

AROUND THE SQUARE

Yesterday we actually made a trip "around the square", and were surprised when we noted what just a little rain can do. Doesn't look like the same Eastland. Everything has a different smell and smiles were seen on everyhand.

We met only one pessimist, and that was an old fellow out of chewing tobacco. We gave him 15c, all we had, and the last time we saw him he was making a beeline for the grocery store. He likely got a new "cut," for when he emerged one jaw was considerably larger than the other.

We also noted a new neon sign over at the Mode O'Day. The rain may have had something to do with this—we do not know, but it is a very beautiful sign and in keeping with the policy of this progressive store. As night rays from this light certainly look good on a wet street, shines like a million dollars.

At the White Auto Store we noted Mr. McFatter is beginning to put out all his fishing equipment. With a few more showers and a little sunshine, it will be impossible to keep folks off the creeks and lakes.

Occasionally we go fishing, but every time we go the fish seem to be observing "fact" day, for we never get a nibble.

If Brother McFatter wants to do a land office business, all he has to do is stock his store with some kind of bait a fish can't resist. Then we'll all go fishing.

Even the lawn and hedges over at the courthouse, look fresh and green. Of course a portion of the hedge has turned it's toes up a little to the lilies, but the grass is green, and will be in need of a lawn mower very shortly.

At least one half of the hedge is in good shape, and is very beautiful, and it will not take too long to have it all back and in good shape. And the trees over there look much better since they have had the sand washed off the limbs and leaves.

From the Court House we dropped down to the new Piggy Wigly Store. Last week we were too busy to say the store a visit, but we really got an eye full on this visit. Really it looks better than we had anticipated. Those new shelves and new freezer cases will compare very favorably with most any city store, and over in the produce department you may pick up a miniature glimpse of California. The entire west wall is lined with fresh fruits and vegetables, and displayed in a very "appetizing" manner.

Shelves filled with canned goods and other items really looked good, and as we passed the meat case and viewed those swell cuts of meat, we suddenly discovered that we were hungry. In all, the store is a very beautiful and well arranged one.

As we left Piggy Wigly we noticed that Willy Willys owners have treated their building to a new coat of paint. The west wall has been painted a bright aluminum color, while the north and east have been painted deep red, and we do mean red. However, it looks mighty good, and is in keeping with the season—the rainy season, which we are now enjoying.

The boss caught us loafing over there, and we had to make a hasty retreat, so we forgot to see what had been done inside. If said boss will just tell us which end of town he plans to visit; we will have more time to get our long stories without interruption.

Just as soon as grass gets green we plan a trip to rural areas, and see how things look there.

Baugh To Be Speaker At Banquet Tonight

AND WEEKLY CHRONICLE

VOLUME TWENTY-FOUR

No. 103

EASTLAND, TEXAS, THURSDAY, MARCH 12, 1953

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Baugh Speaks At Banquet Of Q'Backs Tonight

A distinguished athlete—Samuel Adrian Baugh, one of the greatest football stars of all time—will be a visitor in Eastland County tonight.

Baugh, known far and wide as "Mr. Forward Pass" and former pro-star with the Washington Redskins who now is dividing his time between being a Rotan ranchman and assistant grid mentor at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, will be the featured speaker at tonight's banquet of the Eastland Quarterback Club in Eastland.

During his sixteen years of pro grid play, Slingin' Sammy the Sweetwater flash, smashed 16 records. Baugh joined the Redskins fresh from Texas Christian in 1937.

A native Texan, born in Temple, he first starred as a football player while in high school at Sweetwater. The rest is history—history well and widely known by ardent pigskin fans from coast to coast and around the world.

Sam is married and has five children—four sons and a daughter.

He's retired from the pro grid game, but by accepting a post as associate coach at Hardin-Simmons, the former big gun of the collegiate Purple and the pro Washingtonians can continue his association with the great gridiron sport.

"Football has been mighty good to me," Sammy says with his usual humbleness (he never charged head size despite his fame), "and I hope I may contribute something to the game by coaching."

In addition to the privilege of hearing him speak, fans attending the Eastland Quarterback Club session tonight also will see a special football film which the grid ace will bring along for screening following the banquet.

Ducats for the big event are on sale by members of the ticket committee, or they may be secured at the door.

The affair, to be held in the Connelley Hotel in Eastland, will honor Eastland High's Mavericks of 1952.

