These Indians, consisting of the Beaver family from Anadarko, Oklahoma, are being brought to Mullin through the efforts of Emma Nelle Carney, formerly of Oklahoma. She married Sid Carney, an Ottawa-Creek Indian, when he was stationed at Camp Bowie during World War II. Mr. Carney has worked with the Bureau of Indian Affairs for a number of years and has received numerous commendations for outstanding achievements. The Beaver family, who will be featured in several dances including the Eagle, Shield, and Snake dances, have been featured in special dances throughout the celebration. The dancers will be: 11; Jamie, 9; Jerry, 13; and Tonya, 10. Emma Carney Tartar will be the Lord's Prayer in Indian language. Flint Carney will be some gymnastics and the two-step. Mrs. Beaver are in the Indian arts, including bead work and feather work. They make all the costumes for their children's dances. Carney and his family are in Mullin for the day's celebration.

FEATURING Wild West Sasparrilla, the Rail Fence Saloon in Mullin will be the gathering spot for many thirsty visitors at the Mullin Bicentennial Celebration Saturday. Passing by the Saloon were Mrs. Grady Hancock, Jewel Baskin and Ruth Tullos.

FRANCINE OLIVER, of Austin will be a star attraction at the Mullin celebration. She will be modeling her costume from the musical "Oklahoma" and performing with her band during the day.

LOST SAN SABA MINE - Huck Alldredge and Ernest Lynn Fisher show spectators the location of the San Saba Mine. The mine is just one of a myriad of attractions to see and participate in at the Mullin Celebration.

MULLIN ARTIST Susie Kirbo Stewart holds the Mullin Commemorative plate that will be sold for $7.50. The plates will be sold at one of the flea market booths at the Mullin Celebration Sat.

Annual FFA Invitational Rodeo Slated June 17, 18 & 19

Goldthwaite's 18th annual invitational rodeo opens tonight and will continue through Saturday night. The annual event, sponsored by the local FFA Chapter, will get underway each night at 8 p.m. at the T. A. Head Arena, north of the elementary school.

Thursday afternoon (today) a street parade will get underway at 5 p.m. The parade will originate at the high school. Course of the parade will be down main street to the courthouse and back up the north side of the square. All schools invited to participate in the rodeo have been urged to take part in the parade.

Business firms as well as civic groups have been invited to participate in the parade with floats and other suitable entries. Members of the FFA Chapter will appreciate the support of everyone taking part in this annual event to help make it a success.

Events for the three nights include bull riding, wild horse race, bareback bronc riding, ribbon roping, tie-down roping, breakaway roping, rabbit race (pre-schoolers), armadillo race (sixth graders and under), grade school girls barrels and poles (sixth graders and under), junior high girls barrels and poles (seventh and eighth graders), high school girls barrels, and high school goat tying.

A total of twenty schools will be taking part in the three nights of rodeo action. They are, along with the host school, Brownwood, Lometa, Zephyr, San Saba, Gustine, Hamilton, Blanket, Comanche, Evant, Pottsville, Early, Bangs, Star, Priddy, Mullin, Richland Springs, Lampasas, Rochelle, Brady and Mason. The first five places Thursday and Friday night in each event will be awarded ribbons.

Trophies will be presented to the first three places Saturday night.

J. C. Thomson, FFA advisor, and Bobby Boykin, president of the Rodeo Association, invite each and everyone to attend the three nights of rodeo action.

Priddy Bond Election Monday

Monday, June 21, the Priddy Independent School will hold a $25,000 bond election according to David Casey, superintendent of schools.

Polls will open Monday morning at 8 a.m. and remain open until 8 p.m. The election will be held at the Priddy School.

Youths Arrested In Star Burglary

Three Copperas Cove youths were arrested last week for the burglary of the Star School lunchroom.

Charges were pending against David Van Note, William Peters and Kenneth Pitts, all of Copperas Cove.

The trio allegedly burglarized the school and took candy, soda water, frozen french fries, frozen fish sticks and assorted other grocery items. Some of the merchandise was recovered by local sheriff's officers.

Piranah Fish Caught In Colorado River

Homer Halford, of the Winchell area, was fishing on a trotline on the Colorado River last Wednesday when he hooked a strange looking fish. He brought the scaly monster, actually only about a foot long, to authorities who identified the thing as a South American piranah.

Local game warden Benny Schriver said that the fish was caught just a few miles above Mills County and that persons finding anything unusual in the river should contact him. "Piranahs are very voracious, often attacking large animals and even people in their native habitat."

Schriver said that it is a violation of the law to sell or release these fish in Texas except under permit for scientific use, and then only for dead laboratory specimens.

