FATHER'S DAY—NEXT SUNDAY

Next Sunday, June 18th is dedicated to the best friend you ever had or ever will have on this earth—Father. We hear a lot of Mother's praises, and they are all deserved, for Mother is the dearest person in all the world, but isn't Father deserving of a world of love too? Let's give over the day to him, and wear your rose for him, red if he is here, and white if he has passed over yonder.

HAVE YOU HEARD....?

You've heard that sentence times without number and nine times out ten the rest of it is a dab or scandal that would be better not said. Possibly that it is just the right thing to do, but it might be true, but do you feel to repeat "gossip" about another's character, whether the thing you tell is true or not? You get "peevish" when you hear of something that has been going around about you, personally; but when you hear something, true or otherwise, just so it is a little out of the prescribed limits, possibly you are one of the first to rush out, hunt up some particular cory and whisper in his or her ear, "Have you heard....?"

You do it thoughtlessly, no doubt, but have you ever stopped to think how much better it would be if you would wait till you hear something good, and then spread that, instead of the gossip. Try it for awhile. You will soon find that it makes you feel better everytime, you pass on a good thing, and will make the work look so much brighter, that you just can't help having a smile, all the time.

KEEP YOUR LOCAL INTERESTS

There is one element that enters into the successful executing of our laws that is too often overlooked and not a thought is given to. That is the element of local interest that every one should have in public matters.

Too many of us take a lot of interest in the great big questions of national government, of the part of the United State ought to take in world affairs and what Washington is doing, and in so doing lose sight of the more vital questions that directly concern our own community. And then there are others who have no interest at all in matters of government, taking the view that those constituted to carry out the laws, ought to do it thoroughly, for they are paid to do it. They lose sight of the fact that it takes encouragement from him as a citizen and of every citizen in a community, if the constituted officers are to perform their duties assigned to them, in a thorough manner. The kind of a man who feels no responsibility for the way public matters are handled, is the first to condemn the agencies that handle these matters, if there is any laxity or inability shown. If he expects to measure up to the standard of a good citizen he must be always on his guard, and actively alive to the welfare of his town, county or state.

DOLLARS AND NICKLES

Years ago a Scotch friend adjoining our farm in a certain West Texas county, bought a half section of land making only a small payment down and giving notes for the balance. Three straight years we had bad years—very bad years. Everybody else was renewing their notes and borrowing a little more money to pay taxes but the Scotch Brother met every obligation the day it was due. My father asked him one day since they were great personal friends, how he managed to do it. This was his reply:

"Well, me mon, we doo without everything we can doo without. Ahn thim things we simply can't doo without—weel we doo without thim too."

He owns three sections of good land now and it is all paid for. Every note was met the day it was due.

We, of West Texas, are given to wanting too much, too soon. It has not been many years since a man that dared call less than ten sections of land a "ranch" was sure to get the laugh. But the man that has made steady money, year in and year out, is the man that has confined himself to caring for a reasonable crop—making his dollars but saving his nickles, spending them for the things that he found that he wanted and could be had worth the money.—Plains Journal.

THAT CLAUDE SPIRIT

The town of Claude either has a wonderful spirit, or has some wonderful propogandists. The balance of fact rests with the first alternative. No matter how clever the propogandist might be, he could not continually exploit "the Claude spirit" with such unflinching consistency and so rationally.

This is the Claude spirit in a nutshell: Eervybody loves everybody else.

That's hyperbolic language, of course, because there is no town so small but what it has its petty bickerings, and no town so large but what it has its factional disputes. But it remains that Claude is the most intensely home lovely and home boosting community, considering its assets, that The News happens to know about.

Let the Claude students of colleges come home, a reception is given them. Let a class graduate, they are variously feted. Let a man's house burn down, the neighbors, no matter how stiff their joints may be, play a benefit baseball game for their unfortunate fellow. Let loss, sickness, death come to a Claude resident, neighbors are there with sympathy and material aid.

