovered a bill of $43 from William T. Howe, till received a postmaster at Stony Creek, for papers sent him since November, 1871 and the cost of prosecution. Howe testified that he did not want the Journal and Courier, and he thought the publishers ought to make a discount to him for favors shown them while he was postmaster. The court held, however, that the State and United States law would authorize the collection of the bill for the paper after it had been ordered stopped, and until the bill for the newspaper for the entire time was paid."

That was a very sensible Court and held the law correctly. Similar cases have been decided in the same way; and it is the law of the land. The following is the summary of the laws as the courts have universally decided it:

- 1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered wishing to continue their subscriptions.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their paper, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.
3. If subscribers refuse to take or neglect to take their paper from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible, till they have settled their bill and ordered their paper discontinued.
4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.
5. The courts have decided that refusing to take a paper from the office is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
6. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the postoffice—whether directed to his name or another's, or whether he has subscribed or not—is responsible for the payment.
7. Action for fraud can be instituted against any person whether he is responsible in a financial point of view or not, who refuses to pay subscription.
8. The United States courts have repeatedly decreed that a postmaster who neglects to perform his duty of giving sensible notice, as required by the Post-office Department, of the neglect of a person to take from the office newspapers addressed to him, renders the postmaster liable to the publisher for the subscription price.

POSSIBILITIES OF KANSAS. The editor of the Lancaster, Pa. New Era, who recently made a trip through this State, writes a long letter to his paper, giving his impressions of Kansas. We copy the following: "The State of Kansas is an immense parallelogram, 210 miles wide from north to south, and 410 miles long from east to west. It covers an area of 87,318 square miles, or fifty-two million, fifty-three thousand, five hundred and twenty acres. It is larger than all New England, greater in extent than Pennsylvania and Ohio, or New York and Indiana. It is populated as densely as Massachusetts; it would contain a population of nearly sixteen millions. That it is capable of supporting such a population, when her resources are fully developed, is assured from the single fact that in one year, from 1877 to 1878, she rose from the eleventh to the first rank as a wheat producing State. To show how little was known of the capabilities of this country, by our best men, the incident is recalled that Secretary Klippel, of Ohio, when that State led the production of wheat, and Kansas was spoken of as a "desert" in an able and elaborate essay on wheat culture, placed the western limit of the wheat belt within the boundaries of Ohio. Last year the wheat crop of Kansas was double that of the Buckeye State."

BLACKLEG. Among the symptoms of so-called blackleg in cattle may be mentioned, in the order in which they generally proceed, extended neck and head, bloodshot and protruding eyes, dry muzzle, hurried breathing, increased heat of the horns, great depression, increasing pulse, labored breathing, difficulty in moving, staggering, lameness in one or both hind quarters, loss of appetite and rumination, great debility, recumbent position, with inability to rise, insensibility. Sooner or later, in the progress of the disease, swellings appear on the shoulders, back, loins, or quarters, which, on pressure, evince a peculiar cracking sound, as if filled with air; dry and scurfy patches appear about the swellings and elsewhere, which generally end in gangrene and ulceration. The tongue may become swollen and ulcerated, saliva, more or less blood-stained, drips from the mouth. Urine and dung are scanty; the former of a dark color, and both ultimately mixed with blood, and of a foetid smell. These symptoms all appear in quick succession; in fact, the disease generally ends fatally, in from twelve to thirty-six hours. On account of the rapid disintegration of the fluids and tissues, treatment generally proves unavailing.—National Live-Stock Journal, Chicago.

EXTREMELY ORIGINAL. We clip the following from one of the would-be-most-original papers published in this country; [Leader, Sep. 4, '79.] [Leader, Jan. 1, '80.] Onion parties are. The Eldorado girls popular in Tuscaro, have inaugurated a ra. Six young ladies, new game for holiday take an onion with amusement. It is them in a room and called. The onion one of the number. Six young ladies takes a bite at it, dies into a room. Then a young gentleman together and one of man is admitted and they bring an onion. Then a young man who is to tell which of them kiss all of them to find the "ingon," then out who the onion the girls all of bitter is. If he fails the complete to kiss all the him, and kiss him, or he is com—this is kept up until pilled to kiss all of the discovery made. Then, the chronicler. Then another gentleman, a Vir-man, is introduced, and kiss (Nev.) Enter, and so on until the prize, Aug. 27, 1879, stock of onions is exhausted.

