

Around The Square

So far no top coats have been in evidence, though the thermometer was standing at 42 early today. That's just 10 degrees above freezing, and warns us that winter is just around the corner. Personally we like cold weather, but had hoped its arrival might be postponed this year in order to let recent rains get in their good work. Right now fall gardens and pastures are doing mighty well. Grain crops are growing and will continue to grow. Gardens and pastures, to do their best, must have some warm sunshine to go with the moisture.

And talking about moisture reminds us that we planted 600 onion plants last spring. They never made an attempt to grow, and within a short time seemed to be as dead as could be. After the recent 3-inch rains we notice that our onions are popping out of the ground, and we are to have something to go with our beans this winter.

We are not surprised at anything Harry may say during this campaign, as he is hopeless. Yet Stevenson should know better and we sincerely hope he confines his remarks to the truth. If those fellows can't get by on their own merits, why should they employ the demerits of an opponent. "Ike has slapped back at Harry on one occasion, but we trust he won't let his "feeling" get away with him again.

Just because somebody says Ike did so and so, does not necessarily denote that it is so. Maybe it was a mistake, but most likely it was a vicious, mud-slinging attack. So it may behoove us all to keep our eyes and ears open and our mouths closed.

Lying and covering up sins and short comings will never be accepted as right. Tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and you will have nothing to fear or regret. Sometimes it may appear that the truth "hurts", and on the face, may do so. Yet in the end, truth, the whole truth, will bring victory and gladness of heart.

Solomon was the wisest man the world has ever known, and during his youth and manhood, was an obedient servant of God, and a great leader of men. As a king he was second to none, and the Lord blessed him in his every effort. Yet when Solomon began growing old, he weakened, and while he did not turn from God, he did many things that he had been forbidden to do. In his dotage he was negligent, almost to the extent of forgetting God, and without cause.

We sometimes wonder if a lot of us do not pattern after Solomon in this manner? It is easy to forget—especially when we wish to do so.

That Baylor University "stunt" of last week merely proves that some people are not what we thought they were. Many of them came from supposedly good families, yet their acts would not indicate such. To say the least they have brought disgrace upon themselves, and reproach upon the institution at Waco, President White promises a thorough investigation and knowing Billy White as we do, we have an idea he really means there will not be any "white wash" applied.

The guilty should be punished, for they are no longer children. A grown man and woman who should have known better, even if they had never attended school a day in their lives.

Telegram Boys Entertained At Home Of Editor
Carrier boys of the Eastland Telegram enjoyed a television party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. McCorkle on Saturday night of last week. All the carriers were present except three boys from Olden, who were unable to attend.

Cold drinks and hot dogs, supplied by the publishers, were served and the boys indicated by their actions that the refreshments were highly appreciated.

Ike Will Fire 'Both Barrels' Tonight

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8 (UP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson and President Truman peppered Dwight D. Eisenhower from two fronts Wednesday as the Republican presidential candidate rolled up his heavy artillery.

Stevenson attacked Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's tactics for the second time in as many days as he invaded the controversial Republican's home state. In a speech prepared for delivery at the University of Wisconsin in Madison, the Democratic nominee pledged to fight "those who, in the name of anti-communism, would assault the community of freedom itself."

Mr. Truman, in a speech prepared for delivery at the annual Shenandoah, Va., pancake festival, ridiculed Eisenhower's farm policies as "unbelievable... a conglomeration of generalities, platitudes, half truths and plain misrepresentation."

Defending the Brannan farm plan, the president accused Eisenhower of "some cheap name-calling" in criticizing the project of Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan.

The Eisenhower special rolled into California with the GOP standard bearer's aides predicting he will "let loose with both barrels" in a major speech in San Francisco Wednesday night.

Eisenhower recently derided Mr. Truman's "harmless blanks," but a member of his camp said "it's now the general's turn to fire some heavy salvos at Mr. Truman—some real heavy ones."

Other Developments
Sen. John J. Sparkman, Stevenson's running mate, told a rally in Huntington, W. Va., that Eisenhower would be "sniped at and sabotaged... if he should ever be elected to office along with this group of Republican hatchmen who are now hanging on to his military toga." The Alabama said the "steady procession of compromises" made on the GOP nominee to the party's conservative wing would be "only a sample" of what he would be up against as president.

Sen. Richard M. Nixon, Sparkman's Republican counterpart, said everyone in the State Department, "from Dean Acheson on down," should be thrown out. The young Californian, speaking in Canton, O., said Mr. Truman, Acheson and Stevenson "are trying to besmirch one of the greatest Americans of all time when they attack Eisenhower."

2 Ciscons Die In Train-Truck Crash Tuesday

Sam B. Mize was instantly killed, and Sam Moran, both of Cisco, died in Eastland Memorial hospital at 7 p.m. Tuesday evening as a result of a truck-train crash some 6 miles west of Eastland at 1:15 p.m., yesterday.

