Water Under the Bridge

BY G. F. B.

No one celebration in the history of the United States will equal the 200th birthday party next year. Now, we aren't around for the 100th birthday fete, but it seems that with the publicity and notoriety already given, that the year will be one year in particular when it will be easy to say "I'm proud to be an American."

The series of short television spots we all have seen called "200 Years Ago Today" are one example of the public awareness of the event. The series seems to point out how much the world has changed in the past two centuries, but how the American people have remained basically true to their high ideals.

But, we have some of the same problems. Take money for instance. (I really don't mean "take". That would be stealing).

Anyway, the first administrators of our government had trouble with financial procedures. They had to worry about the price of tea, and the fact that England forced hard to pay taxes on that important "necessity" of the day was the straw that broke the American camels back.

This dissertation seems to point to the fact that the Revolution was a financial matter... that's not really so. The principles behind the money was the stigma, not just the pounds and ounces, or whatever you call English "small change".

At least 30 of the 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence had previous legal experience; almost all were experienced in public affairs. Out of those 56 came two presidents (Adams and Jefferson), three vice presidents (Adams, Jefferson and Gerry), ten U.S. Congressmen, nineteen distinguished jurists, sixteen governors, plus other high office holders. Working together - in both agreement and dissent - they forged the foundation of our American democracy as we know it today.

New stuff around town... Horton's Wagon Wheel Cafe has had a rather extensive facelift. New tile on the floor throughout, a new brick front with a nifty aluminum door, and other improvements account for the changes. Roger and Betty Horton are to be complimented on their efforts to keep beautiful downtown Goldthwaite looking that way... beautiful.

And the cooperative venture of getting the tennis court at the school refurbished is in full swing. Clyde Cockrum, chairman of the drive to raise the money, says that the court will be in operation soon.

And speaking of tennis - our own "Grand Old Man of the Racquet Set", Wendell Tucker, came in a splendid second in the big Brownwood Tennis Tournament this past weekend. Congrats to Wendell.

Eagles Lose District Opener; Host Dublin For Homecoming

Goldthwaite's Eagle football eleven put up a good battle defensively last Friday night but lost the war to the Cross Plains Buffaloes 21-3.

The score was knotted 3-3 at the half, with Byron Landrum kicking a 19-yard field goal immediately following the Buffaloes' three pointer.

The loss leaves the Eagles 1-5 on the year and 0-1 in loop play.

The Eagles tried in vain all night to open up the Buff's interior line, but the CP defense was too much for the Eagle offensive unit.

Leading rusher for the Eagles during Friday night's game was Byron Landrum with a total of 47 yards.

"As far as enthusiasm is concerned, the game Friday night proved to be the best for the Eagle Squad. Mistakes, penalties, etc., it was the worst for the team," commented Head Coach Gene Aldridge.

"Cross Plains played a real hard game against us and their touchdowns were set up as a result of mistakes made by us.

"We did some good hitting and put forth a lot of effort. Those thirteen penalties we made roughened the road for the Eagles," continued Aldridge.

EAGLES HOST DUBLIN FRIDAY

Friday night the Eagles will host Dublin for their second conference game of the year. This will also be the homecoming game for Goldthwaite.

"Dublin stand 9-6 for the season. However, the teams they have been playing are real strong and they are probably a lot tougher than the record shows," said Coach Aldridge.

The Way It Was - Children Are Victims

By Novaleen Berry Watters

One morning in October of 1879, Tom Berry hooked his team to his wagon and prepared for a trip to Waxahachie to buy supplies for the winter. It was his custom to go there twice each year. Usually some menfolk stayed home to protect the women and children, and on this trip Tom Berry traveled alone. The trip took about seven days to complete.

In the year of 1879 the mobs were active in all the communities of Mills County, and when a new settler came to this area he was soon felt out to see what kind of stand he would take, as far as the mobs were concerned.

When Tom Berry left his log cabin that morning in October, his two sons, Willie who had just passed his 12th birthday, and Paul, aged 9, were playing in a nearby ditch. He was always to remember that scene. He told his wife afterwards that he felt very apprehensive as he drove away.

On the second morning after the father's departure, the boys begged their mother to permit them to go to Center City, 7 miles away, to get the mail. She was reluctant to let them go, but finally relented, and the two boys rode away.

