Taft did pretty well up in New Jersey, though "Ike" was by far more popular. At this time it appears that a "bloc" for Ike is being formed.

We will wait a few days and see what develops, and in the meantime we will turn to our own private election, which is to be held in Eastland and Ranger, next Tuesday when voters put their stamp of approval on the water bonds.

We do not think there is any danger that the bonds will not carry, and with plenty of votes to spare, but just to be safe we are going to work right up to election day, and maybe on election day, in an effort to make the election unanimous.

Eastland is one of the cleanest cities in Texas, but we figure it will look better by the first of May. Reason is the Civic League and Garden Club, in conjunction with the City of Eastland, is promoting an all-out Clean-Up campaign.

Now is the time to get rid of your rubbish. Just pile it up, in containers if possible, and city trucks will be glad to move it free of charge. Get it out when truckers can get it without delay.

A clean city is always a healthy city. We have had a very mild winter, and germs may have been able to multiply even during cold weather. Let's not take the chance—Clean-up your premises.

You paid your poll tax in February, so plan to use it next Tuesday, and help the progressive people in this water district put over the Water Bond issue.

They say the fellow Worley is giving Eastland some good shows. Of course that's what every show claims, but from what we can hear, both Mr. and Mrs. Worley are doing their very best to serve the people in this community in a manner that is very pleasing. Going over one of these days and see for ourselves. We like shows, but our eyes don't like the bad thing about getting old.

This week we have planted our 1952 garden. If it rains all will be well. If we draw another drouth we will never get over the hard work we have done. It hurts us a lot more than it does the wife, although she does most of the heavy work. But it is hard enough to get back in the shade, prop yourself on a nail keg and watch her. We could do it much better if we could just get our "joints" oiled up.

One thing about it, however, we have enough onions to help us cry if there is a garden failure. Onions are like Johnson grass—they always grow.

Jack Frost is just about as conservative as we are "wild," but we agree on one item—the water bonds will carry with a big majority. And in Eastland water is one thing we are all interested in.

Oklahoma has announced a second earthquake. This means they should be careful about drilling more oil wells up there. That whole state, like Texas, is just one continuous oil and gas field. They have pumped a few Billion acres of oil and gas out of the ground up there, and it is no more than was to be expected when the earth began settling down and filling up the vacant cavity below.

Sometimes we hope Dick don't strike oil. That well is not far from here, and in time it might cause earthquakes in this section.

If Nominated, "Ike" To Fight For Election

In a recent letter to a friend, Dwight D. Eisenhower said, "If by any chance, it should come about that the Republican Party does name me as its standard bearer, I am determined to lead the entire organization into a fight in which there will be no cessation, no rest, and no lack of intensity until the final decision is made."

THINK IT OVER

(Editorial)

Fort Worth and Dallas Business men were told at a recent meeting that an ample water supply was a major factor in the tremendous growth of the Fort Worth-Dallas area in the last ten years, from 1940 to 1950.

"The speaker at the meeting telling about the water, said: 'You had something to offer the citizens, including climate, a diversified and stable agriculture and a good transportation system. Those were the reasons that new citizens came to this area. BUT THE MOST IMPORTANT THING YOU HAD TO OFFER WAS A PLENTIFUL SUPPLY OF WATER.'"

It was pointed out that there had been a population increase in that area that could be attributed to a plentiful water supply, of 56 per cent in the last ten years in Ft. Worth and 46 per cent in Dallas. The average gain for the area around the two towns in the same period was 55 per cent.

If water plays such an important part as portrayed by the person speaking to those business men, there should be no question in our mind as to what is to be done here on April 22.

This area can offer everything either of these two towns has offered. We have the climate, agriculture, an abundance of cheap fuel, and good transportation. BUT WE DO NOT HAVE THE WATER!

God has provided a natural dam site on the Leon River. Men of Eastland and Ranger have proposed a plan whereby we may build a dam across this site. They have shown the water district will be self supporting from the sale of water.

They have worked long—but in very few minutes you can cast your vote April 22 for the bond issue.

Air Force Will Let High School Grad Make Pilot

HQ. 3RD AIR FORCE RESERVE DISTRICT, Austin—It is possible for a basic airman to up his monthly pay from $80 to $415 within a year in the U. S. Air Force today.