Get-together meetings are frequent. Even the chamber of commerce is a kind of community organization welcoming farmers into the membership as well as business men. Old-fashioned revival meetings in which the simplicity of the gospel rather than so-called intellectual dogmatism and recondite exegesis, flourish, are frequent.

This Claude spirit has permeated the entire county. Claude's good will has stretched its tentacles into every community of Armstrong County. When there's anything unusual to do, the whole county is invited to take part, and does take part, because the other communities recognize in Claude merely a bigger community than their own and recognize in this town a sincerity deeper than a mere surface desire to snatch up commercial advantages.

Power to the Claude spirit.—Amarillo News.

Don't you think that this kind of a spirit is rather lacking in Miami? Let's wake up from the "go easy" way we have been slipping along, and start some of that wide awake "everybody love everybody else" spirit that The News says Claude has. If you would get out of this habit of passing folks by without even a smile, you will be surprised how much more pleasant life would be.

NEWSPAPERS DID IT! OVERSTREET SAYS

"A Hupmobile a day" is the way J. R. Overstreet, West Texas Distributor of Hupmobile cars with headquarters at Fort Worth describes the way the famous "Hup" has been selling during the past month in his territory.

"Yes, better than a car a day," declared Overstreet, "for our actual sales in this territory have totaled just 33 Hupmobiles in just 30 days and in addition to this splendid record of retail sales, we have added nine new, live-wire dealers to our list of Hupmobile sellers in the same period of time."

"I ascribe the astonishing record of the last 30 days almost directly and exclusively to the use of the Printer's Ink," he continues, "for we have sold these cars and secured these new dealers in territories covered by the advertisements we are now running in the local papers and in practically every instance the sale or contract was traceable directly to the local paper."

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Roberts County, Greeting:

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to cause the following notice to be published in a newspaper of general circulation which has been continuously and regularly published for a period of not less than one year preceding the date of the notice in the County of Roberts, State of Texas, and you shall cause said notice to be printed at least once each week for a period of four weeks exclusive of the first day of publication ebefore the return day hereof:

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PROBATE OF WILL

THE STATE OF TEXAS, To all persons interested in the estate of Annie Weckesser, Deceased, Christy Weckesser, Jr. has filed in the County Court of Roberts County, an application for the Probate of the last Will and Testament of said Annie Weckesser Deceased, filed with said application, and for Letters Testamentary which will be heard at the next term of said Court, commencing on the first Monday in July A. D. 1922, the same being the 3rd day of July A. D. 1922, at the Court House thereof, in Miami, at which time all persons interested in said Estate may appear and contest said application, should they desire to do so.

Herein Fail Not, but have you before said Court on the said first day of the next term thereof this Writ, with your returns thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Miami, Texas, this the 13th day of June A. D. 1922.

(Seal) M. M. Craig, Jr. Clerk County Court, Roberts County, Texas. 4-46c

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?

Do you know that nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles or chronic rheumatism neither of which require any internal treatment? The pain may be relieved by applying Chamberlain's Liniment which makes sleep and rest possible and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism.

Worth Many Times Its Cost
The three-fold purpose of paint is

Preservation—Beauty—Economy

Your pride in the ownership of a home is shown by its appearance. Without good paint to preserve it—to protect it against exposure to rain and weather, it will quickly lose its beauty and value—Little cracks will soon become big ones—rot and decay will occur in the unprotected pores—joints will loosen up, and—here, there and everywhere the "gnawing" tooth of neglect will be plainly seen.

Waggener's Absolutely Pure Lead, Zinc and Linseed Oil Paint is a positive preventative and protection against this unhappy condition. It effectually withstands exposure to the extremes of heat, cold and rain. Ask your Banker his opinion of the value of good paint on your home as an investment. We will be glad to submit figures and facts which prove that our paint will be worth many times its cost to you.