The truck, a large 6-wheeler, was loaded with telephone poles and had just turned off highway 89 to a country road when it passenger train No. 2, going east. So far as is known there were no witnesses to the crash other than members of the train crew.

Mize, who was killed instantly was taken to Thomas Funeral Home in Cisco, while Moran was brought to the Eastland Memorial hospital. According to the attending physician he suffered a fractured skull, brain concussion, the loss of one leg and an undetermined number of internal injuries. He passed away at the hospital at 7:00 o'clock last night.

Both the men were residents of Cisco, and both were married. Sam B. Mize, 22, is survived by his wife, Alene, formerly Alene Marsh, two sons, S. B., Jr. and Ronnie, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam B. Mize, Sr., two brothers, Robert Earl and David Lee, all of Cisco. Five sisters, Mrs. R. G. Stull, Grand Island, Neb., Mrs. Frances Reeves, Eastland; Mrs. E. L. Rice of Carbon, and Misses Norma Sue and Mary Lou Mize of Cisco.

Sam Moran, who died in Eastland Memorial hospital Tuesday evening, has been moved to the Thomas Funeral Home in Cisco. Funeral arrangements are pending, though in all probability they will be held in Cisco some time Thursday.

Ranger Man's Brother Dies

W. E. Shipman, 85-year-old retired ranchman of Okmulgee, Okla., and brother of H. E. Shipman, Southland Hotel, Ranger, died last Tuesday afternoon, it was learned here this morning. The Okmulgeean had been in ill health for the past five years, his Ranger brother said. Funeral rites were scheduled to be held in Okmulgee tomorrow afternoon.

Survivors of the deceased include the widow, two sons and one daughter, and Mr. H. E. Shipman of Ranger.

MRS. ERNEST THOMPSON, FORMER OPERA STAR, SUCCUMBS IN AUSTIN

AUSTIN, Oct. 8 (UP)—Mrs. Ernest O. Thompson, wife of a member of the Texas Railroad Commission and a former Metropolitan Opera Star, died early Wednesday in an Austin hospital.

Mrs. Thompson studied opera in Europe and later sang at the Metropolitan almost 10 years. She sang with such stars as Enrico Caruso and John McCormick.

TIES RECORD—Dodger Duke Snider grins happily as he holds four bats symbolizing the four round-trippers he has swatted into the stands in the first six games of the World Series. Duke's feat ties Series home run records of former baseball greats Lou Gehrig and Babe Ruth. The Yanks won the 1952 Series Tuesday afternoon, topping the Dodgers 4-2.

PALO PINTO DEMO LEADERS SWING TO BACK EISENHOWER

PALO PINTO, Oct. 7 — The high command of Palo Pinto County's Democratic Party, the loyal administration backers who went down the life for two decades with FDR and his New Deal, the FDR third and fourth term crises, and Harry S. Truman's Fair Deal, swapped horses here Monday afternoon.

In a special meeting held in district courtroom of this county seat, the top brass of the county's tight-knit party organization formed a county-wide "Democrats for Eisenhower" group and mapped an intensive four weeks drive to reach into every precinct to "get out" the vote for GOP presidential candidate Dwight D. Eisenhower and his running mate, vice presidential aspirant Sen. Richard Nixon.

W. O. Gross, one of the county's big Democratic guns and one of a handful of key Mineral Wells leaders who have been in control of Palo Pinto party politics for many years, opened the session as temporary chairman, and the group representing nine of the county's precincts elected A. H. Brackeen, Palo Pinto ranchman, as chairman of the new pro-Eisenhower Democratic organization.

The Palo Pinto stockman charged "There's no longer any chance

H'll Warm Up, But No Rain Is Seen For County

The nippy mercury levels ushered in this week by Old Man Winter as a preview of things to come have found Eastland Countians somewhat pleased.

"What we need now is rain," though, continues to be the daily plea of area citizens, including farmers and stockmen as they hopefully look skyward to check possibilities.

But on that subject the weatherman offered no encouragement today. His brief, terse prediction this morning for the Eastland county area: "Generally fair through Thursday with slowly rising temperatures."

The Southwest reports United Press, warmed up some Wednesday after a chilling cold front damaged crops and set low temperature records in at least eight cities. Freezing temperatures were reported Tuesday as far south as central Oklahoma. The weatherman said the freeze was sufficient to kill late growing vegetation over much of northern Oklahoma and the states to the north.

The region from Wyoming to the Rio Grande was generally clear Wednesday, with a bright sun driving the mercury up toward what the weathermen called "normal" October readings.

Tuesday was the coldest Oct. 7 ever recorded at Amarillo, Tex., where it got down to 29. Farm experts said the frost in the Texas Panhandle was not a "killer," because the area was extremely dry.

Henry W. Boles Dies In Waco; Rites Are Set

Henry W. Boles, 62-year-old Ranger man who had lived in this vicinity most of his life, died Tuesday night at 7 o'clock in a Waco hospital following a critical illness.