"A 19-year-old youth with no college education is not likely to find such an opportunity often," pointed out Major Wiley S. Adams project officer for 3rd Air Force Reserve District's drive to interest young men in pilot and observer training.

Aviation Cadet training is now open to qualified airman high school graduates, Major Adams said. The previous two-year college requirement has been dropped. Also the minimum age limit has been lowered from 20 to 19 years.

While in training, cadets receive food, uniforms, flight clothes, equipment, housing, medical and dental care, monthly allowances of $105 and free $10,000 life insurance policies.

Upon graduation, they receive commissions, their "wings", uniform allowances, a 30-day leave with pay, and begin drawing salaries starting at $415 a month.

Airmen have a choice of the 15-month pilot training course, 12-month single observer course, which trains them to be navigator-bombardier, radar officers, and the six-month radar observer course.

As soon as an airman's eligibility for acceptance is established, he will be frozen from overseas service, Major Adams said.

"Another feature," added Major Adams, "is the omission of all unnecessary delays. Eligibility is expected to be established within five days after the application has been received, with assignment of successful airmen to classes within three months. Accepted applicants may state a geographical preference for schools giving their particular type of training."

Methodists To Show Special Film Sunday

A new religious film, "Again Pioneers" will be shown Sunday evening at the 7:30 worship service of the First Methodist Church, it was announced Wednesday by Rev. J. Morris Bailey, pastor.

This improved film of religious pictures was produced by the Protestant Film Corporation, which also produced "Bible on the Table" and "The Family Next Door" both excellent shorter pictures.

"Again Pioneers" is a fifty minute production. The public is invited to see this as a part of the regular Sunday evening worship service.

Make plans to be present.

EASTLAND LAKE TODAY—Another reason why voters are going to vote for the water bonds. Eastland Lake is almost dry, and even if it was full to overflowing we would not have any security.

WTCC Urges Voters To Take Part In Elections; Starting Precinct

(EDITOR'S NOTE: As a public service, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has prepared a series of two articles that emphasize importance of individual participation in party precinct conventions in a presidential election year. This is the first article.)

In the past a very small portion of Texas voters have had any direct influence—with their individual votes—upon the election of the president and vice president of the United States.

They have voted in primary elections, and a few of them in general elections. But they voted for presidential electors—not the candidates themselves.

Those candidates, the party nominees, had been selected three or four months before the general election itself.

And, even then, they had not been selected by ballots of individual voters, cast in an election. Their nominations originated way back there in May at party precinct conventions.

Here is how it works: The precinct convention names delegates to the party's county convention. The county convention selects delegates to the state convention. The state convention selects delegates to the national convention.

The national convention nominates the presidential and vice-presidential candidates of the party.

It is, therefore, necessary that the individual voter take part in the precinct convention to most effectively make his own vote count in election of the president and vice president.

Because such a relatively few voters usually attend precinct conventions, the vast majority have had little moral right to complain about any administration's policies.

Gordon Man Is With Infantry Division, Korea

WITH THE 25TH INFANTRY DIVISION IN KOREA—Pfc. Herman H. Dupuy, Route 2, Gordon, is now serving on the mud-bogged eastern front in Korea with the 25th Infantry Division.

His unit, with its attached Turkish brigade, has been holding down a battle line northwest of the Punchbowl.

A cannoner in Battery A of the 8th Field Artillery Battalion, Dupuy entered the Army in January 1952 and arrived in Korea in February.

Youth Charged With Slaying School-Mate

KNOXVILLE, Tennessee, April 17 (UP)—A 17-year-old team manager for a Knoxville, Tennessee, high school baseball team has been charged with murder in the death of a school-mate.

Authorities say 14-year-old Ray Callihan died after the youthful team manager, John Dale, hit him over the head with a baseball bat.

Dale is quoted as saying he hit Callihan boy after he refused to move out of the playing area before the start of a game with another school.

Young Callihan died in a hospital of a compound fracture of the skull and laceration of the brain.

Iowans Fighting Mighty Missouri

Almost Dry So Vote For Bonds

The above photograph was taken at the south spillway of Lake Eastland on April 5th, 1952. The water level of our lake at this time was estimated as being between 9 1/2 to 10 feet below the top of the spillway. Many Eastland citizens have seen water pouring over this spillway in excess of three feet. Such a condition may obtain again, stated H. J. Tanner, Chamber of Commerce manager, but such a condition would, in no way solve the fears that beset us, of this year or next year facing an absolute water famine.

