Moreman-Carter

The First Methodist Church in Panhandle was the scene of the wedding of Miss Freddie Jo Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carter of Panhandle, and Jack Arnold Moreman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Moreman, Hedley. The double ring vows were read by Rev. James Carter, minister, on June 12th at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Merle Lewellen, organist, presented traditional selections and accompanied Mrs. Charles Johnson, Matador, vocalist. Miss Kay Brown Stinnett, gave a reading by Elizabeth Browning, "How Do I Love Thee?"

The church was decorated with palms, and candelabra backing the choir rail were covered with candles and huckleberry. The communion table was set with the altar pieces and a basket of white daisies. A kneeling bench completed the arrangement.

Miss Frances Jones, Plainview, and Miss Carol Sweny, Sunray, were candlelighters. Their maize cotton dresses were fashioned with low scoop necks and tucked bodices edged with lace. Their flowers were wristlets of daisies.

Miss Beth Bulls, Earth, was maid of honor. Miss Maetha Kay Pierce, Ft. Worth, was junior bridesmaid. Their identical dresses of maize silk organza were fashioned on princess lines with bouffant skirts. They wore petal half-hats of silk organza and carried bouquets of white daisies.

Miss Hylasue Welch, Sunray, served as flower girl. She wore a white organdy dress with tucked bodice, three quarter length puffed sleeves, and a tiny cap of white daisies. She carried a basket of daisy petals.

Best man was David Moreman, Hedley, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Dr. Clifford Whitmore, Harrison, Ark., brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Dr. Robert Allison, Crosbyton; and Buster Ivory, Pampa.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal gown of peau de soie with appliques of French Alencon embroidered lace flowers. The pointed bodice was accented with a circlet neckline edged with matching re embroidered lace flowers and tiny short sleeves above a bouffant skirt falling into a chapel sweep. Her French illusion veil was attached to a lace crown embroidered in seed pearls and sequins and she wore matching mitts of peau de soie. She carried a white prayer book with white roses and stephanotis.

A reception in the War Memorial Building followed the ceremony. Mrs. Clifford Whitmore registered guests. Mrs. Kent Dunman, Canyon, and Mrs. Mack Hudson, Dumas, with Mrs. Buster Ivory presided. Miss Frances Jones played musical selections and Miss Hope Welch, Sunray, passed tiny rice bags.

Mrs. Moreman is a graduate of Sunray High School and of West Texas State College, Canyon. She was a cheer leader, served on Student Council and Methodist Student Union. She was a member of Pi Omega Sorority, now affiliated with Zeta Tau Alpha. She has taught in the Panhandle grade school the past year.

Mr. Moreman was active in FFA in Hedley High School where he graduated. He has a BS degree in Animal Science from Texas Tech at Lubbock where he was a member of the Block and Bridle and the Aggie Club, and has just completed a tour of duty in Korea.

Mr. and Mrs. Moreman will be at home in Killeen, where the bridegroom will finish duty with the U. S. Army as a specialist in the Veterinarian Corps.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moreman and Mrs. Myrtella Deahl hosted a rehearsal dinner at Ruby's Cafe in Panhandle Thursday night.

One or two more cars will be needed to take the Scouts to camp Sunday. If you can take a car please get in touch with some of the Scouts.

Scoutmaster Boaz Stotts made a remark a while back that someone should write a song about Camp Kiowah. Some of the guys around Camp told him that he had the job. Here is what he came up with. Stotts said that he doesn't think that it will make the Hit Parade, but the boys around camp like it.

Camp Ki-o-Wah

Camp Ki o-Wah is a place we know,
Camp Ki o Wah where the boy scouts go.

Scouts are happy all the day,
As they run, swim, and play.
Camp Ki-o-Wah on O. A. night
Gives you a thrill and big delight,
With the O A brothers all so true
They will be a friend to you.

Camp Ki o Wah and its campfire bright
Makes you want to stay awake all night,

Burning, crackling all the while,
Makes you really laugh and smile.
Camp Ki-o Wah is an ideal spot
When the summer sun is good and hot,
With its lake so cool and shade trees tall,
Best camping place of them all.
Chorus:
Camp, Camp, Camp Ki-o-Wah,
Camp, Camp, Camp Ki-o Wah,
Camp Ki-o Wah is lots of fun
When you are playing in the summer sun.
