The Rambler Rambles

Fairbanks Alaska

There are lots of interesting things here in Fairbanks. It has the appearance of an old city that has been resurrected by a boom of some kind. There is activity everywhere on account of the two big air bases here. There are quite a few new modern five and six story building downtown. The air here is dust laden because the streets are not all paved, neither are they graded.

The people here are from the States and are really glad to see anyone from anywhere in the States. We have received a royal welcome.

GOC Meeting

The local Grond Observer Corps post had a very interesting and instructive meeting Monday night. Twelve members and two visitors were present, and enjoyed a film shown by our sector sergeant, St. Sgt. Charles E. Moore of Plainview.

Sgt. Moore also presented awards for 250 hours of watching to O'Neill Weatherly and Ed Boliver, and for 100 hours of watching to Luther O. Thompson and Frank Jones.

Sgt. Moore expects to be back soon to show a tornado film to the local post.

To Wed Aug. 2

The following appeared in the Memphis Democrat.

Mrs. W. D. Orr announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her granddaughter, Dorothy Jo Copeland, to Carl William Morris Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morris of Hedley.

Miss Copeland is the daughter of George S. Copeland of Graham. She has made her home here with her grandmother for a number of years, and attends Memphis High School. Her fiance graduated from Hedley High School in 1957.

The wedding will be an event of August 2 in the home of Mrs. Orr.

Card of Thanks

We wish to take this means of expressing our sincere thanks to the community in general for all the help given us since the fire at our home. We appreciate very much all that everyone has done, and we do mean everyone.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Sargent

Mrs. Eva Parker was ill in a Memphis hospital the first part of the week.

Everyone is excited about Alaska becoming a state. A big celebration has been on ever since we have been here.

Fairbanks is behind in church activities. A city of 15,000, according to the chamber of commerce it has not one nice church building of any denomination.

The summer weather here is hot and humid. A few showers have fallen lately, cooling things a bit.

We will leave for home July 14 and hope to arrive about July 24.

Sargents Have Narrow Escape

The home of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Sargent south of town was partially destroyed by fire of undetermined origin early last Friday morning. The fire, which apparently began in the living room on the southwest corner of the house, had burned for some time before the Sargents, who were sleeping in the northeast bedroom, awakened, and they were forced to break out a window in order to escape.

They then drove to town and turned in the alarm, and the blaze was very quickly brought under control by the Civil Defense unit's new fire truck and eleven firemen. We have not learned the total damage, but we would consider the furnishings a total loss, and the house will require extensive rebuilding.

The Sargents were honored with a shower Monday night at the Methodist Church and received many items that will be useful when their home is rebuilt. Also Buck Meek has been conducting a one-man fund raising campaign which has shown that Hedleyans are as big hearted as ever.

Crawford-Crawford

Mrs. W. S. Crawford of Vernon and Rev. L. J. Crawford of Hedley were united in marriage on Thursday, July 10, at the home of his son Warren Crawford in Vernon. Mrs. Crawford's son, Rev. George Crawford of Dennison, performed the ceremony.

Rev. Crawford is pastor of a Baptist Church at Hollis. Before her marriage Mrs. Crawford was employed in a hospital at Vernon. They are making their home here in Hedley.

J. B. Reed

We learned this week that J. B. Reed, a Hedley resident a number of years ago, passed away June 17 at his home in Clearlake Oaks, Calif. He is survived by two sons, Calvin E. Reed and James C. Reed, both of Lake Jackson, Tex.

Mrs. Ray Moreman and David have been visiting the Dr. C. S. Whitmore family at Harrison, Arkansas.

Cotton Festival

The dates for the Seventh Annual Cotton Festival have been set for Friday and Saturday, October 10th and 11th. The earlier date was chosen to give less chance of having bad weather.

Carl Morris will be chairman of the Festival with Clifford Johnson and Aubrey Cherry, co-chairman. Advertising the Festival is getting under way to make this, the Seventh, our biggest and best.

To Wed Aug. 8

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Phillips, of Route 2 in Plainview, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Zeldia Ann, to Sgt. Wilburn G. Leeper of Hedley. Vows will be exchanged August 8, at 8 p. m. in the Happy Union Baptist Church, Reverend Verrell Leeper officiating.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Plainview High School and the groom-to-be a graduate of Hedley.

Mrs. P. T. Boston

Funeral services for Mrs. P. T. Boston, 65, who passed away Saturday in an Amarillo hospital, were held Monday from the First Baptist Church at Shamrock by Rev. J. E. Byers. Burial was in the Shamrock cemetery.

Mrs. Boston, a former Hedleyan, had been a resident of Shamrock since 1928.

She is survived by two sons, Paul of Colorado City and Charles of Houston; a sister, Mrs. L. Mobley of Rialto, Calif.; and five grandchildren.

Hedleyans attending the services were Mr. and Mrs. Alva Simmons, Mrs. Hobart Moffitt, and Mrs. Ethel Kinslow.

Chauncey Thompson

Funeral services for Chauncey O. Thompson, 52, Breckenridge rancher, who passed away last week at his home there, were held from the Presbyterian Church at Breckenridge Friday. Burial was in a Breckenridge cemetery.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, Chauncey Jr. and Sloan, both of Breckenridge; three brothers, E. P. of Memphis and L. E. and George of Clarendon; and two sisters, Mrs. Byron Baldwin of Memphis, and Mrs. Joe Brown of Tyler.

Sure-footed Man Serves Texas

The colorful language of the ranch and trail seems to fit Bill Blakley, who made his start in life as a working cowhand. He still rides and ropes with the hands on his ranch at roundup time.