$390 Donated To Park Fund

Members of the Mills County Park Committee are now taking donations to insure the upkeep of the local facility for the 1976-77 year.

To date, a total of $390 has been donated to the fund. Latest contributors are the Price Reunion and Mr. and Mrs. Aubra Cline.

Those wishing to donate to the drive should send their check to Mills County State Bank or present it to one of the park committeemen.

Commissioners To Establish Redistricting Plan

The Mills County Commissioners Court has asked Anderson County Judge N. R. Link of Palestine to come and aid the local leaders in establishing a redistricting plan.

Judge Link, fresh from a redistricting situation in his home county, will come free of charge to help commissioners set up guidelines and get the arduous job of rearranging county representation underway.

Judge Link will be here for a special meeting on July 9 from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the Commissioners Courtroom in the courthouse. It will be a public meeting, according to Mills County Judge Herbert Faulkner, and anyone is invited to come and comment to the group.

In other court matters, the commissioners voted to add another meeting date to their regular schedule. The court, which now meets only on the second Monday of each month, will now meet the second and fourth Mondays. It was a split vote of the commissioners, with Comm. Ray Lindsey and Lewis Watson voting for and Comm. Burthel Roberts and Hawley Jernigan voting against. Judge Faulkner voted for to break the deadlock.

Commissioners Court meetings begin at 9 a.m.

AUDIT ACCEPTED
The County lawmakers accepted an outside audit prepared by Iris Rudeseal of Brownwood. She recommended several things to the court that would streamline operations and would avoid questions and problems in the future. She advised that receipts be issued for all fines paid the county on a routine basis, not just when requested, and that no personal monies be mingled with county funds for change.

The court approved the purchase of four new voting boxes to replace worn out boxes.

Editor's Note: A long search for pictures of the original Palmer Building resulted in the following two snapshots. The building is located in the far right of the Parade picture.)

OLD PALMER BUILDING - On the left are two ladies whose names are unknown and standing near them are Mrs. E. M. Wilson and Tom Rossin.

EARLY DAY PARADE - In the center of the picture are,

Proposed Exhibit Plan Accepted By Museum Committee

The proposed exhibit plan presented by Mrs. Malcolm Jernigan to the Mills County Historical Museum Committee at its regular meeting on June 2 was accepted unanimously by the Committee, and plans for refurbishing the Palmer Building are under way. The Palmer Building, future home of the Museum and recently purchased from Mrs. Joe A. Palmer, was originally a one-story building built in 1893 by Bernard Lammers for the firm of Bratton and Conro. The upper story was added by Camp No. 230 of the Woodmen of the World in 1906.

Pictures of the building in its early days have been found, after long searching, by several - most recently by Mrs. John Berry and Mrs. Annie Armstrong, and it is hoped that even more might be uncovered.

Such an interesting and historical building will be an appropriate location for a museum, and applications are pending for a National Register Listing and a Texas Historical Marker, both of which will add even more prestige to the Mills County Historical Museum. The Museum is presently housed in the former Cattleman's Production Credit Building and their community spirit and generosity, along with the support of those who have given financially and those who have furnished items relating to early Mills County days, have made the Museum an attraction to all who have visited it for over a year.

More funds will be needed for the remodeling of the building, and Herbert Cooke, Committee Chairman, has said that after talking with many Mills County residents, he is certain that Mills County can and will support a museum. Donations may be sent or given to Darryl Kirbo, Treasurer, Box 72, Mullin, Texas; Herbert Cooke, Route 2 Box 99, Goldthwaite, Texas; or the Mills County State Bank, Goldthwaite, Texas. Most recent memorials and donations to the Museum fund are: Mrs. J. H. Harris, in memory of J. H. Harris; Mrs. Fisher Wigley, in memory of Fisher Wigley; Mrs. Tom McArthur, in memory of Mrs. Henry Bessent, Mrs. Ella Meyer and Mrs. Jerry Davis; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hairston, in memory of O. K. Berry Country Store Proceeds, in memory of Old Settlers of Mills County; Col. and Mrs. M. A. Campbell; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sykes; Mrs. Bell Evans; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Duren.

Marshall and other relatives at Henderson.

My nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ozell Cox of Pampa, ate lunch with me Saturday. They had come from a visit with my brother, Carter Cox of Tye. Was sorry to hear that Carter isn't doing too well.

A lend-and-borrow library is being established in a corner of Shelton's Grocery in Mullin. The library is a Boy Scout service project of Eli Chris Hagelstein of Sanderson.