Someone else was out on that fateful morning. He was waiting for a member of the mob to come his way, and was hiding in ambush. The two boys were over half way home when suddenly a shot rang out. Paul, riding behind Willie, was shot in the chest area. He lived long enough to speak a few words.

It is my understanding that at the time no one knew who was responsible. However, in the late fifties when I was doing research to write the Berry Family History, I was told, in a guarded fashion, that later the man responsible confessed to Grandpa Berry and the killing explained. It was a case of mistaken identity, and the man was on my "Grandpa's side." Honest men, in those days, were trying to protect their homes and families. Evidently, Paul was not killed by the mob, but died because the mob existed. My uncles, Charley and Walker Berry, told me these things and what happened on that morning, and if my family deemed it necessary to keep the name of the person responsible for the killing of Paul a secret for almost 100 years, I will do the same.

If Tom Berry had looked to his left, and it had not been dark that night when he returned from his journey, he would have seen a new grave beside that of his little daughter, Mary, who had died a few months earlier, the first grave to be placed in the Pleasant Grove Cemetery.

If Willie Washington Berry had been the brother killed that October morning, 1879, I would not be here to relate this story. He was my grandfather.

District VII Farm Bureau Awards Meeting

By Hartal Langford Blackwell

One day, about 1884, Asa Langford went on a trip to Gatesville to purchase sewing machines for his mercantile store, and he wanted his son Joe to go with him. He found his young sons, Rufe, 11, Joe, 8, and Jimmy, 7, swimming in a nearby branch. When he asked Joe to go with him, Joe put up an argument and Jimmy agreed to go instead, since Joe didn't want to leave the swimming hole.

After they had left Gatesville and were well on their way home, Jimmy begged his father to let him drive the wagon team, which he did, giving Jimmy the driver's seat. Shortly after, a group of men dashed up and shot through the wagon canvas at the spot where the driver would be sitting.

The charge hit young Jimmy under the arm and he toppled forward, dropping the reins. His father caught him and pulled him back inside the wagon on top of the machines, then went forward to get the 44 pistol that he always carried under the spring seat of the wagon. While he was trying to get his gun firing was terrific, setting the canvas aflame and wounding my grandfather, Asa, in the leg. When he finally reached the gun, not a person could be seen. He then went back to extinguish the fire under young Jimmy lay, and found his young son had died.

In the meantime, the horses continued down the road, driverless, with the reins dragging. Grandfather crawled down to retrieve the reins, and when he looked up a masked man crossed the road in front of him, but he could not recognize him.

But the mob was to strike Asa Langford again a few months later. He and his son, Asa Jr., married and the father of two children, were returning home from Gatesville when Asa Sr. decided to ride off the road to visit a friend for a short time. Asa Jr. rode on ahead at a slow pace so that his father could catch up with him later. When Asa Sr. came upon his son, he found both Asa Jr. and his horse dead in the road. The mob had hid in ambush in two places along the road and Asa Jr. had been wounded at the first ambush, then both he and his horse brought down at the second. He was still in the saddle, and signs were visible that he had tried desperately to get his gun from the holster.

It is thought that the mob had intended to kill Asa Sr., especially when young Jimmy was killed.

According to Mrs. Thelma Jernigan Gillan, her grandfather, Noah Jernigan, father of the late Luther Jernigan, was killed by a mob. Mr. Jernigan's ranch lay at the corner of Mills, San Saba and McCulloch Counties along the Colorado River. He often carried water from the river to the house. He and a neighbor that lived across the river were to testify at a trial on a Monday, and on Saturday before the trial, when Mr. Jernigan went to the river to get water, he was killed from ambush. His neighbor from across the river was also killed before the trial could come to court, both men leaving fatherless families.

Jimmy Langford Killed

And so it went during these dark days of the mob rule in Mills County. I, personally, do not know the name of a single person that was a member of the mobs, and do not wish to. I have written these articles about the mobs solely because they are a part of the history of the county, and for no other reason.

The laws of Mills and San Saba Counties eventually called in the Texas Rangers, and with much undercover work, the mobs were broken up and put to rest forever.

Historical Commission Reports On Marker Progress

The Mills County Historical Commission met in regular session Oct. 9th, at 2 p.m. in the County Courtroom. Mrs. M. F. Horton, Chairman presided. She read a letter of congratulations from the State Chairman, Truett Lattimer.