The Home of the Soul
In olden times, it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

Proof That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is of Great Help at This Period

Metropolis, Illinois.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it is all it claims to be and has benefited me wonderfully. I had been sick for eight months with a trouble which confined me to my bed and was only able to be up part of the time, when I was advised by a friend, Mrs. Smith, to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. I was so much benefited by the use of these medicines that I was able to be up and about in two weeks. I was at the Change of Life when I began taking the medicines and I passed over that time without any trouble. Now I am hale and hearty, do all my housework, washing, ironing, scrubbing, and cooking, all there is to do about a house, and can walk two or three miles without getting too tired. I know of several of my neighbors who have been helped by your medicines."—Mrs. EMMA CULVER, 705 E. 7th St., Metropolis, Illinois.

Lizard Skin Leather.

The island of Ceylon, which sent peacocks, monkeys and baby elephants to King Solomon, for that monarch's zoo, is remarkable for a varied and interesting fauna. One of the oddest of its animals is a huge lizard, called the cabrogoya, which attains a length of four and one-half feet.

The cabrogoya is a very handsome reptile, beautifully marked, and its skin when tanned affords a tough leather of excellent wearing quality and waterproof. It is used for making women's shoes and, with the idea of introducing it in this country for that purpose, specimen hides have recently been sent to our Department of Commerce by the American consul at Colombo.—Philadelphia Ledger.

FEEDERS AVOID HEAVY LOSS

Cattle Cost Studies in Corn Belt Show Losses Are Small When Roughages Are Used.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Cost figures on 20,217 head of beef cattle fed in five corn belt states, summarized in a statement issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, show that scattering droves made good profits last season, in spite of the fact that there was an average loss of $20.87 per steer. Department investigators cite the fact that some of these droves made profits under the most adverse conditions, as emphasizing the extreme importance of watching the details of feeding and management in slump periods in the cattle business.

The feeders in the areas studied who made the most economic gains, in general, used standard rations. In Illinois and Indiana this ration consisted of corn, protein meal, mixed clover and timothy hay, and silage, with some stover and fodder. In Nebraska and Iowa the standard rations consisted of corn and alfalfa hay, while in Missouri it consisted of corn, protein meal, hay and fodder. In the latter state some of the cattle covered in the study were finished on grass.

"The average loss of $20.87 per head," one of the department investigators explains, "should be looked at in the light of the fact that all feeds were charged to the cattle at farm prices for all home grown feeds, and store prices for feeds bought." Thus the effect of the loss in question on the farm business as a whole was in some measure offset by the return from 1,000 to 2,000 pounds of unmarketable roughage fed to the average steer in the different localities. Even

"For four years Tanlac has kept me in the pink of condition as I take a few doses of it every time I feel a little run down and it always builds me up again," said Wm. A. McGraw, 207 Bench Place, Tampa, Fla.

"I began taking Tanlac first about four years ago when I was in a very bad state of health and had been run down for several years. I was always taking laxatives, too, but I believe they did me more harm than good.

"Tanlac made me feel like a brand new man in a very short time and I have never had a return of any of the old troubles. The reason of this I am firmly convinced is that I always had Tanlac handy and take a few doses every time I feel a bit under the weather."

Costly Language.

In one of the palatial homes of the new rich, a man sat before a blazing fire, a cigar between his teeth, liqueur at his elbow. His friend sat opposite, likewise fortified.

The host was bevelling the enormous cost of keeping his son at college.

"Such expenses!" he cried, "are the worst of all is the languages."

"Languages?" repeated his friend.

"How's that?"

"Well," said the host, "there is a item in the bill which runs, 'Scotch, $250.'"

Cattle Finished on Grass.

though the cattle-feeding enterprise may show a presumptive loss, there may be a profit for the farm operation as a whole, provided home-grown feeds have been produced at a cost far enough below the market price.

"No individual feeder could be sure of marketing his field products at a profit, including stover and low-grade hay, if he were to choose to sell crops rather than feed them to live stock. If all feeders, or even if a considerable number of feeders, were to try such a shift, the market for all field products would be glutted, with the probable result that the farmers could not even dispose of their corn. The cattle feeder, though he knows that his business for the time being is a precarious one, hesitates to turn to crop farming as a possible relief, because he realizes that cattle feeding is the business he is best fitted for, and because he believes a recovery to profitable production is not far distant."