Books and magazines of various kinds will be placed on a shelf, and the public is invited to borrow these books, as well as donate any they have completed. The success of the library depends on people returning the books they have read and donating others. This will in a small way compensate for the lack of a local library.

This will be a non-profit project. Boy Scouts, after passing the first class level, are required to complete a project for the benefit of other people for each advancement of higher rank.

Mrs. Ernest Obenhaus visited with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Tolver, recently. Other visitors with Mrs. Tolver were Mr. and Mrs. Buz Garner and Michael and Ricky of Proctor.

Mrs. Paul Moore and baby daughter of Talpa visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Fisher, over the weekend.

The Way It Was "The Circuit Riders"

By Hartal Langford Blackwell
All rights reserved.

Saint Paul's eagerness to carry the gospel to all the people makes a good comparison to the early circuit riders of Mills County. Their days were long, their devotion profound and their dangers many.

One circuit rider, Reverend G. W. Templin, had four pastorate. He rode to one on Saturday night - on to another on Sunday morning - then to the next to preach at 3 p.m. on Sunday afternoon and finally finished his circuit on Sunday night. Often they rode for miles without seeing house or human.

There was a discipline about the circuit riders that was amazing. They were always on time, always ready to help and always enthusiastic wherever a few people gathered to hear their message. There was a compulsion from within that drove them on, no matter how great the odds against them. There were not many churches - but no matter. A log cabin or the shade of a tree would do as well for delivering a sermon. There were no parsonages, church committees, conferences or electric organs, but there were souls to be saved and they said, one to the other, "What are we waiting for?" And on they went.

Indians lurked beside many of their trails and at times men tried the very souls of those early ministers just to see how sincere the "preachers" really were; the elements, their nights in the open, rain, snow and the scorching heat were a part of their lives. Many times early ministers and circuit riders were forced to arm themselves for protection against a lawless land. At early meetings, guns were leaned against walls just inside doors of the little log churches.

People may ask, "How did they stand it?" The answer is, "Many of them didn't." Many died under it. They either died from exposure, burned themselves out with the strenuous pace they set for themselves, or were killed by Indians and lawless men.

Perhaps the words Jesus gave the Disciples when he said, "Take no gold, or silver, nor copper in your purses; no bag for your journey, nor two tunics, nor sandals, nor staff," as they started to go forth on their ministry parallels closely the mission of the circuit riders. Money they did not have - their clothes were few and they never saw a staff. The one exception would be the bag, for a bag they did have - a saddlebag.

There is no way to describe the fantastic storage of a western saddlebag. The circuit riders' saddlebags were magic for out of them came Sunday Schools, churches, marriages, homes, conversions and most importantly came the strengthened lives of men and women. From those saddlebags came hope and encouragement to the lonely, deprived and homesick pioneers in Mills County when the land was wild and untamed. An old circuit rider might well have made the following tribute to the two old saddlebags he had carried across his saddle for uncountable miles and many years. "These old saddlebags are worn and wrinkled, and so am I. If you want to know what caused the wrinkles, ask the cold nights, stormy winds and pelting rains; ask the red splattering mud of Hanna Valley or the black sticky mud of Pleasant Grove. Ask the water that flows down Bennett Creek or the Pecan Bayou. Ask a certain bank on the Colorado River where these old bags washed ashore when my horse and I were trying to swim that swollen stream. These saddlebags were once my traveling library, wardrobe and often my cupboard; at times they held my horse's oats. They often were stuffed with Bibles, a side of bacon, freshly ground sausage or a dressed wild turkey. They were filled to overflowing many times with fresh vegetables, live soap, sauerkraut, fruits and berries and even honey. All this was a circuit rider's pay when there was no gold or silver or copper to give. This was our "support". Some of these wrinkles tell of laughter, mistakes, and a few tell of sadness in our life, but most tell of our many, many triumphs."

By 1855 people of all Protestant faiths and a few Catholics were moving into Mills County. The first congregation to meet and hear a circuit rider was in the cabin home of Charles Mullin in 1857 on Mullin Creek.

William Henry Vann, Sr. lived as a small boy on what is now the line between Mills and Brown Counties, and went to school at Lane's Chapel. He wrote in a journal of his life the following:

"There was preaching once a month by some circuit rider preacher, and I remember Brother Davis who walked from Goldthwaite - twenty miles away. He would wade the Pecan Bayou, and sometimes when the Bayou was up he would undress and wade across, holding his clothes high above his head. Another old-time minister was Uncle Johnny Hanna, preacher and Indian Ranger, a man small in stature. He was a typical westerner. All the preachers wore boots. The songs were from old hymnals with no notes, and all songs were sung to two meters - long and short.