Larry Hayes To Speak Here At 7 O'Clock Tonite

The Gamma Globulin Program sponsored cooperatively by the American Red Cross and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will be discussed here tonight by Larry Hayes of the North Texas Blood Center in Fort Worth.

The public is invited to hear him speak at 7 p.m. in the Texas Electric Company club room.

While he will not enter the television field on a large scale, he will erect steel towers, antennas, etc.

City feller at the door: "We just helped ourselves to your apples, old man. Just thought we'd tell you."

While this week has been set aside for the trial of criminal cases in the 91st District Court, only two cases have been heard so far.

With the passing of the filing deadline for city offices Saturday, Mayor Walter Smith is unopposed for re-election. Four aldermen will be named in the election April 7, with J. F. Cook the only holdover.

Mrs. Bessie Bowers is a candidate for the short term opened by the death of her husband, T. E. Bowers. Dan Deen, Humble gauger, is a candidate for the same place.

For the long term W. A. Williams is the only new candidate with Glenn Henry, B. B. Morris and J. W. Roach candidates for re-election.

W. N. Favor has been named as election judge.

Little Hope For More Rain In Eastland Area

There was still a possibility—but a rather remote one—for more rain in the Eastland County area today and tonight, the U. S. Weather Bureau said this morning.

However, the possibility loomed even more remote by noontime when a clear, azure sky and a beaming sun covered the area and another stretch of balmy, mild and springlike weather appeared in prospect for the coming weekend.

"Fair to partly cloudy and mild today, tonight and Friday," said the Thursday morning communique of the Weather Bureau.

Forecasters said today's highest mercury reading would be around the 80-degree mark and tonight's low in the warmish mid-50s.

Friday afternoon may be slightly cooler, weather men said, with the day's high slated in the lower 70s.

The West Texas forecast: "Clear to partly cloudy Thursday and Friday. No important temperature changes."

Did You Know?

By Marene Johnson-Johnson

Last summer's polio epidemic in the state will not be soon forgotten. Memory of it should be enough of a stimulus to get us in a mood to do what we can toward preventing such a tragedy again.

The now famous "Gamma globulin," which provides at least temporary immunity, makes hopes for this year much brighter.

However, this immunizing agent with the funny sounding name is a blood plasma protein. It can't be mined, or manufactured. It is a substance of human blood.

There are many who will need its protection. There will be a need for much blood.

The Gamma Globulin program, sponsored cooperatively by the American Red Cross and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, will be explained here tonight by Larry Hayes of the North Texas Blood Center in Fort Worth.

Citizens of the county who are interested in the welfare of their children (and isn't everyone) should be eager to attend.

The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. in the Texas Electric Company Club room.

A "cattle caller" that operates like a car horn has been developed. Its promoters say it calls them in their own language, reports Capper's Farmer. The sound is something like Moo-unh-oo-unh-oo.

Bids Asked For Work On State Highway Link

Bids on highway projects expected to cost $10,500,000 will be opened March 17 and 18, the State Highway Department announced in Austin today.

The proposed work includes 157 miles of new construction in the farm-to-market road system and 170 miles of pavement or improvement in the state highway network.

Among projects upon which bids were called is proposed work on State Highway 16 in Eastland County.

The project is for flexible base and two-course surface treatment on 12.9 miles of State Highway 16 from four miles south of U. S. Highway 80 to the Comanche County line.

Many Entries Expected For Pro-Am Meet

A lower entrance fee—$2 instead of the usual $3—is expected to swell the list of entries for a Pro-Am golf tournament to be held at the Ranger Country Club Saturday, T. C. Wyle, president, predicted today.

Many gentlemen, both amateur and professionals, from over a wide area of the state are expected to participate in the competition to be staged on the Ranger Club's fine 9-hole course.

Among the pros expected, reports James Townzen, secretary of the Ranger Country Club, are Bill Dill of Weatherford, George Hannah of Weatherford, Doug Higgins and several other pros of Fort Worth, C. A. DeWees of Weatherford, and John Lively of Eastland.

Entries for Saturday's tournament may top the 100 mark, it was said.

SCRANTON DUE NEW LINKS WITH 2 PAVED HIGHWAYS

The little village of Scranton, once the seat of learning in this area with its Scranton Academy, will soon be connected with the outside world by two paved roads.

The paved farm road westward from Cisco which dead-ended about two miles from Scranton is to be extended. And it will push westward through the little village, make a turn at the Scranton cemetery, turn west and connect with the Putnam and Cross Plains farm-to-market highway.