These twin items which are to be found in the Chase County Leader, of the dates indicated, are so nearly alike it is hard to tell one from 't'other. How is that for "copying from the Leader?"

THE SUN FOR 1880.

THE SUN will deal with the events of the year 1880 in its own fashion, now pretty well understood by everybody. From January 1 until December 31 it will be conducted as a newspaper, written in the English language, and printed for the people.

As a newspaper, THE SUN believes in getting all the news of the world promptly, and presenting it in the most intelligible shape—a shape that will enable its readers to keep well abreast of the age with the least unproductive expenditure of time. The greatest interest to the greatest number—that is the law controlling its daily make-up. It is for all, but of none more than that of any other American newspaper, and enjoys an income which it is at all times prepared to spend liberally to exaggrate the benefit of its readers. People of all conditions of life and of all ways of thinking buy and read THE SUN; and all derive satisfaction of some sort from its columns, for they keep on buying and reading it.

The year 1880 will be one in which no patriotic American citizen can afford to close his eyes to public affairs. It is impossible to read the news of the day without being reminded of the political events which it has in store, of the necessity of resolute vigilance on the part of every citizen who desires to preserve the Government that the founders gave us. The debates and actions of Congress, the utterances of the press, the exciting contests of the Republican and Democratic parties, now nearly equal in strength throughout the country, the varying drift of public sentiment, will all bear directly and effectively upon the twenty-fourth Presidential election, to be held in November. For nearly a year next November the will of the nation, as expressed at the polls, was thwarted by an abominable conspiracy, the promoters and beneficiaries of which still hold the offices of the State. Will the crime of 1876 be repeated in 1880? The past decade of years opened with a corrupt, extravagant, and insolent Administration entrenched at Washington. The SUN did something to expose the facts as they were developed, and to exhibit them clearly and fearlessly in their relations to expediency and right.

Thus, with a habit of philosophical good humor in looking at the minor affairs of life, and in great things, a steadfast purpose to maintain the rights of the people and the principles of the Constitution against all aggressors, THE SUN is prepared to write a truthful, instructive, and at the same time entertaining history of 1880.

Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the Daily SUN, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post-paid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year, or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid. The Sunday edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid. The price of the WEEKLY SUN, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.

THE CURRENCY QUESTION.
Notwithstanding the fact that thousands of our people are worrying themselves almost to death over the vexed question, even to the extent of neglecting their business, their homes and their duties to their families, there are still thousands upon thousands of smart, hard working, intelligent men pouring into the great Arkansas Valley, the Garden of the West, where the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad offers them their choice of 2,500,000 acres of the finest farming land in the world at almost their own prices. If you do not believe it write to the undersigned, who will tell you where you can get a cheap land exploring ticket, and how, at a moderate expense, you can see for yourself and be convinced.

BUYING TOOLS.
The winter is the time to buy tools. Every farmer should, at this season of the year, determine what implements he will need for the next year, and make arrangements for procuring them. If a mowing machine is to be bought, let him take time by the forelock, and look into the merits of each kind of these machines, and buy intelligently; do not wait until the grass is ready to cut, and rush and buy the one nearest at hand. By sending to the various manufacturers, circulars with full directions, and illustrations, can be obtained, together with prices, etc. If a plow is needed, do all the work of selecting it, before the busy season is at hand, that it may not be "on the way," just when the best week for plowing is passing. In the peace of winter, prepare for summer war.—American Agriculturist.

THE HANNIBAL AND ST. JOE.
Elegant Day Coaches, furnished with the Horton Reclining Chair, will be run hereafter between this City and Chicago.