Another preacher, Brother Vest, used to scare me with his portrayal of the story of Noah and the flood. Brother Benningfield was a very pious and good man. Brother Jarrett was a Missionary Baptist, and he and his family often came to our house for dinner and they were fed first - so we children had to wait for the second table and get what was left. We usually had fried chicken on Sundays when the preachers came."

Early circuit riders and ministers were M. N. Weatherby, Methodist; Thomas Burrows, Baptist; Charles H. Miles, Baptist; H. Childress, Methodist; L. J. Vann, Baptist; L. L. Hays, Baptist; J. W. Kelly, Methodist; D. I. Haralson, Baptist; J. R. Wilmeth, Church of Christ; Reverend Wyatt, Holiness; Randolph Smith, Church of Christ; J. S. Bowles, Methodist; J. M. Mickle, Baptist; C. W. Templin, Methodist; F. M. Gilliam, Presbyterian; Father Kelly and Father O'Hara, Catholic; M. J. O'Quinn Methodist; J. C. Combs, Baptist; Billy Green Shaw, Baptist; W. J. Weems, Church of Christ; Joe Benningfield, Methodist; G. A. Jarrett, Baptist; and Reverend Bynum, Baptist.

Not all the above men were circuit riders. Most of them were early pastors in small pioneer churches, but the rewards of their ministry are seen today in the churches and lives of people in Mills County.

Often, the early-day ministers of all denominations gathered at various places over the county - especially along the Colorado, and large congregations of people arrived in covered wagons, hacks and horseback for a long protracted camp meeting. When people reached this shady retreat, they were in no hurry to leave, for the camp meetings were looked forward to for months. It is hard for us today to realize the large part they played in the life of the pioneers and the religious life of the people.

There were joyous greetings as family after family arrived, and immediately set up camp. It was a time for worship, talking of religion, and visiting - all three a rare treat to people of the frontier who lived so far apart.

Some of the favorite places for holding a camp meeting were at Regency, Peck's Crossing, the Blow-out, Brother Haralson's place and Warren's Crossing on the Colorado River. They also met at Slacks Crossing and Chessar Valley on the Bayou and Pompey Creek. There were huge meetings on Bulls Creek on land now known as the C. A. Womack place. The Holiness Church had a big tabernacle on Bennett Creek in Center City on land now belonging to the Oglesby children, and many camp meetings were held there. The land was eventually sold to the Oglesbys and the tabernacle sold to the Hearn and moved. The Holiness camp meetings at Center City had come to an end.

Bicentennial Mills County Historical 'Bits' Commission Regular Meeting

The next few weeks will be the climactic finale to an exciting year for Mills County. In the past few months, the citizens of our area have experienced the excitement of Fiesta-time, the glamour of a full-fledged pageant, the toe-tapping beat of the old-time fiddlers, the drama of the old west, and in general, a renewal of pride and community spirit that is reflected in the "Hi, Neighbor!" greeting that meets you on the street.

We hope that you will all turn out for the CELEBRATION IN MULLIN, "AMERICANA", on June 19th. There promises to be much in store for both participants and observers alike!

For those interested in an old-time 3rd and 4th of July, don't miss any of the activities to be held in Goldthwaite and the Mills County Park on those dates. We have a variety of parade entries from the Brady Goat Cook-Off Champions of the World to the Early Drill Team to many other surprises. It is something out of the ordinary!

CELEBRATE your BICENTENNIAL by joining in on the festivities, and help us to wish AMERICA "HAPPY BIRTHDAY!"

The Mills County Historical Commission met June 10 in the Commissioners Courtroom with Mrs. M. F. Horton, chairman, presiding. It was reported that Mrs. Hollis Blackwell has a portion of the material for the history book in the hands of the printer, Mr. Frank Bridges. The publication is to be completed by September.

"HAPPENINGS"

We enjoy many activities, but the garden project is one of the most pleasurable. To many, it means a rejuvenation of the love of growing things. To Mr. Beshears, who spends a great portion of each day tending to the many chores associated with gardening, it might mean much more. Tired muscles, aching back perhaps, but mostly a real sense of doing something useful.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION - To the many wonderful volunteers who strive to make our lives worthwhile, we are deeply grateful. This week we salute Dee Brannon who does specialized reading. Also our appreciation to Tommy Ray Collier, Glenda Kay Collier, and Glyn Collier for inspirational music on Sunday mornings; to all the churches of the county for bringing the devotionals to our home.

TO INVITE YOU - Father of the Year Award party, honoring Floyd D. Spradley, Sr., June 17, at 2:30 p.m. All friends and relatives are invited to attend.