The studies in question were made by the United States Department of Agriculture in co-operation with the state agricultural colleges of Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Missouri. Preliminary reports issued by the department, and by the several state institutions concerned, give in detail the quantities of feed and hours of labor used in ordinary feed lot production of fat cattle.

All reports may be obtained upon request to the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., or single reports from the state agricultural colleges co-operating. Farmers' Bulletin 1218, "Beef Production in the Corn Belt," gives a discussion of feeding.

ESSENTIAL TO CONTROL LICE

Plenty of Nutritious Feed and Thorough Cleaning Up of Surroundings Are Needed.

In the control of cattle lice, plenty of nutritious food and a thorough cleaning up of the animals and their surroundings are essential to success, whatever method of control you choose to adopt.

Feeding Calves. Calves intended for beef should begin on grain when three to four months old. A mixture of equal parts oats, bran and corn (preferably ground) is the best grain ration.

Pay Attention to Worms. Successful growers of swine are each year paying more attention to the prevention of worms in swine.

Dock Early. Lambs should be docked and gelded while yet quite small.

WARNING! Say "Bayer" when you buy Aspirin. Unless you see the name "Bayer" on tablets, you are not getting genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians' over 22 years and proved safe by millions for

DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND SWAMP-ROOT

Many years druggists have watched much interest the remarkable record made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, root, kidney, liver and bladder medicine. It is a physician's prescription. Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder to work mature intended they do. Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. Sold by all druggists on its merit should help you. No other kidney medicine has so many friends. Be sure to get Swamp-Root and start at once. If you wish first to test this preparation send ten cents to Dr. J. C. Kilmer, Binghamton, N. Y., for a bottle. When writing be sure and use this paper.—Advertisement.

FEDERAL-AID HIGHWAY WORK
Texas Leads With 1,116.4 Miles Completed, and Minnesota Ranks a Close Second.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)
Measuring the network of federal-aid highways spread over the country during the past five and one-half years, the bureau of public roads, United States Department of Agriculture, places their total length, January 1 last, at 28,741.6 miles, and their cost at approximately $500,000,000. The figures represent 12,007 miles of completed roads over which traffic is flowing today and 15,834 miles of roads under construction and on that date estimated to be, as a whole, 70 per cent complete.

In mileage of completed federal-aid roads, Texas leads with a total of 1,116.4 miles. In addition, there were under construction in Texas on January 1 a total of 1,381.9 miles of federal-aid highways whose estimated total cost was nearly $22,000,000. Minnesota ranked second, with 1,060.6 miles, in the amount of completed federal-aid highways, the cost of the system being slightly over $10,000,000. Of that sum the federal government paid $3,878,963. In Minnesota there were under construction the first of the year 701.2 miles of federal-aid highways, whose estimated cost was placed at $10,055,757. Other states with comparatively large mileages of completed federal-aid highways on January 1 were:

Illinois, 722.9 miles, costing $24,608,958, of which $11,221,464 was paid by the federal government; Nebraska, 682.7 miles, costing $3,027,767, of which the federal government paid $1,735,703; Wisconsin, 500.6 miles, costing $6,702,100; Arkansas, 438.2 miles, costing $5,148,080; Georgia, 633.4 miles, costing $11,917,590; Iowa, 422.4 miles, costing $7,909,981; North Carolina, 419.7 miles, costing $6,641,733; Idaho, 407.1 miles, costing $6,472,552; and Washington, 354.9 miles, costing $8,081,285.

Completed federal-aid highway construction in some of the Eastern and Middle Western states where the character of roads was of high type and the cost correspondingly greater per mile was as follows:
Pennsylvania, 390.1 miles, costing $19,002,504; Ohio, 370.2 miles, costing $12,475,509; New Jersey, 78.3 miles, costing $3,442,224; Massachusetts, 120.5 miles, costing $4,391,036, and Maryland, 137.8 miles, costing $3,752,233.