The letter stated that we had received a Historical Marker for "The Old Dam and Hand-dug Well" at Mills County Park. The Park is now located on land that in the eighteen hundreds was covered with water. The water was a supply source for the Santa Fe Railroad.

The letter stated that because of a depletion in the supply of materials used in making these markers, it will be some time before the marker arrives.

Mrs. W. P. Duren, Marker Chairman, has sent in an application for a Historical Marker for the "Old Suspension Bridge" at Regency. Two of her committee, Mrs. Tom Duren and James Lettetter, have been helping her to gather material.

Mrs. Leta Durst of Mullin is compiling material for a Historical Marker for "Williams Ranch, a Historical town".

Mrs. M. F. Horton and Mrs. V. Z. Cornelius gathered history from Mr. Harry Allen in 1968 for the dam and well marker at the park. Mr. Allen's uncle was one of the workers on the dam. Also Mr. Allen helped to dig the well.

Mrs. Hollis Blackwell and Mrs. Gerald Head are collecting history on Center City and the Center Oak and have sent in application for a marker for this.

Mrs. W. L. Cathey is gathering history on the Mount Olive Church to obtain a Historical marker.

Also, a Historical Marker based on the history written by Mrs. Hollis Blackwell, about the Mountain Eagle and the Goldthwaite Eagle, is being used to apply for a Historical Marker for The Goldthwaite Eagle.

The Commission voted to have a booth, "Mills County General Store" at the Halloween Carnival, Nov. 1.

The History Appreciation Chairman, Mrs. Hollis Blackwell, is asking for short stories, two pages or less, that she can print in the Eagle. Also history of your family and interesting facts that can be placed in the second edition of Mills County History, that the History Preservation Chairman, Miss Mae Featherston is now compiling.

October Full Of Bicentennial Activities

October will be a great month for showing your colors. Not only do we have Columbus Day on the 10th and Veteran's Day on the 27th, but each day of the Bicentennial Year should be an opportunity to post your flag in a prominent place. If you do not have a banner of glory, the Stars and Stripes may be purchased from the Festival Committee, Chairman Blake English, in a kit that includes the flag, a mast and flag pole, and the mounting base. The 3' X 5' flag and kit may be obtained for a mere $6.00 and the money goes to further the Bicentennial projects. What better investment could you make and have a flag to fly as well?

October will also be the month of the regular Bicentennial Committee meeting.

(Of October 18, 1935)

Pecan threshing time is here and a good crop is reported. The threshing and harvesting will afford employment for a number of boys and men in this section.

Commissioners Court was in regular session Monday and transacted routine business such as auditing accounts, examining reports and looking after general business. A new road was granted in the Indian Creek country. About 1 1/4 acres of land was purchased to straighten the highway.

Earning straight A's in elementary school during the first month were:

1st grade - Delma Jean Lockhart, Betty Faye Ray, Mary Alice Smith

4th grade - Velma Fox, Nova Mae Pearce, Georgia Porter, Jimmy Caraway

5th grade - Nelma Rhea Perry, Jack Swartzell, Madeline Porter, Gwendolyn Westerman, Doris York

6th grade - Gloria Shaw, Natalie Berry, Floyd Sansom

7th grade - Pat Chandler, Gerald Peck, Beryl Van Roberts, Harriet Allen, Wanda Bledsoe, Mary Louise McGirk

A group of girls met Oct. 14 for the purpose of organizing the Athletic Club. The following officers were elected: president - Melba Lois Hicks; vice president - June Knowles; secretary - Mary Haggood; treasurer - Alberta Windham; and reporter - Oma Roberts.

They are scheduled on a bi-monthly basis, the last Monday of that month. Order of the meeting this month will be to announce the winners of the drawing contest for the Bicentennial calendars. All school-age students in the contest are invited to enter their drawing by October 20th, and the twelve winners to have their art work reproduced on calendars commemorating the Bicentennial year. These calendars will go toward the Bicentennial fund. Winners will also receive various prizes in each age group of $10 savings bond, $5 savings bond, and silver dollars. Please encourage all youngsters to enter this CONTEST and to show in black and white what the Bicentennial means in Mills County history. Drawings may be turned into the Eagle Office or the County Judge's office. Involving the youth in the Bicentennial personally is the goal of another project being planned for next March. Several meetings have already been held in preparation for a program to include all of the schools in Mills County in an historical and musical presentation of the past 200 years. Needless to say, this will be highlights in American History, and an extravaganza that no one will want to miss.