Mr. Boles, who lived on Rt. 2, Ranger, was taken to the Waco hospital Monday afternoon in a Killingsworth ambulance. The Eastland County farmer and ranchman had been in ill health for some time.

Funeral services will be held at the Killingsworth Chapel Thursday afternoon, Oct. 9, at 3 o'clock with the Rev. Lee Casey, pastor of the Primitive Baptist Church, officiating. Interment will be in the Nimrod Cemetery with Killingsworth Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Survivors of the deceased include the widow of Ranger; three sisters, Mrs. R. F. Hall of Floydada, Mrs. C. E. Ledbetter of Ranger, and Mrs. J. B. Cunningham, also of this city.

Tender Plants Nipped By Frost

The thermometer dropped to 26 degrees in Eastland Tuesday night, and the first killing frost of the season was in evidence this morning.

With the thermometer standing just 4 degrees above freezing many topcoats were seen during early morning hours. Winter isn't so far off as one may think, for after all almost one third of October is now past history.

Just what cannot be said at this time, tender plants will feel the bite, though the harder ones will merely take a sting, it is thought. Fair and warmer weather has been predicted.

Red Drive Is Stalled By UN

Allied Troops Smash Biggest Attack In Year

SEOUL, Korea, Oct. 8 (UP)—Avenging United Nations forces recaptured two lost outposts from battered Chinese Reds and bottled for two more in savage counterattacks Wednesday after stopping the biggest Red drive in 12 months.

Gen. James A. Van Fleet announced the enemy's 12,000-man "little offensive" of Monday and Tuesday before the Reds could penetrate the main Allied battle positions.

"Action has been limited to outposts and the enemy has been clobbered in that zone," he told newsmen.

Reports from the embattled central front said French and South Korean forces alone have killed or wounded 2,000 to 3,000 Chinese Reds on Whitehorse mountain and Arrowhead ridge since Monday.

The crest of Arrowhead has changed hands 12 times since the Chinese assault began.

Morale Is High
Van Fleet said the morale of UN troops "has never been higher" than in the current fighting.

"The troops which have participated in the current action are as elated over the good shooting as I am," he said.

Van Fleet said the Communists still have the ability to make "sizeable limited objective attacks" through October and November, but could not support a general attack for such a period.

Giant "mongolian" soldiers were reported fighting on the central front. Allied troops south of Pyongyang said the huge, husky soldiers stood out clearly from the smaller Chinese. The first reports of "Mongolian" troops came three weeks ago when Puerto Rican soldiers lost Kelly Hill on the western front.

The French and South Koreans shouldered the heaviest fighting northwest of Chorwon at Whitehorse mountain and Arrowhead ridge. Some 2,000 Chinese Reds smashed at French and South Korean position Tuesday night and early Wednesday, but UN troops tossed the Reds back and counter-attacked in an attempt to rescue two surrounded outposts.

Penetration Is Contained
United Press correspondent Warren Franklin reported the Reds blunted the Korean assault and penetrated UN defenses on Whitehorse in a counter-attack. However, Allied officials said the penetration was "contained."

High-ranking officers said the heavy assaults in the Chorwon area against the French and South Koreans were not a major Communist offensive, but rather a "limited effort" such as the United Nations launched last year to win Bloody and Heartbreak ridges.

Finger Ridge, one of three central front positions grabbed by the Reds Tuesday, was back in Allied hands for a short time Tuesday night.

The Allies made no heavy effort to retake three western front hills lost to the Communists Tuesday.

Mother Local Citizen To Be Buried Thurs.

Mrs. Catherine Moylan, 75, of Fort Worth, and mother of W. J. Moyland of Eastland, passed away at St. Josephs Hospital in Fort Worth Tuesday morning, Oct. 7, after an illness of about one week. Funeral services will be conducted from St. Mary's Catholic Church in Fort Worth at 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

Mr. Moylan is already in Fort Worth and Mrs. Moylan will leave for that city today.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Catherine Singleton of Fort Worth, and son, W. J. Moylan of Eastland.

The Pioneer Conference title chase opens this Saturday when the San Angelo Rams, reigning loop champions, play the Ranger Junior College Rangers at San Angelo.

"San Angelo by virtue of a terrific 34-7 victory over a strong Victoria Junior College eleven; last week will be clearly favored over one of the classiest Ranger teams in years," according to a publicity report issued by Pioneer Conference headquarters in Arlington.

The Rams, coached by Max Baumgardner, former Texas Longhorn star, have impressive victories not only over Victoria, conqueror of Schreiner, but also over Del Mar and Wharton both of whom have beaten the awesome Tyler Junior College Apaches this fall.

Rams Are Tough
Paced by Ken Henson, Jack Bridges, Jack Freeman, and Tom Carkey, the Rams possess an explosive passing and running attack and their defensive platoon, manned almost exclusively with veterans of last year's championship team is rated the strongest in the league.