Already fences have been set back for work to proceed on grading west of Scranton. The new paved road will enable Scranton residents and farmers to make a fast motor trip to Cross Plains, Putnam and Cisco.

Northwest of Scranton grading has been completed on a new farm-to-market highway from a mile east of Putnam to Moran, giving Putnam and Scranton still another highway outlet.

It is understood that the only difficulty encountered in securing widened right-of-way on the Scranton and Putnam farm-to-market route was at the Scranton cemetery. Here the highway officials desire to round off the corner of that graveyard, with some small opposition arising.

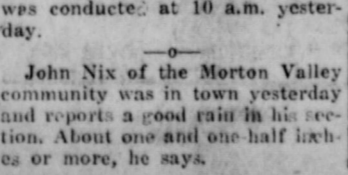

The S-curves on the highway between Cisco and Breckenridge where the highway crossed the old defunct Cisco & Northeastern Railroad grade have been straightened. Even a hill, just north of the intersection of the Eastland-Breckenridge highway, has been cut through to remove a bad death curve.

Shrimp Sift Is Expected

The Chief Marine Biologist of the Game and Fish Commission said studies of the multi-million dollar shrimp industry are being expanded.

He said the enlarged activity centers around tagging the shrimp along a large stretch of the Gulf Coast. Heretofore this work, designed to determine vital data about the popular sea species, has been confined to the Port Aransas area.

The Chief Marine Biologist said tagged shrimp will be released close to shore and on out into a maximum of fifty fathoms. This will place this activity beyond the limits of shrimping operations which ordinarily ends at approximately thirty-five fathoms. Plans are to release up to five thousand tagged shrimp between the Galveston-Port Arthur area to Fort Isabel.

He said one primary purpose is to determine migration habits of the red shrimp since the life habits of the white shrimp already have been well charted.

The Chief Marine Biologist said anything bearing on the habits of shrimp will be of value to the huge shrimping industry. He explained the shrimpers are required to go into deeper water for their catches with consequent increase in operating costs.

A limited shrimp tagging program was begun a year ago by Marine Biologist E. D. McBee who has since left the Commission staff for a position on the West Coast. The expanded work will be in charge of Marine Biologist Howard Lee.

Insurance Takes Risk Out Of All Credit Buying

Take the risk out of installment buying by credit life and credit disability insurance, Alson J. Smith advises in April Farm and Ranch.

Through the protection of credit life, no longer need the homemaker fear that, if the man of the house becomes ill or dies, the finance company will claim the family car, TV set, or other property. Anybody between the ages of 18 and 65 can buy credit life insurance without an examination and with a minimum of red tape.

Until the loan is paid up, it provides the same protection as ordinary life insurance. Moreover, the policies are broad, paying off for death from any cause, including suicide or military service, Mr. Smith says. The companies, recognizing the value of speed and a lack of red tape as big selling points, make it a practice to pay claims on the day they are received, with no questions asked.

With credit disability insurance, after a specified number of days—usually 14—it begins paying off a loan after the maker has been incapacitated, and keeps it up until he is able to go back to work or the loan is paid. Like credit life, it requires no medical examination and pays off in event of disability from almost any cause.

Mrs. Bill Tucker

The Rev. Bill Gresham used for his Sunday morning sermon topic "The Three Great Religions", showing that during the patriarchal age, the family altar was man's way of worship until Sinai. The nation of Israelites under the leadership of Moses, received the law of commandments and set up tabernacle worship, which lasted until the Christian era.

Today we have the new covenant and the written word laid down in the New Testament; and worship according to its precepts and examples. Come hear this capable young preacher each Sunday. Mrs. Gresham accompanies him from Abilene.

A large crowd was in evidence also at the Baptist church Sunday where preaching on each second and fourth Sunday is by Dixie Clement of Gorman.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Blackwell and family were visitors on Sunday morning at church.

Milton Underwood and family spent the week end here with his parents, the Will Underwoods. They returned to Fort Worth Monday.

Mrs. Belle Blackwell spent last week in the Elmer Blackwell home. Berle Blackwell from Lubbock and Herman Packwell from Fort Worth, also visited their parents over the week end.

Mrs. Annie Rainey and daughter, Nelda, visited in the John Tucker home on Wednesday. Wedding bells will ring soon for Nelda and Mike Keith of Desdemona.