There are endless opportunities for each and everyone of us to participate in the Bicentennial in his own way. We hope that all people will take advantage of this chance, for it will not be happening again for about one-hundred years hence.

Mohair Production Holds Its Own

"With fall goat shearing nearing completion throughout the state, the overall mohair industry picture appears brighter than it has in recent years," Agriculture Commissioner John C. White commented recently.

Experts are predicting that mohair production for 1975 will hold its own with the 1974 figure of 8,400,000 pounds, comparing favorably to the steady decline that has been the rule in the industry over the past several years.

During an Oct. 2 sealed bid sale at Sonora, one of the major sale points for mohair in the state, adult hair averaged between $1.90 and 2.15 per pound, topping the 1974 average of $1.37 and well above the incentive price of $2.20 a pound.

Yearling clip averaged between $2.25 and $2.44 at the sale, while kid clip went for $2.95 per pound.

A TEXAS SHEARER wrestles with a goat, relieving it of its summer's growth. With fall goat shearing nearing completion throughout the state, mohair production is expected to remain steady in 1975, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

High Blood Pressure - A Hidden Disease

Across America there may be more than 11.5 million "hidden" cases of high blood pressure, a disease that can lead to major health complications unless properly treated.

But studies agree that the disease probably affects 1 in every 6 adults. It also has been found in children as young as four years of age. And it is the major health problem of Black people. It is 100 times more prevalent than sickle cell anemia, for example. Based on national data, there are an estimated 23 million Americans who have high blood pressure in one of its several forms. But the disease has no set symptoms and that's why it is referred to as the silent or hidden disease.

The kid crop for the 1975 season is also expected to be better throughout the state, according to White.

"Weather, predator control, and other factors affecting kid production have been favorable this year, and ranchers have been able to hold on to more of the animals than in the past three years," White said.

The increased kid crop could also mean the beginning of a slow upswing in mohair production when they reach maturity two years from now.

South Africa has now overtaken the U.S. as number one international supplier of mohair. Texas produces some 97 percent of the U.S. total in mohair and exports almost 90 percent of the clip to foreign customers.

The great majority of the luxury fiber, which is most often used as a blend in materials, is sent for processing to a plant in Bradford, England, before being shipped to both foreign and national customers.

'Coins' Topic Of Self Culture Meet

The Self Culture Club met October 9th at Jennie Trent Dew Library. Hostesses were Mrs. Green Mankin and V. C. Bradford.

Mrs. Marvin Hodges was program director. She presented Mrs. A. R. Neely who gave a most interesting and informative talk on United States coins - from the origin up to today's currency.

Mrs. Neely used a mounted and framed display from her private collection to lighten her remarks. The exhibit was designed in the shape of the state of Texas. Arrowheads were also used in the assemblage. Among some of the older coins was a large penny minted in 1847.

Following the program the hostesses served a dessert course to Mrs. Ed Gilliam and sixteen club members. Chocolates wrapped in gold and shaped like coins were plate favors.

The tea table was laid with a burnt-orange cloth, and featured an arrangement of yellow daisies in a brown bean pot. A ceramic hen and rooster were accessories, carrying out fall colors.

Teacher: "You say you traced his ancestry to the Boston Tea Party?"

Student: "Yes, I think his great-great-grandmother was the last bag they threw over the side."

Jr. High Flies To Victory

Goldthwaite's Junior High Eagles rallied for a 15-0 win over Cross Plains last Thursday night.

Keith Williams went over the goal line in the second quarter on a dive from seven yards out for the first Eagle TD. Extra point was no good.

On an option play 12 yards out Mike McMullen took the pigskin over the line for the second touchdown of the night. The extra point was still no good.

The final score of the game was made in the fourth period of play when Jim Smith kicked a field goal from 20 yards out.

Mike McMullen had 13 carries for a total of 34 yards; Mike Erwin, 9 for 50; Keith Williams, 14 for 64 (he also caught a pass from Smith which was good for 34 yards); and Scott Ward, 11 for 3.