PLEASE COME - Heritage Home Style Show, July 2, 1976, at 7:00 p.m. Lots of entertainment and Bicentennial festivities are planned.

WELCOME - Ben Williams from Gatesville and Julius and Willie Kaubs from Goldthwaite.

North Brown Cemetery Marker Dedication Staged Sunday

A dedication program commemorating the founding of the North Brown Cemetery was staged Sunday afternoon, June 13, at three o'clock at the cemetery. The setting was very distinctive with the new red brick columns and walls marking the entryway with a concrete drive going into the cemetery. The United States and Texas flags were displayed behind the brick entry on either side of the drive.

Judge Herbert Faulkner served as master of ceremonies, and the Rev. Ben Welch of the Goldthwaite United Methodist Church gave the invocation. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Mr. W. P. Duren after which Mrs. Billie Ledbetter led the song "God Bless America".

Appreciation was expressed to Mr. Buddy Morgan for installing the highway markers, Mr. Bill Yeager for the brick and concrete work on the entryway, Mr. Ray Lindsey for the maintenance work done around the cemetery, and for each person who had a part in these projects.

Mrs. M. F. Horton, chairman of the Mills County Historical Commission, was introduced after which each of the out-of-town guests were recognized. Mrs. W. P. Yeager made presentations as follows:

Corsages to Mrs. Lura O'Quinn Bethel and Mrs. Claude Saylor for being the oldest persons present.

A corsage to the youngest child, Laticia Crawford. A gift certificate for a Mills County History book to Mrs. R. L. Shuffield who came from Corona, New Mexico, the farthest distance.

And a Mills County medallion to Mrs. Jim Weatherby in appreciation for her dedicated work on the cemetery through the years.

Mrs. Billie Weatherby Ledbetter introduced and presented a Mills County medallion to Mr. E. J. Weatherby of Brownwood who gave the history of the marker subject, after which the marker was unveiled by Mrs. Lura O'Quinn Bethel, assisted by Mrs. Velma Summy.

Mr. Joe Weatherby of Brownwood said the benediction.

The inscription on the marker reads:

NORTH BROWN CEMETERY

Named For Creek Followed By Homeseekers, This Burial Ground Originated About 1857 When Death Struck At A Nearby Campsite. In The 1870s North Brown Farming Community Surrounded This Site. What you don't know about the cost of natural gas can hurt us all.

You know you're paying a lot more for natural gas, but you may not know why. The reason is basically simple:

The average price Lone Star has had to pay its 500 independent suppliers for gas we supply you has risen (about $166,000,000 more in 1975 than in 1974*). So we have to charge more.

If Lone Star were not able to recover these increased costs, we could run into some major problems.

First, we wouldn't be able to buy the gas this area needs. Short supplies of natural gas could handcuff industry.

When industry runs short, jobs begin to disappear. Production falls off. The tax base our cities, counties and school districts depend on begins to shrink.

That's why you need to understand how our industry works, why gas bills have to go up, and what Lone Star is doing to keep the increases as small as humanly possible.

Some important questions.

Here are some important questions and answers about our service.

1. How do our gas bills compare to other cities? Our customers pay less for natural gas than most cities, including other cities in Texas. We feel we're doing a pretty good job of selling natural gas at the most reasonable price possible.

2. Does gas cost adjustment guarantee profits for Lone Star? Not at all. In fact, the company has been forced to initially absorb 15 per cent of higher adjustments. This is a serious loss that must eventually be recovered if our cities are to have adequate gas supplies in the future, and if Lone Star is to have a fair return, to which it is entitled by law.

3. Who checks on Lone Star Gas? The Texas Railroad Commission, after a thorough investigation, sets our base (or wholesale) cost of gas. They set the rate of return on the pipeline system that brings the gas from the well to your city. They also monitor changes in the monthly gas costs of Lone Star, and this monthly gas cost information is filed with each city we serve in Texas.

4. How high will gas bills go? Today, your bill is based on the average cost of gas to Lone Star of a little over one dollar per thousand cubic feet. Gas bills will continue to rise in the years ahead, but probably at a much slower rate than recently. It appears that the field price of gas is leveling out so that increases will be much more gradual.

It's not all bad news.

Basically, all of those answers say that gas costs more than it used to, and it will continue to cost more.

But there is good news: As long as Lone Star is able to recover its costs, and as long as there is sufficient incentive for producers to drill for new gas supplies, we'll have the gas we need to keep this area moving.

All we ask is your understanding, and your cooperation, to make sure that happens. If you have a question you'd like answered in an advertisement, write Consumer Information, Lone Star Gas, 301 S. Harwood, Dallas, Texas 75201.