Hatley Dean spent the day with Scott Motes in Abilene last Tuesday. Mrs. John Love was also in Abilene for a conference of insurance personnel, accompanied by Mrs. Bill Tucker and Hatley Dean.

David Blackwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Slim Blackwell of Odessa, visited relatives here last week. He

The Executive Secretary explained that success of this approach might ultimately provide Texas with the equivalent of the zoning system which the Lone Star State has long sought. Seasons

Women's Auxiliary Of Eastland Memorial Hospital Organized

By Buda B. Butler
What is a volunteer? Listen and you shall hear.
A volunteer may be defined as one who offers, contributes or enters into service of his free will, also springing up naturally, as from fallen seed.
The Eastland Memorial Hospital was finished by volunteer workers nine months ago. Yes, the men of Eastland from every walk of life and every color and creed remember the ten long months that they worked each night in order that Eastland might have a hospital.
This hospital is valued, without the equipment, at $150,000.00 and there is not a citizen of Eastland who does not thrill with pride as he passes the hill, one block from the court house square, and sees the softly pinnacled, coral building with its deep sea coral trim. This but also worked long and late during the construction of the building.

Nine months have proven that a small community can have a hospital without its being a "white elephant" to the tax payers. It is free of debt and much new equipment has been added since the opening.

Mrs. Reed indicated to the Civic League and Garden Club, who originally sponsored the hospital, that there was a need for a hospital auxiliary. A temporary committee was appointed from the Civic League and Garden Club to call a meeting for the purpose of organizing.

On Feb. 25, 1953, the following were elected and installed as the executive board of the auxiliary: Mrs. James Horton, president; Mrs. Earl Conner, vice-president; Mrs. Farris Poe, second vice-president; Mrs. T. M. Fuller, secretary; Mrs. Bill Wafors, treasurer; Mrs. H. D. MacMoy, historian.

There were seventy-five charter members registered. Other women of Eastland County can become members if they so desire. These women will be assigned to committees that give assistance in various capacities to suit the hospital needs. The present project is to establish a walking blood bank for the hospital, so that the types of blood will be available in emergency.

Too much cannot be said of the part the women played during the building of the hospital. They worked two and each night during the ten months there was a committee of women who met at the hospital at 9 p.m. with delicious pies and cakes to serve with coffee to the volunteer workers.

These charter members of the auxiliary, and there are others who will become members, are the wives and mothers of the volunteers who built the hospital. Do they have spirit or shall we say they were springing up naturally as from fallen seed?

Joy Dupree And Jackie Bell Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

Of interest to Eastland Countians is the recent marriage of Miss Joy Dupree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Dupree, of Humble, and granddaughter of Mrs. Mabel Williams and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dupree, both of Ranger, to Jackie Bell, son of Mrs. J. B. Pitts of Fort Worth and grandson of Mrs. J. F. Jeffries, of Ranger.

The Rev. C. R. Simpson performed the candlelight, double ring ceremony at 3:00 p.m., March 1, at the First Baptist Church in Humble, Texas.

Miss Marilyn Calfee of Humble sang "Always" and "Because", accompanied on the organ by Miss Jimmie Ann Kirkland.

Mrs. Jack Masher of Houston was matron of honor, Miss Ann Johnston of Wharton was maid of honor and Mrs. Bobby Benard of Houston was the bridesmaid.

Carol Ann Dupree, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Henry Scott of Ft. Worth, Sammy McWhirter of Texas City and Jack Masher of Houston were the groomsmen. Dean Kittman and Jim Griggsby of Houston were the ushers.

The bride wore a gown of white chautauque lace over nylon net. Her illusion veil was shielded by a Juliet headress embroidered in seed pearls. She carried a bible topped with a white orchid.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the educational building of the church. Misses Betty Joyce Eckols and Shirley Pilgreen served the refreshments.

The couple are making their home in Houston. Both are students of the University of Houston.

Mrs. Frank Lovett leaves soon for Olney to enter the Olney Hospital under the care of her sons there. She will be in Olney for several weeks.

George Lane Jr., arrived in Eastland from A&M College last Friday and joined his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lane Sr., to visit the Lane's daughter Betty, who is now Mrs. J. B. Pumphrey, living in Old Glory. The Pumphrey's have a small son, J. B. 4th and the paternal grandparents joined the group for the weekend visit. The Pumphrey's are prominent ranchers of Stonewall county and are