Conch Boone Yarborough's Rangers, sponsored by Caddo Sanders and Bud Hamrick, may be able to compete with the San Angelo offense on even terms. Sanders is the league's leading runner and Hamrick is an excellent passer and runner. But the Rangers, beaten 12-0 by Navarro last week, probably will not be able to match the Ram defense.

Other conference teams will continue their schedules against non-league opposition. Thursday at Stephenville, the Tarleton State Ploewboys will play the East Texas State B team of Commerce. Tarleton's impressive 27-7 victory over a strong Little Rock, Ark. Junior College eleven last week indicates that the Ploewboys are greatly improved over last season. The passing of Joe Bill Fox of Fort Worth is one of the chief reasons.

Watch This One
Arlington State's power laden Rebels, starring the pitching of Sam Howard and the running of half a dozen good backs, will be seeking their fifth consecutive victory of the season in Corsicana Saturday when they play the strong Navarro County Junior College eleven. Navarro's 12-0 upset of Ranger last week indicates that the Rebs, who have scored 131 points while holding four opponents to 13, will get their sternest test thus far this season in Corsicana.

PIONEER CONFERENCE FOOTBALL CHART

Mournful Tunes Played At Ebbets

BROOKLYN, Oct. 8 (UP)—Gene Woodling grabbed Pee Wee Reese's fly for the last out of the World Series was over, the Dodgers had lost again, and Gladys Gooding, the Ebbets Field organist, mournfully played these songs as the crowd filed out:

"Blues in the Night"; "What Can I Say, Dear, After I Say I'm Sorry?"; "This Nearly Was Mine"; "You Got Me Crying Again"; "Deep Purple"; and "What a Difference a Day Makes."

MAN SCARES BEARS

VANCOUVER, Oct. 8 (UP)—Police were holding a man for mental examination Wednesday for jumping into a bear's cage at a park zoo and chasing the animals into their dens. Zoo officials said the bears were suffering from "shock."

Demos Release State Schedule Of Adlai's Visit

DALLAS, Oct. 7 (UP)—Democratic state headquarters has announced the following schedule for Gov. Adlai Stevenson when he Democratic presidential nominee visits Texas next week:

Friday, Oct. 17—Arrives at Ft. Worth by plane for 4:30 p.m. talk at Will Rogers coliseum, motors to Dallas for 8 p.m. speech near Hall of State in Fair Park, spends night in Dallas.

Saturday, Oct. 18—Flies to San Antonio for 12 noon talk in front of the Alamo, flies to Houston for 5 p.m. speech, site to be announced later, then returned to Springfield, Ill.

United Nations, N.Y., Oct. 8 (UP)—The United States will ask the United Nations General Assembly for a blanket endorsement of its prosecution of the Korean war to strengthen its moral position in negotiations to end the conflict.

For the first time, the 28-month-old Korean conflict will become a major issue in the general assembly session, opening Oct. 14. The American-led Western powers last year at Paris defeated a Russian attempt to stage a full debate on the war in the assembly, transferring the true negotiations from bleak Panmunjom in the Korean neutral zone. This year, the U. S. and her Allies want to debate the war in the 60-nation assembly.

Russia's tactics are not yet clear and will not be until Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky—or his stand-in, in case he is detained in Moscow by the Communist Party Congress now in session—speaks in the general debate which is expected to start on the assembly's second day.

New Beef Breed Of King Ranch At State Fair

The fabulous King Ranch—biggest in the nation—will present a King-size exhibit for some of the livestock for which it is famous at the 1952 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 4 through 19.

The modernistic 112-foot corral will hold a group of Santa Gertrudis cattle, beef-totin' critters with glamour, and some of the King Ranch quarter horses, which share the bloodlines of Assault and Middleground, the ranch's Kentucky Derby winners of recent years.

The picturesque saddles and d saddle blankets, made right on the ranch and bearing the famous "Running W" brand, will also be on display. The exhibit has been designed by Winniford Morton in brown and white, the King Ranch colors.

The Santa Gertrudis won't compete for premiums at the fair. It is such a new breed there aren't even any classifications for it in livestock competition.

The fair has big quarter horse show, but the horses in the King

Ranch exhibit won't compete in that either. However, a number of horses bred by the King Ranch will perform.

Honor New Breed The fair has set aside a special day, Sunday, Oct. 5, to honor members of the Santa Gertrudis Breeders' International Association, first time breeders have been so recognized as a group.

The King Ranch, whose spread of some 900,000 acres extends into eight South Texas counties and could comfortably encompass the state of Rhode Island, originated the Santa Gertrudis breed in 20 years of careful cross-mating of the hump-backed Brahman and the Sporthorn.

Named after the creek that runs

by the ranch's hacienda headquarters, it is the first new breed to be developed in the United States and has been described as one of the most spectacular contributions to the livestock industry in modern times.