Projects under construction and the degree of their completion January 1 in other states were as follows:
California, 382.9 miles, 55 per cent complete; Georgia, 492.9 miles, 65 per cent complete; Iowa, 968.7 miles, 86 per cent complete; Kansas, 471.8 miles, 69 per cent complete; Louisiana, 354.5 miles, 82 per cent complete; Minnesota, 701.2 miles, 65 per cent complete; Mississippi, 464.3 miles, 64 per cent complete; Missouri, 535.1 miles, 70 per cent complete; Montana, 412.8 miles, 77 per cent complete; Nebraska, 914.1 miles, 94 per cent complete; New Mexico, 551.9 miles, 54 per cent complete; New York, 347.9 miles, 44 per cent complete; North Carolina, 507 miles, 88 per cent complete; North Dakota, 810.2 miles, 80 per cent complete; Ohio, 298.2 miles, 91 per cent complete; Oklahoma, 308.2 miles, 64 per cent complete; Pennsylvania, 248.6 miles, 94 per cent complete; South Carolina, 410.7 miles, 59 per cent complete; South Dakota, 688.7 miles, 76 per cent complete; Tennessee, 449.1 miles, 46 per cent complete; Texas, 1,381.9 miles, 59 per cent complete, and Wisconsin, 538.5 miles, 75 per cent complete.

HIGHWAYS MORE ATTRACTIVE
Shade Trees Set 50 or More Feet Apart Would Make Roads Pleasanter to Travel Over.

Our highways would be much more attractive if lined with shade trees. These trees could be set 50 or more feet apart and would do little damage either to the adjoining property or the roadway. They would make the road pleasanter to travel over and also to live by.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Special Care of Baby.

That Baby should have a bed of its own all are agreed. Yet it is more reasonable for an infant to sleep with grown-ups than to use a man's medicine in an attempt to regulate the delicate organism of that same infant. Either practice is to be shunned. Neither would be tolerated by specialists in children's diseases.

Your Physician will tell you that Baby's medicine must be prepared with even greater care than Baby's food.

A Baby's stomach when in good health is too often disarranged by improper food. Could you for a moment, then, think of giving to your ailing child anything but a medicine especially prepared for Infants and Children? Don't be deceived.

Make a mental note of this:—It is important, Mothers, that you should remember that to function well, the digestive organs of your Baby must receive special care. No Baby is so abnormal that the desired results may be had from the use of medicines primarily prepared for grown-ups.

HAD ANOTHER THINK COMING
Bill Was Sadly Mistaken Concerning the Proper Classification of Apple His Mates Enjoyed.

Bill Symes drew a large, pink apple from the side pocket of his coat and prepared to attack it, when another of his workmates reached over and took the apple, saying:
"What kind of apple is that, Bill—Cox's Orange Pippin?" Then, as he munched, he said: "No, it ain't it!"
Another loner reached for the apple, saying:
"Cox's Orange Pippin, my happy aunt! Don't yer know a beauty of Kent when yer sees it? Lemme taste it. No, 'tisn't that!"
Still another grating paw reached out and took the fruit, deploring:
"You fellows act as if you'd never seen apples before! That ain't no Beauty of Kent, it's a Dutch Mignon. No, 'aint!" as he took the last bite of it. "What was that apple, Bill?"
"I thought," replied Bill sadly, "that apple was my lunch!"—London Answers.

TOOK THREE ENEMY SCALPS
Exploit of Indian Girl Made Her Famous Among the Tribes of the Northwest.

One of the most warlike of Indian maidens was Hanging Cloud, a Chippewa girl, the daughter of Na-nong-ga-bee, chief of a branch of that tribe which occupied the territory around Rice lake in northern Wisconsin, some 75 years ago. In her hair Hanging Cloud wore three eagle plumes, signifying that she had slain that many braves in battle.