The "Old Reliable" Hannibal and St. Joe railroad will hereafter run magnificent day coaches, furnished with the Horton reclining chairs, between this city and Chicago, without change, by way of Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railway. This is one of the most direct and safe routes to the East, and this step places it in the very first rank in point of elegance and perfection of accommodations. Without doubt it will early become the most popular line in the West with the traveling public. The Horton reclining chair is immeasurably superior in point of comfort and ease of management to all others now in use, and those placed in the Hannibal and St. Joe cars are of the finest workmanship and materials; but to the traveling public it is useless to speak of the excellence of these chairs. They have proved so entirely successful, and so fully meet the wants of the traveling community, that they have become a necessity. Mr. H. D. Price, the efficient passenger agent of the Hannibal and St. Joe road, in this city, furnishes the information that these day coaches will be placed on the road, this week. We commend this route to those going east, who wish to secure comfort, safety and expedition.—Kansas City Journal, Feb. 9

Prominent among the many pleasant gatherings on New Year's night was a social party at the Misses Pugh's. It was enjoyed by all, because the ladies knew how to make their guests enjoy themselves; it was pleasant, because pleasant people met there to have a pleasant time.

The county—pay attention, tax payers—paid the Leader, last year, $72.92 more for county printing than it would have had to pay the COURANT had the contract been let to us. We will see, next Monday, if the Commissioners will give the printing to the Leader whether or not its bid is the lower.

A new law of 1879 reads: The township trustee shall, annually, on the second Thursday in January settle with and audit the accounts of the township treasurer, and of all road overseers in his township, for all moneys disbursed by them, and he shall, within ten days thereafter, cause the township clerk to record at length such accounts on the township record.

We acknowledge the receipt from Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co, of Lowell, Massachusetts, of copies of Ayer's well known Almanac for 1880 in English, French, German, Dutch, Norwegian, Swedish, Spanish and Portuguese, the whole forming a collection well worth preservation. The publication of these carefully-prepared and really valuable books, at the rate of ten million copies per annum, all for gratuitous circulation in all quarters of the globe, is one of the marvels of this marvelous age. It takes eight months to print them, at the rate of fifty thousand copies per day, and the production of them consumes nearly five hundred tons of paper. The little annual is a welcome visitor at every fireside, and it has, like the standard medicines prepared by its publishers, the deserved confidence of the entire public.

DIAMOND CREEK ITEMS.
WOODHULL, Jan. 7, 1880.
To the Editor of the Courant:

The young and old folks had a splendid time on New Year's Eve at Mrs. Lawless', just the place where everybody can enjoy themselves. Dancing was kept up until 3 o'clock, and then Mr. John Merphy entertained the company with some funny songs, among which was "Muldoon, the solid man", which made everybody roar with laughter; and the roosters were crowing as the dancers were going to their respective homes.

We have 1880; it is presidential year, and the prospects are that it will be a good year for crops; and it is leap year; and a great many of our diamond creek boys are left; among them your humble servant is in the rear.

It will take 900 yards of plastering to finish Mr. Fink's residence. It is the finest building on Shater creek.
Mr. Wm. Harris is up and around he has been sick with lung fever.

The slowest thing that we have here is mail; but we get some once in a while.
Our stock men say that their cattle are doing finely.

This is what one of our boys heard somebody say in town, the other day: "We do not want the Diamond Creekers to attend our attend our dances; they are too rough." Yes, because two boys are not colored and kicked into a county jail, they are called rough.

THE OLD YEAR.

Some of the Events that Marked the History of Our Country in 1879—Financial Transactions, Trade, and Trade.

[New York Times.]

In the records of trade and finance the year will always be memorable. Resumption of specie payments by the United States took place on January 1 almost imperceptibly, and the security of the foundation on which it rested was never better. The fact that the Treasury's resumption fund was only drawn upon up to November 1, for $11,256,678, and that the net balance increased over all payments from $133,000,000 to $100,000,000, the refunding operations were on the largest scale. Between January 1 and April 4 the 5-20 bonds were replaced by 4-per cents. On April 16 $150,000,000 of 4 per cents were offered for the purpose of refunding the 10-40s, and the amount was subscribed the next day. More than $40,000,000 per cent of 10 certificates were also sold, and there were smaller operations. The value of the crops was officially estimated at $1,904,480,639. This is an increase of nearly $100,000,000 over the demand, as well as the supply, was, happily, greater than ever before.

The prosperity thus indicated is fully borne out by the statistics of exports and imports. For the fiscal year both are greater than for 1878. The exports were $73,575, the imports by $8,736,233. The excess of exports over imports for the fiscal year was $264,601,695, and the United States stands alone among first-class nations in having the balance of trade in its favor. The change in the movement of precious metals was very remarkable. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1879, the exports exceeded the imports by $4,701,441; but from June 30 to November 15 the balance was reversed, and the imports exceeded the exports by $59,506,921.