65,000 Head on Ranch The distinctive characteristics of the breed make it especially well adapted to Texas and the Southern states. About 65,000 of the animals roam the King Ranch acres today. They are being shipped all over the world.

The quarter horse is a superior cow pony widely used on Southwestern ranches of course. The King Ranch—like other breeders—originally used thoroughbred stock to improve its quarter horses.

The ranch has about 3,000 quarter horses. The Texas Research Foundation at Renner also will show some Santa Gertrudis at the fair. They are King Ranch cattle that have been used in grass feeding experiments at the foundation. Several other breeders also are expected to exhibit Santa Gertrudis.

West Ward Study Club Plan P-TA Activities

Members of the West Ward Parent Teacher's Study Club met Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. Howard Green to plan their part in the annual Halloween Carnival scheduled for 5 til 7 p.m., Friday Oct. 31, in the high school gym, in cooperation with South Ward school.

Mrs. E. E. Garner, president, presided and room mothers of the school were named: Mrs. E. L. Garner, Miss Thornton's first grade; Mrs. J. R. Powers, Miss Snoddy's second grade; Mrs. Weldon Davis, Mrs. Homer Smith's third grade; Mrs. A. W. Cogburn, Mrs. T. L. Amis' third grade; Mrs. Howard B. Green, Mrs. Eugene Green's fourth grade; Mrs. Clyde Horner, Mrs. Frances Cooper's fourth grade; Mrs. R. D. Estes, Mrs. Herring and Mrs. Patterson's fifth grade.

Mrs. Jack Gourley talked on "Do You Know Your Schools?" and led into a round table discussion of schools, with parents who have been patrons of other schools being called upon to express an opinion of how Eastland schools classify. All present expressed gratitude of Eastland's fine school system.

Refreshments were served following the program to Misses J. B. McConnell, D. E. Webb, Clyde Horner, E. E. Garner, J. N. Smith, J. R. Powers, Jr., Estes, H. L. Hassell, Tom L. Cox, E. D. Anderson, Jack Gourley, Weldon Davis, A. W. Cogburn and J. R. Rusk.

Announcement was made of the regular P-TA meeting at 3:15 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 21, in the cafeteria of the school, at which time E. Cary Johnston will speak on "Where Our Tax Dollar Goes."

Although Johnny Goode was scheduled to bring the program at the Lions Club, he was out of the city attending the funeral of his grandfather. The club did not suffer from the lack of a program.

Mr. Freyschlag was given a notice of 45 seconds and he delivered an instructive talk on fire prevention. Herb Tanner also told of the interest of the schools in fire prevention, and invited adults to visit the high school library Friday when their posters, essays, etc., will be on display.

Pastor Marshall of the First Christian Church, and a member of the Volunteer Fire Department gave instructions as to behavior when the fire alarm is sounded. In effect he said: "Don't make a break for the fire, but rather wait for five minutes. If it is a 'good' fire you will get there in time for the 'big show', and if it isn't you wouldn't want to be there anyway. By allowing the fire trucks and volunteers, before you begin jamming the streets, they will be on the job and fighting the fire when you arrive, rather than trying to get the fire truck through a traffic jam."

James Reed told us of his scout work. Recently they got a new flag to replace the old one, and James asked the boys to handle the program. He had forgotten the ritualistic work, and was surprised when the boys took him at his word and gathered for a formal affair. They did a splendid job and James is proud of them. It will be remembered that the club sponsors the troop.

DEFERMENT TESTS FOR 4,000 TEXAS COLLEGIANS PLANNED

Around 4,000 Texas college students are expected to take the third nation-wide series of Selective Service college qualification tests in December and April, Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state draft director, said today in Austin.

The tests will be given Thursday, December 4, 1952, and Thursday, April 23, 1953, at approximately 60 testing centers on college campuses in Texas. Scores made by students are used by local draft boards in considering educational deferments.

General Wakefield said the estimate of number of students who would take the tests is based on participation by Texas students in past tests. Approximately 1,000 have taken the tests in the past. Students currently deferred on the basis of test scores or class standing in Texas are in excess of 7,000.

46 out of 100 Pass
In the first series of tests, only 46 out of every 100 college students in Texas made a passing score or better, as compared to 63 out of every 100 for the nation as a whole.

Students whose academic year will end in January 1953 were urged by General Wakefield to take the December test so they will have a test score in their draft board files before the end of the fall semester. At the end of students' academic years, boards reopen and reconsider their cases to determine whether they should be deferred as students.

To be eligible to apply for the test a student must (1) intend to request deferment as a student, (2) be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction, and (3) must not previously have taken the test.

Forms Now Available
Applicants for the test will mail application blanks to Educational Testing Service, test administrator, in self-addressed envelopes. Blank forms, envelopes, and official directions are available at the following address:

Washington Gets Dixieland Jazz From Musicians Who Love To Play

By James D. Shacter
 WASHINGTON (UP) — William F. Whelan spends his days making maps for the army. After dinner, "Wild Bill" Whelan picks up his cornet and spends his evenings making music — old-time Dixieland jazz tunes like "High Society," "Sister Kate" and all the other stumps and blues that are America's musical heritage.