Smith racked up 9 tackles; David Livingston, 8; and Williams, 7.

Ward intercepted two passes and Carson Padgett, Kenneth Saathoff and Steven Schwartz were credited with recovering fumbles.

"As far as playing the boys had a better second half than the first. The defensive was adequate, but was not as strong as it has been in previous games. Mainly, we stayed on offense most of the night," commented Coach Danny Spradley, on the 15-0 victory.

Thursday (tonight) the Junior High squad will travel to Dublin. The game will get underway at 6:30 p.m.

GHS Ex's Homecoming Saturday, November 29

The GHS Ex-students and teachers homecoming will be Saturday, November 29th, 1975. Mark this date on your calendar and begin making plans now to attend.

This year there is no need to make reservations as this year it was decided to have a salad and chip-and-dip supper. The ex-students and teachers that live in Mills County should bring the salads and the out-of-town visitors should furnish the chips and dips. We would like to know if you plan to come so we can arrange for a meeting place. There will be a small registration fee to cover some small expenses. You may begin gathering around 5:00 p.m.

so there will be ample time for visiting before the supper and program begins at 7:00. We are planning a varied program that should bring back memories to some and interest some of the others.

This is the Bicentennial year and Mills County has a museum that can be visited. If you have not placed some pictures or other items of interest in the museum you may want to do that.

I want to urge the ex-students who live in Mills County to come to this event. Other reminders will be placed in The Eagle, but NOW is the time for you to make plans to come.

Signed Herbert Cooke
President

Priddy 'Bits

By LELA DeHART

My how warm and nice it is these days. Not a hint of winter or rain.

I made a trip to Hamilton this morning on business and pleasure and also visited with Mrs. Minnie Griffiee at Hillcrest Rest Home. She is doing fine. We enjoyed our visit very much. Going and coming, I could not help but marvel at the fine job the Highway Department is doing on 218 in Hamilton County. The bar-ditches are clean of trash and grass. The curve banks have been cut away. You can see further around them. To me is it a very nice safety measure.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Swindle motored over to Brownwood Sunday eve, to meet their pastor, Rev. Terry White and his wife. While they were in Brownwood they went to see the picture "The Hiding Place."

Mrs. Minnie Stetler has gone to her daughter's home, Mrs. Lillie Drueckhammer, after spending several days in the Comanche Hospital.

Mrs. Howard Shipman has been for a check-up and for tests in Scott and White Hospital in Temple.

Travis Priddy of Bangs was a visitor in the community last week taking pictures of the old Joe Swindle place. He is a great-nephew of Mr.

Charlie Swindle.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. Linnie Embrey was Olie Embrey of Evant. Bee and Madge Dutton of Carlton, Mrs. Maudine Swindle, Mrs. Cecil Partin, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Senger, Mrs. Lester Geeslin and two daughters of Goldthwaite.

Mr. Melvin Neimann and wife Marianna and son Steve of Odessa came in Sunday and spent several hours with his parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Neimann and Mike. What a nice surprise.

Mr. Charlie Swindle had word from his sister, Mrs. Jim Harp of Irving that Rev. Harp was up and about.

While Mrs. Alwine Swindle of Austin was here, she took her father, Mr. August Marwitz and his wife to visit in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Senff of Hamilton The Rev. was a long time former pastor of this area.

Mr. August Marwitz has received word that a grandson, Charlie Swindle, after spending several years in South Viet Nam, is back in the USA attending school in Tulsa, Okla.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Marwitz this past week were Mr. and Mrs. John Price of San Angelo. While here, with his mother, Neith Marwitz, they visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dunn and Mary in Hamilton.

Durens Attend ABA Convention

Warren P. Duren, president of Mills County State Bank, Goldthwaite, and Mrs. Duren attended the 100th annual convention of the American Bankers Association (ABA) Oct. 4-8, in New York City's famed Radio City Music Hall.

More than 10,000 other bankers and their spouses attended ABA's Centennial Convention, participating in a working program which took stock of the challenges facing America's banking industry today and appraised the opportunities of the future.

Included in the Convention program, the largest ever offered, were two general sessions, a fellowship gathering led by Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, five banking forums, 42 special interest workshops, five management seminars, six motivational seminars and two special spouses' programs.