Speaking of Blakley's service as U. S. Senator in 1957, the Dallas News said: "... If he was as unassuming as an old boot, it was nevertheless a well polished boot that never wobbled or wavered from its purposeful path. For this man Blakley is a sure-footed man who knows exactly where he stands and what he believes."

Texans will vote to return William A. Blakley to the Senate on July 26 because he truly represents the spirit, traditions and views of all Texas.

No Escape

The laws of the land are very important to our way of life today as they have been through the ages. Nations, states, countries, towns, and even most homes have rules and laws that must be obeyed. From early childhood we teach our children about various laws and we know there are countless thousands of laws which most thinking people abide by, knowing a fine or sentence in jail, or even the penitentiary awaits them if they don't.

From the beginning of time God has had laws and rules and commandments and since we are his creation he expects us to obey them, and in the Bible we are warned in no uncertain terms of the punishment awaiting us if we fail to do so. But I hear someone say, "Oh God is a just God, He loves everyone, there is no eternal punishment." God is a just God, and because he is he plays no favorites. We are all given the same laws to obey and are all given ample warning of our fate if we don't obey them. And here is a challenging, earth shaking thought. Just as sure as we are born into this world and live to be old enough to think for ourselves, just that surely we must stand before God one day and give an account to Him for His laws we have broken or kept. The only way of escape is to abide by his laws and do his will, while we are here on the earth.

Blakley Story Is Typically Texan

The typical American story is of the poor boy who made good through his own efforts. This is the story of Bill Blakley, born in a covered wagon while his parents were on their way to homestead in Oklahoma territory. He has come a long way in 59 years. Said the Austin American-Statesman, when William A. Blakley announced for the Senate:

"... He was a top-hand cowboy; he was a crackerjack bank clerk; he was an exceptionally good accountant and lawyer. We have an idea that he is going to be a refreshing, able political candidate. He would make a great United States Senator."

Vote for Bill Blakley on July 26 — an able man whose only ambition is to serve all of Texas.

900 Attend Program And Tulia's Biggest Banquet

Citizens from a broad area of the High Plains produced what many termed an unprecedented show in Tulia, March 31st. The area -- the fifteen county Thirtieth Senatorial District of Texas. The "Show" -- an Appreciation Dinner-Program honoring State Senator Andy J. Rogers of Childress.

30 to 100 persons from each of the 15 agricultural counties turned out for the evening-long program in the cafeteria and auditorium of Tulia High School. 75 business and farm leaders from outside the district joined in the "Chorus Of Thank You's" to the Senator. A majority of the Panhandle-South Plains Representatives and Senators, also two major daily newspaper representatives were present.

INDEXING

By MORRIS HIGLEY
Andy Rogers may be defeated some day. He may not run for re-election. At least he has not announced.

But win, lose or draw, Andy Rogers has something to remember that is fine and wonderful.

His most memorable moment must be the Appreciation Dinner and program given Monday night at Tulia.

I have never seen anything like it in my life. I do not think anyone who attended has ever seen anything like it.

-Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Rogers, along with Georgia Ann and, of course, Andy must have felt wonderful Monday night. And still do.

The idea for the Appreciation Dinner did not originate in Childress. In fact, as far as I know, Childress residents did not have anything to do with it.

And when Andy heard about the proposal, he said that it could not be done.

Andy was wrong. And I imagine right now he is happy that he was wrong. I would be.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING:

A dozen leaders in the district were programmed to speak. They, typically, represented a cross-section of Plains life.

One was the Senator's pastor. He lauded the honoree for his fight against liquor, narcotics, and lewd literature. "Senator Rogers is always on the right side of every moral issue," said the churchman. "He wants and works for a high moral atmosphere to prevail."

A county teachers' association president called attention to Senator Rogers' work in behalf of public education. A Memphis druggist related that Rogers has always had an "open ear" for the small businessman.

A district judge praised the quality of legislation introduced and supported by the Senator. A mayor and insurance man emphasized the value of Andy Rogers' fight against corruption in Austin, particularly in connection with the insurance investigations.

Said an official of one of the veterans' organizations: "Andy told us for a long time there was serious trouble in the veteran's land program. He was right. And when this was cleaned up, Andy worked hard to see that this good program was not scrapped."

A newspaper editor and publisher, a former president of the Panhandle Press Association, observed: "This is the first time I've ever heard of people traveling so far just for a state senator. But it's fitting," he added, "for Andy Rogers for a job well done."

Spokesmen for the major farm organizations expressed approval of the Senator's record on farm-to-market roads, local ownership of underground water, rural electrification, and other legislation of concern to agriculture. Said the farm spokesman who rounded out the program:

"In view of all Andy Rogers has done for agriculture, I'm amazed to hear from the other speakers here this evening that he's had time for such effective work for so many others, too." The farmer concluded:

"Andy Rogers must use a six-row political tractor!" The Senator acknowledged the praise-filled evening with obvious humility. He spoke humbly, too, of his "close personal friend" -- Lewis B. Taylor of Austin and Waco -- who had been stricken with a fatal heart attack there a few minutes earlier.

To the series of "thank you's" which had been expressed during the evening, Rogers responded:

"What's been accomplished, you've done. The credit belongs to you, to my parents, and to my wife who have all supported me so strongly. I really feel like I owe you all an appreciation dinner."

New Senate Hand Aided Democrats

When William A. Blakley was appointed to the U. S. Senate in 1957, he was a political unknown in Texas. But Washington awaited his arrival with great interest. So close was the party balance in the Senate that Blakley's vote was the difference between Democratic and Republican control.

True to his Democratic tradition, Bill Blakley voted with his fellow Democrats. They have been in control ever since.

Now Bill Blakley seeks his first elective term in the U. S. Senate. A vote for Blakley is a vote for sound, Democratic government.