Most people regard jazzmen as characters in low-down dives who play equally low-down music when they aren't swigging gin. But all the musicians in Bill's "Dixie Six" are family men with comfortable incomes. None has to knock himself out on a bandstand after working all day.

"We just love to play jazz," says Bill. "That's about all there is to it."

The bass player, Bob Deardorff is the only member of the band who has a musical daytime job. He is an instrument salesman in a music store. All the others have about the most unmusical jobs imaginable.

The drummer, Buddy Dean, works with Bill as an army cartographer, and the clarinetist, Wally Garner, who looks like a bashful high school kid on his first date, also is a government employe.

Pianist Bob Conway is a tile-rather in 1948. Later he and several other jazz-loving youngsters organized the casual first Dixie Six. Bill is the only member of that outfit still going strong.

The band moved last summer from its original headquarters in a tiny hotel basement room to a large Georgetown night club. The club was promptly rechristened "Jazzland", and there's seldom an empty table.

Adlai Says He's 'Master of His Own Sole' Now

DETROIT, Oct. 8 (UP) — Gov. Adlai Stevenson Tuesday night was presented with a ceremonial picture of his famous well-worn shoe that caught the public's attention when he was photographed on a platform.

"Little did I know when the shoe was made that it would result in something as effective as this," the Democratic presidential nominee beamed when two young women fastened the "hole-in-shoe" pin on his lapel.

"At least I can say I'm master of my own sole now," he said.

HERBY, WILL YOU PLEASE TAKE NOTE
 LOS ANGELES, Oct. 8 (UP) — Mrs. Martha Herring, 30, bought $48,000 damages in superior court Wednesday against the manager and owners of a drive-in movie theater, charging that fog prevented her from seeing a picture at their outdoor cinema.

She said when she demanded her money back and refused to take a "fog check" the theater manager struck her.

INVADES NORTHWEST—Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, GOP presidential candidate, leans from the platform of his campaign special to shake hands with cowgirl Rose Liggett as his train makes a brief stop at Whitehall, Montana. The General invaded the Pacific northwest for platform speeches in small towns as he enters the final month of his campaign bid for the presidency.

Ezzard Charles Is Confident Of Victory Tonite

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 8 (UP) — A confident Ezzard Charles expected to stop young Bernie Reynolds Wednesday night and use him for a stepping stone towards regaining the world's heavy weight championship.

Both the former champ and the perennial contender from Fairfield, Conn., pronounced themselves fit for the 12-rounder here in Charles' hometown. Both expected to weigh in at around 186.

Charles became a leading challenger after Rocky Marciano took the crown from Jersey Joe Walcott. He thinks he can beat Rocky and appeared to have few qualms about Reynolds.

The clever 31-year-old former champ has a "third-time charm" in his favor. He has never in his career lost three fights in a row. He lost his last two fights, the disputed decision to Walcott in Philadelphia, and another disputed verdict to Rex Layne at Ogden, Utah.

Reynolds' manager, Joe Vela, sees the bout as his boy's "biggest opportunity yet."

"Bernie knows what this one means," Vela said. "He has trained well and I figure if he gets good and mad, we got a good chance. Charles, like all champions lost a little something after losing his title to Walcott."

"When I dug that Davison cornet I never played a trumpet again," Bill says. "You just can't jump as well with a trumpet."

Bill, who's short and pudgy like Davison, patterned his style after that of the older man. Somewhere along the line he picked up Davison's nickname, too.

Bill organized his first band, a 12-piece dance outfit, while in high school, and formed a USO band while serving in the army in Europe. But the USO band never got to play for anyone's entertainment except its own. The whole group was called back from temporary furlough just as it was about to embark on a tour of Europe.

Bill's knowledge picked up in military school and the army.

NOW THROUGH OCT 19 DALLAS

for God for Nation

THIS IS OUR MINUTE IN TIME.

It may not come again.

This is our minute to think, not to dream. To speak, not to listen. To lead, not to follow.

Each of us — you, your family, your friends and neighbors, can ... must do something to fill this minute with greatness.

Soon our country will select its leadership for the next few years. It is important that we select wisely. It is important that each of us register a choice by voting. But voting alone is not enough.

Let's do something more. Because only by "something more" can our leadership be made truly wise and this minute made great.

Our duty and our privilege are simple.

We need Faith —

To bring God to the Halls of Government; to restore Him to the Councils of Business; to return Him to the Front Room of Life. Let's do as wise men of old have always done. Let's spend our minute with God.

And as we reach for the ballot or the voting machine lever ... let's reach into our hearts and find a prayer. Then, truly, this minute ... our minute ... will be great, that peace and happiness may visit our children.