ABA is the national trade association of the banking industry. Its membership comprises nearly 14,000 banks - more than 95 per cent of the nation's total.

SCHOOL DAZE

BY MARCIA HENRY

Time has passed and our Homecoming game is tomorrow night. We want to let the townspeople know what the activities are this week. Also we want to tell about our "Bicentennial Seniors." The Pep Squad, Band and Drill Team gave the football boys a hamburger supper Tuesday night. The boys enjoyed the hamburgers after a hard workout.

Everyone had a good time and the hamburgers were great!

The annual bonfire, snake dance and pep rally preceding the homecoming game are Thursday night (tonight) at the Courthouse Square starting at 7:00. The snake dance will go to the elementary school for the Pep Rally and Bonfire. Everyone come out and join in the spirit of Homecoming '75. The Friday night events will start at 7:30 on Eagle Field, but before that, the Annual Staff is sponsoring a Chili Supper. They will be serving from 5:00 until 7:00. The chili will be delicious, so come out and help the Annual Staff. The "Bicentennial Seniors" this year are funny, weird and full of tricks. We have a lot of fun with our seniors every year and these are no exception. They are working hard for their senior trip and caps and gowns.

They sold Homecoming mums this last week, and there seemed to be a lot of them sold.

The officers for the Senior class are as follows: President, Cowboy Love; Vice-President, Hugh Taylor; Secretary, Wanda Watson and Treasurer, Diane Elliott.

The seniors are really working hard to get everything done for "their" days ahead.

Feathers 'n Stuff
Band member of the week for the Cross Plains game was Karla Henry, a sophomore and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Henry. Karla is the Drum Major of the Eagle Band.

Last Thursday everyone showed their spirit by celebrating "Sock it to 'em" Day. Everyone wore socks and there were a lot of sore toes from Davy Thomson's boot stompin'. The same Thursday night, the Junior Varsity and Jr. High "A" team played Cross Plains and both teams came home victorious. The junior varsity won over the Buffaloes 12 to 0. They played an outstanding game. The Jr. High team won 15-0. They also played very well. We are very proud for both of our teams.

Unfortunately the Varsity Eagles lost to the Cross Plains Buffaloes last Friday night 21 to 3. We are still very proud of our boys and are going to back them all the way. Good Luck Eagles against the Dublin Lions!!

The Junior class had a lot of fun during their car wash. There was a lot of water, soap and water balloons. Mrs. Hillman kept threatening everyone not to get her wet, but someone really drowned her good. They made quite a lot of money, and they want to say thank you to everyone who brought their cars and trucks down to be washed. Also a big "Thank You" to the Methodist Church for letting the Juniors use the tennis courts.

This is all the news for this week, and I finally got the joke from Buzz Hammond, so here it is:

Asked about the first day of school, a kindergartener offered his considered judgment: "I learn a lot of stuff there, but it sure cuts into my day."

That's the way we feel sometimes!

Have a nice week and remember Homecoming actually means "coming home."

"HAPPENINGS"

Depicting an early day "happening" in the life of one of our residents, Jessie Karnes was a 23-year-old employee of the Ben Geeslin Dry Goods Store when this picture was made in 1905.

Later, she married Wellie Saylor, member of a prominent pioneer family of Mills County and they had one daughter, Mrs. Parker Shaw of San Antonio.

THIS 'n THAT - The Kitchen Klatter Kombo presented a "concert" in our home last week. And judging from the residents' response, this should attest to the fact that they are GOOD! - Nice surprise - to have Ruth Dumas, Earnest Jarrett, Marvin Yeager and Willie Casbeer come by to sing. Sure hope they make this a regular habit. - Want to thank the Village Garden Center for supplying beautiful floral arrangements and corsages for all to enjoy. - We have the evidence that Walker Berry, who will be 81 his next birthday, has raised some pretty big sweet potatoes. The ones we saw ranged upwards to 3 lbs. and, in comparison with last year's crop, that's "small potatoes." - Appreciated Homer Petty sharing tapes from his pastorate in Galatia, Ill. - Had the biggest crowd ever last Thursday night, when the Bible Class singers came. There were 90 in attendance. Want to show our appreciation not only to the local singers, but to these Brownwood folks who helped out as well: Lon and Olga Culbertson, Carl and Opal Featherston, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Jones, J. D. Murray, Omar and Georgia Graham, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Martin, Othel Egbert, Mr. and Mrs. Bowden and Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham. - Welcome to Heritage Home - Mrs. Dixie Milton of Waco.