How can we as Eastland citizens contemplate or even hope for any expansion of our economy, and consequent increase of population, when our water resources, today, can barely maintain, on a restricted basis, our present industrial and domestic needs, with our present population. Our Lake Eastland with its 30 square miles of drainage area will never suffice to take care of our needs over any period of time, Tanner stated.

In many meetings concerning water, held in Texas in the last several years, those whose life work is devoted to the problem of securing water for human needs, have cautioned those communities depending on a subsurface supply, to be careful, that man is withdrawing more than God has fit to replenish, and that those communities depending on a surface supply, do something now to conserve the water that yearly is wasted, flowing into the Gulf of Mexico, from Texas streams.

The newspapers, the last few years have carried many stories of acute water shortages from New York City to California and many accounts of the experiences undergone by several of our close neighboring cities. An estimate made by one of the leading florists of Coleman, to replace the shrubs, lawns and trees, that were damaged and lost by their lack of water amounted to the sizable sum of $326,500.00. Coleman citizens paid $7.00 per thousand gallons for the water that they used.

Most of the homes in Eastland, with the strictest of water curtailment require at least 2000 gallons per month. The citizens residing within the city limits of the cities of Eastland and Ranger, which comprise the Eastland County Water Supply District, will have an opportunity on the 22nd of this month to definitely settle our water problems for the next seventy-five years.

With a thought for the welfare of "our home town" we will all vote, yes, to make available an economic and domestic necessity for a progressive Eastland.

Should there be any questions of any kind in the minds of any of our citizens regarding the new lake proposal, contact the local members of the water board: Grady Pipkin, L. E. McGraw, Dr. J. C. Whittington or the Chamber of Commerce, and your questions will be answered and explained in detail.

The boys won first place with a total of 17 points, and each boy received medals as follows: Charles Collins, 5; Louis Wilson, 3; Lee Wilson, 2; Billy Collins, 2 and Dave Kyle 3. The team was awarded a very beautiful white, square, State Championship trophy.

Officials Council Bluffs Plea For More Aid In Building Levees

By United Press
Officials of Council Bluffs, Ia., have issued an urgent plea. They need 500 men right away, and 250 each hour after that, to work on the water-soaked levees they hope will hold off the onslaught of the cresting Missouri River.

Army Engineers warn that the levees protecting Council Bluffs, and Omaha, Neb., across the river may become jelly-like and disintegrate before the pressure of the floods.

The Army said the 31 and one-half foot crest expected at the two cities tonight may last for three days.

The crucial point is the anchor levee protecting the north edge of Council Bluffs. A break there could send water cascading into an evacuated residential area measuring 600 square blocks.

Downstream, the Missouri lapped over the top of dikes at Phelps City and Watson, Mo., spilled over, then burst through. Finally the dikes, the towns and surrounding farm land were abandoned to the big muddy.

Forecasters predict record crests for the flooding Mississippi River, but estimates have been lowered slightly. The river threatens one-third of Winona, Minn., after churning some 10-million dollars damage at St. Paul. So far it's believed the dikes at Winona will hold.

President Truman is expected to follow up his inspection trip of the Midwest flood areas with a request to Congress for special relief measures to help the stricken states. He also is expected to ask Congress to restore the flood control funds which the House slashed heavily.

The president has received congressional support for his plea for an overall flood control program. However, some congressmen are afraid he might use the floods as an excuse to plug for his controversial Missouri River Valley Authority plan.

ST. LOUIS—The Red Cross says Iowa has been the hardest-hit of the Midwestern states affected by floods.

Figures compiled by the Red Cross show almost 1000 families in Iowa have suffered losses or been forced out of their homes by the flooding Missouri River.

The Red Cross estimates the flooding Mississippi River will affect another 7500 families in eastern Iowa, 5000 of them in the Clinton area, when it reaches its peak there.

The Red Cross said floods also have affected 500 families in Kansas, 1850 in Missouri, almost 4000 in Nebraska, some 1500 in North Dakota, 2100 in South Dakota, 2000 in Minnesota, 950 in Wisconsin and 825 in Montana.