ESCAPE—AT 2000 MPH—This is an artist's conception of a device to enable pilots to escape safely from planes going 2000 miles an hour, recently proposed by the Douglas Aircraft Co. The entire forward part of a fighter plane operating in outer atmosphere would be shot clear by rockets, similar to the conventional jet assisted takeoff. A parachute would open to stabilize the fall to earth. The capsule, with the pilot safely sealed inside, would float if a water landing were necessary.

Seven Texans In Casualty Report

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8 (UP)—One Texan has been killed in action in Korea and six others wounded, the latest Department of Defense casualty list indicated Wednesday.

Marine Corps Pfc. Gusnie V. Walton of Italy, Tex., was killed. The wounded were Army 2nd Lt. Henry H. Peters, Atascosa, and five Marines: Pfc. Johnnie R. Berry, Lubbock; Cpl. Martin G. Moak, West; Pfc. Bert L. Parker, Dallas; Pfc. Albert D. Fasket, Anderson, and Cpl. Roy A. Smith, Garland.

REA FINANCING HELPS RURAL PHONE SERVICE

By Patricia Wiggins
UNITED PRESS STAFF CORRESPONDENT
WASHINGTON (UP)—One day last summer a Virginia electric company received a $220,000 federal loan to build some new power lines. The following day a telephone cooperative in Kansas got a $302,000 loan to help replace handcrank phones along its farm circuit.

Both loans, and hundreds of others like them, were approved by the Rural Electrification Administration. The REA is one government agency that has won friends on both sides of the political fence for boosting electrification of American farms and putting farm-to-phone service on a par with his city cousins.

The REA, headed by Claude R. Eckard, a former secretary of agriculture, under a 10-year presidential appointment, has been in the electric loan business much longer — since 1935 — than the telephone business — authorized by congress in 1949.

But just recently, personnel shifts and other moves were undertaken to put the emphasis on telephone loans, where most work remains to be done. The demand for rural telephone service is now about the same as the demand for electricity 15 years ago.

By July 1, 1952, REA had approved $2,592,629,925 in loans to 1,080 electric borrowers — chiefly non-profit and cooperative or public organizations. More than 84 per cent of the country's farms are now wired for electricity and modern farm practices against 10 per cent that were electrified in 1935 when the federal program started. More than half the new farms electrified in that time are on REA-financed systems.

The loans bear two per cent interest and borrowers have a maximum period of 35 years to repay them. Nonetheless, $345,000,000 had been returned to the federal treasury on principal and interest payments by April 1, 1952. Only one loan foreclosure has barred the books.

Under the telephone program, REA has approved loans totaling $82,000,000 to 100 borrowers. Many of the loans have not yet been advanced, and no payments are due for about five years in the new program. Put one anxious borrower has already paid off his $23,000 loan.

Rural telephone service has lagged far behind other rural advances. According to U. S. census figures, fewer farms had telephones in 1950 than in 1920 when rural telephone service hits its peak.

The 38.7 per cent of the farms that had telephones in 1920 fell to 25 per cent in 1940 and had only increased to 38.7 per cent in 1950, despite a decline in the total number of farms. REA experts, who discuss the situation with the zeal of crusaders explain the situation this way:

In the early flurry of telephone interest that put crank phones in 2,498,246 farms in 1920, there were no arrangements made for maintenance, replacement or improvements. The cost for a phone, line and central office was about $25 to $50 per farmer, who had about a 17-party line.

When lines began to go bad, or poles blew down, they just stayed that way. And as the old

Poling To Speak At Fair Religious Festival Oct. 19

Dr. Daniel A. Poling of New York and Philadelphia, one of the nation's busiest and most dynamic clergymen, will be the speaker at the mammoth non-denominational Cotton Bowl Religious Festival here Sunday night, Oct. 19. Dan D. Rogers, chairman of the festival Laymen's Committee, has announced.

The second annual festival will be held on the final evening of the 1952 State Fair of Texas. All gates to the fairgrounds will be thrown open on this night and there will be no admission charge after 6 p.m. Rogers said.

Large Crowd Forecast
"The festival last year was attended by about 40,000 people, one of the largest religious gatherings of its type," Mr. Rogers said. "We hope that an even larger crowd will attend this year's festival."

Dr. Poling, who is widely respected as a speaker and a writer.

The religious festival is presented by combined committees of prominent laymen and pastors from the Dallas area, with the full cooperation and sponsorship of the State Fair. Thirty-one ministers are serving on the Pastors' Committee.

A well-known layman will be invited to preside at the festival. Dr. M. E. Sadler, president of Texas Christian University, will read the scripture. The Rev. Luther Holcomb will deliver the invocation.

Eight choirs to sing. Eight massed robed choirs will furnish an impressive musical background for the festival. The 50-piece Texas Salvation Army band will play.

Two outstanding college choirs have accepted invitations to participate. The TCU choir from Fort Worth and the North Texas State College A Capella choir from Denton will present special numbers.