GO! EAGLES

'B' Eagles Down Cross Plains 12 - 0

Just before time ran out in the first half of the Goldthwaite - Cross Plains B Team game last Thursday night, the Eagles scored the first touchdown of the game. The TD was set up a couple of plays before starting with a 36-yard run by Tommy Collier. Charles Davis took the ball on the next play on about a 7-yard run, an interference penalty being called against Cross Plains putting the Eagles on the one-yard line. Mike Williams took the pigskin over the line for the six-pointer.

In the third period, following a fumble recovery, with fifteen yards to go Williams took the ball again for another six-pointer. Cross Plains could not muster a single score during the four periods of play against the strong Eagle team.

"Despite the 90 yards of penalties, the Eagle defensive is credited for the 12-0 victory," commented Coach Perry Farley.

Leading tacklers for the game were Johnny Duncan and Mike Williams with 12 each; Robert Berry and Mike Jenkins, 11 each; and Sammy Padilla who had 9.

Fumbles were recovered by Mike Williams and Mike Jenkins. Mike Connally was credited with interception of a pass. Several were intercepted during the night, but were called back due to penalties.

Leading rushers were Mike Williams with 15 carries for 88 yards, avg. 5.9 per carry; and Tommy Collier, 11 carries for 67 yards, with a 6.1 avg. per carry.

Other rushers were D. D. Terrebone, 7 carries for 12 yards, 1.7 yards per carry; and Justin Bains, 1 carry for 4 yards.

Connally attempted 7 passes and completed four for a total of 41 yards.

Probably the biggest single gain in yardage for the night was made by Randy Williams on an 18-yard run.

The Eagles racked up a total of 209 yards for the game. Thursday (tonight) the B Eagles will travel to Dublin. They will play following the Junior High game which begins at 6:30 p.m.

I wish I could say it rained, but we haven't had any rain at all in some time.

Our children from Burnet, Johnie, Margaret and grandson Cliff, visited us recently.

Our nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Smith visited us, and we visited my sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Conrad.

Mrs. Fred Laughlin and I were in Brownwood last Tuesday.

Mrs. Laughlin, Mrs. Lina McClain and I attended a gift tea last Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Dale Laughlin. They received so many nice gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Smith had their sons as visitors over the weekend - Dr. O. W. Smith of San Angelo and James Smith of Austin.

Our son, Chile Smith of Waco, visited me Friday. I was really surprised to see him. We had a real nice visit. He was on his way to get his wife and son at Waco, then they were going to Lubbock to visit their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bennett and son Clint. They all wanted to attend the A&M football game. They really enjoyed it. (So did I. They came back Sunday evening. Their daughter, Carolyn, and son, Clint, went home with them. They stopped by Chile's sister and brother-in-law's, Forrest and Billie Helen. You can be sure we were all there to welcome our great grandson, Clint.

I visited Mrs. Lula Morssey one day last week.

We had a wonderful singing at Heritage Home Thursday night. Everyone enjoyed it.

Well, Saturday was hay hauling time at the Dutch Smith farm. You can ask Owen Smith and Jesse Ball.

We had lunch yesterday with our daughter, Mrs. Forrest Jernigan.

Her son Jimmy and his family of Comanche also spent the day with the Forrest Jernigans. We sure did enjoy being with them and especially with Sid. He is so big now and is really enjoying football.

Wheeler Reunion Held Recently

Descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Wheeler met Oct. 4th and 5th at Lake Brownwood for their annual reunion. Families began arriving early Saturday. The weather was perfect, so everyone had a chance to tour the lake on a nice, big barge, compliments of the Haralson Wheeler family. Some of the more youthful of the clan enjoyed rides on paddleboats.

By 7:30 everyone had gotten there and we were all ready to eat. As is usual at an affair such as this, every cook puts forth her best, and ours was no exception. We had goodies of all kinds and plenty of them. After supper we saw movies of earlier days, had music and singing and just good visiting.