Men, as well as money, have also poured into the country. Up to December 1, 125,900 immigrants arrived, or 47,755 more than came in the same time last year. The cattle failures for the first nine months of 1878 was $7,088, and of 1879, $3,320; the liabilities for 1878 were $197,000,000, and for 1879, $81,000,000.

The buoyancy in legitimate trade was reflected in the stock market, and the last half of November saw transactions on the New York Exchange which are nearly without parallel in volume or fluctuation. Over 700,000 shares were bought and sold on each of several days. The market fell 10 per cent in some instances. "Little Black Friday" (November 21) was caused by stock jobbing reports of the completion of negotiations between Mr. Vanderbilt and Jay Gould. Four days later, Mr. W. Field (on behalf of himself and associates, including Mr. Gould) received from Mr. Vanderbilt a contract for the sale of 150,000 shares New York Central stock at 120, or 10 per cent below the market, with the option of taking 100,000 shares at the same price. By this purchase Mr. Gould perfects his system of communication between Boston and San Francisco. About a fortnight later it was announced that negotiations had been completed between the Western, Topoka & Santa Fe and St. Louis & San Francisco railroad companies, which would result in building of still another transcontinental railway.

The only considerable blot on the fairness of the picture are the Indian troubles and the yellow fever epidemic. The Ute war was caused by Indian Agent Meeker's well-meant but ill-considered attempts to teach the Indians to cultivate their lands. The Indians becoming restless, and an outbreak being feared, a body of troops was sent to the agent's assistance, and on September 23, at Milk creek canon, about twenty-five miles from White river, the Indians attacked in force. For six days Major Thornburgh's command made a gallant resistance, and was then relieved by Captain Dodge. Major Thornburgh and ten of his men and many Indians were killed. Some desultory fighting followed, but the Indians consented to settle the matter by negotiations, which are still in progress. On January 10 and subsequent days, sixty-eight Cheyennes of Dull Knife's band, were killed in an attempt to escape from the troops commanded by Captain Wessels. The instructions to take the savages back to the Indian Territory. Twelve soldiers were killed and as many wounded.

The first case of yellow fever appeared in Mississippi on July 10, and the epidemic was officially declared to exist between August 1 and October 25. Up to the last date there were reported 1,505 cases and 499 deaths. In New Orleans there were ten deaths and less than fifty cases. An indefinite number of cases in fifteen States were reported, but the disease nowhere gained a permanent footing.

On December 11, President Hayes signed the commission of G. W. McCray to be judge of the Eighth Judicial Circuit. Alexander Ramsey of Minnesota, succeeded him as Secretary of War.

THE DEAD OF THE YEAR.

The second day of the year saw the death of Caleb Cushing, whose life began with the signing of the Declaration of Independence, and who was the first Secretary of State. Dix (born in 1788), who filled more offices than any other American, and whose public career was as creditable as his private life was blameless. It is scarcely yet two months since attention was drawn to the death of the many public services of the "stalwart" senator, Zachariah Chandler, who was born in 1813, and died with shocking suddenness Nov. 1. Another prominent politician of the West was ex-Gov. William Allen, who was born in 1808, and died suddenly on July 11th. William Lloyd Garrison, born in 1804, died on May 24th, and Elinor Burritt, a co-worker of his, whose services in the cause of freedom fairly earned him a better title than that of "learned lady," died on the 6th.

