NO. 37

Mrs. G. P. Pierce

Funeral services for Mrs. G. P. Pierce of Fort Worth, who passed away there Thursday of last week, were held Saturday. Burial was in Everman cemetery near Fort Worth.

The Rambler Rambles

Fairbanks, Alaska

Here we are in the newest state in the union, Alaska. They surely are celebrating. A whole week of it is planned

The weather is really surprising here, not cold at all. You can't even see any snow. Everything is beautiful and is not what you would think it to be. The temperature is 86 today, flowers are everywhere.

The people we have met are really nice and have made us feel welcome.

Our trip up was without any kind of mishap, not even a flat tire.

I want to acknowledge some letters from some of you. Wish I could write each of you a letter, but for lack of time I will not be able to and can only hope this letter will suffice.

I was glad of the report last Sunday. It gives me a good feeling to hear these reports. I hope the best for the entire community, and am praying God's blessings on you all.

J. S. Tipton

P. S. I have seen more fishing waters than I ever thought existed.

Mrs. Ethel Miller and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Snelling and son of Ceres, Calif., and Mrs. Murphy of Okmulgee, Okla., visited Miss Jessie Davis last week. Miss Jessie accompanied them to Amarillo and spent the week end there.

Darryl Hemelstrand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Hemelstrand of Amarillo, suffered a broken leg Tuesday of last week when he ran into a car. He is reported getting along nicely now.

Lester Petty underwent an appendectomy in a Memphis hospital Tuesday.

Mrs. G. L. Armstrong

Funeral services for Mrs. George L. Armstrong who passed away Tuesday of last week at Bridgeport, were held Thursday from the First Methodist Church at McLean by Rev. E. D. Landreth, assisted by Rev. Dale Swain and Rev. Jack Riley. Burial was in the McLean cemetery with Richardson-Lamb Funeral Home in charge.

Mrs. Armstrong was born Oct. 3, 1875, and had been a faithful member of the Methodist Church throughout her life. She lived in Hedley for many years in the '20s and '30s.

She was the mother of 11 children, 6 of whom survive. They are Mrs. Beulah Gregg of Bridgeport, Luke Armstrong and Mrs. Lorena Bailey of McLean, Travis Armstrong of Torrance, Calif., Joyce and W. W. Armstrong of Long Beach, Calif. All of these were present except Luke, who is ill in Scott and White hospital at Temple. Also present was Mrs. Armstrong's brother, Eenie Bogy of Oiney.

Hedleyans attending the services included L. E. Blankenship, Mrs. John Blankenship, Mrs. W. I. Rains, Mrs. Paul Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jewell.

A Comment

To "Contributor" on Public Affairs of last issue: You are to be commended for your insistence on not being wrongly swayed by public opinion. Don't you think, however, that Christians ought to do more than get out of the way? Do we not have a duty to help form public opinion? Actually we all have a small part in this anyway. We cannot help it. Let it be a good contribution. Do not lose heart. Elijah found there were more who had not bowed the knee to Baal than he had thought. If a totally malicious person lives in Hedley, I haven't found him. Where there are good neighbors, the Spirit of Christ must dwell.

Signed,
M. R. Mathis

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks for the beautiful flowers, cards, food, and every kindness shown us during our sorrow. God bless you is our prayer.

West Texas Utilities Co. Officials Visit Here

Several officials of the West Texas Utilities Co. visited in Hedley last week, stopping at the local office and at the Security State Bank.

Officials making the visit included Cal Young of Abilene, president of the company, Si Phillips of Abilene, assistant to Mr. Young, T. M. Wilson of Abilene, head of the Safety Dept., and A. T. Shahan of Childress, district manager

Fire Dept. Meeting

There was a good attendance at the Fire Dept. meeting Monday night, 21 members present, and we were glad to have 3 ex-members visiting, R. M. Saunders, Bob Bailey and Arthell Gibson. We are also glad to welcome a new member Cecil Welch.

A number viewed the demonstration of dry powder extinguishers, which really did a remarkable job on the butane and gasoline fires. The Dept. bought one of these extinguishers, and hopes to add more later. There will be another demonstration on the night of August 4.

We enjoyed very much the delicious sandwiches contributed by Mrs. Clifford Johnson.

GOC Meeting

The Ground Observer Corps posts of this area have a new sector sergeant, St. Sgt. Charles E. Moore of Plainview. Sgt. Moore will be here next Monday night, July 14, to show a film and to present a few awards.

All members of the local post are urged to be present for this meeting, beginning at 7:30.

LIONS ROAR

This week is regular Lions Club meeting with a good program and the Lelia Lake ladies feeding at 8 p. m. The new Boss Lion Carl Morris will have charge of this meeting.