Red Cross figures include families who suffered water damage or hardship, as well as those made homeless.

Carbon Soldier Serving With 2nd Infantry In Korea

WITH THE 2ND INFANTRY DIV. IN KOREA—Cpl. Alton D. Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie S. Jackson, Route 1, Carbon, Texas, is serving on the muddy Korean battlefield with the 2nd Infantry Division.

Patrols from the division have been probing Communist positions along the central front despite the handicap of mud, fog and rain typical of Korea in the spring.

Coporal Jackson entered the Army in February 1951 and was previously stationed at Camp Rucker, Fla.

New Zealand Volcano Erupts

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, April 17, (UP)—Volcanic Mount Gauruhoe on New Zealand's north island erupted today and hurled boulders down its side.

A smoke cloud rose to 20,000 feet, but there is no threat to life or property because the mountain is in a barren area.

Little Items Of Local Interest

Jamboree season will open at Fair, Friday, April 18, with Pop Whitaker in charge. The program of 2 and one-half hours will take place in the Callahan County Sheriff's posse grandstands. Enough of his "Young Uns" have registered to guarantee a splendid program, so plan to attend, if you like fun and music.

Marvin Hutto has supplied us with some garden seeds and plants and Homer Smith is threatening some more, if he doesn't forget, which means that our garden will not lack seed. Tonight a neighbor is going to show us how to grow a garden without irrigation. All we need is someone to keep the weeds down.

One of the most beautiful floral offerings we have had occasion to see, was that at the P. L. Parker funeral Wednesday afternoon. The flowers, the words spoken and the music, were of heavenly design. A certain spirit of tenderness and love seemed to permeate the very souls of those present.

The Christian Advocate, a national weekly magazine of the Methodist Church, under date of April 17, carried a complete story and picture of the new Methodist parsonage at Eastland, which has just been completed.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

INDIVIDUAL'S PRIVILEGE AGAINST SELF-INCRIMINATION EXPLAINED

The privilege or rule against self-incrimination makes news from time to time in connection with court proceedings and legislative committee hearings. The statement, "I refuse to answer on the grounds that it may tend to incriminate me," has become familiar to many. Some do not understand the background of the legal principle which allows a person to remain mute in such circumstances.

Lawyers say this one of the most important basic rights of the individual in this country. The Fifth Amendment of our Federal Constitution provides that "no person shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself." The early American statesmen insisted that this guarantee become a part of our law for excellent reasons.

The doctrine against self-incrimination is most probably an outgrowth of "trial by ordeal" practiced in the ancient days of England. A person accused of a criminal offense had to plead either "guilty" or "not guilty" at the time he was arraigned for trial, and still does today. However, in those days the accused had neither the benefit of counsel nor the right to testify in his own defense, and either plea ultimately amounted just about the same thing.

If the accused pleaded "guilty" he was hung a little sooner than was the case if he pleaded "not guilty." This situation, understandably enough, caused many persons charged with crime to stand silent on arraignment and not pleaded either way. When that happened, the accused was subjected to torture to induce him to plead one way or the other.

Incredible methods of making a person talk were used with almost total success. In some cases the accused was placed in close confinement with a bit of bread to eat one day, a sip of water the next, and so on from day to day until he consented to plea or died of starvation.

On other occasions heavy weights were placed on his chest above the heart and attendants stood on the weights, or he might have been forced to recline on a bed of sharpened stakes. Investigations in those days arose primarily because of alleged dereliction from the rules of the Church.

With memories of such atrocities, it is plain to see why the colonists from England made sure that such practices would be prohibited by their fundamental laws.

The privilege against self-incrimination is not only incorporated in the Federal Bill of Rights, but is also guaranteed under the constitution of all but two of the 48 states. Our Texas Constitution provides that an accused "shall not be compelled to give evidence against himself."

The right of a witness to refuse to answer on these grounds

Richest of all coffees gives you 10-15 more cups per pound ...yet costs only 2 cents more has been repeatedly sustained by the courts of the United States. Although the U. S. Supreme Court has not directly passed on the question of self-incrimination before a legislative committee, there is a fair inference that the privilege established by the Fifth Amendment protects witnesses in Congressional investigations, as well as in judicial proceedings.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)