This exploit she performed when a party, including herself and her father, were ambushed by a force of Sioux, the Chippewas' traditional enemies. Her father was slain, and Hanging Cloud, feigning death, waited until the Sioux came to secure the scalps of the slain Chippewas, and then, seizing her father's rifle, killed one and, in the pursuit which followed, succeeded in killing two more. She scorned to marry one of her own tribe, for she could not espouse herself to a lesser warrior than she, and so she finally married a white man, with whom she lived for many years near Rice lake.

A Lone Exception.
"Somebody is always offering to make you rich."
"That's a fact," said the credulous citizen.

"But did a man ever attempt to make you take cold cash without having a string tied to his offer?"
"Only once, but after his keeper had called me aside and explained the situation, I handed it back."—Birmingham Age Herald.

Preparedness.
"Can you fight?"
"No."
"Come on, then, you scoundrel!"

HAD HIGH SENSE OF HONOR
Mark Twain Punctilious to a Degree in Order to Satisfy His "Presbyterian Conscience."

Mark Twain. It is well known, labored in his older years to repay the debts incurred by his publisher; but probably a great many persons, basing their opinions on Twain's own jests, supposed him to be rather happy-go-lucky in smaller affairs. But he was not, shows Gamaliel Bradford in his sketch of Twain in "American Portraits."

The most obvious instances of his rectitude, says Mr. Bradford, are in regard to money. In spite of his dreams and speculative vagaries, he was punctiliously scrupulous in financial relations, his strictness culminating in the vast effort of patience and self-denial necessary to pay off the debt of honor which fell upon him in his later years. But the niceness of his conscience was not limited to broad obligations of this kind.

"Mine was a trained Presbyterian conscience," Twain says, "and knew but the one duty—to hunt and harry its slave upon all pretexts and all occasions. I don't wish even to seem to do anything which can invite suspicion," he said, as to a matter so trivial as taking advantage in a game.

Useless.
"Great men," said Chief Justice Taft at a dinner, "are usually tactful men. Look at Edison, Henry Ford, Lincoln. All strong, silent fellows."
"Talkative men, after all—" and Mr. Taft chuckled—"Well you know the Mark Twain story:
"Isn't Gabbell a splendid talker, though?" a friend said to Mark Twain.
"Best I ever escaped from," Mark answered."

When Hungry Little Muscles Say, "Please Help Me"

DID you ever stop to think who it really is that's talking, when childish voices raise a clamor, "Mother, I'm hungry?"

It's really muscles and bones and nerves and cells worn in the stress and strain of play—that are calling for rebuilding material.

What kind of an answer? The right thing, or just anything? It makes a big difference.

Grape-Nuts, so deliciously crisp and appetizing to taste, and so quick and convenient to serve, is a splendid food for rebuilding young bodies. All the wonderful nutriment put in wheat and barley by Nature, including the vital mineral elements, is there—and Grape-Nuts digests easily, quickly and completely. Served with cream or milk, Grape-Nuts is exceptionally nourishing.

"That's splendid!" says appetite. "That's just the need!" say the hungry muscles, nerves and bones.

Ready to serve right from the package—always crisp and fresh. A favorite dish with all the family. Sold by grocers.

THE SOCIAL REALM

SOO-SOO CLUB ENTERTAINS

The members of the Soo-Soo Club entertained their husbands, and the Double X Girls and their escorts on Friday evening with a picnic. The crowd gathered at the Danley residence and after all were packed and crammed in cars, were soon off to the camping grounds. A bountiful supper consisting of sandwiches (of every make) salads, pickles, Olives, Deviled eggs, pies, cakes, and ice tea was spread. Then a mad rush was made for the table, and we will have to admit that it didn't look like much when we left it. Then we gathered on the side of the hill and once again childhood days were brought back in playing Three-Deep, Break-up, Leap Frog, Drop the Handkerchief, and many other games.

At a late hour the weary crowd left for home, all saying it was the best time ever. Miss Velma Sue Green was out-of-town guest.