Dates for the Seventh Annual Cotton Festival and the annual family picnic, committees to be appointed, awards given, and other business will be discussed. Come and bring a prospective member.

J. K. Morton

James Kelsey Morton, 79, a resident of Hedley a number years ago, passed away Tuesday night in Amarillo after a lengthy illness. He had been a lumber company employee for 30 years before his retirement in 1945.

He is survived by his wife, Rosa; a daughter, Mrs. W. M. Grounds of Clovis; two sons, Claude of Amarillo and James of Kansas; a brother, Will Morton of Versailles, Mo.; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete at press time.

A Reliable Guide

Since the dawn of history, murder has been forbidden by God and man. It is certainly as violent a sin almost as can be committed. Of course in God's sight no sin is worse than any other and a little white lie or any deviation from the truth is sin and the Bible says, "The wages (or pay) for sin is death." Not physical death necessarily but spiritual death in the eternal fires of Hell.

Today we often hear people say, "Let your conscience be your guide," and whatever you do will be alright, but we read in the book of Acts that the Apostle Paul murdered people "in all good conscience." Over in the Phillipine Islands there is a colony of head hunters. These people cut off the heads of their victims and shrink them in good conscience, no doubt. It's just their way of life and no one has taught them any better.

This is proof that man's conscience must be trained or taught to be a reliable guide. In II Timothy 3:16 we are told, "All scripture is given by the inspiration of God and is profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness." Let's study the Bible and teach our conscience before we trust it to guide our lives.

One change has been made in the line-up of preachers for the spiritual life mission, "Tell Hedley About Christ," as announced at church, for July 15 18. The list as it now stands includes Revs. Conray Ryan of Clarendon, David W. Binkley of Memphis, J. A. McDonald of Lelia Lake, and J. F. Michael of Wellington, respectively, for the evening services. The pastor will preach the first three morning messages and the concluding sermon will be delivered by Rev. Robert L. Oglesby of Turkey, who has been associated with revivals at Hedley the last two summers and drives a Metropolitan. Evening services are to begin at 8:15, and those in the morning at 10. Nancy Lou Hinds will be the organist. An ice cream and cake supper is to follow the concluding service. The public is cordially invited to all services.

Mrs. Aubrey Lee Cherry is taking orders for World Outlook, a mission magazine, as part of her work in the Commission on Missions. She also works with the WSCS and WSG, and with individuals who want this fine magazine. Mrs. Frank Kendall is chairman of the commission, and Mrs. Carl Morris is another member. We have had three nights of meetings of some sort for organization lately, concluding with a yummy supper, a very nice pounding for the pastor's family, and the first quarterly conference Wednesday evening, July 2. Sickness has struck within our church family, and death has come at least twice to relatives of members, in recent days. Some of us are foolish enough to believe that at worship together we can get spiritual vitamins to help us sustain such crushing burdens.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hunsucker and Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Tibbetts of Rule, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Tibbetts of Gainesville, and Mr. and Mrs. Corky Hunsucker and Catherine of Lubbock all met at Burson Lake Saturday for an outing together. Catherine returned home with the C. R. Hunsuckers for a visit.

Bob Goosman and Terry Mangold of the U. S. Navy at Norman, Okla., visited in the M. L. Sims home over the week end.

R. M. Saunders and family of Stafford visited in Hedley and Memphis this week.

T. O. Whitwell is on the sick list this week

LEGION NEWS

The Legion barbecue to have been held at the Cooke Ranch this week had to be postponed on account of the rains. Legionnaires will be notified of the date. The Post's membership is now 131, which is 7 shy of last year and 11 shy of this year's quota.

There is still time to pick up a few more members before the state convention which will be held at Ft. Worth beginning Aug. 1. Rhea Smith of Amarillo, past district commander, will install the new officers of the Post at the August 12th meeting.

Mrs. Luther O. Thompson and Larry left Sunday for a visit in Alma, Ark. Luther says that Arlene kicked off her shoes and headed for Arkansas.

Mrs. Roy Jewell went to Colorado Springs last week to take home Susan Hopson, who had spent three weeks here.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cooper and children, Leonard, Michael and Linda, have been visiting here from Seattle, Wash.

The Arthell Gibson family of Pampa have been visiting here.

Al Manny of Brackettville visited in the C. R. Hunsucker home Monday and Tuesday

W. W. Armstrong of Long Beach, Calif., visited the Blankenships last Friday.

Truell Huffman and family of Goldsmith visited here last week end.

Calvin W. Glass of Kerens visited in the E. M. Glass home over the week end.

Don Hansard and family were here from Borger last week end.

Mrs. Willis Thomas and Letty of Plainview visited here this week