We decided to start a memorial fund in memory of our loved ones gone on, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Wheeler and Janie Simpson Conner.

After a good night's rest and breakfast, the activities began all over. There was picture taking and just a lot of fun.

After lunch, we loaded our cars for home, all looking forward to meeting again next year.

Those present for this occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Haralson Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler, Mark and Rodd, and Cox Wheeler all of Rankin; Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Wheeler, Brady; Kathleen Wheeler and Mary Nell Barnes of Dallas and Norma Norris and Sara Austin, Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wheeler, Rob and Kelli, Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Fields Hines, Gatesville; Mr. and Mrs. Bethel Eiland and Troy, Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Mohler W. Simpson, Suzi and Rebecca, Big Spring.

Also, Mrs. Herbert Haman and Brenda and Jean Conner, San Marcos; Henry Conner, Nancy, Laura and Martha, San Antonio; and Bobby Conner, Houston; Eddie and Jan Eiland and Dean and Rita Eiland of College Station; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kauhs and Mr. and Mrs. Mohler Simpson, Goldthwaite.

Those unable to attend were Herbert Haman and Gwendolyn, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ross Wheeler, Trena, Joe and Thurman, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Coffee and Billie Jean, and Mike Wheeler.

Taxpayers Support Proposition Five

Using the phrase "Save Agriculture" as their theme, a large group of Texas farm and ranch land owners have formed a political committee to push for the adoption of Proposition Five in the Constitutional election on November 4th.

Proposition Five is the proposed Finance Article of the Texas Constitution. If adopted by the voters on November 4, Proposition Five and the implementing Act, House Bill 1535, would require that Texas farm and ranch land be taxed according to how much income it would produce. Under the new law, there would not be restrictions to prevent farmers and ranchers from qualifying as under the existing constitution. According to Odell, if agricultural land continues to be taxed at its speculative value, as most such land is under the present Constitution, most farmers and ranchers will be forced to sell their land to real estate developers who will remove the land from agricultural use. As a result, Odell fears that "One of these days we'll wake up and not have anything to eat."

Grace Whitlock and Thomas Burrus have been named 1975 Mills County 4-H Gold Star Winners. This award, the highest given at the county level, is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Purpose of the award is to recognize outstanding achievement, leadership and contribution to the County 4-H program. A club member may receive this award only one time.

Miss Whitlock is past chairman and current reporter of the Mills County 4-H Council. She has served the Star 4-H Club as president, vice-president and secretary. During the six years she has been a 4-H'er, Grace has done project work in clothing, foods, recreation and horticulture. She has represented Mills County at District contests, Leadership Lab and Texas 4-H Congress.

Grace is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Whitlock of Star.

Thomas Burrus is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Burrus of Goldthwaite. Thomas has served as president of the 4-H Horse Club during the recent year. He is presently a delegate to the Mills County 4-H Council.

Both Grace and Thomas will be honored during the District 8 Gold Star Banquet in Stephenville on November 8, 1975.

Dear Charlotte,

Once again I am being ignored for at least eight hours out of each week, and for a wife who loves attention (what one doesn't?), that is a heck of a lot of ignoring!

I've tried screaming, standing on my head, false eyelashes, slinky long dresses, a new hairdo, pouting, a seductive perfume, hot pants, stomping my feet, and slamming doors - results? - ZERO! I've been replaced by Lions, Chiefs, Bears, Giants, Cowboys, Browns, Vikings, Eagles, and Calvin Hill, and Morton, and Staubach, and many, many others!

I really don't mind my living room becoming a stadium, and my carpet an astroturf, and my kitchen a concession stand, and it is probably my duty to tote cold drinks, popcorn, peanuts, and lunch, and dinner to a mesmerized husband, but I object to talking to myself for eight hours!

And I'm not going to. Being a very determined female, I will win. I am studying the strange jargon that emits from the screen in my comfortable stadium, and one of these Sunday afternoons I am going to say: "That was an illegal procedure; did you see that Billy Goat action; that fumble disrupted the rhythm of the kicking team; such continuing ineptitude; that was a fake draw," and I am going to throw in words like tight safety, free safety, split receiver, wide receiver, a gutsy call, a middle linebacker, a blocking tight end, a lone flanker, a screen to Collins, and veteran guard.

That'll wake him up!