From the navy rolls are now missing the names of Commodore John Guest (Jan. 12th, aged 58 years), E. R. Thompson (Feb. 12th, aged 71 years), and F. A. Parker (June 10th, aged 57 years), and Rear Admiral E. F. Farrot (May 10th, aged 64 years). S. W. Gordon (May 17th, aged 70 years), Charles Hoarman (Sept. 13th, aged 84 years), A. H. Kilty (Nov. 10th, aged 73 years), and William Reynolds (Nov. 6th). From the army register have been struck such names as Gen. Wm. W. Phelps, General James Shields, born in 1810, who died on the 1st day of June; Major-General Hooker, "Fighting Joe," who died on October 31st, at the age of 64 years; and Jefferson Davis, who died on November 30th, aged 83 years. Their gallant adversary, J. B. Hood, major-general in the Confederacy (born 1831), and his wife, both died of yellow fever on August 30, and R. W. Taylor, the son of President Taylor, who posse session until it became a fact, and then fought in the Confederate army, died on April 12, aged 73. R. H. Dana, the last of the early race of American poets, died on February 2, aged 91 years. Henry C. Carey, the American writer upon subjects of political economy and advocate of protection, died on October 13, aged 80 years, and Michael Chevalier, the French free trader, died on November 29, aged 73. Journalism suffered the loss of J. H. DeVilleneuve (April 12, aged 67 years), F. C. Figaro, and J. T. DeLane, of the London Times, who died on November 28. Charles Fechter, the actor, on August 4, aged 62 years; H. D. Palm, the successful manager, on July 19, and J. B. Buckstone manager and actor, on October 30, at the age of 77 years. Baron Lionel de Nathan Rothschild, head of the great firm, and the first Jew who sat in Parliament, after a contest of a decade had excused them from the necessity of taking the oath "on the true faith of a Christian," died on June 3, aged 71 years. Asa Packer, who owed, not to inheritance but to his own achievement, the fortune which placed him among the great capitalists of the world, was born in 1806, and died, leaving two sons, on May 17. The Golet brothers, who owned one of the great landed estates of New York, died very nearly exactly within two months of each other—Robert on September 22 and Peter on November 21. Richard Schell, born in 1810, died on November 10, and Daniel Drew, who was born in 1797, on September 18. Worthy of an earlier mention are the names of four dead bishops—Bishop Foley, of St. Louis, died on October 15, a Roman Catholic, of Chicago, who died on the 25th of the Methodist church, who died on April 25; and two Protestant Episcopal bishops—W. H. Odenheimer, born 1817, who died on August 14, and W. R. Whittingham, born in 1803, who died on October 17. Carver, 19, aged 57; Bishop Doane, who died on January 19, announced the end of January, and Cardinal Guidi about the end of March. Mrs. Charles Dickens died on November 22; William Hepworth, better known as Hepworth Dixon, died on December 27, aged 58 years.

"Oxen is a very slow animal, they are good to break ground up, I would rather have horses if they didn't have olick, which they say is wind collected in a bunch, which makes it dangerous for to keep horses than an ox. If there was no horses the people would have to wheel their wood on a wheel-barrow. It would take them two or three days to wheel a cord in a mile. Cows is useful too, I have herd sum say if they had to be tother or an ox they would be a cow, but I think when it cum to have there tits pulled of a cold morning they would wish they wasn't, for oxen cant generally have to rase cays. If I had to be enny I would rather be a heffir, but if I could be a heffir and have to be both I woud be an ox."—A Boy's Composition.

Advice to Consumptives.

No man, however uncleanly, would drink, muddy, dirty water. A party which occupies a room for hours, breathing the same air, might be compared to a party of bathers drinking the water in which they bathe. The patient must keep the window wide open. Night air is fresh air without daylight. In close, crowded rooms, the patient suffering from lung complaints breathes corruptly. By taking these precautions and using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets, fully one-half of the cases of lung complaints would be cured in six months. For cough and irritation of the lungs do not always indicate the presence of consumption although it may result in that disease. If consumption has already become deeply seated in the system, this is the most efficient course of treatment that can be pursued outside of any institution that provides special facilities for the treatment of this disease. Dr. Pierce's celebrated Wyandott Hotel is such an institution. Send stamp for descriptive pamphlet containing also a complete treatise upon consumption, explaining its causes, nature, and the best methods of treating it, together with the hints concerning diet, clothing, exercise, etc., for consumptives. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

"Roughs."