ENTERTAINS S. S. CLASS

Mrs. R. L. Simmons entertained her Sunday School Class, Tuesday evening, with a party, which took the place of a picnic at the Simmons ranch, five miles north of town. The young folks spent the evening playing games and having a good time in general, and of course one of the big things the picnic lunch, which everyone enjoyed.

MRS. J. W. VOYLES ENTERTAINS

Mrs. J. W. Voyles was hostess to the Soo-Soo Club Tuesday afternoon. It being social day, progressive "42" was played with Mrs. Jack Montgomery winning high score. Delicious refreshments consisting of fried chicken, sandwiches, pickles, salad and punch was served to the club member and four guests, Miss Velma Sue Green, Clarendon, Mrs. John Newman, Mrs. John Webster and Miss Willie Fae Newman.

FIDELIS CLASS PICNIC

The members of the Fidelis Class of the Baptist Sunday School went on a picnic to the Locke pasture, Tuesday evening. About twenty young people spent the evening playing games, and having a jolly good time, which just after dark, was interrupted by Mrs. Locke announcing that the eats were ready. And they were good, you may be sure. The jolly party arrived in town at ten o'clock everyone declaring that they had had an awfully good time.

PRESBYTERIAN AID

The Presbyterian Ladies met in business session with Mrs. S. E. Fitzgerald. There were eight members present. The hour was spent in working on the Bazaar material, after which we adjourned. P. R.

MISSIONARY NOTES

Six members and one visitor met at the church Wednesday afternoon for the last Bible lesson in our text book, "The Meaning of Service." The leader, Mrs. Bowen, was absent, and Mrs. Jackson called for a discussion of our plans for the summer. We are planning on a picnic the 28th, and the place will be decided on later.

Mrs. Ewing will give her program on "Social Service" next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Newman. This is the day for the free will offering that goes to support the Korean Bible women.

Rev. Bowen announced Sunday, that the Glee Club, from Clarendon College would be here on the night of the 20th, at the High School Auditorium.

The cooked food sale will be held Saturday the 17th, at Locke Bros. store, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m. The proceeds from this sale will go toward paying for the painting of the parsonage. This work is already under way. Every member of the church is asked to bring some cooked food, or dressed chicken for this sale.

$365 IN PRIZES FOR BEST RHYMES

A new contest is just being started which will interest everyone who reads this paper. Anyone can enter this Contest—anyone can win! All it is necessary to do is to write a 4-line rhyme on Dr. Price's Phosphate Baking Powder, using only the words which appear on the label of the Dr. Price can (front and back).

Isn't that easy? Everyone likes to make rhymes and here is a chance to spend a fascinating hour or two writing rhymes on this popular Baking Powder and perhaps winning a substantial prize for your efforts.

27 CASH PRIZES
For the rhyme selected as best a prize of $100 will be given; for the second, third and fourth best rhymes prizes of $75, $50, and $25, respectively will be given. And besides these prizes there will be 23 prizes of $5 each for the next 23 best rhymes. With such a long list of prizes as these, it would be a pity not to try your hand. Here's a 4-line rhyme as exemplar:
Biscuits, muffins, pie or cake,
With Dr. Price's Powder bake,
The Price's Co. guarantees
No alum in the cans to be.

As Dr. Price's Phosphate Baking Powder sells for only 25 cents a 12 oz. can, some rhymes could play up the great economy of this pure and wholesome baking powder.

All rhymes must be received by July 1, 1922. Only words appearing on the label of the Dr. Price can (front and back) may be used. These words may be used as often as desired, but no other words will be allowed. If you haven't a can of Dr. Price's, you can see one free at almost any grocer's. It is not a requirement that you purchase a can in order to be eligible in this Contest.

Anyone may enter the Contest, but only one rhyme from each person will be considered. In case of ties, the full amount of the prize will be given to each tying contestant. Write plainly on only one side of a sheet of paper and be sure to give your name and address. Send your rhyme before July 1st to Price Baking Powder Factory, 1055 Independence Blvd., Chicago, Ill.