Dr. Poling is editor of the Christian Herald in New York. He is the father of one of the famous four chaplains of three faiths who went down with their ship in World War II after giving away their life preservers. He serves as chaplain of the Chapel of the Four Chaplains, an inner-faith memorial to the four heroes in Philadelphia. He has been pastor of Marble Collegiate Church in New York and Baptist Temple in Philadelphia.

441,371 Persons Visit State Fair During Four Days

DALLAS, Oct. 8 (UP)— Attendance figures at the Texas State Fair totaled 441,371 persons for the first four days, general manager James H. Stewart announced Wednesday.

That was almost 9,000 fewer than were admitted during a similar period last year when 450,306 persons saw the fair in four days.

A total of 50,897 persons attended Tuesday as compared to 52,080 in 1951.

Stewart was still hopeful, however, that attendance will pick up sufficiently during the 12 remaining days to equal the total.

The total then was 2,320,129, fair attendance for last year.

Miss Johnson Gives Fontaine's "Sugar on the Slate" For First Meeting Of Las Leales Club

Miss Verna Johnson reviewed Don Fontaine's "Sugar on the Slate" at the opening meeting of Las Leales Club Monday evening at the Woman's Club.

Theme of the desert party, hosted by the year book committee was in keeping with Mrs. Johnson's book theme, "Back to School."

Mrs. H. L. Hassell, president, welcomed the members and introduced Mrs. Jay Whatley, chairman of the year program entitled "Freedom for Growth." She distributed the yearbooks and explained new features.

The refreshment table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of crepe myrtle and coleau. On one end of the table stood the "Little Red School House". Figurines of children were also used.

Guests were seated at game tables of four, which were laid in white linen and each place marked with a hand painted paper doll, made to represent that person when a schoolgirl. Fancy shaped erasers and red pencils were used as favors. Angel pie and coffee was served.

Hostesses other than Mrs. Hassell and Whatley were Mrs. W. E. Brasher, Don Parker, and Anna Grace Bumpass. Others present were Mrs. Wayne Caton, D. E. Frazer, B. F. Hanna, L. E. Huckabay, Rudolph Little, Wendell Siebert, Homer Smith, Joe Sparks, Thura Taylor, W. Q. Verner, Hubert Westfall, James Horton and Miss Jessie Lee Ligon.

Mrs. Bradford To Be Honored As Texas Poet

In keeping with National Poetry Day, Oct. 15, numerous poetry programs are being planned throughout Texas as well as throughout the nation this month. The work of a local poet, John Barber Bradford, whose mailing address is Eastland although he resides at Olden, will be featured on station KCLW, Hamilton, Sunday, Oct. 12, from 2:15 until 2:45 p.m. when Cornelia Bertrand Kreid conducts her poetry program. Mrs. Kreid is a well known Texas poet and one of the sponsors of Texas Council for the Promotion of Poetry. For the past several years Mrs. Kreid has introduced a Texas writer and featured their work over the Hamilton radio station during Poetry week, this year selecting Mrs. Bradford for the honor spot. Selections from her 3 published volumes, "The Joy of Living," "No Greater Gift," and "Weave of Foam and Rock", will be read during the program.

Mrs. Bradford appeared as speaker at the XXth Century Club of Weatherford at their re-assembly program this month. Representing the field of poetry Mrs. Bradford was presented by the Fine Arts Department and read from her book of sonnets.

Mrs. A. F. Taylor was hostess to members of the descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Weatherby of Goldthwaite, mother and father of Mrs. Taylor and her seven brothers four of whom are living and were present with their families, Sunday, Oct. 5th. The wives of the deceased brothers were also present.

Mrs. Taylor was assisted in entertaining the fifty five guests by her daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Kilgore of Lamesa and Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Perry of Eastland. The house was decorated for the occasion with dahlias grown by Mrs. Bella Weatherby of Miles.

The covered dish luncheon was served buffet style from the dining table, laid with a Maderia linen cloth and decorated with an arrangement of pink and white roses. Part Weatherby of Brownwood gave the invocation. Tables were arranged on the back terrace.

Mrs. Taylor called the assembled group together for organization and presided. Marvin Weatherby of Fort Worth was elected president; Joe Weatherby of Brownwood, secretary; Bert Weatherby of Brownwood, vice president and chairman of arrangements for the next reunion, which will be held in Brownwood the first Sunday in October 1953. Recording was made of the voice of each present. Pictures were made by many of the group, several using movie cameras. The younger set played croquet, baseball and card games while their elders visited throughout the day.

Present were Dr. Mairrie Weatherby, Erna Mae Weatherby, Lester C. Weatherby, Charles Weatherby, Annie Cozley, Sydney, Jim and Marvin Weatherby, Allison Cozley, Annie Marvin Weatherby all of Fort Worth, Catherine Weatherby Carr, Plack Carr, Weatherby Carr, Plack Carr