It is a significant fact that wherever tobacco has been introduced throughout the whole world its use has become general among all classes. This, too, notwithstanding the fact that the world is filled with anti-tobacco fanatics, who are eternally denouncing and preaching against its use and denouncing it as a pernicious practice. Its use first began among the Indians of Central America, by whom it was first found and utilized. It is a powerful narcotic stimulant and also has cathartic properties, and is used with very beneficial effects either in the form of cigars or as smoking tobacco, and in either of these forms is used very extensively by that class of brain workers whose business requires continuous concentration of thought. When the mental faculties have been for a long time concentrated upon any particular subject they become exhausted and produce a nervousness of both the mental and physical organization. When this occurs, a soothing narcotic seems to be indispensable and nothing has yet been discovered in the wide range of Anterior materia which so fully and completely answers the purpose, as a good cigar. The anti-tobacco enthusiast can never know the exquisite delights and thrilling sensations produced by smoking a fragrant Havana. They know nothing of ecstasy when the fumes of a burning cigar produce nor have they ever built up towering castles in ascending smoke. There are at present numberless brands of cigars representing to be manufactured from the best quality of tobacco in America, but few of these are of the quality of those that are produced in the form of cigars. It cannot be expected that a costly box and label can be given away for nothing. The cost must be added to the cigars. The cigars of A. T. & S. Co. are roughly finished and are packed in "rough" boxes, with plain labels, with no artificial flavor, no gilt-edge nor embossed linings. But the cigars are A No. 1, all the same. They have the name of this brand "Roughs" and are bringing them to the front. They will be found excellent.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having been consulted by a East India man in regard to the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure for Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after his wonderful cures, he has prepared a number of thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by the desire to bring relief to all who are afflicted with this disease, I will send free of charge to you, if you desire it, this remedy, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using, sent by mail, with address with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. SHERB, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Halls Balsam.

Consumption is cured in a few days. Don't hesitate for relief, for Hall's Balsam will cure you, even though professional aid fails.

Henry's Carbolic Salve is used extensively in Hospitals, and is found to be not only a thorough purifier and disinfectant, but so the most wonderful and speedy healing remedy known. Heals cuts, burns, sores, pimples and all skin diseases. Ask for Henry's and take no other.

ASTONISHING SUCCESS.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all druggists to recommend it to the poor lying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 40,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try sold at 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents.

Edgar Allan Poe's Betrothed.

I like best to think of Poe as associated with his betrothed, Sarah Helen Whitman, whom I saw sometimes in her later years. That gifted woman had outlived hereafterly friends and loves and hopes; and perhaps her literary fame, such as it was; she had certainly outlived her recognized ties with Poe and all but his memory. There she dwelt in her little suite of rooms, bearing youth still in her heart and in her voice and on her hair also, and in her dress. Her dimly lighted parlor was always decked here and there with scarlet; and she sat robed in white, with her back always turned to the light, thus throwing a discreetly-tinted shadow over her still thoughtful and noble face. She seemed a person embalmed while still alive; it was as if she might dwell for ever there, prolonging into an indefinite future the tradition of poet's love; and when we remember that she had been Poe's betrothed, that his kisses had touched her lips, that she still believed in him and was his defender, all criticism might well, for her sake, be discarded and her solitary life atone for his stormy and sad career.—T. W. Higginson.

An Accidental Cure.

When death was hourly expected from Consumption, all remedies having failed and Dr. H. James was experimenting, he accidentally made a preparation of Indian Hemp, which cured his only child, and now gives this recipe on receipt of stamps to pay expenses. Hemp also cures night sweats, nausea at the stomach, and will break a fresh cold in 24 hours. Address Craddock & Co., 1032 Race street, Philadelphia, Pa., naming this paper.

Dr. Carter's IRON TONIC

Is a Preparation of IRON and CALSAYA BARK, in combination with the Phosphates, Endorsed by the Medical Profession, and recommended by them for Dyspepsia, General Debility, Female Maladies, etc. Manufactured by the Dr. Carter Medicine Co., No. 212 N. Main Street, St. Louis. The following is one of the very many testimonials we are receiving daily:

"Some three months ago I began the use of DR. CARTER'S IRON TONIC, upon the advice of my friends who knew its virtues. I was suffering from general debility to such an extent that I was exceedingly burdensome to me. A vacation of ten months did not give me much relief, but the contrary, was followed by increased prostration and sinking spirits. At this time I began the use of your IRON TONIC, from which I realized almost immediate and wonderful results. The old energy returned and I found that my natural force was not permanently abated. I have used three bottles of the Tonic, since using it I have done twice the labor that I ever did in the same time during my illness, and with double the ease. With the tranquil nerve and vigor of body, has come also a clearness of thought never before enjoyed. If the Tonic had not done the work, I know not what I give it the credit. Most gratefully yours,"
